

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1483 - 1486

Chapter 1483

The extremely excited Elder Yi heard George Han's words and blurted out without thinking: "Uncle Master."

For Yi Lao, George Han's position in his mind is supreme, so how to call George Han is not important to him, even if the look of Uncle Master is false, Yi Lao can accept it. , Because George Han is so powerful that he can lead the glory of the whole apocalypse, what is it to call the uncle master?

"Uncle Shane, why are you here?" Yi Lao asked.

"For me, coming here is like going home, can't I go home yet?" George Han smiled.

"Yes, yes, of course it can." Yi Lao nodded his head hurriedly, hoping for the stars and the moon, and finally came to George Han. How could he say no?

"Isn't the person you mentioned just now?" George Han asked.

"Who else can it be besides you? I look forward to your apocalypse every day." Yi Lao said.

"Why?" George Han said curiously.

Speaking of this question, Yi Lao's face became serious and said: "Today's Apocalypse has long since been unable to compare with a hundred years ago. Its strength has fallen sharply. As a result, Apocalypse has no strength to compete with the Second World. You can lead Apocalypse back to its peak, and only you can deal with the invasion of the Second World."

The invasion of Xuanyuan World?

Could it be said that what did Yi Lao feel, or is there something special happening at the entrance of the space tunnel?

According to the current time, the Linlong in Xuanyuan World should not be sober, and the people in Xuanyuan World, splitting the Three Kingdoms, would not have the strength to invade the earth again.

"Why do you say that the second world will invade the earth?" George Han asked.

"Just a while ago, there was a huge turmoil in the space tunnel. I suspect this has a lot to do with the invasion of the Second World." Yi Lao said.

When Yi Lao told George Han about the turbulent time in detail, George Han found that that point was just shortly after his rebirth. In other words, at that time, he had already left Xuanyuan World. At this time Turbulence occurred within the point, it is very likely that something happened in Xuanyuan World.

But George Han didn't know what was going on.

Could it be that Linlong was awake ahead of time?

Thinking of this, George Han couldn't help showing a worried look.

If so!

If Linlong were allowed to come to the earth, it would be a human tragedy. I don't know how many people will die under his claws.

This must be a scene of utter charity!

"Uncle Shane, what are you thinking about?" Seeing George Han startled, Yi Lao couldn't help asking.

George Han shook his head, he was still not sure whether this matter was really related to Linlong, maybe it was just an ordinary space tunnel shock.

"It's nothing, take me to the Demon King's Cave." George Han said.

Yi Lao showed a look of consternation, so good, why go to the Demon King's Cave? You must know that it is a place of life and death, and most people don't want to risk it at all. Even people who have been lucky enough to come back alive from it will never want to go there again.

"Uncle Shane, do you know the danger in the Demon King's Cave?" Yi Lao asked.

"Of course I know, but it's just a few strange beasts. Don't worry, they are not my opponents." George Han said lightly. Now he has real strength in the realm of gods. In George Han's eyes, these strange beasts are just a group of small Only pets, there is nothing to be afraid of, except for Linlong, no creature in Xuanyuan World can be his opponent.

Yi Lao swallowed unconsciously.

Not just a few strange beasts!

Seeing what this said, it was so relaxing, it was a life-threatening thing, but George Han didn't see it in the slightest.

"Uncle Shane, please come with me." Yi Lao said.

The two went all the way, and Yi Lao asked George Han why he wanted to go to the Demon King's Cave. George Han only said that there were important things, but did not want Yi Lao to disclose in detail.

Yi Lao is also a sensible person, and in his heart, George Han's status is extremely high. Since George Han concealed himself and did not want to disclose, he did not keep asking.

When he came to the entrance of the Demon King's Cave, a pungent fishy wind came. If it were an ordinary person, he would have been vomiting.

But Yi Lao only slightly changed his color, while George Han was so calm that nothing happened.

"I'll go in, you are here waiting for me." George Han said to Yi Lao.

Elder Yi could only nod his head. He had only entered the Demon King's Cave once, which was a life of nine deaths, and since that time, Yi Lao could no longer have the idea of entering the Demon King's Cave.

Even if there is George Han now, he might be able to gain insight after entering, and Yi Lao is completely uninterested.

George Han of Devil's Cave is still relatively familiar, after all, this place has been here once.

When he came to the place where Sheng Li grows, George Han breathed a sigh of relief when he saw the bright red fruits growing on the vines.

On the way to Apocalypse, George Han had been worried that the Holy Li in the Demon King's Cave was gone, because it would mean that he had gone for nothing, and now it seems that this trip was not in vain.

With these sacred chestnuts, the cultivation of those around George Han will become easier, and their strength can also be improved faster, which will enable George Han to return to the Xuanyuan world as soon as possible and solve the serious problems in his heart.

George Han did not let go of all the holy chestnuts, and they were all in the bag. After all, this kind of treasure is also a violent thing to stay in the Demon King's Cave. Besides him, who else has the courage to enter the Demon King's Cave and remove the holy chestnut?

And ordinary people don't know what effect this thing will have.

Just as George Han was about to leave, a hissing sound suddenly came from his ear.

This kind of voice George Han is very familiar, this is the voice of a snake, which means that the red-eyed jade python is nearby.

“Come out, I’ll take you out of here.” George Han said.

Before the rebirth of George Han, the red-eyed jade python had a great sense of intimacy with George Han, and even recognized George Han as the master. That was because of the skeleton, so at this time, the red-eyed jade python did not recognize George Han. Raw.

After hearing George Han’s voice, he frankly climbed onto George Han’s shoulder from George Han’s right leg.

“Little things, we meet again.” George Han said with a smile.

The red-eyed jade python spit out a red letter, as if responding to George Han.

“It’s a pity that you are a python after all, and there is an unbridgeable gap between you and the dragon. You are destined to be not Linlong’s opponent, and you must be a bit lower than it.” George Han said with a little helpless tone, his heart Real thoughts, it would be great if it were a dragon.

Chapter 1484

After George Han said these words, the red-eyed jade python vomited a red letter and made a squeaky voice, as if expressing his dissatisfaction and dissatisfaction. It was only after being patted on the head by George Han.

In George Han’s current realm, the red-eyed jade python can no longer help him too much. After all, George Han’s current strength is already above that of the red-eyed jade python. Its existence does not show much value. .

But before the rebirth, the red-eyed jade python was George Han’s life-saving benefactor, so after the rebirth, George Han still did not forget the kindness of the red-eyed jade python.

After leaving the Demon King’s Cave, George Han had a good harvest, but what he didn’t expect was that the situation outside the Demon King’s Cave was not only the presence of Yi Lao alone.

He Qingfeng led the people in the Three Halls with a fierce momentum, while Yi Lao had a wry smile on his face.

The Devil’s Cave is also considered to be one of the forbidden places of Apocalypse, and when he brought George Han here, he undoubtedly made a mistake. When Yi Lao explained the identity of George Han to He Qingfeng, He Qingfeng found it absurd, so he had to ask the crime. Yi Lao.

Of course, in He Qingfeng's view, after George Han entered the Demon King's Cave, there was absolutely no chance to come out, so when he saw George Han reappear alive, he was very surprised.

And George Han is just a child. With his strength, how could he escape from the Devil's Cave?

"He Qingfeng, what are you doing?" George Han asked puzzledly.

He Qingfeng frowned, this little kid would recognize himself, but in his impression, he had never seen George Han!

"Who are you and why do you know me?" He Qingfeng asked.

George Han looked at Yi Lao reproachfully and said, "Don't you tell him my identity?"

Yi Lao smiled bitterly, of course he said it, and he said it clearly and plainly, but He Qingfeng didn't believe it at all, what could be done?

"I said, I said everything, but he doesn't believe it." Yi Lao said.

George Han smiled faintly and said, "He Qingfeng, since you know who I am, what are you doing now? Do you want to catch me?"

He Qingfeng was completely nonsense about what Yi Lao said. How could he believe that someone could live for a hundred years, and a hundred years later, he would be so young, like a kid.

"Don't want to pretend to be a fool in front of me. You can fool this old fool with these tricks, but you can't fool me." He Qingfeng looked at George Han mockingly.

"Pretend to be a ghost?" George Han said these four words to himself, the next moment, he disappeared in place, as if suddenly evaporated, without any sign.

All the people in Sandian were dumbfounded. After all, they are all strong in the world. Even if George Han is somewhat capable, it is absolutely impossible to play tricks in front of them.

"What about people."

"How could it suddenly disappear."

"Could it be that what we saw just now was a ghost?"

Everyone was talking about it, only He Qingfeng had a strong sense of crisis, because George Han was staring at him just now, as if he was a target.

Just as everyone was looking for George Han's figure, behind He Qingfeng, George Han's voice suddenly heard.

"What is meant by pretending to be a god?" George Han asked.

He Qingfeng was so frightened that he turned around quickly, George Han was three feet away from him.

"You... why are you here!" He Qingfeng asked with horror on his face. He was unaware of George Han appearing next to him, which meant that if George Han wanted to kill him, Even if he had ten lives, he was not enough to die.

"Aren't you talking about pretending to be gods and ghosts? I'll just pretend to show you, are you satisfied with this level?" George Han smiled.

He Qingfeng's heart was chilled. He is also the head of the Three Palaces, and the supreme master of Apocalypse, but he has no way to detect George Han's approach. This can only show one problem, that is, George Han's strength has far surpassed him. .

but.....

But how can He Qingfeng believe such a thing?

He has practiced hard for decades to reach his current strength, and George Han is clearly just a child, even if he has a strong talent, it is impossible to have this ability!

Could it be that he... really isn't a child, and what Yi Lao said is not a story either!

He Qingfeng suddenly got goose bumps. He knew that if what Yi Lao said was true, then all this would be a tragedy for him.

"Don't look at me so vigilantly, I want to kill you, you are already dead, and..." George Han paused, looked at the other Sandian people, and then continued: "And these wastes It's so sad that no one can escape, the once glorious apocalypse has fallen to the present level."

He Qingfeng's eyelids jumped, and George Han commented on Apocalypse in this way. Obviously he understood how powerful the Apocalypse was.

"You... are you really the one who survived the war a hundred years ago?" He Qingfeng asked incredulously.

Chapter 1485

He Qingfeng didn't believe what Yi Lao said before, because the story from Yi Lao's mouth was too ridiculous, and it was impossible for anyone to believe it easily.

But now, He Qingfeng's position has been shaken, because he has seen George Han's unique strength. Although it is only a small display, it also allows He Qingfeng to understand the power of George Han.

From George Han's ageless strength, coupled with Yi Lao's story, people have to doubt the authenticity of this story.

Because if this is not the case, how could George Han be so strong?

"Kneel down!" George Han suddenly said hard.

Everyone found it inexplicable, especially the people in Sandian, and some people even sneered.

He Qingfeng is the master of the three halls, why can he make the master of the three halls kneel down?

But in the next scene, even Yi Lao's eyes widened.

He Qingfeng knelt on his knees with a bang, without any sign!

"This....."

"How is this going."

"The Lord of the Three Halls actually knelt down for this little kid!"

Just when everyone sighed incomprehensibly, no one could understand how shock He Qingfeng's heart was.

Because just when George Han finished saying the words kneel down, He Qingfeng suddenly felt a strong pressure, like two mountains on his shoulders, forcing him to kneel on the ground, no matter how he resisted, it would be useless. .

At this moment, He Qingfeng was finally willing to believe that George Han was a strong man who had survived a hundred years ago, because this kind of strength, let alone the world, could not even have Apocalypse.

"What qualifications do you have to question me?" George Han said coldly.

He Qingfeng's head was full of cold sweat, and he had almost exhausted his strength before he could shake his head. As for talking, this was something he couldn't expect, because once the suffocated breath leaked out, he could only lie down. on the ground.

"Kneel here for a day. Without my order, you are not allowed to get up." After speaking, George Han turned and left.

When George Han walked away, the gravity on He Qingfeng finally disappeared, but despite this, he still did not dare to stand up, because George Han wanted him to kneel for a day, and he dared not lose every second.

“Hey.” Yi Lao walked to He Qingfeng and sighed and said, “Do you think I would make fun of these things? I have seen his strength a long time ago.”

“I am like this now, you are very happy to see it.” He Qingfeng gritted his teeth and said.

Elder Yi couldn't help but smile, and said, “If you say you are unhappy, it must be false, but this is your own responsibility, and you can't blame me.”

He Qingfeng took a deep breath. In some respects, he really asked for this matter.

But how can the words that Yi Lao said be easily convinced?

He Qingfeng would never believe this ridiculous story if he didn't really feel the strength of George Han.

“Kneel, you will be relieved in a day, but this matter, I am afraid the Apocalypse will be spread soon.” Yi Lao said.

He Qingfeng didn't want to lose face, but he couldn't easily change this matter.

Not kneel?

Then you have to wait for a new round of punishment from George Han, He Qingfeng has no guts to do so.

“Hall Master, he has gone far, get up quickly.”

“Yes, you are the Lord of the Three Halls, how can you keep kneeling.”

“Our three halls can't be reduced to a joke for those guys in the four sects.”

Several subordinates ran to He Qingfeng and said that the Four Gates and Three Halls have been disliked by each other over the years, and small conflicts erupt almost every day. He Qingfeng is the Lord of the Three Halls, and the story of his kneeling has been passed on. Arousing people to laugh, by the way, people in Sandian will definitely be ridiculed by the four.

But even so, how dare He Qingfeng get up?

Only he has felt the power of George Han, and only he knows how powerful George Han is.

If he didn't obey the order, he might not be able to save the life of the Lord of the Three Halls, he still cares about what shameless things are.

“Let’s go, I will kneel here for one day.” He Qingfeng said.

Several people showed surprised expressions. He Qingfeng would actually listen to a kid’s order. He wouldn’t really take the stories of Yi Lao seriously.

“Hall Master, how can this be done.”

“Yes, you are the lord of the palace, that little kid he...”

Before the person finished speaking, He Qingfeng turned his head and looked at it coldly, causing the person’s words to be taken back in his throat.

“In the future, don’t talk nonsense. Otherwise, I can’t save your lives. His strength, I am afraid that the entire Apocalypse powers combined will not be an opponent.” He Qingfeng said.

“Just now, I felt an immense force that almost overwhelmed me. Otherwise, why do you think I would kneel for no reason?” He Qingfeng continued to explain.

“Hall Master, you mean, what Yi Lao said is true.”

“This is too mysterious, people a hundred years ago are still a child!”

“I don’t know if it is true, but his strength is terribly strong!” He Qingfeng said solemnly.

Chapter 1486

Soon, the story of He Qingfeng’s kneeling spread to Tianqi, and Tianqi was shocked.

After all, he is the lord of the three halls and one of the two strongest people in the entire Apocalypse. Everyone is guessing the reason for his kneeling, until someone accidentally leaks and mentions something about George Han. Apocalypse is even more boiling.

In less than a day, almost everyone in Tianqi knew about the existence of George Han, and also knew that George Han was a strong man who survived the war a hundred years ago. So the discussion about George Han came to Tianqi. Absolutely, almost everyone is discussing this matter and enjoys it.

George Han didn’t care about this matter, after all, it was only spread in Apocalypse, and it would not have much impact on his identity in Cloud City.

After Yi Lao returned to the Simen, George Han gave Yi Lao a sacred chestnut. This old fellow also had a certain degree of appreciation for George Han before he was reborn, so George Han gave him a holy chestnut. Li, can be regarded as repaying him.

“What is this?” Yi Lao asked with a face full of puzzlement, holding Sheng Li. On the surface, it looked like a wild fruit with a bright red color.

Generally speaking, the better-looking wild fruit is, the more toxic it is, so Yi Lao dare not eat it casually before he knows what it is.

“Could it be that I would still harm you?” George Han asked back.

Yi Lao shook his head subconsciously. George Han had no grievances with him, so naturally it was impossible to harm him. Moreover, Yi Lao knew that if George Han wanted him to die, he would just do it, not at all. Need to do such a roundabout thing.

“Of course not, you want me to die, there is an easier way.” Yi Lao said.

George Han smiled and continued: “Then do you dare to eat?”

Hearing these words, Yi Lao threw Sheng Li into his mouth without hesitation, chewed it twice, and swallowed it.

“Eat it, it doesn’t taste much.” Yi Lao said.

“This is very toxic. I’ll give it to you. I just want you to recognize this thing. If you encounter it in the future, don’t eat it randomly. I didn’t expect you to eat so refreshingly. I didn’t even have a chance to stop it.” George said helplessly.

Very toxic!

Yi Lao’s expression froze instantly, and it was too late to vomit at this time.

“You...you are not kidding me.” Yi Lao asked with a sad face.

George Han shook his head, patted Yi Lao’s shoulder, and said, “When the poison comes on, even I can’t save you. You can’t blame me.”

At this moment, Yi Lao suddenly felt a heat flow of physical energy spreading in his stomach, and soon the heat flow had a burning sensation, which made Yi Lao’s expression even more flustered.

“Uncle Shane, the poison has broken out, please help me!” Yi Lao hurriedly asked George Han for help.

“Sit down and luck, this fruit is very poisonous, even I can’t help you, I can only ask for more blessings,” George Han said.

Yi Lao suddenly became desperate, regretting that he had acted too decisively. Otherwise, he would not suffer this fate!

After Yi Lao sat cross-legged and started to get lucky, George Han's mouth showed a sly smile.

In the early morning, the sky was just getting bright.

Elder Yi was still absorbing Sheng Li's power, and George Han had already left the four gates and went to Shimen.

There is Amelia Su's predecessor, Fuyao, and the ability to make Amelia Su stronger again. However, George Han did not intend to take away Fuyao's power this time. After all, Amelia Su is still young, and George Han is worried that she is not there yet. A fully developed body cannot accept the power of Fuyao.

Just standing in front of the stone gate, quietly waited until sunrise east.

Immediately, George Han went to the Forbidden Land of Apocalypse, which is where the time tunnel is located.

The time tunnel is usually garrisoned by the Ten Powers of Apocalypse, so when a stranger appeared here, George Han immediately aroused the high alert of the Ten Powers in the dark.

The task of the top ten powerhouses is to not allow anyone to approach this forbidden area except Yi Lao and He Qingfeng, so as to avoid the spread of things about the space-time tunnel and cause too much secular shock.

"Come out." George Han said faintly. He had already noticed the aura of the top ten masters hidden in the dark, and these ten people were very hostile to him. George Han didn't want to fight with them. After all, these can be regarded as the top powerhouses of Apocalypse, and they were injured, but they weakened the power of Apocalypse.

"Who are you?" One of them came out and met with George Han, while the others continued to wait for opportunities in the dark.

"I'm just here to take a look, don't be too nervous, as for my identity, Yi Lao will explain to you." George Han said.

The entire Apocalypse was discussing George Han, but the top ten powerhouses in the Forbidden Land were an exception, because only Yi Lao and He Qingfeng could appear here.

He Qingfeng was still kneeling, and Yi Lao was absorbing Sheng Li's power, so naturally he couldn't bring the news to the forbidden area.

"Look?" The man said with a cold face, "Do you know what this place is? Can you just look around?"

“Of course I know what this place is. For me, it’s just a deliberate revisit.” George Han said.

Revisit the old place?

These four words made the strong man couldn’t help but laugh. He has been responsible for guarding the ground for more than ten years, and George Han’s age seems to be just over a dozen years old. If he really came, then Just at a few years old, this is absolutely impossible.

In addition to Yi Lao and He Qingfeng, other people who want to know the secrets of the forbidden area can only become a strong man who protects the forbidden area. How can a little kid do this?

“Little friend, I advise you to leave as soon as possible. Otherwise, I can only be rude to you. Those who trespass into the forbidden land will kill you without mercy.” The man threatened.

George Han sighed. He just wanted to see the difference in the time-space tunnel after rebirth. He didn’t expect that he couldn’t do this without Yi Lao.

And George Han didn’t want to fight against them, after all, this was the biggest secret hidden by Apocalypse, and they would definitely fight to the death.

If they really fight, they must be injured.

“In this case, forget it, I don’t want to hurt you.” After George Han finished speaking, he turned to leave.

However, his words caused dissatisfaction from other powerful people in the dark.

I don’t want to hurt you.

Saying this from a little kid is equivalent to an insult to the top ten.

“Want to go?” The very strong appeared one after another, surrounding George Han Tuantuan.
