

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1607 - 1610

Chapter 1607

George Han showed some helplessness after hearing Linlong's words.

As Linlong said, there is a lot of space here, if you really want to find a space tunnel here. It is a very difficult thing. It is very possible that George Han will spend a long time here, and now for George Han, time is very precious.

He couldn't help thinking about what Amelia Su had encountered in the Bafang World and whether there would be any difficulties.

The more I think so. The more George Han couldn't wait to go to Bafang World to help.

And Han Nian.

The longer it stays in the hands of the Fu family, the more dangerous it is for her.

George Han didn't want the mother and son to encounter any danger.

"There should be a way." George Han said.

Linlong was not as confident as George Han, because the space tunnel of the ancient battlefield was in the dark forest. And it has been in the Dark Forest for almost a thousand years, but it hasn't noticed this at all.

"I'm afraid our whole life will be spent here." Lin Long said.

George Han's face was frosty, and he was very dissatisfied with Linlong's words. Having exhausted his life here, doesn't it mean that he will never see Amelia Su and Han Nian again.

This is something that George Han would never allow!

"Perhaps, if I kill you, I will think of a better way." George Han said coldly.

Feeling George Han's killing intent. Linlong was very aggrieved.

It is also a product of Bafang World, and now it will be threatened by George Han.

But even if it was aggrieved, it had no way. He was seriously injured, so he didn't dare to compete with George Han.

"Without me, you would waste more time." Lin Long said.

“So you’d better not say frustrating things in front of me, otherwise I’m afraid I can’t help but cost your life.” George Han said, continuing to set off. If you want to find the space tunnel as soon as possible, you must act.

Stand in place and think. It will not let the space tunnel appear on its own initiative.

All directions.

In the prison of the Fu family.

There was no trace of light in the humid environment, accompanied by the sound of rats fighting from time to time.

Fu Mang has become accustomed to this. But for Amelia Su, this was a disgusting environment. She couldn’t wait to leave.

But in the face of the iron cage made of ten thousand years of cold iron, Amelia Su was helpless even if he had the Kongtong Realm.

At this moment, a faint footstep came from a distance, slowly approaching them.

“Unexpectedly, someone would come to see you. It seems that you are really important to the Fu family.” Fu Mang said with a smile. He has been in the prison for so many years. No one has ever seen him.

And Amelia Su hasn’t come in for a few days. Someone can’t help but want to see her.

“Without a true god, the Fu family will be reduced to a lower family. Of course I am important, but they will never want to succeed.” Amelia Su said lightly.

“Hey.” Fu Mang sighed. Said: “You girl is really stubborn. You can leave the jail if you promised them. Why should you stay with me, an old thing, in this blind enemy?”

At this time the footsteps were already very close, but the visibility in the sky cell was very low. So they still can’t see who the person is.

Suddenly, a dazzling light lit up.

Amelia Su and Fu Mang closed their glasses at the same moment. Because they are used to the darkness, this kind of light will not be acceptable to them for a while.

Amelia Su was still adapting to the light source, and when she was about to open her eyes, she suddenly heard the roar of Fu Mang, and she kept shaking the iron cage, feeling very irritable.

“Futian, you dare to appear in front of me.” Fu Mang roared hysterically.

Although Fu Mang has accepted his fate. But it didn't mean that he could restrain his temper when he saw Futian with his own eyes.

After all, he can have today. Thanks to Futian, Futian couldn't help taking away his position as patriarch. It also imprisoned him in a jail with no sky, which made him lose his freedom.

Facing the angry and violent Fu Mang, Futian appeared very calm, even a faint smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

"Fu Mang, is your delusion not healed? After you have been shut down for so long, don't you still think that you are the patriarch, right? When will you wake up?" Futian said.

"Wishful thinking?" Fu Mang gritted his teeth, his eyes throbbed with anger, and said to Futian: "The position of the patriarch should have belonged to me. If you didn't take it away despicably, how could I become what I am now."

Futian shook his head helplessly, and said: "I know you want to be the patriarch, but my name appears in the wordless heavenly book. This is not human controllable. Every patriarch in the Fu clan has no words. The book of heaven reveals that this is so difficult that you still don't know it?"

"Of course I know it. I even saw my name on the wordless heavenly book." Fu Mang said angrily.

"Hey." Fu Mang sighed and said: "You can't accept such a blow. I can understand your feelings, but this is an unchangeable fact. What can you do if you don't accept it."

Chapter 1608

Watching the two people argue again and again, Amelia Su was a little confused for a while, not knowing who to believe.

What Fu Mang said before, Amelia Su felt somewhat reasonable.

But when Futian appeared. There seems to be some truth in what he said.

There are two things that cannot be explained in this matter, that is, how Futian went to buy the curtain of Loulan Pavilion, and another point is how could Fu Mang see the wordless book.

You must know that every successor to Loulan Pavilion was chosen by the previous one, except for the guardian of Loulan Pavilion. No one in the Fu clan is eligible to enter the Loulan Pavilion, even the patriarch.

"He won't tell you, I robbed him of the position of patriarch, right?" Futian walked to Amelia Su's iron cage and asked Amelia Su with a little smile.

Amelia Su was silent.

Futian suddenly appeared surprised. Said: "Don't you still believe it?"

Before Futian came, Amelia Su had indeed believed this, and even believed that Futian had taken the position of Fumang's patriarch.

But now, Amelia Su's position is a bit erratic, because she is not sure who is telling the truth.

"Hahahahaha." Futian laughed suddenly and continued to say to Amelia Su: "If this is the case, how could I imprison you together, how could I let you know the truth of the matter."

"In fact, all of this is Fu It's just a reckless conjecture. He really wants the position of patriarch so much that he can't accept the reality. He talks madly all day long. This is why I put him in a jail. If I didn't think we still have brothers. Love, I killed him long ago." Futian said.

"You fart." When Fu Mang heard this, he furiously said: "You dare not kill me because I must die in the cemetery of the patriarch. But in this way, your identity will be exposed. That's why you let me live. "

"Hey." Futian sighed heavily, and said: "Your paranoia hasn't alleviated at all. It seems that I still can't let you go out."

"Futian, don't be pretentious about this matter. Sooner or later, it will come to light. I think you haven't thought of how to end it. If the patriarch of the Fu family does not die in the patriarch's cemetery, no one knows what will happen." Fu Mang said.

Futian looked like he was too lazy to pay attention to Fu Mang, and said to Amelia Su: "Are you thinking about it, the Fu clan needs you to save it, do you want to watch the Fu clan decline?"

Amelia Su did not know who is true and who is false. But there is one thing, Amelia Su's heart was determined very early. There will never be the slightest change, that is, she cannot betray George Han.

"I absolutely cannot agree to your request." Amelia Su said firmly.

Futian took a deep breath, obviously suppressing his anger. The Fu family line can no longer wait any longer, otherwise. How could he come to such a place.

"I have found a way to deal with George Han. It's so hard that you won't be willing to see him die?" Futian said.

Amelia Su clenched her fists suddenly, and Futian, a despicable villain, could not come up with any other clean methods besides using George Han as a threat?

“You don’t have to frighten me, Xuanyuan World, you can’t intervene casually.” Amelia Su said through gritted teeth.

“It’s so difficult for you to forget. He once opened a heavenly gate, with his current strength. He wants to ascend to the world of all directions, there is only one chance. And I can help him create this opportunity.” Futian said.

Amelia Su’s face instantly turned pale.

George Han is safe in Xuanyuan World, but once he comes to Bafang World, his life will be held by Futian.

Moreover, based on Amelia Su’s understanding of George Han, if he could really come to Bafang World, he would never miss the opportunity to meet her.

“Are you afraid? Just know that you are afraid, as long as you are willing to agree to my request, I can not kill him, and even help him become stronger.” Futian said.

Amelia Su’s fisted hands couldn’t stop fighting, and her anger had almost reached its limit.

“There is one more thing, I think I should let you know.” Futian said.

Amelia Su knew it was definitely not a good thing, so she did not ask.

But she doesn’t ask, doesn’t mean Futian doesn’t say.

“Recently, a member of the Fu clan family found a girl. She claimed to be Han Nian, from the blue world. I wonder if it will have anything to do with George Han.” Futian said.

Amelia Su was completely angry and looked at Futian with blood red eyes.

Han Nian was clearly arrested by him into the world of all directions, how could he be picked up by a tribe!

“Futian, if you dare to hurt her half of her hair, I will be at odds with you.” Amelia Su said furiously.

Futian showed a faint smile on his face and said: “She is very obedient and beautiful, how could I bear to hurt her, but if she is implicated for some lasting reason, this is not what I can Control it.”

Chapter 1609

Although Futian’s words completely angered Amelia Su, Amelia Su was helpless.

After all, Han Nian was in the hands of this despicable and shameless man, and he could hurt Han Nian at any time. Amelia Su knew that just being angry with him was useless, she was at this time. The more hysterical, the more Futian wanted to see.

“You think about it, I will come to you again. If you can’t give me a satisfactory answer next time, I can’t guarantee that the little girl will end up.” After Futian finished speaking, he laughed left.

Amelia Su was trembling with anger, but she couldn’t save Han Nian when she was in a cage.

“This is the patriarch of the Fu family, who will threaten you with the life of a little girl. Do you think he is trustworthy?” Fu Mang asked Amelia Su.

Amelia Su at this time really believed in Fu Mang even more, because Futian was really unworthy to be the patriarch.

“But I was very surprised. You already have a daughter, and Futian wants you to marry someone else. Can the other person accept it?” Fu Mang asked curiously.

In the Bafang world. But without remarrying, there will only be one partner in a lifetime, and the couple will always be loyal to each other, so a situation similar to Amelia Su is very rare.

Of course, there are lustful men in the Octagonal world, but usually this number does not limit their freedom by marrying a wife, they will enjoy it in their own way.

Amelia Su did not speak, she was really not in the mood to chat with Fu Mang now.

If she promises to Futian, she can leave the prison temporarily and seek a chance to rescue Han Nian, but Amelia Su knows. Such opportunities are very small.

Since Futian threatened Han Nian, he must have hid Han Nian well, how could Amelia Su easily find it?

If Han Nian was not found in the process of preparing for the marriage, then Amelia Su would usher in the consequences of betraying George Han, which Amelia Su could not bear.

The tangled choices made Amelia Su a bit at a loss. She didn’t know what she should do or how to choose.

“Perhaps, I can help you figure out a solution.” Although Amelia Su was not taken care of, Fu Mang did not give up talking to Amelia Su.

Upon hearing this sentence, Amelia Su finally had a reaction.

Because now she has no way, if Fu Mang can really come up with a good way, it would be good news for her.

“What way?” Amelia Su asked.

“I thought you really didn’t mean to me.” Fu Mang smiled.

“Stop talking nonsense, just tell me if you can, and I will swear by my life. One day, I will take you away from here and regain your position as the patriarch.” Amelia Su said firmly.

These words made Fu Mang’s heart moved.

Although he had already accepted his fate. I feel that I will be in prison for a lifetime.

But if he had the opportunity to go out, how could he not be moved.

Moreover, regaining the position of the patriarch is something he really wants to do. He wants to help the sky to pay the price for his shamelessness.

“Although I have been in the prison for many years, I also have a confidant in the Fu family. He should not be in a low position in the Fu family. You can temporarily agree to Futian. After leaving the prison, I will find him. Help.” Fu Mang said.

“Since he is yours, I am afraid that Futian has already been killed.” Amelia Su said lightly, Futian is not a fool, if he really usurped the throne. It is absolutely impossible to let Fu Mang’s henchmen live.

“No one knows my relationship with him, so Futian will not harm him.” Fu Mang said.

“What’s his name?” Amelia Su asked.

“Fu Li.”

“Fu Li!” This name shocked Amelia Su. Because the current Fuli is not Futian’s wife!

His confidant turned out to be a Futian woman, which made Amelia Su a little bit unbelievable.

And since Fuli has become Futian’s wife, how can he continue to help Mang with things?

“What’s the matter?” Fu Mang asked curiously, sensing Amelia Su’s overreaction. Is it difficult to say that there has been an accident in Fuli?

“Do you know what the relationship between Fuli now and Futian is?” Amelia Su asked.

Listening to Amelia Su's question, Fu Mang knew that the relationship between the two was definitely not simple, and he followed his plan before he was sent to the jail. The current Fuli should be Futian's wife. This was Fu Mang's last task before he entered the prison.

"If she follows the plan, she will become Futian's wife." Fumang said.

Amelia Su was even more shocked.

Fuli became Futian's wife, it turned out to be Fumang's plan!

"You...Why do you want Fuli to be Futian's wife?" Amelia Su asked puzzledly.

Fu Mang smiled. Through Amelia Su's reaction, he had guessed that Fuli had completed the task, which was good news for him.

Futian would never think of it. The person next to his pillow will betray him one day, right?

"Do you think I have never thought of regaining the position of patriarch? And the person who can make Futian least suspicious is naturally his closest person. I sent Fuli to Futian, just to know how he can buy it. Help the curtain." Fu Mang said.

Amelia Su's breathing became a little short. If Fuli is still willing to do things for Fu Mang, then through her, it is very possible to find Han Nian directly. As long as Han Nian is safe, Amelia Su will be fearless and need not be threatened by Futian.

But now we still need to face a very serious problem.

Fuli is already the patriarch's wife, do she still remember her identity and following Fumang?

perhaps. She had left these things behind and betrayed Fu Mang.

"The patriarch's wife is so lofty, how do you know that she has not betrayed you. After all, you can't give her the lofty status she now enjoys." Amelia Su said.

"Because she is my strange animal." Fu Mang smiled.

Amelia Su almost dropped her chin, and her eyes were almost out of her eyes.

Fuli is not a person. It's a strange beast!

The wife of the patriarch of the Fu clan was actually an alien beast. If this were to be known to others, wouldn't the Fu clan be the biggest laughing stock in the Bafang world!

And if Fuli was a strange beast, how could it not be discovered by Futian.

“Do you think it’s interesting to play with me? How could Fuli be a strange beast.” Amelia Su said, shaking her head in disbelief.

“She is a nine-headed bird. For her, trying to hide her breath is simple. Except for the dragon clan, the nine-headed bird is the purest beast.” Fu Mang said.

Amelia Su’s mood couldn’t be calmed for a long time, because this incident was too shocking for her, and she couldn’t accept it for a while.

Chapter 1610

Fu Mang gave Amelia Su a lot of time to calm down, because now he can only leave this ghost place with no sky in sight only by relying on Amelia Su’s help.

Although Fuli had a certain status now, she relied on her alone. It is still very difficult to rescue Fu Mang from the prison.

After almost a whole day, Amelia Su calmed down from Fu Mang’s words and chose to believe in Fu Mang.

“Can you guarantee that she will listen to you 100%?” Amelia Su asked.

“The relationship between the alien beast and the owner does not need me to explain to you. If she dares to betray me, I can let her die at any time.” Fu Mang said.

Amelia Su nodded, after the contract was established between the alien beast and the owner, the alien beast’s life. It is completely in the hands of the residents.

If Fuli didn’t want to die, he had to take orders from Fu Mang.

And as Futian’s pillow, she might be very clear about where Han Nian was detained.

“As long as Fuli can help me rescue my daughter, I will definitely find a way to get you out of the prison. I swear by my life.” Amelia Su said.

“I believe you, even if you don’t have an oath, I believe you can do it.” After speaking, Fuli threw an object into Amelia Su’s iron cage.

“This is my personal jade pendant. After she sees it, she will obey you. You can let her do anything.” Fu Mang said.

After Amelia Su picked up the jade pendant, she carefully put it away, because this was the key thing to save Han Nian, and it couldn’t be lost.

Two days later.

Futian once again appeared in the prison, which also showed that Futian did not want to waste more time.

The Fu family urgently needs a true god to keep his position, and the true god also needs time to grow. This will be a long process, so Futian doesn't want to delay any longer.

"How about it. Have you considered it?" Futian asked Amelia Su.

"I can promise you, but I want to see Han Nian." Amelia Su said.

"When you give birth to the next true god. I will naturally give her to you, but before then. You can't meet her." Futian said, and his attitude was very firm, and there was no room for Amelia Su to discuss.

Amelia Su had already guessed this answer.

With Futian's cautious character, how could he let Amelia Su see Han Nian in advance?

"If I can't see her, how can I know that she is safe?" Amelia Su said.

"This is what I brought you. You should know if you look at it." Futian finished speaking and took a roll of paper to Amelia Su.

A family of three, with parents around, the little girl held her parents' hand and smiled very happily.

Although the brush is very scribble, the human face is very charming.

Amelia Su knew. This must be from Han Nian's hand, which also proves that Han Nian is indeed alive.

"This is your last chance. If you don't promise me, after leaving the jail, I will end her life. I advise you to think carefully." Futian said.

Amelia Su took a deep breath. Looking at Futian with an angry face, he said, "In addition to agreeing to you. Is there any other choice?"

Futian couldn't help laughing. This was the result he could predict.

Amelia Su might not betray George Han, but how could she see Han Nian die in the face of Han Nian's life?

"You are a great mother." Futian finished speaking and opened the iron cage.

“Your future husband has been waiting for you for a long time. After you leave the jail, you can dress up and I will take you to see him.” Futian said.

Amelia Su didn't respond. She can't wait to kill Futian now, but it's a pity that her Kongtong realm is compared with Futian. There is still a certain gap, and in case Futian is annoyed. Han Nian's life is even more dangerous.

“Congratulations, shameless villain, you succeeded again.” Fu Mang said disdainfully.

Futian smiled triumphantly, stopped in front of Fumang's iron cage, and said, “Do you know why I can succeed every time?”

“Because you are mean enough.” Fu Mang said coldly.

Futian shook his head and said, “Because truth often stands by the side of successful people, and you, a loser, are not worthy of it.”

Fu Mang bit his posterior molars, this kind of despicable villain is even qualified to show off his might in front of him!

“It's no use to be angry. You will be with the darkness forever.” At this point, Futian suddenly lowered his voice and continued: “But you can rest assured that when you are about to die, I will personally take you away. , After all, your ultimate belonging is not here.”

Fu Mang grasped the iron cage railing blankly and gritted his teeth and said: “The patriarch, naturally should die in the cemetery of the patriarch, Futian, one day your lies will be exposed, and you will be forever!

Futian didn't feel any threats because of these words, because it was still a very long-standing problem for him, and he had enough time to think and plan how to deal with this situation.
