

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1547 - 1550

Chapter 1547

Xuanyuan World!

To Han Tianyang, it was strange and extremely shocked.

He had never thought that there should be a second world in this universe.

Han Tianyang kept breathing deeply. Use this to calm your emotions.

He knew that the reason why George Han told himself so much was because he had a certain weight in George Han's heart. Otherwise, he didn't need to make a special trip to Hillwood City.

"Is it dangerous?" Han Tianyang asked.

"En, it's very dangerous." Xuanyuan World is not dangerous for George Han. It's just that his final destination is Bafang World, and Bafang World is not a safe place for George Han.

"Then you be careful. If you have a chance, come back and see me again." Han Tianyang said.

He didn't ask George Han to take him to Xuanyuan World, because Han Tianyang knew that it was a dangerous place for George Han, so when he went, it was only a hindrance to George Han.

George Han had suffered enough humiliation in the Han family since he was a child, and Han Tianyang didn't want to cause him trouble because of himself.

"This parting, I don't know if I have a chance to come back." George Han told the truth. He didn't say anything to relieve Han Tianyang.

"Hey." Han Tianyang sighed and said, "I thought you could inherit the Han family's business in the future and carry forward the Han family. Now it seems that the Han family will fall into your brother's hands sooner or later."

This is something Han Tianyang disagrees with, because Han Jun is a real waste in his eyes, but now in this situation, Han Tianyang has no other choice, after all, there is no George Han. Han Jun also became the only heir.

George Han doesn't care about such trivial matters. What Han Jun can get has nothing to do with him. Moreover, everything on the earth has long been meaningless to George Han, and it doesn't make much difference to anyone.

“Grandpa, this is for you.” George Han took out a sacred chestnut. Although he didn’t plan to leave with Han Tianyang, he also hoped to allow Han Tianyang to live longer.

With the power of Sheng Li. Han Tianyang’s body will become tougher and life span will increase a lot.

If it is said that he can realize some practice methods by himself. Living a hundred years is not a big problem.

“What is this?” Han Tianyang questioned.

“Eating it will protect you from all diseases and prolong your life.” George Han said.

“In this world, there really are such things?” Han Tianyang asked in surprise.

“It doesn’t belong to the earth. It’s just because it has grown a little on the earth for some reason.” George Han explained.

After Han Tianyang took over Sheng Li. Put it in your mouth, without chewing at all, Sheng Li melted into a heater, instantly reaching all parts of Han Tianyang’s body.

“It’s so warm.” Han Tian couldn’t help but said.

“Grandpa. Nothing else, I have to go.” George Han said.

Parting will eventually happen. Han Tianyang knew that although he could allow George Han to stay at home for two more days, it would not make any sense. On the contrary, it would delay George Han’s business.

“Go, be careful, if you have a chance, remember to come back and take a look at home.” Han Tianyang said.

When he was about to leave the Han family compound, George Han found that someone was staring at him in secret, but that person was not hostile.

“Mom?” George Han shouted.

Mary walked out from the dark. The expression was obviously a little bleak, and he said, “You just came back. Are you leaving? How many years have passed since. Don’t stay at home for a while?”

Although there is no big gap between Mary and George Han, Mary still dare not intervene in George Han’s life casually.

She knows the Fengqian commercial building project in Basin City, and also knows that George Han must be so busy now that he has no time to stay in Hillwood City, but George Han is after all her own bones, without the oppression of Nangong Qianqiu.

Mary's attitude towards George Han has gradually changed a lot, and she will also start to feel sorry for George Han.

"There are still many things that I need to deal with. I am coming back this time, but I have something to tell Grandpa." George Han said.

"Is there something wrong with the company, is your grandfather willing to help?" Mary knew that George Han was a man and had a tough personality. If he was not a last resort, he would never ask others.

But this time when I returned to Hillwood City, it was very likely that he had encountered a very big trouble, and he was forced to seek help from Han Tianyang.

"Mom, there is no problem with my company, nor is it to go home to find grandpa for help, don't worry, no one can cause trouble to me now." George Han said with a smile.

"At a young age, how do you learn to brag? This is all because of someone bad." Mary frowned.

"Yeah, why don't you learn well? I just learned to brag, George Han, do you have any other real skills." A yin and yang voice sounded, only Han Jun came out, and Nangong Qianqiu followed.

"Jun Han, the Han Family will be handed over to you from now on. I have agreed with Grandpa. I advise you not to trouble me and let me change my mind." George Han said coldly.

Chapter 1548

This made Han Jun a little unexpected. He had always regarded George Han as an enemy vying for family power, but now George Han told him that the Han family would be in the future. He will inherit.

How is this possible!

How could he let the power of the Han family go and make him cheaper?

The corner of Han Jun's mouth raised a disdainful smile. He knew that this must be George Han's unkind trap.

"You really think I'm a fool, would you give away the power of the family?" Han Jun said with disdain.

"Family power?" George Han sneered at these four words and said: "Is it really a power? In my eyes. It is nothing."

“Pretending to be nonchalant, is it thinking how to push me out of the Han family and kill my competitor, George Han. Your snack machine is really inferior. You don’t really think I will be fooled?” Han Jun said.

Nangong Qianqiu is also full of coldness. She does not believe what George Han said. Although George Han does have a good development in Basin City, how does Basin City compare with Hillwood City’s super first-tier cities? He is in Basin City. The property is not as valuable as the Han family’s compound. How could he give up the rights of the Han family?

“Han Jun. I have never put you in my eyes, let alone use this time-wasting method against you, but I also want to warn you, if you are unable to maintain the Han family and the three major families Relationship, then even if the Han family falls into your hands, it will fall.” George Han said.

The attitudes of the three major families towards the Han family were all changed because of George Han. Even if Han Jun did not intend to admit this, he knew it was an unchangeable fact, and George Han’s words caught his ears. Naturally it has changed.

“George Han, don’t you want to destroy the relationship between the Han family and the three big families. Does grandpa know about this kind of harm to others?” Han Jun knew that his position could not suppress George Han. So I had to move out of Han Tianyang.

“I said, I don’t have time to deal with your waste, and I don’t bother to do this kind of thing.” George Han said.

When Han Jun heard this, his expression instantly became gloomy.

He is the only one who scolds George Han for waste. When is it his turn to scold him?

“Trash? You are trash, the real trash. From small to large, you have been a trash in my eyes. Are you stumped without knowing it?” Han Jun gritted his teeth.

With the protection of Nangong Qianqiu, Han Jun has the status of a real young master in the Han family. Therefore, it is reasonable for Han Jun to treat George Han as rubbish.

But the current George Han is no longer the previously oppressed George Han.

“A person who doesn’t even have the most basic ability to take care of himself. He is even qualified to say that others are trash?” At this time, Han Tianyang’s cold voice sounded.

Knowing George Han’s abilities just now, Han Tianyang also understood the power of George Han even more, in front of George Han. Han Jun is not even as good as an ant, so what right does he have to compete with George Han?

When I saw Han Tianyang. Han Jun immediately persuaded, Nangong Qianqiu also lowered his head, not daring to look at Han Tianyang.

The two of them were married because of their interests, and Nangong Qianqiu didn't dare to be willful in front of Han Tianyang.

"Grandpa." Han Jun lowered his head and shouted.

Han Tianyang walked to Han Jun and slapped Han Jun's face heavily.

For unknown reasons, Han Jun did not dare to breathe.

"Apologize to him." Han Tianyang scolded coldly.

"Why?" Han Jun asked unconvincedly, apologizing to George Han. Is this a joke?

Han Tianyang slapped Han Jun on the face again and said, "Apologize."

"I....."

Han Jun who hasn't finished speaking. Slapped a third slap.

There was pain on his face and it was obviously swollen.

Nangong Qianqiu felt distressed in his eyes. But he dared not persuade.

Han Jun knew that at this time, apart from saying sorry, no matter what he said, he would be beaten.

Before Han Tianyang's powerful anger scene, Han Jun could only compromise temporarily and said to George Han, "I'm sorry."

George Han didn't care. A person who was not in his eyes had nothing to do with him no matter what he said or did.

And he will leave the earth soon, these little things are not worthy of George Han's concern.

"Grandpa, I'm leaving." George Han said.

"Don't worry." Han Tianyang finished speaking, then turned to look at Han Jun.

An ominous premonition was born in Han Jun's heart. Isn't it enough to have already apologized?

"Kneel down." Han Tianyang said.

There was a thud in Han Jun's head.

Saying the three words I'm sorry is already his bottom line. He didn't expect Han Tianyang to actually want him to kneel to George Han!

"And you." Han Tianyang looked at Nangong Qianqiu and continued.

This time, not only Han Jun was blinded, but even Mary on the side was blinded.

Although Qianqiu didn't treat George Han as his grandson since he was a child, he was also George Han's elders. How could Nangong Qianqiu kneel down for George Han?

Chapter 1549

Nangong Qianqiu's face was pale, and she asked Han Jun to kneel down to George Han. She was already unacceptable in her heart, and even could not help but want to say a few good things to Han Jun, so that Han Tianyang should not do such excessive things, but let Nangong What he never expected was that Han Tianyang not only asked Han Jun to kneel down, but she still had her!

"Are you crazy? Asking me to kneel to him, can he bear it?" Nangong Qianqiu gritted his teeth.

Han Tianyang walked to Nangong Qianqiu with a cold face, and Nangong Qianqiu subconsciously took two steps back. After all, she just saw Han Jun being slapped just now.

"What are you afraid of?" Han Tianyang asked.

"I...I'm not afraid." Nangong Qianqiu said.

"Since childhood, you didn't fulfill your obligations and didn't take good care of him. Isn't it your fault to be stumped?" Han Tianyang said, although the debt to George Han could not be recovered, but Nangong Qianqiu admitted A mistake will eventually make George Han feel better, so he will do this.

Nangong Qianqiu smiled coldly and said, "I didn't take care of him, do I need to kneel for him?"

"You filled his childhood with nightmares and shadows. This is the price you should pay." Han Tianyang said firmly.

Nangong Qianqiu's temper also came up.

In her heart, George Han has always been a useless, although she has indeed made some contributions to the Han family, but it is not to the point where she needs to admit her mistakes, and this way of admitting mistakes is not her. Acceptable.

“That is his own uselessness, what does it have to do with me.” Nangong Qianqiu gritted his teeth and said.

When Han Tianyang heard this, he was instantly angry, two steps forward, and his upward hand waved down heavily.

Snapped!

A loud slap in the face made Nangong Qianqiu almost dizzy.

Seeing this scene, Mary constantly winked at George Han, hoping that George Han could say a few words to stop this incident, because Han Tianyang’s anger was only extinguished by George Han.

But George Han stood there unmoved. Although he had already seen what happened before, it was good for Nangong Qianqiu to learn a lesson.

“George, stop your grandfather.” Seeing that her wink didn’t work, Mary walked to George Han helplessly and reminded softly.

“What to stop, why stop?” George Han said lightly.

“It’s so hard that you really want grandma to kneel for you?” Mary said. With this kind of generation issue, Mary is really afraid that George Han will be struck by lightning.

“Grandma? Did I have it?” George Han smiled contemptuously. Although he had seen the past, it didn’t mean that he didn’t care about calling Nangong Qianqiu.

In George Han’s heart, he had long stopped treating Nangong Qianqiu as a grandmother. This was a stranger, a stranger without feelings.

Mary’s face was a bit ugly. If George Han didn’t intend to stop him, no one would be able to stop the situation from continuing to worsen.

“Even if you don’t admit it, her blood is still flowing on your body. If she kneels for you, you will be struck by lightning.” Mary said.

George Han smiled slightly when facing the four words “Tian Da Lei Pi”. To him who had suffered from thunder a long time ago, what did Tian Da Lei Pi count?

At this time, Han Tianyang found Mary and Xi Mu, turned his head coldly, and said to Mary, “Go away.”

Mary shuddered involuntarily. The killing intent in Han Tianyang’s eyes made her retreat instantly. Although she didn’t want to see Nangong Qianqiu kneeling down, she didn’t want to be recorded in Han Tianyang’s heart.

“I’ll give you one last chance.” Han Tianyang said to Nangong Qianqiu.

Nangong Qianqiu's expression was firm and his attitude was tough, and said, "Han Tianyang, don't forget, I am a member of the Nangong family after all. Even if I'm just a tool person, I'm also from Nangong. Let me kneel down. Have you ever thought as a result of."

If changed, these words would still have a certain deterrent for Han Tianyang. Although Nangong Qianqiu is indeed a tool person, her backstage is after all the Nangong family, the world's top figure Nangong Boring.

But now, Han Tianyang has no fear about the four words of Nangong Boring, because he was just a subordinate in front of George Han. Without George Han, Nangong Boring might have died long ago. In the rain of bullets.

"Nangong Boring is a beaming clown to my Han family." Han Tianyang said coldly.

"Haha, hahahahaha." Nangong Qianqiu suddenly laughed. To her, this is basically an international joke. Nangong Boring is a clown, so what is the little Han family?

"Han Tianyang, you are so courageous, you dare to say that Nangong Boring is a beaming clown, I will definitely pass this incident back to the Nangong family." Nangong Qianqiu looked at Han Tianyang viciously, she was no longer afraid of breaking up with Han Tianyang.

"no need."

At this time, an outsider's voice sounded in the Han family compound.

When everyone follows the prestige.

George Han's expression was full of puzzlement.

Han Tianyang was obviously stunned.

As for Nangong Qianqiu, he was almost happy to laugh out loud.

Because the people here are the Nangong Boring they are talking about.

George Han didn't quite understand why Nangong Boring suddenly appeared in Han's house. How could this guy come out because he didn't hide well on his island.

"Patriarch, did you hear what Han Tianyang said just now?" Nangong Qianqiu hurriedly walked to Nangong Boring, she is very excited now, because Nangong Boring appeared to her, not only can teach Han Tianyang a lesson, It can also make George Han pay the price.

"I heard it." Nangong Boring said lightly.

“Patriarch, he is so disrespectful to you, it really deserves death.” Nangong Qianqiu said, stirring up trouble.

Nangong Bo Ling smiled slightly, Han Tianyang deserves a million death? He didn't even dare to have any thoughts in this regard, because he knew that if George Han wanted him to die, it would be useless even for Daluo Jinxian to live.

And let Nangong Boring kneel to George Han, isn't this even more a matter of course?

“You deserve a million to die? I think you are the one who caused such serious harm to your grandson. Is it so difficult that you should not pay the price?” Nangong Boring said.

As soon as these words came out, Nangong Qianqiu was instantly confused.

She thought that Nangong Boring's appearance was her helper, but seeing what Nangong Boring meant by saying this, she also wanted her to kneel down and apologize to George Han. What happened?

“Patriarch, you...what do you mean?” Nangong Qianqiu asked puzzledly.

“Kneel down and apologize, is it simple and straightforward enough?”

Chapter 1550

When Nangong Boring said these words, Han Tianyang knew how much he was in awe of George Han, and because of this awe, he made Nangong Qianqiu kneel down.

At this time, Han Tianyang had a kind of delightful refreshment. After all, he had been used as a puppet by Nangong Boring for many years, and now he can finally turn over, and there is no need to worry about the Nangong family threatening the Han family in the future.

As for Nangong Qianqiu, she can't think about it at all. She doesn't understand why Nangong Boring wanted her to kneel down and apologize to George Han. Doesn't he avoid embarrassing the Nangong family? After all, the word Nangong is also hung on her name.

Mary was on the side, completely speechless, the appearance of Nangong Boring couldn't help but not resolve the matter, but instead brought it to an irreversible extreme.

Mary couldn't understand why Nangong Boring did this.

“Don't you understand me?” Nangong Boring saw that Nangong Qianqiu hadn't moved at all, and his tone had dropped to freezing point.

Nangong Qianqiu shuddered involuntarily. Facing Nangong Boring, she did not dare to neglect, because she had known how ruthless this person was since she was a child.

Nangong Boring was able to sit on her own as the Patriarch, but she managed to kill herself. Brothers.

If you don't follow his words, Nangong Qianqiu doesn't know what kind of fate will bring him.

Before Nangong Bo Ling was really angry, Nangong Qianqiu could only kneel down!

When Han Jun saw this scene, his legs suddenly became weak inexplicably, because Nangong Qianqiu has always been his strongest protective umbrella, but now the umbrella is kneeling, proving that Nangong Qianqiu has lost the ability to protect him.

Seeing Nangong Qianqiu kneeling down, Nangong Boring walked up to George Han and said, "If you have any requests, you can just ask them."

"Do you think I care about her?" George Han said lightly.

Nangong Boling shook his head and said, "With your status, naturally you don't need to care about such a small character."

Nangong Qianqiu is indeed a small character, but when she felt Nangong Boring's attitude towards George Han, she felt very surprised. The patriarch of the dignified Nangong family didn't even have the slightest prestige in front of George Han. People have a feeling of serving George Han carefully, what's going on!

Could it be that even Nangong Boring would be afraid of George Han?

How can this be!

"You came to Hillwood City, are you looking for me?" George Han asked.

Recently, Nangong Boring had a faint feeling. He felt that if he didn't come to George Han, he would never have the chance to see George Han again. That's why he came to his door boldly and presumptuously, fearing that he would miss his chance to go to Tianqi. .

For Nangong Boring, Apocalypse is his lifelong obsession, and by his age, rights and social status are no longer important. What he wants more is to be able to live for a hundred years, and this, Only George Han and Tianqi can help him do it.

"Sorry, please forgive me for being uninvited." Nangong Bo Ling said with his head buried, not caring that there were others present.

Nangong Qianqiu's eyes were blank, as if she had lost her soul.

Although she had guessed in her heart that Nangong Boring was afraid of George Han, this was only a guess, and Nangong Qianqiu didn't believe it at all.

But when Nangong Bo Ling uttered the three words I'm sorry, Nangong Qianqiu knew that everything she had guessed before was correct, but she couldn't understand how George Han, a trash, did it. !

"It's hard to forget, will I go to the Nangong family again, or do you fear that I won't go?" George Han said lightly. The Nangong family still has the stone monument. This is what George Han will definitely do. Take away.

Nangong Boring was indeed afraid of this happening, because after he saw the power of George Han, he didn't think the stone tablet was so important to George Han, so he couldn't rely on this to be able to feel at ease. Waiting for George Han in the Nangong family.

"I shouldn't doubt you, but I'm worried that you won't remember such trivial things." Nangong Boring did not dare to look up, because he knew this was an act of disrespect to George Han.

George Han smiled coldly and said, "Nangong Boring, you are so courageous, you dare to doubt me."

"Don't dare." Nangong Bo Ling said with a tremor.

"Even if I really don't go, what's the use if you find me?" George Han said.

Nangong Boring had never thought about this issue, nor dared to think about it.

"No matter what, for me, I have to see you. As for the consequences, I never thought about it." Nangong Boring said.

This guy is really not afraid of death, but he doesn't want to let himself die by doing this.

"I'm going back to Basin City, you are waiting for me in Hillwood City." George Han said.

When Nangong Boring heard these words, he finally let go and said, "If you have any instructions, please speak up."

George Han didn't say a word, and left the Han family compound. For him, what else can't be done by himself?
