

Hot Meets Cold Chapter 12

“And the lawn to the east, it’s burnt anyway, so why not plough it out and grow some cabbage while there’s grass and wood ash soil that’s quite fertile?”

Big cabbage

Seeing Xu Yi dumbfounded, and Si Yanghan also looking puzzled, Ye              voice lowered slightly and said weakly, “What is it?”

Si Yanghan’s slender fingers tapped on the white porcelain cup and raised his eyes slightly, “At my place, starving you on weekdays?”

Ye      choked for a moment, “Well no

She grew up with no worries about food and clothing, she had never endured hunger or starvation, and it was even more impossible to be here in Si Yeh Han, the cooks in Jin Yuan changed their patterns every day just so she could have a few more bites, because if she ate less than Si Yeh Han’s rules, those cooks would be fired.

But she didn’t know what was wrong with her, like a hamster, she had a habit of hoarding food, and the more food she had around her, the more secure she felt.

It’s just that in her previous life, being held captive by Si Yanhan, her spirit was depressed and depleted, and she gradually had little desire for food.

It was not easy to be reborn, so apart from being beautiful, delicious food was also essential, otherwise it would be a waste of time to be reborn.

After a long time, Si Yanghan glanced towards Xu Yi, “Do as you are told.”

Xu Yi’s face was ashen: “Yes

He was really naive, and thought that this woman had really changed her mind.

She actually wanted to change the top private forest garden into a vegetable garden, it was simply heartless

As soon as Ye      heard that Si Ye Han agreed, her mood cleared up and she said excitedly, “Great, so when we wait until autumn, we can have lots of delicious food!”

Wait until autumn

Hearing these four words, Si Yanghan’s complexion changed slightly, and a hint of difference crossed his eyes.

Once upon a time, Ye Qianqian full of only running away from him, how could he possibly think about the future?

All day long, Ye Qianqian discussed in detail with Xu Yi what to plant where and what to plant, directing the servants throughout the work.

By the evening, the Jin Garden, which had previously been destroyed by Ye Qianqian, had been transformed.

The east side was planted with cabbages, the west side with sunflowers, the walls were lined with newly inserted grape arbors, valuable flowers and trees had been replaced by vegetables and fruits and trees, and in the pond where the water had been changed, tails of fat grass carp and live shrimps swam happily

Once upon a time, every flower and plant in the Jin Garden was rare and precious, and the servants had to be careful even when placing their feet, otherwise they might have trampled a million to death with a single footfall.

After she had eaten and drank enough and nourished herself, she began to rethink the problems of the day.

Not only was it school, but the more fundamental issue was her current relationship and state with Si Yanghan.

To make a complete change, she had to find him and have a proper talk.

Si Yanghan's room was on the top floor, a place she would never have voluntarily stepped into in her previous life.

"Knock, knock, knock—"

"The door opened with a creak and a pair of cold, deep eyes entered.

"There's something I want to talk to you about, is this a good time?"

The man seemed to have expected her to come, there was no surprise on his face, he turned around and went back inside without saying a word, as if he had acquiesced.

Ye Qianqian hurriedly stepped forward to follow.

Tonight, no matter what, we have to get this man done!
