

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1571 - 1574

Chapter 1571

At this time, George Han had opened the gift box prepared by Su Guolin.

“By the way, what did you buy this watch for?” Amelia Su asked George Han curiously. On the way to Su Guolin’s house, George Han even went to the watch shop specially. This behavior made Amelia Su very uncomfortable. Solution, until now I haven’t figured out the reason.

“Don’t you see what I want to do?” George Han said with a smile.

Amelia Su shook her head, her eyes filled with confusion.

When George Han took out the tea and put the clock in the gift box, George Han said again, “Now you understand?”

Seeing George Han’s tone, Amelia Su seemed to understand, but she still didn’t understand what it meant.

“Are you afraid that Su Guolin is weighing the weight wrong?” Amelia Su asked curiously.

This time it was replaced by George Han with a dumbfounded expression. He had already achieved this step. Amelia Su didn’t even know what it meant, so she didn’t even know this statement?

“Gifts are also taboo, such as sending bells.” George Han explained.

“What’s going to send the bell... to the end!”

“Send the end!”

Amelia Su suddenly realized, and finally understood what George Han meant.

It’s no wonder that he deliberately went to the watch shop, which was what Amelia Su never expected.

But this trick was a bit too cruel for Su Guolin. On the birthday of his birthday, he gave this kind of gift and he had to vomit blood with anger.

“You are so cruel.” Amelia Su said.

George Han smiled and said, “Being kind to the enemy is cruel to yourself. He and Harry Su have never been soft-hearted to you before.”

Although Amelia Su didn't mind what happened before, what George Han said was really truthful.

Especially Harry Su, relying on being favored by himself, didn't treat Amelia Su as a human at all. In addition to always teasing her, he also regarded her as a subordinate. As long as Amelia Su was not sure, Harry Su would surely beat her secretly behind his back.

So that Amelia Su later saw Harry Su, and there was already a psychological shadow.

"You did this to let Su Guolin know that we did it?" Amelia Su asked puzzledly, taking away the tea leaves and leaving the clocks. When they delivered the tea, Su Guolin would definitely recognize it. of.

"Just to let him know that it's best to let him make trouble with you on his birthday." George Han said.

"What if it is demolished?" Amelia Su asked with a worried expression.

"How could it be revealed? Do you think the old man is willing to believe you or believe him?" George Han laughed.

Thinking that Harry Su sent the fakes on the day of the Su family's old lady's birthday. Even if George Han saw it through, the old lady helped Harry Su conceal it. This also led to Amelia Su slapped in the face due to misunderstanding.

Although George Han didn't take this hatred in his heart, it didn't mean he could let go.

Now, he wants Su Guolin and the old lady to be helpless when he knows that his civet cat is changing the prince. This is also a revenge.

"You are so careful, so you won't use it on me, too." Amelia Su said.

"I am sincere to you," George Han said.

Amelia Su just said it casually. Of course, she didn't think George Han would think about her carefully. After all, Basin City's forbearance in those three years, George Han was willing to swallow for Amelia Su. This is what Amelia Su knew. Su Ming's matter, and George Han's subsequent changes, was also because of Amelia Su.

Amelia Su had never doubted George Han's heart.

The two exchanged good things, and George Han returned the gift box to its original shape and left.

I bought a ring and chose a gift for the old man. Today, the shopping in this street is quite rewarding.

After returning to the mountainside Villa, the Twelve Swords was just a resting stage of cultivation. This was what George Han told him that he should not be too eager for quick success and quick gains, and learn to relax appropriately, otherwise it would be counterproductive.

“Three thousand, the day after tomorrow is the birthday of the Su family,” Dao Twelve asked George Han.

George Han nodded. After the father’s birthday, it means that they are about to leave the earth.

Although George Han tried his best to show a relaxed appearance on the surface, as the days approached, the tension in his heart could not dissipate at all.

After all, things in the future will be completely out of George Han’s control, which will bring him a great sense of insecurity.

“Mo Yang’s affairs have been handled, and they should be back soon.” Dao Twelve said.

“By the way, what did Liu Fang do?” George Han asked curiously.

“Car accident, a serious car accident on the highway, but she was only killed,” Dao Twelve said.

Mo Yang and Liu Fang used the car accident to cover Liu Fang’s suspended animation, but in the process, they did not cause any danger to others.

George Han looked at Amelia Su, and Amelia Su also planned to end her life on the earth with death, but until now, she did not tell George Han how to do this.

Chapter 1572

In fact, Amelia Su hasn’t figured out how to proceed. At the beginning, she decided to say goodbye to death because it was the best way and would not leave any thoughts on her family on Earth.

“Don’t look at me, I haven’t figured it out yet.” Amelia Su said.

George Han said, “Don’t worry, we still have time.”

When it came to the issue of time, Amelia Su’s face was obviously bleak, which made the sensitive George Han realize for the first time that time seemed to have become a huge problem for her.

The things that can make Amelia Su worry must be related to the Bafang World.

In addition, the old man said at the beginning that Amelia Su is in urgent need of the Fu family, which shows that she must return to the Bafang world at a certain point in time.

George Han didn't continue this topic. Since Amelia Su didn't tell her, there must be something unspeakable, and George Han would never pursue an answer suspiciously.

"By the way, did Mo Yang say when he will be back?" George Han changed the subject and asked Dao Twelve.

"Liu Fang's funeral is over. Mo Yang should settle for his family. It will be the day after tomorrow at the latest." Dao Twelve said.

"I see, if you have enough rest, go and practice." George Han said.

Dao Twelve knew that George Han was deliberately distracting himself, so he didn't say much, and went straight back to his room.

Amelia Su also returned to the room at this time.

After George Han followed, he heard Amelia Su say: "I have concealed something from you, will you blame me?"

"Of course not." George Han said without hesitation: "If you don't tell me, there must be your reason. How can I blame you."

"Really?" Amelia Su blinked her big eyes and looked at George Han sincerely.

"Of course it is true. I have absolute trust in you. I know that you are hiding from me, and it must be for my good." George Han said.

Amelia Su took a long breath, she was really worried that George Han would mind this, but seeing George Han's attitude, she was relieved.

"You will know everything in the future, but now, there is no time yet." Amelia Su said.

"I understand, don't worry, I won't think about it." George Han said with a smile.

He knew very well in his heart that the so-called timing was actually because he was not strong enough. If George Han was strong enough to solve any problems, there would be no timing problem.

Certain things, after the first time, will happen a second or third time, and they still happen uncontrollably.

In broad daylight, George Han closed the doors and windows.

On the other hand, Su Guolin went to see his lover, and the other party cried and said that he did not expect such a thing to happen, but Su Guolin is not a naive person. He has done very well every time he takes protective measures. This kind of thing happened. The odds are very low.

Moreover, after so many years, Su Guolin had changed many lovers, and this kind of thing had never happened. He would not easily believe that it was just a coincidence.

“Let’s talk, what do you want, you don’t need to scribble with me. After so many years, I still know these things in my heart. If you didn’t move your hands and feet, how could you get pregnant.” Su Guolin almost bit his posterior molars. Finish these words.

The lover was crying and crying and was not interrupted by Su Guolin. Even if the plan was seen through, her face did not panic at all.

“Su Guolin, I have been with you for two years, do you still have a conscience when you say these things?”

“Don’t tell me any conscience, I covet your beauty, you embezzle my money, this is just a deal.” Su Guolin said.

“I’m so good to you, why are you only a deal?” said the lover in disbelief.

Su Guolin smiled faintly and said: “You don’t have to act anymore. Could it be that you still want to be a regular junior? I tell you, this is absolutely impossible. If my matter is known by the Su family, I will never be able to return to the company. It caused my wife to disperse, and I didn’t get any benefits. Without the Su family, I would be a pauper, so I still advise you to think clearly.”

“Since you are so unfeeling, don’t blame me for being unrighteous. I want three million and give me three million. I shall assume that nothing has happened.” said the lover.

“Can you guarantee that you won’t trouble me anymore?” Three million is not a small amount, but it is still within Su Guolin’s ability, and in this critical period, Su Guolin doesn’t want to make any trouble, so as long as this matter can be solved, He can accept the cost of three million.

“I have been on a blind date in my hometown. As long as you give the money, I will return to my hometown to marry him. I will never trouble you in the future.” said the lover.

Su Guolin smiled disdainfully and said, “It’s really a poor honest person. I don’t know what hurt the gods and reason I did in my previous life when I met someone like you.”

The lover’s face was very ugly by these words, but she couldn’t refute it.

“The money will arrive tomorrow, and you can clean up and salute now.” Su Guolin said.

Chapter 1573

Father Su's birthday is the day.

The most luxurious Karen hotel in Cloud City.

It was still early, but luxury cars gathered at the gate at nine o'clock, so almost all the well-known business people in Basin City were here.

Because the Su family's current status in the business world is worthy of everyone's win, they also hope to have a certain degree of cooperation with the Su family, so in this big birthday, they must show their sincerity.

Of course, there is another very important thing, and the real reason that drove these people to appear so early, and that is the boss behind Fengqian Company.

Many days ago, there were rumors that Mr. Fengqian would appear at the grandfather's birthday banquet, which made countless people start to look forward to it. After all, cooperation with the Su family would be second-rate after all. If you can directly cooperate with Fengqian, That is the fastest way for them to advance in Cloud City.

Fengqian is now a well-deserved top company in the cloud city business community. Even the former Tianjia had to bow his head in front of Fengqian. As businessmen with the highest interests, these people would naturally find ways to please Fengqian.

"Mr. Li, I didn't expect you to come so early. Is the company so idle?"

"Mr. Liu, it's the same for you. You have nothing to do early in the morning. Is the company so difficult that there is no business?"

"Hahahaha, my company is very busy, but there are capable people under me, so I don't need to come out in person. It's like President Li, who does everything by himself, but it's hard work."

"I don't know when the old man will show up. The gift I prepared for him this time must be the best in the audience."

"Oh, so confident, don't just bring a joke to make you laugh generous."

The old man of the Su family has not yet appeared, and the hotel entrance has already filled with the smell of gunsmoke. Many people are competing because they know that the Su family does not need so many partners, so except themselves, other people can be referred to collectively. For the enemy.

And at this time, the Su family's old man, he still didn't go out at home.

"Dad, I heard that many guests have arrived at the hotel entrance. It seems that they are waiting for you." Wilson Su said to the old man with a smile on his face. Now the Su family can have such a big influence, and he has done a lot. So when you say this, Wilson Su himself has a sense of pride.

The smile on the old man's face couldn't hide at all, and he sighed: "I never dreamed that the Su family can still have today."

"Yeah, who could have thought of it." The former Su family was just doing a small business. Although the business has improved since then, there is still a huge gap compared with today's status in Cloud City.

"Wilson, do you remember when the company first developed its business, we went to talk to those people about cooperation, how did they treat us?" The old man asked Wilson Su.

Speaking of this matter, Wilson Su smiled bitterly. When the Su family first started, although the power of the company was in the hands of the father, the father liked to confess the matter to Su Guolin for instructions, and Wilson Su was often the victim of these things.

For some cooperation that he knew was impossible, Su Guolin would send him, and often at this time, Wilson Su would be humiliated by the other party.

This is more than that. When he returns to the company, he will be severely taught by Su Guolin because of his inability to do things.

It can be said that his younger brother has never treated him as an older brother, even worse than an outsider.

"Of course I remember that I was once thrown to the company, and the more difficult it is to negotiate a cooperation, the more Su Guolin will send me." Wilson Su gritted his teeth and said, although things have passed for many years, I still think about it. Make Wilson Su angry.

Because everything Su Guolin did was aimed at maliciously, just deliberately trying to prank him.

"Now those companies are eager to cooperate with us, what do you think we should do?" The old man smiled, and he completely ignored how Wilson Su said Su Guolin was not.

Wilson Su knew that it was already his limit for the father to kick Su Guolin out of the company, so the father would not interfere with the conflict between the two brothers.

"Personal grievances are not worth mentioning. If it is helpful to the development of the company, I think it can be ignored. The most important thing for a businessman is not to breathe, but to benefit." Wilson Su said.

The old man looked at Wilson Su in surprise, he never thought that his son could actually say such things.

This is what a real businessman possesses. As long as he is in front of his own interests, everything can be ignored.

“Not bad.” The old man nodded in satisfaction and said: “It seems that you have grown a lot, and the future of the Su family is in your hands, so I don’t need to worry.”

“Dad, don’t worry, I won’t let you down.” Wilson Su smiled and said, although he is able to live today, it depends on George Han’s relationship, but Wilson Su is still very clear that he can’t rely on forever George Han, so in this process, he is still very serious about learning how to become a real businessman.

“By the way, Su Guolin wants to return to the company, what do you think, of course, this matter is entirely up to you, I just mention it casually.” The old man asked Wilson Su.

I said this very carefully, and only said that I mentioned it casually, which seemed to be very indifferent.

But Wilson Su knew that if he really didn’t care, he would never mention this matter in front of him.

Since he said it out, his heart guessed that he hoped that Su Guolin would return to the company.

The old man really thought so in his heart. After all, Su Guolin was also his son. In the old man’s view, the punishment given during this period was sufficient. It was time to give Su Guolin a chance to reform himself.

But the old man was also afraid that Wilson Su would be unhappy. After all, the future of the Su family was still in Wilson Su’s hands, so he mentioned this matter nonchalantly.

“Dad, since you want him to come back, let him come back. Although I am now responsible for the company, the company is still yours.” Wilson Su said.

“I don’t have any thoughts, it all depends on your attitude. If you are willing to give him a chance, I am very happy.” The old man said.

Wilson Su was very disdainful in his heart, the old man seemed to let him decide, but between his words, there was no chance for Wilson Su to refuse.

“Okay, I don’t have any problems, but I have a requirement that he can’t point fingers at the company’s decisions.” Wilson Su said.

“Don’t worry, I asked him to come back as an ordinary employee. He is not eligible to participate in high-level meetings.”

Chapter 1574

When it was almost eleven o'clock, the old man was ready to go out, and the sun was already shining outside the door.

Outside the hotel, because the host did not show up, other people naturally did not dare to enter the hotel to enjoy the shade, and they all waited profusely outside.

Almost everyone has a big complaint in their hearts, but no one dared to say it, because at this time, expressing no concealment to the old man is equivalent to letting go before his opponent.

In case these words were maliciously conveyed to the old man's ears by someone with a heart, let alone cooperation, it would be good not to be targeted by the Su family.

Finally, the old man's car drove slowly, and when he arrived at the door of the hotel, those who had been waiting for it began to commotion.

"Master."

"The old man is as good as the East China Sea."

"I wish the old man a long life."

The welcome scene of countless people is like welcoming a big man.

Although it was the first time that the Su family received such treatment, he was not embarrassed at all in his heart, because he had already accepted the fact that he was superior, and he even felt that all this was taken for granted in his heart.

Today, he is being treated courtesy of Basin City business people. This is not a strange thing. After all, everyone wants to get a share of Su's company.

"Let everyone wait a long time, let's cool off in the advanced hotel." The old man said.

The birthday banquet was set in the largest main hall of the hotel, and in order not to be disturbed by other people, the Su family directly took care of the entire hotel, and no guests were allowed to check in from one week ago. It can be said that the handwriting is very big.

Coming to the main hall, all aspects of the birthday banquet have been set up very well, full of luxury.

All of this was done by Wilson Su himself, and the old man who was very satisfied with it also praised Wilson Su again and again.

If there was no such thing as Su Guolin, Wilson Su would definitely be very happy now, but now, he can't laugh at all.

Su Guolin returned to the company. Although he was just an ordinary employee, it would still cause some trouble to Wilson Su to some extent. This is something Wilson Su didn't want to see, but he couldn't avoid it.

When he came to the main seat, the old man sat directly on the upper seat, and all the guests offered gifts at this time.

Gifts are not cheap, and the lowest is above six figures, and there are many treasures. The birthday banquet instantly becomes a gift competition. Every family is bleeding heavily, praising their own gifts. s things.

The old man's surface was as calm as water, but his heart was already excited and intolerable. He never dreamed of such a scene of receiving gifts.

And not just today, since two days ago, the old man has received many valuable gifts one after another, and the family has almost piled up like a mountain.

The entire gift-giving process lasted almost an hour, and just this matter was enough for Basin City people to talk about it after dinner.

Su Guolin has been waiting for the opportunity. As the finale, he can't wait for a long time, because he is very confident. The gift he gave is definitely the old man's favorite.

Although someone gave it more valuable than him, in Su Guolin's view, no gift was truly delivered to the heart of the old man.

At this time, George Han and Amelia Su outside the hotel finally arrived.

Amelia Su looked at George Han with a complaining expression. She had been talking about it many times on the road. It was all because of the trouble of George Han last night, which caused them to rest too much. At this time, if you missed the gift-giving show of Su Guolin , They were all in vain before.

"Don't worry, it's definitely time. There are many people giving gifts today. With Su Guolin's mentality, he will definitely be the finale." George Han said to Amelia Su.

"If you do this again, continue to sleep on the floor," Amelia Su threatened.

George Han looked embarrassed. As his strength improved, his abilities in certain areas also improved a lot, and he didn't expect that he would be able to toss all night.

When he came to the main hall, Su Guolin just walked to the old man with his gift.

Seeing this situation, George Han and Amelia Su breathed a sigh of relief, and they finally caught up without wasting their previous efforts.

"You are lucky." Amelia Su said to George Han.

The big stone in George Han's heart also fell. He knew that if he missed this good show, he would really have to sleep on the floor in the future.

"Dad, I was confused before and made some mistakes. Today I specially selected a gift you like. I hope you can forgive me." Su Guolin confessed and stood in front of the old man. This is what the old lady taught him. Let your attitude be sincere, as long as you can return to the company, put it down temporarily.

Since a few days ago, the old lady has been brainwashing the Su family's old man, saying that Su Guolin almost went to all the nearby cities in order to find him a gift, and she almost broke her leg.

It is precisely because of this that the old man will soften up to Wilson Su about letting Su Guolin return to the company.

Therefore, the old man is still very much looking forward to his gift.

"Open it and take a look." The old man said.
