

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2134

Chapter 2134

“Hayden! How can you say such a thing to your father?” Avery didn’t expect her son to say such a thing to Elliot.

“I don’t want this kind of person to be my father!” Hayden replied loudly, “You didn’t give up on him, why did he give up? What else would he do other than cause trouble for you? He’s a jerk!”

Avery couldn’t contain the anger in her heart, and slapped Hayden.

It was the first time in her life that Avery beat a child.

Her hands were numb. Her heart hurt so bad she couldn’t breathe.

With tears in her eyes, she looked at Hayden with an incredible expression on her face.

She wanted to apologize almost instantly, but Hayden turned and ran away at a faster speed.

“Hayden!” Avery wanted to chase out.

The nanny came over and pulled Avery.

“Avery, you just hit him, he must hate you now. Just let the bodyguards go out.” The nanny advised, “Hayden is your son, he won’t be angry with you. It’s fine when he figures it out. You go to eat first!”

Avery raised her hand to wipe away her tears, where is she still in the mood to eat?

She walked towards the master bedroom.

Elliot went to the dining room.

After a while, Elliot took his dinner and pushed open the master bedroom door.

Avery sat beside the bed, and when she saw Elliot walk in, she immediately reached out and wiped away the tears from her eyes.

“Let’s eat!” Elliot put dinner on the bedside table and sat down beside her, “No matter what Hayden says about me, I’m not angry. You don’t need to be angry.”

Apart from what Hayden said, Avery was uncomfortable because of what Hayden said. Out of control, she hit Hayden with her hands.

From the corner of Elliot's eyes, he saw that her left hand was holding her right hand, and the palm of her right hand was very red, so she must have used a lot of strength to hit Hayden just now.

Elliot: "Is it the first time to beat Hayden?"

"He has been obedient since he was a child." Avery's voice was hoarse, "I have never seen such an obedient child."

But Avery beat the most obedient child.

"When Hayden gets angry, you apologize to him. He will forgive you." Elliot gave her an idea, "Eat first! The food won't taste good when it's cold."

"Have you really eaten it?" She quickly adjusted her mood and looked at Elliot, "What are you doing today?"

Elliot: "Having a headache today, I slept in the hotel. I ate it."

After receiving his answer, Avery felt a little more at ease.

Avery picked up her chopsticks and bowl and started to eat dinner.

"Actually, Hayden is so angry, not only because I never gave up on you, but also because he never gave up on you." Avery took a mouthful of rice and explained to Elliot, "You disappeared in the basement in Yonroeville, and I was looking for you, and Hayden also kept going and was looking for you. Hayden must have been trying to help you get out of Margaret's control. He never tells others about things in advance, we only know when he does a good job. For example, when he went to bribe Travis's former bodyguard, it was revealed that Travis... This is what Hayden did."

After listening to her words, Elliot felt more guilt than self-blame.

"I'm not saying this to say that you did something wrong. I understand how bitter you are. Elliot, it's not that I don't understand you. It's just that no matter how hard it is, we have to live. Only by living can there be hope." Avery expresses her inner thoughts.

"You still don't understand me enough. I can bear hardships, but I can't bear you to marry another man for me not at any time." Elliot said firmly, "If there is such a thing in the future, I will still do something to disappoint you."

Avery: "I see. I won't do this in the future."

Elliot: "Come on! Wait until you finish eating."

Avery couldn't eat it, but Elliot kept looking at her, and Avery had to eat her dinner hard.

After eating this dinner, Elliot was enlightened. For a while now, she had imposed her will on him, and maybe Elliot felt the same way.

"Let's go outside for a walk!" Avery suggested.

Elliot: "Okay."

"It's a little cold outside, I'll get my coat." Avery glanced at the sky outside, then took out a slightly thicker coat.

Avery took out her coat, handed it to him, and took out another coat of hers.

After leaving the house, they walked towards the center of the community.

"I went to the hospital today to see Margaret's body." Avery held his big palm, his palm was very hot, "Travis's people were guarding there, and no one was allowed to take Margaret's body away. Only Emmy was allowed to take her body away. Emmy was taking care of you in that blue house before, right?"

Elliot: "Well. She cooked for me every day."

"Just for you? Nothing else?" Avery asked him. She was particularly interested in life during that period of time, but because it was not a pleasant experience, she never asked about it.

"Since I woke up, I am what you see now." Elliot replied, "Of course, the pain in the brain was obviously much more at that time, but it didn't affect anything."

"Oh...you two talked about God? What kind of person do you think Emmy is?" Avery asked, "Did she tell you her contact information? I have to find her. Travis is also looking for her. If only we could find her in front of Travis."

Elliot: "I haven't talked to Emmy. I don't know what kind of person she is."

Avery: "You didn't even talk? But when I went to pick you up, I saw that she seemed very nervous about you."

"Emmy talked to me, but I ignored her." Elliot remembered clearly, "You think she's nervous about me, that's your delusion. She may be nervous about herself. After all, you looked so vicious at the time, as if you were trying to flatten her out."

Avery blushed: "how can you describe me with such ugly adjectives?"

Elliot: "You said Emmy was nervous, but I was just analyzing it from her point of view."

"You might as well think about how to contact Emmy." Avery squeezed her hand, "Margaret's research results must be left to her. That is Margaret's most valuable asset. Now Travis is definitely not only staring at her, there must be many forces looking for her. Her current situation is very dangerous."

"I can't contact Emmy." Elliot told Avery to give up, "Don't bother looking for Emmy. No matter who gets Margaret's research results, don't be afraid. My life, Every day I live now is earned. Let's relax."

Avery: "It's good for you to live with this calm attitude, and it can save a lot of trouble. But you can't convince me to think the same as you. You are my ex-husband. I'm not reconciled that you are just my ex-husband. I want to turn you back into a normal person, I want to remarry you and become your wife."

Under the street lamp, Avery's eyes sparkled like stars, dazzling.

The next day.

Accompanied by Chad, Elliot went to Tate Industries Bridgedale branch.

Chad was so drunk that Elliot frowned: "How much did you drink last night?"

Chad said in distress, "I drank a bottle with you the day before yesterday, and I didn't get drunk at all. So I tried it again last night, but I vomited." It's too embarrassing, so Chad changed the subject: "Boss, are you looking for Norah? I don't know if Norah is in the company, why don't I give her a call?"

"If you call her, maybe she can escape overnight." Elliot teased.

Chad couldn't help laughing: "You have seen Norah thoroughly."

Elliot: "If you can't see clearly after so many things, what's the difference between you and a fool?"

"Boss, what are you going to do?" Chad asked, "Now that Travis has no Margaret, there is no threat to you, so we don't have to worry about anything."

"Of course I won't let Norah go easily." Elliot's eyes became cold, "Even if Travis can still threaten me now, I'm not afraid. Instead of lingering on, it's better to get rid of all these people before dying."

Chad listened and frowned. "I thought Avery had a good chat with you last night."

Chad was particularly afraid to hear the word 'death' from him.

"I talked to Avery. She promised me that she would never do anything that would make me angry again." Elliot said indifferently, "I'll trust her again for now."

Chad: "..."

Chad thought Avery taught Elliot a good lesson last night, so that Elliot would never dare to end his life easily in the future, but Avery was taught a lesson instead?

In the villa.

Avery should have met with the five experts she invited today, and then officially devoted herself to the research work. However, she beat Hayden last night, and she didn't sleep much all night.

She got up early this morning and wanted to apologize to Hayden after Hayden got up.

As a result, Hayden didn't get up late.

After Elliot went out, Hayden didn't even get up.

She could only wait patiently in the living room.

At nine o'clock in the morning, Ivory called Avery and asked her when she would arrive. Only then she plucked up the courage and knocked on Hayden's door.

She pushed the door open and glanced inside.

Originally thought that Hayden should sleep on the bed, but it was not what she thought.

Hayden sat at the desk and played with the computer. To be precise, he was playing a game.

Seeing this, Avery immediately walked in.

"Hayden, are you hungry? Mom brought you breakfast." Avery put milk and sandwiches on his table, "Hayden, I'm sorry. Mom is wrong. No matter how angry mom is, mom shouldn't hit you. It's wrong to do it."

When Avery spoke, her eyes kept looking at Hayden's left cheek where she was beaten.

Ali went out with Hayden last night, took Hayden to the pharmacy to buy medicine, and wiped the medicine.

Avery doesn't know if it was because of the efficacy of the medicine, but the wound on Hayden's face was only a faint red mark.

"Mom, I haven't calmed down yet, please ignore me for now." Hayden was sullen and angry, still angry.

Avery understood his son's emotions, so she didn't plan to entangle.

"Then remember to eat your breakfast. I'm going to work and come back in the evening. You can call me anytime, or call Mike if you have anything." Avery urged.

"Got it." Hayden replied.

Hayden was so sensible even when he was angry.

Avery felt uncomfortable for a while.

After coming out of Hayden's room, she found the nanny and explained to the nanny: "If Hayden doesn't leave the room at noon, remember to bring him food to the room."
