

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 33 - Teasing Long Yun

C33 Teasing Long Yun

"It's that brat! I was beaten up by him!" Shao Qiang pointed at Wu Tian and complained, his eyes filled with anger.

"Go and die." Shao Jinlong's eyes flashed. He stared coldly at Wu Tian and shouted with a ferocious look, "Brat, you really don't want to live anymore. You even dare to beat my nephew."

"Your nephew is inferior to a beast, daring to take advantage of a female student in broad daylight. I am merely taking justice for the heavens." Wu Tian revealed a justified expression

"Bullshit!"

Shao Jinlong roared. He pointed at Wu Tian's nose and threatened, "Quickly kneel down and apologize to my nephew."

"Me, apologize? Stop dreaming."

"If you don't apologize to my nephew today, don't even think about getting your driver's license ..."

"With such a low level driving school like yours, it doesn't even matter if I don't learn." After saying this, Wu Tian pulled Shen Xue away and turned to leave.

There were so many driving schools in Luzhou City, he could easily change to another driving school. There was absolutely no need for him to stay in this Huihuang Driving School.

To tell the truth, he was disgusted by the behavior of the coaches at this driving school. If he had known earlier, he would not have come here to sign up.

"Brat, do you think this matter is over?" Shao Jinlong threatened with a hoarse voice, "If you offend me, you, your family, and your friends will all suffer too."

He brazenly threatened Wu Tian's family and friends, and his tone was extremely haughty.

The onlooking students all felt a strong killing intent. Everyone knew of Shao Jinlong's character and knew how powerful his background was.

If someone offended Shao Jinlong, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Everyone could not help but be secretly worried for Wu Tian.

Wu Tian originally planned to not pursue this matter. He did not want to blow the matter up.

However, when he heard that, his eyes turned cold. He suddenly stopped and turned around to glare at Shao Jinlong, "Shao Jinlong, are you threatening me?"

"So what if I threaten you?" Shao Jinlong was like a rooster that was dying for a fight, as he raised his head and provocatively challenged.

He was used to being arrogant in this school, and had never placed anyone in his eyes, let alone a brat.

"Old thing, do you believe that I can make your driving school completely disappear from Luzhou?" Wu Tian clenched his teeth as a cold light flashed in his eyes.

He hated people who threatened his family and friends the most. The person in front of him had successfully angered him.

Shao Jinlong laughed.

Shao Jinlong raised his head and laughed crazily, then conceitedly shouted, "You don't even know your own capabilities! With just your stinking appearance, you want my driving school to disappear? What shameless boasting."

"Is that so?"

Wu Tian was too lazy to talk anymore nonsense. He directly took out his phone and dialed his secretary, Long Yun's number, "Within three days, I want you to open a new driving school opposite Huihuang Driving School. I want to make this new driving school replace Huihuang Driving School and make it totally vanish."

After he finished speaking, he hung up the phone.

He had never considered entering the driving school industry before, but this time, in order to suppress Shao Jinlong, he decided to enter this new field.

He was already completely infuriated by Shao Jinlong's insolence. He swore to trample this old fellow beneath his feet, to eradicate this scourge for the citizens of Luzhou.

The sound of loud laughter rang out.

Shao Jinlong once again let out a burst of mad laughter and ridiculed, "You little rascal, you really know how to act cool. You even want to open a new driving school, and make my driving school disappear? Can you at least speak with more sensibility?"

Even the onlooking students thought that he was joking. No one believed that a minor character like Wu Tian could open a driving school.

Even if he could start a driving school, he wouldn't be able to destroy a driving school like Huihuang who had centuries of heritage within Luzhou. This was simply a fantasy story.

"Three days."

Wu Tian stretched out three fingers and said confidently, "Remember, three days later, I will make you repent for everything you did today."

"Alright, in three days, if you can't destroy my Huihuang Driving School, I'll let you live a life worse than death, kneeling and begging for forgiveness." Shao Jinlong loudly yelled with a beast-like roar.

"Let's wait and see then!" After Wu Tian said this, he pulled Shen Xue's arm and quickly left, leaving behind a fading view of his cold and arrogant back.

After they had walked for a long distance, Shen Xue could not help but open her mouth to express her gratitude. "Thank you for helping me out this time around."

When she thought about how Wu Tian had challenged Shao Jinlong with his domineering attitude, she couldn't help but feel touched within her heart.

"As a friend, it's only right for me to stand up for you." Wu Tian retracted the anger in his heart and a gentle smile gradually appeared on his face.

"Are you really going to start a driving school and destroy Shao Jinlong's Huihuang Driving School?"

"Of course."

"You are going to spend so much effort just to deal with a Shao Jinlong. Is this worth it?"

"I will spare no cost to exterminate those who are my enemies." Wu Tian seriously replied, then his tone changed, "Besides, starting a driving school is a new attempt for me. Maybe I can even open up a new market."

"I really don't know what is going on in your mind." Shen Xue shook her head with a wry smile. She was getting more and more confused by Wu Tian.

Although the boy in front of him looked simple and plain, he was actually very meticulous. When he did something, he did it in astonishing ways, making it hard for people to understand what he wanted to do.

"Alright, I'll send you back first." Wu Tian didn't explain too much. He first sent Shen Xue home, then he drove back to his living quarters.

On his way home, he received a call from Liu Jun asking him to go to the Global International Club in the evening. Since he had nothing to do in the evening, he agreed.

There was no harm in getting closer to Liu Jun, as this would greatly help his future developments.

When he got home, he found Long Yun alone on the phone, arranging the business regarding the driving school.

When she saw Wu Tian, she hung up and asked in confusion, "Young Master, why do you suddenly want to start a driving school?"

"Right now, there's a lot of trash and disgusting driving schools. For example, the huge garbage called Huihuang Driving School, so I need to clean them up." Wu Tian casually gave an answer.

He knew that Secretary Long was asking for his own good, thinking for him every single moment, which was why he patiently explained everything to her.

"We have a lot of ways to destroy Huihuang Driving School, so why should we start a driving school instead?" Long Yun frowned, she was eager to know the thoughts in her young master's heart.

"I feel that the driving school can earn money, and is a good investment direction. It's that simple."

"However, there are a lot of driving schools in the Luzhou and the market is almost packed already."

"Why are you blabbering so much?" Wu Tian rolled his eyes at Long Yun impatiently and said, "We now belong to the troublemakers. We will first drive away the competitors using free incentives, then monopolize the market and make new rules to become the leader of this whole game."

"Yes!" Long Yun lowered her head and did not say another word.

She had recently discovered that the young master was becoming more and more like a manipulator, and the way he spoke also became increasingly similar to his grandfather.

"Don't pull such a sullen face." Wu Tian found that he was being overly strict, and changed to a gentle tone and said, "I'll go to Globe Club tonight, do you want to go with me?"

"I won't go."

"Alright then." Wu Tian did not force it, he changed his clothes and walked towards the door.

When he walked to the door, Loong Yun called out to him.

"Young Master."

Loog Yun took out a card from her pocket and handed it to Wu Tian, "Take this card, it might be useful."

"You want to get a room with me?" Wu Tian took the card and quickly realized that it wasn't a room card but a black card for Globe Club.

A cough sounded.

Loog Yun coughed lightly, her face filled with embarrassment as she explained, "This is the Globe Club's black card. It was given to me by your grandfather in the past, and it has a very high status."
