

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1567 - 1570

Chapter 1567

Three days before the grandfather of the Su family.

Since the status of the Su family in Basin City is completely different now, and the old man has naturally become the target of the previous Su family, countless people want to take this opportunity to curry favor with the old man.

So from three days before the birthday, someone had come to give gifts, almost stepping on the threshold of the Su family's gate, and this was a grand occasion that the Su family had never had before.

The smile on the old man's face was almost stiff. For most of the day today, he showed more smiles than in previous years, enough to show how happy the old man is.

Moreover, this is still before the birthday. He knows that there are many great gifts that those business families will give on the birthday. This just thinks about it and makes the old man feel that it is a good thing.

He had never dared to think that he could have such a powerful influence before. After his birthday, the entire business community of Cloud City was sensationalized by him, and not only that, even several large families in outer cities sent special persons to give gifts. Such a high status almost makes the old man think it is like a dream.

But he knew that all of this was true. Although it had nothing to do with his ability, it was indeed the glory of the Su family.

Seeing that the old man was happy today, the old lady made a pot of tea and walked to her side.

"It's been many years since I saw you so happy." The old lady said with a smile.

The corners of the old man's raised mouth couldn't be concealed at all, and he said, "How can I be unhappy? I'm cured, and the development of the Su family is even more promising. Can you imagine my Su family will have the status it is today?"

This is indeed not what the old lady can imagine. The former Su family was nothing but a small transparency for the Basin City business community, and not many people would take it seriously. But now, the Su family has become the number one in the cloud city. The status of a family has far surpassed that of the heavenly family. This must be placed in the past, something that can only be dreamed of.

"It means you are not only fate, but also fortune." The old lady smiled.

The old man denied these remarks. He didn't think he was lucky, because all of this was brought to him by George Han. The recovery and the development of the Su family are closely related to George Han, so to speak. George Han changed the entire Su Family, and even Basin City.

"I don't like to hear what you said. Although the Su family is now powerful and developed, we must never forget the kindness that George Han gave to the Su family. It is because of him that the Su family can have everything today." Said, George Han's status in his mind has been getting higher and higher. Of course, the old man also knows why George Han is good to the Su family, but it is a pity that Amelia Su is not too old. Otherwise, he would like to give George Han early. Hold a wedding with Amelia Su in order to completely stabilize this relationship.

The old lady's eyes clearly flashed a hint of unhappiness, but she covered it up quickly.

From her heart, her rejection of Amelia Su has not been reduced by the appearance of George Han, and the old lady does not want the Su family to fall into Wilson Su's hands, because she thinks Wilson Su is a waste after all. Relying on George Han's charity, the Su family was able to achieve the status it is today, and the temporary prosperity is false. Sooner or later, the Su family will decline because of George Han's non-help, so the old lady thinks she wants Prevent this from happening.

The most effective way to prevent it is to let Su Guolin return to the company, regain power, and hand over the company to Harry Su in the future, so that the Su family can be truly stable.

"While you are so happy, I have some ideas to tell you." The old lady said.

Upon hearing this, the old man immediately showed an unhappy expression on his face and said: "If it is still because of Su Guolin, you don't have to speak. I don't want to be ruined by you."

"Su Guolin is also your son. How can you favor one and the other, and the Su family is now developing steadily. If you let him return to the company and give him a small job, it can be regarded as giving him a bite of food. It's so difficult that you have to watch him? Starve to death on the street?" the old lady said.

For Su Guolin to seize the position in the future, the first step is to let him return to the company first. This is the old woman's idea.

But the old man is obviously very repulsive to this matter.

After hearing the old lady's words, he showed disdain and said, "starved to death on the street? He is an adult, if he doesn't even have the ability to support himself, what use is he going back to the company? My Su family doesn't need such waste. ."

In the eyes of the old man, in the current Su family, except for Wilson Su, who is his own son, and Amelia Su, who is his own granddaughter, everyone else can be ignored.

For a business man whose interests are paramount, his relatives do not have any weight at this time.

As long as the Su family can develop in an orderly manner, even if Su Guolin really starves to death on the street, the old man will never take a look.

“Are you really so cruel?” the old lady gritted her teeth.

“Don’t think I don’t know what’s in your mind. I warn you that if you mess around again and don’t discard those thoughts, your fate will also be driven out of the Su family. Whoever dares to destroy the interests of the Su family will be My enemy!” said the old man.

The old lady was so empty that she didn’t dare to look directly into the eyes of the old man.

The old man continued: “You treat Wilson Su as a waste and Su Guolin as the future of the Su family, but the facts have already been in front of you. It is so difficult that you don’t know who can give the Su family the future? And Su Guolin’s ability, It’s all used to deal with his family. When did he really contribute to the company?”

“I have indeed been sick for many years, but it doesn’t mean that I know nothing about the company.”

“I also know that you are manipulating Su Guolin. Do you really like the feeling of listening to politics? So when you can’t control Wilson Su, you can’t stand it?”

After this conversation, the old lady was already pale.

When Su Guolin was in charge of the company, she was indeed behind the scenes. Many of the company’s decisions were made by the old lady. She really seemed to be listening to politics under the curtain, and she liked to use Su Guolin as a puppet.

But no one can explain all of this, and even the old lady didn’t feel it herself. She just felt that the Su family could only be better if they developed according to her ideas.

“You want to control the company, but you also have to look at your own abilities. You have done a lot for the Su family, but is everything really a good thing?” The old man asked again.

The old lady took a deep breath, and instantly seemed to be much older again.

“I do it for the Su Family to be better.” The old lady said.

“The Su family will become the best in the future because of George Han.” The old man said firmly.

Chapter 1568

In the busiest commercial street in Basin City, Amelia Su took George Han's hand and strolled around the businesses along the road one by one.

George Han didn't bother, and went to every store to accompany Amelia Su. After all, being able to go shopping with Amelia Su is also a beautiful thing for George Han.

And their peaceful time is running out, and George Han seems to cherish this time even more.

When she came to a gift shop, Amelia Su fell in love with a pair of rings, but felt that she took the initiative to bring up the matter, which seemed a bit difficult to tell. So he called George Han to his side.

"Look, does this necklace look good?" Amelia Su asked George Han, pointing to the window.

"It looks good." George Han said without hesitation, Amelia Su's appearance, any accessories are the icing on the cake for her. There is nothing good or bad.

"Then I will try."

Amelia Su first tried the necklace, but when she was not satisfied, she tried other things.

In George Han's view, everything was impeccable after being worn on Amelia Su, but she did not show the slightest satisfaction on her face.

This makes George Han feel very strange, Amelia Su is not such a picky person on weekdays.

Gradually, George Han discovered the problem.

Amelia Su chose many things. But she didn't mention the pair of rings in the middle, as if suspiciously ignoring the existence of rings.

The clever George Han quickly thought of the reason, couldn't help but laugh, and then said to the shopping guide: "Show me this pair of rings."

After speaking, the shopping guide took out the ring, and after George Han put it on Amelia Su first, he put another one in his hand.

"How is it, is it good-looking?" George Han asked Amelia Su.

"Well, it looks good." Amelia Su finally showed a satisfied smile.

Through this smile, George Han also knew that his guess was not wrong.

But a woman is a book that never ends. George Han has thoroughly practiced this principle today.

I have known Amelia Su for so many years. George Han thinks he knows her very well, but sometimes her behavior. George Han would still not understand, no wonder some people would describe women as the most emotionally complicated animal in the world.

“You want a ring, why didn’t you say it earlier, hint at me in this way, what if I can’t understand?” George Han asked Amelia Su after paying the bill and leaving the jewelry store.

Amelia Su stared at the ring on her hand contentedly. Although it is not a valuable item, it was given by George Han. She was very happy.

And now Amelia Su doesn’t pursue any expensive things. For her, her wealth is nothing but things outside of her body.

“This kind of thing. How can a girl speak, if you don’t understand. I will ignore you.” Amelia Su said.

George Han couldn’t laugh or cry. This is really a disaster. It’s normal to be a slightly dull boy if he doesn’t understand.

“By the way. I have to choose a gift for Grandpa. What do you think I should give?” Amelia Su asked George Han. The main purpose of going out shopping today is to choose gifts for the Su family father, but the nature of girls is easy to lose themselves once they go shopping. Fortunately, Amelia Su found his way in time.

“You don’t have to give anything, as long as you can be there, he will be very happy.” George Han smiled.

Is there a gift for the old man now?

And to say that Amelia Su gave the best gift to the old man. Isn’t it the current development of the Su family?

If it weren’t for Amelia Su, could the Su family be what it is today?

And the old man’s condition worsened. Without George Han’s shot, he would have died long ago.

To know all this. They are all closely related to Amelia Su.

“Of course it can’t be like this, everyone else has sent it, how can I not send it.” Amelia Su said.

George Han was a little surprised. Amelia Su has recovered her memory. It stands to reason that her relatives in the Bafang world are the most important to her, but looking at her now, she also seems to value these relatives on the earth very seriously.

“Do you think he still lacks anything? Right now, the Su family has money. I can’t buy anything.” George Han said.

“Of course it’s different. The things that money buys for me are just to satisfy my own desires, but the gifts I give are all heartfelt.” Amelia Su said.

“Why don’t you have a look at this shop?” George Han stopped when he was passing by a tea shop. The old man loves tea, so he shouldn’t be wrong to give him tea.

Amelia Su walked into the shop immediately. For those who don’t drink tea, the messy taste in the shop is not uncomfortable.

Amelia Su wrinkled her nose slightly, and said to George Han: “The tea here is really strange. The tea from Bafang World is fragrant from thousands of miles away. It won’t have such a strange taste.”

George Han couldn’t help but roll his eyes. The tea leaves in the world of eight directions are all gods. How can they be compared with the ordinary things on earth?

“Can it be compared? You don’t look at what immortals are in Bafang World. They make a difference, how can it be.” George Han said.

Chapter 1569

“Boss, have I got what I want?”

As soon as George Han and Amelia Su entered the store, a familiar voice sounded behind them.

George Han glanced at it from the corner of the eye. It was a coincidence that he was still an acquaintance.

Su Guolin took a sum of money from the old lady and ordered a batch of good tea. Prepare to honor the old man on the birthday, in exchange for his forgiveness, because if he wants to return to the company, the old man must nod his head.

Of course, it was the old lady who made the suggestions behind this. Almost every step Su Guolin took was planned by the old lady.

The old lady really likes this feeling of manipulating people, so she hopes that Su Guolin will return to the company. Regaining power, only in this way, when she directs Su Guolin to do things, she will feel enjoyment.

“Boss Su, how dare I be sloppy about what you want. Of course it is here.” When the tea shop owner saw Su Guolin, a flattering smile appeared on his face.

Although Su Guolin had been expelled from the Su family, only the insiders of the Su family knew about this matter. Therefore, in front of outsiders, Su Guolin was still a member of the Su family, so others had to treat him respectfully.

“You have to give me a cheaper price. My old man is a tea drinker. If he is satisfied, I will take his old man to your store in person.” Su Guolin said, he is a man who has plucked hair. , Even the money held in the hands of the old lady. As long as he passed his hand, it would never be safe. This kind of corruption has almost become a habit of Su Guolin.

When the tea shop owner heard that Su Guolin was able to take the Su family to visit the shop, he was immediately excited.

Although he is only a small tea shop, if a big person like the Su family can appear, it will be of great benefit to his future development in Cloud City.

“If you say this, it’s a big deal. Since you are honoring your old man, how can I collect money for this tea?” The tea shop owner said with a smile. For him, giving it to Su Guolin for nothing is actually an investment because of him. Can get even greater benefits from the Su family.

Unfortunately, what he didn’t know was that Su Guolin had been driven out of Su’s house long ago. This time, it was a question of whether he could be there, let alone lead the old man to this small tea shop.

“Boss. You’re pretty good at doing things, don’t worry, as long as you have time. I will definitely bring the old man at home.” After Su Guolin finished speaking, he took the tea and left.

The owner of the tea shop arrived at the door, and then he returned to the shop reluctantly.

The boss with his mouth raised is obviously in a very happy mood, as if he has seen his promising future.

“You second uncle, you really take advantage of everything.” George Han said to Amelia Su with a smile.

Amelia Su sneered at this. Su Guolin’s style in the company has long been known to everyone. He embezzled money in the company. The number is not small, although these things are open secrets, but because he used to be the highest level of the company. No one dared to make an opinion.

After Wilson Su came to power, Su Guolin was kicked out of the Su family. Wilson Su didn’t pursue those things before.

“The Su family is in his hands and will be defeated sooner or later. I don’t know why grandma thinks he can make the Su family better and better.” Amelia Su said.

The attitude of the old lady towards Su Guolin. Everyone in the Su family knew it well, or if the old man’s condition suddenly healed, Su Guolin would have taken the position of chairman.

“Actually, many things. The old lady instructed her behind her back. The reason she would like Su Guolin is because Su Guolin is obedient enough to listen to her everything.” George Han explained.

Amelia Su shook her head, she didn’t bother to think about these trivial things, after all, she was about to leave the earth. These things have nothing to do with her.

And with these energy, Amelia Su might as well think about how to deal with the situation in the Octagon world.

“Boss, do you recommend any good tea?” George Han and Amelia Su didn’t understand tea. So I asked the boss about related professional issues.

The boss was in a good mood, so he patiently explained to George Han the taste and preferences of each tea.

George Han heard things that he didn’t understand, and finally let Amelia Su decide the case.

“Take the most expensive.” This is the easiest way to deal with things that you don’t understand. There is absolutely nothing wrong with buying the most expensive.

The boss felt a little angry when he saw that he had spent so much talk and talk in exchange for such a cheesy result, but he was able to make money anyway, and his mood was somewhat balanced.

When it was time to pay the bill, Amelia Su looked at George Han. And George Han also looked at Amelia Su.

In the state of the two, the boss immediately realized that something was wrong and said: “I said you two. It took me a long time to drool, isn’t it a mess with me?”

George Han was a little embarrassed. He didn’t have the habit of taking money out long ago. And there are not many places where he can use money.

As for Amelia Su, she has no money at all!

Chapter 1570

Seeing that both of them looked like they couldn't afford to pay, the tea shop owner's face gradually showed anger.

"I've said this for a long time, are you guys playing with me?" the tea shop owner said in a deep voice.

George Han and Amelia Su looked at each other and smiled helplessly, and then George Han said, "Boss, how about it? When I get back and get the money, how about buying it again?"

"If you don't have money, don't pretend to be here. I wasted so long time. I really think I have met some big customers. The most expensive one is to let go of your emotions. Don't let me see you again next time." Although the tea shop owner was very angry, but George Han had no money, and he was helpless. He could only curse a few words and let George Han leave.

After leaving the tea shop, George Han and Amelia Su were not angry. When they reached their level, it was difficult for them to really get angry with this kind of trivial matter, and it was true that they had the fault first, so they could not complain about it. The boss is angry.

"No." Not long after Amelia Su walked out of the tea shop, she suddenly froze.

"What's wrong?" George Han asked curiously.

"I just bought a ring, how could I have no money? I didn't react just now, and I was almost cheated by you!" Amelia Su asked George Han puzzledly. How could he have no money, but he has money, why? Without paying, is it so difficult that he doesn't want to give the old man a gift?

Based on Amelia Su's knowledge of George Han, he was not such a person. If he didn't want to send it, he would definitely say it directly, and there was no need to use these tricks.

"The best tea was taken by Su Guolin. It doesn't make much sense for us to buy it there." George Han said with a smile.

With Su Guolin's desire to please the old man, what he chose is definitely the best thing in this store, which means that no matter how they choose, the quality will be slightly inferior to Su Guolin's, although the old man will definitely not mind, But when the time comes, Amelia Su will inevitably be ridiculed by Su Guolin or Harry Su.

"You mean, don't you give tea anymore? But grandpa doesn't have any other hobbies except for tea." Amelia Su said with a tangled face, giving gifts to the elderly is indeed a very difficult thing, unlike Young people are so receptive.

"Send, of course, but also the best." George Han smiled.

“Let’s go, let’s change one.” Amelia Su took George Han’s hand and prepared to continue shopping.

However, George Han did not move.

“What are you doing?” Amelia Su looked at George Han suspiciously.

“No need to go shopping, I know where the best tea is.” George Han smiled.

“Where?” Amelia Su asked.

Amelia Su looked at a loss, then lowered her voice and asked George Han: “You mean, are we going to steal it?”

George Han frowned and said with a displeased expression: “How can it be called stealing? It’s not his thing. When did you see him paying, we call it to take.”

Amelia Su also smiled cleverly, and said again and again: “Yes, yes, yes, yes.”

“Time is almost up, let’s go.” George Han had already locked Su Guolin with his spiritual sense.

At this time, Su Guolin had already arrived home, and he specially prepared a beautiful packaging box.

This big birthday is his best chance to return to the Su family. As long as he can please the old man, he may be able to get back what belongs to the Su family, so he is extra careful.

And the old lady has also been very serious about it several times, so that he must not be sloppy. If he can’t seize this opportunity, he will probably never have the chance to return to Su’s company in the future.

After packing the tea, Su Guolin looked at his masterpiece with satisfaction and said to himself: “This time, Dad will definitely be happy, Wilson Su, just wait to lose the rights you have now.”

Both Su Guolin and the old lady seem to be innocent. They think that a box of tea can change the attitude of the old man. It seems that they don’t know what Wilson Su means to the Su family now, or they know it, but they only know it. Take it without acknowledging it.

At this time, Su Guolin’s phone rang. When he saw the caller ID, he subconsciously looked around to make sure there was no one at home, and then he pressed the answer button.

“What are you doing, I didn’t tell you, don’t take the initiative to contact me, did you dare to call me and want to die?” Wilson Su gritted his teeth and said, feeling very angry.

“I’m pregnant.”

There were only four simple words on the phone, which directly caused Wilson Su to be struck by lightning and froze on the spot.

When Su Guolin was holding the power of the Su family company, he did not take the company’s money out to support the junior. For this matter, he is already a habitual offender, but fortunately, there has been no problem for so many years.

But at this moment, Wilson Su’s heart was about to jump out.

pregnant!

This is not a trivial matter, and once the incident reaches the old man’s ears, it is even more impossible for him to return to Su’s house.

“Where are you, I will come to you right away.” Su Guolin asked.

“Rent, I’ll wait for you.”

Su Guolin went out in a hurry, because if this matter was not handled properly, not only would he not be able to return to Su’s house, but he might also get separated. This was not the end he wanted to see.

Not long after Su Guolin left, George Han and Amelia Su appeared at the door.

The ordinary security door didn’t make any sense to George Han, and couldn’t stop him at all.

George Han didn’t even think about it, and the lock cylinder jumped off automatically.

Push the door and enter.

Amelia Su looked at the bottles and cans on the showcase. They should be valuable things, most of which were embezzled by Su Guolin during his tenure in the company.

“Unexpectedly, there are so many good things in his hidden home.” Amelia Su said. Su Guolin didn’t live here before, and moved after being kicked out of Su’s house.

But obviously, this is not the appearance of a new home, that is to say, Su Guolin has kept his embezzlement here for so many years, so he has not been discovered.

“Although they are not particularly expensive things, they are also worth a lot of money. The losses and benefits of the Su Family Company will probably fall on him.” George Han smiled.

In the entire Su family, no one didn't know that Su Guolin was corrupt, but didn't know the extent of it.

Today Amelia Su has seen it, but Su Guolin's courage still makes her a little strange. After all, once the loopholes in the accounts are found, the consequences will be very serious. Has he never worried about it?
