

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1423 - 1426

Chapter 1423

When Liu Fang saw George Han, she still seemed a little shy. It is estimated that she has confirmed the relationship with Mo Yang too quickly, so she will inevitably be a little shy.

At this moment, George Han suddenly admired Mo Yang.

He and Amelia Su met earlier, but until today. George Han hasn't really gotten Amelia Su.

Looking at Mo Yang, Liu Fang has already been dealt with in just a few days. Is it possible that Mo Yang still has some special tricks when it comes to picking up girls?

This made George Han want to ask Mo Yang for advice.

"Let me introduce you, this is my good brother, George Han." After speaking, Mo Yang glanced at Dao Twelve, he didn't know the strange face. However, he knew that since he could be with George Han, he must have an extraordinary relationship with George Han.

"He is called Dao Twelve. You can call him Twelve. He is also a good brother." George Han said.

Mo Yang stretched out his fist.

Knife Twelve also understood very well, stretched out his fist and bumped against Mo Yang.

"Since I am the brother of George. It is my brother of Mo Yang." Mo Yang said.

Dao Twelve smiled and nodded. For the killer industry, there are no friends, but he can tell through Mo Yang's eyes that there is no hypocrisy in what he said. This feeling is right. It was strange to Dao Twelve, but it was very comfortable.

"This is my sister-in-law, right?" George Han asked Liu Fang with a smile.

Mo Yang smiled brightly, and Liu Fang nodded slightly shyly.

George Han sighed inwardly. At this time, it's okay not to be convinced. Even Liu Fang took the initiative to admit it.

"You know who he is. You still want to be with him?" George Han said to Liu Fang jokingly.

“He has promised me to quit the rivers and lakes.” Liu Fang said while looking at Mo Yang.

Mo Yang smiled and fished his head, and said to George Han, “We are going to open a cram school in Basin City.”

Only then did George Han remember the matter. Mo Yang used to wash his hands for Liu Fang’s golden basin, but now he is with Liu Fang, so the old things will happen again.

However, once Mo Yang retreats from the arena, it will cause a lot of trouble. The only difference is that now with George Han, the safety of Mo Yang and Liu Fang can be guaranteed.

“Make your own plan. No matter what you want to do.” George Han did not persuade Mo Yang, because with his current ability, Mo Yang no longer needed help on the road, and Mo Yang quit, and the twelve swords were just right. Can fill this vacancy. Will not affect the overall situation.

Mo Yang mysteriously pulled George Han aside, and whispered: “George, although my decision is a bit hasty. But it is also after my careful consideration, I may not be able to help with the future. You Don’t blame me.”

George Han smiled and said, “It doesn’t matter to me if you can help me. I can’t stop what I want to do, and now there is a twelve sword, he can take your place.”

Hearing this, Mo Yang heaved a sigh of relief. What he was most worried about would arouse George Han’s dissatisfaction. After all, George Han is developing in Basin City, and with the help of his status, he can get twice the result with half the effort. Moreover, it saves a lot of trouble. Now that George Han agrees, he can rest assured.

Mo Yang made an OK gesture to Liu Fang, and Liu Fang’s expression was obviously relaxed, which made George Han a little puzzled.

Isn’t Mo Yang saying something bad about himself in front of Liu Fang?

“Mo Yang, what have you done. Why is Liu Fang afraid of me?” George Han asked.

Mo Yang shook his head like a rattle, and said, “No, no. I didn’t say anything.”

Seeing Mo Yang’s concealed expression, George Han wanted to kick this guy to death, but in front of Liu Fang, he still wanted to save him some face, so George Han resisted it.

“There will be a very important thing to tell you in the future. At that time, you will face a choice, and this choice, I am afraid that will change your life.” George Han said.

Mo Yang was stunned. Asked: “What choice.”

“I will tell you later, now it is just for you to have a psychological preparation.” George Han has not yet worked out how to allow ordinary people to practice. After all, the earth is not an environment suitable for cultivation. Ordinary people want to do this. As difficult as the sky, George Han must solve this difficult problem at the beginning.

“Yes, no matter what you do, I will follow you, as long as you don’t mix with society.” Mo Yang said.

George Han smiled helplessly. It seems that he has really left everything for Liu Fang.

The country in Basin City is not big enough. But it’s not too small anymore, and it took Mo Yang a lot of effort to beat him down, for a woman. Give up when you say give up, serious true love.

“You and Dao Twelve will hand over, let him sit on your seat smoothly.” George Han exhorted.

“Okay. I will arrange everything for the funeral.”

Dao Twelve stayed at Mullinsi, and handed over some problems with Mo Yang. After George Han and Liu Fang greeted them, they left.

The biggest problem for ordinary people to cultivate is how to have enough spiritual energy for cultivation.

On the entire earth, the only place with this kind of environment is Tianqi, but if they were to go to Tianqi to practice, George Han would not be able to provide help anytime and anywhere. After all, he still has Amelia Su in Basin City, and it is impossible for him to live in Tianqi.

“If you can gather all the aura of the earth in one place, it should be an excellent environment for cultivation.” George Han said to himself, thinking of the mountainside Villa for the first time.

It is definitely the best choice to build the mountainside Villa into a place where you can practice, but how to gather spiritual energy is a very big problem for George Han.

“Apocalypse, apocalypse!” George Han said silently, suddenly thinking of something.

Since the apocalypse can gather the aura, it means that the apocalypse must be unique. As long as you find this unique place, you may be able to perfectly copy the way the apocalypse gathers the aura to the mountainside Villa.

“It seems that you still have to go to the Apocalypse.” George Han said with a sigh, but before going to the Apocalypse, George Han had to fix the Black Sheep Organization. Once he disappeared, the Black Sheep Organization was very It is possible to attack the people around him, which George Han absolutely does not want to see.

Unconsciously, George Han walked to the gate of the school, invisibly as if there was a rope pulling him. This alone was doomed to the immortal marriage between George Han and Amelia Su.

But when he arrived at the school gate, George Han noticed something weird. Several guys with wicked eyebrows were squatting on the side of the road opposite the school, as if they were about to do something bad.

Chapter 1424

George Han's keen intuition told him that these people are not good things, so he walked towards them.

As soon as I approached, I listened to a few days of talking about how to play today, vulgar language, full of swear words, one of them, holding a photo in his hand, kept looking at it, and kept looking at the school door, watching This posture is like kidnapping someone in time.

"Little guy, what are you doing?" After one of them found George Han approaching, he grinned and asked George Han. He also showed the tattoo on his arm, as if trying to scare George Han away.

"Who are you going to kidnap?" George Han asked directly.

When several people heard this, their expressions changed.

The person holding the photo put the photo away immediately.

"Little devil, do you know what will happen to nosy?"

"Boy, your mother didn't tell you, don't you make trouble?"

"Get out of the way, or you won't know your mother." A few menacingly right. George Han said.

These words are used to frighten ordinary people. They are definitely useful, and children of George Han's age have long been stunned.

But to George Han, these words not only did not serve as a threat, but made him feel ridiculous.

How dare some street gangsters say such things!

George Han walked to the person holding the photo and said, "Take the photo out."

"Boy, you have to find something, right?"

“Go to your mother and beg.” The two directly attacked George Han. Surrounded.

George Han took a cold look and said, “If you don’t want to die, just hand it over, and I will let you go.”

“Oh, little thing, your damn tone is really good, go to hell.” The man who spoke, waved his fist at George Han.

George Han kicked out with a thunder, and the man flew out directly.

The few remaining people saw this scene and stood there, dumbfounded!

The person who took the photo was so scared that his face was pale. He didn’t put George Han in his eyes before, but he was scared watching the miserable situation of his companion.

“Boy, who are you?” someone asked tremblingly.

George Han stretched out his hand, grabbed the throat of the person holding the photo, and said, “Do you want to try what it feels like to have a broken neck?”

The person kept shaking his head and finally handed over the photo.

When George Han saw that the person in the photo was Amelia Su, his heart surged with killing intent.

The reason why he came to trouble these people was because he intuitively felt that this matter might have something to do with Amelia Su.

Unexpectedly, these people really came to kidnap Amelia Su.

In George Han’s view, anyone who has threats to Amelia Su deserves to die. He must suppress these threats in the cradle to ensure Amelia Su’s 100% safety.

But this was still on the street, and George Han couldn’t mess with the rules under the eyes of everyone.

“Let’s talk, who asked you to do this, if you dare to hide a little bit, you won’t have to live.” George Han said.

Several people don’t know the details of George Han, but he has already seen his skill. The companion who was kicked passed out and he is still not sober, so they can probably estimate their own strength and George Han. What will the comparison be like?

Even if a few of them did it at the same time, they were probably not George Han's opponent, so there was no need to ask for trouble.

"It's a man named Su Guolin. He promised to give us one hundred thousand." The person who took the photo was scared the most, so he confessed to George Han for the first time.

Hearing the three words Su Guolin, George Han was not surprised at all, because Amelia Su would not provoke these people. The most likely reason was that the conflict between Su Guolin and Wilson Su turned anger to Amelia Su.

However, this Su Guolin was really nothing, and he even started on his niece.

"Go away, don't let me see you again, otherwise, I won't be so lucky next time." George Han reprimanded.

Several people ran away quickly, and as for the person who fainted, no one took care of him and took him away.

George Han took out the phone and dialed Wilson Su's number.

Wilson Su is so busy now that he almost does everything by himself, fearing that the slightest mistake will cause a bumpy road to his turn over.

However, no matter how busy he is, other people's calls may not be answered, but Wilson Su will never miss George Han's calls.

The moment it sounded, Wilson Su put down what was in his hand and answered the phone when he saw the three words of George Han.

"Three thousand, do you have anything to order?" Wilson Su said.

"Su Guolin found a group of people to kidnap Amelia Su. Those people have been beaten away by me, but he will definitely not let it go. You should know how to deal with this matter, right?" George Han said coldly.

Wilson Su's expression became savage. Su Guolin, this guy, has been kicked out of the Su family and the company, so he still has to do this kind of thing!

Amelia Su is the only connection between the Su family and George Han. If something happens to Amelia Su, the Su family will be over!

"I know, don't worry, I will handle this matter as soon as possible." Wilson Su said.

George Han hung up the phone. Although the trouble has been solved, he still has a worried expression because he cannot protect Amelia Su all the time. Similar incidents are likely to happen in the future. This is for Amelia Su. In terms of security, it is a very big problem.

It is almost impossible to completely resolve such incidents unless Amelia Su has the ability to protect herself.

Let Amelia Su start practicing?

After this idea was born in George Han's mind, she quickly rejected it, because she would have Fuyao's ability in the future. George Han didn't know if practicing now would cause problems with her ability to absorb Fuyao in the future, so he didn't dare. Try it easily.

It seems that you have to find a master to protect Amelia Su personally.

School time is up.

Students walked out of the school one after another.

Amelia Su and Qi Yiyun, two best friends, walked out of the school as usual.

Seeing Qi Yiyun, George Han thought of one thing. If Qi Yiyun can protect Amelia Su personally, it should be the best choice. After all, the two of them are now best friends. They spend most of the day together and let them live. Together, the problem should not be big.

But doing so is cruel to Qi Yiyun, after all, she still likes George Han.

Seeing George Han, Qi Yiyun took the initiative to greet Amelia Su and left.

And Amelia Su also took the initiative to walk in front of George Han.

Chapter 1425

"You come to pick me up every day, or study with me." Amelia Su said to George Han.

Hearing the words reading, George Han suddenly felt his head hurt.

Based on his experience, if he were allowed to sit in the classroom again and lose his freedom, I am afraid that within three days, George Han would be driven crazy. After all, his current mentality is already the mentality of an adult.

"Actually, I am very busy every day," George Han said.

"Really?" Amelia Su looked at George Han with a questioning expression. She didn't think George Han was busy, like a idler all day long. If she was really busy, how could she pick her up from school every day.

"Of course, I still have my own job. You really think I have nothing to do." George Han said firmly.

Amelia Su nodded, no longer entangled with this question, and said: "Summer vacation is coming soon. There is a summer camp activity in the school. I am going to participate. Do you want to play?"

Being able to hang out with Amelia Su, George Han would certainly not refuse this kind of thing. After all, this kind of alone time is very precious to him, and it is also the best time to cultivate feelings.

"No problem, when?" George Han asked.

"A month later, it's still early, we have to end the final exam." Amelia Su said.

This time is still very friendly to George Han. After all, he still needs to deal with the black sheep organization. One month is enough for him to handle this matter well.

"Okay, that's it, I will definitely participate when that happens."

The two of them walked towards Amelia Su's house, which was already a very habitual normality, and even Amelia Su was used to having George Han take her home.

Still sent downstairs as usual, after Amelia Su went upstairs, George Han left.

But the difference this time is that the first time Amelia Su returned home, she lay down at the window and watched George Han leave. This was something she had never done before.

I don't know why, every time I walk with George Han, Amelia Su feels particularly at ease in her heart, but after the two separate, Amelia Su's heart will become empty, as if something is missing suddenly.

Looking at the back of George Han leaving, Amelia Su's expression was inexplicably lost. It seemed to her that this journey home was so fast that she hadn't had enough with George Han.

"What are you doing lying on the window?" Lily Jiang's voice came from behind.

Amelia Su turned around in a panic and said, "No...nothing."

Lily Jiang didn't believe in evil, walked to the window, looked out, and questioned Amelia Su: "You're not in a puppy love, I warn you, without my permission, if you dare to do this kind of thing, I'll fight Break your leg."

Lily Jiang has always regarded Amelia Su as her hope of turning over, because she had never thought that Wilson Su would turn over one day, so if she wants to live a good life, she needs to rely on Amelia Su.

Especially whenever he sees news about the bride price, Lily Jiang will imagine that Amelia Su will get married in the future. If he can bring millions of bride price to their family, there is no need to worry about a good day.

So Lily Jiang had decided long ago. To find a husband for Amelia Su personally, people don't have to be handsome or young, but they must be rich.

If you were harmed by those unscrupulous little bastards during this period, Lily Jiang would absolutely not allow it.

"Didn't you go back to your grandmother's house? Why are you back again?" Amelia Su said with an unconvinced expression. Although Lily Jiang is her biological mother, Amelia Su doesn't have much affection for her because Lily Jiang is at home and doesn't play the responsibility of wife and mother.

Moreover, she would often curse Wilson Su as worthless, and Amelia Su would often look down on these things.

So this time Lily Jiang ran away from home, and Amelia Su didn't even persuade him.

For Amelia Su, there is no Lily Jiang at home, but much quieter.

"You dead girl, don't you want me to come back? This is my Lily Jiang's home." Lily Jiang said to Amelia Su fiercely.

Amelia Su was too lazy to argue with her, and went straight back to the room.

on the other hand.

Su's Villa.

After Wilson Su received a call from George Han, he put aside everything in his hands and came to the Su family Villa.

The old man of the Su family has now handed over everything in the company to Wilson Su, because other cooperation in the company has become unimportant. As long as the Fengqian cooperation is done well, the Su family will not worry about development.

Now the old man can be regarded as enjoying life at home, making a pot of tea for himself, and listening to Peking opera to spend a leisurely day.

"Dad." Wilson Su walked to the old man and yelled respectfully.

In the past, if he heard Wilson Su's voice, the old man would only feel impatient, but now it is different. Wilson Su has become the future of the Su family, and the old man should naturally pay attention to him.

“Wilson is here, sit down.” The old man said, and by the way he poured a cup of tea for Wilson Su.

In the past, only Su Guolin could enjoy this kind of treatment occasionally, but Wilson Su did not feel flattered, because he knew his current importance. If the old man wanted to see the development of the Su family, he had to rely on him to do it.

“Dad, George Han called me today.” Wilson Su said.

Hearing the three words of George Han, the old man sat up straight, because his life was saved by George Han, and the old man took George Han seriously.

“What’s wrong, what did you say.” The old man asked.

“He found several people who were about to kidnap Amelia Su today. Although they were beaten by him, he wanted me to solve the problem behind the scenes.” Wilson Su said.

The old man crossed his eyebrows and green eyes. The reason why George Han would help the Su family was because of Amelia Su, and Amelia Su could not have any accidents, otherwise the Su family would follow suit.

“Do you know who did it? Regardless of the cost, we must deal with this person and not let him hurt Amelia Su.” The old man said.

“Su Guolin.” Wilson Su didn’t intend to bluff, and said directly.

“What!” The old man stood up with anger and said, “You said, the kidnapper of Amelia Su was Su Guolin?”

“Yes, this is what George Han told me personally. There will never be any fakes, so I will come to you.” Wilson Su said.

The old man took a deep breath. If an outsider did it, just find a few people to get it done, but it was his son who did this stupid thing!

And thinking about it carefully, Su Guolin did have the motive to do this, because he was expelled from the Su family, a large part of the reason was related to Wilson Su, and the revenge on Amelia Su is also understandable.

The old man took out the phone and dialed Su Guolin’s number.

“You come to the Villa right away for me.” The old man said sharply.

Su Guolin on the other end of the phone was confused. He was still waiting for those people to bring Amelia Su to him. Why would the old man suddenly call?

With a sense of anxiety, Su Guolin came to the Villa. When he saw Wilson Su, he had an unknown premonition in his heart.

At this time, the old lady also appeared, because before coming, Su Guolin called the old lady in advance to avoid accidents.

After all, the old lady loves him the most, and if something really happens, some old ladies will help him intercede.

“Dad, mom.” Su Guolin only called his parents, and directly ignored his elder brother Wilson Su.

“Su Guolin, you think it is not miserable enough that you have been kicked out of the Su family, do you have to die to be reconciled?” The old man asked Su Guolin.

Su Guolin pretended to be innocent. Before he could speak, the old lady spoke: “What’s the matter, it’s not dead, how unlucky.”

“There is nothing to do with you here, it’s muddy.” The old man stared at the old lady.

“What do you mean, don’t you curse my son and don’t allow me to refute it?” The old lady was also angry, staring at the old man.

“Curse him?” The old man was trembling with anger, and said, “This is his own death. You can’t cry without seeing the coffin.”

“What happened? Is it such a serious matter? It’s all a family. Is it possible that you still have to die? How big things can’t be solved?” the old lady said.

“You baby boy, you want to kidnap Amelia Su, are you serious enough?” said the old man.

Su Guolin personally decided to do this matter, and he never told the old lady, so the old lady who heard this was also shocked.

Kidnap Amelia Su!

Although she has never regarded Amelia Su as a wild girl in her eyes, she is also the Su family, and now the Su family can get the opportunity to cooperate with Fengqian, and it has a great relationship with Amelia Su. If Amelia Su has any accident, the Su family will also There will not be a good life.

“Dad, what are you talking about, how could I kidnap Amelia Su, that’s my niece.” Su Guolin said to the old man with a wronged expression on his face.

“Su Guolin, you still don’t admit it now, do you have to put the evidence in front of you?” Wilson Su said.

“Wilson Su, I have left the Su family and the company. What do you want me to do? Are you really going to kill me? You even slander me with this kind of thing.” Su Guolin looked at Wilson Su grimly.

Although he didn't know why the old man knew about this, Su Guolin knew that he couldn't admit it even if he was killed. Otherwise, even if an old lady was present, he would not be saved.

“Stigmatize you?” Wilson Su stood up and walked in front of Su Guolin. The two of them looked at each other and said: “What did you do yourself, you know best, is it slander? You know in your heart, this matter is George Han. If you call me personally, do you know how much it will affect the Su family if you really do this.”

“And you also said that it was your niece, how did you get such a cruel hand?”

“You fart, this matter has nothing to do with me, not me.” Su Guolin quibbled.

Chapter 1426

Regardless of Su Guolin's sophistry, in Wilson Su's mind, he has already determined that he did this, because he believes in George Han 100%, and will never doubt George Han at all, and it is about Amelia Su. George Han would never make such a joke.

As for Su Guolin, he used this method to retaliate against himself. It seems reasonable to Wilson Su. After all, Su Guolin was expelled from the Su family and company because of him.

“Su Guolin, your sophistry is useless, I warn you, this kind of thing can only happen once, and I will never allow it to happen again, and I advise you not to put your idea on Amelia Su, no You don't even know how to die.” Wilson Su said. According to Su Guolin, he is also his own brother, so Wilson Su cannot drive Su Guolin to death because of one such incident. He can only give him another chance.

But when Su Guolin heard this, he became even more furious and said, “You threaten me? Wilson Su, don't think you really stand up. As long as Su Guolin is there, I will pull you down sooner or later. You are a trash. The ability to manage the company.”

It is definitely not a wise choice to say this in front of the old man, but Su Guolin can't take care of that much anymore, and he is so angry that he wants to kill Wilson Su.

The old man snorted coldly when he heard the words. Su Guolin was indeed better than Wilson Su in the past, and Su's company was indeed intended to be managed by Su Guolin.

But now, Wilson Su's advantage is definitely not comparable to Su Guolin. This has nothing to do with personal ability. Fengqian alone is enough for the father to hand over the company to Wilson Su.

“Do you think I am threatening you? No, this is just the most kind advice, because you hurt the person Amelia Su sinned, not just me.” Wilson Su said, George Han cares more about Amelia Su’s safety than he does. The question is, once Amelia Su is in danger, and Su Guolin acts as the instigator behind the scenes, Wilson Su can almost imagine Su Guolin’s fate.

With George Han’s ability and temper, how could he still have a way to survive?

“Su Guolin, you have been kicked out of the Su family. If you want to cause trouble to the Su family, I don’t mind solving you personally.” The old man said, he also understands the importance of Amelia Su to the Su family, so he must Kill Su Guolin’s dangerous thoughts in the cradle.

Su Guolin felt cold. Looking at the old man’s attitude, he obviously didn’t pay much attention to him, and the personal resolution of these four words also fully demonstrated how determined the old man’s attitude was.

This made Su Guolin almost desperate, because he knew that his desire to return to the company to regain power had almost become a luxury.

This also made the seeds of evil in Su Guolin’s mind begin to germinate. Since he can’t get what he wants, he can only destroy everything in front of him!

“Dad, do you really want to be so unfeeling, don’t you give me a chance to reform?” Su Guolin gritted his teeth.

He Xini’s old lady also said: “These are all your own sons. When there is no mistake, you can forgive Guolin this time and let him go back to the company first.”

The old man’s frosty face didn’t move at all. What about his son, as long as it threatened the company’s development, even his son, the old man, would not give the slightest chance.

Moreover, he knows Su Guolin’s character. Once he returns to the company, it will inevitably cause a lot of trouble to Wilson Su. If Su Guolin hurts the cooperative relationship with Fengqian, it will be too late to regret.

“Absolutely impossible, I can tell you, you don’t even want to return to the company in your life, this is the result of your own blame.” The old man said.

These words were like a bolt from the blue for Su Guolin. The father said so absolutely that Su Guolin felt that he had lost all hope.

“Dad, I am also your son, how can you treat me like this.” Su Guolin said with a pained expression.

“How did you harm the interests of the Su family? Have you forgotten it? When you betrayed the Su family and told Yang Guangyuan about Fengqian’s project, why didn’t you think that you belonged to the Su family.” The old man thought about it. He was short of breath. He never expected that Su Guolin would do such a stupid thing. For his own position in the company, he could sacrifice the huge interests of the company!

What kind of people do they inherit the power of the company?

Even if the company is handed over to him, it will be destroyed in his hands sooner or later.

The old man did not allow his life’s hard work to be destroyed.

“You give him another chance, he knows he was wrong, and he will never do it again in the future.” The old lady said distressedly. Compared to Wilson Su, she loves Su Guolin’s youngest son even more, because Wilson Su is naturally dull and not at all. It’s likable, but Su Guolin is different. He will often say good things and make the old lady happy. This situation is like the Han family.

“Stop talking nonsense, say one more thing, I’ll let you get out of Su’s house.” The old man stared at the old lady and said. The reason why Su Guolin has become so selfish is because the old lady’s excessive indulgence, if not she let Su Guolin After becoming self-esteem, how could it be possible to betray the Su family?

The old lady saw that the old man was really angry, so she could only shut her mouth. In this state, she did not dare to provoke the old man.

At this time, the old lady not only hated George Han a little, if it hadn’t been for George Han to pull the old man back from the death line, the current Su family, she had the final say, how could it become like this.

“Dad, there are still many things waiting for me to deal with in the company, I’m leaving first.” Wilson Su said.

The old man nodded quickly and said: “If you have anything else, you can leave as soon as possible. The company’s business is important. Don’t worry, I will never threaten Amelia’s safety.”

“Okay, I’m leaving now.” After that, Wilson Su turned to the old lady and said, “Mom, I’m leaving.”

The old lady didn’t even look at Wilson dazzlingly. It seemed that the eldest son was not her own.

Wilson Su just took a step forward, and Su Guolin was also preparing to leave.

But the old man hadn’t learned enough, and he had to let Su Guolin understand the consequences of continuing to do these stupid things.

“You stop, did I let you go?” the old man said.

Su Guolin had no expression on his face, his eyes were very cold, and said, "Since I am no longer from the Su family, why do you care about me, where I am going, do you need your consent?"

At this point, Su Guolin was not afraid to turn his face with the old man and walked directly out of the Villa.
