

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1507 - 1510

Chapter 1507

The old man said so much, in fact, he hopes that he can get the attention of George Han, and what he said is also a good suggestion for the construction of the new city, but he does not know that the new city is in George Han's eyes, but It's just a matter of killing time because of boredom, and George Han has never really taken care of this matter.

Even when the project first started, George Han had no interest in this matter.

But now, George Han told Amelia Su all the things, and Amelia Su even lived in the mountainside Villa, how could George Han waste time with Amelia Su doing these meaningless things?

Seeing George Han's attitude was very cold, the old man didn't know what to say for a while.

"The benefits of the Su family are enough. Are you still not satisfied?" George Han asked the old man. He knew why the old man said so much. Didn't he just hope that George Han could give the Su family even more Right?

But in George Han's view, the Su family had enough benefits in this matter, and the old man should know how to be satisfied because he had recovered a life.

"No, no, I didn't mean that." The old man explained to George Han in a panic.

"The Su family was originally a small business family, and I have given you enough benefits. If you try to rely on Amelia Su's unknowingly satisfying demands, I can only change the Su family back to what it used to be." George Han said.

These words shocked the old man into a cold sweat. He knew that if George Han could say these words, he would definitely be able to do this. If the Su family loses the support of the new city project, it will be for the Su family It was a devastating blow.

Because after getting the new city project cooperation, the Su family has already rejected all the partners of their own cooperation and devoted all their minds to the new city. If the cooperation of the new city is lost at this time, the Su family will have nothing. Cooperation.

"No, no, no, I didn't mean that, I blamed me for talking, George, you just treat me as if I didn't say anything." The old man regretted it and only hoped that George Han would take back those words.

Admitting a mistake to a child may feel astonished in the eyes of an unaware person, but for those who know the identity of George Han, this is a logical thing.

The adult world is divided only by status, not a world that relies on the old and sells the old.

Although the old man was much older than George Han, in terms of status, George Han surpassed him too much, which led to his attitude towards George Han.

“I don’t care about this matter today. I hope you can remember that the Su family has no right to dictate the construction of the new city. Do what you should do.” George Han said.

“Yes, yes, I know what to do.” The old man nodded repeatedly.

Amelia Su looked expressionless on the side, and did not say a word to the old man, because she had never been favored by the old man, so naturally she would not feel that she should be obliged to speak for him.

Of course, if Amelia Su is willing to speak, the situation of the old man will not be so embarrassing, but it is a pity that the old man has never put this granddaughter in his eyes, this is also a real life report.

Even if he had been a little bit nice to Amelia Su, Amelia Su might also help him say two good things.

After Wilson Su is busy in the kitchen, a large table of sumptuous dishes perfectly reflects Wilson Su’s cooking skills.

As the highest person in charge of the Su family company, no one would have thought that Wilson Su had this skill. Thanks to Lily Jiang, it would be impossible for Wilson Su to practice such a good cooking skill without Lily Jiang’s persecution.

“Three thousand, welcome the summer, come and eat while it’s hot.” Wilson Su greeted the two, even if his father was present, Wilson Su did not call him the father first.

Of course, the old man wouldn’t mind, he was a sensible person, and he didn’t dare to compete with George Han at this time.

Lily Jiang did not go to the table during the meal, because Wilson Su knew what had happened between her and George Han, so he warned Lily Jiang specifically to avoid George Han losing his appetite after seeing Lily Jiang.

“It can only be said to be okay.” George Han said without showing any face.

Wilson Su’s humble remarks were waiting to be praised by George Han. Who would have expected that George Han would be so upright, which made Wilson Su quite embarrassed.

“You should understand the craftsmanship of a family cooking husband. It must be very different from a hotel or a private restaurant.” Wilson Su said.

“I am here today to inform you of something.” George Han said.

Wilson Su has been waiting for this moment, because he knew that George Han could not come home for no reason, even the old man craned his neck unconsciously at this time.

“If you have anything, just talk about it.” Wilson Su said.

“From tomorrow, Amelia will not go to school, she will always live in the mountainside Villa.” George Han said.

Is it such a small thing!

Wilson Su was also worried and thought it was something wrong with the new city project, and George Han would come to the door to question him, which made Wilson Su relieved in an instant.

“It’s up to you to decide, as long as you are happy, you can do anything.” Wilson Su said.

It doesn’t matter to Wilson Su whether Amelia Su is in school or not, because as long as she marries George Han, she can be a Kuo wife. Compared to cultural people, this is not important. In today’s society, what can be more important than money?

“Dad, is it really okay?” Amelia Su asked weakly. She didn’t expect Wilson Su to agree so easily, completely beyond her expectation.

“Of course it is true, as long as you are happy, Dad will do everything by you.” Wilson Su said with a smile.

“Yeah, your happiness is more important than anything. If you don’t want to study, you don’t want to study. This is not a big deal.” The old man also said.

Amelia Su nodded repeatedly. She was worried that Wilson Su would refuse, but now it seems that those worries are unnecessary.

After dinner, George Han led Amelia Su out of Su’s house, and the two walked back to the mountainside Villa while shopping.

Lily Jiang took care of the mess after the dinner table. Her position in the Su family can only do these clutter things now, but she is not as high as before and bullying Wilson Su.

The current Lily Jiang was driven out of the Su family by Wilson Su for fear that he was not satisfied with what she had done.

Chapter 1508

The old man showed a helpless wry smile. The Su family’s current ambitions are indeed very large. They hope that through the relationship between Amelia Su and George Han, they can have more weight in the new city. Before the old man even thought this was a matter of course, but when After he felt George Han’s attitude, he no longer thought so.

Amelia Su does have a good relationship with George Han, and even the two will get married in the future, but what does this have to do with the Su family?

And because of Amelia Su, the Su family had enough. They wishfully thought that they should get more. In fact, what George Han said was not enough.

“He said we are not satisfied.” The old man said.

Wilson Su felt a little bit in his heart. Since George Han said that, he must have said more than this.

“What else did you say?” Wilson Su asked impatiently.

“If we can’t stop our greed, he will let the Su family lose everything we have now.” The old man said.

Wilson Su’s complexion has obviously turned paler. If he loses everything he has now, then the Su family is still a shit?

He is now the head of the supreme Su family company. The bosses of all companies in Basin City will sell him face, but if he loses his cooperation with Fengqian, who else will put him in the eyes?

Wilson Su, who finally had the status of today, didn’t want to fall again.

“Dad, in fact, what the Su family has now is pretty good.” Wilson Su said.

If it were before, the old man would definitely refute Wilson Su’s words, because as a businessman, if he had no ambitions, he would not be a qualified businessman.

But now, the old man doesn’t dare to have too many expectations. After all, George Han has already said very clearly. How can he dare to show his greed in front of George Han?

“Even if Amelia Su will marry him in the future, he will not treat us as a family, so we can’t expect him to bring more benefits to the Su family.” The old man said.

Wilson Su felt that there was something in the old man’s words, so he asked: “Dad, what should we do now?”

“Using the current status, try to develop more cooperation resources, use your own abilities to improve your status, you can’t just rely on him.” The old man said.

Wilson Su nodded. Since he couldn’t get more benefits from George Han, he could only work hard for himself.

On the way home, George Han and Amelia Su were chatting, and Amelia Su suddenly stopped.

George Han asked puzzledly: “What’s wrong?”

“Are you really stupid or pretending to be stupid?” Amelia Su asked rhetorically.

George Han was at a loss. He had just had a good conversation, but his conversation suddenly changed, and George Han didn’t think he was any silly.

“It’s quiet at night, you can’t even see a ghost, don’t you dare to hold my hand?” Amelia Su said.

George Han stood blankly on the spot.

He had never thought of this before, because in the past three years, he had full respect for Amelia Su. He would not do anything that Amelia Su would resist, so he was also used to keeping a certain distance from Amelia Su.

But since Amelia Su had already said these words, it was equivalent to George Han’s approval, and George Han immediately took Amelia Su’s hand.

“I’m not afraid that you will be disgusted. Although you will be my wife in the future, I am still worried that you don’t like me now.” George Han said with a smile.

“You’re so amazing, don’t you know what I think?” Amelia Su said disdainfully.

“Yes.” George Han said: “I can see through everyone’s mind, but doing so will cause some harm to the other person. I can do this for someone else, but you absolutely can’t.”

Amelia Su just said casually, unexpectedly George Han would give such an answer, which surprised Amelia Su very much.

“Of course, I can invade anyone’s consciousness.” George Han said.

“Will I have this ability in the future?” Amelia Su asked expectantly.

“Uh... if you have my level, it should be possible.” George Han said.

“Whose thoughts do you want to see, I can help you.” George Han said.

Amelia Su stared at George Han.

Only then did George Han realize that Amelia Su wanted to see himself.

“I have to see if you really love me so much.” Amelia Su said.

George Han’s expression gradually became serious. In this matter, he never joked. Although his marriage with Amelia Su was compelling, and Amelia Su after marriage also hated him for a period of time, but Amelia Su was in private. George Han has not forgotten what he said for him.

Chapter 1509

George Han’s expression is sincere, which means he will have something sincere to say to Amelia Su next.

But at this moment, something terrifying happened.

The emergence of a few small bastards broke the tranquility in the night.

The few people seemed to have drunk a lot of wine and walked swayingly.

When they discovered the little couple George Han and Amelia Su, they laughed and surrounded them.

“Children, don’t go home so late, and talk about love with your family behind your back. You are so courageous.”

“Little sister, if you don’t play with your brother for a while, your brother must be much better than your boyfriend.”

When meeting these rogues, Amelia Su would definitely be scared if she changed her job, but now she is very calm, because she knows that George Han can protect herself.

“Go away.” George Han said coldly.

“Little thing, do you know who we are?”

“A bunch of scumbags, do I still need to know who you are?” George Han said with disdain.

Little land ruffian?

They profess to be on the Tao, how can they be called a scumbag?

“Xiao Xie, your f*cking tone is so big, it seems that I won’t teach you a lesson, you don’t know who the brothers are.” After speaking, the man had to teach George Han.

In George Han’s eyes, this kind of person is not as good as an ant. Before he could get close to George Han’s body, he was kicked by George Han.

The few people were originally full of alcohol, but when their companions were kicked by George Han, they all woke up a little drunk.

No one had expected that such a kid could have such a great strength.

“Boy, you have a lot of strength, but do you know the consequences of hurting our people.”

“Stop talking nonsense, come on if you want to fight.” George Han said lightly.

Seeing that George Han was so powerful, several people couldn’t help but feel a little guilty.

He was so crazy, there must be a reason, and the person who was kicked just now seemed to have passed out, and there was no movement at all.

They have to judge whether they are George Han’s opponents, if they can’t beat them all together, they won’t lose their rice.

“Boy, do you know who we ganged up with?” someone said to George Han.

“Now that Mo Yang has abdicated, don’t you mean to say that your boss is the twelve swordsman?” George Han said with a smile.

The person who spoke was shocked, this kid was so aware of the things on the road, and he also knew the name of the twelve swords, is it possible that he was also a person on the road at a young age?

“He is my friend, is it weird I know him?” George Han said.

Friends of the twelve swords!

All of them showed expressions of astonishment.

Knife Twelve is a truly ruthless character, but everyone who has opinions on him has evaporated from the world. Although there is no concrete evidence, everyone on the road knows that those who have evaporated from the world must be dead. In the hands of Dao Twelve.

The murderous name of the Twelve Swords has been spread in Basin City, and no one is not afraid of this name.

These scumbags are just using the name of the sword twelve to fake their power. How can they expect to kick on the iron plate?

After a few people glanced at each other, something unexpected happened.

The one who ran away without turning his head back at all, the poor man who was kicked and passed out by George Han was directly abandoned by his companion.

Ran!

“Why are they running so fast?” Amelia Su asked in surprise.

George Han was also dumbfounded. He thought that these guys would not believe him and would compete with him. Who would have thought that one would be faster when running.

“I guess I was shocked by the name of the twelve swords,” George Han said.

Dao Twelve lived in the mountainside Villa. During this time, she has been very familiar with Amelia Su. In Amelia Su’s view, Dao Twelve is indeed a bit scary when it becomes serious, but most of the time, Dao Twelve is still approachable. Looks like.

What Amelia Su didn’t know was that Dao Twelve was approachable, just her unique treatment. To outsiders, Dao Twelve’s killer breath was enough to scare many people.

“I’m still going to see you show off.” Amelia Su was obviously a little bit disappointed.

“Or, I’ll go home and practice with Twelve Swordsman, so that you can get insights?” George Han suggested. As long as Amelia Su wants to meet the requirements, George Han will definitely find ways to satisfy him.

At the Mountainside Villa, Dao Twelve suddenly sneezed more than a dozen sneezes in succession. An unknown premonition was born in his heart, and his eyelids jumped.

“Under what circumstances, how can there be a feeling of danger.” Dao Twelve said to himself.

Chapter 1510

Apocalypse.

The appearance of Fei Lingsheng caused He Qingfeng’s great dissatisfaction, because after the kneeling incident before, He Qingfeng lost face in Tianqi, and even the people in the Sandian would talk to him in private, which made He Qing Feng was under tremendous pressure, and it was not until Yi Lao left that he suppressed the incident with his own tough methods.

Just as He Qingfeng was preparing to convince the people of Tianqi in a violent way, Fei Lingsheng appeared again, and He Qingfeng’s dissatisfaction with her caused Fei Lingsheng to give him a severe lesson.

He Qingfeng in this life has ill-fated and even a little pitiful. When Fei Lingsheng was beaten on the ground, he didn’t even know what was going on.

He used to be a strong man in the apocalypse, and even a god-like existence in the world.

But now, after experiencing the blow brought by George Han, and the blow of Fei Lingsheng, he began to doubt life.

Where do these guys come from? How could they be so amazing!

“With your strength, you are not my opponent at all. I advise you to give up the idea of blocking me, and the reason why I came here was also ordered by George Han.” Fei Lingsheng said to He Qingfeng.

After He Qingfeng heard the three words of George Han, he regretted it in his heart. If you knew this, how could he be able to play with Fei Ling vividly? That guy George Han was a perverted person with strength, and it was a hundred years ago. The strong who survived the war, if this woman were his subordinates, naturally she could not be a weak one.

He Qingfeng was embarrassed and got up from the ground with difficulty, barely squeezing a smile on his face, and said: "It turns out that it was sent by Uncle Shane. You said earlier, how could I stop you."

He Qingfeng knew that the matter of being beaten by Fei Lingsheng on the ground would definitely spread to the Apocalypse in a very short period of time, but he couldn't help it. The difference in strength caused him to admit it himself.

"In this case, you still won't make way for me." Fei Lingsheng said lightly.

He Qingfeng hurriedly made way for Fei Lingsheng, and ordered his assistants to go down, so that those who were stationed in the forbidden area should not conflict with Fei Lingsheng.

When Fei Lingsheng came to the forbidden area and saw the space tunnel, she had an impulse in her heart.

She is a member of Xuanyuan World after all, and the way home is in front of her at this moment, how could she not be moved.

But she also knows that this time is not when she can go back. If she wants to touch the divine realm, she must be guided by George Han, and she will have no chance for George Han to guide herself when she leaves. Up.

More importantly, Fei Lingsheng still had a kind of fear in her heart. She didn't know what was happening in the Xuanyuan world now. Such an unknown would make her feel an inexplicable fear.

"What happened, why did anyone come to earth?" Fei Lingsheng said to himself.

That night, Fei Lingsheng slept directly in the forbidden ground, because she wanted to know what happened in Xuanyuan World more urgently than George Han, and the only way to know this was to catch people from Xuanyuan World.

When Fei Lingsheng fell asleep, she came to a very real dream. The surrounding environment was thick with fog and visibility was very low.

Fei Lingsheng knew very clearly that she was dreaming at this moment, but no matter what she did, she couldn't wake up from the dream. This feeling made Fei Lingsheng feel that the dream seemed a little uncomfortable.

"Fei Lingsheng, you betrayed Xuanyuan World." At this moment, a very low voice suddenly rang in Fei Lingsheng's ears.

Fei Lingsheng panicked around for a week, and did not see the owner of the sound, he seemed to be hiding in the thick fog.

"Who are you?" Fei Lingsheng asked.

“Those who betray Xuanyuan World are not qualified to live.” The voice said again.

Fei Lingsheng is full of vigilance, ready to deal with emergencies that come at any time.

“Whether I am qualified to live or not is not something you can decide. You are sneaky and afraid to show up. You have the ability to speak out.” Fei Lingsheng said.

As soon as the voice fell, the dense fog gradually began to dissipate, and a place like a paradise appeared before Fei Lingsheng’s eyes.

There are green spaces, peach blossoms in full bloom, and streams, and there are even lively fishes in the streams, making Fei Lingsheng feel like he is in reality.

She knew that no matter how real the scene before her was, it was all in a dream.

Under the pavilion not far away, there is a man sitting, judging from the back, he should be very young.

“Who are you and why did you appear in my dreams?” Fei Lingsheng asked.

The young man stood up, turned his head, with a personable look, with a faint smile, and said: “This dream was created by me, why can’t I appear.”

Create dreams!

Fei Lingsheng was shocked.

As a strong person in the Extreme Master Realm, she also failed to possess this ability, but the person in front of her can do it, which fully shows that his strength is stronger than herself.

“Why do you want to create a dream, why do you want me to appear?” Fei Lingsheng asked.

“Because you have betrayed Xuanyuan World, so I want you to die.” The young man smiled and was not half murderous, but his words made Fei Lingsheng feel a strong threat.

“You can create dreams, but dreams are dreams after all. How can you kill people in dreams?” Fei Lingsheng said without believing in evil.

“If you don’t believe it, you can try it, but I have to warn you. After trying, there is no chance of regretting it,” the young man said.

Fei Lingsheng suddenly felt horrified, how could he easily try something that was life-critical? Wouldn’t it be inexplicable if he really died?

“Are you from Xuanyuan World?” Fei Lingsheng changed the subject and asked the young man.

“Yes, I will punish you instead of Xuanyuan World. You have betrayed the place where you were born and raised. You deserve a million deaths,” the young man said.

Fei Lingsheng shook her head subconsciously. In her heart, she had a great fear of this young man, so she didn’t want to be an enemy of him.

“I didn’t betray Xuanyuan World, and I don’t know how I came to Earth.” Fei Lingsheng said.

“But you stayed on the earth and didn’t return to Xuanyuan World. Isn’t this a betrayal?” the young man said.

Fei Lingsheng gritted his teeth. It was a dream anyway, and even if he told the truth, George Han couldn’t know it.

“The reason why I stay on the earth is because I hope George Han can help me reach the god realm, because in the entire Xuanyuan world, only he is a strong god realm, and only he can help me.” Fei Lingsheng said.

After hearing this, the young man suddenly laughed.
