Chapter 2376

Chad wanted to see Henry, but Cole just turned his face because of borrowing money, might be not welcome to see his father.

So Chad wanted to see what the boss had to say.

After Elliot answered the phone, he heard Chad talk about what happened just now, and said calmly,

“Don’t worry about this matter.”

Chad: “Okay, then I won’t go to see Henry.”

“Well.” Elliot said and was about to hang up.

“Boss, did you and Avery have a good time in Kuoslaville?” Chad said more, “I saw someone posted a photo with you on the Internet. When you go out, don't the bodyguards follow you? You still have to pay attention to safety! "

Elliot: "The bodyguards followed. Avery didn't let the bodyguards stop him."

Chad: "Oh, that's fine. I won't disturb you." "Well." Elliot hung up the phone.

Avery looked at Elliot and asked, "Who called?"

"Chad. Doesn't Cole want money? Chad took someone to find him today, but he didn't dare to borrow money." Elliot teased, "Tell me that I can't bear him. He refused to lend money to his father for treatment.

He wanted me to give it for nothing."

Avery: "Sometimes I really don't understand why a person has changed so much. When I fell in love with him before, he was not this type."

Elliot lost his appetite.

Avery looked at Elliot with a sullen face, and couldn't help laughing: "This happened so many years ago, you are still jealous! He really wasn't so bad before. I just sigh that a person's change after entering the society can be so great."

Elliot: "I grew up with him. I know better than you what kind of person he is. You think he is good, but he hides the bad side."

Avery: "Oh, so it is...I thought he was stimulated by something that caused his personality to change!"

"His parents have always spoiled him, causing him to be arrogant, timid, and irresponsible. No matter what mistakes he made, his mother will protect him, but the bad habits will not change over time." Elliot said, picked up the water glass and took a sip.

“Indeed, educating children is actually a very important thing. If you don’t educate your children well, you will actually harm the children and yourself.” Avery thought of this problem, and her mind became heavy,

“You are not good to Robert. Too spoiled.”

Elliot: “???”

Speaking of Cole, why did Avery complain about Elliot?

“You always protect Robert. You are ashamed to say that Cole’s mother is! Robert is so spoiled by you, you are not afraid of him being arrogant, timid, and not taking responsibility?”

Avery said. She also ate.

When she was full, she put down the bowls and chopsticks, and took a sip of water from the water glass.

“How can Cole compare to our son? Although I love Robert, Robert will definitely not learn badly with you and Layla around.” Elliot felt relieved when he thought that his son was being held by his daughter.

“That’s true. I don’t know what they are doing now. I’ll make a video call and go back to see.” Avery put down the water glass, found Eric’s whatsapp number, and dialed the videocall.

Eric quickly took the video.

It’s nice to have no jet lag.

“Eric, have you eaten lunch?” Avery deliberately took Elliot’s face into the camera.

“I ate lunch half an hour ago. Layla and Robert are counting red envelopes now.” Eric said, changing the camera to the rear to show her Layla and Robert.

The siblings sat on the living room blanket, which was piled high with red envelopes.

These red envelopes were gifts that Elliot and Avery received when they got married.

If Avery didn't come out for their honeymoon with Elliot on the night of the wedding, then she should be the one who opened the red envelope.

“Layla, Robert! You two little fellows, how do you unwrap your mother's red envelopes!” Avery said this with a smile.
