

Hidden 1681

Chapter 1681 Found Clues

Perhaps one of them went back to watch Nirvana Entertainment while the other watched Xu Zhiqin.

He put down the phone and got into the car. That was when Su Bei's call came.

He picked it up, and Su Bei's voice was filled with excitement. "Brother, come back quickly. I've made a new discovery!"

Without hesitation, He Xuyan stepped on the accelerator and went straight to the hotel where Su Bei was.

!!

...

In S Country.

The people in charge of the two TV stations that had already paid for the TV show 'Beautiful Minds' that Nirvana Entertainment invested in met up with Fu Yujia.

With Xu Zhiqin's accident, the TV show would not be delivered as scheduled.

If she stayed overseas for a year or two like the previous singer, it would be too late.

Sheng Tang Entertainment naturally had to take advantage of this time to rope these resources under their name.

After some consideration, the person in charge decided to shoulder the responsibility and cancel the contract with Nirvana Entertainment.

After all, the time that the TV station had booked could not be changed. It was impossible for the audience at home to be left waiting for a TV show that couldn't air.

And the price Fu Yujia offered was very generous. It was impossible for them to overlook the profits.

Fu Yujia watched as the two parties signed the contract. A red stamp was stamped on their names, and the cooperation was considered a success.

"I hope for a pleasant cooperation." Fu Yujia extended her hand.

The two people in charge walked out and shook their heads secretly. "It's really a pity about Nirvana Entertainment."

"Do you think it's possible to shoot as scheduled?"

"That's impossible. I'm sure you know what's going on in Osland. It's impossible for them to let go of a person who caught a creature they regard as a god so easily. It doesn't matter whether she did it on purpose or not."

"Xu Zhiqin crossed the line."

“Sigh. What a pity. I was very optimistic about this TV show.”

...

He Xuyan quickly arrived at the hotel room.

Su Bei pulled him into the room and pointed at a very small font on a piece of paper. She read, “Brother, listen to this. Osland’s divine fish is known as the Orlando double-tailed finfish, also known as the long-tailed fish. As it only appears in the shallows when the seawater is calm, its appearance marks good weather. Over the years, Osland has worshipped it as a divine fish. It’s loved and respected by everyone. It carries everyone’s vision for a good life.

“In recent years, because of its scarcity, Osland has classified it as a national-level protected creature.

“Listen to this part. Its body secretes a kind of mucus. After it sticks to your hand, even if it’s colorless and transparent, it’ll take two weeks to completely erase the traces. However, in recent years, very few people have touched this fish. This characteristic has been nearly forgotten.

“Listen to this part again. Generally speaking, this kind of fish will only secrete this kind of mucus when it’s threatened, such as when it’s hunted, injured, or about to die. Everyone respects this fish, so they naturally won’t hunt or hurt it. This also means very few people have had this kind of mucus on their hands.”

He Xuyan understood what Su Bei meant and said, “So, we just need to prove that Zhiqin and Xiao Ling don’t have the fish’s mucus on their hands to prove that they didn’t actually touch the fish?”

“Yes. Zhiqin definitely didn’t touch it. As for Xiao Ling, because this fish was sent here in vacuum packaging, she probably hasn’t touched it either,” Su Bei said.

He Xuyan glanced at the piece of paper. This piece of news was indeed worth rejoicing over, but looking at this thin piece of paper, he didn’t know where it came from or if the information written on it was accurate.

Su Bei could tell that he was worried. She was afraid that the greater the hope, the greater the disappointment. She said, “I’ve checked a lot of information, but I didn’t find this. I only found this in a corner of the local library today. I made a copy and took it out. Regardless, it’s an opportunity.”

He Xuyan nodded. “I understand. I’ll go look for Mr. Andrew immediately.”

Su Bei nodded and said, “By the way, I still want to look for Wen Kaiwei. I want to know if he has that mucus on his hands.”

“It’s too dangerous for you to go looking for him. I’d better go.”

“No, no, no. I’ve already thought of a way. You’d better look for Mr. Andrew.”

He Xuyan was pushed out by her. There was no time to lose. He could only look for Mr. Andrew first.

“Is that true?” Andrew asked. As a local, he had never heard of such a thing.

It was mainly because when the locals saw this kind of fish or even similar fish, they would worship them as gods and hurriedly make wishes to bless them. If they found similar fish, they would also hurriedly release them. They were very pious and would not touch them at all.

Therefore, very few people knew about the mucus.

He Xuyan said, "This matter concerns the innocence of two people, so I ask you to investigate as soon as possible."

"Alright, I'll get someone to dissect the body of the divine fish so that we can confirm it. I still have to consult biology experts about the other things."

"Mr. Andrew, please hurry."

The other party immediately agreed.

As for Su Bei, she quickly contacted a very young and beautiful local woman and gave her a sum of money to help with something.

Su Bei saw through the whole process.

The woman quickly agreed.

Wen Kaiwei planned to stay for another day before leaving Osland. After all, this matter was about to be settled.

Xu Zhiqin's matter should have no room for reversal. The TV stations in the country had also abandoned Nirvana Entertainment and switched to air Sheng Tang Entertainment's new show.

There was no point in staying here.

On his last day here, he went to meet his friend and drove onto the spacious road in the suburbs.

A moment later, his car was grazed by a car that was driving in the opposite direction.

Wen Kaiwei got out of the car angrily and was about to scold the other party when a young and beautiful woman got out of the other car. She apologized repeatedly in broken S Country language. "I'm sorry, I'm sorry, sir. I'm really sorry. I almost hit you. Are you okay?"

Seeing that the other party was a woman, Wen Kaiwei could not argue with her. He said gentlemanly, "Forget it. Just take it as though I was unlucky today."

"Sir, I see that your hand is bleeding. Shall I accompany you for a check-up?" The beauty stepped forward and held his hand. She was very enthusiastic and bold.

However, the people of Osland were all like this. Wen Kaiwei did not find it strange.

Wen Kaiwei was not a lustful person and was sincere with Fu Yujia. When the other party came and held his hand, he wanted to pull back. However, when he retracted his hand, he realized that his palm had been grazed somewhere and was indeed bleeding a lot.

Chapter 1682 Innocence

“The hospital is nearby. Let me take you to get your hand bandaged.” The beauty took out her phone and called the police and insurance company. Her attitude was very sincere.

Wen Kaiwei could not argue with her. The blood on his hand annoyed him. He really could not go to his friend’s banquet with blood on his hands.

Seeing that the insurance company and the police had both arrived, there should be no problem. Wen Kaiwei followed them to the hospital for simple treatment and examination.

Fortunately, it was just a light scratch.

The police and the insurance company were very polite and repeatedly apologized to him. The beautiful woman also sent him out.

Although Wen Kaiwei had experienced such a small episode, everyone was flattering him, which made him rather happy. After coming out, he did not drive his own car anymore. His friend had sent a car to come pick him up, and he happily attended the seaside party held by his friend!

At the same time, Mr. Andrew responded to He Xuyan as quickly as possible.

“Director He, the biological experts we contacted have already given us a response. They said that the divine fish will indeed secrete a special colorless and transparent mucus when it’s in danger and or being hunted. Once this mucus touches a person’s skin, it’ll take at least two weeks to remove all traces of it. To confirm if someone has touched the fish, we only need to drip a special reagent on their skin to prove it. Director He, please come over.”

He Xuyan suppressed his thumping heart and said, “I’ll be right there.”

He knocked on the door of Su Bei’s room and could not hide his joy. “Su Bei, the information you found the other day has been verified to be true.”

“So we just need to check Zhiqin and Xiao Ling’s skin to prove their innocence?”

“Yes. Mr. Andrew invited us over.”

Su Bei immediately changed her clothes and got into He Xuyan’s car.

She was very confident in Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling, so the two of them were much more relaxed on the way there.

Mr. Andrew received the two of them. “Mr. Su, Director He, the method you mentioned has been confirmed to be effective by biological experts. We can do the test immediately.”

“Okay.”

Mr. Andrew smiled and said, “I wonder where you found out about this? Even a local like me has to say that I’m impressed.”

Su Bei smiled and said, “I just happened to see it in the local library.”

Mr. Andrew was extremely impressed. To be honest, if he wasn't the one dealing with this matter, his understanding of this fish would be very limited. What everyone said about it being worshipped like a god was only passed down by word of mouth. In reality, everyone rarely saw this fish. If he wanted to know more about it, he might really have to specially read professional books.

However, why would ordinary people read such books?

Even though they had been in customs for so long, they had only handled two such incidents.

The first time was with that singer, and the second time was with Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling.

The biological expert arrived. He was wearing a white coat and a mask. He was holding a medical kit in his hand.

Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling were invited out.

Customs officers, the police, and the biological research lab had arranged for representatives to be present to witness what unfolded next.

He Xuyan was the one who arranged for all these people to be present.

Otherwise, this case might get delayed and they could not afford that.

Seeing He Xuyan and Su Bei attending in formal attire, Xu Zhiqin felt relieved.

She believed in herself.

She also believed that Su Bei and He Xuyan would definitely help her clear her name.

Only Xiao Ling was exceptionally nervous. This was the first time she had experienced such a big scene in her life. She was so nervous that she was about to cry.

Xu Zhiqin tilted her head and said, "It's okay, Xiao Ling."

Hearing this, she calmed down a little.

The biology expert said something, and the interpreter translated, "Now, we'll drip a special reagent on their hands, arms, legs, abdomen, and other key spots to see if they've touched the divine fish."

Even if they had worn gloves to deal with the fish, the fish's mucus was very slimy and sticky. Even gloves could not completely block it.

Testing various spots of their bodies could help protect their innocence to the greatest extent.

The reason why the previous singer was convicted so quickly was that although she did not catch this fish by accident, she had taken photos herself and posted them on her WeChat Moments. Hence, the evidence was conclusive and there was no room for negotiation.

As a result, no one suggested testing her for mucus.

In the end, the company spent a lot of money to avoid her going to jail for five years, but in the end, her career was still sacrificed.

This time, Xu Zhiqin and the others used a brand new method to solve the problem. Whether the two were innocent or not would soon be revealed.

Xu Zhiqin sat down calmly and stretched out her arms and legs.

The video recorder at the side recorded the entire process.

A female biology expert stepped forward and dripped the reagent on her.

Xiao Ling's heart was in her mouth. She looked at Xu Zhiqin and confirmed that she had never touched these things before. However, at this moment, she was still feeling unsure.

A moment later, Xu Zhiqin's limbs and abdomen turned light blue. Xiao Ling's expression changed drastically.

Xiao Ling was also asked to sit down so that the reagent could be dripped on her.

Soon, a light blue color appeared on her body.

Su Bei tugged at He Xuyan's sleeve worriedly. His expression was also very solemn.

They didn't know what light blue meant.

They did not find any information on this beforehand.

The biology expert said, "Through the test of this reagent, we've determined that neither Xu Zhiqin nor Xiao Ling has ever touched an Orlando double-tailed finfish. We didn't find any traces of mucus on them. The mucus of an Orlando double-tailed finfish can penetrate silicone, rubber, plastic, and all other gloves. Since we didn't find any mucus on them, we can confirm that they've never touched this fish."

He spoke in English. After Su Bei and He Xuyan heard this, they finally smiled.

When Xiao Ling heard the interpreter's words, she cried with joy. She hugged Xu Zhiqin and said, "We're fine! We're innocent!"

Su Bei chuckled and said in a low voice, "Fortunately, when those people gave Xiao Ling the vacuum-packaged Orlando double-tailed finfish, they also used a special paper wrapper. Xiao Ling took it and casually glanced at it before putting it in the suitcase. Otherwise, it would've been really hard to explain."

Chapter 1683 Really Cold

He Xuyan also revealed a look of joy. "Perhaps those people were afraid that Xiao Ling would throw it away, so they specially packaged it."

He stood up and walked toward Xu Zhiqin, pulling her into his arms.

Mr. Andrew walked over and said with a smile, "Director He, Mr. Su, since we've proven Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling's innocence and we've also done a series of legal tests, you can take them away now."

He Xuyan nodded. Mr. Andrew then apologized to Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling.

!!

Xu Zhiqin did not dwell on this. Mr. Andrew was just doing his job. She did not need to make things difficult for him.

“Mr. Andrew, don’t you find it strange? If Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling didn’t catch this fish, then who did?” Su Bei asked.

Mr. Andrew was immediately stunned. The carcass of an Orlando double-tailed finfish was still placed in the customs. This matter was like a ticking time bomb.

If they could not give the citizens an explanation, the power of the bomb would blast everyone involved into pieces.

Mr. Andrew looked helpless. “I think we can only leave this matter to the police. As for the outcome..”

He sighed, obviously not hopeful about the results of the investigation.

“Mr. Andrew, I have a clue for you.” Su Bei smiled.

“President Su, do you have any clues?” Mr. Andrew was immediately interested.

Su Bei calmly explained what she knew and what she had investigated. “When that person was in the hospital, he left some cotton swabs that were used to wipe his hands. I believe that with the amount of mucus left behind by the Orlando double-tailed finfish, the cotton swabs will leave a small mark.”

She reached out and handed the sealed cotton swab to Mr. Andrew.

“That’s all I can do, Mr. Andrew. And I especially appreciate your hospitality and help in this matter. Goodbye.”

Mr. Andrew accepted the cotton swab and immediately walked toward the police.

Xiao Ling and Xu Zhiqin walked out and sighed as they looked at the blue sky outside.

They had only stayed inside for a short five days. No matter how they looked at it, they were saved very quickly after such a thing had happened.

However, the psychological pressure and torture they endured in just five days were unimaginable to ordinary people.

Xiao Ling held Xu Zhiqin’s hand. “Zhiqin, Zhiqin, look! There are birds over there! Oh my God, I’m so happy! I can see the sky. I’m so happy! I can breathe in fresh air. I’m so happy!”

Xu Zhiqin nodded and looked at the large white clouds above her head.

She seemed to cherish everything that she did not think much of in the past.

He Xuyan reached out and pulled her into his arms, lowering his head to kiss her.

Xiao Ling, who was the third wheel, quickly ran to the side. She blushed and did not dare to look at them.

Su Bei patted her shoulder. “I’ll take you to eat something delicious.”

Xiao Ling's face turned even redder. Although President Su looked ordinary at a glance, he was very decisive and manly.

Especially this time, Xiao Ling had personally seen and experienced it. Only then did she know that President Su was far more powerful than the rumors. She was even more impressed with him.

Seeing his intimate gesture, Xiao Ling's heart skipped a beat.

He Xuyan held Xu Zhiqin's hand and followed them.

Xu Zhiqin said, "Then let's buy tickets for tomorrow. I want to finish filming my TV show as soon as possible."

"Okay." He Xuyan nodded.

Work had been delayed for less than a week. It was not a big problem to rush work in the later stages.

However, Su Bei had already received news that both TV stations had requested a refund on their deposits.

She rubbed the space between her eyebrows. She would probably have to look for another TV station when she got home.

However, it was not a big deal. The most important thing was that Xu Zhiqin was fine.

After dinner, He Xuyan pulled Xu Zhiqin to his room.

Su Bei laughed and called Lu Heting, saying that she was going back tomorrow.

"Yes, I'll pick you up." The man's voice was filled with longing.

Although Su Bei had reported everything to him in detail in the past few days, he was still filled with worry.

Knowing that she was going home, he was anxious to pick her up.

Su Bei calmed him down and called Yue Ze.

"Brother Yue Ze, Zhiqin and Xiao Ling are fine now. We've picked them up. We'll all be flying back tomorrow."

Yue Ze sighed. "Thank goodness!"

"Has there been a lot of negative news recently?"

Yue Ze sighed. "Of course. Recently, Nirvana Entertainment and Zhiqin have been developing well. They've blocked the path of many people. Seeing that something has happened to her, naturally, some people want to add insult to injury. Sheng Tang Entertainment was the first to take action. I've already tried my best to suppress the news."

"Thank you, Brother Yue Ze."

Yue Ze was about to say that this was what he should do when he heard Su Bei say, "In that case, please spread the word about this matter in the next two days, especially about the seriousness of attempting to take away Orlando double-tailed finfish."

Although Yue Ze did not know the exact situation, since Su Bei had already brought Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling back, there would not be a big problem.

In that case, Su Bei must have her own intentions.

Xu Zhiqin's matter had not stopped blowing up on the internet.

Yue Ze got someone to release this round of information about the Orlando double-tailed finfish, pushing it to the top of the trending searches.

[The singer from before also caught a double-tailed finfish by accident. In the end, the singer's company tried their best only for the singer to come back a year later. I wonder how long it'll take for Xu Zhiqin to be released this time?]

[I think Xu Zhiqin is really done for this time. Even if Nirvana Entertainment has some connections, they won't be useful in a place like Osland.]

[I'm also mourning for that fish. Who did it offend to encounter such an undeserved calamity?]

[Many celebrities are really uncultured and ignorant. They haven't even learned the most basic science.]

[Many people from Nirvana Entertainment will be implicated this time. Beautiful Minds will probably be doomed.]

[I really didn't expect Xu Zhiqin to end up like this.]

Xu Zhiqin's fans didn't believe that she would do such a thing. They started an event on Weibo to wait for Xu Zhiqin to come back.

However, no one in the industry believed that Xu Zhiqin could come back.

Even the internal department of Nirvana Entertainment was reminding Yue Ze that he could promote other actresses who had a similar image to Xu Zhiqin to take over her work. This was to prevent her work from falling into the hands of artistes from other companies.

Chapter 1684 Furious And Shocked!

Yue Ze was unmoved.

Xu Zhiqin's matter was still being discussed.

Wen Kaiwei turned on his phone and browsed through the news.

His face was full of smiles. He knew that Nirvana Entertainment had no hope of turning the tables now.

When he heard that Sheng Tang Entertainment had taken this opportunity to sell their new show to the two huge TV stations and snatch the pie from Nirvana Entertainment, he revealed a satisfied smile.

'Jia Jia, this is all I can do to help you.'

He would board the plane tomorrow. He hoped that Fu Yujia would welcome him with a sincere smile.

The next morning, #XuZhiqinIsReturningToTheCountry was trending.

[Xu Zhiqin has already bought a plane ticket back to the country. After five days of investigation in Osland, she was determined to have nothing to do with the matter. She'll be back soon to continue filming the TV show!]

News spread like wildfire.

It caused too many people to be surprised.

[Congratulations on Zhiqin's return to the country! I knew it! You're innocent. We'll always believe in you and support you!]

The fans were very happy. Xu Zhiqin did not let them down. Because of this matter, they became more loyal to Xu Zhiqin.

However, the others were a little puzzled. [That's an Orlando double-tailed finfish! It was found in Xu Zhiqin's suitcase! How did she manage to come back?]

[The singer from last time couldn't get away after a long time. In the end, the singer was jailed and their career tanked! The singer's company back then was several times bigger than Nirvana Entertainment!]

[Nirvana Entertainment is really awesome. Although I don't know how they did it, I'm impressed!]

[I heard that Director He put down his work and went over. This time, it might not be because of Nirvana Entertainment. I think it's most likely because Director He mediated.]

[But no matter what, it's indeed surprising that Xu Zhiqin can come back so quickly.]

With this wave of publicity, Beautiful Minds was also promoted. Everyone knew that there was still the last part of Beautiful Minds that had to be filmed. Xu Zhiqin would continue after she came back. After that, the TV show would surely become popular.

Although Xu Zhiqin had wasted five days, the publicity this time was more effective than professional publicity.

When Wen Kaiwei saw the news, he was shocked and furious!

How could Osland treat this matter so lightly?

The incident with the singer last time was still vivid in his mind. He had also flipped through many newspapers and news at that time to confirm the facts. He had thought of such a wonderful idea to trip up Nirvana Entertainment!

In order not to let the matter be exposed and let more people find out about the scandal, he even executed the plan himself!

He even went fishing in the sea himself!

He spent a few days diving into the deep sea and finally saw the creature. He spent a lot of effort fishing it and sending it to Xiao Ling, hoping that Nirvana Entertainment would make a big mistake in this matter. In the end, was this how the officials in Osland did things?

Why?

Before Wen Kaiwei could dwell on it, his assistant reminded him, "Mr. Wei, it's almost time for your flight."

Wen Kaiwei gave up on thinking about it in the meantime. He picked up his coat and hurried out of the hotel room. His assistant followed behind him with a suitcase.

The two of them had just reached the hotel lobby when a group of uniformed Osland police officers rushed over and surrounded them.

The other party showed their IDs and introduced themselves. They asked directly, "Are you Mr. Wen Kaiwei?"

"Yes, I am. Why are you looking for me?" Wen Kaiwei was fluent in foreign languages and spoke proudly.

"We suspect that you're related to the case of the Orlando double-tailed finfish that was caught and killed. Please cooperate with us when we go back to investigate." The other party's attitude was cold.

Wen Kaiwei was very surprised.

Instead of investigating Xu Zhiqin and Xiao Ling, the police turned their attention to him?

Who provided the clues?

However, he was fearless. Not only did no one know what he had done, but the Wen family also had some power in Osland. These police officers wanted him to be convicted? Where was the evidence?

He said proudly, "I can cooperate with your investigation, but my plane is about to take off. I hope you can bear the consequences of delaying my work."

"Please come back with us for the investigation." The police expressionlessly led him into the police car, leaving Wen Kaiwei's assistant dumbfounded.

Wasn't... Wasn't this Xu Zhiqin's matter? Why was it related to Mr. Wen now?

Wen Kaiwei followed the police back to the investigation room without any qualms.

His assistant must have already contacted the Wen family and the lawyers. They would be able to bring people to bail him out soon.

He was not an ordinary person.

A moment later, the police came in to ask questions.

"May I ask if you've ever come into contact with an Orlando double-tailed finfish?"

"No." Wen Kaiwei didn't hesitate.

"Then have you touched it in any way?"

“No,” he responded.

“You didn’t encounter it when you were diving in the deep sea?”

“No.”

“Are you sure?”

Wen Kaiwei smiled. “Of course, I’m sure. I’m not an ignorant child. A few years ago, that singer was imprisoned for catching an Orlando double-tailed finfish. I’ve seen the reports.”

“So you’re sure you didn’t bump into anything when you were diving in the deep sea?”

“Definitely not,” Wen Kaiwei said. “I’m here on a trip, so I naturally know the local customs here.”

“So have you ever touched other fish?”

“I’m not sure about that. After all, who doesn’t love seafood?” Wen Kaiwei said humorously.

“Now, please cooperate with us as we do a test.”

The other party had invited a biological researcher, the police chief, and the customs commissioner to witness the test being carried out.

Wen Kaiwei’s expression changed slightly.

However, he did not know about the fish’s mucus, so he did not know what they were testing.

Looking at these professional instruments and the reagent, he was very calm.

The video recorder beside him was turned on to record everything that was about to happen.

Some of the reagent was dripped onto his palm.

A moment later, the colorless reagent in his palm turned bright red.

Immediately after, the same color appeared on his legs and abdomen.

The expressions of the people around him were very solemn.

Wen Kaiwei sensed the stiffness in the atmosphere.

“What exactly are you testing?” he asked involuntarily.

“I’m sorry, Mr. Wen Kewei. You’re under arrest!” The police officer stepped forward expressionlessly and handcuffed him. His attitude was even colder than before!

...

In S Country.

Su Bei had just arrived at Jingdu Airport.

He Xuyan and Su Bei accompanied Xu Zhiqin back to the country.

There were as many fans as there were clouds at the scene.

There were also many reporters.

Chapter 1685 Enemy Attack

Facing the reporters, Xu Zhiqin said calmly, "What happened this time was actually a misunderstanding. My assistant Xiao Ling and I have never touched any Orlando double-tailed finfish, let alone tried to bring one back to the country. Under the joint inspection and witness of the police, customs officers, and biological experts in Osland, Xiao Ling and I cleared our names. Thank you for giving me your attention. Please pay more attention to my work, Beautiful Minds."

"So you were framed?"

"Do you know who did such a thing?"

"Is it a competitor or a personal enemy?"

!!

Xu Zhiqin smiled. "I'm not too sure about that. But Osland is also a country ruled by law. This matter involves the safety and freedom of foreign tourists in their country. I believe they'll make their own judgment soon."

...

The news of Xu Zhiqin's return to the country gave everyone in Nirvana Entertainment and the entire production team of Beautiful Minds a boost.

Xu Zhiqin was fine. This investment and the entire production team had come back to life.

Although the two TV stations were a little regretful now, they weren't completely disheartened. Since they had already signed a contract with Fu Yujia for the new show, they had no choice but to give up on Nirvana Entertainment.

Soon, Su Bei arrived at the two TV stations with her lawyer and contract.

"We haven't breached the contract yet, but the two of you did. In that case, we'll demand compensation according to the contract."

The two TV stations had nothing to say. However, it happened so suddenly that they were only thinking about the overall interests of the TV stations. It could not be considered a big mistake.

It was precisely because Su Bei knew this that although her attitude was tough, she was not aggressive.

She understood the principle of parting on good terms better than anyone else.

After receiving the penalty for breach of contract, she received more contract invitations from other TV stations. There were still many things she needed to do next.

When Fu Yujia heard that Xu Zhiqin had returned, she was not particularly surprised. "Su Lu is very good at doing things. I've underestimated him."

"I heard that in just a few days, they convinced the Osland government to give Xu Zhiqin a certificate of acquittal. This matter has no impact on Nirvana Entertainment at all," Han Xu said.

“That’s their good fortune.” But how could it not affect them at all?

Fu Yujia did not believe it.

She took this opportunity to sell the TV show that Sheng Tang Entertainment invested in for a good price.

Han Xu’s phone rang. He took it to the side and answered it. Then, his expression changed as he said, “Miss Fu, there’s bad news.”

“What is it?”

“Mr. Wen was arrested in Osland. He was convicted of fishing and killing the precious fish, the Orlando double-tailed finfish.”

“What?” Fu Yujia stood up in shock. “Is this misinformation or the truth?”

Han Xu hurriedly made a few more calls to verify it. His face was slightly pale as he said, “Miss Fu, it’s the truth. Mr. Wen’s assistant saw him being taken away with his own eyes. Moreover, the officials have already given conclusive evidence to verify this. Currently, the Wen family has already arranged for a lawyer to contact him.”

Fu Yujia said, “Go over immediately! Also, block the news!”

Han Xu immediately went to book a plane ticket.

But how could the news be blocked?

Su Bei was the one who found out the truth. She had first-hand information.

Wen Kaiwei had just been convicted when the news was reported domestically.

[Oh my God, it was actually Wen Kaiwei! But who is Wen Kaiwei?]

[He’s a big shareholder in Sheng Tang Entertainment and is very famous. His family is powerful. However, it’s really surprising that a dignified young master would do such a thing.]

[What’s there to be surprised about? I heard that when Xu Zhiqin was first arrested, Sheng Tang Entertainment intercepted a lot of resources from Nirvana Entertainment. I didn’t expect Sheng Tang Entertainment to really be a bunch of rats. Even a shareholder stepped out to frame a small artiste.]

[I wonder if there’s any inside story to this?]

[What inside story can there be? The laws overseas are very strict. It’s not that they’re not strict in our country, but in our country, families like the Wen family and the Fu family would have some power to deal with such things. But if you commit a crime in Osland, they don’t care who you are!]

[That’s right. Besides, that fish is precious and is a god in the locals’ hearts. Although it’s a little superstitious, you can’t disrespect the faith of others! I think Wen Kaiwei is going to suffer this time.]

[To be honest, these rich second-generation heirs should be properly disciplined. They’ve always been arrogant and domineering. They only know how to spend money. Now, they’ve been humiliated overseas!]

The matter had a huge impact. Wen Kaiwei's family did not hesitate to invite a lawyer like Fu Xing.

However, the evidence was conclusive. Although Fu Xing tried his best and was very capable, Wen Kaiwei was still sentenced to five years of imprisonment.

The sentence was even a year and a half longer than what the singer got back then.

All of this was mainly because after the singer accidentally caught the Orlando double-tailed finfish back then, they only posted it on their Moments and casually kept the fish in the bathtub. They almost killed the fish, but they didn't really kill it. It was only seriously injured.

As for Wen Kaiwei, he had slaughtered the fish alive.

The biology expert had already done some research. "The more harm this fish suffers, the more mucus it secretes. This is actually a way to save its life. A week has passed since the incident, but a huge amount of mucus was still found on Wen Kaiwei's hand. It shows how cruel he was when he killed the fish."

This was why although Fu Xing tried his best to defend Wen Kaiwei, he could only reduce his sentence slightly.

After the biological expert's words were posted online, Wen Kaiwei received another round of criticism from netizens.

Sheng Tang Entertainment was also criticized by others.

Fu Yujia was so angry that her nostrils flared. She had not eaten for three days.

She had no idea what was going on, but now, she was implicated and scolded.

The shareholders and higher-ups in the company were also very dissatisfied. Fu Yujia was under a lot of pressure because she was being attacked by both sides.

The Wen family also had some complaints about Fu Yujia. They felt that the reason why Wen Kaiwei made a mistake was that he was encouraged by Fu Yujia and was bewitched by her.

Especially Madam Wen. She even pointed out that Fu Yujia was the one who secretly instructed her son to do it and take the blame for her.

It caused the harmonious relationship between the Fu and Wen families to become a mess overnight.

Initially, Old Master Fu thought that his granddaughter would take the money and go out to train herself. It didn't matter if she lost or won. He just treated it as training her.

Therefore, even when something happened to Sheng Tang Entertainment previously, as long as Fu Yujia was not hurt, he would turn a blind eye.

Chapter 1686 Trash

However, this time, there was a huge implication. Even the Wen family was in trouble. Old Master Fu could not tolerate it and called Fu Yujia home.

"From today onward, don't worry about the company's matters. Leave everything to Han Xu! Come home and stay here!"

Fu Yujia pinched her fingers, unable to accept this reality.

How could she go against Su Bei if she went back?

“Just look at what you’re doing now!” Old Master Fu said angrily.

After causing Wen Kaiwei to go to prison and serve his sentence overseas, Old Master Fu felt that he had let down his old friend.

“I didn’t ask him to do it. I had no idea about this at all.”

Old Master Fu sighed. “He did it for you.”

Seeing that Fu Yujia had lowered her head, he said, “Come back. I’ll still help you with the Lu family, alright?”

Fu Yujia wanted to blurt out, “It’s because of you that Lu Heting got married without even considering me a few years ago.”

However, she still swallowed her words.

She said, “Recently, I received a very good script, and I’m about to invest in it. Grandpa, give me one last chance. If this TV show doesn’t succeed, I’ll come back willingly. If it succeeds, let me do what I want to do.”

Old Master Fu thought for a moment and said, “Then this is your last chance. Don’t think too much about the rest.”

“Yes, I’ll seize this last opportunity.”

She had gotten professionals to read the script she received. They all said that it had a grand structure, a rigorous plot, and meticulous logic. It was completely different from the trash on the market.

As long as they invested in it, Sheng Tang Entertainment would have no problem turning the tables.

Moreover, this screenwriter was very famous in the industry. With his fame, there was no need to worry about not being able to build an excellent production team.

Without making a name for herself in the entertainment industry, Fu Yujia was really unwilling to leave just like that!

After Fu Yujia left, Old Master Fu looked for Fu Xing. “This time, you’ll assist your sister.”

“Grandpa, there’s really no need to indulge her in liking Lu Heting.” Fu Xing didn’t even look up.

“There’s no need, but building a good relationship with the Lu family is beneficial. It’s very important to let the Lu family know her pious attitude.”

Fu Xing sneered. To put it bluntly, everything was for benefits.

The adult world was not that simple.

It was only Fu Yujia who had made becoming Mrs. Lu her main goal in life.

However, did she want to be Mrs. Lu who was exclusively Lu Heting's or the powerful Mrs. Lu of the Lu family?

...

After Xu Zhiqin returned, she finished filming Beautiful Minds. Only then did she have time to accept everyone's welcome after her return from Osland.

After dinner, Su Bei got into Lu Heting's car.

The night was gentle, and the breeze was warm. She was very relaxed.

A moment later, she realized that Lu Heting was driving in another direction.

"Where are we going?" Su Bei asked. From the corner of her eye, she saw a car following them.

It turned out that Lu Heting was avoiding the car.

"Sit tight," Lu Heting reminded gently and began to speed up.

He was a good driver. A moment later, he rounded two streets and shook off the car.

Su Bei sighed inwardly. As expected of a man who had been a chauffeur. His driving skills were really good.

After parking the car, Lu Heting asked Lu Hang to check the information of the person who followed his car tonight.

The security measures around Lu Heting had always been good. It had been a long time since anyone followed him or Su Bei so openly.

Soon, Lu Hang sent a message.

[It's a small-time screenwriter. His name is Liang You. He was jailed for driving while drunk and was there for three years. He only came out a few days ago.] Lu Hang gave this investigation result.

'Sounds like a dangerous person.'

[Protect Su Bei well.]

Lu Hang sent that person's photo to the bodyguards and Su Bei.

Su Bei did not know this person at all, but she had no personal grudge against him. She did not know why he was following her car.

...

Just as Fu Yujia was preparing to shoot the TV show 'Unhindered Underworld', Su Bei received a script.

After reading the outline, she was inspired by the world that was filled with power struggles but didn't lack human nature. She immediately contacted the screenwriter and met him the next day.

When she contacted the screenwriter, she realized that his name was Liang You. He was the screenwriter who followed her and Lu Heting's car the other day.

That night, Su Bei wore men's clothes and went out in Su Lu's name.

Could it be that the screenwriter followed her just to have her read his script?

She decided to meet Liang You in the office of Nirvana Entertainment.

The security here was very complete. Even if Liang You wanted to do something, he would have no chance.

When she saw Liang You, Su Bei realized that he was actually very handsome and did not look like someone who had committed a crime. Although his actions were a little weird, he did not give off a bad impression.

She got someone to pour him a cup of coffee and said, "Let's talk about your script, Mr. Liang. You gave me the outline. Are you here today to give me the main text?"

"Yes, I wanted to give you the main text." His voice was very soft, revealing a lack of confidence. "But when I came, I realized that the first half is missing."

As if afraid that Su Bei would reject him, he quickly took out a manuscript. "But I've sorted out the second half and compiled it here. President Su, please take a look."

"Have you followed me before?" Su Bei decided to get straight to the point.

If she couldn't remove the thorn in her side, then there would be no basis for cooperation.

Liang You subconsciously took a deep breath. "You know?"

"What do you think?" Su Bei asked.

"I don't mean any harm, President Su. I've been asking around for a long time. I only dared to give you the outline of this script because I know you have a good eye for things. I followed you because I wanted to see if you were... as the rumors said."

He wanted to know if she was serious about doing things and really cherished talents, or if she was just using money to manipulate capital and play with good talents and scripts.

Su Bei smiled and asked, "Then what do you think of me?"

"During your working hours, you spend half your time in the company, a quarter of your time on set, and a quarter of your time managing artistes. I believe you can put my script to good use and fully showcase this huge world and its spiritual core." Liang You pushed the manuscript in front of her.

These days, there were really not many people who wrote manuscripts by hand.

Chapter 1687 Do You Think You Can Be Where You Are Today?

Su Bei took a look. Liang You's handwriting was very delicate. The words were easy to read. It was obvious that he had put in a lot of effort.

She had only read a few pages. Although it was indeed very attractive, she said, "Mr. Liang, without the contents of the first half, I can't decide if I want to invest in it."

“President Su, give me a chance. I’m already rewriting the first half. Although the first half of the manuscript was indeed lost, I still remember the contents. I’ll make up for it as soon as possible.”

“Then give me a timeline.”

!!

“A month, no, 20 days. I’ll give you the first half in 20 days at most,” Liang You said anxiously.

Su Bei nodded. “Okay, let’s meet in 20 days. I’ll get someone to print a copy of your manuscript. Keep the original copy for yourself.”

Su Bei made a photocopy and sent him out.

After sending Liang You off, Su Bei read the second half seriously.

Although there was no first half, she could imagine the first half of the story with the outline.

It was indeed very exciting and attractive.

With her years of experience reading scripts, Su Bei was very optimistic about this script.

It revolved around a group of people. Every character was vivid and lifelike. No one’s existence was in the service of others.

They all had their own lives and souls. Together, they produced exceptionally powerful vitality and chemistry.

If they could find a suitable team and actors, the final product would be enough to stun everyone. This work would be an unforgettable masterpiece for all the actors involved.

She seriously considered the feasibility of this project.

“Brother Yue Ze, please come in.” Su Bei called Yue Ze in.

After Yue Ze finished reading the script, he exclaimed, “It’s such a good script. Which genius screenwriter wrote it?”

“He’s not a popular screenwriter. He’s just an unknown screenwriter. But I think we can keep our eye out for suitable actors first. I’ll leave this matter to you.”

“That’s right. I already have preliminary candidates in mind. When the time comes, I must get the most suitable actors to act in these roles.”

When she got home that night, Su Bei told Lu Heting about Liang You.

“So he doesn’t mean any harm?” Lu Heting asked.

“I don’t think so. I’ve also taken a look at the information you asked Lu Hang to give me last time. There weren’t any other problems with his imprisonment. It was solely because of drunk driving.”

Lu Heting had heard about the script from Su Bei and knew that she valued talents very much. If she really found such a treasure, she would definitely spare no effort to support it.

He had no problem with that. The only thing he said was, "No matter what you do, don't put yourself in danger."

"With you protecting me, there's no risk at all." Su Bei raised her eyebrows and smiled.

...

Nirvana Entertainment.

Su Bei was reading a document.

Yue Ze knocked on the door and walked in.

He looked a little angry and depressed. "Su Bei, Liang You isn't a good person."

"What happened?"

"Sheng Tang Entertainment has officially announced that they're filming a big production called Bloody World. The director and crew are very good. The plot they announced is very similar to the script Liang You gave us!"

Su Bei flipped open the news and saw that Yue Ze was right.

Yue Ze handed his phone to Su Bei. "I've asked my friend about it. Look, this is the script that my friend got his hands on. Is it the same as Liang You's?"

Su Bei frowned at the photo. It was true.

"Moreover, the screenwriter of Bloody World is Liang Husheng, who has been famous for a long time! He has many representative works and is a very popular screenwriter! Liang You is really unethical!"

Su Bei was indeed a little angry. Since Sheng Tang Entertainment had announced it now, it meant that they must have been preparing for it for a long time. It was not a last-minute idea, and they must have gotten the script a long time before her.

She was almost deceived by Liang You.

"Forget it, then. You don't have to worry about this matter," Su Bei said. "Fortunately, no actual losses were caused."

"The next time I see Liang You, I won't let him off easily!" Yue Ze said ruthlessly.

...

When he saw the news, Liang You was also stunned.

He quickly went to look for Liang Husheng and questioned him, "Uncle, why is my script in your hands? And why does it have nothing to do with me now?"

"Of course, it's because I wrote it. What else could it be?" Liang Hu was almost 50 years old. He was very popular in the circle.

"But you know that I wrote it myself!" Liang You said angrily. "When I showed it to you, you said that you would definitely recommend it to others so that my life would get back on the right track!"

Liang Husheng pulled a long face. "Liang You, your parents died early. If I hadn't given you food to eat, you would have starved to death long ago. After that, I was the one who raised and educated you. Otherwise, do you think you would be where you are today? Let me tell you, what's yours is yours, but what's mine is mine! If you dare to say a word outside, I won't be polite!"

"I've already used those three years to pay back what I owe you." Liang You clenched his fists angrily.

Hearing this, Liang Husheng smiled again and patted him on the shoulder. "Liang You, people have to learn to be flexible. There's no market for a script like yours, and no one will dare to use it. But it's different for me. You know my reputation. How about this..."

He took out a stack of money and said, "Take this money and spend it first. Don't look for me again next time."

Liang Husheng threw down the money and left.

Liang You stood rooted to the ground, not knowing what to say.

After Sheng Tang Entertainment invested in it, the production team officially started filming.

Liang Husheng was busy and had to personally go to the set to watch over the progress, so he naturally had no mood to care about Liang You.

Liang You did not give up and ran to the set.

When he saw Fu Yujia, he rushed over. "Miss Fu!"

Fu Yujia was walking over under the protection of everyone. She was wearing a well-tailored lady's suit jacket, a dress of the same color, and high heels, showing off her aura and arrogance.

Liang You felt a little ashamed in front of her.

Fu Yujia glanced at him and did not take him seriously at all.

The bodyguard at the side pushed Liang You aside. "Go away, don't block the way here!"

"Miss Fu, I wrote the script for Bloody World. It wasn't written by my uncle at all!" Liang You mustered up his courage and shouted.

Liang Husheng walked quickly to Fu Yujia.

Fu Yujia naturally could not be bothered by strangers and got into the car with Liang Husheng.

However, out of caution, she still asked, "Screenwriter Liang, what's up with that person outside?"

Chapter 1688 Trying To Cover Up Something

"Miss Fu, that's my biological nephew. After my brother and sister-in-law passed away, I watched him grow up," Liang Husheng said with a smile. "But later, he did something and went to prison. He has a problem here."

He was pointing at his head.

Fu Yujia nodded. "Then don't let him ruin the reputation of the production team."

Liang Husheng was in his 50s and had been famous for a long time. Liang You was at most in his 20s. It was normal for Fu Yujia not to believe Liang You.

"I know," Liang Husheng replied immediately.

He was secretly angry at Liang You for being insensible. He dared to come to the set after taking his money.

He took out his phone and said something on WeChat.

Liang You was still waiting at the entrance of the set. Fu Yujia refused to listen to him. Was there no one else?

When he saw a group of people, he pulled them aside and said, "I wrote the script for Bloody World. My uncle didn't write it at all!"

The men all looked impatient.

The woman in his grip screamed and ran away in fear.

The security guard came forward and rained punches on him.

Not only did Liang You not dodge, but he still insisted on what he said just now. In return, he received even more ferocious attacks.

The others were all frightened by him, so they could not feel any sympathy for him. Instead, they praised the security guard for being serious and responsible.

Liang You persisted until he collapsed.

...

When Su Bei was talking to Yue Ze, he was obviously a little tired.

"I'm sorry. The child had a fever last night and we had to go to the hospital at the last minute," Yue Ze said.

"Are the child and Lv Shan okay?" Su Bei asked.

"They're okay. It's always like this with children," Yue Ze said as he pinched the space between his eyebrows.

Su Bei smiled. "If you're busy, take two days off. Don't tire yourself out and make your family worry."

Yue Ze nodded and thought of something. "By the way, I saw Liang You in the hospital last night. I heard that he looked for the production team of Bloody World and told them that he wrote the script himself. In the end, he was knocked out by the security guard. A kind person sent him to the hospital, and he only woke up this morning."

Su Bei frowned. "Brother Yue Ze, do you think there's something fishy about this?"

"You think what Liang You said might be true?"

Su Bei shook her head. "I don't have any evidence to say that. Besides, Liang Husheng has indeed written many good scripts before. I'm sure that Liang Husheng is talented. But this matter makes me feel like I should get to the bottom of it."

Yue Ze said, "I heard that Liang Husheng told someone that there's something wrong with Liang You's brain, so he's always talking nonsense. He's probably delusional. Although he's very pitiful, it's not worth spending too much time on him."

Su Bei pondered for a moment.

After a while, Liang You called Su Bei.

Su Bei thought for a while and answered the call.

"President Su, it's Liang You."

"Go ahead."

His voice was a little weak, and it was not particularly clear. "I might not be able to give you the first half in 20 days. I might have to spend more time."

"Liang You, do you know that there's already a company filming this script?"

What Su Bei meant was that she definitely wouldn't want his script anymore.

There was a moment of silence.

Liang You's weak but persistent voice sounded stubborn. "It's okay if you don't want to invest in it, but I promised to give you the first half and I will."

"Okay," Su Bei agreed.

She felt a little suffocated for no reason.

Although Yue Ze did not believe Liang You, he still went to the hospital and asked the nurse to pay attention to Liang You's movements. If possible, he wanted to observe what he was doing.

On the internet, the video of Liang You being beaten up was posted.

The details of the incident were also attached.

An insider posted: [This is the nephew of the big screenwriter, Liang Husheng. His parents passed away early, and he grew up under Liang Husheng's care. He went to jail for a crime and only came out recently. His brain was injured during his time in jail. This time, he went to the production team of Bloody World and claimed that he wrote the script himself. He also harassed the female staff. In the end, he was beaten up by a security guard.]

No one in the comments cared about Liang You's injuries. No one even cared about his name. Instead, they said expectantly: [I have a new movie to watch! I'll wait for the premiere!]

[I really like Liang Husheng's works. I've been watching his previous works, 'The Past of Nujiang', 'Divine Punishment', and 'The Mystery of Longling' with great interest!]

[I've finally received good news.]

[Such a person should be locked up in a mental hospital. Otherwise, what if an innocent passerby is hurt?]

[That's right, that's right. It's very scary for such a person to fall ill! Sheng Tang Entertainment and the production team, please protect our actors and staff!]

Seeing this news, Su Bei frowned even more.

It was clearly a small matter, but it had blown up so much. Fu Yujia must have wanted to use this matter to publicize the production, but it also gave Su Bei the feeling that she was trying to cover up something.

It didn't seem normal for Liang Husheng to criticize Liang You at a time like this.

At night, she was still thinking about it.

Lu Heting knew that with her personality, she would regret it if she missed out on a good script.

"However, no matter how good the script Liang You gave you is, it's similar to Liang Husheng's script. Even if you get Liang You to complete the script, you won't be able to use it."

"What if Liang You's script is the original?"

"Where's the evidence?" It wasn't that Lu Heting didn't believe her intuition.

He believed her, but neither his belief nor hers could convince the public.

It would make no sense.

Sheng Tang Entertainment had already invested in the production. If Su Bei did not have enough evidence, she would only be criticized.

Su Bei laughed. "You're right. I don't have any evidence. I'm only relying on my woman's intuition."

"I'll get Lu Hang to accompany you and see Liang You again. Let's give him a chance to clear his name. But if he can't come up with any evidence, I won't give him a chance to see you again."

Lu Heting didn't care what was going on between Liang You and Liang Husheng. He only knew that he couldn't let anything happen to his woman.

"Okay, I'll give myself one last chance too."

...

The next day, Yue Ze gave Su Bei a report on Liang You's daily routine.

He was constantly writing with a pen in the hospital. The nurse quietly recorded the scene and found that he wrote very quickly. The things he wrote were indeed very thrilling.

The script of Bloody World was a secret. Only the actors and actresses had it. It was unlikely that Liang You had seen it.

This meant that his words were credible.

However, they could not rule out the possibility that Liang You had seen Liang Husheng's original manuscript.

After all, the two of them were uncle and nephew.

"I'll meet him and ask him if he has any key evidence," Su Bei said.

Chapter 1689 I Will Definitely Win!

She met Liang You and went straight to the point. "Mr. Liang, this is the last time I'll see you if you can't provide crucial evidence."

Liang You's body trembled visibly.

"Try your best to recall everything and tell me everything you know. You're responsible for telling me all that you know while I'm responsible for verifying it." Su Bei was very direct.

Liang You slowly and seriously began to recall his original intention and purpose of writing the script.

!!

...

Liang Husheng spoke confidently when asked by the reporters if he had stolen his nephew's manuscript.

Liang Husheng's voice was a little regretful. "I knew about this child's situation long ago. He's under a lot of pressure and has some mental problems. As an uncle, I've neglected him. After this incident, I'll help him find a psychiatrist for consultation and try my best to cater to him.

"As for the matter of the script, I entered the industry when he was very young. Did I use his scripts when he was still a child in kindergarten, then?"

Seeing everyone laugh, he said solemnly, "The creation of Bloody World started two years ago. At that time, Liang You was in prison. No matter how capable I was, I couldn't have gone to prison to snatch his things, right?"

Liang Husheng had the right to speak. Naturally, everyone believed his words.

Besides, what he said was reasonable.

The reporters' questions were just routine.

As Liang You's name was mentioned again and again, Liang Husheng's kindness was deeply rooted in people's hearts. He took care of his nephew who had lost his parents and cared about his physical and mental health. Even after Liang You was released from prison, Liang Husheng still did not want to give up on him and was actively looking for a psychiatrist for him.

He had done everything an elder and relative could do.

But the more this was the case, the greater the psychological pressure on Liang You.

Because he knew very well what was behind this.

Although Liang Husheng had never directly used any of his creations before, he had not lived with him for free.

Ever since he was a teenager, he had ghostwritten many scripts for Liang Husheng after he came up with an outline. Although only parts of the scripts were used each time, it was these parts that added color to the overall work.

Although Liang You was not good at talking, he was especially good at writing dialogue. Many of the well-received dialogues in Liang Husheng's works were written by Liang You.

Previously, Liang You didn't care about these things. However, before he went to jail, Liang Husheng had personally promised him that as long as he was released from prison, he would introduce him to an investor and director. He would let him write his own script.

However, Liang Husheng had really disappointed him.

...

Su Bei recorded everything Liang You said.

He asked Lu Hang to use some methods to verify it.

Part of his words was easy to verify.

Lu Hang quickly handed the test results to Su Bei.

When Su Bei received the contents, she understood.

Bloody World was indeed taken from Liang You's World of Martial Arts. The first half of his manuscript might have been taken by Liang Husheng. After copying the contents, he destroyed it.

After Liang You received the news, he asked, "President Su, can I still send the first half to you after I finish writing it?"

"Send it over!" Su Bei said.

She also mentioned this to Yue Ze. "We can film it. Go and find suitable actors."

Yue Ze immediately went to do it.

At the same time, Su Bei also contacted Fu Yujia. She wanted to talk about this matter and resolve it internally.

Fu Yujia received her email and smiled. "Alright, I want to see what he's gonna talk to me about."

They met at a cafe.

Fu Yujia brought Han Xu over.

Yue Ze accompanied Su Bei alone.

“Miss Fu, I’ve already asked Liang You about the situation of the script this time. He has already told me everything he knows. This is the concept of his creation, his original intention, and the timeline,” Su Bei said. “I hope you can give an explanation after reading it, Miss Fu.”

Fu Yujia took it and glanced at it. She could write something like this ten times a day.

The ordinary-looking man in front of him, Su Lu, was the opponent who had defeated her countless times. He had also become a stumbling block in her path.

Fu Yujia had a natural resistance to Su Lu.

This time, who knew if Su Lu was going to trick her again?

“I’m done. What do you want to say, President Su?”

“The script you’re filming now was written by Liang You. But he hasn’t authorized it for you yet. Miss Fu, I believe you know that even if it’s filmed, it can’t be sold in the end.”

Fu Yujia smiled. “Mr. Su, Liang You is a criminal with a criminal record. There’s something wrong with his brain. Do you believe what he says?”

Naturally, Su Bei could not reveal to her all the evidence that Liang You had said.

What if Fu Yujia was ‘smart’ enough to destroy the evidence?

Su Bei could only stop at nothing. “Miss Fu, I believe you’ve seen what should be shown to you. I believe you should verify some other things with Liang Husheng. I won’t continue to persuade you anymore.”

“Then there’s nothing to talk about, President Su.”

Fu Yujia was certain that Su Bei did not want to see her succeed this time. She was deliberately trying to scare her. Of course, she did not believe her at all.

Fu Yujia would definitely win this time!

She stood up and said, “Excuse me, Mr. Su.”

Su Bei smiled. “Okay, goodbye, Miss Fu. By the way, Miss Fu...”

Fu Yujia stopped in her tracks.

“Miss Fu, if you’re unwilling to talk things through with us, we can only go through the legal channels.”

Fu Yujia smiled happily. “I’ll happily oblige.”

Fu Yujia had always been at odds with Nirvana Entertainment, so she would never believe their words. She was also unwilling to give up on this famous project so easily.

However, out of caution, she still contacted Liang Husheng and had a long talk with him.

Liang Husheng’s words were much more powerful than Su Bei’s. Moreover, he had many years of creative experience and had become famous through several works. Liang Husheng was a golden signboard in the literary world of TV shows. If it weren’t for the fact that Fu Yujia was willing to spend money this time, he might not have agreed to film with them.

Thinking of this, Fu Yujia became even more confident.

...

Two days later, the lawyers of Nirvana Entertainment sent a lawyer's letter to Sheng Tang Entertainment, asking them to stop the infringement and filming immediately. Otherwise, they would sue them in court!

When Fu Yujia received the lawyer's letter, she was so angry that she laughed. "I didn't even argue with Su Lu, yet he still dares to provoke me? Is his brain damaged?"

Liang Husheng was also a little disapproving. "I heard that President Su has always been very smart, but this time, he's been deceived by a person with a criminal record. It can be seen that no matter how smart a person is, there will be times when they fail."

Chapter 1690 President Su Is Crazy

Fu Yujia smiled and threw the lawyer's letter away. "I think he's dissatisfied that my career is doing better than his, so he wants to make things difficult for me. Well, he's never gotten along with me. Han Xu, ignore them! Also, make a public response on Weibo!"

Sheng Tang Entertainment posted this matter on Weibo.

The comments received a lot of support.

[Although President Su has always been good at what he does, anyone with a discerning eye can tell who's right and who's wrong this time, right?]

!!

[Maybe he got carried away by his past victories and forgot what he should and shouldn't do.]

[We really have to teach them a lesson. Only then will this young person in charge know how deep the waters are!]

[Although I have a good impression of Nirvana Entertainment and have no feelings for Sheng Tang Entertainment, I have to say that Nirvana Entertainment is in the wrong this time!]

[That's right. Liang You looks like an ingrate. There's something wrong with his brain. Is President Su crazy to believe a mental patient?]

Because of this, when Nirvana Entertainment was preparing for The World of Martial Arts, some actors who cherished their reputation did not even dare to audition.

After all, no one wanted to get involved in this mess.

Moreover, it was still uncertain if this movie could be filmed.

Su Bei contacted Director Jiang Hua, the director of Bloody World.

Director Jiang Hua was especially good at group scenes. Previously, he had filmed many group scenes that were very successful.

He was sitting in front of Su Bei now. When he heard that Su Bei was inviting him to shoot The World of Martial Arts, he was stunned and laughed.

“President Su, it’s not that I want to question you, but the script of The World of Martial Arts is very similar to that of Bloody World. You know what kind of person Liang You is. With all due respect, it’s useless for you to do this. I want to ensure the survival of myself and my team. I really don’t dare to get involved in your mess.”

Su Bei smiled. “What if it’s confirmed that Liang Husheng plagiarized?”

Jiang Hua said, “There has to be evidence. No one will believe what you say without it.”

Su Bei nodded. “If there’s really evidence, are you willing to give up working with them and work with me?”

“Of course,” Jiang Hua replied.

However, he really couldn’t believe that Su Bei could produce evidence.

The outside world was already discussing it. Liang You’s reputations was already bad enough just because he had been in jail. It was impossible for Director Jiang Hua to believe a criminal and not a famous screenwriter.

“Then it’s settled, Director Jiang! When the time comes, I hope the main actors can come over as well. I’ve seen your casting choices. I admire your taste.”

Jiang Hua smiled and said, “You flatter me.”

But who was he? How could he be deceived by a few words of praise?

But it was true that Jiang Hua dared to pat his chest and guarantee that there was no problem with the cast chosen this time.

Sheng Tang Entertainment had given him the greatest freedom. They did not interfere in the casting or filming. When he was filming, he was full of confidence and was free to do whatever he wanted.

He believed that this TV show would definitely explode in popularity!

Su Bei became the target of criticism during this time.

Liang Husheng had specially mentioned this during several interviews. “I don’t deny that Liang You’s thoughts are very rich and imaginative. However, it’s not easy to turn these imaginative thoughts into creativity and put them into practice. Since you trust him, President Su, I hope you can succeed!”

His words of blessing did not contain any sincerity.

The outside world felt indignant for Liang Hu.

He had raised his nephew well, but now, he was being bitten by an ingrate.

They heard that the project on Su Bei’s side had even been established.

The netizens couldn’t help but ask: [Who approved it? What’s wrong with their eyes?]

[Money really makes the world go round. Is that even possible?]

[Has Nirvana Entertainment been bewitched? I don't understand what's going on!]

Everyone in the company was also having some doubts.

No one understood what Su Bei was doing.

Seeing that the project was being prepared and Yue Ze and Xu Zhiqin were working hard, everyone could only work hard together.

Anyway, the company was paying them their salary. What could small-time employees like them say?

Fu Yujia said to Han Xu, "As soon as they start filming, we'll sue them! This time, Su Lu sent himself to my doorstep. Won't it be a pity if I don't fight with him?"

Han Xu smiled and said, "Our lawyers are ready. We're just waiting for them to announce that they're going to start filming."

"How's our own progress going?"

"We're more than halfway done. By the way, Su Lu even contacted Jiang Hua in private, but Jiang Hua rejected him."

"He overestimated himself!" For the first time, Fu Yujia felt her opponent's cowardice. It was also the first time she felt the pleasure of crushing her opponent!

...

Nirvana Entertainment officially announced that The World of Martial Arts was about to start filming.

Sheng Tang Entertainment sued them in court!

The matter attracted a lot of attention.

Everyone knew that Nirvana Entertainment was courting death. Now, they wanted to see how they would die.

Su Bei agreed to cooperate with the court case.

On the day of the prosecution...

In court...

Sheng Tang Entertainment had hired an elite lawyer. After all, Fu Xing was behind Fu Yujia.

Su Bei only brought the ordinary lawyers from the company.

Facing the reporters, she said simply, "Everything depends on the evidence!"

Liang Husheng also said firmly, "Look at the evidence! I prepared this work two years ago and registered the copyright a year ago. And during this time, Liang You was in prison. No matter what evidence you produce, I'll definitely win!"

The reporters were also waiting to see how Su Bei would fall from grace this time.

What kind of evidence could she produce?

As it was a public trial, many people who were interested in the case could attend.

In the public gallery, everyone was discussing. Everyone was not optimistic about Nirvana Entertainment at all. They had only come to witness their defeat.

This trial was live-streamed under everyone's watchful eyes.

Sheng Tang's question was very simple. "Liang You, where have you been for the past three years?"

"In prison." Liang You's voice was a little weak.

"Then may I ask why you went in?"

"Drunk driving."

"Then may I ask if you've written independent scripts before?"

"I... I've written some..."

"I'm only asking you if you've ever written independent scripts. You only need to answer with a yes or no." The lawyer was unyielding.

"No." He hadn't completed a script before. He had only written fragments.

"Are you a screenwriter?"

"I'm a screenwriter's assistant. I can also be considered a small-time screenwriter." His voice was lacking confidence.

"Are you a screenwriter, then?" The lawyer insisted.

Liang You lost his confidence. "Not really."
