

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1435 - 1438

Chapter 1435

How could Nangong Boring's careful thinking escape George Han's eyes? From the moment George Han saw the caller ID, he had already guessed the purpose of Nangong Boring.

However, he was so concerned about this matter, it still made George Han a little strange. Could it be that there are still conflicts and grievances between Nangong Boring and this black sheep organization?

"You and the Black Sheep Organization, don't you have any hatred?" George Han asked.

Nangong Boring's thoughts have been seen through by George Han. How can he have the guts to play tricks in front of George Han, so he can honestly admit: "The Black Sheep Organization is my biggest opponent in this world, so when he provokes him When it comes to you, I am very happy, because I know that you will kill them sooner or later."

George Han asked Nangong Boring to investigate the Black Sheep Organization, but Nangong Boring did not get too many useful clues. From then on, George Han knew that the Black Sheep Organization was a trouble for Nangong Boring. With the power of Nangong Boring, there is almost no information in the world that he cannot grasp.

From then on, Nangong Boring wanted to use George Han's hand to destroy the black sheep organization.

"Nangong Boring, if I remember correctly, it took you two days to give me the information of the Black Sheep Organization. You were wasting my time when you knew everything," George Han said sharply.

Hearing George Han's change of tone, the world-class economic ruler suddenly broke out in a cold sweat, and quickly admitted his mistake: "Sorry, I shouldn't use these little tricks in front of you. Don't worry, this is the last time. , I will never do this again in the future."

"This matter, I will ask you to settle the account later." After speaking, George Han hung up the phone.

Nangong Boring on the other side of the phone has a slightly desperate expression. His current mood can only be described in the word regret. If he knew this, he would never hide the relationship between him and the Black Sheep Organization in front of George Han. Contradictory, let alone test George Han's attitude towards this matter.

What about the world's largest private economy?

Nangong Boring knew that his position was worthless in front of George Han.

In his eyes, the entire Nangong family was nothing more than a bunch of ants.

“Hey.” Nangong Boring couldn’t help sighing, and said to himself: “I really shouldn’t do this kind of thing in front of him, there is something he can’t see through, I’m so naive.”

Basin City Airport.

After George Han and Dao Twelve boarded the plane, they sat in the first class waiting for takeoff.

To the right of George Han, sits a seventeen or eighteen-year-old girl with black and beautiful long hair tied into a ponytail. From time to time, she will use the sidelines to look at George Han as if she has some special thoughts.

George Han didn’t feel threatening aura in her, so he didn’t take the initiative to take care of her. After all, George Han had no interest in other girls except Amelia Su, and he didn’t want to attract more peach blossoms for himself. , So as to cause more trouble.

This kind of trouble, Qi Yiyun alone is enough for George Han to have a headache. If there are other women, George Han will not be able to withstand this pressure.

But when the plane took off, the girl took the initiative to talk to George Han.

“Little brother, where are you going?” the girl asked George Han.

Little brother!

This title made George Han feel very awkward, after all, his mental age was already an adult in his twenties.

“My mother told me not to talk to strangers.” George Han said lightly.

When these words came out, Dao Twelve, who was sitting on the side, began to twitch, holding back his own smile.

In the eyes of others, this is a very simple sentence that many children would say.

But in the eyes of Dao Twelve, this is a joke, because people who can say this are afraid of being abducted by strangers, but George Han is not such a person at all.

The girl didn’t expect that George Han would respond to her like this. She didn’t know how to deal with it for a while. After several minutes, she said to George Han again: “Does I look like a bad person?”

George Han nodded without hesitation, then closed his eyes and said, “I want to rest.”

The girl suddenly became a little angry, but seeing that George Han had closed her eyes, she could only stop.

More than ten hours later, George Han arrived at his first stop. In the process of preparing for a transfer, he ran into the girl again, but this time, the two did not have any conversation, but the joke of fate had time but it was It was a coincidence that the two people took the same flight again, and the destination they were going to was the same.

“Little brother, is this fate for us? I didn’t expect you to go to Crystal Island too.” The girl said to George Han.

Crystal Island is a very famous tourist island. She went to travel, but George Han went to Crystal Island because it was the closest place to the headquarters of the Black Sheep Organization. Their destinations were completely different.

George Han didn’t want to talk nonsense to her, so he closed his mouth and didn’t open his mouth. In some ways, he was also protecting her. After all, when he arrived at Crystal Island, there would be many eyeliners from the black sheep organization. Let these people find that her relationship with them is extraordinary, I am afraid it will also bring certain danger to her.

“George, there are several killers on this plane.” At this moment, Dao Twelve suddenly reminded George Han in a low voice.

George Han nodded, and he was aware of this. After all, the breath of a killer was completely different from that of ordinary people. Sword Twelve could feel it. How could George Han not notice it.

However, George Han’s appearance has not been announced, so those people don’t know him. This is good news for George Han. Otherwise, once he landed on Crystal Island, he might be followed by countless killers.

Of course, George Han wasn’t afraid of those assassins. He was just slaughtering in places like Crystal Island, which caused him a certain amount of trouble.

“Little brother, do you want to be so cold and pretend to be so cold?” The girl saw that George Han ignored her, her anger was a little high, and she said to George Han disdainfully.

George Han was helpless, because he did it for her good, but she didn’t understand what was going on.

But this kind of misunderstanding, George Han didn’t bother to explain, still closed his mouth and said nothing.

It was another six-hour flight, and finally reached the second destination, Crystal Island.

The scenery of this island is world-famous and attracts a large number of tourists every year. Before the plane landed, George Han could feel the heat here, especially the beaches of the coastline, dense crowds, like dumplings.

Chapter 1436

After leaving the airport, even in the streets, bikinis can be seen everywhere. The twelve concentration of swords is very powerful, but seeing this situation, he can't help showing his coveting color.

Only George Han did not change his mentality, and he was not even attracted to his eyes.

"Three thousand, this is really a man's paradise. I have been to many islands, but I have never met a beautiful woman like this." Dao Twelve said with a coveted expression.

George Han looked at Harazi who was about to overflow the corner of his mouth with Twelve Swords, and couldn't help but reminded: "Hurry up and wipe your saliva, don't be ashamed, aren't they just some women? You don't need to act like a fool. Right."

"You don't understand." Dao Twelve shook his head. In his opinion, the reason why George Han remained unmoved was because he was not an adult and had not really enjoyed the happiness women bring to men, so he can be so calm.

This thing is like a poison. As long as it is touched once, it has absolute temptation for a man, which no one can resist.

"I don't understand?" George Han laughed blankly, living two lives, what else in this world he doesn't understand.

"Yes, you don't know what kind of happiness women can bring to men. Naturally, you won't be moved by these women." Dao Twelve said with a natural look.

George Han didn't bother to discuss these issues with Dao Twelve, after all, he hadn't planned to tell Dao Twelve about the rebirth.

"You can think whatever you like. Find a hotel to live in. The headquarters island is definitely not easy to go to, and you have to be cautious if you don't want to be horrified." George Han said, since the black sheep organization is going to be destroyed, George Han would not allow any fish that slipped through the net, so in this matter, we should not leak the slightest noise to avoid the core members of the Black Sheep Organization from running away in advance.

The two found a hotel, where even the waiter in the hotel was wearing bikini overalls.

For Dao Twelve, this is a huge temptation challenge, which seems to make his heart restless at any time.

After returning to the room, Dao Twelve's restless mood gradually calmed down.

"Three thousand, how far is the headquarters island from here?" Dao Twelve asked George Han.

George Han made a silent motion to Dao Twelve, and then secretly felt whether there was anything in the monitoring device in the room. After confirming that it was safe, he said to Dao Twelve: "There is still a day of waterway. But that area is forbidden for anyone to approach, and only transport ships from the headquarters island can go."

These are the information George Han extracted from the memory of the gold medal killer. It is very accurate. The transport ship transports materials for the headquarters island and only once a month.

For George Han, the best way to get to the island is to use a transport ship, so that people can be unconscious.

But wanting to board a transport ship is not a simple matter. The transport ship's defense is very tight.

"It seems that we can only get to the island by a transport ship, but it is not easy to get on a transport ship," Dao Twelve said.

George Han himself had a way, and it was very simple, but it would be a little troublesome to bring the twelve swords.

"There are still three days before the transport ship arrives at the port, and it also takes a day for them to sort the materials. Let's check the situation first." George Han said.

On the second day, George Han and Dao Twelve were like ordinary tourists, enjoying the breeze and sunbathing on the beach. The only difference was that Dao Twelve's eyes kept walking around those women, while George Han He closed his eyes and rested his mind, without looking at it from beginning to end.

George Han's performance made Dao Twelve doubt whether he had a normal sexual orientation. Otherwise, how could a man not be interested in a woman?

Even if he is not an adult, he has never tried adult male and female love, but the attraction of the opposite s*x, this should be regardless of age.

"Three thousand, or else, let's move separately, I want to go shopping." Dao Twelve finally couldn't help it, and said to George Han.

George Han knew what Dao Twelve thoughts, and this guy probably couldn't help his animal desires.

"You really can't hold it anymore, just go quickly." George Han said with a smile.

Dao Twelve didn't say much, and just slipped away. In this environment, it is almost impossible for an adult to control the desire to strike up a conversation.

He is not interested in leaving George Han alone. He is going to go back to the hotel to rest. After all, the environment here is a bit noisy, so it is better to go back to the hotel and study how to get on the transport ship.

In the memory extracted by the gold medal killer, George Han still has a certain understanding of the transport ship, almost three steps and one post, without any dead ends, which is why it is difficult to board the ship.

But no matter how tightly guarded, there are bound to be loopholes. George Han can only find loopholes in the memory of the gold medal killer.

But as soon as he got up, George Han saw the girl on the plane walking towards him, and there were many companions around him.

Chapter 1437

Trouble, always comes without any signs.

When George Han saw the girl walking towards him with a friend, he knew that the trouble was coming again, which made him a little helpless. He seemed to have a physique that caused trouble by nature, even if he didn't cause trouble. There will be bad luck on the head.

For example, for this girl, George Han just ignored her and seemed to provoke her invisibly.

"It's him." After the girl walked in front of George Han, she pointed at George Han and said.

Her male partner laughed disdainfully, looked at George Han up and down and said, "Little thing, are you just ignoring my girlfriend?"

"How should I take care of her?" George Han shrugged helplessly.

"Since you don't know how to be polite, let me teach you how to respect people." The boy said to George Han with sullen eyes.

Although he only wore swimming trunks, George Han still found a detail on his wrist, a valuable watch, which shows that the boy should be a rich man, and depending on his age, George Han almost can He was judged to be a rich second generation.

George Han felt very melancholy. Before he was reborn, many rich second generations were planted in his hands. The fate of George Han seemed to be entangled with these rich second generations. How big Hu's troubles came from this Kind of people.

“I don’t want to cause trouble, you can leave now.” George Han said lightly.

The boy smirked. In his opinion, George Han’s attitude was confessing, which would make him more arrogant.

Who is the rich second generation?

A group of bullying and hard-working characters, the more cowardly they appear, the more arrogant they will be, because when they believe that the other party does not dare to do the right thing with themselves, they will be more intolerant.

“Want to leave?” The boy directly stood in front of George Han and said, “Do I agree that you are leaving?”

After speaking, the boy opened his legs, pointed at his hips, and continued: “You can go if you want to go. I will let you go from here.”

George Han sighed helplessly. This kind of person has never seen the coffin without tears, even if he doesn’t want to cause trouble, but the other party’s attitude is getting more and more arrogant, and it is almost impossible to calm down.

“Where are you from?” George Han asked the boy.

“Where am I from, does it have anything to do with you? Don’t talk to me, get in from me, or apologize to my girlfriend. Otherwise, don’t want to leave.” The boy said arrogantly .

“My name is George Han, you’d better call your family to find out whether your family background is qualified enough to provoke me.” George Han said, using his identity to scare people, not George Han’s Means, but in Crystal Island, he didn’t want to make extravagances. After all, this time it was the headquarters of the Black Sheep Organization. It would be very troublesome for George Han if it was targeted by other killers.

Because once he arouses the interest of those killers, his identity will be investigated soon, and the Black Sheep Organization will inevitably receive news in the first place. In case some people run away, Tianya Haijiao wants to find them again. But it is not a simple matter.

In fact, George Han thinks this way. It is completely redundant. Although the Black Sheep organization has sent a gold medal killer, the real high-level officials did not put him in their eyes. It would never be because he came to Crystal Island. Just run away.

When the boy heard the three words of George Han, his expression instantly froze. He came from Hillwood City and was a native of Hillwood City. He was very clear about what happened in Hillwood City some time ago.

And what kind of deterrence the three words George Han had, he also understood very well.

When George Han was still in Hillwood City, almost all major families reminded their younger generations to keep a low profile outside, and don't provoke George Han. He himself was warned by the elders of the clan. of.

During that time, he almost couldn't get out of the gate in Hillwood City, just because he was afraid of offending George Han, he was trapped for too long, so he came to Crystal Island to relax.

But what he didn't expect was that he didn't offend George Han in Hillwood City, but instead hit the crystal island thousands of miles away.

Thinking of what George Han had done in Hillwood City, his heart began to chill. If George Han returned to Hillwood City Xingshi to question him, he would be completely finished.

"You...you are George Han!" The boy asked George Han tremblingly.

When hearing the name of George Han, the other male companions also changed their faces, because they were all from Hillwood City, and they all knew who George Han was.

"Are you from Hillwood City?" George Han smiled. This trouble should not continue to expand, which is a good thing for him.

"Since you know who I am, what should you do now?" George Han continued.

The boy froze for a moment, then knelt directly on the ground, this was the only way he could think of apologizing.

Chapter 1438

After the first boy knelt down, the others who knew George Han's identity also knelt down one after another, because George Han's reputation in Hillwood City was too deterrent for them, and no one dared to offend Han. Three thousand, so if they can kneel down to resolve this conflict, they are very willing in their hearts.

At this time, dignity is not important to them, and the safety of the family is the major issue.

That was the girl who was dumbfounded. She didn't know why her boyfriend would kneel, but she could feel that they seemed very afraid of the child in front of her.

"You... what are you doing?" The girl said with a look of astonishment.

George Han was still a little surprised. His original intention was to let these guys take the initiative. Now that he knew his identity, he didn't need to trouble him. But who would have thought that these guys would be so scared and kneel down. .

This is still on the beach, and there are so many people around. If other tourists see it, wouldn't George Han be suspected of his identity!

If ordinary tourists are curious about him, it doesn't matter much. If it is targeted by a killer, George Han will be in some trouble.

"A bunch of idiots, it's better not to let me see you again." George Han left after leaving this sentence.

But he didn't know how much this sentence made the kneeling people frightened.

The boy directly stood up after George Han walked away, and said tremblingly: "It's over, it's over, how could I provoke him."

"Not only you are finished, we are also finished."

"Now that the Han family is in Hillwood City, who would dare to provoke easily, especially this little demon, who would provoke and die?"

"Who is he, why are you so afraid of him?" the girl asked.

She spoke, and instantly attracted the attention of several boys, staring at her.

If it weren't for her, how could they provoke this little demon!

Snapped!

A loud slap hit the girl's face.

The boy gritted his teeth and said, "If it weren't for you, how could we have offended him and troubled me all day long, so hurry up."

Hearing these words, the girl was dumbfounded.

In the past, her boyfriend solved the troubles. She thought it would be the same this time, but who would have thought that it would be such a consequence.

After George Han returned to the hotel, he didn't take this matter to heart. Now that there are a few rich second-generation generations, it is no longer worthy of George Han's special care, and it was not a serious matter originally, George Han. Nor will he bother to retaliate against their family.

The current George Han is full of thoughts on how to get on the transport ship. Only when the Black Sheep Organization is completely solved can George Han be able to completely eradicate this hidden danger.

It's easy for George Han to land on the island by himself, but this time the elimination of the Black Sheep Organization is a good opportunity for George Han to show himself in front of the Twelve Swords, so George Han must bring the Twelve Swords. Go up.

There are some things that you can't convince people just by talking.

But the facts that I have seen with my own eyes are no one to believe.

After all, there will be more things that Dao Twelve can't believe will happen in the future, and George Han needs to let him adapt in advance.

There are almost no loopholes in the defense of the transport ship. This is also the performance of the Black Sheep Organization's vigilance in this matter. The headquarters islands cannot be visited by anyone. After all, it has kept secrets for many years, and the Black Sheep Organization is definitely not willing to expose it easily.

"Hey, if you don't bring Knife Twelve, you won't have so much trouble." The confused George Han couldn't help sighing. It should have been a very simple thing, but because of Knife Twelve Second, it has become complicated, and he has no solution at all for the time being.

In the evening, Dao Twelve returned to the hotel, and immediately came to George Han's room.

"Three thousand, I have inquired about something about the transport ship." Dao Twelve said to George Han.

Such a sentence is not good news for George Han. The transport ship is a very sensitive matter. Any word about the transport ship may attract the attention of the eyeliner on the island.

The reason why the headquarters island can hide the secrets for so many years must have a lot to do with their eyeliner branch, and this island is the only place that can approach the headquarters island. The eyeliner here can be guessed without even thinking about George Han. It's everywhere.

If Dao Twelve took the initiative to mention this matter, then he is likely to have been targeted.

"Have you heard someone mention it, or who did you ask?" George Han said.

Dao Twelve smiled and said: "Don't worry, how could I take the initiative to mention this matter, I am not stupid, just listen to others talk about it, and you can rest assured, I did not interrupt, just listened to their conversation silently That's it."

George Han felt relieved and asked, "What do you know?"

“On this island, there are still some aborigines who know about the transport ship, but they said that the transport ship is for a private prison to transport supplies, and they should not understand the Black Sheep Organization at all.” Dao Twelve said.

George Han couldn't help rolling his eyes and said: “The Black Sheep Organization has been mysterious for so many years. No outsider has ever known where its headquarters is. People here don't understand it. It's not normal. Do you just listen to this nonsense? ?”

“Listen to me first. After the transport ship collects the materials, it needs labor to move it at the port. I think this is an opportunity to get on the ship.” Dao Twelve said.

Labor removal.

With his toes, George Han could think of how many people from the Black Sheep Organization would be staring at when moving supplies. In this case, it would be impossible to find a chance to stay on the ship.

“After getting on the boat, why can't we not get off the boat in full view? We are not going to go sightseeing on the boat, but to use the transport boat to board the headquarters island.” George Han said.

After all, Dao Twelve also said a lot of nonsense, and didn't mention the point at all.

“This...” Knife Twelve fished his head. He really only thought of the way to get on the boat, but how to stay on the boat was the biggest problem.

“The port on this island does not have any ships anchored, and I have also inquired about it today. There are no sea games here either. It means that the port is only set up for transport ships, and there is nothing in sight on the entire island. The water setting is enough to imagine how rigorous the Black Sheep Organization is in this regard. It is very difficult to board the ship smoothly without being discovered.” George Han sighed and said, even though he had racked his brains, he was still There is no way to break through.

Since his rebirth, almost everything in George Han went smoothly. This was the most difficult situation.
