

Chapter 119 The Overlords of Tong City

Mr. Lu continued on and said, "Chen Yuzhou does not look like someone who would reminisce on old relationships of the past."

I looked at Chu Xiaoxiao because she was the only person who understood Chen Yuzhou the best.

Chu Xiaoxiao was grim-faced as she clenched her hands together. She looked really anxious as she said, "He... hmm."

Mr. Lu stood up and left the office, I held onto Chu Xiaoxiao's hand as we followed after him. As we walked, Mr. Lu said, "Even if Chen Yuzhou is fixated on the past, his dad is not. We still have an ongoing project that we have with Juen and Lin Fang was the one in charge of it. Even though she has resigned, they did not ask us about it."

Mr. Lu went into the conference room first. I was about to push the door and follow after him but I paused and turned around. I wanted to give Chu Xiaoxiao a moment before going in.

I looked at Chu Xiaoxiao's red eyes and asked, "Do you still want to see Chen Yuzhou? Because you don't have to go in if you don't want to."

Chu Xiaoxiao looked hurt as tears fell. She pursed her lips together like a child with her favorite toy taken away from her.

Chu Xiaoxiao held onto my hand and squeezed it tightly as she nodded her head. "I'll go in with you, if you are there, I am not afraid."

I pulled her into my arms and felt Chu Xiaoxiao shudder, I said, "Just let it out, I'm here for you."

Lin Fang will never know that what she did hurt the two people who loved her most in this world, who loved her more than her own family did.

After she wiped her tears and nose on my shirt and with her eyes rimmed red, she told me to go in. I pinched her cheek which annoyed her so much that she gave me a kick. Before she could hit me again, I quickly turned and rushed into the conference room.

"Zhang Chao..."

Chen Ruhai sprung up from his seat and dragged his idiot son who was still sitting on his chair up as well.

"Xiaoxiao, you're here." Chen Ruhai politely greeted Chu Xiaoxiao.

Mr. Lu left the seat at the head of the table empty of me with himself and Chu Xiaoxiao sitting on one side. Chen Ruhai looked at me then at Mr. Lu who explained and said, "This company is now a subsidiary of Junran Group. Mr. Zhang has bought the major share of this company."

Chen Ruhai's face changed in an instant, "Is that so? This, is really good news."

Even though he said that it was good news, his face did not look happy at all. Both Chu Xiaoxiao and I caught this and exchanged a look with each other. Then Chu Xiaoxiao looked down and sent me a text on her phone.

I put on a serious face and took my phone out to see what she sent. One look made me want to laugh out loud because her text message read: Chen Ruhai is really fake.

I tried to suppress my laughter with much difficulty and said in a serious voice, "Mr. Chen, an honest man does not resort to deceit. And in regards to our relationship, I don't think that there is any real need for us to meet. I was thinking that the fact that you are here today is because you are a client of Lutong Advertisements. But you can take it as us breaching our contract, our company will not be able to work on your project anymore. You should look for someone else."

Chen Yuzhou turned as pale as a corpse but did not give a single response. Instead it was Chen Ruhai who anxiously grabbed onto my hand and did not let me go, forcing me to sit down again.

"Zhang, you are mistaken. I came today to call a truce and hope that we can reconcile our differences. We did rub shoulders a little before this, my son this insensible brute was not thinking straight. I already beat him up for it."

At those words, Chen Yuzhou's head sank even lower. He did not let us see the two black eyes on his face and the blood on the corner of his lip.

Chen Ruhai trembled with anger and said, "Zhang Chao, I've treated you like my son, can you help us out, just for me? I didn't come here today to beg you to forgive my brute of a son, he can't even act like a human. But all I hope is that you could forgive me, forgive me for not teaching him better. I am not any better either, I did not teach myself well either. I truly wanted to apologize to you."

The Chen Ruhai now was nothing like the Chen Ruhai from before. He looked at us with sadness and his eyes brimmed over with tears.

Chen Yuzhou could not bear to be admonished by his father like that. He looked up at his father and tried to stop him. But when Chen Yuzhou raised his head, he saw Chen Ruhai nervously raised his hand to wipe his tears away, not looking at all like the CEO of a group of companies but like a student who did something wrong. He felt a tugging in his chest and choked out, "Dad!"

When Chen Ruhai heard his son called him dad, his tears flowed down his cheeks but he hardened his heart and pushed Chen Yuzhou away from him, "Don't call me dad! I don't have a son like you. Zhang Chao and Chu Xiaoxiao are your schoolmates, look at them and now look at yourself! Have I not taught you before that there is no point in fighting between schoolmates? You can just argue over the small matters, why did you not listen to me?"

"Dad, I..."

Chen Ruhai trembled as he slapped Chen Yuzhou across the face. Chen Yuzhou did not dodge instead he took it in stride. The slap rang across the room and sounded as though it really hurt.

Chen Ruhai said, "How I wish I could just beat you up, you horrible brute of a son!"

Mr. Lu could not bear to look anymore and opened his mouth to stop Chen Ruhai. Otherwise there will be another slap.

"Unless Mr. Chen..."

"Don't call me Mr. Chen, my company is just a small company. I cannot compare it to Junran Group, you need to take care of us. But my good-for-nothing son..."

Chen Yuzhou covered his face at the injustice. He wanted to refute what his father was saying but when he saw Chen Ruhai holding his head and looking like the image of pain, the words changed, "Dad, don't be mad, it's not good for your blood pressure. I made a mistake, I will apologize to Zhang Chao and Chu Xiaoxiao."

He turned to us, bowed to us and apologized to us with tears flowing down his face.

If this happened a month ago, oh no, even if it was just yesterday. Who would have guessed that these people would be the CEO and the young master of the dignified Juen Group, the two overlords in Tong City who were brothers with the Dark Dragons?

And these two, one an incompetent father, the other an arrogant fool knocked down. Both had no choice but to humble themselves and admit to their mistakes in front of me.

Chu Xiaoxiao did not know what to do. She turned to me and sent me a text asking me my next move.

I replied her saying, "What do you want to do? You were quite close to Chen Yuzhou in the past."

Chu Xiaoxiao was quick to reply and said, "It's up to you. The past is the past, but from now on, I will follow you."

Satisfaction filled my heart when I heard it, but then again is there any guy out there who does not want his girl to say things like that to him? Mr. Lu couldn't bear to look anymore, he really wanted to speak up but still he waited for me to say something.

But I didn't say anything, instead I kept staring at Chen Yuzhou's lowered head. He looked like he was at the butt end of a joke. He bowed down and apologized as I stood there not saying a word.

After about five minutes, Chen Yuzhou could not take it anymore. He stopped and turned to his father with a doubtful look in his eye. His father returned his look with a glance.
