

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1511 - 1514

Chapter 1511

Fei Ling looked at the young man incomprehensibly, wondering where his smile came from.

After the young man stopped smiling, he said to Fei Lingsheng, "Who told you that he is the only god-level powerhouse in Xuanyuan World."

After savoring these words carefully, Fei Lingsheng's eyes widened.

His meaning is very obvious, Xuanyuan World not only has George Han, a god-level powerhouse, but also other god-level powerhouses.

And this person is obviously him.

Because he can create dreams, which is beyond the ability of Fei Lingsheng.

Above the Supreme Master, isn't it the God Realm?

"You...you are also a strong god!" After Fei Lingsheng finished speaking, he suddenly shook his head and said, "Impossible, impossible, how could there be a strong god realm in Xuanyuan world."

"Why are you so sure?" the young man asked curiously.

"Because I know enough about Xuanyuan World." Fei Lingsheng said.

"Stupid waste, with your ability, how can you understand Xuanyuan World? Wouldn't you think Xuanyuan World is really what you see." The young man disdainfully said.

Fei Lingsheng questioned herself for the first time. She has lived for hundreds of years, and she has been to every place in Xuanyuan World. If this doesn't count as an understanding of Xuanyuan World, how can she be?

"You...you are a strong god in Xuanyuan World, but...but you, why can you stay in Xuanyuan World?" Fei Lingsheng asked. She thought this was a weakness of young people, because after reaching the expression, it will lead to the opening of the heavenly gate, which will cause him to fly to another high-level space, which cannot be rejected by human forces.

The reason why George Han could not ascend successfully at the beginning was because he had not reached the real god realm at all, and only existed in a false god realm.

“That’s why you don’t know my existence. I covered up my breath so that I can stay in Xuanyuan World.” The young man explained.

“Hehe.” Fei Lingsheng sneered, and said, “Do you really think I would believe it? With a higher level of space and a stronger realm breakthrough, how could you stay in Xuanyuan World?”

“Because I knew that George Han would ruin Xuanyuan’s world a long time ago, so I would wait for him. After his death, I can ascend without worries,” the young man said.

Will George Han ruin Xuanyuan World?

How could this be possible? He just wanted to kill Linlong now. This incident was a good thing for Xuanyuan World, how could it destroy Xuanyuan World?

Fei Lingsheng felt that the young man in front of him was full of lies.

And even if he is really a strong god, it is impossible to predict the future.

“Who on earth are you, appearing in my dream, what do you want to do?” Fei Lingsheng entered the subject. Since he created the dream and appeared in the dream again, he must have a purpose.

“I want you to help me, as long as George Han dies, I can tell you the way to reach the gods.” The young man said.

Fei Lingsheng frowned and said, “Do you want me to kill George Han? With my strength, it is impossible to be his opponent.”

“Of course I won’t let you take action.” The young man said with a smile, seeming to think that Fei Lingsheng is too high on himself, so he still has some disdain.

“What I ask you to do is to kill Amelia Su.” The young man said.

“Why?” Fei Ling asked incomprehensibly. Amelia Su is just an ordinary person now and will not pose any threat to Xuanyuan World at all. It can even be said that she is an innocent person. Her life and death have nothing to do with Xuanyuan World. .

Moreover, killing Amelia Su might arouse George Han’s anger and anger to the entire Xuanyuan World. Only then would it be a threat to Xuanyuan World.

“You don’t need to know why, as long as you can help me kill this woman, I can tell you the way to reach the gods.” The young man said.

The way to reach the gods!

For Fei Lingsheng, this is definitely a huge temptation, because her current goal is to reach the gods and ascend to another world.

but.....

Amelia Su was more important to George Han than this world. If Amelia Su died, Fei Lingsheng could hardly imagine what George Han would do.

And if it were her, George Han would definitely not let her go, even if it was chased by the ends of the world, Fei Lingsheng would die in George Han's hands sooner or later.

"Are you afraid of George Han's revenge? No need. After killing Amelia Su, you will return to Xuanyuan World. I can save your life." The young man continued.

Fei Lingsheng still didn't dare to easily agree, because this decision was a huge turn in her life. On the one hand, the gods and the powers of the gods were completely angered, which really made it difficult for her to choose.

At this moment, the dream suddenly disappeared.

When Fei Lingsheng opened his eyes, he had already returned to reality.

It was also at this moment that the dark forest of Xuanyuan World uttered a dragon chant, which resounded throughout the Xuanyuan World, making the world tremble.

Chapter 1512

After George Han took Amelia Su out of school, Amelia Su was completely free, and she no longer had to be constrained by her studies, which allowed Amelia Su to free herself.

George Han was happy to see Amelia Su. He didn't consciously become happy with it, and for Amelia Su now, studying is really of little use, because when Amelia Su starts to practice, it will be easier for her to learn certain aspects of knowledge.

After you become a real cultivator, it will not be too late to learn those things you are interested in.

"When will you teach me to practice?" Amelia Su asked George Han expectantly.

"As long as you want. No matter when you start." George Han said with a smile.

Amelia Su thought about it carefully, and said: "Or, give me another day off, starting tomorrow."

Amelia Su's eyes were rolling. George Han knew what she must have thought, and asked, "Then what do you want to do today?"

Amelia Su looked mysterious and said: "If you don't tell me, just follow me."

George Han didn't say much, until he was taken to the amusement park by Amelia Su, he smiled bitterly. With his current state of mind, he was really not interested in these things.

But since Amelia Su wants to play. Naturally, George Han will accompany him to the end.

Looking at the roller coaster, Amelia Su showed a look of wonder and fear, and said: "I wanted to play before, but I have never dared, you will protect me."

"I still have a more exciting gameplay, do you want to try it." George Han said. In his eyes, the roller coaster is not exciting at all. After all, George Han's own ability is now able to escape the sky. Flying, if this is to take Amelia Su to the sky and fly around. Isn't it more exciting than a roller coaster?

Amelia Su narrowed her mouth, and didn't ask George Han what is the more exciting gameplay. She has always wanted to try the roller coaster and is protected by George Han. I plan to give it a try today.

"Go, let's go to the line." Amelia Su pulled George Han into the crowd.

Roller coasters are generally very popular in amusement parks, and they waited for nearly an hour before their turn.

After warming up with the staff, the two got on a roller coaster.

It hasn't started yet. Amelia Su was already nervous, and she kept taking deep breaths to relieve herself.

In contrast, George Han. His expression was as usual, and there was no wave in his heart.

Although the roller coaster is exciting, it is really a pediatrics for people like George Han.

"Aren't you scared at all?" Amelia Su felt very inexplicable. Because the contrast between her nervousness and George Han's calmness is too sharp.

"Have you forgotten who I am?" George Han counted.

"Really boring." Amelia Su rolled her eyes.

In a short while, the roller coaster starts. Nervous Amelia Su squeezed her fists, and her face was already pale.

In fact, her courage is very small. If it weren't for George Han's company, Amelia Su would never be able to challenge this kind of stimulating thing in her life.

It's a pity that George Han brought her a sense of security. Can't let Amelia Su get rid of her fear.

When the roller coaster travels upwards and reaches the first dive slope. Amelia Su had closed her eyes, and the screams from her ear made her more nervous.

On the other hand, George Han admired the nearby scenery indifferently. Suddenly among the crowd, George Han found that someone was staring at him, but when he looked at it with feeling, he couldn't find any target. , This makes George Han feel very strange.

The vision of ordinary people. It is impossible for him to feel that way.

Right now, George Han covered the entire amusement park with his spiritual consciousness, but no one was a cultivator.

suddenly. The dive of the roller coaster began, and the screams in the ears became stronger. But George Han had a vague premonition.

It stands to reason that he now possesses the strength of a powerhouse in the god realm, and he would never have this feeling on earth.

At this time, George Han suddenly heard a crisp sound, and the track in front of him broke apart!

The tourists who were being hit by the huge stimulus didn't realize this, but George Han actually saw it.

Generally speaking, the facilities of amusement parks, especially such stimulating projects, are tested and inspected every day. The probability of such a major accident is very low, let alone such a serious track break.

George Han felt for the first time that this was done deliberately, and this person was probably the one who was staring at him just now.

However, the divine consciousness covered by George Han couldn't sense his existence at all, what was going on.

The roller coaster was about to drive to the place where the track broke, and George Han had to temporarily put the problem down and used his own ability to make the roller coaster pass the place where the track broke without incident, avoiding tragedy.

No one knows that they have just experienced a moment of life and death, and it was not until the roller coaster was complete that the tourists recovered from the huge impact.

And George Han walked towards the staff for the first time.

Chapter 1513

After walking to the staff, George Han said directly: "This project can't be continued, the track has been broken, and it must be overhauled." The staff rolled his eyes and couldn't help cursing. Said: "Insane." The reason why he scolded like this was because the staff felt that George Han was deliberately looking for something and the project was running well, so how could the track be suddenly disconnected.

And if a kid is a kid, the staff subconsciously treats it as a prank.

"Can you be responsible for the loss of life?" George Han continued. Although these tourists have never known him, even if these people die, they have nothing to do with George Han, but since he knows this matter, he will Can't let this tragedy happen in front of me.

"You are really sick, you are going to kill you, why didn't you die just now." The staff member said impatiently.

"If you don't check, all the people in the next car will die. Can you bear the consequences?" George Han continued.

"You go quickly, don't make trouble, otherwise, I'll call the security guard." The staff apparently lost patience and pushed George Han, trying to push George Han away.

But George Han stood in place as steady as Mount Tai, but the staff was almost knocked down by the force of the counter-shock.

At this time, Amelia Su came to George Han and asked, "What's wrong, let's play the next project."

Although the staff was still shocked by the force, but after hearing Amelia Su's words, So he said quickly: "Take your boyfriend away, he is crazy."

"You are crazy." Amelia Su didn't know what happened, but he heard that the staff dared to scold George Han. He turned back.

Seeing Amelia Su protecting himself, George Han couldn't help being happy.

"The track is disconnected. If this project continues to run, there will definitely be a major accident, so I asked them to overhaul it." George Han said to Amelia Su.

Broken track?

Amelia Su froze for a moment. If the track were really broken, how could they be all right?

Leaning in George Han's ear, Amelia Su whispered: "You are not mistaken, aren't we coming down peacefully?"

"Without me, this car guy would have already died." George Han said.

Amelia Su still believed in George Han's abilities. After all, he was already called a god by another world, and what he said should be true.

And Amelia Su couldn't think of George Han's possibility of picking things up for no reason.

"Your leader, you'd better report this matter to check the possibility of eliminating the accident. If there is an accident, you will not be responsible." Amelia Su said to the staff.

"Two neuroses, if you don't leave, I will really call the security guard." At this time, the waiting tourists became impatient.

"What it, and quickly open ah."

"Yes ah, there are so many people line up then, what is grinding grumble, do you want to deliberately delay it?"

"But we bought a ticket, you believe it or not complaints."

Many tourists began to stir, the staff had pointed to South Korea three thousand, exclaimed: "this guy says off the track, we want to check, but for his prank playing for time here, already opened," remarks one, The anger of those tourists looked at George Han instantly.

"Crazy, you sat well just now, why did you end, the track was disconnected."

"You don't want to make an excuse to play again."

"Shabi, get out, otherwise, I won't treat you You're welcome."

Some people yelled at George Han and threatened George Han to get out.

Amelia Su quietly tugged at George Han's clothes and said: "Otherwise, let's go, these people don't believe you at all."

George Han can leave and let these guys taste the consequences of ignorance. .

But such consequences are too serious for them, and it is impossible for George Han to watch so many lives die in front of him.

“The overhaul will not take too long, but if there is an accident, you will all die. If you are not afraid, just try it.” George Han said.

As soon as George Han said this, some people began to hesitate. Riding on a roller coaster was an excitement-seeking ride, but it was definitely not a game of life.

“Or, let’s check it. If we say this, we are not at ease.”

“I think it can. It’s better to waste a little time than to have an accident.”

“Hey, how did the lock unlock? , Quickly help me open it.” The more clamored people just now, the more they are now showing their scared side, thinking that it is really possible to die, all his faces changed.

The staff was also expecting the tourists to directly scold George Han away, but unexpectedly the situation would suddenly become like this. There was no alternative but to consult the leader.

The relevant person in charge arrived soon, with a great temper, and directly scolded the staff.

Then he looked at George Han and said, “Boy, you gotta f*ck me quickly, do you know how much damage it caused to the playground? Do you know what this track is made of? How could it be easily broken.”

George Han knows that these exciting amusement equipment production processes are very cautious, and there is no possibility of accidents in general.

However, the disconnection of the track is very unusual, but someone deliberately did it.

“After you send someone to check, you will thank me.” George Han said lightly.

“Hurry up and send someone to check it. Don’t waste time.”

“Yeah, if there is no problem, we can play with peace of mind.”

“In this situation, who would dare to sit.”

Some tourists followed suit for their peace of mind. Booing.

Seeing that the situation is no longer under his control, the leader can only ask the security officer to check it. He knows that if these tourists are not assured, the project may only be temporarily closed.

“Little boy, if there is no problem, I will be held by you at the police station today.” The leader gritted his teeth and said to George Han. He believed that this unnecessary trouble was caused by George Han, so he must give Han Three thousand is enough punishment.

“If it is really disconnected, you have to thank him well.” Amelia Su said.

The leader sneered. In his opinion, this situation is absolutely impossible, so how could he have the opportunity to thank George Han?

After a while, the leader’s walkie-talkie suddenly heard the rapid breathing of the security officer, saying: “Manager, something has happened, and the track is disconnected!”

Chapter 1514

Hearing these words, the manager was stunned. Those tourists who had been on the roller coaster just now felt a cold sweat behind them.

The track is broken!

If you operate the equipment in this situation, the consequences can be imagined.

For those tourists, they have completely recovered their lives, but even so, some people have frightened their legs.

“How is it possible!” The manager wiped a cold sweat from his forehead and said: “Look carefully, if you are dazzled, how could the track be broken.”

The security officer was obviously also very scared. He gasped very badly when he spoke and said, “I did not read it wrong, it is really broken, and the roller coaster equipment must be shut down immediately.”

The manager swallowed. If this is the case, the consequences can be imagined, and he, as a manager, will inevitably bear huge responsibilities. It is very likely that this will be the end of his life.

“Okay, I will notify the park immediately.” The manager said.

“Humph.” Amelia Su snorted coldly and said: “How about it, now you are willing to believe us.”

The manager nodded again and again, and said to George Han with a grateful look: “Little brother, thank you so much. If it weren’t for you, something big would happen today.”

George Han didn't think of anything in return for doing this, and thanking him didn't make any sense. He just didn't want to see these innocent people die.

And to some extent, he caused the consequences of the track break. If these tourists died accidentally, George Han could be regarded as the person who killed them indirectly.

After all, that person came for George Han.

"I don't need your thanks." George Han said lightly.

The manager was a little embarrassed. His attitude just now wanted to choke George Han to death, but now, he could only be grateful to George Han, but George Han obviously did not accept it.

"Little brother, thank you, you saved our life."

"If it weren't for you, we would probably have died here today."

"Thank you, thank you."

Those who were glaring at George Han just now expressed their gratitude to George Han.

George Han took Amelia Su's hand and left the crowd.

"Those people are still thanking you, why are you walking in such a hurry?" Amelia Su asked George Han in a puzzled manner. In her opinion, if George Han became a hero, he should be grateful to those people. How could it be so? I'm leaving soon.

"This matter started because of me. If they die, I will take the main responsibility, so I don't need them to thank them." George Han said lightly.

"Because of you?" Amelia Su looked at George Han suspiciously, and the track was disconnected. This was the playground's responsibility. How could it be related to George Han?

"Remember the person I mentioned to you before, from Xuanyuan World." George Han said.

George Han told Amelia Su all the things, including the incident that Yi Lao was injured.

Amelia Su nodded, thinking that the track was broken. Could it be related to that person, but didn't George Han say that he had left the summer and went abroad?

"Remember, but didn't you say that he went abroad?" Amelia Su asked puzzledly.

The reason why George Han thinks so is because he didn't feel the breath of that person when his divine consciousness covered the entire summer, so he thought so subconsciously.

But now it seems that George Han is still too self-confident. The person is obviously still in the hot summer and is by his side. It's just that he used some means to cover up his breath, which made George Han not feel it. His existence.

On this point, George Han is also very strange.

After all, he is now a strong man in the gods, and it is impossible for ordinary people to conceal his aura. Even a strong man like Fei Lingsheng can't do it, so he is very surprised how the person can do this. of.

"I was wrong, he is right by our side, but I haven't found him yet." George Han said.

Around!

Amelia Su subconsciously squeezed George Han's hand. Wouldn't it be very dangerous if such a dangerous person was by their side!

"You didn't mean to scare me, did you?" Amelia Su looked around and looked around, her eyes clearly showing fear.

"It's better to go home first." George Han said, and continue to play, without specifying what else will happen, so in George Han's opinion, going home is the best choice, and it won't hurt those innocents. People.

Although Amelia Su still had a lot of intentions, in this case, she was not willful, and said, "Let's go, I don't dare to play anymore."

George Han felt a little heavy, because he knew that the other party was right next to him, but he could not find that person. This invisibly increased the danger to the people around him, and he was able to completely conceal his breath. It means that as long as he doesn't take the initiative to show up, George Han will never be able to find him. This is the biggest trouble.

Let a bomb that can explode at any time stay by your side, and it can't be eliminated, how can you feel at ease?
