

Chapter 140 Bloodbath

"Come in first."

I took a deep breath and pulled the boys in.

Regardless of whether what they said was true, saying something like this in Tong City was deadly once Chen Yuzhou heard about it.

The boys were uneasy. The older one was more extroverted, and the younger more introverted. They bore some resemblance to each other, so they were probably brothers. The older one was a bit nervous, but the younger one looked like he could make decisions.

"I've got no drinks for you. Tell me, what are you looking for me for?"

The younger one pointed to himself. "I'm Lu Zheng, and this is my older brother, Lu Yu. We'd like to talk to you about Chen Yuzhou. We know there's enmity between you. We want to work with you."

"Yes, we want to work together to kill that bastard." Lu Yu waved his fist in agitation, and nodded at me.

I almost burst into laughter. What was going on? Everyone wanted to work with me. Zhao Zichen wanted to work with me to take on Jiang Ming, and now these boys wanted to work with me to take on Chen Yuzhou.

"Don't be hasty. Don't tell anyone outside anything that you say here to me. You don't know what kind of person Chen Yuzhou is. If word of this gets to him, you won't be able to leave Tong City alive. If you want to quell the fury within you, vent freely here. I'll do it with you too, but don't ever tell anyone what you said just now."

At this, Lu Yu cried out, "We really want revenge. It's not a joke."

"Have you thought about how to take revenge? What plans do you have? Chen Yuzhou is all-powerful in Tong City. He can kill you as easily as he can kill an ant. With his status, don't even think about seeing him, much less take revenge. Do you know where he lives? You know he had bodyguards with him. Even if you see him, you can't get near him."

The boys were struck dumb by my words. Lu Yu had nothing to say. He had never considered such things before.

"Hey, there are some things that you have to endure. You're both still young. Don't keep talking about hate or revenge," I advised, "You can stay here if you want to, just don't tell anyone outside about what you said just now."

I hummed and thought about speaking to Gan. There were still some things about the company that I wanted to discuss with him. The typhoon would eventually stop, and when it did, the real bloodbath was waiting for me.

Just then, Lu Zheng balled up his fists, flushed red, and said, "Hold on! We're really not joking, we really want to take revenge on Chen Yuzhou!"

"Just because your teacher was killed by Chen Yuzhou? I feel bad for you Miss Lin. However, as I said, how can the two of you take down Chen Yuzhou? Your teacher had family and friends, why aren't they taking revenge? Have you thought about that? You mean well, but this is too dangerous."

If these were two of Miss Lin's family looking for me, I might have considered. But these two students were not her family. How could I dare work with them?

Besides the fact that they would not be of much help, how could I trust that they would sacrifice everything for a teacher they were not even related to?

Lu Zheng was surprisingly stubborn. Without a word, he took off his backpack and pulled a laptop out of it.

I watched, unsure of what he was doing, as he switched on the laptop, and turned it towards me.

"What's this?" I asked.

He started playing a video. It was part of some surveillance footage.

"This is surveillance footage from the bar called Devil's Eye. You'll understand after watching it..."

The footage showed the quiet second floor corridor of the bar. A woman appeared, her back facing the camera. She was elegant and wore a tulle dress, but was very proper.

She walked forward, then suddenly stopped in her tracks. She leaned against the wall and covered her mouth, looking fearful.

"Look over here." Lu Zheng pointed at the screen.

Even if he had not pointed, I had already spotted it. In the top right corner of the video, around just at the end of the corridor, a man was being strangled from the back by Chen Yuzhou. The man struggled a few times in agony, messing up the heavy carpet, before he stopped moving.

There was only video and no audio, but watching a man die in front of me made me uneasy.

Even though I had killed people before, the video made me uncomfortable. I had no idea how these two kids had been able to watch it.

Lu Zheng said, "Miss Lin emailed this video to Lu Yu before she died. He was scared and spoke to me about it. We only saw the email two months after it was sent..."

Lu Yu quickly explained, "It wasn't because we were scared. Our home is very strict. Our parents don't let us use the Internet."

I nodded. "That's not your fault."

Lu Zheng continued, "By the time we saw the email, it was too late. We couldn't get through to Miss Lin's phone. Then... Miss Lin was gone."

"Why didn't you call the police when you received the email?" I asked.

I now suspected that Chen Yuzhou had drugged and raped Miss Lin because of this video.

Lu Yu and Lu Zheng stammered and went red.

Even without them saying it, I figured it out myself. The two boys were probably afraid of getting involved and subsequent retaliation.

"You were afraid of going to the police, so when you found out about the enmity between Chen Yuzhou and me, you decided to give the video to me, hoping that I would report this to the police?"

The boys turned even redder. Lu Zheng did not even dare to look at me, but Lu Yu took a deep breath. "We're cowards. We didn't dare..."

"If you don't even dare to do this, why work with me? It sounds like you just want to use me as a weapon. Also, your possession of this video is strange. Miss Lin is only your teacher. Why send you two this important video?"

Lu Yu replied, "We..."

He about to answer when Lu Zheng covered his mouth. "Shut up."

Then, he turned and shut the laptop. He put it back in his backpack and shouldered it, glaring angrily at me. "If you don't dare to, we're leaving. Bro, ignore him. This guy can't beat Chen Yuzhou. Let's think of our own plan!"

After speaking, he dragged Lu Yu away. Lu Yu protested, but it was clear that he always listened to his younger brother.

"Wait." I blocked them.

Lu Yu took a nervous step back, clutching his backpack. "What are you doing?! If you steal it, we have a backup copy."

I laughed a little helplessly. "Kiddo, aren't you a bit too nervous I'll steal it? You want to work with me, but you don't want to tell me anything. How can I trust you?" I looked at Lu Yu. "Don't you think so? I have no connection to you. Even though I helped you win your money back, you still don't trust me."

I understood their dynamic. Lu Yu might be older, but he was easier to persuade. He would believe anything I said. Lu Zheng might be younger, but he was strong-minded. He would be difficult to deal with.

As expected, Lu Yu urged his brother. "Yes, let's tell him. He's not a bad person. Anyway, we need money urgently. You're about to enter senior high, and we need money for that."
