

C221 Signatory Cooperation

Zhao Qian and Wang Jing made a ruckus in the hotel until the middle of the night before they went to bed. When he woke up, it was already ten-thirty in the morning. Wang Jing had already left.

Zhao Qian took out his cell phone and called Wang Jing.

"Hey, when did you leave? Why didn't you call me?"

Wang Jing snorted and replied, "You have no conscience. You only know how to sleep after sleeping. Can I sleep like you? I have to buy some medicine. In the afternoon, I will go to your company to sign the contract.

Zhao Qian replied apologetically, "I was too tired last night, so I slept a bit more. Actually, he wasn't in such a hurry. He could eat within 24 hours. So next time, I'll buy my supplies ahead of time. "Okay?"

Wang Jing immediately scolded, "Bastard, do you want a next time? What are you dreaming about! "

Zhao Qian laughed and replied, "Alright, alright, there won't be a next time. "Then I will personally go over and sign with you this afternoon. What time is it?"

"Three!" I still have things to do, so I'll hang up first! "

With that, Wang Jing hung up the phone.

Zhao Qian quickly got up, went out to eat lunch, and directly went to Mr Qian Entertainment.

Yuan Mi quickly brought him to her office and asked respectfully, "Director Zhao, why are you so free today? Is there something wrong? You can just call me. There's no need to come here yourself. "

Zhao Qian replied with a smile, "I talked to the Huaying Group about a project, and their manager came over at 3 in the afternoon to sign the contract. I've got some time recently, so I came over to take a look. I gave Wu Xin the role of the second female lead so that she could seize the opportunity. This is her chance to soar into the sky. "

Yuan Mi asked with some doubt, "Director Zhao, can I ask the director of this movie as well as the male and female lead actors?"

"The director is Feng De, a young director who has been in a frenzy recently. The male and female lead hasn't been decided yet, but I want the second female lead, and it has to be Wu Xin. " Zhao Qian replied honestly.

Yuan Mi was even more confused. Since Mr Qian Entertainment was one of the sponsors, why didn't he try to win over the female lead to Wu Xin, and only ask for the second female lead?

Zhao Qian gave his own explanation: "Wu Xin's acting skills still need to be honed. She has almost no charisma at the box office. If she was the lead actress, the movie would be ruined and it would give her a lot of pressure. It doesn't matter if the second female lead was ruined, but the audience won't fuss over it too much. "

Yuan Mi nodded and quickly called the director and screenwriter over. If you want Wu Xin to stand out on her number two, then you have to professionally give her a part and a more pleasing character.

An hour later, the screenwriter Xu Ying and the director Chen Jie arrived. They were the company's most senior writers and directors.

The two of them quickly greeted Zhao Qian.

"Young Master, long time no see. How have you been?" Xu Ying asked with a smile.

Chen Jie also quickly greeted, "Hello, Young Master."

Zhao Qian nodded with a smile and replied, "Not bad. "What about you guys, are you having difficulties at work?"

The two of them quickly shook their heads and said there was nothing difficult about it. Zhao Qian nodded and told them to sit down.

Yuan Mi was a little confused and asked carefully, "Director Zhao, why did they call you Young Master?"

Zhao Qian laughed and replied, "You will know about this in the future. "Alright, let's get down to business."

Zhao Qian explained the project to the two of them and put forward his request, which was to let Wu Xin's character shine as much as possible.

Xu Ying and Chen Jie quickly tried to think of a character for Wu Xin, all the way until Wang Jing came over with someone.

The two sides sat down at Conference Room and began to discuss the details formally.

Wang Jing asked Zhao Qian: "Director Zhao, what other requests do you have? If not, then let's sign the contract. "

Zhao Qian looked at Xu Ying and Chen Jie. The two of them understood each other immediately and stood up to describe Wu Xin's character requirement.

After all, Zhao Qian was willing to invest 150 million just for the role of the second female lead. No matter what request they put forward, the Huaying side would not object.

The two of them wrote this into the contract and Zhao Qian immediately signed it. Wang Jing also signed the contract. The two companies each had one copy, and the contract was officially effective.

Wang Jing smiled and said, "To be fair, Director Zhao can send Director Chen and Editor Xu over to participate in the production of the movie. Director Chen can be an assistant director, and Xu can be a screenwriter. "

Zhao Qian looked at the two and asked, "Are you two willing to go?"

Chen Jie quickly replied, "Director Zhao, I want to give it a try." Director Feng's film department is selling like crazy. I really want to go and learn from him. "

Xu Ying replied, "Director Zhao, I also want to go and have a try. It's a big production this time, so I can definitely learn a lot of lessons. "

Zhao Qian nodded and said, "Alright! Then you two can go. Director Wang, do you still have any business to attend to? "

Wang Jing shook her head.

"Then let's talk about personal matters." Zhao Qian said with a smile.

Wang Jing looked a little uncomfortable as she replied quickly with a straight face, "What private matters do we have to discuss? "Only business!"

The others quickly packed up their stuff and left Zhao Qian and Wang Jing alone in the office.

Wang Jing was livid and shouted, "Are you crazy? In front of so many people, what kind of private matter are you talking about? What if they misunderstand? "

"Why are you so nervous? So what if they misunderstood? "Are you that afraid of being related to me?"

"Yes!" I just don't want to get involved with you, so please don't talk about personal matters in front of outsiders in the future. "OK?"

Judging from Wang Jing's expression, she seemed to be very angry. Zhao Qian was puzzled. Was there a need to be like that? So what if they misunderstood their relationship?

"Are you still angry with me?" Zhao Qian asked carefully.

Wang Jing snorted and replied, "No." Why should I be angry with you? I'm so free! "

Zhao Qian smiled and said: "Look, look. You are obviously angry." "Excuse me, can I make up for it?"

Wang Jing suddenly laughed and asked, "Do you really want to make amends?"

Zhao Qian retracted his smile and replied: "Why do I feel like your smile has no good intentions? Speak, what exactly is the matter? "

Wang Jing smiled magnanimously and said, "We've been wanting to do a TV show recently and lack a partner. Can you help me share some of the pressure?"

Zhao Qian rolled his eyes speechlessly and said, "As long as it's a money-earning project, I definitely won't reject it. Do you have to play with me?"

Wang Jing chuckled and replied, "This project is a bit special. I'm afraid that you won't be able to accept it, so I'll have to use some tricks."

Zhao Qian shook his head helplessly and said, "You, sometimes you are really childish to act like a cold goddess. Let me tell you this, I won't agree to anything that I don't want to do, no matter what scheme you use. Whatever I am willing to do, I will do without any tricks. So, if you have anything to say in the future, don't play games with me. "Is that okay?"

Wang Jing nodded and immediately told Zhao Qian about the project. Zhao Qian's face turned ugly the moment he heard that. Because the drama that the Huaying Group was going to film this time, had been edited from the latest fantasy novel, "Demon Ancestor of the Divine Realm", abandoned by the world's online Great God.

This Forsaken God had a huge conflict with Dreamlike back then, and he was supported by Yang Ming. Most importantly, Yang Ming had already bought the rights to the 'Celestial domain Devil Ancestor'. Why did Wang Jing develop this IP?

Zhao Qian's face fell as he coldly asked, "What do you mean by that? Do the project that Yang Ming is working on, you and him are messing around, right? "

C222 Want to Take Control of Shadow

Wang Jing knew about the conflict between Zhao Qian and Yang Ming, so she didn't want him to misunderstand. She quickly explained, "Don't think too much into it, there's a reason for this."

Zhao Qian nodded and let her explain the reason.

To put it bluntly, it was an old friendship between Yang Cheng and Wang Lin. The Feiyu Group suffered a heavy loss due to having to use drugs on Huang Daming and Li Xiaobing, and had to pay a total of 1.2 billion in penalty fees to over a dozen companies.

It was impossible for a normal operating company to have so much cash. The Feiyu Group could only sell the items on their hands, in exchange for compensation of the 1.2 billion.

As a former friend, Wang Lin naturally couldn't just watch Yang Cheng fall like that, so he helped Yang Ming buy the rights to the novels of the Great God that he bought from Yang Ming.

After market proof, Huaying Group decided to develop Great God's 《 Devil Region》 that was abandoned by the heavens. Start with a smaller investment, do a season of TV shows to see how the market reacts, and then decide whether to continue.

But it's a cold winter for film and television, and companies are very careful with their investments. Huaying Group did not have that much money to spend, so Wang Jing thought about Zhao Qian.

Zhao Qian had a lot of money, but he didn't have much on hand. As long as he was willing to invest, the project could be carried out.

If you make money, continue to develop. If they didn't earn money, based on the relationship between Wang Jing and Zhao Qian, Zhao Qian wouldn't say anything.

To put it bluntly, Wang Jing wanted to use Zhao Qian's money to help Huaying test if there was a market for the « Infernal domain ».

After listening to Wang Jing's explanation, Zhao Qian nodded and asked, "So now, the entire copyright for this novel is in Huaying hands?"

Wang Jing's eyes flickered. She shook her head guiltily and replied, "Feiyu still has 20% of the copyright."

Zhao Qian's expression immediately darkened. He sneered at Wang Jing and asked, "You ..." "Do you take me for Kaizi?"

Wang Jing immediately shook her head in denial. "How could I think of you that way? "I know the conflict between you and Yang Ming ... "

"You're still mentioning it even after knowing it? Do you think that I can spend money to help the Feiyu pass through this obstacle? I can't f*cking spend too much money, it would be better for me to take care of a few female celebrities than to help Feiyu, right? You're crazy, Watt! retarded! "

After Zhao Qian scolded her, he stood up and was about to leave. Wang Jing quickly pulled him back and shouted, "What kind of attitude is this! You're the retard! "Even if you don't want to, even if you're unhappy, you can just refuse. Why are you scolding me?"

"You should have scolded me! "You clearly know about the situation between me and Yang Ming, but you still told me about it. Do you respect me?" Wu Tie replied angrily.

Actually, Wang Jing knew very well that Zhao Qian would never agree. She had also fought with her father over this, buying out all the copyright to prevent Feiyu from participating in the project's production.

However, Wang Lin couldn't get rid of his face, and at this time, he added insult to injury. Wang Jing could only endure the pressure as she came over to test Zhao Qian's intentions.

Wang Jing's eyes softened a lot as she said softly, "I know it's my fault, but my dad is too embarrassed to add insult to injury at this time. I can't do anything about it." Even if it's for me, okay? "

Zhao Qiang shook his head firmly and replied, "There is no room for negotiation on this matter. I cannot give Feiyu money. If you want me to invest, Feiyu must sell off all the shares in my hands. "

Wang Jing thought for a while, then asked, "Then I'll sell it to you, but you have to pay more, okay?" I beg of you, I can't refuse my father's request. "Oh, please."

Aiya, she usually acts like a queen. This act of coquettishness truly takes one's life.

Zhao Qian hesitated for a moment, then laughed: "I can pay a high price to buy the remaining copyright in Feiyu's hands. "But you have to give me some compensation?"

Wang Jing nodded and asked, "What kind of compensation do you want? Just tell me."

Zhao Qian smirked and replied, "I'll tell you when I need you. You have to agree to my condition first."

Wang Jing immediately shook her head and said no, what if his request was too excessive? Did she have to do it? Either say it clearly in advance or not compensate.

Zhao Qian's temper also started to rise. He had to bear with it more and more. Since she doesn't know what's good for her, there's no need to be polite with her.

"Then forget it, go find someone else to work with." However, I'm warning you, if you dare to help Feiyu, you are going against me. I won't show mercy to Huaying because of your face. Don't challenge my bottom line. "

With that, Zhao Qian left.

Wang Jing had never put Mr Qian Entertainment in her eyes. How could a newly established company compare to Huaying that had been in operation for many years? She immediately chased after Zhao Qian and stopped him in the parking lot.

"Zhao Qian, stop right there!" Wang Jing yelled as she angrily walked in front of Zhao Qian.

Zhao Qian turned around to look at her with a serious face and asked, "What do you want? You want to chase after me and scold me? "

Wang Jing immediately replied, "That's right! I chased after you to scold you! Don't use the method you use on others on me. I even told you, you really can do whatever you want with your Huaying. "Do you have the ability to do that?"

Zhao Qian nodded, turned around and left in the car. Wang Jing was immediately angered to the point of tears, wiping away her tears as she glared at the back of Yang Chen's car.

No matter what, the two of them had a super friendship now. Zhao Qian was too hateful for not caring about her situation at all. She felt that she was so pitiful. He had slept with her for nothing, so she couldn't get any compensation.

Huaying Group was a listed company, putting everything else aside, controlling it was still very easy.

Zhao Qian drove to Fuhai Investment and directly went to Wu Xiaohua's office.

Wu Xiaohua hurriedly stood up to welcome him and asked, "Director Zhao, what can I do for you?"

Zhao Qian immediately replied: "You should check the distribution of the shares in Huaying Group for me. I need to know the results as soon as possible. "

Wu Xiaohua did as she was told. Five minutes later, she returned with the data report.

Zhao Qian quickly took a look. Huaying Group was one of the first batch of entertainment media companies to go public.

Total equity 2 billion shares, current stock price 2.9 yuan/share, total market value 5.8 billion yuan. The top ten shareholders' holdings were as follows: Huaying Chief Wang Lin held 500 million shares, accounting for 25% of the total, and was the company's largest shareholder. Wang Lin's brother Wang Hai owns 100 million shares, or 5%. None of the other shareholders accounted for more than 5 per cent. The top ten shareholders have a combined stake of 800 million shares, or 40 per cent.

Zhao Qian laughed happily and said to Wu Xiaohua: "Immediately get someone to analyze how much I need to spend to control Huaying."

Wu Xiaohua quickly obeyed and ran out in a flurry.

Ten minutes later, Wu Xiaohua returned with her analysis.

According to his estimates, if he wanted to gain absolute control of Huaying, which was to control 51% of the shares in Huaying, he would have to spend at least 4 billion.

Zhao Qian asked: "The current market value of Huaying is only 5.8 billion. If I want 51% of the shares, why would I need to spend 4 billion?"

Wu Xiaohua quickly explained: "We will definitely raise the price of the goods from the secondary market. The stock price is set to rise by at least 30 per cent. 4 billion is still a conservative estimate, which may actually cost even more. Director Zhao, why did you want to buy Huaying? We already have our own film and television Production Company. "

Zhao Qian was silent. Spending more than 4 billion to stock up was a bit too much. Although their family did not lack this amount of money, they could not afford to squander it blindly.

"Do you want to hold the Huaying or not?" Zhao Qian mumbled to himself and was momentarily at a loss of what to do.

C223 Do as You Wish

Zhao Qian wasn't an impulsive person. He wouldn't blindly spend a high price to control the Huaying just to get angry at Wang Jing.

Zhao Qian then ordered Wu Xiaohua: "Go and check for me again the recent five years' worth of report of Huaying Group. Analyze how profitable they are. If I spend more than 4 billion of my capital to control Huaying, how long will it take to recoup the investment? "

Wu Xiaohua quickly went to do what she needed to do, and brought along the analysts who invested in Fuhai to analyze the Group's results of the last five years.

Half an hour later, Wu Xiaohua came back with her analysis report to Zhao Qian.

In the last five years, Huaying Group's revenue had been increasing, but its net profit was not optimistic, with a series of 5 million, 2 million, -5 million, -1 million, -150 million.

The net profit of $150 million last year was not because they were doing better, but because they were lucky enough to invest in a military film. That movie ended up with a box office profit of 5.6 billion, and their Huaying bonus of 160 million. This allowed their net profit to rise to 150 million.

If it weren't for Wang Jing's good taste, and without this investment, they would have suffered losses for three consecutive years, and the company's shares would have been discounted as a reminder.

If Zhao Qian had over 4 billion yuan in Huaying, returning to the beginning would be too difficult.

Wu Xiaohua suggested, "Young Master, I think we should forget about it. Huaying are not worth investing in, the price is too big, and the risk is also high. "

Zhao Qian also understood this logic, but he just couldn't stand Wang Jing's aloof attitude. If she did not obtain the Huaying, she forever felt that Zhao Qian was inferior to her.

At this moment, Wang Jing called Zhao Qian.

Zhao Qian picked up the phone and asked, "What's the matter?"

Wang Jing purposefully provoked him, "It's nothing. I just want to know what you're doing. Do you know how to deal with me?"

"Hehe ..." Do you know that I hate people who provoke me the most? " Zhao Qian said angrily.

"Oh? Is that so? Then you're angry. It's not like I'm angry, I don't care. As for me, I just want to tell you that you can't be too ambitious, only by taking one step at a time can you go far. Impulse alone made it impossible to improve. When your Mr Qian Entertainment stands up for in the entertainment circle, come and tell me again about defeating Huaying. Humph! "This is so infuriating!"

Wang Jing hung up the phone after she said that. It seemed like she was really angry, she just called Zhao Qian purposefully to anger him and vent the anger in his heart.

Zhao Qian did not hesitate and said to Wu Xiaohua: "Alright then, send down an order for me to control the Huaying. How much did I spend? I personally invested it using Fuhai. You can show it in the statement when you do the accounts. "

Wu Xiaohua was a bit hesitant. After all, it was over 4 billion yuan, so she didn't dare make the decision that easily.

"Young Master, this matter is outside my responsibility, I can't make the decision. Why don't you wait a moment, I'll send a video to my dad, just tell him directly. "

Zhao Qian nodded. Wu Xiaohua immediately sent a video call request to Wu Tianzhi.

Very soon, the video connected. The father and daughter exchanged a few words of pleasantries. Wu Xiaohua quickly explained the situation and then passed her phone to Zhao Qian.

Wu Tianzhi quickly greeted Zhao Qian, "Young Master, how have you been?"

Zhao Qian nodded with a smile and replied, "Not bad. What do you think about what Miss Wu told you just now? "

Wu Tian Zhi laughed and replied: "Of course not. Young Master needs money, that is just a sentence." However, I have to tell Young Master something in advance, and I must tell Director Zhao. Please forgive me for that. "

After all, it was over 4 billion yuan, so it was only right for Wu Tianzhi to consult Zhao Fu. Zhao Qian nodded in agreement.

Wu Tianzhi immediately smiled and said: "Ok, Young Master, wait a moment. I will call Director Zhao to report to him." As long as he does not refuse, I will immediately approve it. "

"Yes."

Zhao Qian hung up the phone and waited for the news.

After a while, Zhao Fu personally called his son and asked: "Son, why do you want to control Huaying? That girl asked you to buy her? "

Zhao Qian asked in surprise, "How do you know her?"

"Haha ..." You are my son, can I not keep an eye on you? Do you really think that dad didn't care about asking you when I threw you into the East Sea alone? " Zhao Fu replied with a smile.

Zhao Fu only has one son, so he must always pay attention to him and protect him. When Zhao Qian wasn't in danger, he would let him be. Once he was in danger, Yang Hu would deal with him immediately.

Zhao Qian replied with a smile, "Like I said, only dad is good in this world. Can you lend me 4 billion this time? "

Zhao Fu laughed and replied: "Of course I can lend it to you. The key thing is, I want to know why you want to control Huaying. You have to give me a reasonable reason, don't you? "

"Reason? If I really have to find a reason, it would be that I want to take a shortcut and let my Mr Qian Entertainment go on the market earlier. " Zhao Qian said.

He was too embarrassed to say that he had to control the Huaying because of his combat power with Wang Jing.

Since his son wanted to do proper work, Zhao Fu naturally wouldn't object. He immediately replied, "Sure! I'll give you this chance. Let's see how you handle this situation. I'll tell Wu Tianzhi that I'll give you as much as you want. However, I will put it first. "If you mess up this time, I won't give you that much money to pay tuition later on."

Zhao Qian replied immediately, "Understood. Dad, don't worry. I am confident that I can do this project well and definitely won't let our family lose any money. "

"Haha ..." Good. Then I'll see how you behave. How far have you progressed with that little girl from the Huaying? " Zhao Fu asked with a smile.

Zhao Qian was flustered and quickly replied: "What's going on? I have nothing to do with her. "

Zhao Fu laughed out loud and said, "Look at you, what is there to be embarrassed about? You're not young anymore, so you have to find someone. My requirements aren't that high, just like the girls from Huaying. His family was pure, had knowledge, and ability. They could help you. I don't like the idea of a bright star net being popular, so don't find something like that for me. "

Zhao Qian rolled his eyes helplessly and replied, "Dad, I think you're thinking too much. I have to get down to business. "Let's chat again when we're free. Bye bye."

Zhao Qian quickly hung up the phone and waited for Wu Tianzhi to notify Wu Xiaohua.

Five minutes later, Wu Tianzhi called Wu Xiaohua and allowed her to sign the loan.

Wu Xiaohua hung up the phone and quickly said to Zhao Qian, "Young Master, there's no problem with the funds. You can use it at any time."

Zhao Qian nodded in satisfaction and said, "Prepare the money first. We can only have a little. In addition, you should instruct the manager of the company to release some negative news right now and suppress the price of Huaying. After that, we will take the opportunity to sweep the stock and reduce the cost as much as possible. "

Wu Xiaohua immediately praised, "I didn't expect Young Master to be so knowledgeable in the stock market, and even knew to control the stock price with news."

"Haha ..." I started learning finance when I was fifteen. This is common sense. If I didn't know, I would have lived this long for nothing. Alright, hurry up and do it. I'll wait to see the results. "

With that, Zhao Qian stood up and left. Wu Xiaohua hurried to send him off.

"Young Master, take care. I will definitely do what you say."

Zhao Qian walked out, bid farewell to his colleagues and left directly.

The colleagues discussed softly.

"Hey, what do you think Zhao Qian does every day? "As soon as I arrived, I went to Manager Wu's office and left as soon as I came out. I didn't stay to work at all."

"I heard Manager Wu gave him the job of going out and looking for a company suitable for investment. From the looks of it, the target this time is Huaying. "

"But the profitability of Huaying does not satisfy our investment requirements at all. Why did Zhao Qian choose this company? Can Manager Wu agree? "

C224 Start Sweeping

Very quickly, Wu Xiaohua came out and announced loudly, "Listen, everyone's attention is now focused on the project of controlling Huaying. Put a little negative news out first, quell the share price a bit, and test the market reaction. "

Everyone was stunned when they heard this. What kind of aphrodisiac did Zhao Qian feed Manager Wu? He even managed to explain it to her?

With the principle of thinking for the benefit of the company, everyone quickly tried to persuade Wu Xiaohua.

"Manager Wu, Huaying Group's profitability is too poor, it's not worth for us to invest."

"That's right, the Huaying data simply does not meet our investment requirements. This will affect our performance and affect our year-end bonus. "

"Manager Wu, please think about it carefully." "Zhao Qian just started his career. He's inexperienced, so let's train him a bit more."

" ... "

Wu Xiaohua guessed that everyone would say that, so she gestured for everyone to quiet down and explained, "Everyone, don't worry. Zhao Qian was the one who was going to do this project, he was borrowing money from the company to invest in Huaying. The company will just take it as a favor, not counting our investment, it will not affect your year-end bonus. "

When Wu Xiaohua said this, everyone became even more puzzled. Zhao Qian was someone who had just joined the company, why would he let the company loan him an investment in Huaying?

"Manager Wu, why would the company help him? He's just a new employee, isn't that a bit too much? "

"Does Manager Wu think that he's handsome? That's kind of him."

"Haha ..."

Wu Xiaohua rolled her eyes and immediately replied seriously, "Alright, stop talking nonsense! Since Zhao Qian had the ability to talk to the company headquarters, he had no choice but to accept it. Alright, let's cut the crap and get to work. "You should all be more serious. It's the head of the main company who spoke up this time. No one has a good ending if you fail."

Everyone nodded their heads and quickly went to work.

On the morning of the second day, the headlines of all the major financial news headlines had all been covered with dark information about Huaying.

"Huaying Group is suspected of financial fraud."

"In order to escape the danger of wearing a hat, Huaying Group sold buildings and forcefully turned their results into profit."

"Huaying Group spending a high price to purchase the rotten items in the hands of Feiyu Group, harming the interests of the 120 thousand citizens."

"Rumor has it that the CSRC will be setting up a case to investigate Huaying Group."

" ... "

A series of horrifying headlines exploded in the stock market.

During the 9:15 bidding period, the Huaying Group's shares were directly suppressed to the point of falling to a halt.

Wang Jing was still on her way to the company when she received a call from her secretary. She quickly checked the company's stock and related news, which made her extremely angry.

With so much news about Huaying suddenly appearing, someone must be up to no good. The first person Wang Jing thought of was Zhao Qian.

She immediately called Zhao Qian and asked angrily: "Zhao Qian, tell me the truth, are you up to no good?"

Zhao Qian was disdainful of acting shameless. He replied directly: "Yes, it's me. What about it?"

Wang Jing was furious and scolded, "You bastard, you're crazy!"

"No!" We're both competitors after all. Isn't this a very normal method of competition? " Zhao Qian said calmly.

"Shameless!" If you want to compete, you can compete with me fair and square. Don't forget, we still have to work together! If anything goes wrong with your Huaying, then your investment will go down the drain as well! " Wang Jing replied angrily.

However, Zhao Qian didn't care at all, and replied calmly: "I just signed the contract, I haven't even given you the money yet, why would you give me a ticket? If something happens to your Huaying, I have sufficient reasons to terminate the cooperation. I'm not afraid, even if it comes to court. "

Wang Jing was so angry that tears were almost flowing out of her eyes as she scolded, "Zhao Qian, you have disappointed me so much. I really misjudged you. I thought you were someone with a bright future, but I didn't expect you to be even worse than Yang Ming! I hate you so much, don't look for me in the future! "

Wang Jing hung up the phone and hurried to the company to think of a way to remedy the situation.

Zhao Qian immediately called Yang Hu, telling him to notify rich countries directly or indirectly to control the news media or websites, and not to give Huaying Group an explanation notice.

After two hours, Wang Jing finally made a response to the announcement with her men. But none of the influential media was willing to publish their explanatory notices. Even the CSRC's designated disclosure website deliberately delayed their announcement.

Soon, it was time to close, and the Huaying Group still did not make any announcements. This angered the people, and everyone began to curse on Huaying's official website.

Around ten in the evening, the Huaying Group's explanation notice was finally released. However, everyone realized that there were many things that were vague and could not be explained clearly.

When Wang Jing saw this, she flew into a rage and immediately called the website that had leaked the information to express her protest and complaint.

But at this point, no one answered.

After being depressed for over an hour, Wang Jing called Zhao Qian.

"Hey, what are you trying to do, you bastard? How much did you spend to buy that much multimedia? You're willing to spend so much just to get angry at me? " Wang Jing asked angrily.

Zhao Qian was the same as ever, as if nothing had happened, and replied calmly: "It's already so late, I want to go to sleep. If you don't have any urgent matters, please don't call me in the future. "OK?"

"Bastard!" Do you believe that I will be good to Yang Ming right now? I'll piss you off!" Wang Jing roared.

Zhao Qian immediately became serious and replied, "I'm warning you, you can't go with anyone else to Yang Ming, or else I'll make you regret it too late." With your personality, shouldn't you think of ways to save the company at this time? Would it be useful for you to call me and tell me about it? "

Zhao Qian aroused Wang Jing's fighting spirit, so she immediately replied: "Sure! This is just the beginning, don't be complacent. Since you attacked Huaying, then I won't be polite to your Mr Qian Entertainment either! A technique that you can play with, I can also play with it. It's even better than what you can play with. "

Zhao Qian laughed and replied: "Sure! Then let's have a contest and see who breaks the company down first. Is there anything else? If there's nothing else, I'll be hanging up. I'm going to sleep. "

Wang Jing bellowed, "Zhao Qian, from now on, I will be irreconcilable with you!"

With that, Wang Jing hung up the phone.

Zhao Qian wasn't anxious at all. As long as he controlled Huaying, he would have plenty of time to conquer Wang Jing.

Wang Jing quickly asked her father to use his connections to find a few mainstream media outlets to post the Huaying's explanation.

People who usually called him a brother were all unwilling to see Wang Lin. They weren't even willing to answer the phone.

Wang Lin was puzzled. How could a small Zhao Qian have such great ability to allow so many news media to block Huaying together.

A new day has come. Wang Jing stared at the stock exchange software, watching her shares close down again, frowning with worry.

If she continued to fall like this, her family's wealth would rapidly decline. Personal wealth wasn't that important, but the key was that the shares that Wang Lin pledged to the brokerage couldn't afford to go down. With three more stops, the pledged shares would reach the closing line. If Wang Lin couldn't continue to pledge stocks or give the brokerage cash compensation, they would forcibly close their positions.

After careful consideration, Wang Jing, as a majority shareholder, convened an emergency shareholders' meeting and had to discuss countermeasures immediately.

On the other side, Zhao Qian had already started secretly sweeping the goods.

C225 There's No Way out

Wang Jing convened a temporary shareholders' meeting to let everyone use their brains to think of a countermeasure. They couldn't just watch their company's shares fall.

"We have to find out who's after us first, don't we?"

"That's right! There must be a reason why no one paid such a huge price to do this to us. We must find out the reason! "

"Yes!" He had to figure out the reason first before he could think of a way to deal with it. Director Wang, have you guys figured out who was behind this? "

Faced with the doubts of the shareholders, Wang Jing could only speak the truth.

"It's the Mr Qian Entertainment's Zhao Qian. He had a little conflict with me, so he used his Huaying to vent his anger. Because of this matter, I apologize to everyone. Now we have to think of a really effective way to deal with it. As for my responsibilities, once the problem is resolved, I will give everyone a satisfactory answer. "

The shareholders were excited.

"Since you are the one who caused this disaster, naturally, we will have to settle it for you. There is no reason for us to bear the losses."

"That's right. It's just love between you youngsters, ah, just have a good talk with him. If it can be settled through negotiation, try not to make a move. "

"If you do not do this well, we will take you down from the position of manager. You can't bring in profits for the company, and you can't cheat the company like that. "

" ... "

All the shareholders were blaming Wang Jing, but no one could think of a way to solve the problem.

With Wang Jing's temper, she naturally couldn't stand their nonsense. However, she had no choice but to endure it. Otherwise, she might really be expelled from the position of manager.

Therefore, she said loudly, "Everyone, the reason why I called you here today is because I wanted to solve the problem, not because I wanted you to complain. "OK?"

"We can't think of a way. Think of it yourself."

"That's right. In short, if you can solve the problem, you can continue to be a manager. If you can't solve the problem, then quickly retreat! "

"There are many capable people. If you can't, then abdicate and give up the throne. Let someone more capable ascend!"

" ... "

No one could stand to hear such comments, let alone the aloof Wang Jing. She immediately slammed the table and stood up, roaring, "All of you, shut up! I told you to think of something. What are you doing? If you don't have any ideas, then get the hell out of my way, don't get in my way! "

This angered the shareholders, and they all asked Wang Lin how to deal with it.

On one hand, it was the future of the company, and on the other hand, it was his daughter's face.

After hesitating for a while, he smiled and said, "Let's just treat it as giving Wang Lin face and go back for now. I will resolve this matter as soon as possible and will absolutely not let everyone's rights and interests be harmed.

The shareholders scolded and left angrily, leaving only Wang Jing and Wang Lin behind.

Wang Lin comforted her, "Jing, don't be angry. There's no need. You don't have to worry about the company, there will always be a solution. "

Wang Jing knew that her father was definitely not feeling well, so she replied with a smile, "Dad, don't think too much, I'm not affected at all. You should go home and rest, I will continue to think of countermeasures. "

Wang Lin nodded, stood up and left.

Wang Jing grabbed her hair anxiously, feeling conflicted. Should she talk to Zhao Qian again?

Zhao Qian's side went very smoothly.

The CSRC stipulates that information must be disclosed in the form of a public announcement when the share capital is 5 per cent of the total share capital. Otherwise, the CSRC would punish the violation.

As a result, Zhao Qian used the dozens of stocks that Fuhai had invested into. The percentage of purchases of Huaying shares in each account is limited to less than 5 per cent of the total share capital.

When it opened, there were 2 million orders, or 200 million shares, on the board. Zhao Qian got Wu Xiaohua to order him to use more than ten accounts to clear 50 million shares.

After the auction ended, Zhao Qian had someone release the news.

"Huaying Group Leader Wang Lin appeared in the cancer hospital, he is suspected to have brain tumors."

"The case has been solved, why did Wang Lin quit the management of Huaying? It's not because he's weak, but because his body isn't! "

"Wang Lin created the Huaying single-handedly. If he is unable to cure his brain tumor, the Huaying will definitely shake the world and ignite an internal conflict for power and profit."

"A hundred thousand citizens are unable to fall asleep, and the Huaying is not too optimistic. If there's a chance, I have to cut off my own flesh and escape!"

" ... "

It was another series of terrifying headlines that frightened the citizens who bought Huaying s to the point that they couldn't sleep at night.

It was yet another new day, and the shares of Huaying were once again closed. And the sales list shot up to a shocking 5 million, or 500 million shares.

The total capital of Huaying was 2 billion shares, but there was actually a quarter of it hanging on the board waiting to be sold. One could imagine how much panic everyone had.

Zhao Qian laughed happily and continued to control Wu Xiaohua.

"Let the person in charge hang the tickets in your hands, no matter how many tickets you hang or how many tickets you buy. In short, we must ensure that the total number of sales orders on the table does not change significantly. "

Wu Xiaohua quickly followed his instructions.

Stock trading is based on the order in which the orders are posted.

Fuhai Investment hung the stocks in its hands on the stop board, and then bought the same amount of stocks. What they bought was stock in the hands of the retail investors who had placed the order first, and their own tickets were not sold.

After they had completed their target for today's goods, they would remove the sales order. This way, he would be able to silently complete the Scouting Quest.

Just as they were about to reach the level range, the brokerage called Wang Lin.

"Hey, Director Wang, the stocks you pledged at our company are about to be sold. Please decide as soon as possible whether you want to continue to pledge stocks or give us cash compensation. Otherwise, as soon as we come into contact with the open line, we will immediately take advantage of the stock you pledged to us in order to guarantee our interest. "

Wang Lin quickly replied politely, "I will think of a way as soon as possible, don't ever close the warehouse."

Customer Service: "Mr. Wang, we are doing things according to the rules. I hope you can forgive us."

With that, the customer service officer hung up.

Wang Lin didn't have any other choice, so he could only use the last method, the announcement, to increase his position.

At ten in the evening, the Huaying Group's announcement came out. Since the company's shares could not reflect the company's true value, within six months, Wang Lin and Wang Jing would use their own funds to increase their holdings by no less than 100 million shares.

When the people saw this announcement, they were in high spirits.

After reading the announcement, Zhao Qian smiled and gave Wu Xiaohua a new order.

The next morning, there was only one news item on the front page of every home media website.

"In order to increase his company's shares, Huaying Group Chief Wang Lin intentionally released negative news to suppress the share price. After that, he made a plan to increase his shares and increased his shares at a low price. For their own benefit, they would not care about the interests of the one hundred thousand citizens.

Zhao Qian smiled in satisfaction as he read the comments below the news. He picked up his cell phone and called Wu Xiaohua.

"Hello, Young Master. What can I do for you?" Wu Xiaohua asked respectfully.

Zhao Qian immediately replied: "When the market opens, the price will definitely go up. You let the manipulator smash all the stock you bought yesterday down to a discount. Incomparable panic, forcing retail households to step on their feet. Then, they still followed the boss's instructions. While making a bet to confuse the retail investors, they also secretly bought the stocks in the retail investors' hands. "

Wu Xiaohua immediately praised him, "Young Master is amazing. This method is really watertight. "

Zhao Qian laughed and replied, "Alright, no need to flatter me. Hurry up and get to the point."

Wu Xiaohua acknowledged and immediately hung up the phone to do what Zhao Qian asked her to.

C226 Wang Lin Fainted from Anger

Wu Xiaohua quickly told her employees about Zhao Qian's request and told them to strictly implement the plan.

On the other side, Wang Lin was trembling in anger as he watched the news. Wang Jing quickly comforted, "Dad, I'm sorry. It's all my fault. But you don't have to be so angry, the stock price will definitely rise later on. "

Wang Lin sighed and replied, "I feel very bad. I might not be as optimistic as we thought."

"That won't happen, Zhao Qian had to spend at least several hundred million to buy so many media outlets. I know his wealth, and that's all it is. He won't be able to hold on, don't worry. " Wang Jing continued to comfort him.

While they were talking, the stock started bidding.

Wang Lin's announcement was indeed effective, as during the bidding period, the shares of Huaying Group directly rose in price.

"Phew ..." Wang Lin let out a heavy sigh.

Wang Jing also laughed happily and said, "Dad, I told you everything was fine. You really don't have to worry about that. The price will rise back very soon. "

Wang Lin revealed a smile, the burden in his heart had been lifted.

However, the Wang father and daughter pair had not been happy for a few minutes, the Huaying Group's share price once again turned green, and quickly dropped its price.

"This... "What's going on?" Wang Lin exclaimed.

Wang Jing was not a professional manipulator, so it was hard to say what the situation was.

Soon enough, it was 9: 25. The auction had ended and the Huaying Group's share price had dropped by 9 points.

The securities company's customer service team called Wang Lin.

Customer Service: "Hey, Director Wang, have you seen your company's shares? If today's share price is closed again, you have to make up for it or give us cash, or we'll have to force it out. "

Wang Lin replied angrily: "Got it! "How do you know it's going to come to a standstill if you don't open the stage?"

Customer Service: "Director Wang, I'll tell you the truth. We have news that someone is secretly sweeping through the goods. It is said that they have already swept through hundreds of millions of years. But no one has a 5 per cent stake. What did this mean? It shows that the other party is an experienced capitalist who uses many accounts to sweep through goods, ensuring that each account does not have a 5 per cent stake. Do you understand what that means? "

Wang Lin was stunned for a moment and replied guiltily, "I don't know what it means, please explain it clearly."

Customer Service: "To put it plainly, someone wants to control Huaying. You should prepare yourself mentally. There were only a dozen more seconds before the market would open. If there were no accidents, the share price would once again close and fall, while the other party would continue to poke around for goods. I advise Director Wang to quickly take the money to sweep the goods and keep the controlling interest. "

Wang Lin didn't say anything as he quietly waited for the shares to open. Just as the securities company customer service said, the shares of Huaying Group fell rapidly on the board as soon as they opened.

Customer Service: "Director Wang, just watch and see. There will be a bill to buy the ticket in the retail hand of the stall soon."

Wang Lin still didn't say anything, but the security company's customer service was absolutely right. A few seconds later, sure enough, someone secretly ate all the tickets in the retail hand. Shares rose rapidly, the bill of sale continued to be eaten, and the share price quickly rose.

The retail investors thought that Wang Lin was really starting to increase his stock, so they quickly withdrew their sales orders and waited for the share price to rise before selling.

But they thought too much. After a short period of red, the stock quickly went back down and was about to hit the floor again.

Many of the retail customers could not hold it in any longer and hurriedly sold their tickets. The accounts invested in Fuhai frantically swept through the goods, manipulating the rise and fall of the share prices back and forth.

At this moment, another piece of news came out.

"The head of Huaying Group, Wang Lin, in order to cash out, he used an excuse to increase his position and lied to the people."

"The communication Huaying Group's financial fraud is being investigated by the CSRC. Wang Lin, regardless of the cost, is waiting for the shares to be sold for one yuan before increasing his holdings. "

" ... "

Seeing that the news was talking nonsense again, Wang Lin was so angry that he fainted before he could even come up with something.

Wang Jing called an ambulance and took him to the hospital for treatment.

Half an hour later, another piece of news came out.

"The Huaying Group's boss, Wang Lin, has completely collapsed and has been sent to the hospital for rescue."

"The rumors are true. Wang Lin's brain tumor is not optimistic and he is unconscious. Huaying will fall into a abyss of suffering, and a hundred thousand citizens will lose all their money. "

"..."

Wang Jing looked at the news and broke down her emotions. She then called Zhao Qian.

"Have you had enough? Do you have a bottom line? "My dad has already been infuriated by you to the hospital, haven't you had enough fun?" Wang Jing complained.

Zhao Qian sat up straight and asked: "Which hospital?"

"First People's Hospital! What? You still want to come and ridicule us? " Wang Jing asked bluntly.

"Nutjob, why am I taunting you?"

Zhao Qian finished scolding and hung up the phone. He quickly called Yang Hu.

"Hey, Mr Hu, help me say hi to the First People's Hospital and let them take care of Wang Lin. No matter what illness he had, get experts from all over the country and even from all over the world to treat him. "How much do you need? Come and reimburse me."

Yang Hu quickly replied, "Okay, Young Master, I'll go look for him immediately."

"How's your injury?" Zhao Qian asked again.

"Much better. I'll go and find the dean right now. Young Master can be assured that it will be done well. "

"Mm, go ahead."

After hanging up the phone, Zhao Qian blamed himself. However, he did not stop sweeping the goods. Since things had come to this point, he had to get his hands on the Huaying Group.

In order to prevent Wang Lin and Wang Jing from continuing to suffer, Zhao Qian decided to settle the dust today. He called Wu Xiaohua and instructed her, "Inform her that the battle is over today!"

Wu Xiaohua immediately asked, "Why is Young Master in such a hurry? With victory in our hands and two more stops, we would still be able to receive enough chips, and the cost would be much lower. The battle is over today, and we're going to have to push the price up and down, so the cost is going to go up a lot. "

Zhao Qian didn't want to explain too much to Wu Xiaohua, so he replied, "Don't ask too much. Just do as I say."

Wu Xiaohua could only reply, "Ok, I will do so immediately."

After hanging up the phone, she immediately went to inform the operators.

Even if she used up all of their talent, she still had to finish the battle today.

"Ah?" Why are you in such a hurry? In just two more days of trading, we will be able to steadily obtain Huaying. "

"That's right! It would be unwise to end the battle at this time and increase the cost by at least 200 million. "

"Did Zhao Qian want us to finish today?"

" ... "

Wu Xiaohua was the same as Zhao Qian; she didn't want to explain too much. She said very seriously, "You don't need to ask too much. You just need to do as I say. If you fail to complete the mission, I will punish you! "

No one dared to say anything more and quickly linked their hands to control the stocks.

Zhao Qian stared at the shares of the Huaying Group. Five minutes later, there was a sudden change in his expression. The over one million sales orders that had sealed off the business had quickly been reduced by over six hundred thousand. The remaining four hundred thousand bills were all swallowed in a single gulp before they could be withdrawn.

Following that, Huaying's shares rose in a straight line, and all the sales orders were eaten. In less than a minute, the price had risen.

From falling to rising and falling, just this one wave had already harvested 200 million shares from Fuhai s. Currently, they had a total of 600 million shares in their hands, with a 30% share. They were already the largest shareholders in Huaying.

However, in order to firmly control Huaying, 30% of the shares were obviously not enough, and he still had to purchase another 20%, for a total of 400 million shares.

The manipulator compiled all the accounts and wrote a report to Wu Xiaohua.

Wu Xiaohua took a look and quickly sent a photo to Zhao Qian, then sent a video request.

Zhao Qian picked up the video and asked angrily, "Why is it so little? I want to steadily control the Huaying, do you understand? "

Wu Xiaohua panicked and quickly explained, "Young Master, don't be angry. Your request for the end of the battle today was beyond our expectations and caught us off guard. However, don't worry, we already have 25% more than Wang Lin. Next, we'll contact the top ten shareholders and buy the shares in their hands at a premium. We'll be able to easily raise the shares to 51%, and you'll be able to firmly hold the Huaying. "

C227 Bring Her Back for the Mid-autumn Festival

At the end of the day, Zhao Qian was still concerned about the relationship between him and Wang Jing. Although the two of them did not officially establish their relationship, she still gave her first time to him. Therefore, he had some feelings for her in his heart.

Wang Lin is now in the hospital. If we don't quickly end this dispute over ownership, his condition may worsen. That was why Zhao Qian wanted to end the battle today.

It didn't matter if he spent more. He was confident that he could earn all the money he spent back.

After hearing Wu Xiaohua's explanation, Zhao Qian restrained his temper and said, "Sure, get it done as soon as possible."

"Right away. "Don't be angry, Young Master, wait for my good news."

After Wu Xiaohua hung up the phone, she immediately went to instruct the people below to contact the top ten shareholders of Huaying Group other than the Wang father and daughter.

Zhao Qian hesitated for a long time, but finally drove to the hospital.

Wang Jing's mother was taking care of Wang Lin in the ward. She sat on the bench outside in a daze.

Zhao Qian walked in front of her and stopped.

Wang Jing slowly raised her head and saw Zhao Qian. Immediately, tears began to flow from her eyes.

Zhao Qian wanted to reach out to wipe her tears, but she turned her head away to avoid him. Following that, he suddenly grabbed Yang Chen's hand, put it into his mouth and started biting on it.

Zhao Qian didn't dodge, he just watched as she bit down hard.

Wang Jing vented out all the anger and grievance in her heart. Only after Zhao Qian's palm was bitten did she let go of her lips.

Zhao Qian didn't say anything. Instead, he reached out his hand to wipe the tears off Wang Jing's face. This time, she didn't dodge.

In order to not disturb his rest, Wang Jing pulled Zhao Qian out of the hospital and came to the square.

"What are you doing here?" Ridicule us? Show off your achievements? " Wang Jing asked angrily.

"I'm just here to see how your dad is doing. Don't think too much about it." Zhao Qian explained.

Wang Jing laughed coldly and replied, "I don't need you to pretend to be good. Shouldn't you be celebrating your victory? Just because of a few words from me, you're going to be so ruthless. "Sob, sob ..."

Wang Jing covered her face with her hands and knelt down to cry.

Zhao Qian also squatted down and said, "What's there to cry about?"

"Your dad is lying on the sickbed, try to cry or not." Wang Jing retorted.

Zhao Qian nodded and replied, "I will cry, but I definitely won't cry like this. You should now contact a brain specialist, and a oncologist, to consult your dad instead of crying here. You're crying nonstop here. Is your dad cured? "

Wang Jing raised her head and looked at Zhao Qian. She stood up quickly and wiped her tears, replying, "You're right, I shouldn't cry. I have to go to an expert. However ... Where can I find an expert? I've looked through almost all the specialists in the country, and they all advise not to have surgery. It's best to treat them conservatively. If you had to do an operation, the success rate would be less than thirty percent. If the operation fails, my father's best outcome will be brain death, or even death on the operating table. "

Zhao Qian was silent for a while, and then replied, "Seeing that we have been lucky before, I'll help you this time. Wait a minute, I'll get someone to contact a foreign expert. "You ask your doctor to give you a report that you believe in, get a professional to translate it into English, and send it to me as soon as possible.

Wang Jing immediately revealed an expression of distrust and asked, "Who can you rely on? "My dad has lived for dozens of years. If he can't find someone like that in his social circle, how can you find him?"

Zhao Qian immediately scolded him angrily: "Do you know why I made such a move against Huaying? I just can't stand your haughty, arrogant attitude. I want you to know that if I dare to sleep with you, I will have the ability to conquer you! Stop bullshitting with me and hurry up and find me to do what I say! "

After Zhao Qian scolded her, he turned around and left, leaving Wang Jing frozen on the spot.

No one had scolded Wang Jing like Zhao Qian just now. She didn't know how to react.

Zhao Qian got on the car and left the hospital. He found a place to park his car on the next street and called his dad.

"Hey, Dad, do you have time to talk?"

Zhao Fu smiled and replied, "It's rare for my son to call, so I have to squeeze out some time. Speak, what is it? "

Zhao Qian smiled and replied, "Then I won't beat around the bush with you. I want you to help me contact some brain and tumor experts from abroad. The more authority you have, the better. You can spend as much money as you want. "

Zhao Fu laughed out loud and asked, "It's not that I can't, it's just that I have to know whether I'm helping an unrelated person or a relative in the future."

It seemed that Zhao Fu was very familiar with the matters of the Huaying and knew that Wang Lin had been hospitalized.

Zhao Qian immediately flattered, "Dad, you are my idol, you are really amazing. In ancient times, Zhang Liang willed things to happen and won the battle by a thousand miles. Today, my father is in the Yanjing, but he knows everything that has happened here in the East Sea like the back of his hand. Powerful, formidable ... "Admiration, admiration ..."

Zhao Fu laughed out loud because of his son's teasing, and replied, "Alright, this father and son pair are still trying to play this game. Let me tell you this, I can help you get in touch with the experts. But you have to bring her back for the Mid-Autumn Festival. Is there a problem? "

Zhao Qian replied somewhat awkwardly: "No problem, the key is that we are not the kind of relationship you think we are." You and my mom and my grandpa, don't you dare talk nonsense and embarrass everyone. "

No matter what Zhao Fu said, he is still the father of Zhao Qian. If Zhao Qian still wants to play tricks with him, that is impossible.

"My son, you must be talking about yourself. You aren't young anymore. It's time to seriously consider this major matter of our marriage. I also sent people to get to know that little girl. Your mother met her last time, so she feels pretty good. As long as you two are serious, your mother and I have no objections. "So, there's nothing to be embarrassed about, just admit it boldly."

This kind of thing is hard to explain, the most urgent thing is to find a specialist to treat Wang Lin. We'll talk about the rest later.

So Zhao Qian said to his dad, "Don't push too hard, or it'll be bad if it backfired. When the time is ripe, I will naturally tell you. I can take her back for the Mid-Autumn Festival. Anyway, you can't treat her as your future daughter-in-law. The most important thing right now is to contact an expert for me, okay? "

Zhao Fu replied immediately, "No problem. I'll give you a message tomorrow. "

"Yes." Then I'll hang up and not bother you with your work. "Pay attention to your body. I don't want to contact experts everywhere for you."

"You little bastard, why do your words sound so unpleasant?"

"It's good that you know it's unpleasant, then you have to pay more attention to your body. "I'm hanging up. I need to go back and sleep. I'm a bit sleepy."

Zhao Qian hung up the phone, got out of the car to buy dinner and immediately went home.

At around 10 PM, Wu Xiaohua called Zhao Qian.

Zhao Qian quickly answered the phone and asked: "Manager Wu, why are you so late?"

Wu Xiaohua quickly replied: "Young Master, we have already contacted the top ten shareholders of Huaying, and had a preliminary discussion about buying a share with them. With the current stock price as the benchmark, we have to pay an additional 20% before they are willing to give us the shares they own. "Look ..."

Zhao Qian replied without hesitation, "No problem, give it to them. as long as you bring me up to 51 percent of the shares. "

Wu Xiaohua said worriedly, "But if it's like this, we'll have to spend several hundred million more. Young Master, are you sure you want to do this? The profitability of Huaying is truly limited, it is very likely that the money that we have invested will not be reclaimed at all. "

Zhao Qian explained, "It's just temporary. Huaying's current stock price is only slightly above two, I have the ability to increase his stock price tenfold. No matter what, we still earn. You don't have to worry about money, I'll bear all the consequences myself, and I won't implicate you guys. "

Wu Xiaohua was scared out of her wits and quickly explained, "Young Master, calm down. I didn't mean it that way. I just wanted to advise you to reconsider before making a decision."

"Well, I know. Just do as I say, and don't worry about it too much. "

"Ok, I'll do it right away. I'll try to finish it before the market closes tomorrow."

After hanging up, Zhao Qian crossed his legs in satisfaction. Huaying were already in his pockets.

C228 I Am Now a Controlling Shareholder

When the new day came, Zhao Qian woke up early and was waiting for Wu Xiaohua and his dad to call him.

When it was almost time for lunch, Zhao Fu called his son.

"Hey, son, I've already contacted the experts. I have also arranged for the fastest plane to fly them here. When we arrive, we will directly go to the Donghai City First People's Hospital. I've already called for help from the hospital. You don't need to worry about anything. They will do everything."

Zhao Qian was extremely excited and quickly thanked him, "Dad, thank you. Don't worry, I'll definitely bring her back for the Mid-Autumn Festival."

Zhao Fu laughed happily and replied, "That's good. I'm going to tell your mom and your grandpa not to screw up. If you don't see him by then, don't come back in the future. I can't even afford to lose face for him."

"Don't worry, I definitely can't let my dad lose face. Alright, get busy. We'll talk about it when I get home."

"Yes."

After hanging up, Zhao Qian hurriedly called Wang Jing.

After she was scolded by Zhao Qian yesterday, Wang Jing had been afraid of him in her heart.

"Hey, what?"

"Judging from your voice, you must have calmed down. I wanted to tell you that I've contacted the experts and they'll be here in two days. I also called for help from the hospital. When the experts arrived, they immediately arranged for a consultation. So, you don't have to worry about your dad's condition. "It's better for you to clear your mind and manage your company."

Hearing Zhao Qian's words, Wang Jing immediately became extremely excited.

"Is that true?" Wang Jing questioned.

"Nonsense!" Can I joke around with something like that? Hurry up and go back to work. You don't have to rush to see how the company is doing. " Zhao Qian reprimanded.

Wang Jing was instantly angered and shouted, "You still have the nerve to tell me what the company is like, and it's all thanks to you! Do you know that you are fooling around and someone is taking the opportunity to harvest Huaying shares? It's very possible that Huaying is no longer controlled by my father, do you know that? Huaying may not have the surname Wang, do you know? "

Zhao Qian replied without a care: "Then you can only blame your slow reactions. Anyone with a bit of business knowledge knows that they should increase their support as soon as possible. Your announcement has no actual action, what's the use? "

Wang Jing became even more unhappy and retorted, "It's easy as you say, why don't you give me the money to increase my support? The film and television industry had undergone a major reshuffle. The company's business performance over the past few years had not been very good. My family has long since taken out our money as an emergency. My dad has already pledged more than 80% of his stocks, so what's the use of increasing his stocks? "

Zhao Qian didn't sympathize with them at all. Or mortgage loans, in any case, must take the opportunity to increase their holdings to avoid being harvested.

Saying all this now was meaningless, he was the major shareholder in Huaying already.

"I won't tell you. No matter what you do, it won't affect the way our project works. If you break the contract, I won't be lenient with you. I should report it to you, I definitely won't be vague! "

With that, Zhao Qian hung up the phone.

Wang Jing was so angry that her chest hurt. Zhao Qian's action was no different from robbing someone while they were down. At such a critical time, not only did he not help, he even took advantage of the situation to rob them. What a bastard.

Thinking about it, Wang Jing just couldn't take it anymore and called Zhao Qian. However, Zhao Qian refused since he didn't want to chat with her.

"Bastard!" "Wait until the matter between the company and my dad is resolved, then let's see how I'll deal with you!" Wang Jing muttered to herself.

At 5 PM in the afternoon, Wu Xiaohua called Zhao Qian.

"Hey, Young Master, it's done. We have 53% of the Huaying, and are the absolute controlling shareholders. "

Zhao Qian replied happily, "Yes, very good. Prepare the materials, priced it at 4 billion, and sell all of the Huaying shares you have to me. And I use 50% of my Mr Qian Entertainment on you guys as collateral, I'll slowly repay this 4 billion. "

"Okay, I'll do it right away."

Wu Xiaohua hung up the phone and quickly followed Zhao Qian's instructions.

It might sound complicated, but it was actually just an agreement. As for when Zhao Qian would return the money, that was not up to him.

Wu Xiaohua and her entourage prepared the relevant materials and contracts with Zhao Qian at dawn. Following the regulations, Zhao Qian notified Huaying and then made an announcement.

Wang Jing was so angry that her hands were shaking. She immediately called Zhao Qian.

"Bastard, bastard, you're the one behind all this. I thought there was someone else sweeping the goods, but it turns out it's all you! "

Zhao Qian replied with a smile, "Don't be angry. Just based on our relationship, is there any difference between your controlling and my controlling?"

Wang Jing bellowed, "Nonsense! Of course there was a difference! My father controlled it, and my Huaying is surnamed Wang. In your possession, your Huaying is surnamed Zhao. Could it be the same? I really admire your courage, you actually dared to lend 4 billion to play. Can you afford it? "

Zhao Qian laughed out loud and replied in a relaxed manner, "You don't have to worry about that. Since I dared to lend so much, I'm confident that I can pay it off. What's more, he's not even worried about me paying him back, so why are you worrying so much? "

Now that things had come to this, there was no point in saying such things. Wang Jing asked, "Tell me, what do you want?"

Zhao Qian laughed and replied: "At 12 o'clock at noon, we'll meet to discuss Donghai Hotel. You have to remember two things, your father's illness relies on me to find experts, and I am currently a major shareholder in Huaying. So don't do anything you shouldn't do. "

After saying that, Zhao Qian hung up the phone.

Wang Jing threw her phone onto the table in anger. She covered her face with her hands and lay back on the chair in a daze. She just couldn't understand where Zhao Qian got the courage to borrow 4 billion from Fuhai.

Soon, it was noon. Wang Jing stepped into the box on time.

Zhao Qian looked at the time and couldn't help laughing.

"Miss Wang, you're really punctual. If I say it's 12 o'clock, then it's 12 o'clock. You don't want to get there even a second earlier. "

Wang Jing replied coldly, "You don't need to care? Hurry up and get down to business, I don't want to waste my time on you. "

Zhao Qian immediately stopped smiling, knocked on the table a few times and scolded: "Miss Wang, can I trouble you to clarify the current situation? I am the controlling shareholder of Huaying, as the manager of the company, is it appropriate for you to talk to me like this? "

Wang Jing rolled her eyes at Zhao Qian and replied coldly, "What's wrong with that? Do you like it or not, that's what I say. "Hurry up and get down to business. If you don't, I'm leaving."

Wang Jing's temper was originally very arrogant, and now that she met with this kind of thing, she definitely wouldn't be nice to Zhao Qian.

However, the reason why Zhao Qian spent so much money to control Huaying was not because he was optimistic about the development of Huaying, but because he wanted to subdue Wang Jing. The more unconvinced she was, the more he would deal with her.

"Wang Jing, let me remind you one last time, I am currently a controlling shareholder in Huaying. As the manager of the company, you'd better be polite when you talk to me. Otherwise, I have plenty of ways to discipline you!"

Wang Jing snorted coldly and shouted, "If worst comes to worst, I will quit. I will never give in to you!"

C229 Come Back to Beijing with Me

Zhao Qian pulled Wang Jing over and pinched her chin. He smiled evilly and said, "We've already known each other for a few days. Why haven't you forgotten about this favor?"

Wang Jing's face immediately turned red and she felt ashamed. She wanted to push Zhao Qian away, but she was too weak. She tried a few times but to no avail.

"Get out of my way, get your stinking hands off me, don't touch me!" Wang Jing roared.

Zhao Qian smiled evilly and asked, "Hey, do you want to go back to the stock market?"

Wang Jing became serious immediately and asked hurriedly, "Is what you said the truth? You want to give me the shares? "

Zhao Qian nodded, then shook his head, anxious Wang Jing asked him what he meant by that. Sending them off, not sending them off, nodding and shaking his head. What did that mean?

Zhao Qian explained: "I used the company as my collateral, and invested 4 billion to borrow Fuhai, and only then did I take control of the Huaying. I must not give away so much money to someone who has nothing to do with me. If we were a couple, it would be different. You're so smart, you know what I mean. Right? "

Wang Jing pouted her lips and glared at Zhao Qian. For a moment, she didn't know how to reply. She was interested in Zhao Qian, but her ideal husband had to be a stronger man than her in order to conquer her.

As far as Zhao Qian was concerned, he was indeed a courageous and resourceful person. However, he was still weak and could not match her. She didn't want to be talked about in the future that her man would eat soft food.

"Zhao Qian, I'll tell you the truth. Before you attacked Huaying, I had illusions about you. I think that one day, we will be in the right place, and I can try to get on formal terms with you. "But now ..." Wang Jing said honestly.

Zhao Qian laughed and replied, "Listening to you, it seems that you also have thoughts towards me?"

"Hehe ..." That was before, but now there's no such thing as an idea. There's only hatred! " Wang Jing replied coldly.

Zhao Qian replied without a care, "I don't care about that, as long as you have been interested in me. How about this, make a trip home with me during the Mid-Autumn Festival, as long as my parents are satisfied with you, I will return the authority to manage the company to you. I have the same stock with different rights, only dividends, do not participate in management. "How about it?"

Wang Jing tensed up and asked, "You ..." What do you mean? Bring me home to see my parents? "

Zhao Qian nodded.

Wang Jing instantly tensed up. Her eyes flickered constantly, not daring to meet Zhao Qian's eyes.

"What do you mean? Do you want to do it or not? " Zhao Qian asked.

Wang Jing replied angrily, "What are you so anxious about? For such an important matter, let me think about it. "

The black Zhao Qian asked with a face full of questions, "Ah?" What was there to think about? I use the management authority of Huaying to hire you to come home with me. Do we even need to consider this? "

Wang Jing became even angrier and asked, "What do you mean by that? You just want me to go with you and deal with your family. It's not that I want to follow you further, is it? "

Zhao Qian nodded and replied, "Didn't you say you don't like me? I don't dare to think too much about it. "

Wang Jing was so angry that she immediately nudged Zhao Qian's lower abdomen with her knee. It hurt so much that he quickly covered his lower abdomen and retreated.

Seeing Zhao Qian screaming in pain, Wang Jing was not satisfied and scolded, "Scum! Scum! Scum! "You deserve it even if it hurts to death!"

"Nutjob!" If you kick me, you'll be responsible for the rest of your life, even if you want to run away. "Hiss ..." It hurts. "No, I have to call the police."

As Zhao Qian said this, he took out his phone to call the police. Wang Jing quickly snatched the phone away and scolded, "Bastard, you really called the police! It's only been a short while, is it really that painful? "

Zhao Qian immediately scolded, "Nonsense! You can stay anywhere else, but can you stay here? I have to call the police. If anything happens to me, you'll be in charge for the rest of your life. Give me back my cell phone or you'll be even more guilty. If you intentionally harm me and stop me from calling the police, this crime will be enough for you to take a hit! "

Wang Jing was really scared by Zhao Qian and apologized immediately, "Sorry, I didn't mean to hurt you. Who told you not to let go? I just wanted to kick you away. I didn't expect to hurt you so much. "

"You're still standing there? I'm going to die from the pain." Get me a room, I want to check. If it's not serious, I can stop calling the police. If things go wrong, I have to call the police, no matter what you say. "

Wang Jing was so scared that she lost her cool and quickly nodded her head in agreement. She then took Zhao Qian to the nearest hotel to get a room.

The moment they entered the room, Zhao Qian gave Wang Jing a wall slam.

Wang Jing stared into Zhao Qian's eyes for a few seconds, then blushed again as she asked softly, "You ..." What are you trying to do now? If you keep doing this, I'll kick you again. "

Zhao Qian smiled evilly and replied, "You did, of course you'll check. Are you right? "

Wang Jing's face turned red from embarrassment and she started sweating profusely. She scolded, "Shameless bastard, hurry up and f * ck off."

Zhao Qian ignored her and carried her towards the bedside.

Wang Jing kept hitting him, but Zhao Qian wouldn't let go. In the end, she gave in.

After a storm, Zhao Qian hugged Wang Jing and slept for a while. About an hour later, Wang Jing woke up. She stood up and started punching and kicking Zhao Qian.

Zhao Qian woke up from his daze and held onto Wang Jing's hands tightly. "Are you crazy!?! You want to murder your husband? If you were in the ancient times, your behavior would have been like soaking in a pig cage! "

Wang Jing scolded, "You bastard, you followed me here to bully me. I'll kill you! "

After saying that, she was about to make her move again. Zhao Qian quickly pressed her down and said very seriously, "Calm down, I have something to say!"

"I have nothing to say to you, son of a bitch!" Wang Jing scolded.

Zhao Qian's gaze turned ferocious, scaring Wang Jing to the point of quietening down. He continued, "You have nothing to say. I have. Like I said before, during the Mid-Autumn Festival, if you come with me to the Yanjing, I will give you the authority to manage it. I am only waiting for my share of the profits and won't participate in the company's management decisions. However, there is one thing you are not allowed to cooperate with my opponent on Huaying, and that is the bottom line that cannot be discussed. How about it? "Think about it."

Wang Jing was a smart person, she knew the current situation in her heart. Zhao Qian had lent 4 billion of his Huaying to control, so he was definitely going to carry out a drastic reform of his Huaying. Otherwise, his 4 billion would have been wasted.

Right now, he was willing to use management power in exchange for her to accompany him back to the Yanjing. This was actually equivalent to spending 4 billion to invite her to return to the Yanjing. Since he was so sincere, she had no reason to refuse.

However, it would be too disgraceful of her to agree to it, which didn't suit her personality. So she replied, "If you want me to agree, that's fine. We must sign a contract and clearly state this, so that you don't go back on your word. Also, you have to make sure that the specialist treats my dad. "These two conditions are indispensable, and there's no room for negotiation."

Zhao Qian nodded and replied, "No problem. The experts will be here as soon as tomorrow. As for the contract, we can sign it now. I'll write two of them now, just one sentence anyway. "

Wang Jing nodded, took out a pen and paper from her bag, and watched as Yang Chen wrote down two identical agreements.

The two of them immediately signed and pressed their fingerprint, and the agreement officially came to an end. Wang Jing was relieved when they each took one.

Zhao Qian threw the paper on the table beside him and hugged Wang Jing as he asked, "Look at how nice I am to you. Shouldn't you reward me a little?"

"What reward do you want?"

"What do you think?"

With that, Zhao Qian pressed down on Wang Jing.

However, at this moment, Zhao Qian's phone rang.

"Aiya, who the hell dares to pick a time!"

Zhao Qian complained as he walked over to answer the phone.

Seeing his vexed expression, Wang Jing burst out laughing.

"Serves him right! "You scoundrel!" Wang Jing scolded.

However, at this moment, she was no longer as angry. His father's illness was a promising cure, and the management of the company was back in hand. It was indeed a cause for joy.

Zhao Qian picked up his phone and checked. It was actually Jiang Tian.

C230 Beautiful Women Begging for Help

Zhao Qian signaled Wang Jing not to make any noise and then picked up the phone. "Director Chiang, why did you think of calling me?"

Jiang Tian replied coldly, "Nothing, I just wanted to tell you that you're in big trouble."

Yang Chen laughed, and said, "If you have something to say, just say it, don't beat around the bush." If you don't tell me, I'm hanging up. My time is precious, I don't want to waste it on you. "

Jiang Tian immediately replied, "I know you paid Yang Hu to kill the killer I hired. I've already sent the message to the Xiangjiang Society. You know, the Xiangjiang community is very powerful. They won't let you off after you kill their people. It can be said that you are already a corpse. "

Zhao Qian laughed out loud and replied: "You f * cking took the initiative to admit that you asked the killer to kill me. Then don't blame me for being ruthless."

Jiang Tian replied without a care: "Even if you found out that I asked the killer to kill you, what can you do to me? I'm waiting for the Xiangjiang society to send people over to kill you, so you can just wait for death. Dammit! However, if you kneel down and apologize to me and my son, I can help you beg for mercy to the society in Xiangjiang, and at the very least save your life. How about it? This is a rare opportunity, don't miss it. "

Zhao Qian sneered and replied, "Your brain got kicked by a donkey! Would I be afraid of a small society? I think it's best if you and your son reunite as much as possible.

With that, Zhao Qian hung up the phone. He did not dare to be the slightest bit careless and hurriedly called his father.

Zhao Fu was overjoyed, his son called him frequently these two days.

"Hello, son, what's the matter?" Zhao Fu asked happily.

Zhao Qian went straight to the point, "Dad, do you have a partner in Xiangjiang? The kind that needs to be eaten in black and white. "

Zhao Fu acknowledged and replied, "Of course. Our family's industry is spread all over the world, Xiangjiang is a freight transfer station, so naturally we have our family's business. What's wrong? Are you afraid that the society will seek revenge on you? "

Zhao Qian was shocked and hurriedly asked, "You already know about it?"

Zhao Fu laughed and replied, "Of course. Of course I have to figure out who has a grudge against my son, who is playing around, and who is serious. "Don't worry, I'll say hello to Xiangjiang and won't let anyone from the society over there come."

If it was just to ensure his safety, Zhao Qian didn't feel satisfied enough. He tentatively asked his father if he could let the other society go against Jiang Tian and his son.

Zhao Fu replied with certainty: "If you really want to teach them a lesson, of course there's no problem. I have some contacts with Jiang Jingtian, the boss of the Red Star Society in Xiangjiang. Our family's goods have been transferred from the Xiangjiang River to the Xiangjiang River, and he's the one behind all this. I'll give him a phone call. However, you know what dad thinks, so you have to think about it carefully. "

Zhao Qian knew what his father meant. Back then, when he broke Wu Xin's leg, Zhao Fu chased him out of the house in a fit of rage to gain more experience, it was because he didn't want him to become a bully. They also wanted him to understand a principle: let them go, let them go, and don't kill them all.

However, for Zhao Qian, there were some things he could endure. However, there were some things that he absolutely could not tolerate.

The father and son pair of Jiang Tian had asked a killer for a small grudge, this was too much. If Zhao Qian didn't fight back, the father and son pair would do even more crazy things in the future.

If you cut the grass, you have to get rid of the roots, or else there will be endless trouble in the future.

Therefore, Zhao Qian said with certainty, "Dad, there are some things that I can let go of and let go of, but there are some things that I can't do. They want to kill me. If I continue to be patient with them, then maybe one day they will get their hands on me. So, I want to get through it once and for all, and never have to worry about anything. "

Zhao Fu didn't say anything else and directly replied, "Sure, I know what to do now. It's still the same as usual. If you have to do something important, then do it properly. If you have to play, then do it. Don't pay too much attention to Jiang Tian's side. Do you understand? "

Zhao Qian quickly replied, "Understood. Dad, thank you. "

Zhao Fu laughed loudly and said, "What is there to thank me for?" Didn't I take down this mountain and river all for the sake of not getting bullied by others? I won't care about their little fight, and you won't take it seriously. Blame them for overestimating their own abilities and being ruthless. They were the ones who did it. Alright, let's stop talking. I still have a video conference to attend. "Hurry up and agree with that little girl that you must come back for dinner during the Mid-Autumn Festival. "

Zhao Qian glanced at Wang Jing and said with a smile, "Got it, it's a deal. Prepare the red packets."

Zhao Fu immediately laughed happily and replied: "Alright! There definitely won't be a lack of red packets. Just bring her back. "Dead."

Zhao Qian acknowledged and hung up the phone. The smile on his face immediately disappeared.

Seeing that his face was extremely ugly, Wang Jing asked carefully, "What's wrong? Someone is looking for trouble with you? Who is it? Jiang Tian again? Didn't you already let Yang Hu deal with the killer he hired? What? He invited another batch? "

Zhao Qian sighed and replied, "He said he contacted Xiangjiang's club and told them to send more people over to deal with me. Hehe ... I showed him mercy everywhere, but he kept trying to kill me. "Then I can't be merciful anymore, or else he would think I'm really afraid of him and can't do anything about it."

Seeing the murderous look in Zhao Qian's eyes, Wang Jing quickly got out of the bed and hugged him, comforting him, "Idiot, you're serious with them, you've fallen into their trap. Their lives are worthless, your life is worth it. "

Zhao Qian looked at the pair on Wang Jing's chest and could not help but reveal a naughty smile. He hugged her tighter and asked, "Where is my life worth?"

Wang Jing realized that she wasn't wearing any clothes, so she quickly tried to break Zhao Qian's hand and wanted to go back to bed.

However, Zhao Qian merely locked onto her waist and didn't let her get away.

Wang Jing knew it was useless trying to be tough with Zhao Qian, so she changed her strategy and coquettishly said, "You're so annoying. Let go of me now." Mad enough, I have to go to the hospital to see my dad. "

Zhao Qian nodded and said: "Alright, then kiss me and I'll let you go."

Wang Jing pouted with a reluctant look and tiptoed to give Zhao Qian a kiss.

Zhao Qian let go of her in satisfaction, and the two of them quickly put on their clothes and left.

Wang Jing went to the hospital to look after her dad. Zhao Qian was bored and went to the movies.

Soon, Zhao Qian arrived at the entrance of the cinema. Just as he was about to enter, a girl dressed in fashionable clothes suddenly rushed over and hugged him.

Instinctively, Zhao Qian wanted to push her away. But then the girl asked him for help.

"Handsome, I'm sorry. Help me. The people behind me have been following me for several blocks, and I'm scared. Help me send them away. "

Zhao Qian stopped pushing her and looked behind her. There were actually a few shifty-eyed people staring at them.

Out of caution, Zhao Qian asked quietly: "Who are you? Have you offended anyone recently? You don't have any points in your heart? "

The beauty replied, "My name is Ren Jiaxuan, and I'm the daughter of the boss of the technology company. I guess they were sent by the second shareholder Zhang Dacheng to follow me, but I don't have any evidence. "Handsome, I'm begging you. No matter what, you have to help me deal with it."

Zhao Qian had heard of the Technology Co., Ltd, so no matter what, he will help.
