

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1479 - 1482

Chapter 1479

At this time, the bodyguard outside the door of the next ward had entered the ward for the first time.

As Yan Bingsan paid close attention to the dynamics of the next door, he ordered the bodyguards to tell him what the situation was.

“What’s the situation?” Yan Bingsan couldn’t wait to ask when he saw the bodyguard, before he waited for the bodyguard to speak.

“Chen Qiran suddenly knelt down at the door,” the bodyguard said.

“Kneel down?” Yan Bingsan frowned, how could he kneel down for no reason?

Yan Nangui on the side suddenly showed a smile on his face and said, “Could it be Chen Guang who is dead?”

That being said, it is indeed possible.

Chen Guang is dead, and Chen Qiran is bound to kneel to see him off.

But there was a faint anxiety in Yan Bingsan’s heart, always feeling that things could not be so sudden.

George Han has already arrived. Although he hasn’t been here for a long time, he won’t directly put Chen Guang to death!

“Go out and stare again. If you have any news, tell me immediately.” Yan Bingsan said to the bodyguard.

The bodyguard nodded, and when he was turning around to leave, the ward door suddenly opened.

When Chen Guang appeared at the door, Yan Bing’s third grandfather and grandson both widened their eyes, and their chins almost fell to the ground.

As an opponent for many years, Yan Bingsan knows Chen Guang’s condition very well, and he even has various physical examination reports of Chen Guang, and Chen Guang has relied on a wheelchair for many years, how could he suddenly stand up?

“Yan Bingsan, you really want me to die. It’s a pity that I didn’t do what you wanted.” Chen Guang said with a smile.

Yan Bingsan's heartbeat speeded up. How long has George Han been here, has he cured Chen Guang, and also made Chen Guang stand up, without any time to recover?

Hallucinations?

This is an illusion!

Yan Bingsan's first feeling was that he had hallucinations. Otherwise, this would never happen.

But when Yan Bingsan rubbed his eyes, Chen Guang had no news in front of him.

"Don't doubt it, this is not an illusion, I'm already cured, and I'm alive and well, don't you see it?" Chen Guang continued.

Yan Bingsan could feel Chen Guang's tremendous changes. Not only did this guy stand up, but he also looked red, even if he was a little sick.

Even today, Yan Bingsan had seen Chen Guang, his bloodless look was no different from a dying person.

But now...

"How is it possible, how is it possible!" Yan Bingsan said subconsciously.

Yan Nangui on the side also found it very incredible. It was like a magic trick. Chen Guang was all right suddenly. Even Yan Nangui could not help but wonder if Chen Guang had been pretending to be sick all the time.

"What's impossible? I would like to thank you for this matter. If it weren't for you to anger George Han, and I happen to be your opponent, this kind of good thing would not fall on me." Chen Kuang's remarks came from the heart. He was really grateful to Yan Bingsan, because he knew that George Han would not cure him for no reason, which had a direct relationship with Yan Bingsan.

These words almost made Yan Bingsan vomit blood with anger. His opponents have suffered the most severe damage to him for so many years.

He gave the opportunity to Chen Guang to heal Chen Guang's serious illness, but he himself was still waiting for the coming of death!

"Chen Guang, how did he do it, how is this possible!" Yan Bingsan asked with a sullen face.

"Tsk tusk tusk." Chen Guang laughed and shook his head, and said: "With your IQ, you shouldn't ask this kind of question. You know I won't tell you, so why bother to speak."

Yan Bingsan took a deep breath. He had accepted the fact that Chen Guang was getting better, but he couldn't imagine how George Han did it.

And there is one more important point. Since George Han can cure the dying Chen Guang, he will definitely be cured.

"If I die, you will have no opponents. Is this kind of life still interesting?" Yan Bingsan said.

"It's the greatest fun to live well. As for whether you are alive or dead, what does it have to do with me, and you have already offended George Han, so you don't expect him to save you." Chen Guang said.

This sentence made Yan Bingsan feel a pain. The contradiction between him and George Han has indeed been established, and he also said that it would ruin the Han family. In this case, how could George Han give him Cure?

Such a situation is undoubtedly desperate for Yan Bingsan. He even wished he hadn't seen George Han, so that at least there would be a chance for George Han to treat him.

At this moment, Yan Nanguai suddenly rushed out of the ward.

When Yan Bingsan thought about what he was going to do, it was too late to stop him.

"Your grandson is always impulsive and reckless, and arrogant and ignorant. If he stops George Han, I am afraid that the conflict between your Yan family and George Han will become more serious." Chen Guang reminded.

Yan Bingsan is naturally aware of this, but it doesn't matter whether the contradiction will be more serious, and maybe there is a chance for Yan Nan to come back.

Chapter 1480

At this moment, Yan Bingsan regrets it very much. He even hopes that time can return to before he went to the Yunding Mountain Villa. In this way, he and George Han will not have conflicts and grievances, nor will he be completely lost by George Han. Thousands of opportunities for treatment.

The miracle is here.

The dying Chen Guang is now alive, how can Yan Bingsan not envy him?

It's a pity that there is no regret medicine in this world, and time can't go back. Yan Bingsan can only accept the facts before him.

But this does not mean that Yan Bingsan really gave up. After all, a person has only one life. If there is a chance to survive, Yan Bingsan will try it anyway.

“Chen Guang, can you tell me how he did it?” Yan Bingsan said with a sincere expression: “We have known each other for so many years. Although we are rivals, we are still friends. Are you going to die? Don’t you save it?”

Chen Guang had only one year’s life. After one year, if he couldn’t get George Han’s continued treatment, he would still die.

Chen Guang, who had tasted the sweetness, would never betray George Han in any form. Perhaps it was to make George Han unhappy, because he knew very well that if he wanted to continue to live, George Han was the only hope.

If Chen Guang just came to Basin City with a try before, now he has completely believed in George Han, and he also knows that only George Han can save him in this world.

“Sorry, I can’t tell you, and starting today, the grievances between you and me will continue.” Chen Guang said.

“The reason why he saves you is to use you to deal with me, right?” Yan Bingsan is not a fool. After spending so many years in the world, he can naturally guess what George Han intends to save Chen Guang.

“That’s why I have to thank you. Without you, I would not be the target of George Han’s rescue.” Chen Guang said.

Yan Bingsan laughed bitterly. He was still mocking Chen Guang before, but now, he has been reduced to Chen Guang to mock himself. What’s more terrible is that this incident was caused by him, and he actually saved his opponent indirectly!

At this time, Yan Nangui had already blocked George Han at the entrance of the hospital.

Yan Nangui, who looked hostile, didn’t have any attitude of begging, on the contrary, he was still so high, even he had forgotten about the fact that he almost died in the hands of the sword twelve before.

“George Han, what do you mean, why did you save Chen Guang!” Yan Nangui asked George Han.

“Do you still need to ask? Such a simple truth, can’t you think of it, he is the enemy of the Yan family, and the Yan family is my enemy, the enemy’s enemy is a friend, haven’t you heard this sentence?” George Han said with a smile.

Yan Nan’s face was pale with anger. Of course he knew that George Han did this on purpose, and it was precisely because of this that he was so angry.

“Don’t you really think that Chen Guang is qualified to be the opponent of the Yan family? He didn’t die. My grandfather didn’t want him to die. I would advise you that it’s best to treat my grandfather. Otherwise, you The Han family will face the worst fate.” Yan Nangui said.

These threats did not scare George Han, but made him sigh. What kind of temper did Yan Nangui have been spoiled for? At this time, he still threatens people, is it the Yan family? Lawlessness. Didn't Yan Nan be taught to lower his posture when he returned to others?

“Boy, don't you forget me, are you looking for death with these words?” Dao Twelve said coldly.

Yan Nangui glanced at Dao Twelve, and suddenly felt a tingling scalp. The previous feeling of suffocation still existed. If Yan Bingsan hadn't stopped him in time, he might have died.

And now, there is no one around him, if Twelve Swords attack him, no one can save him.

Thinking of this, Yan Nangui stepped back subconsciously, pulling the distance between him and Dao Twelve.

Seeing this action, Dao Twelve sneered disdainfully, and said: “You are a bully, if the Yan family falls into your hands, it will be over sooner or later.”

In the eyes of the Dao Twelve, Yan Nangui is someone who relied on the background of the Yan family to make a fake tiger. He has no real ability of his own, lacks the shelter of the Yan family, and is not even a fart.

After Yan Bing was three hundred years old, Yan Nan returned to the country without a protective wall, and that time was when the Yan family was sunset in the west.

Yan Nangui wanted to refute Dao Twelve's words. If someone else dared to talk to him like this, Yan Nangui would be able to dig out the ancestral grave of the other ancestor's 18th generation.

But facing Dao Twelve, he didn't dare. He knew Dao Twelve was not afraid of his identity, and he didn't put the Yan family in his eyes to kill him. It was just a matter of thought.

“George Han, how did you save my grandfather?” Yan Nangui asked.

“Tell Yan Bingsan, I will never save him, no matter what the circumstances, and if you want to deal with the Han family, you have to see if you can bear the price.” After these words, George Han Turned and left.

George Han is really not interested in dealing with Yan Nangui, a second world master who has no real ability. It is not as interesting as going to the side of the road to tease the ants.

Nan Yan returned to the spot, feeling a sense of panic at a loss for the first time in her life.

If George Han does not save Yan Bingsan, Yan Bingsan will have to wait to die.

And Yan Nangui knows very well that Yan Bing Sanwei is tied to all Yan family relationships. Once Yan Bingsan dies, those relationships with the Yan family will inevitably become weaker. At that time, the Yan family would not have the status it is now. , And his status in Yan Nangui will be reduced accordingly. This is why Yan Nangui does not want Yan Bingsan to die.

When Yan Bingsan was alive, those disciples would often visit him and contribute to the affairs of the Yan family.

But once Yan Bingsan died, who would continue to help the Yan family?

Back in the ward, Yan Bingsan's face was very ugly. His envy of Chen Guang had gradually evolved into a hatred, and he even began to hate George Han for curing Chen Guang.

“What did George Han say?” Yan Bingsan asked impatiently when Yan Nan returned.

Yan Nangui lowered his head and told Yan Bingsan what had happened.

When Yan Bingsan heard that no matter what the circumstances, it was impossible to save him, Yan Bingsan was desperate.

With George Han's ability, he knew that it was impossible for him to persecute George Han. Even if he used all the relationships, it would be of no avail. In other words, the current Yan Bingsan has nothing to do except waiting for death. Method.

“Grandpa, or let your students come forward, maybe they can still intimidate George Han.” Yan Nangui suggested.

Yan Bingsan smiled bitterly.

In addition to shocking the medical industry, George Han's move will inevitably attract more attention from the big bosses in power. How can his protégés dare to deal with George Han in this storm?

Chapter 1481

The medical profession is indeed shaking!

All those who followed this matter received the news as soon as possible.

Since Chen Guang has sought help from many famous doctors, most of the doctors who can be called famous in China are aware of Chen Guang's condition. In their opinion, Chen Guang has no chance to treat. Now Chen Guang just counts. For the rest of the day, there will never be a chance of cure.

But before Chen Guang walked out of the ward alone with a red face, the news exploded across the country.

Those doctors who have treated Chen Guang, or those who have understood Chen Guang's condition, are all unbelievable.

They were skeptical about George Han's treatment of the Su Family's father, thinking it was a hype at all, and secretly mocking those who came to Basin City to seek help from George Han.

But the fact turned into a loud slap, slapped heavily on the faces of those waiting to see the joke.

George Han not only cured Chen Guang, but Chen Guang's recovery speed was even more miraculous. This is incredible, because the current medical level cannot cure Chen Guang, and it is even more impossible for Chen Guang to be cured. Walk alone in a short time.

This matter has become a mystery that many people want to uncover, so Chen Guang's mobile phone, one call after another, they want to prove the truth about Chen Guang's healing, but also want to know George Han. How did it do it.

Chen Guang, who returned to his ward, did not even glance at the constantly ringing cell phone.

He knows that his recovery from illness has attracted the attention of doctors all over the country. This also includes some prominent figures in power and those who are sick. He definitely hopes to use him to certify this matter, and then let George Han treat it. they.

But regarding George Han's treatment methods, Chen Guang absolutely did not dare to disclose half a word to the outside world, so he simply refused to answer the phone to avoid some more powerful characters from forcing him.

"Dad, don't you answer the phone?" One phone call rang, but Chen Guang was indifferent, which made Chen Qiran a little puzzled.

"Don't you know what these calls are for?" Chen Guang asked.

"I know, but I just watched it. There are several big men in power. Wouldn't it be bad if you didn't answer their calls?" Chen Qiran said with a worried expression.

“I can’t give them a satisfactory answer. This is the big problem.” Chen Guang said with a sigh. In fact, he was helpless in his heart. Regarding George Han’s methods, in his eyes, that is something that a god can do.

But who can believe this kind of thing?

Even if they really want to believe, if George Han knows, will Chen Guang survive a year later?

Even Chen Guang felt that if he revealed this matter, George Han would soon make him sick in less than a year.

Chen Qiran did not continue to speak. This was Chen Guang’s own decision. He was not qualified to intervene when he was a son, and Chen Qiran also knew that Chen Guang’s decision was definitely well thought out.

on the other hand.

After George Han returned to the mountainside Villa, he also received some calls.

First Han Tianyang called, and then Mary. The first words they spoke were related to Chen Guang. Some people had even arrived at Han’s house, hoping that George Han could rescue the people behind them.

The incoming person has a strong background and powerful influence. Whether it is Han Tianyang or Mary, they dare not neglect easily, but they dare not make decisions for George Han, so they can only call George Han and let him decide for himself.

But no matter who the other party is, George Han only has one word, no.

After hanging up a few calls in succession, George Han simply turned off his mobile phone, which quieted the world.

“George, this thing seems to be a big deal.” Dao Twelve said to George Han with a smile on his face. He didn’t mean to laugh at George Han. He just thought that George Han was too good, just casually. A small move has aroused the attention of big figures from all over the country.

George Han held his forehead. Although he had anticipated it, he didn’t expect the spread of the matter to be so exaggerated. It was only a short while before everyone knew it. It seems that there have been countless pairs before this. He stared at Basin City.

“This matter is difficult. I am afraid that starting from tomorrow, more people will come to Basin City.” George Han said with a headache. To deal with these people, George Han is not afraid, and he will not be threatened. But this is inevitably annoying.

“That’s for sure. It’s estimated that someone has chartered flights. I didn’t expect that such a small place in Basin City would welcome so many powerful people. This local official might have been frightened for a while.” Dao Twelve smiled. Said.

“It seems that things have to move in the direction I want as soon as possible. The earth is not a long-term place.” George Han said.

Dao Twelve’s heart moved and said, “Three thousand, are you going back to Xuanyuan World?”

Chapter 1482

Returning to the Xuanyuan world was something that George Han had been looking forward to, especially after George Han truly stepped into the divine realm, his desire to return to the Xuanyuan world became even stronger.

Because the current George Han hadn’t been absolutely sure to deal with Linlong, but he already had the power of a battle. And only when he returned to Xuanyuan World, could George Han have the opportunity to go to a higher level space, which was full of curiosity and unknowns for George Han, and he couldn’t wait to find out.

It’s a pity that the current time and situation are not optimal, and George Han can’t leave Amelia Su alone. He was worried that after he went to Xuanyuan World, he would never be able to return.

“Although I really want to, but for now, it’s not enough.” George Han said with a sigh.

Knife Twelve is a little bit lost. After all, he also hoped that he could follow George Han to see Xuanyuan World.

Feeling the emotional change of the Twelve Twelve, George Han said with a smile: “With your current strength, it is easy to die if you go to Xuanyuan World. In any urgency, it is impossible to spend such a lot of effort to move a grave for you. ?”

Dao Twelve fished his head in embarrassment. Although this was a bit ugly, he knew it was true.

Xuanyuan World is a cultivator’s business. Although he now has a stronger strength than ordinary earth people, he is also a weak person to Xuanyuan World.

“Three thousand, I am not in a hurry, wait until you think the time is right.” Dao Twelve said.

“Hey.” George Han sighed suddenly. If he hadn’t wasted too much holy chestnut, he doesn’t need to worry about the cultivation of the Twelfth Dao and others.

With Sheng Li’s blessing, they can improve their strength in a short period of time, but it is a pity that it is no longer useful to regret it now.

Suddenly, George Han's expression changed.

Didn't Sheng Li get it from the Forbidden Land?

Now that time has gone back. So will the Holy Chestnut in the forbidden area still exist?

If there is still Sheng Li. Knife Twelve, their cultivation will not be able to get twice the result with half the effort.

George Han slapped himself. I hate why I only think of this now.

"What's the matter with you?" Dao Twelve didn't know what George Han had thought of. Seeing George Han hit himself, he asked in confusion.

"I'm really stupid, I even forgot about such important things." George Han said with an annoyance, and at the same time looked at Zi's arm, the red-eyed jade python did not cling to it.

After rebirth. Many things have changed, and many things have gone back to the past. George Han put all his attention on Amelia Su, but ignored these important things.

"Three thousand, what's the matter, why are you stupid?" Dao Twelve said.

"You stay in Basin City. Help me protect Amelia Su and don't allow anyone to hurt him. I still have to take a trip to Apocalypse. It may take a few days." George Han said.

Dao Twelve nodded subconsciously, no matter what George Han wanted to do, as long as it was George Han's orders. Knife Twelve will do what he says.

Before leaving, George Han met with Fei Lingsheng. Fei Lingsheng's strength is more reliable than Dao Twelve, so he asked Fei Lingsheng to stay in Basin City, protect Amelia Su, and at the same time establish a spiritual formation in the mountainside Villa.

Fei Lingsheng wanted to go to Apocalypse with George Han, but after being rejected by George Han, she did not continue to force her.

The once powerhouse of the Extreme Master Realm, in front of today's George Han, is nothing but an ant. How can there be any qualifications?

Originally, George Han thought that the time for him to go to Apocalypse would be after Amelia Su became an adult. Because at that time it was the most appropriate to take back Fuyao's power, but the plan couldn't keep up with the changes. George Han could only go there one time in advance and get Sheng Li back first, so that the people around him could have a better training step.

Apocalypse two days later.

Since Da Yi Lao met George Han, I couldn't eat well all day and couldn't sleep, because George Han's strength was so strong that he couldn't help but want to bring George Han to Tianqi, and Yi Lao had a feeling. Only George Han can bring Apocalypse back to its former glory, and only he can prevent Apocalypse from meeting the next earth crisis.

Regarding the matter of Uncle Shane, Yi Lao always had a little doubt in his heart, and he did not dare to believe in George Han 100%. After all, he lived so long and looked like a child, which is really unbelievable.

But one thing Yi Lao can be sure of is that George Han's strength is no one on Earth.

"Hey, I don't know when I will be able to see you. You really should come back and have a look." Yi Lao said to himself, looking at the sky full of stars.

"Who do you want to see?" A familiar voice suddenly came from behind.

Yi Lao turned his head abruptly, and saw that this was the George Han he was thinking about day and night.

Immediately stood up and walked to George Han excitedly: "You... why are you here!"

"Isn't it so rude to see Uncle Master?" George Han said with a serious face on purpose.
