

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1439 - 1442

Chapter 1439

After one night.

George Han got up early the next morning and went to the vicinity of the port. Although he had not deliberately approached, he just looked at it from a distance. George Han found that the security at the port was very tight, even when the transport ship was still When not entering the port, the port does not allow anyone to approach easily.

It is almost impossible to sneak on board in this situation.

But just as George Han was about to leave, a blond old man suddenly appeared behind him.

With George Han's perception of power, he immediately noticed the golden-haired old man's difference. He also had the power of a gold medal killer, and according to the judgment of his breath, George Han could almost It was certain that the old man and the gold medal killer had the same source of power.

"Do you know that I am here?" George Han asked directly.

Since this old man will come to him, it must be that George Han's identity has been exposed, so at this time, George Han doesn't need to be pretending to be crazy.

The old man smiled faintly, and said: "The power of the Black Sheep Organization is beyond your imagination. Every move you have made since you left Cloud City has not escaped our eyes."

George Han frowned slightly, which was a bit unexpected. After all, the killers who troubled him had all died, and George Han didn't notice that anyone was following him.

"Since you know I'm here, why don't you run?" George Han asked curiously.

"Run?" The old man laughed blankly, and said: "Why run, is it that the big Black Sheep Organization still fears you?"

What a big black sheep organization?

In George Han's eyes, this sentence was just a joke. Even if all the killer organizations on the earth unite, it is nothing more than a bunch of ants to him.

But for the old man, it is reasonable for him not to put George Han in his eyes. After all, they don't even know how strong George Han is.

“Do you want to go to the headquarters?” the old man asked George Han.

“If you want to destroy everyone in the Black Sheep Organization, you have to go to the headquarters to do it.” George Han said without shy.

The old man seemed to have heard an international joke.

Kill everyone in the Black Sheep Organization?

This is wishful thinking, a fantasy.

The reason why the Black Sheep Organization can exist for a hundred years is beyond imagination, and the Black Sheep Organization has power that mortals in the world do not have, so George Han’s words are even more ridiculous to the elderly.

“My kid, your strength really surprised us, but you are completely overpowered by your desire to destroy the Black Sheep Organization,” the old man said.

“Is it overthinking? I have to try to find out. It just happens that I haven’t found a way to land on the island. Now that you are here and take me to the island, I will show you how to destroy the black sheep organization, how about?” George Han said with a smile.

The old man shook his head helplessly. He had never seen such an arrogant person before, and he was just a kid.

However, the organization sent him to bring George Han to the island, because the top of the organization was very curious about who it was, and even the gold medal killer was not an opponent.

As for whether George Han will bring any threat to the headquarters island, this is something that those high-level leaders have never imagined. They have strong pride, and the headquarters island has the absolute power of the black organization, they don’t worry about Han at all. Three thousand will threaten them.

“You are so powerful, but you don’t even have a way to get to the island. It’s ridiculous, but since you made such a request, I will satisfy you and let you see how powerful the Black Sheep Organization is before you die.” The old man said.

George Han was amused. He didn’t expect that the biggest problem that bothered him would be solved in this way, which was really unexpected.

These guys took the initiative to lead Death to the door, and they didn’t know what their mood would be.

“When?” George Han asked.

“The transport ship enters the port in two days, and it takes a day to move the materials.” The old man said.

George Han nodded, and when he was about to leave, he stopped and asked the old man provocatively, "Aren't you going to try my strength?"

The old man's expression froze and did not speak.

George Han smiled and walked away without getting to the bottom.

The reason why he said such words was because George Han wanted to confirm one thing, but the old man did not speak, he already had the answer in his heart.

This old man should be a gold medal killer sent by the Black Sheep Organization. Whether he can go to the island or not is definitely not the old guy's decision, and his ability to agree to it can only show that it is the arrangement of the Black Sheep Organization.

As for why the Black Sheep Organization did this, the reason is also very simple. They can't deal with George Han 100%, and they don't want to lose the gold medal killer, so they let George Han go to the island.

If they guess right, they should have a greater certainty that they can deal with George Han on the headquarters island. This trick to invite you to enter the urn should be quite mysterious.

Chapter 1440

After returning to the hotel, George Han told Dao Twelve of the old man's appearance.

Dao Twelve listened to the whole situation with a solemn expression.

The old man wants to take George Han to the island. As long as a normal person thinks, he can guess that this is definitely a trap. If he goes to the island under such circumstances, it is definitely a dangerous thing for George Han.

"Three thousand, you killed the gold medal killer, the strength has attracted their attention, and let you go to the island, I am afraid that a trap has been arranged." Dao Twelve said solemnly.

George Han smiled and said, "I guessed this. They probably didn't want to cause greater losses, so they did this. After all, it should not be easy to cultivate a gold medal killer."

"In this case, what should we do?" Dao Twelve asked.

"Go, of course." George Han said without hesitation.

Dao Twelve stunned for a moment. He didn't expect George Han to go even though he knew what was going on.

“Why?” Dao Twelve asked puzzledly.

“No matter what conspiracy they have, they are of no avail in the face of absolute power, and I will naturally not be afraid.” George Han said.

Although he could not guess what method the Black Sheep Organization wanted to use against him, George Han had absolute confidence. His strength was in the world of Xuanyuan. Although he had not become a true god, he was already infinitely close. He had to deal with it. People like the earth are something to him.

Even if these gold medal killers also possess extraordinary powers, this power is not strong in George Han’s eyes, and there is no reason to be afraid.

Speaking of strength, Dao Twelve had no way to refute George Han, because he was very confident in this aspect, and Dao Twelve didn’t know the limit of George Han’s strength.

“Since you are so confident, go ahead. I also want to see what exactly these people think of to deal with you.” Dao Twelve said.

Seeing the worry in the eyes of Dao Twelve, George Han didn’t say much, he questioned his own strength, only George Han could convince him with real performance.

In the next few days, George Han completely regarded himself as a tourist, but it was a pity that Amelia Su was missing by his side, which made George Han feel a little lack of taste. If Amelia Su was there, it would be more perfect.

Three days later, the transport ship was full of supplies, and George Han saw the old man again at the port.

For George Han, this is an ant, but for Dao Twelve, seeing the gold medal killer is still a little nervous. After all, these are the characters that exist in the legend of the Black Sheep Organization, and he is a mere bronze medal. Killer, how can you relax?

“I thought you wouldn’t dare to come.” The old man said to George Han.

“This is the site of the Black Sheep Organization. Even if I want to run, I can’t get away.” George Han said.

The old man smiled triumphantly. On this island, it was indeed the Black Sheep Organization that controlled everything. After George Han appeared on this island, he had already lost his freedom. He had no choice but to leave.

Of course, this is just the old man’s wishful thinking. If George Han really wants to leave, who can stop it?

On board the ship, George Han walked directly to the deck, facing the sea breeze, acting very comfortable.

Standing not far away, the old man was very puzzled. He didn't see any worried expression on George Han's face, which made him unable to understand.

Knowing that he has entered the tiger's den, how could he not be afraid?

Could it be that this little guy really didn't pay attention to the black sheep organization.

How is this possible!

The Black Sheep Organization has been established for a hundred years and has a reputation in the underground world. Anyone who hears it will be frightened, but a little kid is not afraid.

Is this a newborn calf, or is it confident?

On the other hand, Knife Twelve, this is the response that a normal person should have. Since he got on the boat, the old man can feel the tension of his muscles, and there is still a breath of fear.

"Twelve, do you believe that there is a god in this world?" George Han closed his eyes, enjoying the blowing of the sea breeze, and asked Dao Twelve.

Dao Twelve shook his head subconsciously and said, "I am an atheist, and I never believe in ghosts or gods. Otherwise, if you do bad things with me, I'm afraid I will already go to hell."

"I didn't believe it before, but there are many things in this world that you can't help but believe." George Han said.

If someone else said this to Dao Twelve, he would only treat the other person as a magic stick.

But this kind of words came out of George Han's mouth, but the meaning was completely different.

Because Dao Twelve is willing to believe in George Han, if George Han says that there is a god in this world, then there is really.

"Three thousand, have you seen it?" Dao Twelve asked.

George Han shook his head. The real god should be the world above Xuanyuan World, and there was an unknown realm that George Han hadn't touched yet.

"Although I haven't seen it, I'm only one step away from God." George Han said.

Chapter 1441

After nearly three days of sailing, George Han was able to see an isolated island in the vast sea. From a distance, the isolated island was billowed with black smoke, like an active volcano that might erupt at any time.

Setting up the headquarters in such a dangerous place, I don't know what the senior leaders of the Black Sheep organization think.

At this time, the old man walked up to George Han.

Since seeing him on board, he hasn't shown up for the past three days. George Han knew that he might be discussing how to kill him with the head office, but George Han did not take any precautions because he had Absolute strength to deal with all situations, so there is no need to worry about their intrigues.

"Is there an active volcano on the island?" George Han asked the old man curiously.

"Yes, this active volcano has been burning for thousands of years, but it has not erupted in the past 100 years," the old man said.

"If it erupts, can the Black Sheep Organization still establish a headquarters here?" George Han smiled faintly. This old guy did nothing but talk nonsense. If the volcano erupted, wouldn't the Black Sheep Organization be dead long ago.

"This volcano is not a simple volcano, it also hides a huge secret." The old man continued.

The huge secret?

George Han frowned slightly. Could it be that this secret has something to do with the strength of the gold medal killer?

"Your strength comes from this volcano?" George Han asked.

The old man didn't seem surprised at what George Han said, and even smiled slightly.

"Every gold medal killer needs to pass the test of the volcano." The old man said.

"Since you have passed the test, you should know the secrets in the volcano." George Han asked.

The old man sighed, then shook his head, and said, "I went into a coma shortly after entering the crater. I didn't even know how to get out. After I got out, I had this kind of power, and most of the gold medal killers' experience like me."

coma?

This is a bit strange, they don't know how they have power, and this explanation is too pale.

But George Han observed the old man's facial expressions from the corner of the eye, and he didn't seem to say anything.

"Most of what you said, among them, there is a small part, those people, remember the things inside." George Han caught the loophole in the old man's words and continued to ask.

"There is only one person in this small part, but after he left the crater, he was crazy and full of nonsense. He didn't know what he was talking about, and he did not have the power conferred by the volcano." The old man said.

Crazy talking nonsense, is it because you have seen something that makes you feel irritated and unconscious?

The crater aroused George Han's extreme curiosity, what is hidden in it, so that these gold medal killers can gain power.

And what did those crazy people see?

At this moment, George Han suddenly turned his head and looked at the old man, and said, "The Black Sheep Organization let me land on the island, didn't it want to kill me?"

The old man smiled faintly and said, "Who told you that the Black Sheep Organization will really kill you?"

Only then did George Han realize that all his own assumptions were wrong, and the real purpose of the Black Sheep Organization for allowing him to land on the island was probably related to the volcano.

Those high-level leaders must have wanted to know the secrets of the crater very much for so many years, but what their people can do, and the appearance of George Han brought them hope, so this group of high-level leaders will let the old man appear and lead him to the island.

"The Black Sheep Organization wants to use me, but haven't they thought that I am not that easy to use, and after I land on the island, it will inevitably pose a huge threat to the Black Sheep Organization." George Han said.

"Do you think we really care about the Black Sheep Organization?" the old man said.

When he talked about the two words of us, George Han knew that his identity was probably not as simple as a gold medal killer, but rather a senior member of the Black Sheep Organization.

This old thing really hides its identity deep enough.

“Continue.” George Han said lightly.

“This place was discovered by the founder of the Black Sheep Organization, and he was also the first person to gain strength in the crater. The goal of the Black Sheep Organization was not to become a killer organization, but to explore the secrets of the crater. It’s just that in this world, many things need money support, so the Black Sheep Organization has to do things to collect money and kill life.” The old man explained to George Han.

George Han did not expect that the Black Sheep Organization has almost become the benchmark of the international underground world since its development, and was actually forced to follow this path.

Could this be the unintentional insertion of willows?

“Your influence in the underground world is one of a few. Didn’t the Black Sheep Organization change its flavor? After all, you can make too much profit from it.” George Han said.

The old man turned his head, looked at George Han with a smile on his face, and asked, “Do you still care about money now? Isn’t that just a series of numbers?”

George Han was stunned. In a sense, he and the gold medal killer of the Black Sheep Organization are indeed the same kind of people, but they are stronger and weaker.

In George Han’s situation, money really didn’t make much sense, and it was not his pursuit.

“How much information do you have about the crater?” George Han asked.

“No, but it is rumored that this crater seems to be able to lead to another world.” The old man said.

It’s another time tunnel!

Is it like the forbidden land of the apocalypse?

Unexpectedly, there is such a place in the hot summer, and it also exists abroad.

And because of the difference in power, George Han was certain that if this passage existed, it would definitely not be connected to Xuanyuan World.

This made George Han a little restless, after all, he knew that there were other dimensions in this world.

In George Han’s eyes, the black sheep organization’s speculation on the crater’s lead to another world is very likely to exist.

“You tell me so much, are you not afraid that I, an outsider, will leak information?” George Han asked. He had only known this old man for a few days, but he was willing to tell himself even such important things. George Han is not too understandable.

“Because after the unanimous decision of all the high-levels of the Black Sheep Organization, I hope you can help us uncover the mystery of the crater, and this matter, only you can do it.” The old man said.

George Han shrugged. This is totally unfounded. Why do these guys think he can do it?

“You value me too much. How can I do things you can’t do?” George Han said.

Chapter 1442

The old man seemed to have expected George Han to say this. After a slight smile, he said: “You can transfer the power in the gold medal killer. This is something we never thought of. Therefore, we believe that your ability has exceeded Cares about our cognitive range.”

“How did you know about this?” George Han asked with a look of surprise.

“Our eyeliner is all over the world, and the change of Dao Qing’s body naturally cannot escape our eyes.” The old man said.

George Han smiled helplessly. It seemed that he had really underestimated the capabilities of the Black Sheep Organization. They had never expected the Dao Twelve thing, they would have known it, but George Han hadn’t noticed it.

“If you are a threat to the Black Sheep Organization, we will do everything possible to eradicate the threat, but until now, relatives and friends around you are safe and sound. From this point, you should know that the Black Sheep Organization is not really trying to deal with you. It’s just to test you.” The old man continued.

George Han, who thought he was in control of everything, didn’t realize until then that he was controlled by the Black Sheep Organization, and the situation was completely reversed from what he imagined.

But these are small problems, George Han’s own ability is enough to deal with and settle everything.

But then the old man’s words made George Han’s murderous intent emerge.

“Although we don’t plan to do anything to your family, if you don’t do what we said, then their safety will not be guaranteed. You are thousands of miles away and you can’t make it back to rescue them.” The old man said.

George Han's face was frosty. He found the headquarters island of the Black Sheep Organization. He thought that everything was under control, but he did not expect that he had fallen into a huge trap.

The Black Sheep Organization really controls everything, and it also threatens the safety of George Han's family.

George Han knew that this old man's words were definitely not a joke. With the ability of the Black Sheep organization, they could arrange for a killer to lurk beside anyone, even Amelia Su!

"Do you know, what is the end of threatening me?" George Han said coldly.

"You are powerful, which is why we are not willing to confront you head-on, but you should also understand that no matter how powerful you are, you cannot appear next to those people instantly, and you cannot guarantee everyone around you. Safety of life." The old man said with a smile.

George Han can't wait to kill this old thing, but he knows that he must not do this, otherwise the family members should be injured. Although he is a person who does not value blood relationship much, now Han Tianyang has returned to Hillwood City, the grandfather who loved him the most, George Han couldn't just watch him die.

And Amelia Su, born again, George Han's most important task is to protect Amelia Su's safety, how could he make Amelia Su hurt because of himself?

George Han hummed coldly, left the deck and returned to his room.

The old man looked at the island and his eyes became sharp. Threatening George Han this time was a very threatening thing for him, because if George Han had a hotter personality, when he said those words, he was very It is possible to die in the hands of George Han.

But this situation did not happen, which made the old man more aware of the status of those people in George Han's mind.

"In your situation, you should no longer care about these unnecessary feelings, otherwise these feelings will become a huge stumbling block for you." The old man smiled and said, there is a sense of superiority in controlling George Han in his palm, but He also knew in his heart that he must not push George Han too tightly, otherwise the headquarters island would inevitably flow into a river of blood, which no one can stop.

But in a short time, the transport ship finally docked at the port.

When George Han felt the boat stop, he walked out of the room.

At this time, Dao Twelve had been waiting at the door for a long time. Seeing this guy's pale face, I guess he was very nervous.

“Don’t be nervous, things are not what I thought. The Black Sheep Organization has no plans to deal with me.” George Han said to Dao Twelve.

“En?” Dao Twelve looked at George Han in a puzzled manner. According to their previous guess, the Black Sheep Organization should have set some traps against George Han, trying to get rid of George Han.

But now, why should he say that the Black Sheep Organization has no plans to deal with him?

“Three thousand, what do you mean by these words, how could the Black Sheep Organization not want to kill you.” Dao Twelve said.

“I’ll explain the reason later, let’s get off the boat first.” George Han said.

Dao Twelve stabilized his mind. Although he didn’t know the reason, George Han’s words were definitely reasonable.

The two disembarked together.

Observing this island up close gives people a sense of lifelessness, because the scenery is pleasant but you can’t even see the personal shadow. Compared with the previous sightseeing islands, it is completely different.

And after disembarking, no one greeted him. Even the old man disappeared. They didn’t know where to go
