C68 Trouble Is Coming

Walking over with Liu Shaojie in her hands, Ms. Faang asked Liu Fugui, "Are you Liu Xiaohao's father?"

"Yes, I am," Liu Fugui nodded with a smile.

"How did you educate your child?" Ms. Faang went straight to the point and cursed at him. "Look at how badly your son has beaten Liu Shaojie."

"Ms Faang, I'm sorry..."

"Your son is just like you, an uneducated country bumpkin," Ms. Faang exclaimed in a harsh tone, not show any mercy towards Liu Fugui.

"..."

Clenching his fists tightly, Liu Fugui forced himself to remain calm and suppressed his anger.

After all, he did indeed come from the countryside, so it already satisfied him for his child to be able to study here. Furthermore, he didn't want to cause any trouble, which might get Wu Tian involved.

On the other hand...

Wu Tian, standing beside Liu Fugui at the time, got angry in his stead when he heard the teacher speak in such a hostile tone. He then retorted, "Teacher, please speak with respect."

"Your child resorts to the act of violence, yet you still dare to act so righteously?" Ms. Faang snapped back immediately, swinging her arms and placing them on her waist.

This woman did not act like a teacher at all; instead, a lunatic.

"The reason why Hao Hao retaliated was because this child you're holding onto humiliated his family," Wu Tian argued.

"Shao Jie saying that you are bumpkins is a compliment to all of you," Ms Faang adjusted her glasses and taunted in a cold voice. "You despicable human beings, raising your children into trash just like you. Your children should not be qualified to come to our school."

Though he rarely resorted to hitting woman, Wu Tian could no longer hold his rage in any longer. At that instant, he raised his hand and viciously sent it flying towards the teacher's face.

Honestly speaking, he had never met such a shameless teacher.

Such a failure of a human being was not fit to be a teacher for children.

"..."

Ms. Faang, stunned by the unexpected slap, never dreamed that this man would ever dare to hit her at school.

Coming back to her senses, she roared ferociously like a tigress, "You bastard, you actually dared to hit me..."

"Someone like you deserves to be punished," Wu Tian replied instantly, raising his hand for yet another slap.

His actions frightened Ms. Faang so much that she shrunk back like a mouse trapped in a corner. Perhaps she was shocked by Wu Tian's ferocious look, but she no longer wore her previous imposing manner.

"You guys wait here. I'll go find the principal immediately," Ms. Faang said after finishing her sentence, feeling a sense of resentment towards her offender.

Just when Ms. Faang left the scene, a beautiful young woman ran over hastily.

She then hugged Liu Shaojie's body and said with a pained heart, "My poor Jie, how did you get beaten up like this?"

The young woman in front of him was Liu Shaojie's mother.

"Mom..."

When he saw his mother, Liu Shaojie cried even louder, "It was Liu Xiaohao who hit me. He was the one who beat me to a pulp."

"My poor darling, let your mother comfort you," the young woman whispered and gently caressed her son's face, afraid that her actions would worsen her son's injuries.

"Mom, you have to avenge me."

"Wait her , Mom will help you teach him a lesson," the young woman reassured, raising her hand and preparing to slap Liu Xiaohao in the face.

With this slap, Xiaohao will certainly feel a lot of pain.

Luckily, with Wu Tian's quick reactions, he grabbed the young woman's arm and scolded, "How can you hit someone else's child?"

"He hit my son. Of course I want revenge." The young woman opened her eyes wide, filled with confidence and vengeance.

"Revenge?"

Hearing an adult woman use the word 'revenge' on a child, Wu Tian's heart froze for some reason.

Never did he expect that he would end up meeting two unreasonably shrewd adults: the mother and the teacher.

"You're Liu Xiaohao's guardian?" the young woman spoke with a tone of superiority, constantly looking down on others with her overbearing attitude.

"Yes, I'm his uncle."

"Then hurry up and get Liu Xiaohao to apologize to my son."

"Your son was the one at fault. Why should we apologize?"

"You country bumpkin." The beautiful young woman put her hands together and fiercely said: "If you dare spout nonsense again, I will make sure you won't be allowed to set foot into Luzhou again!"

"That so? Then I would like to see it for myself."

"Brat, you're really not afraid of death. Let me tell you, my husband is a big shot in the business world. It's easier for us to kill a country bumpkin like you than to squash an ant," the young woman threatened, taking out her phone and making a call.

Liu Fugui, who was still standing on the side, worried about causing trouble any further troubles, so he reminded Wu Tian, "How about just forget about it? I don't want to cause trouble for you."

"No, we can't let this kind of person go," Wu Tian said with persistence, not wanting to give in so easily.

Even if he was his previous useless self, he definitely would not easily give in to such unreasonable demands.

Let alone now being a young master from a high-class family.

"Boss Wu, I'm afraid of causing trouble for you," Liu Fugui voiced out his worries, not wanting to trouble Boss Wu just because of his son's matters.

"Uncle Fugui, don't worry about it. Just leave it to me," Wu Tian affirmed with a determined voice.

Seeing Boss Wu's confident attitude, Liu Fugui could not say anything more but feel a little nervous.

After the woman across from him finished making the call, she crossed her arms and stared at Wu Tian, "You country bumpkins, when my husband comes over, even if you beg me, I won't let you off."

"We still don't know who is going to be the one begging," Wu Tian fired back.

Saying that, he picked Liu Xiaohao up from the ground, concerned about his recent education and matters in his life.

From the first time he saw this well-behaved and sensible little boy, he had always been fond of him.

After about ten minutes, a middle-aged man rushed over. This man was Liu Shaojie's father.

Wu Tian's facial expression darkened slightly when he saw the middle-aged man walk in.

This man was none other than Liu Hui, the person he had met at the Global International Club who is also the president of HSBC Media.

Previously in the club, he had noticed Liu Hui staring at Huang Lan with a lustful look in his eyes. In the end, Wu Tian taught him a lesson and even chased him out of the club.

He just didn't expect Liu Hui to be Liu Shaojie's father, the husband of that beautiful young woman. What a coincidence.

"Hubby..."

The beautiful young woman let out a sweet cry and ran over to hold Liu Hui's arm. "Our son was beaten up."

"Who dares to touch my son?!" Liu Hui's body trembled in pure anger.

"It's the three of them." The young woman pointed at Wu Tian and said, "Those guys are extremely cruel, even wanting to take advantage of me just now."

When she said this, her eyes flashed with a trace of treachery.

She purposely wronged Wu Tian because she wanted her husband to teach this man a lesson to vent the anger in her heart.

"Someone dares to touch my woman? See if I won't beat him up or not..."

Before Liu Hui could finish his sentence, however, his eyes suddenly lit up. He couldn't help but exclaim, "Boss Wu!"

It was only now that he realized the man standing before him was Boss Wu, whom he had met before in Global International Club.

During the time at Global International Club, even the club's boss Lin Ann acted extremely respectful towards this man. From that, one could see just how influential and powerful his background was.

With his current strength, he definitely could not offend this man.

Thinking about this, Liu Hui quickly licked his lips and tried to curry favor with Wu Tian, "Boss Wu, I didn't expect to see you here. It's such a pleasure meeting you."

C69 Be Anxious to Protect Their Child

"Hubby..."

When she saw her husband being so polite to a country bumpkin, the beautiful young woman quickly went up and reminded him, "Just now, it was their child that beat our son."

"Was our child beaten to death?" Liu Hui turned his head and asked impatiently.

"What?"

The young woman was stunned for a moment, then shook her head. "Our son is still well. Of course he's not dead."

"As long as our child isn't dead, it's not a big deal," Liu Hui winked at his wife, signaling her to stop talking about it.

Ignoring his hint, she continued to complain to her husband, "Then are you just going to let them go?"

"Such a trivial matter is not even worth mentioning," Liu Hui said, letting out a hollow laugh towards Wu Tian.

"But..."

The young woman also did not expect her husband to suddenly be so magnanimous. To think he would not pursue such an urgent matter.

In her final attempt, she could not take it anymore and cried to her husband, "I was taken advantage of by that brat!"

"It's a good fortune to be taken advantage of by Boss Wu," Liu Hui summoned up his courage and said.

Even if his wife was taken advantage of by this brat, he could only turn a blind eye to it. After all, he couldn't afford to offend him.

"What?"

Even in her dreams, the young woman would have never thought that her husband would say such words.

In the past, if her husband heard that she was taken advantage of by a man, he would definitely fly into a rage and teach that man a lesson.

But this time, her husband was actually going to sit back and do nothing. It was really inconceivable that he could even say something like that.

"No." The young woman, placing her hands on her hips, pointed at Wu Tian and said, "I will not let this kid off today. No matter what, I will teach him a lesson."

The sound of a slap suddenly shocked through the air.

Liu Hui angrily slapped the young woman in the face and cursed, "Can you not cause trouble for me?"

Despite giving her a lot of face just now, she still would not catch his hints and kept on fooling around.

If she offended Boss Wu again, there would be no good outcome for her.

"Hubby, my son and I have been bullied, yet you slap me in the face instead of helping us?" the young woman said, feeling as if her mind was about to explode in rage.

She could handle being bullied by outsiders, but to think that her husband even slapped her in the face. Consequently, she felt extremely aggrieved in her heart.

"Dear, can you please be more understanding? We can't afford to offend that brat," Liu Hui lowered his head and whispered beside the young woman's ear.

"Husband, you sure know how to joke around. Why should we be afraid of that poorly-dressed, foolish brat?"

"What do you know!" Liu Hui stared at the young woman and said in a quiet voice, "That brat is secretly a great boss. Even the boss of Global International Club does not dare to offend him."

"What?" Hearing this, the young woman's expression tightened.

She heard Liu Hui continue, "If we end up offending someone of his status, I'm afraid our company will collapse."

The sound of a heartbeat could be heard.

The young woman's heart trembled violently, as if someone had struck her with a staff.

Slowly turning her head to look at Wu Tian, she suddenly felt a shiver going down her spine, never expecting the shabby brat in front of her to actually have such a terrifying background.

She had even accidentally offended such a powerful figure.

Thinking of how strong his backing was, she felt a lingering fear in her heart, afraid of causing trouble for her husband's company.

"Just look at my expressions and follow my lead," Liu Hui instructed his wife. Turning around with a smile of his smile, he attempted to curry favor with Wu Tian and said, "Boss Wu, my wife just accidentally ran into you. Let me get her to apologize to you right now."

At that instant, he glanced back at his wife as a signal.

The young woman immediately understood and quickly apologized to Wu Tian: "Sorry, I was blind and offended you just now. Please don't lower yourself to my level."

With that, she gave a coquettish grin.

At this moment, the young woman no longer had her previous arrogance and haughtiness. Instead, she had turned into a submissive little daughter-in-law.

"Regarding the matter of your son insulting Hao Hao, how should we deal with it?" Wu Tian asked, naturally wanting to seek justice for Hao Hao.

"I'll have Shaojie apologize to Hao Hao." The young woman reacted quickly and quickly said to her son, "Xiao Jie, quickly apologize to Hao Hao."

On the side, Liu Hui urged, "Xiao Jie, hurry up and apologize to your classmate."

"..."

Liu Shaojie opened his eyes wide in suspicion as he looked at his parents.

He did not understand. He was obviously the one who was beaten up by his classmates, so why were his parents asking him to apologize to his classmates instead?

"Xiao Jie, be a good boy and apologize to Hao Hao. Mom will buy you some toys later." Seeing her son standing still in confusion, the young woman could only use this method to persuade him.

After hearing this, Liu Shaojie reluctantly apologized to Liu Xiaohao, "Sorry, I was wrong."

"If you dare insult my parents again in the future, I'll beat you up," Liu Xiaohao warned him stubbornly.

"No, no. Our Xiao Jie will never make this kind of mistake again." The young woman quickly dragged her son towards her back and advised him, "Don't offend Liu Xiaohao in the future. Stay as far away from him as possible..."

Seeing the family of three apologize, a gratified smile appeared on Liu Fugui's face.

He originally thought that Hao Hao had stirred up a disaster this time, but he didn't expect such an unexpected outcome. To think that they would actually end up apologizing to Hao Hao.

In the end, this was all made possible by Wu Tian. With his domineering influence in the city, he could make them lower their heads and admit their mistakes.

Liu Fugui did not say anything, but he could not help but feel grateful for Wu Tian in his heart. He was glad that he worked for such a good boss like Wu Tian, helping both him and his son at such a critical time.

"Boss Wu, since everything is now resolved, I'll be taking my son away first," Liu Hui said as he turned around and left with his son in his arms.

Before he left, he happened to see Ms. Faang rushing over.

Ms Faang said to the Liu couple, "Shaojie's parents, it's good that you came. I'll definitely help you seek justice today."

"Ms. Faang, it's our Xiao Jie's fault for the incident that happened today. We don't plan on pursuing this matter any further. Goodbye." After the young woman said this, she quickly escaped with her child.

"You all..."

Ms. Faang was truly stupefied.

Who would have thought that Liu Shaojie's parents, who never likes to lose face, would take the initiative to admit their mistakes and even ask not to pursue the matter any further?

To think that they would not want to pursue the matter of their child getting beaten up to a pulp.

What was going on?

She didn't care whether others would pursue the matter or not, but it definitely wasn't that simple after she got slapped by Wu Tian.

"Country bumpkin, you actually dared to hit me. When the principal comes over, let's see how he will deal with you." Ms. Faang glared at Wu Tian with a hint of satisfaction after thinking that he would be punished.

Right now, she couldn't wait to teach this brat a lesson and have him apologize to her in front of everyone.

After waiting for a few minutes, Principal Lu rushed over with two security guards.

After Principal Lu entered the scene, his face suddenly turned pale as if he saw a ghost. He then quickly walked in front of Wu Tian and approached him with a smile, "I was wondering who it was. So it's Mr. Wu."

He had met Wu Tian before when he was working on the admission procedures with Hao Hao.

At that time, the procedures had met with some trouble, but when Wu Tian made a phone call, the Education Bureau personally called to supervise and deal with the situation.

If even the Education Bureau would be alarmed at such a small admission procedure, it clearly points out just how amazing Mr. Wu actually was.

"Principal Lu, it's a pleasure to meet you," Wu Tian greeted Principal Lu with a smile, though his tone was slightly cold.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 70 - Unscrupulous Teacher -

C70 Unscrupulous Teacher

Ms. Faang stood at the side dumbfounded by the sudden turn of events. She did not expect this kid in front of her to actually know Principal Lu, and from the looks of it, their relationship was not ordinary.

Ms. Faang gritted her teeth and complained to the principal, "Principal Lu, you have to help me redress my grievances. I was hit by this brat just now."

"Don't bring this matter up again," Principal Lu glared at Ms Faang and scolded her with a stern face.

"No way!"

Ms Faang adjusted her glasses and said stubbornly, "He hit me and must, therefore, be punished!"

"You..."

Seeing Ms Faang's stubbornness, Principal Lu's face sunk even further.

He shook his sleeves and moved in closer to Ms. Faang to remind her, "If you continue to stir up trouble like this, I'm afraid you'll get into big trouble."

"Why?"

"Mr Wu has a lot of old acquaintances and connections in the Board of Education. Even I don't dare to offend him."

"He..." Ms Faang's body trembled in fear that cold sweat broke out from her face.

She didn't expect that the seemingly poor brat in front of her actually had such a strong backing. No wonder he even dared to hit a teacher at school.

Unaware of that fact previously, she had insulted Wu Tian without any restraint. But now, she knew that she had caused a huge disaster and dreaded her actions.

After pacifying Ms. Faang, Principal Lu shamelessly tried to curry favor with Wu Tian, "Mr. Wu, Ms. Faang doesn't know anything. I hope you'll be willing to forgive her and give her another chance."

"Principal Lu, do you even know why I slapped this female teacher just now?" Wu Tian asked with a dark expression.

"I don't know."

"This female teacher actually dares to insult her students and their parents. She even calls them trash."

"Ms. Faang has gone too far. Allow me to apologize on her behalf," Principal Lu quickly bowed and made an apology.

However, Wu Tian did not want to accept his apology. On the other hand, he proceeded to ask coldly: "Do you think this kind of person is qualified to be a teacher?"

"This..."

For a moment, Principal Lu did not know how to respond.

He understood Wu Tian's intention was to get him to fire Ms. Faang.

Though he was aware of Ms. Faang's unpleasant character, she was nevertheless good at teaching, so he could not bear to fire her.

"Looks like I need to make a phone call," Wu Tian said, taking out his phone and pretended to make a call.

Principal Lu — frightened by his sudden action — hurriedly opened his mouth to stop Wu Tian, "Mr Wu, no need to make a phone call. I'll fire Ms. Faang on behalf of the school right now."

He did not want to alarm the Board of Education about this matter, which would cause him to get punished.

Gritting his teeth, he immediately made his decision.

He turned to Ms. Faang and said, "From today onwards, you will no longer need to come to work, and you will have nothing to do with the school."

"Principal Lu, please give me another chance. You know just how hard I'm teaching," Ms. Faang begin pleading for mercy, knowing that her job was now on the line.

*

Principal Lu let out a slight sigh, knowing he could not do anything to help her in this situation.

He never intended to fire Ms. Faang either. It's just unfortunate that she ended up offending someone she should not have.

Ms. Faang acted quickly and begged Wu Tian: "Mr. Wu, I was in the wrong before. I shouldn't have insulted you or the child. I'm so sorry, please show me mercy and let me go."

In order to protect her "iron rice bowl," she could only shamelessly plead with Wu Tian now.

"A person like you is not suitable as a teacher. Just leave," Wu Tian said coldly and waved his hand impatiently. There was no trace of pity in his eyes.

Allowing such a woman to be teacher would only harm the students and affect the physical and mental health of the next generation.

"I..."

Seeing Wu Tian's resolute expression, Ms. Faang swallowed back the words she wanted to say, slowly turning around and walking outside.

She had admitted defeat and regretted her actions dearly.

She thought that Liu Xiaohao's family members were all countryside bumpkins, so she mocked and humiliated them.

However, she ended up insulting a powerful figure in the appearance of a foolish brat, resulting in the loss of her job that she had worked so hard for.

After Ms. Faang left, Wu Tian's gaze fell on Principal Lu, "Looks like there are some flaws in the management of the school that you'll have to assess and fix."

"I will definitely fix the problems in the management of the school."

"Also, I hope that Hao Hao can study in peace here. Something like that must not happen again in the school."

"Don't worry, this will never happen a second time." Principal Lu nodded his head like a chick pecking at rice.

"I'll be grateful if Principal Lu were going out of his way to take care of Hao Hao in the future," Wu Tian changed his tone and said.

"You can safely leave Hao Hao in my hands. I can guarantee that he'll be studying in a healthy environment from now on."

"That's for the best."

"Mr Wu, it's time to eat. How about..."

Principal Lu wanted to use this opportunity to get close to him but was interrupted by Wu Tian before he could finish his sentence, "Principal Lu, no need to be so polite. We still have many things to attend to, so we won't disturb you any longer."

Then, he squatted on the ground and said to Xiaohao, "Hao Hao, let's go. Uncle will take you out for a meal."

"Thank you, Uncle," Liu Xiaohao spoke in a sweet voice as if he had smeared honey on his lips.

"So obedient!" Wu Tian rubbed Xiaohao's face and pulled him outside with Liu Fugui following closely behind.

Walking out of the school, Liu Fugui said with gratitude from the bottom of his heart, "Boss Wu, thank you very much for helping Hao Hao with these things. I'm really grateful."

"Uncle Fugui, there's no need to be courteous between us." Wu Tian — letting out an honest smile — turned around and glanced at Liu Fugui.

Being with Uncle Fugui's family made him feel a sense of relaxation and comfort — as if they were his own family.

"I really didn't expect that at such a young age, Boss Wu would be able to deal with such matters so smoothly and decisively. He really has the style of a general," Liu Fugui praised with a face full of gratitude.

Previously, he was worried about Wu Tian's young age — thinking that he would end up as an impetuous, immature, and spoiled brat.

Only after they got to know each other did he realize that Wu Tian was actually a humble and low-key person. Instead of Liu Fugui's previous assumptions, he actually acted decisively when dealing with difficult situations.

He was glad that he was able to work under such a capable boss.

"I didn't think that Uncle Fugui would be so good at flattering."

"I'm not flattering you. I only spoke of the truth."

"I'm very happy to receive such a positive evaluation from Uncle Fugui," Wu Tian turned around and said to Liu Fugui with a smile. "If anything else happens, do let me know. Please treat me like I'm family."

"Of course."

"Alright, let's go eat!" Wu Tian carried Xiaohao to the car and said to Liu Fugui, "Drive to Fuyuan Restaurant."

"Yes sir!" Liu Fugui got into the driver's seat, started the engine, and went straight towards Fuyuan Restaurant.

When the three of them arrived at Fuyuan Restaurant, they found a seat near the window and sat down.

Liu Fugui had never been to this kind of place before, so he obviously felt a bit uncomfortable, "Boss Wu, the food here is too expensive."

"Don't worry about it." Wu Tian — still carrying Xiaohao in his arms — placed Xiaohao beside him and asked, "Hao Hao, what do you want to eat? I'll get Auntie Shen Xue to make it for you later."

"Whatever Uncle eats, I will eat."

"You really know how to think for others," Wu Tian smiled in satisfaction and instructed the waiter to find Shen Xue.

The waiter immediately walked into the kitchen and quickly called Shen Xue out.

Shen Xue was originally very happy, wearing a bright smile on her face.

However, when she got closer and saw a little boy sitting beside Wu Tian, her face immediately turned sullen as she questioned, "Is he your son?"
