

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1475 - 1478

Chapter 1475

On the top floor of the hospital, almost all people with distinguished status live, so in front of each ward, there are almost two people at the level of bodyguards to protect the ward owner from any interference.

This kind of battle can be said to be unprecedented. After all, it is rare for these big people to have the opportunity to get together.

This also made the leaders of the hospital particularly troubled during this period of time, for fear that there was something dissatisfied with these big people, and the whole day was frightened.

At the same time, the leaders of the hospital also hoped that George Han could come forward as soon as possible. After these people were cured, they could leave.

But this kind of dream is obviously impossible to happen. George Han cures the illness and saves people. It depends entirely on the mood, not the status of the other party.

When Dao Twelve arrived at the hospital, he was stopped by the hospital staff before he reached the top floor.

Not only the big men bring their own bodyguards, but the security work in the hospital is also very strict, and no one is allowed to make trouble.

When Dao Twelve self-reported his identity, indicating that he was sent by George Han, the hospital director came forward and personally led Dao Twelve to the top floor.

At this time, the dean didn't know who Dao Twelve was going to see, but he knew that who Dao Twelve saw would be able to get George Han's treatment.

This group of big people don't know who is so lucky.

"Which ward is Chen Guang?" Dao Twelve said to the dean.

"Please follow me." The dean respectfully said to Dao Twelve. The reason why he is so humble is because he knows that George Han's current level is not something he can provoke.

If anyone here is cured casually, George Han's status will rise. What's the point for him as a dean?

When the Twelve Knife was brought to Chen Guang's ward, two bodyguards blocked the door.

“What are you doing?” the bodyguard asked the dean.

“This is the person sent by George Han and wants to see Mr. Chen.” The dean said hurriedly.

Hearing George Han, the two bodyguards glanced at each other.

When Chen Guang came to Basin City for medical treatment, it was George Han who asked for it.

One of them hurried into the ward and notified Chen Guang of the incident.

Chen Guang was very surprised when he heard it. He knew what happened in the mountainside Villa. George Han had a very tough attitude and drove everyone away. How could he take the initiative to send someone to the door at this time?

“Let him in.” Chen Guang said.

After that, Dao Twelve walked into the ward. Even if he didn’t understand medical skills, he could tell with naked eyes that Chen Guang would not live long.

“Please sit down.” Chen Guang said to Sword Twelve.

“You don’t have to sit down, he will come to treat you tonight, so prepare yourself first.” Dao Twelve said to Chen Guang.

Chen Guang’s eyes lit up. He hadn’t reported any expectations about this matter, because George Han had a tough attitude. It was impossible for Chen Guang to force him to do things he was unwilling to do. Moreover, Chen Guang was very concerned about his body. It is also clear that he has not much time to waste.

“This...why?” Chen Guang asked in a stupefied manner. Could it be that the news was wrong? Didn’t it mean that George Han didn’t treat anyone?

“I am only responsible for conveying this news. As for your question, I can’t answer it.” Dao Twelve said.

Regardless of the reason, as long as the disease can be cured, it is good news for Chen Guang. Even if George Han has something to ask for, for Chen Guang, if he can save his life, what else can’t satisfy George Han?

“Please tell him, I will wait for him here.” Chen Guang said.

He came and went, but he didn’t actually accomplish anything. George Han didn’t even need Twelve Swordsman to notify him, and he just showed up in person at night. After all, Chen Guang couldn’t refuse to see George Han.

The main reason why George Han did this was that he wanted to let Yan Bingsan know about it through the twelve swords. This was considered a relatively naive behavior and deliberately angered Yan Bingsan.

After Dao Twelve left, the bodyguard at the door of Yan Bingsan entered the ward immediately and told Yan Bingsan the matter.

After Yan Bingsan heard this, his face was extremely angry. Is George Han trying to save Chen Guang?

“Grandpa, this George Han is so arrogant, he is deliberately burying us.” Yan Nanguai said through gritted teeth.

Without saying a word, Yan Bing rolled the wheelchair by himself, got out of the ward, and then came to Chen Guang’s room.

Chen Guang was in a good mood at the moment. Although it was said that George Han was treating his illness, he might not be able to cure it, but it was at least an opportunity. After all, the old man of the Su family who was dying was brought back from the death line by George Han. .

“Chen Guang, did George Han promise to treat you?” Yan Bingsan came to the ward and asked Chen Guang.

“Are you surprised tonight?” Chen Guang said with a smile.

This was so angry that Yan Bingsan wanted to vomit blood. He personally went to see George Han, but was beaten back by a Hancheng native, and George Han wanted to take the initiative to treat Chen Guang!

Chapter 1476

“Chen Guang, you don’t need to be so proud. He promised to treat you, but he won’t be able to cure you. Do you really think that he is the big Luo Jinxian?” Yan Bingsan has a vicious expression on his face. Said that the two had been rivals for many years, and Yan Bingsan naturally didn’t want Chen Guang to get better, he even hoped to attend Chen Guang’s funeral before he left.

The two have fought for decades, each with their own victories, and the final way to determine who is the winner is who can live to the end.

Yan Bingsan never wants to die before Chen Guang!

“Such a sour smell, aren’t you afraid that he will cure me?” Chen Guang said with a smile, then paused and continued: “Yes, no one wants me to die more than you, if I am cured Now, he won’t heal you again, you will definitely feel very uncomfortable.”

This came to Yan Bingsan's heart, George Han would not treat him, and if Chen Guang was cured again, he would never accept it.

"Your mentality is very good, but unfortunately, he is not a god, don't worry, after you die, I will give you the largest wreath." After that, Yan Bingsan left angrily.

Chen Guang was lying on the hospital bed with a smile on his face. He could see the worry on Yan Bingsan's expression. For him, this was something he liked to hear.

Of course, Chen Guang is also very worried about the situation tonight. He knows his body very well. He has exhausted all his contacts and found many top doctors in the world, but those doctors are helpless. How many chances can he really cure him?

Although the Su family father was in front, it might be just a miracle of coincidence. Since it is a miracle, it cannot happen every time.

"Dad, do you really believe in George Han?" Chen Qiran asked. As Chen's family son, Chen Qiran has been with Chen Guang during the period when Chen Guang is critically ill. It can be said that he has done everything a son should do. All responsibilities.

"Otherwise?" Chen Guang asked, "Apart from him, who else can I trust? All hospitals have sentenced me to death. Only him has become my last hope."

Chen Qiran sighed. He also understood the situation Chen Guang was facing now. All the doctors were helpless. He could only rely on drugs to maintain his short life. If it weren't for the wealth of his family, Chen Guang would have died long ago.

"Take a dead horse as a living horse doctor, maybe a miracle will happen to me." Chen Guang continued.

"Dad, I have carefully studied the condition of the old man in the Su family. He was in a more serious condition than you. Since George Han can heal him, I believe he will be able to heal you." Chen Qiran said.

Chen Guang nodded, and the recognition of George Han was actually amplifying his inner hope.

After all, no one wants to face death, and Chen Guang is no exception.

the other side.

Yan Bingsan was about to explode when he returned to the ward. He knew that this was a deliberate provocation by George Han. It is even possible that George Han knew the relationship between him and Chen Guang at all, so he chose among many people. Save Chen Guang.

"Is this what George Han gave me on purpose?" Yan Bingsan gritted his teeth.

Yan Nangui, who was still wandering the line of life and death before, had forgotten the feeling of being close to death before. The arrogant he had only one idea at this time, and that was to make George Han's ignorant behavior pay the price.

"Grandpa, do you want me to send someone to deal with him?" Yan Nangui asked.

Yan Bingsan wished to break George Han's body into thousands of pieces, but he couldn't do so now. Although George Han was already tough and wouldn't help him, but George Han was still his last hope, not a last resort. He will not destroy his hopes by himself.

And in the matter of Chen Guang, Yan Bingsan could also witness George Han's medical skills to see if he was as good as the legend.

If he can cure Chen Guang, then he will definitely be able to cure his own disease.

"Don't worry, I want to see if he can cure Chen Guang." Yan Bingsan said.

As the weather got late, Chen Guang's heart began to become restless, because doctors all over the world sentenced him to death. Only George Han was his hope. If George Han could not cure him, there will be no chance.

So when this moment was really about to come, Chen Guang was very nervous.

At eight o'clock, George Han appeared at the entrance of the hospital on time. Chen Qiran, who was instructed to wait here, judged George Han's identity through the knife twelve beside George Han, and walked to George Han for the first time.

"Are you George Han?" Although it has long been heard that George Han is still a child, after seeing George Han, Chen Qiran still can't believe it, just such a little kid, can he really save people? ?

"Take me to see your father." George Han said.

Chen Qiran didn't say much. At this time, he couldn't question George Han at will to avoid causing George Han's dissatisfaction.

If George Han suddenly refuses to treat Chen Guang, this responsibility will inevitably fall on Chen Qiran.

Chapter 1477

In the ward, Chen Guang was already nervous and a little overwhelmed. He felt like he was about to meet the King of Yama, full of unknowns about his destiny, life and death were on the line.

When George Han came to the ward, Chen Guang had an unconcealable loss in his heart, because the image of George Han and those famous doctors was so different that Chen Guang couldn't believe that the child in front of him could cure his incurable disease.

Although Chen Guang had tried his best to restrain and cover up, his expression still showed flaws.

"If you don't believe me, I can leave now." George Han said in the first sentence.

Chen Guang shook his head quickly. The image of George Han did not win his trust, but he knew that his ultimate destiny would be determined by George Han, so it was no longer a question of whether he could believe it, but the only choice. .

"Brother Han, I do have such concerns, but you are my last chance. In any case, I want to give it a try. Please give me this opportunity." Chen Guang said.

George Han smiled faintly and said: "You are quite frank, but this is not as simple as trying. If I can't even cure you, wouldn't it be bad for my reputation."

Although George Han doesn't care about this reputation, since he has come forward, he will never let go of his tongue.

Moreover, George Han's visit to the hospital has attracted the attention of countless people, especially some bigwigs in the medical field, who are silently waiting for this result to happen. They want to see if George Han is really a miracle. Creator.

Whether the Su Family's old man's condition was accidental or was it an expression of George Han's true strength.

Seeing that George Han is so confident, Chen Guang's suspicion towards him is slightly reduced.

"Please start." Chen Guang said.

George Han looked at Dao Twelve and Chen Qiran, Dao Twelve voluntarily left the ward, but Chen Qiran was stunned and did not intend to leave.

"What are you doing in a daze?" George Han asked.

"My father has no power to bind the chicken, I have to look at him." Chen Qiran said. The disguised meaning of this sentence was to worry that George Han would harm Chen Guang.

"In this case, let me choose someone who is willing to believe in me." George Han finished speaking, and walked out of the ward.

Chen Guang suddenly shouted angrily: "If you let you get out, get out, where is so much nonsense."

This is Chen Guang's last chance to survive, and he is willing to try it anyway.

Chen Qiran said: "Dad, it's just about treating illnesses and saving people. If there is anything you can't see, let me see what's wrong, what if he hurts you."

"Shut up, get out of here." Chen Guang said angrily. Since he chose to trust George Han, he shouldn't have the slightest doubt about him.

And even if George Han was really going to be disadvantageous to him, Chen Guang could accept it. After all, in his current state, he couldn't live long enough, and it would be a difference between early death and late death.

Chen Qiran glanced at George Han, Chen Guang said so, there is no reason for him to stay.

"I hope you can do your job as a healer." Chen Qiran said to George Han.

George Han didn't respond. How could he pay attention to this secret threat?

And whether Chen Guang is good or not, it's just a question of George Han's words. How could George Han, who has a true spirit, couldn't solve this little problem.

After Chen Qiran left, George Han sat next to the bed and did not directly start treatment. Instead, he said to Chen Guang, "You have been fighting with Yan Bingsan for so many years, what kind of result is what you want."

This sentence is worth savoring by Chen Guang. When George Han asked suddenly, he must have aspirations. In addition, Yan Bingsan had personally visited the Yundingshan Villa area, and it was very likely that he had a conflict with George Han.

And George Han asked him what kind of result he wanted, but it was actually what George Han wanted.

Chen Guang has swept the rivers and lakes for decades, and the city is extremely deep. At this time, he also said something ambiguous: "We are the opponents of our life. The result is not what we care most about, but the winning or losing in the process. His protégés All over the world, the same is true for me, so sometimes we compare not how good we are, but the achievements of our students."

"So, you don't want him to die." George Han said.

"His disease has no one to cure, and he will eventually die." Chen Guang said.

"Guess what, am I satisfied with this answer?" George Han smiled.

Chen Guang nodded without hesitation and said, "If you just want Yan Bingsan to die, I think you have more ways than me, and more direct. If you didn't do this, it means you didn't think so. ."

George Han raised his eyebrows, and dealing with this kind of old rivers and lakes, it really turned out to be more common. As Chen Guang said, if George Han wanted Yan Bingsan to die, he had many ways, and he was even more straightforward.

"Under Yan Bingsan's system, there are many high-ranking people. I will give you one year. But for those who have done bad things, I want them to get rid of them." George Han said.

Immediately, George Han stood up and stretched out his hand.

Chen Guang, who didn't quite understand this move, could only look at George Han with a look of confusion.

"Give me your hand."

Only then did Chen Guang hand to George Han blankly.

At the moment when he touched George Han's hand, Chen Guang felt a current rushing into his body. This current was not too strong and gave him a very soft numbness, and this feeling quickly spread throughout his body. It seems to be killing germ cells in the body in this way, and even restoring the functions of various organs.

Chen Guang looked at George Han with complicated eyes. What kind of medical technique is this called? This shows that it is magical technique!

Yan Bingsan said before that George Han is not Daluo Jinxian, and it is impossible to save him.

But when Chen Guang felt this method, he had a firm idea in his mind, what else can he be if he is not a big Luo Jinxian!

During this process, Chen Guang clearly felt the changes in his body, his breathing was strong, and the pain in his body was gradually disappearing, and his already ill-fed body was recovering.

After about three minutes, George Han let go of Chen Guang's hand and said, "After one year, you have done it to my satisfaction, and I will make you really healed."

Chen Guang looked at George Han in disbelief. He obviously felt that his body was strong, and he could no longer feel the slightest pain from his body.

"You... are you a god?" Chen Guang asked in astonishment.

George Han ignored this issue, but continued: "If your behavior does not satisfy me after a year, your old illness will recur and you will die within a week."

Chapter 1478

Outside the ward, although only a few minutes have passed, Chen Qiran has already looked restless. Ever since Chen Guang was ill, Chen Qiran has been by Chen Guang's side at any time, and will not leave Chen Guang alone with strangers under any circumstances.

Today is the only exception in the past few years, which made Chen Qiran feel very flustered. He was worried that George Han would be disadvantageous to Chen Guang, and even more worried that Chen Guang's condition suddenly deteriorated during the treatment process, leading to death.

Dao Twelve looked at the worried Chen Qiran, couldn't help but laughed, and said: "You still think about how to celebrate later, your father's incurable disease will soon be cured, and you are worried about the ass."

Who is George Han? He is a real powerhouse in the realm of gods. This kind of common man's illness is not easy in his hands, so Dao Twelve has already guessed the result.

"You have faith in him, but I don't. Do you know how many world-renowned doctors are helpless." Chen Qiran said coldly.

"Famous doctor?" Dao Twelve showed a sneered expression, and said: "Those famous doctors count as a fart in front of George. No matter what the intractable disease is in George's hands, they can't even count as a common cold."

Chen Qiran didn't know where Dao Twelve's blind self-confidence came from, but he was sure that these words were absolutely bragging, and the incurable disease was not even a cold. Who could believe such words?

"Although you brag, I have the right not to believe." Chen Qiran said.

Seeing him say this, Dao Twelve didn't bother to talk nonsense anymore, seeing is believing, and soon Chen Qiran would regret his ignorance.

At this time, the lock on the door suddenly moved, indicating that someone inside opened the door.

Chen Qiran, who couldn't wait, pushed the door open and wanted to enter.

However, due to excessive force, he obviously encountered the person who opened the door inside.

But Chen Qiran couldn't manage that much, and it was not a big deal to meet George Han.

But what Chen Qiran didn't expect was that Chen Guang's curses came from inside the door.

"Chen Qiran, are you going to kill me?" Chen Guang said.

The voice was powerful and full of breath, which made Chen Qiran feel a little surprised, and he was still lying on the hospital bed, how could he come to open the door?

When the door really opened, Chen Guang touched his forehead and cursed Chen Qiran: "What do you want to do."

The moment Chen Qiran saw Chen Guang, the whole person was stunned, and his expression of astonishment revealed disbelief.

Chen Guang has been sitting in a wheelchair for many years. Due to his physical condition, he is unable to stand up at all. But now, Chen Guang is standing in front of him well, and he looks like an okay person.

After a long time, Chen Qiran said, "Dad, you...you actually stood up!"

"Why, don't you want to see me stand up?" Chen Guang said calmly.

Although he is calm now, when George Han asked him to get up just now, he thought that George Han was joking at all. It was not until he really got up and stood firmly on the ground that Chen Guang could believe that this was true, and that At that time, his expression was no more exaggerated than Chen Qiran.

"No...no, I, I'm just...dad." Chen Qiran squatted, because the impact of this incident on him was so strong that he didn't even know what to say.

Chen Guang, who was dyingly ill and even sentenced to death by a doctor, stood in front of him vigorously at this time, there was no way to be a patient!

"Shut up quickly if you can't speak." Chen Guang said.

Chen Qiran nodded, now he really doesn't know what to say, his mind is in confusion, thinking of the self-confident appearance of the twelve swords just now, he could be the one who can slap the face with the twelve swords, but he did not expect to be beaten. Face up.

"You just said that I was bragging, do you still think so?" Dao Twelve asked Chen Qiran with a smile.

Chen Qiran shook his head subconsciously. Could this be bragging?

The facts are in front of you!

Chen Guang stood well, like a okay person, this is an undeniable fact!

“Kneel down.” Chen Guang said to Chen Qiran suddenly.

Chen Qiran looked inexplicably puzzled, but he knelt on the ground as Chen Guang said.

“This is my savior. Starting today, it is also the greatest nobleman in your life. I want you to always keep in mind that no matter what happens, no matter what he asks you to do, you must listen to him.” Chen Guang Said.

Kneel down to a child!

This is very repulsive in Chen Qiran’s heart, but when he thinks of George Han’s ability, he cannot refute it.

George Han smiled faintly, and said to Chen Guang: “You old fox, you are really a cunning and cunning man. You got a bargain, and didn’t you forget to ask your son for benefits?”

George Han is a sensible person. Chen Guang did this because he wanted to establish a relationship between Chen Qiran and him.

Chen Qiran also understood Chen Guang’s thoughts and said to George Han: “Benefactor, no matter what trouble you encounter in the future, Chen Qiran will definitely do his best.”
