C23 You Look down on People with Your Dog Eyes

The middle-aged woman's eyes widened even more when she saw Wu Tian buy the 300,000 RMB workstation computer from the neighboring booth. She regretted it.

At the beginning, she had thought Wu Tian was just a student without any money, but who knew he was so rich!

Very soon, the middle-aged man finished swiping the card and brought it in front of Wu Tian, "Boss, thank you for taking care of my business, thank you!"

Saying that, he bowed deeply towards Wu Tian, so excited that his lips were slightly trembling.

He had never sold a computer this expensive since the start of his business before. The profit on this sale alone was more than 10,000 RMB.

"Uncle, people who do business have to be as sincere and honest as you are." Wu Tian took back his bank card and asked with a smile, "When will the computers I bought be assembled?"

"Three days. I will finish this within three days, as soon as I can."

"Alright, I'll come back for it in three days." After Wu Tian said this, he turned around and left.

When he passed by the counter of Lee Mi and Dagaang, his footsteps paused for a moment, before he quickly left.

Dagaang and Lee Mi were dumbstruck as they watched Wu Tian's back. Having missed out on this business, the two of them were feeling extremely vexed.

After Wu Tian left, the middle-aged uncle walked in front of Dagaang's counter while shaking his head, "Was that big boss your classmate just now?"

"Yes!" Dagaang gritted his teeth as all sorts of feelings arose in his heart.

"To think that you all still had the face to mock him. He is much richer than you all." The middleaged man smiled bitterly as he shook his head and scoffed, "He spent 300,000 RMB for a computer, which is even more than the profits you earn in a single year. What right do you have to taunt him?"

Dagaang lowered his head and didn't say anything. Lee Mi, who was standing at the side, felt really uncomfortable. She had never thought that the good-for-nothing that she had once abandoned would actually make it big and become rich.

Her heart couldn't help but secretly regret. If she knew that Wu Tian could be this successful, she wouldn't have abandoned Wu Tian and stayed with Dagaang.

Unfortunately, it was too late for regret.

As for Wu Tian, he left Guangmei City and directly returned to school, only to discover that there was no one at his roommate's seat.

Sun Xiaohao had never skipped class before, so why didn't he come today?

"Why isn't Xiaohao in the dorm?" Wu Tian looked around the classroom and finally set his gaze onto Jiang Wan.

"He ..."

Jiang Wan rubbed his neck and mumbled: "Sun Xiaohao went to the hospital."

"Why would he go to the hospital? Is he sick?" Wu Tian's expression tensed up as he anxiously asked.

"His mother was seriously ill and was hospitalized."

"His mother?"

"His mother has a serious illness and needs an operation, but it seems like he didn't collect enough money to pay for the cost of the operation yet." Jiang Wan scratched his head and said embarrassedly: "Sun Xiaohao told me to hide this from you and didn't let me say it. He doesn't want to owe others too much."

"How foolish!"

Wu Tian cursed silently and asked again: "Then do you know which hospital his mother is in now?"

"Tong Ren Hospital."

"I'll go find him now." Wu Tian didn't say anything else, turned around and ran out of the classroom.

He ran so fast that the moment he stepped out of the classroom, he nearly knocked over Teacher Mu Ran.

Mu Ran's face darkened. With a trace of anger, she scolded, "Student Wu Tian, are you going to skip classes again?"

"Yes, uh, no." Wu Tian nodded at first, then hurriedly shook his head and explained, "Sun Xiaohao's mother was hospitalized and the situation is very serious. I want to visit her and see if I can help out."

"Is that so?"

Hearing this, Mu Ran's tone became much gentler.

"You can go. I'll give you a leave of absence later ."

"Thank you, Teacher Mu." After thanking her, Wu Tian left the classroom as fast as he could and took a taxi to Tong Ren Hospital.

When he passed by the counter, he saw Sun Xiaohao kneeling in front of a doctor in a white coat, begging, "Doctor, you have to find a way to cure my mother."

"Your mother needs a stenting operation. Get ready to pay a million dollars." The doctor waved his hand impatiently.

"Doctor, I don't have any money right now. Can you treat my mother's illness first? When I have enough money, I will definitely return it to the hospital." Sun Xiaohao kowtowed while pleading, his tears about to roll out of his eyes.

The doctor's face tightened as he shouted, "No money, no treatment. Our hospital does not do charity."

The doctor's expression was very cold, as if he didn't feel the slightest sympathy for Sun Xiaohao even though he knelt down.

"Xiaohao, get up." Wu Tian could not take it anymore and quickly rushed over to help Sun Xiaohao up from the ground.

Sun Xiaohao was pulled up and asked with an expression of surprise, "Wu Tian, why are you here?"

"I heard it from Jiang Wan. You're really too unbrotherly, you didn't even tell me about this when such a big thing had happened."

"I don't want to give you any trouble."

"Alright, let's not talk about this for now. Quickly tell me about your mother's situation."

"Ai!" Mentioning his mother, Sun Xiaohao instantly became distressed. He sighed: "My mother has thrombosis and needs a stenting operation. The operation cost is over a million. I sold my house in the suburbs of my hometown, but I'm still short of 500,000..."

"Don't worry, I'll think of a way to get the money." Wu Tian comforted, then he turned his head and urged the doctor: "Hurry up and get ready to perform the surgery on the patient."

"If you want to operate on the patient, you have to first pay the operation fees." The doctor in the white coat stubbornly yelled .

"What kind of bullshit doctor are you?" Seeing the doctor's attitude, Wu Tian was immediately angered and reprimanded: "Doctors practice medicine to treat illnesses and save the dying, which doctor even acts like you?"

From the first time he saw the doctor in the white coat, he already felt displeased and could not help but curse him a few times out loud.

"Stop wasting your breath here, brat. According to the hospital's rules, you have to pay first before being operated on." The doctor in the white coat retorted.

"Didn't you understand what I meant? I told you to prepare first, I'll pay the bill right away."

"Pay up, with just you?" The doctor in white coat looked at Wu Tian with disdain, "500,000 RMB, are you able to take it out?"

"You look down on people with your dog eyes, right?" Wu Tian was furious.

From the beginning, the doctor's attitude towards Sun Xiaohao had made him angry.

"Stop talking nonsense and pay the bill first. As long as you can pay the operation fee, I will immediately start the operation." The white-coat Doctor raised his head and looked at Wu Tian provocatively.

In his eyes, the kid in front of him was so poor that he couldn't even afford to pay 500,000 RMB for the surgery.

"Alright, I'll go and pay now." Wu Tian was too lazy to waste his breath and brought Sun Xiaohao to the counter.

The doctor in the white coat followed, his expression looking as if he was waiting to see a joke.

They came to the counter, and Wu Tian asked for Sun Xiaohao's mother's name, then handed the bank card to the counter personnel, "Give Li Gui Fang 1 million RMB for the operation."

1 million?!

The clerk was slightly stunned. She had never seen anyone who could take out such a huge amount of money. Even if it was just a few 100,000RMB worth of surgery fees, most of the time, a family will be broken apart because of they couldn't afford the exorbitant fees.

As she thought about this, she took the card with a trace of surprise in her eyes.

After she swiped her card, she was suddenly froze for a moment.

The doctor standing behind him laughed in disdain. He couldn't help but say, "Does this kid have no money inside the card ?"

"There's money in the card, he had just payed a million." The counter lady's heart was beating furiously, as she hurriedly said.

"Cough, cough ..."

The doctor in the white coat almost choked on the mocking words that just came out of his mouth.

He fiercely coughed a few times and looked at Wu Tian in astonishment.

He had never expected the kid in front of him to be so rich!

He spent a million just like that?!

The next second, the doctor's attitude instantly changed. He grinned and respectfully said, "Sir, don't worry. I will immediately prepare the surgery."
