

Chapter 123 You Like Me?

I continued on and said, "If you want to blame me then fine, blame me. But it was not Chu Xiaoxiao who liked me from the start, instead she was already in my heart from the start. You're right, if you did not act that way last night, I would still be with you right now. I would still think that the person that I loved was you. After all, you have been the only one in my heart since we were kids. But still, I need to thank you for opening up my eyes and clearing up the confusion in my heart.

Lin Fang shook her head slowly, "Why are you annoying me by saying all of these things? Don't be angry anymore. How could you give me up and love Chu Xiaoxiao instead? How is she any better than me?"

I did not want to listen to her nonsense anymore, Chu Xiaoxiao was better than her in every way. Chu Xiaoxiao was better than her on all fronts, her looks, her family background and her character. But because we were not a couple anymore, there was no need for me to say it to agitate her any further.

I wrapped my arm around Chu Xiaoxiao's waist and said in a low voice, "Let's go."

"Zhang Chao, I have one more question for you." Lin Fang wiped away her tears and stood up, "Do you really want to be with this bitch?"

That pissed off Chu Xiaoxiao and she said, "Lin Fang, you should clean your mouth. What have I ever done to you?!"

I was disgusted at just the sight of Lin Fang. How could someone be so ungrateful? Even if I still liked Lin Fang, she would have dropped a few notches in my book. I could not treat Lin Fang as good as Chu Xiaoxiao did, and there may never be another person on this earth that would treat her the way Chu Xiaoxiao did. But the fact that she could still hurt Chu Xiaoxiao like this now made me think of how she would treat me in the future.

I did not wait for Chu Xiaoxiao to say anything and immediately took over and said, "Xiaoxiao has never done anything to offend you. Lin Fang, Chu Xiaoxiao is right when she said she is now my girlfriend and she will be my wife in the future. You should be more respectful. If you want a job, report to human resources tomorrow. But if you are unable to respect Xiaoxiao, we at Lutong Advertisements have no need for your arrogance."

My words were like a slap to Lin Fang's face, her face paled as she went silent.

She glared at me angrily, it was as though her anger was stemmed from her despair and it wanted to destroy Chu Xiaoxiao and I on the spot. Slowly she bent down to pick up the purse that fell onto the ground, dusted herself off and left.

As I watched Lin Fang's retreating back, it was as though I was in a trance and back in high school. The goddess in the seat in front of me would never turn back to look at me. All I would see forever would be her back that was so near yet so far.

At that time, her silhouette was so close to me but I would only dare look. Now that the silhouette was moving further away, I had a feeling that she would never turn back again. A goddess would always be a goddess but she would never be with me. But, I did not need a goddess anymore because I already had the woman I wanted to love for the rest of my life.

A sudden pain in my cheek brought me back to reality and to Chu Xiaoxiao who was pinching my cheeks. With jealousy tinging her voice she said, "What are you looking at? What is it that is so interesting? Do you want to go after her?"

"Have mercy please, if you pinch any harder I would not be handsome anymore."

Chu Xiaoxiao laughed before she let me go and said, "You should treat me better. I am your future wife, don't you know who I am?"

I replied, "My wife, are you hiding any more hidden identities that I should know of?"

Chu Xiaoxiao scoffed and feigned condescension as she placed her hand on her waist and pointed one delicate finger at my nose, "You listen well, I am going to be the madam of Junran so you should treat me better."

"Alright, madam, please get into the car and I'll send you home."

We bickered good-naturedly as we headed towards the car, ready to go towards Chu Xiaoxiao's house. But as we were coming out of the carpark, I caught sight of Chu Xiaoxiao's eyes turning red. She was looking at a silhouette outside the car window, I followed her gaze and saw a forlorn Lin Fang standing by the side of the road.

I heart soften as I held onto Chu Xiaoxiao's hand, she suddenly grabbed onto my arm and cried. Lin Fang, you really are a bloody fool.

Chu Xiaoxiao only stopped crying after a while, as she held onto my hand she said in a soft voice, "Zhang Chao, can you not go home tonight?"

"Not go home? Should I just stay over at your place then? Your father will skin me alive." I wanted my relationship with Chu Xiaoxiao to progress to the next level but Chu Huaian did not. But I was not in a rush, there will always be time for things like this.

But Chu Xiaoxiao suddenly moved closer and wrapped her arms around my neck. She pressed her wet face against my cheek and she begged me with her voice hoarse from crying, "There are so many hotels in Tong City, you don't have to worry about not having a place to sleep. Don't go."

My heart thumped in my chest and I almost rammed into the car in front of me.

She added on, "Make me your woman through and through."

Screech-

At the front entrance of the Lidu Hotel in Tong City, the tires of the Porsche made a screeching sound. The tail end of the car whirled in a beautiful arc and came to a perfect stop inside the parking space.

I rubbed my sweaty hands together, more nervous than the last time I was on the battlefield. I felt as though all I could hear in the car was the sound of my heart thumping and my breathing. In the small enclosed space of the car, the perfume coming from Chu Xiaoxiao enveloped me. It was like a small match that would light me up in an instant.

I stopped the car but did not switched the overhead lights on, only the light from the dashboard was on. In the dark, both of us were quiet in our excitement.

Maybe Chu Xiaoxiao was shocked because she stammered as she said, "You, why are you in such a rush?"

"You were the one who brought it up." I replied, "Stop hiding."

Chu Xiaoxiao's blush spread all across her face to her neck and her breathing hitched. I did not know if it was from anticipation or fear. Her eyes turned and she pursed her lips and said, "Come, come on then, who, who is afraid of you? Do you think everyone is a virgin like you? I have had my share of experience you know."

I laughed but said nothing as I place my hand on her thigh. She shrieked and jumped, "Don't, don't, don't do it here."

"Do you still want to pretend?" I went over to her and leaned over her, my hand held onto her chin.

Chu Xiaoxiao did not even have the chance to undo her seatbelt, she was trapped with no escape. She could only consent with me hovering over her, her breathing started to get faster as the mounds on her chest trembled with each breath. They pressed against my chest and that was all I could take.

"I am not pretending, but can we not do it here? This is a parking lot."

I laughed as I unlatched her seatbelt and patted her on the head, "What are you thinking about? I am a gentleman who only want to help you remove your seatbelt."

Chu Xiaoxiao's blush deepen even more. She angrily grabbed onto my collar and bit me on the lip.

It would have been better if she did not do that. Because with that one bite, the fire that I have been trying to suppress rushed out in an instant. As my head throbbled in pain, there was a fire inside of me begging for a release.

I held her chin in my fingers and rushed forward to kiss her. Chu Xiaoxiao could not catch her breath and melted beneath me. Her breathing turned even more rapid but her husky voice tempted me that I could not stop.

"Hold on..." Suddenly she pushed me away and said, "Zhang Chao, was it true what you said to Lin Fang just now? Do you really like me now?"
