

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1755 - 1758

Chapter 1755

Linlong yelled, and the whole person was extremely anxious. Zhu Ying was going to detonate her golden body to increase the energy of the formation and use her life as a bet.

Zhu Ying smiled coldly: "If there is anything you don't want, Master save the apprentice. It's easy for my old mother Zhu Ying to have an apprentice like George Han, and I will have no regrets in this life. Remember to ask him to give my old mother a few more sticks of incense during the holidays, old mother. This life is so fucking lonely!"

Following Zhu Ying's roar, she violently placed her golden body directly into the formation. Following Zhu Ying's final shout, the whole golden body exploded directly in the formation!

boom! !

In the big array. The light suddenly rose, and the imprint on George Han's forehead together with Xiao Tao's green mark at this time released a dazzling light.

The light covered George Han and Xiao Tao. At this time, Xiao Tao closed her eyes tightly, and a picture quickly flashed through her mind. George Han's kitchen was rescued. I was sold into slavery, I was driven out of the village, my parents took myself...

Suddenly, Xiao Tao's picture stopped.

At this time, Xiao Bai said anxiously from the outside: "Although the energy of the golden body explosion is enough, but the time is too short, Linlong, we must always maintain the previous amount, or you have to hold on for a while. ."

Hearing Xiaobai's shout, Linlong was already sweating at this time, but looking at the other eleven beasts, all of them were pale. Lips were purple, sweating violently, it was obvious that they had reached the limit.

If you don't take it down, the twelve strange beasts in the formation will all be hollowed out by the formation and die.

But if you give up, all the previous efforts will be wasted, but if they continue, they will not last long.

"Okay, George Han, I bet you!" After Lin Long finished speaking, he shouted to withdraw. When all the beasts released their energy, Lin Long gritted his teeth and took out the heart of the dragon clan.

“what?!”

See the heart of the dragon. Silong was immediately shocked.

“Patriarch, what are you doing?”

“The heart of the dragon is the supreme treasure of our dragons. Without the heart of the dragons, our dragons would never be able to raise their heads. Don’t you know this thousands of years of humiliation?”

“Yes. We, without the heart of the dragon clan, are called snakes and earthworms in the world of eight directions. We have endured it for thousands of years. Patriarch, you finally found it, how can you bring it...”

“The heart of the dragon is the life of the dragon, patriarch, you have to think twice!”

Silong stopped anxiously. Although in name, the Four Dragons still respect George Han as the Beast King, they can also give George Han enough respect. But if they want them to take out the dragon clan’s treasure, they would rather not have their own lives.

Because the heart of the dragon clan is tantamount to the importance of energy to the cultivator of the dragon clan, without it, the upper limit of the dragon clan will always be only high-level strange beasts, and the dragon clan with the dragon’s heart. You can even get close to the true god and watch all sentient beings.

The Four Dragons, like all other dragons, had already had enough of oppression. He even felt that Longsheng had no interest at all, just mixed eating and waiting to die, the appearance of the dragon heart, igniting their hope, and also igniting the hope of the entire dragon family.

Now, Linlong wanted to give the heart of the dragon clan to George Han. This kind of despair of being lost and regained is far more unacceptable than not getting it.

“Dragons do not have the heart of the dragons and will not die. But George Han will now, although I know that the heart of the dragons may not be able to awaken the Pangu axe, but at least, those who are dragons must have a clear conscience.” Linlong smiled bitterly. .

Then, he looked at the four dragons: “The heart of the dragon family was found by George Han. The presence or absence of this thing has a great relationship with him. I also know that you are not worried about yourself, but the entire dragon family. I Same thing.”

“But I have more contact with humans. I understand a truth. It is not impossible to have a super god in self-development, but it is based on strength. There is also a super body method called lying!”

Hugging one thigh, lay him upside down. I only need to hug him fiercely, and the enemy will force him to be strong, and I will repay him.

Linlong bet almost all of the treasures on George Han. Zhu Ying dared to take her life to crush George Han, and she dared to take the heart of a dragon.

“George Han, the Dragon Race will look at you from now on, you must definitely wake me up.” Linlong’s dragon teeth bit, and directly threw the Dragon Heart into George Han in the center of the formation.

Suddenly, the entire formation was radiant, and even the black hole that couldn’t see the five fingers was shining like daylight.

At the main hall of the Four Peaks, Lin Mengxi received a report from a disciple, and the light of Ciyun Cave flashed, and the whole person was very surprised. When the four peaks disciples hurried to Ciyun Cave, the rain had stopped.

There was nothing in front of the cave, and there did not seem to be any movement in the cave.

When a group of them bravely walked into Ciyun Cave, there was nothing in Ciyun Cave, and even the “monster” in Ciyun Cave was gone.

At this time, the Void Sect Void Realm, several beams of light broke through the door of space!

Chapter 1756

Outside the Void Sect, the rolling mountains traverse thousands of miles, the autumn and the yellow are everywhere, and you can’t see the end at a glance.

Inside Qin Qingfeng’s thatched house, Qin Qingfeng was sorrowful and was wiping the tablet that had just been made for George Han. At this time, several beams of light fell in front of the door, and he subconsciously hid the tablet behind him, thinking it was that. Ye Gucheng is here again, but before the day when nothing is paid, how can he come???

At this moment, a figure walked into the room and saw the person coming, Qin Qingfeng was surprised.

“Three thousand? You are not dead?”

George Han was pale and extremely weak, but even so, he still held Zhu Ying’s body in his hands. However, when Zhu Ying died, only half of the bones and half of the skin were left. George Han smiled bitterly: “Three thousand are not dead, yes Because she exchanged her own life for mine.”

Looking at the white bones in George Han's hands, Qin Qingfeng was taken aback: "She is..."

"She is the master I recognize in the Void Sect, Zhu Ying."

Hearing this, Qin Qingfeng's face suddenly froze, and it took a full moment to reflect it. After a moment, he shook his head uncomfortably and gently took Zhu Ying's bones.

"Three thousand can live, relying on the master to save his life, and from now on, three thousand will always be a child of Zhumen." After saying that, George Han knelt down and knocked on Zhu Ying's body three times.

Qin Qingfeng sighed and helped George Han up: "Zhu Ying can save you with her life, and it is also your good fortune, so do you have any plans in the future?"

"Master, three thousand come here this time. First, I want to give you the body of Master Zhu Ying. The environment in Ciyun Cave is too bad. She hated Sifeng before she was alive, so I don't want to bury her in the Void Sect. I know that Master, you travel a lot, and I want to ask you a question." George Han said.

Qin Qingfeng nodded: "Three thousand, you can ask, Master knows everything."

"Master, do you know the Pangu clan?"

Hearing George Han's question, Qin Qingfeng frowned, and quietly glanced outside the house, seeing some strange beasts and a beautiful girl, looking at George Han worriedly.

"Master, they are all my favorites, and another is Xiaotao, who is my own."

Qin Qingfeng nodded, a little embarrassed: "This is a tacit ban on all directions. No one should mention it."

"The Pangu tribe was originally one of the great tribes in the Octagonal world. Sitting in the Eastern Mountains, it is the noblest race in the Octagonal world. The men of the Pangu tribe are born with supernatural powers, and all women have the appearance of being overwhelmed by the country. They are born to guard Pangu's secrets, legends, and the secrets of Pangu, there are clues related to the king of pangu axe, and there are many secrets of the god of Pangu. There are rumors that the secret of Pangu can rule the world, but because of this, Brought to them the disaster of extermination!"

"The gods and men of all walks of life in the eight directions, for the secret of Pangu, they united together, based on the theory of guilt, and fought a large-scale joint battle against the Pangu clan. In this war, the Pangu clan blood flowed into rivers and bones. Like a mountain, tens of thousands of Pangu men slaughtered horribly under the attack of the coalition forces, and the women who remained."

When Qin Qingfeng said this, he couldn't bear it: "They have suffered the humiliation of thousands of people. Those righteous people who have lost their conscience are doing crazy and ridiculous things. That night, the Pangu clan was all the screams of Pangu women. After that, they began torture for three days, but apart from venting their animal desires, they did not get any useful clues from the Pangu tribe."

"And the many coalition forces in the Octagonal World were anxious and furious, they killed the Pangu clan and drove away, and reached a tacit understanding with each other. The Pangu clan was automatically prohibited and no one was allowed to talk about it."

Although George Han hadn't experienced it, he was quite angry when he heard this. This is simply what the beast did: "Master, do you mean that the Pangu clan has been destroyed?"

"No, there was only a branch of the Pangu clan at that time, and it survived because of going out. After that, this Pangu branch was divided into clan and lived in secret, living a paradise life. No one knows their whereabouts, but..." Qin Qingfeng Speaking of this, time can't go on.

The whole person's face is full of guilt and regret.

After a while, he smiled bitterly: "But three years ago, I met the people of the Pangu tribe."

In a word, while George Han was suddenly shocked, the hope in his heart also followed!

For George Han, it was hope, but for Qin Qingfeng, that incident was the beginning of despair.

"Since I accepted Ye Gucheng as a disciple, I have felt that this child has outstanding talents, so I have tried my best to train him. In the past 20 years, I have traveled almost all over the world in order to find the treasures of heaven and earth for him. The lonely city also comforted me. The growth rate was amazing. In this case, I was almost crazy about training him."

"Three years ago, I met a friend who unintentionally discovered the traces of the descendants of Pangu. I was so obsessed for a while and joined hands with him to carry out a sneak attack on that village." Qin Qingfeng finished speaking, and he regretted the whole person: "After slaughtering the village, my friend, in order to obtain the treasures in the village, designed to frame me and beat me into a useless person, and my apprentice also betrayed me. This is the retribution for my evil."

In the past three years, Qin Qingfeng has almost kept silent about the mistakes he made in the moment of confusion, but the nightmare of the past three years still made him miserable.

Now, Qin Qingfeng let out a sigh of relief when he mentioned George Han.

“Master, what’s the difference between you like this and that gang of beasts ten thousand years ago?” George Han said angrily. For the sake of profit, what is the difference between this and beasts???

George Han suddenly remembered that sentence, there must be something hateful in a poor person, and this is the case with Qin Qingfeng.

“I also know that I am deeply sinful. I was confused for a while and committed such sins. Unfortunately, I am now such a useless person. I will not be able to find people from the Pangu clan anymore, but if I live, I can see it again. For the people of the Pangu clan, I will apologize with death!” Qin Qingfeng said firmly.

George Han nodded and said, “Master, are you serious about this?”

“Qin Qingfeng has always been upright and upright in his work, and what he said is by no means an excuse.”

George Han nodded: “Well, although you are my master, right is right, wrong and wrong. Maybe someone can do some of your wishes.”

George Han finished speaking coldly, got up and pulled Xiaotao in from outside the house, and then handed his jade sword into her hand.

Seeing George Han’s behavior, when Qin Qingfeng was strange, George Han suddenly exerted force at this time, and the green mark on Xiaotao’s arm suddenly lit up with a faint golden light.

When Qin Qingfeng saw the green seal on Xiao Tao’s hand, his whole body was shocked: “Pan...Pan...Pangu people?”

Chapter 1757

“If you really regret it, then she is a gift from my apprentice, but if not, she should also be your retribution.” George Han said coldly.

After Qin Qingfeng was surprised, he let out a wry smile, and slowly closed his eyes: “I like your gift very much, come on.”

Xiao Tao was holding a sword, but she was unable to do anything. George Han could clearly see that Qin Qingfeng was deeply regretful. George Han said at this time: “Don’t worry, she can’t kill you now. She was People have deleted a lot of memories.”

Maybe, her people didn’t want her to recall those painful experiences, so they deleted her memory and let her be outside and be an ordinary person.

In this regard, when George Han was in the formation with Xiaotao, although George Han had already died, he could sense the existence of Xiaotao and see her in the formation through the induction of Pangu Axe. At that time, those fragmented memories of pictures that came to mind.

“She has been deleted from the memory?” Qin Qingfeng opened his eyes and said in a daze.

“This is also my next plan to bring her back to her memory, because I need her help.” George Han said sternly.

“What can she do for you? Three thousand, aren’t you also interested in The Secret of Pangu?” Qin Qingfeng frowned.

George Han smiled and said, “Of course I am interested in the secrets of Pangu, but I am different from you. A gentleman loves money and makes a good way.”

“Actually, George Han has a Pangu axe in his body. George Han is the real Pangu secret, but he needs Pangu people to teach him how to use it. But the problem is that Xiaotao now has amnesia. Although destiny arranged for them to come together, Destiny took a joke.” At this time, Lin Long walked in.

Hearing this, Qin Qingfeng looked at George Han in surprise, then looked at Linlong, and then at Xiaotao, unable to accept this fact for a while.

Soon, he understood why George Han wanted to help Xiaotao retrieve his memory.

“I can help you.” Qin Qingfeng thought for a while and said, “Whether it’s atonement or you are my only apprentice, Qin Qingfeng will always help you with this matter.”

George Han frowned: “Master, you want to go with us?”

“Old Lai Yizi, I only have you as an apprentice. I should go wherever you go. What’s more, although your master is already a useless person, he traveled all over the place when he was young. He had many friends, and he was also a sect. Although the seventh elders of the elders are named but not real, they can at least protect you in the world of all directions.” Qin Qingfeng said this, obviously proud.

George Han and Linlong looked at each other and nodded to each other.

After that, George Han and Qin Qingfeng set up a tomb for Zhu Ying at the thatched hut in Houshan. After some worship, the three of them took the five dragons, and under the weight of the five dragons, they set off toward the mountains. .

George Han barely recovered, and Qin Qingfeng was an old man whose neck was covered in soil. The only female streamer, Xiaotao, became the strongest physical presence in the team. At night, the group finally fell outside a big city. .

“The front is Tianhu City. Back then, the village of Pangu branch was in the most eastern part of Tianhu City, but it’s getting late today. I think, let’s advance to the city, but remember, you are still relatively young. After entering the city, Everything must listen to me, don't mess around in the city, you know?" Qin Qingfeng shouted coldly at this time.

George Han nodded, followed Qin Qingfeng, let the Silong wait nearby, Linlong, green-eyed jade python and Xiao Bai returned to their positions and marched towards the city.

Sky Lake City stands tall, and at a glance, the city walls are almost straight into the sky. To say nothing, it is four to five hundred meters high. It feels like a giant city.

At the gate, a line of soldiers stood there, with four burly and fierce behemoths tied to both sides. They looked fierce and showed fierce light, and the Buddha might tear passers-by to pieces at any time.

At this time, it was in the evening, and many people from the market began to clean up their stalls and were busy preparing to enter the city.

George Han followed behind Qin Qingfeng, with Xiao Tao, slowly marching towards the city.

The guard commander was a burly man with a tall cow and a strong horse. The muscles on his arms were as thick as Xiao Tao's head. When it was Qin Qingfeng's turn, the burly man stopped the three of them.

Qin Qingfeng smiled and took out a token from his arms: "My lord, I am the seventh elder of the Void Sect. Go to Tianhu City to do something."

The guard officer glanced at Qin Qingfeng, then at token, nodded, and when he was about to let him go, he accidentally glanced at Xiao Tao behind George Han, and suddenly his eyes lighted up.

"You...stop!" The guard chief Yile, blocked George Han and Xiao Tao, and then slammed George Han away, staring at Xiao Tao with enthusiasm.

Xiao Tao was taken aback, and for a while, he stared at her and felt confused.

"Sir, she is my disciple. She came out to work with me this time." Seeing that the situation was bad, Qin Qingfeng quickly turned upside down and smiled beside the guard.

The guard officer didn't care at all, looking at Xiao Tao with an obscene expression, his intention couldn't be more obvious.

Chapter 1758

"Xiao Tao, follow me!" Qin Qingfeng knew that the chief guard was starting to look different, and pulled Xiao Tao in a hurry to leave.

The guard officer impatiently pushed Qin Qingfeng away, and said in a cold voice, "Fuck you, didn't you give you a face? You let me go!"

Qin Qingfeng hadn't reflected yet, the guard officer stepped over and slapped Qin Qingfeng's face with a heavy slap. After Qin Qingfeng slapped the slap, he was staggered by the fan and staggered in place, seeing the surrounding guards. Laugh out loud.

"The seventh elder of the Void Sect? Pooh, who the hell doesn't know you are a deposed elder? Old Master strong tiger looks at your female disciple, that is for you, don't fucking shamelessly, you know If you talk nonsense again, I will blow your dog's head with a punch."

After speaking, Zhuanghu smiled contemptuously and threw Qin Qingfeng's token on the ground.

In the Octagonal world, the reason why Linlong asked George Han to go to Wuwuzong was because he hoped that he could rely on a sect to find the Pangu clan everywhere, because in the Octagonal world, a token is needed to go anywhere.

This is somewhat equivalent to George Han's ID card on the earth, but here is not a human system, but a recognition between each other's forces. Since it is related to the influence, naturally, the smaller the school, the less the token is. Pay attention, on the contrary, the greater the family power, the greater the power of their tokens.

"Do you know who he is? Haha, the abolished seventh elder of the Void Sect." Zhuanghu laughed, then waved his hand and pointed to Xiaotao and said: "This woman, whose identity is unknown, I am very suspicious of her. Bring it back to me and send it to my room tonight. I will investigate it thoroughly."

Upon hearing the in-depth investigation, the guards burst into laughter, indicating that this beauty Xiao Tao will fall into the wolf cave tonight.

This group of guards does not usually do this kind of thing. As long as they see a pretty girl with no background, the group will take the inspection as their life, take them back to their cell, and then take them in the cell. Its rape.

Afterwards, after the chief had a good time, it was their team who played it. For them, it was a very happy and exciting project, but for the victims, it was simply a nightmare that would last a lifetime, and even some can't think about it. The girl has since chosen to commit suicide.

Even if there is no suicide, it is because of them that completely changed the course of life.

George Han bit his teeth, and immediately rushed forward with anger in his eyes. Qin Qingfeng quickly hugged George Han, "Don't mess around, remember what I told you? Everything must obey me. s arrangement."

George Han frowned and said coldly: "Could it be that they just watched them take Xiaotao?"

"If we act impulsively, we will suffer." Qin Qingfeng shouted coldly.

George Han did not agree with this statement. He was the kind of person who sacrificed his life to get righteous. He couldn't do anything that he could not do when he witnessed Xiao Tao being taken away like this.

Just when George Han was about to rush up, suddenly, a soft drink came.

"Let go of it all!"

The guards heard the sound and left, suddenly lowered their heads: "Master Wang!"

George Han also looked at him. Outside the city gate, sitting on a green unicorn was a middle-aged man in his fifties, with a long sword, but his face was extremely elegant.

Qilin bent over, he walked down slowly, glanced at the guard, then at Xiaotao, and asked coldly, "What's the matter?"

"Master Wang, we think this woman is a little weird, so we want to take it back for investigation. After all, this is for the safety of the people in the city." Zhuanghu said with a guilty conscience.

Master Wang was immediately dissatisfied: "Don't talk about it with me. Brother Qin is my friend. What can't her trust me? If you can't believe it, then take it back with Wang to investigate."

As soon as these words came out, Zhuanghu's face suddenly looked ugly, and he quickly said with a smile: "Master Wang, what are you kidding about with the little one? How dare the little one? What are you doing in a daze?"

Seeing the guards step aside, Master Wang walked up to Qin Qingfeng at this time and apologized slightly: "Brother Qin, I'm really sorry, these beasts are ignorant and disturbed you."

"Haha, no, no, I thank Brother Wang for helping me in this matter." Qin Qingfeng smiled gratefully.

"It's better to meet by chance. I think it's too early. Why don't you go to the dormitory to have dinner and drink some tea? How do you think about it?" Master Wang smiled.

"This..." Qin Qingfeng thought for a while and nodded: "That would be a lot of trouble."

Following Master Wang, the shocked Xiaotao still supported George Han, and the group soon arrived in front of a large courtyard on the north side of the city.

Walking into the compound, the green hills and green hills in the courtyard are so beautiful. At first glance, it is a magnificent residence. I didn't expect Qin Qingfeng, a sloppy old man, to know such a big man.

Entering the main hall, at this moment, there was an old man with white hair sitting in the hall, with a pair of Go chess in front of him, but what George Han wondered was that there was only one black chess in the white chess game!
