

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1989

Chad replied, "No. Your father should not be in Yonroeville. Your father is such a big living person, as long as he is still alive, we will definitely find him."

"What if my father dies? Is he dead so we can't find him?" Layla was pessimistic.

"Layla, if your father really dies, then you must be strong. Because your mother will definitely suffer more than you. Besides your mother, you have to set an example for your brother." Chad didn't want to say this words, but these words blurted out.

As Layla said, they searched for Elliot for so long and couldn't find Elliot's whereabouts. Elliot might really be dead.

They just don't want to accept this reality.

Chad: "Although I say this, I still firmly believe that your father is still alive. Your father is a very smart and wise man. No matter how dangerous or difficult he encounters, he can always save it. I have worked by his side for so many years, I have seen that he has encountered all kinds of troubles, and he can always solve them easily."

Chad comforted Layla, and he was comforting himself.

Bridgedale.

After Avery landed, she first turned on her mobile phone and dialed Layla.

Avery: "Layla, your mother came to Bridgedale. Because things were a little sudden, so your mother didn't have time to tell you."

"Uncle Chad told me." Layla said angrily, "Mom, I miss you so much."

"Mom I know. But your mother came here because there are some things to deal with. When mother mother is done, she will go back to Aryadelle immediately." Avery coaxed softly, "Layla, I will let Uncle Mike go back to accompany you, okay?"

"Forget it! we all have our own things to do, and I have to go to class every day." Although Layla felt uncomfortable, she was not an unreasonable child, "Mom, Norah is a villain. She said that my father died and said So sure, as if she saw my dad's body! I think my dad may have been killed by her."

The expression on Avery's face was startled.

Avery: "Layla, we don't have any evidence right now, so don't startle the snake."

"But I've already scare the snake." Layla murmured, "I scolded her today. She's going to die of anger."

Avery: "It's okay...if She really did this thing, and we will definitely find evidence. As long as we find evidence, I will make her pay dearly!"

"Mom, you have to be careful. I'm afraid something happens to you too... If you Something happened too, then my brother and I are orphans." Layla thought of this, and sadness came from it.

Avery: "Mom won't make you orphans. Layla, trust mom."

Layla: "Well, mom, I trust you."

After talking to her daughter on the phone, Avery saw Mike who came to pick up the plane.

Mike received Avery and immediately said, "I have found the best lawyer in Bridgedale for you. You go home for dinner and have a good rest. I will accompany you to see the lawyer tomorrow."

"Mike, what do you think? Is it possible that Norah did what happened to Elliot?" Avery's mind kept echoing what her daughter said.

"Of course it is possible. Don't underestimate Norah." Mike said, "Norah has no family background to rely on. She has reached her current position by herself. Without a little brain and courage, she will never succeed. "

Avery: "Norah said that Elliot was dead. If she didn't know what was going on, how could she say such a thing? She is indeed suspicious."

"Norah can't run away. Finish this matter first, then go check Norah." Mike said, "You asked me to check the beauty and medicine a few days ago. I have already printed out the information that I found, and you can read it when you get home. But I suggest you go to bed and watch it again, because it is about this family. The dog-blood incident is really...too many!"

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 1990

Mike said incessantly: "I have printed such a big stack. I don't know, I thought I wrote a book."

"Is it such an exaggeration?" Avery raised her eyebrows slightly.

“It’s such an exaggeration. I used to think that the situation in Foster family was quite complicated. Now I checked the information of the owner of the MH Group, and I realized that the Foster family was nothing compared to the Jones family. The founder of the MH Group is Travis Jones. This man is awesome!”

Avery: “Are you talking about his business acumen?”

Mike: “No. I’m talking about his ability to reproduce.”

Avery: “...”

She immediately understood what Mike meant...

She has seen in the news before that most wealthy families pursue more children and more grandchildren, so women who marry into wealthy families basically have to have children nonstop, including many well-known actresses who marry wealthy businessmen.

“This Travis Jones is 73 years old this year, but he is still very strong and still holds the position of chairman of the MH Group. He has married eleven wives...and gave birth to dozens of children.. ....Do you think cattle are not cattle?”

Avery opened her eyes: “I have a classmate who is Travis Jones’s son, and I only know that this classmate has an older brother.”

“So what I said is that Travis was born dozens of years old. I didn’t say that Travis still has dozens of children.” Mike explained in a low voice, “When you go back and see the information I have compiled, you will know how bizarre this family’s melons are.”

Avery couldn’t bear it anymore and went back On the way, took her mobile phone and searched for Travis Jones.

When she clicked on Travis Jones’s introduction, it didn’t say that he married eleven wives, nor that he had dozens of children, only that his eldest son was named Caleb Jones, the second son Emilio Jones, and several daughters later.

The rest of the introduction is Travis’s entrepreneurial experience.

Avery took a cursory glance. Travis has been participating in various activities and projects over the years. He seems to be very busy. However, he is now 73 years old and can maintain such a strong body. He must also pay attention to exercise and maintenance.

When Avery got home, the nanny brought the meal to the table.

Avery had no appetite at first, but when she smelled the fragrance of the vegetables, her stomach screamed immediately.

“It’s all your favorite dishes. Only when you’re full will you have the strength to find Elliot.” Mike pulled her into the dining chair and sat down.

“Can I get him back? It’s been almost a month.” Avery muttered while holding chopsticks.

“Definitely can be found! I don’t believe that someone took Elliot and just wanted to kill him.” Mike expressed his opinion, “Elliot is a recognized business genius in the world. Besides, in his brain, it is estimated that there are a lot of secrets. If we arrest him, just to kill him, then we will find his body long ago. As long as we don’t find his body for a day, it can show that he may still be alive.”

Avery: “I thought so too. But Norah’s words made me a little shaken.”

“Although Norah is powerful, she may not be as powerful as we think. If she is really powerful, why didn’t she start a company by herself?” Mike comforted.

“Well...” Avery picked up the chopsticks and took a mouthful of rice. She chewed slowly, but her brain was running at high speed.

“Mike, is Norah Jones related to Travis Jones? Because they are both surnamed Jones.”
