

Chapter 118 Abandon

"Lin Fang quit her job."

"What?"

My heart dropped and I felt as though there was a hole in my heart.

Qing Qing hospitably poured me some tea, "The fact that she left shows that she still has some pride left. I don't think that you can be friends after what she did to you last night."

I scratched my head, my thoughts all jumbled together which made me frustrated and anxious at the same time. I let Qing Qing leave because I needed some time alone.

"Mr. Zhang you really are heartless, dumping people after using them like that." Qing Qing grumbled.

I had no choice but to get up and turn to her with a wry smile and thank her profusely before I led her out the door.

With my head throbbing, I went to the sofa to rest and immediately fell asleep.

When I woke up, it felt like there was something soft in my arms. I opened my eyes and saw Chu Xiaoxiao's huge eyes gazing at me.

I couldn't stop myself from kissing her on the lips which made Chu Xiaoxiao blush about ten shades of red before she yelled and said, "Hey, we are at the office, it's not soundproof you know."

"I'm just giving you a kiss, what else did you think I was going to do? Little girl, you have such a dirty mind."

"Ew, you are one to talk." The blush on Chu Xiaoxiao's face spread all the way up her neck, even her breath was warm. As I held on to her tightly on the sofa, I could hear her nervous but excited heartbeat. When her lips brushed against me, just a light touch almost made my heart explode in my chest. I paused for a moment, facing the greatest mental struggle of my life. It was just the two of us in the office and with the atmosphere this heated, it would be a shame not to do anything at all.

Suddenly Chu Xiaoxiao moved closer towards me, her lips rubbed against my earlobe as she said, "You are the dirty minded one, just admit it already, I can feel some parts of you reacting."

Any red-blooded man out there would not be able to handle this kind of stimulation. In one movement, I turned to sit up and pinned her beneath me. Chu Xiaoxiao laughed as she tried to hide from me, "What are you doing? You really can't do this in the office."

I stared at the look of heartlessness on her face and couldn't help but to ravage her.

Chu Xiaoxiao allowed me to do what I wanted for a while before begging me not to do anything here. She bit her lip and said, "Hey, this is my first time, do you really want to do it here?"

Shit, I didn't know whether to laugh or to curse, "Are you a succubus? Are you only going to be satisfied when you have teased me to death??"

I wanted to get up, and yet, feeling reluctant, I proceeded to rub myself against her a few times before finally stopping at the sound of someone at the door. I squeezed her waist as I said, "Just wait till we're home the next time, I want to see how you'll escape me."

"It will be you who will have nowhere to run." I let her go but she was so full-spirited that she unabashedly used her words to taunt me, "Next time I will not let you go before squeezing you dry."

It was really unfortunate that Mr. Lu's knocks on the door became even more frantic, urging us to open the door. Otherwise I would have definitely pressed her back into the sofa.

I was all fired up and really wanted to curse Mr. Lu out. He could have chosen any other time to knock on the door, why must it be now?

I swung the door open and Mr. Lu looked at me slack-jawed as he pointed at my cheek and said, "Lipstick... What were you doing just now?"

I quickly turned and checked my reflection in the mirror, there were a few of Chu Xiaoxiao's lipstick stains on my face. My collar was also opened and my hair was a bird's nest to say the least. Chu Xiaoxiao had guilt written all over her face which was still tinged red.

Mr. Lu chuckled and said, "I know, I know, this is not a good time."

I coughed dryly, if he knew that it was not a good time then why is he still standing here? However, it would seem that he had not the slightest intention of leaving. Instead, he walked into Chu Xiaoxiao's office and made himself at home on the sofa.

Chu Xiaoxiao can be a pretty unconcerned person at times but even she felt embarrassed in this situation which made her restless. I was annoyed at first but when I saw the shy look on Chu Xiaoxiao's face, she looked so cute that I couldn't find it in my heart to be annoyed after that.

"I heard that Lin Fang quit her job?" Mr. Lu said.

Chu Xiaoxiao paused for a moment, "Why did she leave? Was she being bullied?" Even as she said this, the light in her eyes dimmed a little when she realized that her friendship with Lin Fang was over so she said, "No matter what, our company will not condone any bullying whatsoever."

Mr. Lu replied, "She was not being bullied. Instead everyone took very good care of her and even to the point of helping her finish her work. And this time no one was willing to help her anymore, it was not bullying per se."

I held onto Chu Xiaoxiao's shoulders and said in a comforting voice, "Don't worry. Even if she left our company, Chen Yuzhou will not let her starve to death. Who knows, maybe going to Juen Group would allow her to grow even more. Everyone has to live their own life, there is no point in forcing your way."

Chu Xiaoxiao stared blankly at her fingers and said in a low voice, "Right, how our friendship could turn into such a mess? But you are right, everyone has their own life to live. Chen Yuzhou might not be a good man, but he is good to her."

Just as Chu Xiaoxiao said this, Mr. Lu shook his head and said, "This is going to be tough."

His words sounded as though there was some hidden meaning behind them, so I asked him what he meant by that.

"Chen Yuzhou is waiting for you in the lobby, he wants to see you."

Chu Xiaoxiao and I looked to each other, what could this possibly be about now?

After a moment of shock, Chu Xiaoxiao took off her heels and held it in her hand like a weapon. She jumped up and said, "Let me at him! How dare he come to our company again? Zhang Chao, today you hold him and I will beat him up. I will not let him go until he is beaten to a pulp!"

Mr. Lu stopped the agitated Chu Xiaoxiao and said, "You misunderstand. He has already been beaten up to a pulp. He looked really miserable to me."

I asked, "What happened? Who beat him up yesterday? Could he be here for revenge?"

But I did not send anyone to beat him up last night.

Mr. Lu looked at our faces and waved his hand nonchalantly as he said, "From what I can tell, he is not here for trouble but to call for a truce. He may not be willing to make Junran their enemy so he is here to ask for a truce with Zhang Chao. If that is the case, he will definitely abandon Lin Fang."
