

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1463 - 1466

Chapter 1463

Amelia Su was stunned by George Han's remarks. She thought that George Han would have something to slow down, so she sent these people away temporarily, but she didn't expect that George Han would say so decisively.

Her grandfather had clearly told her that none of these people could be offended by George Han, but George Han had offended everyone at once.

Amelia Su walked to George Han's side, gently tugged at the corner of George Han's clothes, and said in a low voice, "Have you forgotten what I told you?"

George Han gave Amelia Su a relieved look, and said, "I can handle it, just look at it."

Because Amelia Su knew how powerful these people were, she felt uneasy in her heart, but after seeing George Han's eyes, she felt a sense of peace of mind inexplicably.

"George Han, I am..."

"I'm....."

"I'm....."

After those people were rejected by George Han, one by one began to report to their families. The identity background they said was indeed a deterrent for ordinary people.

Even Dao Twelve couldn't help but change their expressions. These people were almost supreme in the eyes of ordinary people.

But thinking about George Han's identity, Dao Twelve is happy.

Although they are powerful, they seem to be nothing in front of George Han.

What if you have a strong background, it's just ordinary people.

But George Han is a true god!

No matter how powerful a mortal is, it is impossible to go against God.

During this period, many more people came one after another. They all arrived after receiving the news that George Han had returned to the Villa area of Yunding Mountain.

In less than half an hour, dozens of people had gathered at the entrance of the Villa.

Su family.

After the old man heard the news, his face was full of sadness. He naturally did not want those people to make things difficult for George Han. Because of George Han, the Su family would be the same today. Once George Han made a mistake in this matter, if disaster is incurred, then the Su family will probably not develop too well in the future.

In terms of interest, the father is not worried about George Han, but the future development of the Su family.

“How is the situation, what is George Han’s attitude.” The old man said to an assistant beside him.

The assistant put an eyeliner among the people at the entrance of the Villa, so he could know the situation in the Villa area at the first time.

“George Han explicitly rejected everyone and told them that no matter what their status, they should get out of here.” the assistant said.

“f*ck... Get out?” The old man looked at his assistant in shock and said, “Are you sure that the message is wrong, George Han really said that?”

“OK.” The assistant nodded firmly, because these two words were indeed spoken from George Han.

“Confused, confused.” The old man was angry. He never expected that George Han would treat those people with this attitude. Isn’t this trying to drive himself to a dead end?

If he is finished, wouldn’t the Su Family also follow suit.

“No, I have to go there. Arrange a car for me right away.” The old man said.

At the same time, Tianjia Villa.

Thomas Tian, Tian Honghui and Tian Linger sat in the living room without saying a word.

They know the situation of the mountainside Villa better than the old man of the Su family. After all, the property in the Villa area of Yundingshan belongs to their own company.

“Grandpa, can we really do nothing? Can’t help my brother?” Tian Linger couldn’t help but said when the two elders didn’t speak.

Thomas Tian sighed. He wanted to help George Han very much, but Thomas Tian had no idea how to help and where to start.

These people are not natives of Basin City, they come from all over the country, and they all have good identities. This little power of the heavenly family can't play any role at all.

"Linger, Grandpa has already told you about the identity of those people. The Heavenly Family is really helpless in this matter," Thomas Tian said.

Tian Linger is now more mature, and she also understands that those people's backgrounds are not useful when they come out of the Heavenly Family, and even those people simply don't put the Tian Family in their eyes.

But George Han had encountered such a big trouble, if Tian Clan did nothing, it would not be feasible for Tian Linger.

After all, her father, Tian Honghui, has also been reused in the new city project. At this time, the Tian Family's attitude is nothing to do with itself. In case George Han is dissatisfied, for Tian Family, there is also There may be unknown losses.

"Although we can't do much, but we have to show our attitude. We have to stand by brother's side. Otherwise, once we are excluded from our brother's circle, Heavenly Family will probably have no place in Basin City." Tian Linger said.

Thomas Tian naturally understands this truth.

The current Basin City is already the dominant status of Fengqian's family. Not to mention Tianjia, even if all the merchants in Basin City join hands, it will not pose any threat to Fengqian.

The new city, that is the real economic core, is in the hands of Fengqian!

Chapter 1464

Tian Honghui, who had been silent for a long time, had different thoughts in his heart. He was not afraid that the absence of the Heavenly Family would cause George Han's dissatisfaction, because in his eyes, it would be very difficult for George Han to overcome this difficulty.

With hundreds of prominent people gathered together, how can George Han be able to withstand this force?

Unless he can cure everyone, maybe he can escape, but why can he do these things?

According to Tian Honghui's knowledge, most of these people are almost mortal. They have already found major doctors in the world. Medical students are almost condemned to death. Except for Da Luo Jinxian, who doesn't People can heal them.

As for the matter of the Su family's father, in Tian Honghui's view, it was pure luck for George Han.

But good luck once does not mean good luck every time.

"Dad, I think we should redeploy the plan." Tian Honghui said to Thomas Tian.

"What plan?" Thomas Tian asked puzzledly.

"In my opinion, George Han is in a catastrophe, and this is a good opportunity for us to annex Fengqian. As long as we get the control of Fengqian, the new city will belong to my heavenly home, and we won't need to look at anyone's face in the future." Tian Honghui said.

Although he seems to have a high status as the person in charge of the project, he is subject to Xiaolong's control. This alone makes Tian Honghui feel very dissatisfied.

The little dragon used to be just a land ruffian, a small bastard, but now, he has to ride on his head for five and six, which made Tian Honghui dissatisfied for a long time.

Now that there is a chance to defeat George Han, Tian Honghui looks like an excellent opportunity.

"What nonsense are you talking about? Do you know how much energy George Han has? Do you know what Fengqian Commercial Building relies on? Even if you can annex Fengqian, how can you ensure that Fengqian Commercial Building will be profitable?" Tianhong Hui scolded angrily.

Fengqian Commercial Building is more than just a building. Its greatest value lies in those connections of George Han.

If George Han has an accident, it is unknown whether the world's top brands can enter the Fengqian commercial building. If not, then the Fengqian commercial building is just a waste building and it will not create any value at all.

"Dad, I have the confidence to do this well," Tian Honghui said.

"Confidence?" Thomas Tian smiled coldly and said: "Okay, talk about your plan, I want to know where your confidence comes from."

"I will visit the heads of those well-known brands. As long as it is profitable, I don't believe that they will not cooperate." Tian Honghui said.

Thomas Tian showed a sneer. Such words came out of Tian Honghui's mouth, which only showed that he was too naive and ignorant.

At the beginning, those brand leaders took the initiative to appear in Basin City and took the initiative to reach a cooperation with Fengqian. It was all because of George Han. It was the brand that gave George Han face.

Without George Han, how could those people look at a commercial building in an 18th-tier city?

What kind of thing is Tian Honghui? Are those brand leaders who he can see if he wants to?

“Is such a big person, isn’t the psychology still immature? Do you think that this matter was because of interest to achieve a cooperative relationship?” Tianchang said angrily.

Tian Honghui took over the business of Tianjia. He has hardly suffered setbacks in his life, so he thinks things are often very simple.

But from the day when the brand leaders arrived in Basin City, Tian Honghui knew that it was not just the interests that were involved, but George Han’s contacts, and it might even be the brand’s opposition to George Han. Thousands of fear.

Without George Han, the project in the new city would be absolutely impossible.

It’s just a mere house, shit isn’t it!

“Dad, don’t you want to believe me once?” Tian Honghui said.

“You still underestimate George Han. I can bet on my family’s life in this matter. George Han will definitely be fine. Those people’s identities are indeed scaring people on the table, but George Han hides. The hidden background is definitely not simple. I don’t know which one is strong and which is weak.”

After a pause, Thomas Tian continued: “Betting on you is very worthless in my opinion. The Heavenly Family is likely to have nothing.”

This is his own son, but Thomas Tian had to speak so mercilessly that he gave up this idea.

Tian Honghui’s face was pale and his eyes were unwilling.

In his opinion, this was clearly an opportunity for Tianjia to stand up, but Thomas Tian was unwilling to give him this opportunity.

Is it possible that he will be held down by a little bastard all his life?

“I warn you, don’t mess around, otherwise, I will drive you out of Heaven.” Thomas Tian said.

Tian Honghui took a deep breath and bit his posterior teeth and said, "Dad, without your order, I won't mess around, but I still hope you can consider my plan. This time for the heavens, It's a great opportunity. If you miss it, you will be taken first by others and regret it."

Thomas Tian smiled faintly, and said, "I want to see who dares to make the first step, and the end in exchange is definitely something they can't afford."

Chapter 1465

In Thomas Tian's view, George Han has proven his strength time and time again. Under this circumstance, no one has any reason to doubt his strength anymore. Those who dare to raise such questions will only end up in the end. .

Therefore, Thomas Tian could look at others and question George Han, but he would never allow his family to do such stupid things.

Tian Honghui's thoughts, Thomas Tian must kill it in the cradle, otherwise, with Tian Honghui's strong desire to prove himself, he will definitely act stupidly.

"I know that you may not take my warning to heart at all, but before you do anything, you should consider Tian Linger. She is your daughter. If you hurt her because of your stupidity, it will be your life. Things that can't be redeemed." Thomas Tian continued.

Tian Honghui was extremely unwilling in his heart. He was unwilling to be instigated by a street bastard and obeyed such a small bastard. How could this be his position?

And wanting to change the current situation, there is an excellent opportunity right now, so Tian Honghui has no plan to give up, even if Thomas Tian has said so clearly, he still has not been able to shake Tian Honghui.

On the surface, Tian Honghui promised: "Dad, don't worry, I will not do things that are uncertain, and I will not harm anyone."

In reality, Tian Honghui had already begun to plan how to use this matter to overthrow Fengqian Company.

There is a kind of person who says that Tian Honghui belongs to this kind of person regardless of whether the coffin sheds tears.

It's not how courageous or powerful he is, it's just that he feels that his dignity has been trampled on, that's why he is unwilling to be reconciled to the status quo, unwilling to be ordered by a character like Xiaolong.

However, Tian Honghui never thought about who George Han was, and who was the boss of Fengqian Company.

Even if George Han walked into Fengqian's office with a dog, and let the dog sit in the office, Tian Honghui had to let it go.

This is the status given by George Han, not something he can easily provoke.

Hearing what Tian Honghui said, Thomas Tian sighed inwardly. After all, Tian Honghui is his son. Thomas Tian still knows Tian Honghui's character very well.

He knew that what Tian Honghui determined must be tried, unless he failed and hit the south wall before he would look back.

But this time, once it fails, the entire Tian Family will be affected, and there will be no more chances to stand up in the future.

At this point, Thomas Tian has only righteousness to destroy relatives, Tian Honghui can take the road he chooses, and Thomas Tian wants to separate this road from the Tianjia.

After Tian Honghui left, Thomas Tian said to Tian Linger, "Aren't you going to visit your brother?"

After learning that George Han had returned to Basin City, Tian Linger's heart had already flown to the mountainside Villa, but she could not find an excuse to go.

Hearing what Tian Honghui said at this time, Tian Linger's heart was instantly moved and said, "Grandpa, of course I want to go, but what reason do I find?"

"Aren't you his sister? You still need to find a reason. After all, you haven't seen each other in three years." Thomas Tian said with a smile.

Tian Linger's eyes lit up and said, "Grandpa, you are so smart. Of course it is natural for my sister to see my brother."

After that, Tian Linger ran away, enough to see how impatient she was inside.

Thomas Tian hurriedly stopped: "Linger, wait, grandpa has something to explain to you."

"What's the matter?" Tian Linger gave an emergency brake and looked back at Thomas Tian in confusion.

"Don't worry, what's the use of being anxious for a while," Thomas Tian said helplessly.

Tian Linger mumbled her mouth and said, "How can it be useless? You can't understand how I feel now."

"If you don't want to split your relationship with George Han in the future, just listen to Grandpa's words." Thomas Tian said.

Tian Linger's expression became tense in an instant. She didn't want to split her relationship with George Han, even if she could only become George Han's sister in the end, Tian Linger could accept it.

"Grandpa, what is the situation so serious? Are there any conflicts of interest between Tian's family and brother's company, and are they going to become enemies?" Tian Linger worried.

"It has nothing to do with Tianjia's company, but your father. You have heard what he said just now. With your father's temper, he will never give up. Since he will not give up this idea, Tianjia will I can only give up on him." Thomas Tian said.

"Grandpa, what do you mean?" Tian Linger asked.

"What your dad is going to do will definitely destroy the relationship between George Han and Tianjia. What we have to do is to put aside the relationship between Tianjia and your father and let George Han know what your father did. Nothing has anything to do with the Heavenly Family. Only in this way will it not affect the relationship between you and George Han." Thomas Tian said, this is something he is unwilling to do, but Tian Honghui's words are forced He had to do this.

The family of heaven was in the hands of Thomas Tian. It took decades to achieve what it is today. Thomas Tian doesn't want to be destroyed in the hands of Tian Honghui.

Moreover, the relationship between Tianjia and George Han is so close now that the future development is limitless, and Thomas Tian is even more reluctant to miss this opportunity.

"But... Dad, what will happen to him if he offends his brother?" Tian Linger asked.

Thomas Tian shook his head, what will happen to the end? George Han can only calculate that, and it also depends on how much Tian Honghui has done.

If it was to challenge George Han's bottom line, it would not be unusual for him to lose his life.

"This is his own choice, and the consequences will be borne by him himself. It is not something we can intervene." Thomas Tian said.

Tian Linger nodded as if understanding, although she was very worried about Tian Honghui, but she was even more worried that her relationship with George Han would be damaged.

Therefore, when choosing between the two, Tian Linger only hesitated for a moment before choosing the latter.

As the saying goes, people don't die for themselves, selfishness is in everyone's subconscious, Tian Linger can't give up his relationship with George Han for Tian Honghui.

"Grandpa, I know how to do it, I'll leave first." After saying that, Tian Linger ran away in a hurry.

Thomas Tian stayed alone in the living room with a helpless smile on his face.

Tian Linger has Tian Linger, which can be regarded as one of the biggest factors to stabilize the relationship with George Han. I hope that after Tian Linger spreads the words, George Han will not be involved in Tian's family in the future.

"Do you right with George Han?" Thomas Tian muttered to himself, then began to shake his head, and continued: "It's really a group of people who do not live or die. Do you really think that the power of United Cloud City can fight him? A group of ants and rats That's it."

Chapter 1466

The tough-minded George Han at the Mountainside Villa had already driven away all the people who came to seek medical treatment, and before they left, they all cursed, and even kindly advised George Han to be more careful in the future.

George Han naturally didn't take the threats of those people seriously. Now that he has a true God Realm, how can he still put earth mortals in his eyes?

For George Han, even if it came to a troop, it was a matter of killing every minute.

"This group of people really don't know good or bad, threatening a strong god, don't they know how to write death words?" Seeing this situation, Fei Lingsheng said with a smile.

In Xuanyuan World, the strong are inevitably respected, and no one dares to provoke the strong. Even the Lord of the Three Kingdoms didn't have such courage, but on the earth, these people were so arrogant that they didn't even put George Han in their eyes.

"On earth, status is a very important label. People with higher status often have more arrogant attitudes. The background power behind these people is very powerful on earth, so they have reasons for arrogance." Sword Twelve explained.

The most common thing on earth is to suppress the weak with identity, and those in high positions are also accustomed to the attitude of high above, they will never put their low status people in their eyes, even some extreme people, Will also divide himself and ordinary people into two different levels.

High-ranking people call themselves upper-class society, and treat civilians as inferior creatures!

It's a pity that they hit the iron this time. And it's an iron plate that no one can shake!

"Why are you like this? Didn't you hear what I said to you?" Amelia Su said to George Han very helplessly. He didn't see George Han in three years. During these three years, Amelia Su told George Han's miss is very deep, but also because of day and night, George Han's status in her mind has improved a lot.

This also led to Amelia Su's feelings towards George Han, which had long been silently deteriorating. From friends to likes, a simple span had completely different meanings.

So now Amelia Su doesn't want George Han to do anything.

"Don't worry. These people can't threaten me. In my eyes, they are just a bunch of clowns." George Han said with a smile.

Joker?

Hear such arrogant words. Amelia Su couldn't help rolling her eyes, and said, "Among these people, there are also from Hillwood City. Grandpa said that although they are retired, they have great influence and high status. If you offend them, don't think about anyone. Have a good time."

"What your grandpa said is not wrong to some extent, but it is for ordinary people, for me. They really can't threaten me, so you really don't have to worry about it." George Han still enjoys the taste very much. Especially the concern from Amelia Su made George Han especially happy.

"You..." In the face of George Han who was unable to make money, Amelia Su was really helpless. After a paragraph had reached her throat, she swallowed abruptly because she knew it. In this case, no matter what you say is useless.

However, Amelia Su also believed that George Han was definitely not an idiot, and he couldn't handle things. It would never be so arrogant, George Han's performance can only show that he is confident.

Perhaps as he said, those people are really just clowns in his eyes?

"It's almost time, I'm going home." Amelia Su looked at the time. Said to George Han.

I haven't seen him for three whole years. How could George Han be willing to leave Amelia Su like this? He said quickly: "Why don't you have dinner before leaving. I will cook by myself or go out to eat, you choose whatever you like."

Amelia Su picked up her own things and said, "No, I have to hurry home. I'll talk about dinner another day."

After saying this, Amelia Su deliberately glanced at Qi Yiyun.

After George Han returned home, he never had too much contact or verbal communication with Qi Yiyun from beginning to end. After all, in his mind, Amelia Su was the most important, and Qi Yiyun. In a sense, it's just a tenant.

But this look in Amelia Su's eyes made George Han feel a little meaningful. Could it be that she had misunderstood something?

George Han will never allow this misunderstanding to happen. So he sent Amelia Su out and asked, "Don't you think there is something between Qi Yiyun and me?"

"I don't know if there is anything, but she likes you, I can tell." Amelia Su said.

"She likes me. But I don't like her. There is no relationship between the two of us." George Han said.

"You are so anxious to explain, am I afraid of misunderstanding?" Amelia Su said with a smile.

"Of course." George Han said without hesitation.

"Don't worry, I'm not misunderstood. Qi Yiyun told me all the things between you and her, but I can see that she really likes you very much. If you can't handle this matter well, you will treat her. Caused a lot of harm." After saying this, Amelia Su left.
