

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1599 - 1602

Chapter 1599

“Aren’t you afraid?” Lin Long asked George Han.

“Aren’t you talking nonsense, can I not be afraid?” George Han told the truth, not pretending to be calm.

After all, this was the most dangerous exploration in his history, and the ancient battlefield was a place far beyond his control. Maybe just encountering some very small dangers is enough to kill them.

“I’m afraid I’m afraid, but I can’t persuade you.” After saying this, Linlong directly entered the space tunnel.

Even if it is dead, Linlong will not shrink back, because it has been looking for this place for thousands of years. There is no reason to find it but retreat.

George Han had no reason to back down, nor could he back down. Otherwise, he would not die on the ancient battlefield. Will be killed by Chi Meng.

Immediately afterwards, the two came to the ancient battlefield one after another.

A bitter wind was blowing on the pitch-black battlefield.

A blood moon in the sky reflected a blood-red color on the whole earth.

George Han’s first feeling was as if he had come to hell, because only hell had such a terrifying sight.

“You are in a good mood.” Linlong looked around vigilantly, although he was so peaceful that there were no signs of danger. But he knew that it was not as peaceful as he saw.

“Is it possible to cry? Even if you die, you must die with a smile.” George Han is not in a good mood, it is just to adjust his mood.

The two stood there for a long time without daring to move because they were worried that it would cause sudden changes.

After they understood the surrounding environment, George Han took the lead.

With George Han as the first bird, Linlong also followed George Han.

“It seems very calm, there is nothing.” George Han said to Linlong.

“The more calm, the more dangerous, the tranquility before the storm. Don’t you understand that stumped?” Lin Long said.

George Han wasn’t in the mood to reason with Linlong about such irrelevant things, but in his opinion. It is indeed very peaceful here.

The environment may seem dangerous, but it gives people a sense of incomparable peace.

Although this is the site of the ancient battlefield. But the War of the Ancients is over, and calm is a matter of course.

“I want to use my spiritual sense to feel how big this space really is.” George Han said to Linlong, walking like this step by step, George Han worried that he would die in a thousand years, and he would not be able to find what Chi dreamed of. .

But Linlong directly rejected his idea because he was afraid that George Han would do it. Will disturb the ancient power that calms down.

Although the ancient powerhouses here are all dead, the power left behind here. It must still exist.

“Just go on like this, do you know how long it will take?” George Han asked Linlong.

“I have spent thousands of years, even if I find another thousand years here.” Lin Long said with disdain.

Wasting thousands of years in this wilderness?

George Han would never agree.

Thousands of years later, what is the Bafang world? What about Amelia Su, these are all unknown to George Han.

“In this case. Let’s act separately, I don’t have time to waste a thousand years.” George Han said, turning around to separate from Linlong.

“Waiting for a thousand years, at least you can still see her alive. If you die, you will never see her again.” Linlong knew what George Han was thinking. He hopes to go to Bafang World and meet Amelia Su as soon as possible.

But to go to the Octagonal World, the prerequisite is to save your life.

Linlong sighed. He couldn't stop George Han, but he would never follow George Han. He regarded his life more than anything else. George Han was going to die and he would never take his name. .

One day later. George Han walked south and didn't know how far, but he was at this time. He had been separated a long distance from Linlong, the axe mark on George Han's forehead. Suddenly there was a dazzling golden light.

George Han has been using his own power to suppress the power riot of the axe. Since entering the ancient battlefield, the power of the axe has been around the corner. This is why George Han chose to separate from Linlong.

“Unexpectedly, this axe was actually a weapon of the ancient powerhouse.” There was shock in George Han's eyes. Since getting this axe, George Han has been guessing where the axe came from, even he guessed. Once this was left from the Bafang world to the earth, but he never thought that this was actually related to the ancient powerhouse.

And the reason why he walked to the south of the ancient battlefield was also drawn by a force, like a call, summoning him towards a certain destination.

Chapter 1600

All directions.

Amelia Su, who returned to the Fu clan, met with the patriarch in the first place.

Above the magnificent Fu clan's main hall, the throne shines with golden light. The old man on the throne is named Futian, who is the current patriarch of the Fu clan.

The old man's head was covered with snow, and he looked old and weak. But the aura is extremely powerful, with golden light glowing in the pupils, which gives people a very strong deterrent.

No one can be presumptuous in front of these golden pupils.

But Amelia Su was able to stand without danger, neither humble nor overbearing.

“Do you know what consequences you will bear?” Futian asked Amelia Su, his voice full of coldness, as if he would kill Amelia Su at any time.

Amelia Su did not admit her mistakes, and she never felt that she had done anything wrong. She just didn't want to marry the so-called selected husband-in-law.

“Are you going to kill me?” Amelia Su said indifferently.

Futian was frustrated because of Amelia Su's indifferent attitude. He did not expect that after so many years, Amelia Su would not even recognize his own mistakes.

“Don’t think I dare not kill you.” Futian gritted his teeth and said.

At this time, Amelia Su suddenly raised a smile at the corner of her mouth, saying: “Kill me, the Fu family will completely decline. Do you really dare?”

Above the main hall, in addition to Futian, there are many other high-level members of the Fu family, and after hearing Amelia Su’s words, all the high-levels were so angry that they were so angry.

“Fuyao, you have to be presumptuous.”

“Kneel down and admit your mistakes, the family can let you go, otherwise, you will be sent to the Fu’s jail, and you will never see the light.”

“You damn girl, get down on your knees.”

Facing all the accusations, Amelia Su was clearly on the cusp.

But let her admit her mistake?

This is absolutely impossible!

In front of George Han. Amelia Su is an ordinary woman, a little bird and a human being.

But in front of these people, Amelia Su is a stubborn and fearless existence.

“My name is Amelia Su.” Amelia Su said lightly.

Futian above the throne was so angry that he almost spewed a mouthful of old blood.

As a member of the Fu family, she has forgotten her name at this moment!

“Fuyao, do you know what you are talking about, do you know what your words mean?” Futian gritted his teeth with hatred.

“Of course, I am Amelia Su. Is there anything wrong with it? From the moment I left Bafang World, I am no longer Fuyao.” Amelia Su said, this is not to deny my identity, but when the Fu family was about to use her as a tool, Amelia Su didn’t want to pretend to be Fuyao.

The golden light blooms in Futian’s twin pupils, and he is obviously angry to the extreme.

“Believe it or not, he will die in Xuanyuan World, and he will die very miserably.” Futian said. He couldn’t kill Amelia Su, because the next true god in the Fu family still needed Amelia Su to be conceived. Therefore, all he could do was to use George Han as a threat to make Amelia Su compromise.

But Amelia Su's expression remained the same. Obviously such a threat did not make much sense to her.

"Xuanyuan World was created by the true god at the Blue Mountain Peak. Are you qualified to kill innocent people in Xuanyuan World? If the people on the Blue Mountain Peak know about them, and they ask the teacher for crimes, you can bear the consequences?" Amelia Su said lightly .

In the Bafang world, there are a total of three true gods. In addition to the Fu family, there are also the Blue Mountain Peak and the Immortal Sea. These three forces represent the highest status of the Bafang World.

But there is a true god. In the Bafang world, there is an eternal law that will always be fixed in the three people, and a new true god will appear. It must mean the death of an old true god.

Now that the true god of the Fu clan is dead, his status obviously cannot be compared with the top of the blue mountain and the immortal sea area, because no one can be sure that the next true god will appear in the Fu clan.

This is why Futian is anxious to let Amelia Su get married, and the Fu family urgently needs Amelia Su to give birth to a true god.

The reason why the Fu Clan thinks so is that it has been deduced over a hundred years. And the message left by the last true god, so almost every member of the Fu family believes in this.

Futian knows. He could send someone to Xuanyuan World to kill George Han, but as Amelia Su said, Xuanyuan World was created by the true god on the top of the Blue Mountain. If this matter is known by the people on the top of the Blue Mountain, he will come to Xingshi to question him. This is for Futian. It will be a nightmare.

Once the three parties coexisted vigorously, but now, there is no true god in the Fu family. In a sense, the status is no longer as good as the top of the Blue Mountain, and it is obviously not a good decision to provoke the top of the Blue Mountain at this time.

"But he will come to Bafang World someday. Here, I can torture him and kill him in any way." Futian said, biting his molars.

Amelia Su still didn't show any expression of fear, because she couldn't compromise on this kind of thing. Once she compromised, she would be unfaithful to George Han. This was something Amelia Su would never allow.

And she believes that George Han can definitely become a person who changes the pattern of the world in Bafang. He has the potential to become a true god.

"Perhaps, when he came to Bafang World, the Fu Clan was no longer his opponent." Amelia Su said with anticipation in her eyes.

“His kind of trash. How could he become an opponent of the Fu family.”

“How can we put this kind of garbage in our eyes.”

“Fuyao, you value him too much, he is just rubbish in the blue world. How can it be in the same vein as the Fu clan.”

After listening to Amelia Su’s words, the senior officials of the Fu clan expressed their confession one after another. They dismissed George Han as an opponent because they thought the rubbish of the blue world was simply unworthy.

The azure world is the earth, but the Bafang world calls it differently.

“There used to be too many people who looked down on him, but in the end, who didn’t regret it?” Amelia Su said with a smile, seeming to think of what happened on Earth before.

Although the earth cannot be compared with the Bafang world, she is convinced that George Han can do the same, because she has already seen different potentials in George Han, which is not something ordinary people can have.

“Amelia Su, don’t you think he can become a true god with such a trash.” Futian suddenly burst into laughter, as if he had heard the biggest joke in the world.

These words made the other high-level staffs startled, and then roars of laughter erupted from the entire hall.

“he?”

“The trash of a blue world still wants to be a true god.”

“Amelia Su, your thoughts are really ridiculous, ridiculous!”

Chapter 1601

Listening to the sneer, Amelia Su was not angry, but a warm smile appeared on her face because she knew it. These sneers will eventually pay the price, and everyone here will regret their behavior today.

Seeing Amelia Su’s unrepentant appearance, Futian’s laughter stopped abruptly, and the anger in his heart could not be vented on Amelia Su. Put Amelia Su to death.

But he couldn’t do this, because without Amelia Su gestating the next true god, then the status of the Fu clan would be completely destroyed in his hands.

Once the Fu's line of status fell. I am afraid that none of the former opponents will let go of the Fu clan. At that time, the Fu clan will usher in the most tragic revenge and blow. This is a consequence that no one can bear.

"Fuyao, since you still don't know what is wrong, then you should go to the jail for a good reflection on yourself, I believe you can calm down in the jail."

The voice fell. Two men in battle armor walked to Amelia Su's side, imprisoned Amelia Su's left and right hands, and led them toward the prison.

Amelia Su didn't resist, because at this time, she didn't need to be in the Fu clan's line completely, because Han Nian was probably still in the Fu clan's line. She had to bear the humiliation and investigate the news about Han Nian.

After Amelia Su had left, a senior family member said to Futian: "Patriarch, George Han is not dead. Fuyao will not give up."

"Yes, only George Han is dead. She will give up."

"We are now continuing the emergence of the next true god, and we can't drag on any longer."

"Patriarch. Give an order, kill George Han."

The high-level words resonated with other people. Almost everyone thought that George Han deserved to die, and only if he died, Amelia Su would not have wishful thinking.

This truth. Futian understood naturally, but he didn't do it. I also have my own concerns.

Once the people at the top of the Blue Mountain knew that the Fu family had gone to Xuanyuan World to kill people, such consequences would also be unbearable for Futian.

"Do you think I don't want to? But what will happen if I really do this. Don't you know?"

"With the current strength of the Fu family, how can it be an enemy of the Blue Mountain Peak?"

"There is no true god. How can we still have the qualifications to negotiate conditions with the Blue Mountain."

Futian said three sentences in a row, and his tone was full of helplessness. He desperately hoped that George Han would die, and even wished to kill him himself.

But what about it.

this matter. It's not something that can be done just by saying.

The high-levels fell silent.

They understand Futian's concerns.

Killing George Han is a trivial matter. At this moment, if you offend the top of the Blue Mountain, the entire Fu clan may be annihilated.

There was silence above the hall, and no one dared to express their opinions at will.

Futian took a deep breath and said: "I believe that Tianlao can make her change her attention, but it is not enough, so I can only use the last method."

The high-level people were confused. They didn't know what Futian's last solution was, but no one dared to ask.

Fu's line of heaven prison.

Although it is named Tianlao. But in fact, it is an underground depth of up to 100 meters, which is dark and humid. And it is full of snakes, insects, mice and ants, and there is almost no light source. It makes the jail completely dark, and anyone in this environment will have a nervous breakdown over time.

Because of the silence.

Because of the darkness.

No one can stay sane in this environment.

When Amelia Su was imprisoned in the iron cage, she could hardly see anything around her.

Amelia Su also tried to use her own ability to open the iron cage, but after several attempts, the iron cage hardly changed.

"You don't have to work in vain. This is made of ten thousand years of cold iron. Unless the true god, no one in this world can destroy it."

Just as Amelia Su tried hard, an old voice suddenly came not far away.

Amelia Su was obviously taken aback, but she didn't feel scared, but said in an incredible tone: "You are not dead yet."

"Oh?" The old voice was obviously interested in Amelia Su, and asked: "You know me?"

"There are only a handful of people in the Fu family who have been imprisoned in the prison. There is only one person alive. You should be Fu Mang, Futian's younger brother." Amelia Su said.

The Fu Clan's Heavenly Prison is not often used because it is only for people who have committed crimes and cannot be put to death.

Using the means of supporting the clan, they usually give death directly, and solve the problem with the simplest means.

Therefore, in the history of the Fu family, there are only three people who were imprisoned in the prison, plus Amelia Su.

The first person time has been very long, to Amelia Su, it is more like a legend.

And Fu Mang happened not long before Amelia Su left Bafang World, so Amelia Su was able to quickly determine Fu Mang's identity.

"Unexpectedly, someone remembers my Fumang's name." Fumang said in surprise.

"Your name has become a taboo in the Fu family. Anyone mentioning it is a dead end."

Chapter 1602

"Do you know why?" Fu Mang asked Amelia Su, his tone a little helpless.

Amelia Su actually has a lot of curiosity about this matter.

The two brothers Futian and Fumang grew up together, and their brotherhood relationship should be very good.

But one day suddenly. The two brothers turned against each other, and no one knew the reason, so no one could understand what happened.

Of course, although there are many people who are curious, no one dares to get to the bottom of this matter.

Because of Futian's tough methods, anyone dare to discuss this matter in private. People in the Fu family will also hide this matter in their hearts over time, and no matter how many questions they have. It's not as important as your own life.

"You two are brothers. You grew up together, and your relationship is thicker than water. Why do you suddenly turn back? From the day you were imprisoned in the jail, countless people were shocked by this incident." Amelia Su Said.

"Brotherhood?" Fu Mang said disdainfully and self-deprecating: "In his eyes, I am just a stepping stone. He used me to sit in the position of patriarch."

"Use you?" Amelia Su expressed puzzlement. Because whoever will be the patriarch is not the final decision.

There is a special cemetery in the Fu family. The dying patriarch will walk into the cemetery by himself. Before the long sleep, a wordless book on the top of the Loulan Pavilion will show the name of the next patriarch. No one can cheat.

Therefore, Fu Mang's so-called use, in Amelia Su's view, was simply impossible.

It is absolutely impossible for Futian to sit in the position of patriarch by using Fumang.

"Do you believe that the name that appears in the wordless book is me?" Fu Mang said.

Amelia Su's eyes instantly revealed shock.

If the name that appears on the wordless heavenly script is Fumang. Then it means that he should be the patriarch, how could it become Futian?

"The wordless book. Only the guards of Loulan Pavilion can see the screen, but Futian. He has bought this person long ago." Fu Mang said.

Amelia Su shook her head subconsciously, and Fu Mu had an extraordinary position in the Fu family. It could be said that it was above the patriarch, but there was no real power of the patriarch.

And such a person can never lie to the patriarch for personal gain, and it is even more impossible to be bought by Futian.

"How is it possible? How can Futian buy the curtain." Amelia Su said in disbelief.

"Just as you think, no one would think that the curtain was cheated. So Futian was able to successfully sit in the position of patriarch, but I was reduced to a prison sentence." Fu Mang said mockingly.

"Is there anything in the world that can seduce the curtain? He has never left the Loulan Pavilion for half his life. Unlike imprisonment, what does he need?" Amelia Su asked puzzled.

In her opinion. Such a person should have no desires and desires. In this way, Futian would never be able to buy him.

"I don't know. The world will not know, so this secret. Will be sunk forever." Fu Mang said.

Amelia Su laughed disdainfully, Fu Mang didn't have any evidence to prove that this matter really existed, and who would know if he was lying?

"Imagine it yourself, thinking that you are the candidate for the patriarch. Perhaps it is because of this incident that you angered Futian and were sent to the jail." Amelia Su said.

"You think so, I can understand. After all, every patriarch comes from the wordless book, no one can doubt the ability of the wordless book. But who has actually read the wordless book?" Fu Mang said.

Having said that, Amelia Su can almost believe that Fu Mang is making up a lie. Because everyone in the Fu clan knew that only Fu Mu was qualified to read the Wordless Heavenly Book, and he actually had doubts about it.

“It’s no wonder that Futian will send you to the jail. Your delusion is too serious. He didn’t kill you. It’s already benevolent.” Amelia Su said.

“Everyone thinks so, so I know that I haven’t seen the bright day again, but there is one thing that can’t be wrong, that is, there is my name in the wordless heavenly book.” Fu Mang said firmly, just It’s as if he has read a wordless book.

Amelia Su frowned slightly. If Fu Mang was just a delusion, he should have realized his mistakes in the prison for so many years. How could he still think so?

And he is so sure that the wordless heavenly book has his name. Why is this?

“Assuming I believe this is true, how do you know that the wordless book has your name, is it so difficult for you to read it?” Amelia Su asked.

Fu Mang laughed bitterly and said, “Otherwise, why do you think I was locked up in a jail.”

“You know such a big secret, but Futian didn’t kill you. This is a different interpretation.” Amelia Su said.

“It’s so difficult for you to know that every patriarch must die in the cemetery of the patriarch? Otherwise, there will be a vision in the heavenly book. This is why he dare not kill me. Are you satisfied with this explanation?”
