

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1443 - 1446

Chapter 1443

“The hospitality of the Black Sheep Organization is really strange.” Seeing this situation, George Han said with a sneer.

“What should we do now?” Dao Twelve asked, no one greeted him, it is impossible to stay at the port in a daze.

But after all, this place is the site of the Black Sheep Organization, and Knife Twelve did not dare to mess around.

George Han looked at the direction of the volcano and said, “Let’s go, go and see that place first.”

Knife Twelve didn’t know the conversation between George Han and the old man on the deck, so naturally he didn’t know what secrets the volcano hid. He was also very curious about this matter in his heart. Why did the Black Sheep Organization build its headquarters in such an active volcano. The place.

Once a volcano erupts, it will be a disaster.

“Three thousand, the headquarters of the Black Sheep Organization will actually choose a place with a volcano, which is too strange.” Dao Twelve asked.

George Han smiled and shook his head, and said, “It’s not that they chose this place, but this place chose them.”

“What do you mean?” Dao Twelve asked confusedly.

“The power of the gold medal killer comes from this active volcano. There is an unknown secret hidden here. The existence of the Black Sheep Organization just wants to reveal this secret. Unfortunately, until now, no one knows what is in the crater.” George Han explained.

“By the way, after you came here, don’t you feel any different?” George Han looked at Dao Twelve curiously. Now Dao Twelve also has power from the volcano in his body, although he has not completely controlled it. This strength, but in George Han’s opinion, since he came here, he would definitely feel differently.

After all, the strength of the same clan is bound to have some traction.

“I just said why this power in the body is so restless, it turns out that this is the reason.” Dao Twelve said.

“According to the old man, this volcanic crater is very likely to have a tunnel leading to another space, that is to say, there is another world in the volcano.” George Han said.

“Another world!” Dao Twelve was surprised. He had heard a lot of alien sayings, and Dao Twelve also believed that there must be other life in the vast galaxy.

But the concept of another world is completely different from the alien concept.

“This is not a very strange thing. You don’t have to doubt the possibility of other worlds, because I have been there.” George Han said.

The pupils of the twelve swords are like earthquakes. If this kind of thing is only in the guessing stage, then it is probably just a kind of imagination.

But George Han said that he had been there, which is absolutely real.

“Three thousand, you didn’t kid me, have you been to other worlds?” Dao Twelve asked.

“These things should have been told to you in the future, but since I have encountered this problem in advance, I will satisfy your curiosity.”

George Han felt around for a while, and only after making sure that he had not been monitored, did he tell Dao Twelve about Xuanyuan World and also told him about his rebirth.

After listening to these words, Dao Twelve seemed to have heard a mythical story, because it was so illusory that he couldn’t believe it.

But when the words came out of George Han’s mouth, he had to believe it again, because he knew that it was impossible for George Han to make such a joke with him.

“Rebirth, that is to say, you have lived for two lives?” Dao Twelve asked George Han after taking a deep breath.

George Han nodded and said, “Before rebirth, when I met you, you were called Dao Twelve, so when I know you, I will ask you to change your name, because Dao Twelve is more fluent.”

Dao Twelve didn’t understand the reason for this before, so why did he change his name?

But now he knows that his future self is called Dao Twelve.

But what the twelve is, he still doesn’t understand.

“In the future, will I have any changes?” Dao Twelve asked George Han with curiosity.

“When I first met you, you were still punching in the underground boxing ring, and you also had a daughter.” George Han said.

“Daughter!” Dao Twelve was shocked and stunned, because his current situation is difficult to protect himself. If he hadn’t met George Han, he would be endlessly hunted down by the Black Sheep organization, how could he get married and have children?

“I’m also very curious about what happened to you in the past, how you escaped the Black Sheep Organization and you have a daughter, but now, the trajectory of everything has changed. I don’t know what will happen in the future.” George Han said.

Dao Twelve took a few deep breaths in order to calm his emotions. It was impossible for him to digest the messages he received today.

“In another world, you have become a god, why are you reborn?” After a long time, Dao Twelve couldn’t help asking George Han.

George Han has recalled this question countless times, but he doesn’t know what happened.

In George Han’s memory, he only remembers Linlong, Tianlei, and then rebirth.

Chapter 1444

In the process of chatting between the two of them, they unconsciously walked to the foot of the active volcano.

The temperature here is significantly higher than that in other places. The close-up feels that the active volcano makes people have a strong sense of deterrence. Living nearby requires a strong psychological endurance, because no one knows when the volcano will erupt. , And the explosive power, will the entire island fall into desperation.

“The power of nature makes people have to be in awe, just standing here, it feels very dangerous.” Dao Twelve said.

The power of nature is indeed terrible, George Han does not deny this, and once the volcano erupts, people on the entire island will probably suffer because of it, even he is no exception.

“You should come out too, when will you have to wait?” George Han suddenly said loudly.

Knife Twelve was inexplicable for a while, and didn’t understand what George Han was doing.

“Three thousand, who are you talking to?” Dao Twelve asked.

George Han smiled indifferently. In fact, he had already sensed that there were people nearby, and some people were even following them secretly, but George Han didn't reveal all this, and wanted to see what these secret guys wanted to do.

But along the way, they didn't do anything, until the foot of the mountain, these guys were still hiding in the dark, which made George Han a little helpless.

"Someone has been following us. I thought they would do anything to us. I didn't expect them to show up all the time. I have no interest in playing games of hiding cats with these tortoises." George Han explained to Dao Twelve. And deliberately raised his own volume so that everyone nearby could hear it.

Dao Twelve heard these words and looked around, but within his line of sight, he did not see any figures.

But what George Han said, Dao Twelve would not be a joke. He said that there would be someone.

"Come out quickly, when do you want to hide?" Dao Twelve said aloud.

Those people in the dark seemed to feel that there was no need to hide, and finally showed up.

Two men and one woman, one of the middle-aged men is sitting in a wheelchair, pushed by a blonde beauty.

Another man is very young, looking less than 30 years old, he is very burly, with a very conspicuous scar on his right face, which is daunting.

George Han stared at the middle-aged man in the wheelchair. Among the three, he was obviously the core.

"Are you the person in charge of the Black Sheep Organization?" George Han asked directly.

The middle-aged man was not surprised that George Han was able to guess his identity, and said with a smile: "My name is John and I am the third-generation supervisor of the Black Sheep Organization."

"Your hot summer language is quite standard." George Han said with a smile.

John smiled and nodded, and said, "I like Yanxia Culture very much, so I have studied Chinese for a period of time. I have to say that Chinese is really the most difficult language in the world to learn."

"Stop talking about nonsense, you let me come, not to kill me, what on earth do you want to do?" George Han asked, he didn't want to waste time with this guy.

John looked at the men and women standing on the left and right, just a look, and the men and women left.

“If you let them leave, aren’t you afraid that I will be against you?” George Han said.

John shrugged and said with a very helpless expression: “Even if they are there, you want to kill me, it’s not something they can stop. Your strength, I’m afraid the entire Black Sheep organization can’t find an opponent.”

“You seem to have a good understanding of my strength?” George Han asked.

John took a deep breath and said, “I didn’t know who you were before. I didn’t know how powerful you were until after I got your information. The last attack of the Nangong family, although none of them survived. However, many videos have been recorded, including your figure. This is highly classified and not everyone is qualified to watch it. It just so happens that I am one of these few people.”

These words made George Han frowned. He didn’t expect that the Nangong family’s attack would still be recorded in a movie. Isn’t it true that everything he did that day was revealed through those movies.

This is not good news for George Han. After all, when he showed up in the Nangong family, it was a completely supernatural ability, which is likely to cause endless trouble for him.

“Where is the movie?” George Han asked.

“I have a backup, but only destroying the backup is of no use to you.” John said.

George Han sneered coldly, this guy’s words clearly contained threats.

“It seems that you know where the original is, but you have to tell me what conditions will you offer?” George Han said.

“It’s really a worry-free thing to deal with smart people. I do ask you. As long as you can do it for me, I will tell you where the original is, and even all the backups, I can list them for you. A list to ensure that you can destroy all the films.” John said.

Threatened!

This is the feeling that George Han hates most. He never wants to be other people’s puppets and tools.

In the next moment, George Han appeared in front of John.

Even Dao Twelve, who was standing next to George Han, did not feel how this happened.

John leaned back subconsciously. This was a conditioned reflex of his inner fear, but soon the expression on his face calmed down. After all, after watching the movie, he knew very well how powerful George Han's incredible power was.

"Believe it or not, I killed you, and I can still find all the movies." George Han stood in front of John, condescendingly, and said in an unquestionable tone. ,

John suddenly felt a cool breeze across his back.

He knew that George Han would never make jokes with him.

This level of power must be able to say it!

John took a deep breath and said, "I believe you can find it with your ability, but this will waste a lot of your time. I think your precious time should not be wasted on such small things."

"How do you know that this matter is a trivial matter to me? I am willing to pay any price to let the person holding the film go to hell." George Han said coldly.

John kept sweating coldly. According to his vision, George Han would do him a small favor in exchange for the information of the film, and the two sides reached a cooperation.

But looking at George Han's current attitude, it was completely different from what he had imagined, which made John feel a little panicked.

George Han wants to kill him, this is a situation that no one can change.

Although this is the headquarters of the Black Sheep Organization, and even though there are still a few gold medal killers here, how can the strength of these people rival George Han?

Chapter 1445

John has watched George Han's video of the Nangong family almost a hundred times, but the shock that each time brings him will not diminish in the slightest.

Although he had seen someone with extraordinary powers, the extraordinary powers of these gold medal killers were like ants in front of George Han. They were not comparable at all.

"You want to kill me, it's just a matter of thought. No one here can stop you, but you only need to do me a little favor and I can tell you the information of all the people who own the film. Isn't it better?" John is obviously a little nervous, and he even squats.

Although the Dao Twelve on the side didn't know what the movie they were talking about, George Han was able to scare the highest person in charge of the Black Sheep Organization into stammering, which really made him sigh inwardly.

The Black Sheep Organization, this is the most murderous killer organization in the world, and the person in charge of this organization is in front of George Han, but there is no aura of a superior person, and even the tone of his speech is with some plea. If it hadn't been seen with his own eyes, Dao Twelve would never believe that such a thing would happen.

"I want to know the information of these people. Isn't it simple? Wouldn't you think that I know the headquarters of the Black Sheep Organization because I tortured the gold medal killer and he told me?" George Han laughed. Said.

John looked at George Han with a puzzled face. Although the loyalty of the gold medal killer is unquestionable, in John's view, George Han possesses such a powerful method. He must have a way to make the gold medal killer's mental breakdown. Tell him where the headquarters island is.

But hearing what George Han said, it seemed that it was not the gold medal killer who had betrayed the Black Sheep Organization, but that he had known where the headquarters island was in another way.

At this moment, John suddenly felt a force invading in his mind, and George Han looked at him with a wicked look.

No matter how much John uses his own power to fight, it will not help. That power is getting stronger and stronger, as if it is overwhelming in his mind.

At this moment, John stared at George Han in horror, because he understood how George Han knew the location of the headquarters island.

"You...you can actually invade people's consciousness." John said in a panic.

George Han smiled indifferently. For him, isn't this an easy task?

"I haven't read that list yet. If you do this, you won't get any useful clues." John said.

"But I can find the list through your memory, is it difficult?" George Han said.

John looked desperate. If he had known that George Han had such a method, he would definitely let someone hide the list without him knowing, but it was too late now.

At this moment, more than a dozen people who secretly protected John appeared, one by one with wicked looks, as if they wanted to kill George Han.

It's a pity that after these people appeared, they found that their bodies seemed to be frozen, and they couldn't move at all while standing still.

“What’s the matter, I can’t move.”

“me too.”

“Why, why is this happening!”

All eyes were on George Han. Although they didn’t know what was going on, they knew very well that they couldn’t move. It must be related to George Han.

“What did you do to us?” someone asked George Han sharply.

“It’s really noisy.” George Han waved his hand with an impatient look, and the person who was speaking exploded into a cloud of blood, making the body invisible.

When the rest of them saw this scene, they closed their mouths instantly, not daring to speak any more nonsense.

Knife Twelve can be said to be frightened. This is the first time he has seen George Han start unscrupulously, and the end is too tragic.

Not only did he die without a whole body, he didn’t even know how he died.

Is this how he dare to ignore the power of the Black Sheep Organization?

The power of being infinitely close to God is really terrifying.

It didn’t take long for George Han to find the place to put the list in John’s memory. At the same time, he also learned some things about active volcanoes. It was just some superficial information. Circumstances, how those people have power, John doesn’t even remember it.

When George Han regained his strength, John instantly felt his body was hollowed out.

“To me, you have no value.” George Han said to John.

John looked at George Han feebly, his eyes full of despair, and said: “I shouldn’t want to use you, nor should I let you go to the island, even though that movie is enough to shock me, but I still underestimated it. you.”

“Your legs were crippled in an active volcano. Why do you have no memory of this?” George Han asked.

“No matter who it is, as long as he enters the volcano, he will be attacked by an inexplicable force. After being in a coma, no one will know what happened, but anyone who can leave an active volcano alive will have a force in his body. We say It is the power of Satan.” John said.

Chapter 1446

These words of John are nonsense to George Han, because George Han has understood everything in his memory.

George Han looked towards the crater and wanted to know more secrets, I am afraid he could only go there in person.

But with this unknown power, George Han was still a little worried. Although the power of these gold medal killers was very small, no one knew the source of the power and how powerful it was.

Seeing George Han's intention, John quickly said to George Han, "If you want to go, can you take me with you, I beg you."

John has a very strong desire to learn about the secrets of active volcanoes. It can be said that every supervisor of the Black Sheep Organization is working hard to figure out this secret, but no matter what they do, they choose people with how strong their bodies to enter the crater. all the same.

"Bringing you, what good is it for me?" George Han said lightly.

John thought for a while and said to George Han: "If there is any danger, I can be a victim. You can abandon me and exchange for your own life."

"You want to die, there are many ways, why do you have to use this method?" George Han asked in confusion.

"As long as I know the secrets in the crater, even if I die, I can look down." John said.

For John, if he died without knowing this matter, he would be unwilling to die, and he would die.

But if you can witness the secrets in the crater, even if you die, it's worth it.

George Han hesitated for a moment, and it was indeed good for him to be able to pull a back cushion. After all, he couldn't let the Twelve Swords die, and this John was not related to him, and died if he died. George Han couldn't even take another look.

But this guy is a lame, George Han can't push the wheelchair hard, right?

When George Han looked at the wheelchair, John understood what he wanted to say and quickly said: "Someone pushes me, don't bother you to do it."

George Han shook his head and said, "You don't need to push you, you should stand up by yourself."

stand up?

These three words made John smile more bitterly. He wanted to stand up, but he had tried too many methods. The nerves in his legs had already been necrotic. Even the most powerful doctor in the world had no choice but to stand. Can you get it up?

“If I can stand up...”

Before John finished speaking, he felt George Han’s hand on his shoulder.

Just as John looked up at George Han in confusion, a warm stream of heat rushed into his body and went straight to the lower body.

This warm current made John feel very enjoyable, more comfortable than the touch of a beautiful woman.

And when the warm current passes through the body and reaches the legs, the wonderful feeling is even more indescribable.

leg!

Legs!

John’s eyes widened suddenly, and he looked at George Han in disbelief.

He had already lost sensation in his legs, and he wouldn’t feel anything even if he thrust it twice.

But now, he felt the warm current reaching his legs.

This.....

For many years, John has not felt the presence of his legs, but at this moment, he felt it, and it was exceptionally clear!

When George Han released his hand, he said to John, “You can try to stand up.”

John couldn’t believe it, and the other assassins looked at George Han with a scornful smile.

This guy seemed to have water in his head, and he actually made a person who has been disabled for nearly ten years stand up. Isn’t it difficult for a strong man?

But the next moment, everyone was stunned, because John actually stood up slowly. Although his body was still shaking, his legs were obviously moving. In the eyes of other killers, it was impossible. Things.

“how is this possible!”

“Really stood up, how did he do it.”

“God, is this a miracle?”

When everyone couldn't help but marvel, John had already let go of the armrest of the wheelchair and stood steadily on his own strength.

Because his legs were disabled for many years, and the muscles were atrophied without exercise, he couldn't adapt to the feeling of standing for a while.

But one thing John can be sure of is that George Han cured his leg deformities. This method is amazing.

“I can stand up, I can stand up!” John stared at his legs, his eyes full of shock.

After experiencing countless medical failures, John has been desperate. He never thought that he could stand up one day, and he never dared to expect such things.

But now, the impossibility of extravagant hope has become a reality, and all of this is done by George Han!

“Although you can stand up, you still need a period of time to adapt. During the time you adapt, I should be able to deal with the owners of those movies.” George Han said, the subtext of these words is to wait for John to get better. After that, they went to the crater again.
