

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1639 - 1642

Chapter 1639

In this matter, Dao Twelve knew that he almost missed a major event because of impulse, so in front of George Han, he dared not even lift his head for fear that George Han would blame himself.

But George Han didn't mean to blame it at all, because he knew it. Dao Twelve did this because of his safety. In this case, how could he blame Dao Twelve.

"It's okay, I know you are for my good, but with your current state, it is best not to be too impulsive, and don't stand out if you encounter anything in the future." George Han said to Dao Twelve.

Dao Twelve did not speak. Just nodded silently.

"By the way, what's the situation this time?" Although Mo Yang had already done some understanding of this matter in the city lord's mansion, he still didn't know exactly what was going on, and the emperor suddenly revoked the treatment of George Han. Qian's wanted, also made Mo Yang feel a little strange.

"The one who killed me. It was sent by the Amelia family, but it has been resolved now. My friend has killed him." George Han said.

"Friend?" Mo Yang looked at George Han questioningly.

As far as Mo Yang knew, George Han didn't have a strong friend from the Octagonal world, and how could the friend in his mouth be able to deal with the strongman from the Octagonal world?

"Friends of dirty students?" Mo Yang asked suspiciously.

"Why, don't you think I have this kind of strength?" George Han said helplessly.

If George Han was so strong, he would not hide it from them.

So Mo Yang shook his head, and denied what George Han said.

"This friend of mine was once a great figure in Octagon World, but he happened to be in Xuanyuan World. That's why he met me." George Han explained.

"You came this time, wouldn't it be parting?" Mo Yang thought it was strange that George Han suddenly appeared in Longyun City. After listening to George Han's words, he made a bold guess.

Although he felt that it was not a good time for George Han to go to Bafang World now, but with George Han's character, he was completely capable of doing this.

After all, George Han could do anything for Amelia Su, and if he stayed in the Xuanyuan world, it was impossible for him to make too many breakthroughs in his realm. Only by going to the Bafang World would he have the opportunity to become stronger.

"Not bad." Since Mo Yang had guessed it, George Han also admitted his purpose.

He really wants to leave Xuanyuan World, because he has no room to become stronger if he stays here.

Although the Bafang world is dangerous, George Han wants to become stronger. You must take this step.

He couldn't let Amelia Su wait too long, nor could he let Han Nian be imprisoned forever.

After listening to George Han's words, the three of Mo Yang fell silent. I don't know what to say.

They all thought that George Han was very dangerous to go to Bafang World now, and it was not a good time.

But at the same time they knew in their hearts that this was something George Han had to face sooner or later. And he himself didn't mean to escape.

Staying in Xuanyuan World could indeed guarantee his safety, but this kind of safety was not what George Han wanted.

"Have you figured it out?" Mo Yang asked in a deep voice after a long silence.

"This is the choice I must, and it is also something I must face." George Han said.

Mo Yang took a deep breath, revealed a bright smile, and climbed on George Han's shoulders and said, "We have never had a good drink. Don't be a turtle today."

George Han smiled. Said: "You middle-aged uncle, do you still want to compare with me as a guy?"

After hearing this, Mo Yang was not convinced, and patted his chest and said: "On drinking. I have never been afraid of anyone. What's the use of being young? If I let you lie down under the table, you have to lie down honestly."

"The mouth is very powerful, but I don't know if I have real skills." George Han smiled.

When Mo Yang passed by Dao Twelve, he kicked Dao Twelve. Said: "What are you doing in a daze, can't you be happy? Let's have a good drink."

Dao Twelve was worried about George Han's safety. That's why he couldn't lift the energy, but he knew that in this atmosphere, if he pulled a face to death, it would definitely destroy the atmosphere, so he had to force a smile.

The three of them began to push glasses on the wine table in broad daylight. This was the first time the three had a drink, and it was the most enjoyable one.

Liu Fang takes care of the three people, and the three drink freely.

The Bafang World at this moment. Amelia Su was still locked in the room and guarded by someone.

She knew that Futian had sent Fu Leng to Xuanyuan World, and when Fu Leng found George Han, it would be a fatal blow to George Han.

But in Amelia Su's heart, she didn't worry too much. Although she knew that George Han was dead, she could not compromise to help the sky because of this. This kind of betrayal of George Han was not as good as George Han's death. On the road to Huangquan, look for George Han again.

Just as Amelia Su was in a daze in the room. The door was suddenly pushed open.

Fu Li walked in calmly.

Because there are guards at the door, before closing the door, Fu Li looks high.

And after closing the door. Fuli returned to his normal expression.

"What are you doing?" Amelia Su asked.

"Fuleng is dead." When Fuli didn't speak, he said thunder.

Amelia Su looked at Fuli in disbelief, although she had also imagined that things would end in this way. But Amelia Su knows exactly how likely it is to help the cold to die. This is almost impossible.

And George Han made the impossible possible again, creating a miracle!

"Is the news accurate?" Amelia Su asked in a deep voice.

"Futian is furious, can you say it is not accurate?" Fuli said.

Amelia Su suddenly showed a bright smile and said: "He is a man who is good at creating miracles, so I don't feel strange at all."

"But don't you think this thing is strange? With his strength, how could it be possible to kill Fuleng." Fuli frowned and said, telling her instinctively that this matter is not simple, because George Han and Fuleng The difference in strength between them is tens of thousands of miles, which is definitely not something George Han can do.

“What’s so strange that he can’t kill Fu Leng if it’s stumped?” Amelia Su said, taking it for granted.

“You don’t have to pretend to be calm in front of me. Actually, you feel very strange in your heart.” Fuli said.

“No, I really don’t find it strange, because I believe he can do it, he can do it.” Amelia Su said frankly.

This is indeed a strange thing, but Amelia Su would not think so much when it happened to George Han.

Chapter 1640

Fuli stared at Amelia Su without even blinking her eyes. She hoped that she could see something in Amelia Su’s eyes, but Amelia Su’s eyes were firm. But it didn’t reveal the slightest flaw.

This makes Fuli very strange, why can she trust George Han so much?

With George Han’s strength, how could it be Fu Leng’s opponent, but she didn’t have any doubts.

“Why do you believe in him so?” Fuli asked incomprehensibly, she really couldn’t figure out where Amelia Su’s determination came from.

“Because he is my husband, I don’t believe him. Who else can I trust?” Amelia Su said confidently, unambiguously.

Fuli smiled helplessly, she couldn’t understand this feeling, but she knew it. Amelia Su really didn’t mean to doubt George Han.

“Fuleng is dead now, and Futian is furious. It is not a good thing for George Han.” Fuli reminded.

“Will he send someone to Xuanyuan World?” Amelia Su asked curiously, she was not worried at all.

Fu Leng is already considered to be a more powerful expert in the Fu clan. Since Fu Leng is dead, even if Fu Tian sends others to go, the same result will likely be the same.

Fuli shook his head. He said: “Xuanyuan World is on the top of the Blue Mountain, after all, he can’t do whatever he wants. I heard that he has paid a lot of price for Fu Leng to go to Xuanyuan World. It is probably impossible to send someone to him.”

“Isn’t this all right? He is no longer in danger.” Amelia Su smiled.

Since George Han is not in danger, she doesn’t even need to care about Futian. No matter how he threatens, Amelia Su will be deaf to her ears.

“Are you really not worried at all? George Han will come to Bafang World sooner or later, at that time. Do you think Futian will let him go?” Fuli reminded, she didn’t understand why Amelia Su was still in the mood to laugh.

If it’s her. She will only worry more.

Because of the angry Futian, it is absolutely impossible for George Han to survive.

“Has this not happened yet? Is there anything to worry about.” Amelia Su said. She and George Han had an agreement that only when they saw the ascending signal would George Han come to Bafang World.

In other words, as long as Amelia Su didn’t let George Han come to the world, he would never be impulsive.

“But this will happen sooner or later, no matter when. He has to face it, although I don’t know what kind of person he is. But if he really loves you, through Fu Leng, he must have guessed you. Do you think he will escape from this situation?” Fuli said.

After Fuli’s analysis, Amelia Su gradually became a little worried.

She has a very deep understanding of George Han. It is clear what kind of person George Han is.

He will never escape from anything.

If he guessed that he was in danger now, then George Han would come without hesitation even if he knew that he was in danger in the world of all directions.

“It seems that you should already have an answer in your heart.” Fuli said.

Amelia Su took a deep breath. Said: “If he feels that I am in danger, he will definitely come.”

“Coming to Bafang World. It’s his death date.” Fuli said firmly. She saw Futian’s anger, and she knew how strong Futian wanted to kill George Han.

“I want to leave here, you help me.” Amelia Su said.

Fuli was stunned for a moment, then smiled bitterly, and said, “Do you know how many people are guarding outside? Futian personally ordered them. They would not leave without Futian’s order. I can’t let you leave. .”

“In the current situation, you can only overthrow Futian’s identity. Don’t you want Fumang to see the sun again?” Amelia Su said eagerly.

Fuli is a Fumang person, and she lurks beside Futian. It is to one day be able to reveal the true face of Futian, so that Fumang can be released from the prison.

But in the current situation, Fuli couldn’t help Amelia Su at all. If she did this, she might be involved.

“I think, but the current situation does not allow me to do this.” Fuli said.

The inability to leave means that there is no way to prove Futian’s lie.

But unable to overthrow Futian, George Han would face life danger after coming to Bafang World.

At this moment, a footstep stopped in front of the door.

Both Amelia Su and Fuli were taken aback.

Immediately after the door opened, Futian walked in from outside.

Fuli stood up immediately, shook his head helplessly, and made the appearance of persuading Amelia Su to fail.

“Why are you here?” Futian asked Fuli.

“I want to persuade her that the future of the Fu clan is all in her hands, and I also want to make a contribution to the Fu clan.” Fuli said.

Speaking of this matter, Futian’s anger was somewhat uncontrollable. If it weren’t for Amelia Su’s stubbornness, it would not have killed Fu Leng.

You must know that Fu Leng is the leader among the younger generation of the Fu clan. The reason why Fu Tian sent Fu Leng to Xuanyuan World was that he hoped to kill George Han with greater certainty.

But the result was that he never thought that Fu Leng died!

Chapter 1641

Regarding Fu Leng’s death, Futian thought about it for a long time, but he didn’t even figure out how Fu Leng’s death was caused.

Xuanyuan World was nothing but a low-level world to Bafang World. And the people there are absolutely impossible to cause danger to Fu Leng.

Although George Han was a strong god in Xuanyuan World, such a realm was like an ant to Fu Leng.

So Futian, who couldn't figure it out, had to come to Amelia Su, hoping to get an answer from Amelia Su.

Perhaps only Amelia Su would know how George Han did it.

"You go first." Futian said to Fuli.

Fuli glanced at Amelia Su worriedly. She didn't know what Futian would do to Amelia Su, but after Fuleng died, Futian would definitely need some catharsis to vent his anger.

"Fuleng is dead." After Fuli left, Futian said directly to Amelia Su.

Amelia Su showed a hint of surprise. Avoid letting Futian realize that he already knows this.

"Isn't this normal? He has the ability to kill Fu Leng, not surprising." Amelia Su said.

Futian saw Amelia Su's surprise, so in his opinion, Amelia Su's words were just pretentious.

"With George Han's strength, it is absolutely impossible for him to do this." Futian said affirmatively.

"Really?" Amelia Su said with a frown, "But he is dead, it's a fact. He can't deal with Fu Leng, it's just your own wishful thinking."

Futian gritted his teeth, how could George Han's inferior waste from the Xuanyuan world have the strength to kill Fu Leng.

"You'd better not be foolish in front of me, I want to know how he did it." Futian said.

"Don't you want me to tell you what happened? How can I know if I haven't seen it?" Amelia Su said.

"Based on what you know about George Han, you must know how he did it?" Futian said.

Regarding this, Amelia Su really didn't know.

Although she looked like a matter of course in front of Fuli. But she has a lot of doubts about this matter in her heart.

In terms of strength, George Han could indeed not be Fu Leng's opponent. Although George Han still has a strange red-eyed jade mang.

But the red-eyed Yumang, a low-level alien beast in the Xuanyuan world, could not bring much help to George Han. It is even more impossible to help George Han create miracles.

“I’m disappointed. I really don’t know. If you want to know the reason, you can send someone to Xuanyuan World. If one person is not enough to help Leng, just send a few more people?” Amelia Su said.

Actually these words. He was also testing what arrangements Futian would make next, and to see if he would continue to send people to Xuanyuan World.

Although Fuli had already said that this matter was unlikely. But this is just a guess to help Li himself.

In fact, Futian really couldn’t do this anymore, the Blue Mountain Top refused his request, otherwise. Futian wanted to go to Xuanyuan World in person and retrieve George Han’s body.

“Fuyao. I can kill you at any time, do you believe it?” Futian gritted his teeth.

“If you wanted to kill me, I would have died a long time ago, how can I wait until now?” Amelia Su looked at Futian defiantly. She didn’t have a trace of fear, because Futian also placed the future of the Fu family on her.

Although Futian was furious at the moment. Amelia Su also knew that he was absolutely impossible to attack herself.

Futian almost crushed her posterior molar, no matter how she threatened Amelia Su, she remained indifferent, which made Futian really helpless.

If you kill Amelia Su, then the Fu family line will be doomed to no true gods, such a result is beyond Futian.

After all, there is no true god, and the blow to the Fu clan is unimaginable.

It’s not just that the status of one of the three big families cannot be kept. Even the Fu’s line itself is in great danger.

“Are you stupefied and want to watch the Fu family’s line ruined in your hands?” Futian said.

“No.” Amelia Su shook her head and said: “The Fu family line is not destroyed in my hands. It is you.”

“I have exhausted my energy for the Fu family, how could it be destroyed in my hands.” Futian retorted angrily.

“If it weren’t for you to usurp the throne with lies. Today in the Fu family’s line might be completely different.” Amelia Su said.

These words made Futian suddenly clenched his fists. If it weren’t for a trace of rational restraint, he would have killed Amelia Su with one punch.

“Do you really believe Fu Mang’s words? He is the one who really wants to usurp the throne.” Futian said.

Although Fu Mang was not completely credible, Amelia Su still believed in Fu Mang’s words more than Futian.

“Futian, I will bring you down sooner or later.” Amelia Su said firmly.

Futian Qiqiao made smoke and said, “This is your choice, but I can’t blame me. Although I can’t go to Xuanyuan World, I will release a message to let George Han know your current situation. If he really loves you, he must He will come to Bafang World in the shortest time. At that time, his life will be in my hands.”

Chapter 1642

Since being threatened by Futian last time, Amelia Su has understood very well that she will not compromise because of anything.

Since Futian sent Fu Leng to Xuanyuan World to kill George Han, she couldn’t make Amelia Su compromise, how could she agree to Fu Leng at this time?

Futian, who failed to achieve his goal, could only leave angrily. Then began to arrange the news to Xuanyuan World.

Since it was impossible to kill George Han in Xuanyuan World, then only let George Han take the initiative to come to Bafang World. At that time, Futian would not have any fear.

And there is one thing Futian must figure out, how George Han managed to kill Fuleng.

The strength between the two is far from the sky. From Futian’s point of view, this is something that George Han can’t do at all, so there must be something strange in this. Even Futian suspected that this matter was still controlled by the Blue Mountain Peak, so he dispelled the idea of sending people to Xuanyuan World.

Fu Leng is already a leader in the Fu family, even if he is dead, sending others to go is just a dead end. Futian didn’t want to weaken the strength of the Fu family.

“Patriarch, this matter is probably inseparable from the Blue Mountain Peak. Even if George Han comes to Bafang World, if he is backed by the Blue Mountain Peak, we want to kill him, I am afraid it is not that simple. “Futian’s confidant Fushang couldn’t help reminding him after learning about Futian’s plan.

“Are you so sure?” Although Futian had thoughts like this, it was just a guess from beginning to end, and there was no real evidence to prove that this matter had something to do with the top of the Blue Mountain.

Fushang also had no evidence, but Fu Leng’s death almost confirmed his thoughts.

“Besides. I can’t think of the reason why Fu Leng died. Is it possible that there is anyone in the Xuanyuan world that is Fu Leng’s opponent?” Fushang said.

The Xuanyuan world is just a space created by the true god on top of the Blue Mountain. Compared to the Bafang world, it is obviously a low-level space, and the low-level space has limitations on human cultivation, that is to say, being born in Xuanyuan In the world, no matter how talented, no matter how hard a person is, his cultivation level cannot surpass the Bafang World.

This is a destined reality and a bottleneck that no one can break.

Of course, this is a very simple and clear explanation of Fu Leng’s death. It is absolutely impossible for the people of Xuanyuan World to do it.

Futian took a deep breath. He actually understood these simple truths in his heart. It’s just not willing to admit it.

Because once the top of the blue mountain is involved with George Han, this is fatal news for Futian.

Can’t use George Han to threaten Amelia Su. Futian was even more unable to make Amelia Su change his mind.

Moreover, if the Blue Mountain tops backed George Han, it would probably cause a lot of trouble to the Fu family.

“But there is an appointment between the three major families. No matter which true god falls, no one can cause trouble to each other before the new true god appears.” Futian said.

Fushang sneered coldly and said: “I don’t know how many years ago this agreement was made. Now whether they abide by it is still unknown. Maybe, the Blue Mountain Peak already has someone to support. “

These words made Futian gritted his teeth!

indeed. The agreement was made by people in the past, but whether people are willing to comply with it, Futian cannot know.

Moreover, the Blue Mountain Peak wants to support a certain family in secret, which is also a matter of reason. After all, the three major families are peaceful on the surface, but there are countless rivals behind them. If the top of the blue mountain can cultivate an ally on its own, the status of the top of the blue mountain in the future can surpass the three major families.

If you let Futian choose. He will do the same, because there are no eternal friends in this world, only eternal interests.

“Regardless of whether this matter is related to the top of the Blue Mountain, I can’t accept my fate.” Futian said.

“Patriarch, I have an idea, I don’t know if you want to.” Fushang said.

“Say it quickly. What’s the point of selling?” Futian said coldly.

“Since the top of the Blue Mountain wants to surpass the three major families, we can take the opportunity to unite with the immortal sea. If the immortal sea is willing to help us, we don’t have to worry about the blue mountain top making trouble in the dark.” Said.

Fu Leng savored these words carefully, and there was a truth to it.

The Immortal Sea definitely does not want to see the Blue Mountain on their heads, and the key to counterbalance the Blue Mountain is to prevent him from nurturing his allies. As long as the Immortal Sea knows the stakes, they must be willing. Worked in the same line with Fu’s.

“You go find a way to spread the news of Amelia Su’s impending execution to Xuanyuan World, and spread it out. You must let George Han know about this in the shortest time possible. I will go to the Immortal Sea.” Futian arranged. .

“Yes.”

Immortal waters.

Located in the northern border of Bafang World, it is an endless ocean. It is also in this vast ocean that the people of the immortal seas live.

The immortal sea peoples live in the water, but their appearance is no different from ordinary people. It’s just a unique way of cultivation that allows them to live in the water and build their own huge race.

When Futian came to the immortal sea. The people in the Immortal Sea immediately followed him.

Because the Immortal Sea has its own family rules, no one is allowed to trespass into the forbidden area of the North Sea. If there is no notification, the Immortal Sea can be killed. This also causes other people in the Bafang World to rarely visit the Immortal Sea, or even most of the Bafang World. People have never seen this vast ocean at all.

“Who are you who dare to trespass into the immortal sea without authorization.” Several guards looked at each other and looked at Futian swords.

“I am the patriarch of the Fu family, Futian, I want to see your patriarch.” Futian said.

Although the other party was just a few guards, he heard Futian report himself and wanted to see his patriarch, immediately showing a disdainful expression.

Before the change, Futian might still have the qualifications to sit on an equal footing with his family.

But now that the true god of the Fu clan has fallen, and Futian is at most an ordinary patriarch, how could he be qualified to see the patriarch of the immortal sea.

“Please go back, our patriarch has no time to see you.” The guard said to Futian.

As the saying goes, the king of Hades is so hard to see the little ghosts. If you want to see the patriarch of the immortal sea, you have to deal with these guards.

Futian took out the things he had prepared for a long time, and said to several people: “This is rich on land. If several people are willing to announce it, I will thank you very much.”
