

Honey, Please Love Someone Else

Chapter 79 - Got Served

I desperately tried to escape from this hell. I swear to god! If I can get away from here I will kill this bitch! I have never felt the urge to kill someone. But today, I'm going to break my own limits.

I never thought that the whole situation will turn into a disaster. At first I just wanted to warn Vanessa and talk out everything. I wanted to keep Stella away from all the hazards. If only I had informed her about the meet up.

How the hell Vanessa planned all this? No matter who she is, I have a powerful status and background. She even managed to get my phone number without me knowing about it.

My weak body was pinned down on the bed. At that time the door slammed open, showing me the light of freedom. Someone yanked Vanessa's body from me. I quickly got up to see who came in here to save me. It was Stella. At this moment I truly felt that she's my Wonder Woman.

I can clearly see the anger on Stella's face. Before Vanessa could speak, her cheek was slapped hard by Stella. The room echoed with the slamming noise.

"How dare you! Enough is enough Vanessa! I can't even imagine you tried to do something so shameful and disgusting." Stella roared at her like a lioness.

"Don't give me that crap-" Second slap laid on Vanessa's cheek, making her stop in the mid way of her sentence.

"No you listen! You took my husband into a hotel room and tried to take advantage of him, just to see me in pain? I have suffered a lot for you but not even for once I wanted to see you hurt. Is this how you repay my kindness? you fucking slut!"

As soon she spoke those words, Stella slapped Vanessa again. "I will not tolerate your bullshit anymore! You bitch! This time I will fucking show you what happens when I get angry!" Stella grabbed Vanessa's arm and she yanked her towards the door.

"Let go off my hand." Vanessa whimpered while trying to get herself free from Stella's tight grip.

" Get the fuck outta here and don't you ever show me your fucking face, you whore!"
Woah there! I have never seen Stella this angry. She didn't even flinch for a second to say those words.

" I'm not going anywhere dressing up like this-"

" Security! Security!"

" What the fuck! Why the hell you are calling them!"

" Yes mam." I could see two security guards standing in front the door.

" Take her out from here." The guards grabbed Vanessa's arm and then tried to pull her away from the door. Those guard didn't looked surprised either as if they heard about the situation.

" Stella! You will pay for this!" Vanessa kept own screaming and cursing at Stella as those guards took her away. Stella locked the door and walked at me.

My heart was overflowing with happiness as I was going to hug her but she slapped my cheek hard. I bet it became red instantly along with her hand prints.

" What was that for?" I asked her being dumbfounded. Seriously I had no idea why she slapped me. I mean I was clearly the victim here.

" Why didn't you do anything when she was trying to take advantage of you!" With a ragging voice she asked me. Her eyes were shooting bullets at me. I can't even look straight at her face.

" What could I do that time?"

" You could have hit her, punched her in the stomach. Or hit her head with the lamp. Don't tell me you don't know anything about self defence!"

" How could I hit a girl?"

" God damn it! She was about to **** you! Don't tell me that you actually wanted it to happen! Did ya?"

" No! How can you say that! It's true that I could have hit her to get away from this place. In fact I once thought of it. But my head was dizzy, my body was feeling weak.

Before I went unconscious, I had a drink which Vanessa gave me. She probably had mixed something to it"

" That explains all. I wonder how did she managed to drag you all the way here by herself." She was right about that. It is not possible for Vanessa to drag me here while I was literally unconscious.

" Probably she asked someone for help. By the way how did you find out that I was here?"

" Actually I took your project file mistakenly. I went your office to give it back. But when I went there, John told me that a lady called you and you left the office in a hurry. You were looking tensed and frustrated. So I thought the lady can be Vanessa."

" I see. But what about this location?"

" Look, if I called Vanessa, she won't tell me about her location or anything. That's why I called Neil. He can hack into security cameras. Last time you were seen outside this hotel so I came here directly, asking the manager if they had seen you. The guards told me that a lady had escorted you here. I took the spare key from the manager and rest you know."

" Wow! That was so intense. I'm so lucky to have a wife like you." Pulling her body at me, I embraced her firmly. I feel like home when I'm in her arms. Her warm body lights up my soul with bliss. It's still an unknown thing to me that how my body and soul reacts when ever I'm with her.

My lips began to kiss around her earlobe, sniffing around her hair. The floral sent, which was coming from her body and the fruity sent which was coming from her hair, both of them gave me mixed fragrance.

" If you didn't came on time, I would have my virginity stole." I told her sarcastically to lit up her mood.

" Very funny. Let's go home now."

" No let's stay here! Look at this bed. I'm totally tuned on." I suggested her, making a puppy eye look.

" Oh I see. Few minutes ago you had no energy in your body." She mocked me in return.

" That energy and this energy, both are not same honey. It's about the will power and désirè." Blowing my chést upward, I told her confidently.

" There may be hidden cameras here. What if Vanessa bugged the room to film the whole thing."

" So what! I'm having sèx with my wife. Not with some random woman. Just relax."

" Well I don't want other people to see my husband nàkèd."

" Uhh now that you said it, I also don't want people to you see nàkèd. We should go home for now."

" Yeah. Can you walk ?"

" I won't mind a little help from you dear."

" Sure sure. Here, put your hand on my shoulder and try to walk."

" What would I do without you honey?"

" Hmm, even I wonder that." She gave me gentle smile.

" We are having sèx when we reach home, right?"

" It's not even night."

" Please try to understand. I'm having a boner."

" Keep it under your pant." Stella scolded me like a little kid.

I called John and informed him that I'm fine. By the way we also had sèx after we went home. Although I probably lost a vital meeting but I'm glad that after today, the Vanessa chapter is closed forever.

We have witnesses who saw that Vanessa tried to drug me and then take advantage of me. If we take legal action on her, she will be dead meat.

And guess what? We did complained about her crime. Yes, no mercy for a vexing woman like her. If we let her go again she will try to harm us in future.

I hope she rots in jail.
