

When His Eyes Opened by Simple Silence Chapter 602

Chapter 602 If Avery did not look for Elliot that night, she would surely lose sleep. She hoped that Eric's career would resume as soon as possible, if not she would continue to worry.

After a short moment of hesitation, she came out of her room. The children were already asleep. The entire house was in pin-dropped silence. She could even hear her heart beating.

What was she afraid of? She was pregnant with his child at that moment. No matter what, he would not dare to harm her.

The nanny and the bodyguard have left work. Avery drove to Elliot's mansion on her own.

40 minutes later, her car parked by his gate. She came out of the car. The guards saw her face clearly with the help of the streetlights and immediately opened the gates.

Avery was pregnant with Elliot's child at that moment, who would dare to stop her?

Avery walked to the door of the mansion. Mrs. Cooper immediately came over and bent down, changing shoes for Avery.

"I can change them on my own," Avery immediately stopped her.

Mrs. Cooper said, "Avery, you're pregnant with a child right now. Don't bend down if you can. Mr. Foster said that you're coming, so I made you some. Soup."

Even though Avery had some food in the evening, she was still quite hungry.

"He told you that I'm coming?" Avery's heart skipped a beat.

"Yes! He got me to prepare some food." Mrs. Cooper changed Avery's shoes and helped her toward the dining hall. "I made your favorite dishes, but I don't know if you still have the appetite for them. Many pregnant women's tastes changed drastically before and after pregnancy!" Avery was a little in a daze. She was there to look for Elliot, not to have supper. However, Mrs. Cooper was a little too enthusiastic, it was hard for Avery to refuse her.

After sitting down by the dining table, Mrs. Cooper served her three dishes and a bowl of soup, as well as some potatoes, placing them in front of her.

After taking a sip of the soup, Avery asked, "Is Elliot asleep? I'm looking for him." It was almost eleven at night. Avery regretted a little for being too impulsive.

Mrs. Cooper said firmly, "No. He knows that you're coming. How could he have gone to bed?"

Once you're done eating, I'll go get him." Avery let out a sigh of relief. "Hmm. The soup tastes good."

"Drink less, if not you might have to get up to pee in the middle of the night. This would affect your sleep quality." Mrs. Cooper smiled, but her eyes seemed rather sad. "Avery, your tummy is quite big already, you shouldn't get angry so often. If there are any problems, communicate them well..."

Avery said, "Hmm, I will talk to him properly." After supper, Avery came out from the dining hall. Elliot was in casual loungewear, sitting at home. She did not know when he came downstairs. Avery walked over to him. She was about to say something when he said, "Why didn't you wear that slutty dress over? Am I not worthy enough for it?"

His cold voice caused ripples in her calm heart. She wanted to talk to him properly, but clearly, Elliot did not want to. "Elliot, don't be unreasonable! I'll wear what I want!" Avery blushed. She sat opposite him on the sofa. "It's late. I'll cut to the chase. Undo your boycott on Eric. This is our affair. I do not want to affect the innocent."

"Innocent? He wants to become my child's stepfather. Do you think he is innocent?" Elliot smirked and sneered. "If I don't teach him a lesson, that baby face will disrespect me!" "Can you stop saying such harsh words? He gave me his card for me to keep. When he gets married, I'll return it to him. That's all!" Avery could not help but raise her tone.
