

Hidden Billionaire / C28 Is Rich!

C28 Is Rich!

"Of course, you are the head of the household here, of course you can enter. Hurry and open the door ..." When the security guard saw Hai Tian's exclusive entry restriction card, he immediately smiled and respectfully saluted while ordering people to open the door.

The taxi driver widened his eyes and gawked at Wu Tian with his bright eyes. His expression was so strange that it looked slightly scary.

Even in his wildest dreams, he would never have thought that this seemingly ordinary young man in front of him was actually a resident of Haitian Gardens.

Haitian Gardens was a residential area for the richest and most powerful people. Anyone who could live here was either wealthy or noble. In that case, this kid was definitely also a formidable character.

"Driver, please go in!" Seeing the taxi driver staring at him in a daze, Wu Tian reminded him.

"Alright!"

The taxi driver finally came back to his senses and hurriedly put the car in gear. He smiled wryly and said, "Young man, I really didn't see that. You are actually a big shot who hides your strength!"

"You're exaggerating."

Wu Tian shook his head with a bitter smile and pointed at the house in front of them: "That one, just stop downstairs."

"Oh my god, River View Mansion! This is the most expensive house in the entire mansion!" The taxi driver exclaimed again.

Only now did he realize that he had met a true rich person today.

However, the boy in front of him was too low-key. He lived in a luxurious mansion with a streamlined scenery, yet he still wore such simple and unadorned clothes.

"Thank you." Wu Tian paid and got out of the car. The taxi driver hurriedly helped him to move the laptop away. After he was done moving the laptop, he gave Wu Tian a business card, "In the future, if you want to go anywhere, you can call me. I'll come and pick you up anytime."

"Ok!"

Wu Tian accepted the business card and took the elevator upstairs with his laptop in his arms.

After he got home, he couldn't wait to set up the computer. After turning it on, he played a game of League of Legends. It was simply too great.

F * ck, a good computer is indeed different.

When he finished playing the game and saw that it was still early, Wu Tian decided to book a car first and then take the driver's license test on another day instead.

He took a cab to the Ritong Square and walked straight into one of the Mercedes 4S stores.

The 4S shop was luxurious and grand. There were more than ten Mercedes-Benz parked inside, but there weren't many customers inside. The salespeople were all very idle.

The moment Wu Tian walked into the 4S store, he got stares of contempt and disdain. The sales staff at the scene seemed to look down on idiots like Wu Tian, who only dressed in shabby clothes, and no one approached him to assist him.

Wu Tian didn't think much of it. He looked at the car in the store by himself, and soon began to gaze at a Mercedes-Benz car. He said to the salesman, "I want to try out this car."

"You can't afford it, what's there to try?" One of the salesmen sneered.

"How do you know that I can't afford it?" Wu Tian turned around and looked at the salesperson.

From the sales clerk's name tag, it could be seen that the woman's name was Liu Hui, and she was also the sales manager of this 4S store.

"I've seen a lot of bumpkins like you. You're all dressed in clothes bought from street stalls, so poor that you're almost going to be begging on the streets for money. What are you going to use to buy a car?" Liu Hui crossed her arms across her chest as she mocked and ridiculed him.

The other salespeople watched on with cold eyes, their faces filled with scorn and ridicule.

"I sincerely want to buy a car, but why is your attitude like this?" Wu Tian was originally in a good mood, but now that he met these idiots, his mood instantly dampened.

"You want to buy a car, right?"

Liu Hui shrugged her nose and pointed to the electric car store across the street. "Hey, go buy a car from the other side. Maybe you can afford the car there."

"Dog eyes looking down on people." Wu Tian glared at the salespeople, then turned around and left the Mercedes 4S store.

Just as he was about to leave, he heard loud laughter coming from behind him:

"This kind of pauper dares to come here to buy a car, why don't he take a piss and look in the mirror?"

"He's such a poor scum. How embarrassing."

"In the future, all of you better chase this kind of pretentious person away. He has a povertystricken smell around him that smells revolting ..."

The sales staff all had carried disgusted expressions. They looked down on poor people like Wu Tian.

Wu Tian gritted his teeth and endured his anger as he entered the Red Flag's 4S store next door.

He originally wanted to buy a Mercedes-Benz, but after seeing the attitude of the salespeople, he suddenly changed his mind.

Instead of spending money to see other people's faces, he might as well support a Chinese-produced car.

The Red Flag 4S store wasn't as big as the Mercedes-Benz store. There weren't many cars inside, and there were only three salespeople.

As he walked into the store, a saleswoman took the initiative to greet him with a professional smile, "Hello, mister. I'm Ling Ling, the saleswoman here. How can I help you?"

"I want to buy a car." Wu Tian was quite satisfied with the salespeople here, who wasn't as contemptuous as the people next door.

"We have four cars here. One that just came out is ..."

"Wait!" Without waiting for the salesman to finish, Wu Tian stared at the car in front of them, "That car is not bad, I really like it."

Saying that, he walked towards the Red Flag L5 car. This car's shape and performance were very outstanding, similar to the domestic brand Rolls-Royce, and was very well-received by the people. However, the price was not very affordable.

"Uh, what do I say about this car ..." Ling Ling followed him with a stiff expression and awkwardly smiled, "I suggest you go take a look at H5. We have the latest model here."

"You mean the L5 isn't good?"

"It's not that it's bad, it's just too expensive."

"You think I can't afford it?"

"That's not what I meant, I just ..." Ling Ling was rendered speechless by the question. She did not know how to explain herself.

The reason why she recommended the H5 was because it was ordinary, and many people could afford it.

As for the L5, it cost over 5 million, the average person really couldn't afford it.

"How much is this car?" Wu Tian's eyes lit up as he looked straight at the L5.

He had liked this car from the first moment, and the more he looked at it, the more he liked it.

"It's worth five million eight hundred thousand." Ling Ling reported the price in order to try to make this customer give up completely.

"I'll buy it."

After hearing the price, Wu Tian took out his bank card and handed it to the salesperson, "Hurry up and settle the bill, and help me handle all the procedures right now."

"Huh?"

Ling Ling was dumbfounded. She looked down at the bank card and said with a bitter face, "Big Brother, you aren't teasing me, right?"

"I'm very busy, I don't have time to play with you."

"But ..." Ling Ling still couldn't believe it.

Did this simple-clothed, and ordinary-looking boy in front of her, really have that much money to buy a domestic luxury car?

But he didn't seem to be joking, as she saw the serious look on his face.

After hesitating for a while, she took the card and walked to the front desk dumbly, using the card with uneasiness in her heart.

Then, seeing the notification of the successful transaction, her eyes were filled with shock. Her heart began to beat like a drum.

Ling Ling placed both her hands on her card and excitedly shouted, "Big Brother, the transaction was a success! Your card truly has money!"

"Of course I have money. If I don't have money, how can I buy a car?" Wu Tian said calmly when he saw the salesperson's silly expression.

This girl seemed to be even more thrilled than winning five million in a lucky draw.

"That's great, I sold a five million and eight hundred thousand yuan luxury car ..." Ling Ling was so elated that her face turned red.
