

Hot Meets Cold Chapter 31

“What else can I do! This student is so unbelievable!”

“Hey, Ye 00, it’s you again” Zhao Xingzhou looked helplessly at the girl in the corner as he rounded up, “Teacher Liang, don’t be too angry, this girl does have something wrong with her, but kids at this age But at this age, it’s understandable that children of this age dress up in new and different ways.”

Liang Lihua spoke with an unusually serious face, “Teacher Zhao! It’s not a matter of her dressing up! I’m afraid it’s a big problem now! Our exam questions have been leaked! This girl has the audacity to get hold of the questions for this exam from somewhere!”

Zhao Xingzhou was stunned and said with a grave expression on his face, “Teacher Liang, you can’t say such things! Our exam questions are always top secret, how could they be leaked? Besides, if the exam questions were leaked, how could she still get a 0 in maths? That’s not the right logic, is it?”

Liang Lihua snorted coldly and handed all of Ye 00’s test papers as well as the ranking sheet to Feng Rui’an, “Teacher Zhao, just take a look at this and you’ll know!”

Zhao Xingzhou took it and quickly flipped through it, and was instantly full of surprise as well, “Hey! Ye 00, this is your fault! Door to door is so high, how much does it mean to be partial to my 0 marks in maths?”

Originally, he thought she scored 0 in every subject, but who knew that except for her 0 marks in Maths, all the others were absolutely high, and she was still ranked first in the class!

In a sense, it was very impressive to be ranked first in the class despite having 0 marks in maths.

Hearing Zhao Xingzhou’s tone, Liang Lihua’s face was slightly dark, “Teacher Zhao, now you believe it!”

Zhao Xingzhou rubbed his chin and did not say anything.

Such a result was indeed too unbelievable for Ye 00, who was at the bottom of every exam.

“The expulsion notice has come down, and to make such a scene, this kind of student continuing to stay in Qinghe will only make a mess of the whole Qinghe!” Get out of here! Come with me to the Political and Educational Office right now! I’m telling you, this is no longer a problem that can be solved by expulsion alone!”

The leaking of exam questions, this kind of thing is a big deal!

“Fuck! I can’t believe it! This ugly bastard has some skills! He even managed to get the exam questions!”

“How dare he have the exam questions all to himself! He deserves it!”

“This idiot, he didn’t know how to get a few more questions wrong, so he made it so obvious that he didn’t want people to know?”

“Now the ugly bastard will be in trouble!”

In the corner of the last row by the window, the boy removed the book covering his face and glanced towards the girl beside him with a slight frown.

The girl’s face had not changed from the beginning to the end, her expression was instead as bland as if she were strolling idly, and her gaze at Liang Lihua even contained a faint trace of mockery.

Everyone was saying that Ye was a fool, and he also felt that this woman was really stupid.

If she had really gotten the exam questions, she could have done it in a more secretive way, and it would have gone completely undetected.

“Idiot! Let’s see how you end up this time!”

Ye heard the contemptuous cold hum of the boy beside her, and her brilliant star-like eyes lazily glanced towards him, “Don’t bother, this time my lady’s grade abused you properly!”

Si Xia was in a trance for a moment because of the light within those starry eyes, and when he reacted to what she had said, his head was suddenly filled with black lines.

Political Education Office.

All of the teachers in Class F had been alerted and were currently gathered around to study Ye’s test paper, with a number of students gathered outside the door to watch the fun.

One of the teachers spoke up, “This time, although the questions are tricky, they are not out of range, they are all questions we have reviewed before, we have many experts in Qinghe, there is more than just one person who scored above 290 on the test, but the point is that this score is something that Ye 000 can get out of the test? ”

“Also, how can such a high score in language not be justified? Even if the essay happened to catch the eye of the marking teacher, how can you get a point for something like reading comprehension without a deduction?” Another teacher also questioned.

The tone teacher, Feng Rui’an, also looked a little suspicious at the moment, “Ye 00, I just took a closer look at your paper and found that your first reading comprehension was actually word for word the same as the correct answer, can you explain this point?”

“I saw this question and memorized it, it’s from the second reading comprehension of the XX year A Province Six Schools Alliance Senior School Joint Examination paper!” Ye 00 speaks quickly.

When he heard that Ye actually said the source of that question in one breath, Feng Rui’an’s eyes lit up, “Good, the source of this question is indeed here, because this set of paper is too difficult to exceed the syllabus, at first the teachers of other classes and I did not require everyone to master it, but this reading comprehension question was quite good, so this time this question was picked out. You, little girl, have even done this set of papers?”

For something like reading comprehension, what they teach is the solution, it’s impossible for students to memorize the questions, after all, the original questions will definitely not be given out in the college entrance examination by then.

As a result, Ye 00 actually memorized all the answers to the reading comprehension?

Zhao Xingzhou yawned lazily and raised his hand to interject, “I still have a question, since the exam questions were leaked, why was I the only one who scored zero in maths?”

Liang Lihua said impatiently, “I guess you didn’t get the maths test questions! Otherwise who in their right mind would memorize reading comprehension, or a set of papers that the teacher doesn’t even require to master, in short the problem now is that she cheated, and she can’t even get away with this point!”

Next to her, Liu Wenbo, the Political Education Director, looked at the girl opposite with a serious face and questioned in a stern voice, “00Ye, where did you get the exam questions?”

Ye 00 got them when the test papers were handed out.”

Liang Lihua was instantly furious, “Look at you guys, you’re still not honest even now!”

Ye ÒÒÒ looks at Liang Lihua with a slightly cold gaze, “Teacher Liang, you keep saying that I cheated, please show me proof that I cheated, if there is proof that I got the test questions in advance, then I will immediately get out of Qinghe! If not, I hope that the school will withdraw the resolution of my expulsion and ask you, teacher, to apologise to me in front of the whole class!”

Liang Lihua instantly laughed coldly, “You are simply dreaming!”

Zhao Xingzhou found a chair and sat down, waving his hand, “After all this, if you want to know whether this girl’s results are real or not, just let her retake the test again? Isn’t there a spare set of second papers? Bring it over and let her retake it on the spot now!”

Retake the test?

Hearing Zhao Xingzhou’s words, all the teachers were instantly silent.

“I have no problem with that.” The language teacher nodded his head, he was really curious too whether what Ye Ò-à-être said was true or not.

When the other teachers saw this, they looked at each other and finally all agreed.

Hot Meets Cold Chapter 33

“Ye ÒÒ, just for you alone, raising a crowd and wasting much of the teacher’s precious time! It’s not too late for you to admit it now! Don’t wait until it’s time to make yourself lose face! Our Class F’s face is being disgraced by you!” Liang Lihua said angrily.

Ye ÒÒÒ smiled, “Teacher Liang, you are the one who questioned me, and you are the one who made a fuss, even if it’s a waste of time, you are the one who is wasting everyone’s time, right?”

“You

If she was the only one to retake the test, then the ranking would not be good enough to calculate, so it would be better to just prove that her results were true.

Zhao Xingzhou on the side stroked his chin, “Well, classmate Ye, your maths is worrying ah Language, Mathematics, External Politics, History and Geography, shouldn’t it be thirty questions?”

Zhao Xingzhou raised his eyebrows: “Why doesn’t maths count?”

Zhao Xingzhou immediately covered his heart, indicating that his heart had been hit by an arrow, and said with a face full of aggression, "Don't do that, what's wrong with maths, people's maths is obviously the most interesting"

Ye ÒÒ: "....." is the most sadistic, right!

The teachers deliberated for a while and finally agreed that Ye's proposal was the fairest and saved time.

Several teachers came up with five random questions each on the spot.

Soon twenty-five questions were printed out and divided into five small papers.

Zhao Xingzhou, undeterred, followed suit with five questions and looked at Ye ÒÒ with anticipation.

Director Liu looked at the time on his watch and said with an impatient expression, "Let's start, is half an hour enough for you?"

"Yes." Ye ÒÒ has no comment, sat down and began to answer the questions.

The teachers all sat on the sofa not far away, drinking tea as they waited.

Liang Lihua looked at Ye ÒÒ who buried her head and started to do the questions, her face was full of ridicule, she wanted to see how long this dead girl could pretend.

Ye ÒÒ first scanned the questions from beginning to end and then started to write.

In order to avoid the element of luck, there were no multiple-choice questions, basically they were all fill-in-the-blank questions.

In less than half an hour, the questions had all been completed.

Several teachers busily gathered around and quickly corrected them, and the final result was all correct!

Except for maths, there was still not a single question.

In order to test Ye's true performance, these questions were no less difficult than this mock exam, but this girl actually got all the questions right again without fail?

After Liang Lihua finished correcting the last five English questions, her face suddenly turned pale, "This is impossible! Ye ÒÒ has always been at the bottom of the list! How can you suddenly do so well overnight!"

Ye ÒÒ speaks with an expressionless face, "Can't it be because I'm a genius?"

“Pfft ……” Zhao Xingzhou, who was depressed, laughed out loud, “This girl probably knew how to do it before and deliberately turned in a blank exam, right? The child of the rebellious period, it is understandable! Anyway, now that the truth has come out, we have another student with excellent grades in Qinghe, isn’t this a good thing?”

As Zhao Xingzhou said this, he looked at Ye ÒÒ with an aggrieved face, “But, Ye ÒÒ, you dislike maths so much, it really hurts my teacher! Can we make a deal and share the rain in the future?”

“Sorry teacher, the student can’t do that.”

Ye ÒÒ looks at Liu Wenbo and raises his main concern, “So, Director Liu, my expulsion notice?”

Liu Wenbo received a reminder look from Liang Lihua who was jumping in anxiety and his face was a bit ugly, but at this moment, so many teachers were here, there was nothing he could do.

In the end, Liu Wenbo could only speak with a black face and a neutral voice, “According to the school rules, you have excelled in this examination, so the expulsion resolution can be suspended and observed for a period of time first! If it is proven that you have indeed changed, the resolution will naturally be withdrawn!”

Hot Meets Cold Chapter 34

It had been so hard to finally get this girl out of the way, and she had actually messed up like that?

How could Liang Lihua be willing to do that, but now that all the teachers had witnessed that Ye’s exam results were real, she also understood how much the school valued the results.

Damn it! This time, there was no way to kick this girl out!

“Then isn’t it too much to ask Teacher Liang to apologise to me?”

“I definitely won’t apologize!” Liang Lihua glared fiercely at Ye ÒÒ, her chest heaving violently with anger.

Liu Wenbo coughed lightly and said with an unpleasant expression on his face, “Classmate Ye ÒÒ, Teacher Liang she also raised a reasonable query for the sake of fairness and discipline in the examination, how can you embarrass your teacher?”

“Teacher Liang wrongly accused me and slandered my character in front of all the students without checking, shouldn’t I be the one to be embarrassed?”

“Let teacher Liang tell everyone in the class later and clear your name, that’s all. Liu Wenbo surprisingly just pressed down Ye Qianqian’s request for an apology.

Ye Qianqian looked at the man opposite with a cold smile, and then looked at Liang Lihua, and suddenly spoke quietly, “A few months ago, one dark and windy night, I passed by the school grove, I think I saw Teacher Liang, oh yes, in addition to Teacher Liang there was also Liu

Hearing this, Liang Lihua instantly turned pale and hurriedly interrupted her, “All right, I promise to apologize! What else do you have to say to me in private, do not delay the other teachers!”

Liang Lihua had never thought that Ye Qianqian, who had always been sullen and timid, would have the audacity to threaten her with this matter!

She was not going to be as foolish as before and allow this woman to suppress her.

She believed that with this matter as a handle, Liang Lihua would have to be more restrained.

“Understood.” Ye Qianqian.

.....

Soon, Liang Lihua returned to the class with a black face, and Ye Qianqian returned after her.

The classroom was instantly quiet, and all gazes fell on Ye Qianqian with incomparable heat.

Liang Lihua was so angry that her nails were about to poke her palms, but she could only speak word for word, “Students, the teachers have just proved by drawing questions on the spot and retaking the test, that Ye’s exam results are true, she is indeed number one in the class, and it was the teachers who failed to check clearly before, for this, the teachers are here to apologise to Ye’s classmate!”

The moment the words fell the whole class was abuzz.

After all, it was too shocking that a bottom of the class scum suddenly became the top of the class, no matter what.

“Ye Ò really is number one in the class, hell no!”

“Hahahaha, who just said that if Ye ÒÒ is number one in the class, he will go eat shi? Is Fang Ping you?”

“Fuck off! You’re the one eating shi!”

“It’s just a good grade! What’s the big deal! She doesn’t need to live if she doesn’t get better grades if she’s so ugly!”

“I thought I’d finally get to stop seeing this ugly bitch, but now I have to put up with it!”

.....

The first time I saw the girl, I thought I’d be able to see her.

As soon as they heard that they were going to adjust their seats, there was a wail in the classroom, some were happy and some were sad.

Congratulations, you finally don’t have to face this face of mine anymore!”

The teenager’s forehead was bruised as he cupped his ranking sheet in his hand, goodbye my ass!

Ten minutes later, everyone bustled around and quickly readjusted their seats.

Afterwards, everyone’s eyes were eerily fixed on the two positions in the first row of the first group.

The seat on the left of the first row: Ye ÒÒ

Position on the right of the first row: Si Xia

Hot Meets Cold Chapter 35

At this moment, the boy next to Ye ÒÒ glanced at the face next door that had been giving him nightmares for days on end, and the glint in his eyes was almost unbearable.

If he had known, it would have been better for him to come second even if he had come bottom of the exam.

Ye ÒÒ looked sympathetically at his own nephew beside him, “Junior, be sad, life is still a long way to go, this little setback is actually nothing!”

Si Xia took a deep breath, forcing down his emotions that were on the verge of an outburst, “Shut up!”

Ye ŌŌ finally stopped irritating someone and plopped down on the table and started to continue catching up on her sleep, she had consumed too much earlier and hadnŌt fully made up for it.

After everyone had adjusted their seats, Liang Lihua then spoke, “The exams are over, there is another very important matter next. As I believe you all know, in order to welcome the school leaders’ inspection, the school has organised a cultural performance this time, requiring each class to put up a show.

At the last class meeting, we had already decided that our class’s programme would be the stage play Snow White, and the person for the prince was chosen as Si Xia, but the choice for the female lead, Snow White, was delayed.”

Hearing Liang Lihua mention the literary performance, everyone’s eyes lit up at once, especially the girls in the class.

The girls in the class had been tearing each other apart for this performance.

The reason for the delay in deciding on the female lead was that a few girls had torn it up too much before.

Many of the students in the class have backgrounds at home, and they were fighting to the death, secretly buying votes, threatening their classmates to vote for them, and even almost getting into a mob brawl in the school.

After thinking about it, she thought that it would be easiest to draw lots and not to fight for anyone.

So, Liang Lihua continued to speak, “For the sake of fairness and for all students to have a chance to participate, I have decided that the choice of this candidate, will be decided by drawing lots! No one will have any objections to the result of the draw!”

“Teacher, I don’t have a problem with that!”

“I don’t have a problem with it either, let’s draw lots!”

The students agreed with one voice to Liang Lihua’s decision.

Originally, the chances were all in the hands of those few girls, but now that the chances were equally divided, everyone had a chance, so naturally most of them agreed.

Only a few girls who originally had a better chance stared reluctantly, especially the class flower, Cheng Xue, who was always coaxed by the students to pair up with Si Xia.

Liang Lihua was relieved to see this and asked the class monitor to write the names of every girl in the class on a small slip of paper and put it in a small box.

“Let classmate Si Xia draw for this spot!” Liang Lihua spoke up.

Otherwise if someone else had drawn it, it was inevitable that those girls would be all kinds of unconvinced again when the time came.

All the girls nodded their heads like garlic at the words.

Wow! The male god himself drew ah!

If this can be drawn is like saving the galaxy in a previous life!

The class president walked over with the box in his arms, “Classmate Si Xia.”

Under the countless pairs of expectant eyes, Si Xia looked impatient and casually drew a slip from the box and tossed it to the class president without looking at it.

The class president took the slip of paper and was almost burned through by the girls’ eyes.

“Ahem, the person Sisha drew is” the class president said as he carefully opened the small slip of paper.

He was about to read out the name, however the next second

However, the class monitor was struck by lightning and stared at the slip of paper in a dumbfounded manner.

The next thing you know, you’re not going to be able to get the best out of it.

The class president’s expression inexplicably gave him a sense of foreboding

At this moment, the class president almost did not dare to look Si Xia in the eye, let alone look at the expressions of those girls, until he was urged by everyone, then he swallowed and stammered, “The one who was drawn is Ye Ye ÒÒÒ”

“What did you say?” The boy grabbed the note from the class president’s hand.

On the note, the words “Ye ÒÒà” were clear as day!

She wiped the saliva from the corner of her mouth and opened her eyes in a daze, looking towards her tablemate, “What’s wrong

Si Xia looked at the girl's horrified face, chaste-like stray hair, drooling sleepy eyes,
“.....”

So, want to, put, just, just, that, hand, to, chop, up!
