

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1895 - 1898

Chapter 1895

On the ground, there was a deep ravine of several centimeters left when George was repulsed.

George suddenly felt a hot throat, and a burst of blood spurted out of his mouth, but his eyes had never moved away from Amelia and Han Nian.

Although, George understood that Amelia and Han Nian at this time should be in the Fu Family Mansion, and it was impossible to come here. Even if Amelia was looking for herself, Han Nian's injury was destined to be impossible for her to come out with her.

Therefore, this may only be the same as the previous level, but it is just a certain kind of demon of his own.

But this is after all related to Amelia and Han Nian, so George had to act cautiously. He had to confirm again and again that these were not really Amelia's mother and daughter.

“boom!”

Suddenly, at this moment, a dagger was suddenly stuck on the wall between Amelia's neck, and it could hurt her with only a tiny amount.

George was taken aback, and hurriedly looked back. At this time, Qin Shuang glared at George angrily: “Look, look again, look again, I will kill her immediately.”

“You have two choices. One is the bed on my left. You can stay with me as much as you want. In addition, there are the secrets of the Eight Desolation Book under the bed. If you master these secrets, you will not only get all the treasures in the Eight Desolation Book, You can even use the Eight Desolation Books for your own use.”

“Don't rush to refuse. Do you know how amazing this Eight Desolation Book is?”

“The Bahuangtian Book is a simultaneous product of Bafang World. It can be said to be a pair of brothers. It not only records the names of all true gods in Bafang World, but also has its unique side.”

“It has its own Eight Desolation World. Although it is not as huge as the Bafang World, it is seldom populated here and has plenty of aura. Most importantly, it has a special time limit. One day in Bafang and one year in Eight Desolations! If you are here After cultivating for hundreds of thousands of years, going to the Bafang world is a top existence!”

“More importantly, even if you are not the true god, you can still add your own name to the Eight Desolation Book! From then on, you have also become the true god of the eight directions.”

“And when you are practicing, I will accompany you throughout the whole process, can you deny that you have no desire for me?! Think about it, then you can practice alone during the day, and I practice with you at night, and you hold your hand again Tianhuang Tianshu, who can compete with you in this world!”

Hearing this, George’s whole body was short of breath. He really didn’t expect that a book from the Eight Desolation Heaven could be magically like this. No wonder there are so many true gods in the eight directions world, eager to follow this, even leaving their lives here.

For many people, this is simply an irresistible temptation!

“Then what if I don’t choose?” George said coldly.

“Then you only have a second choice. The sword on my right will cut the throats between you, that slut and the evil seed mercilessly, and let your family of three go to hell to reunite.” Qin Shuang said coldly. Tao.

This is a cold and well-made choice, one side is power and women, even strength, and the other side is a cold underworld reunion.

Perhaps, for everyone, this choice is too easy to make.

“George, I don’t lose to Amelia in terms of beauty. More importantly, you can also get the Book of the Eight Desolations. This choice shouldn’t be difficult for you?”

George laughed suddenly: “Don’t say you are not Senior Sister Qin Shuang, even if you are, you can’t stop my determination to leave here!”

“Pick up your sword.” George said coldly.

Hearing George’s words, Qin Shuang’s eyes suddenly became very angry.

why? Why is that? !

This is simply impossible!

How could George have no desire for Qin Shuang? She obviously saw his heart, but...

“I’m surprised, isn’t it? Any man is irresistible to beautiful women, but it doesn’t mean that he will really be moved. The primitive instinct of a creature is completely inconsistent with his inner thoughts, good men and bad men, It depends on whether you can suppress your own desires! Now, do you understand?” George smiled grimly, and rushed over with the Pangu axe!

In the face of George who was violent, Qin Shuang no longer thought about it, and suddenly attacked George with a long sword.

The two immediately fought together!

Although George had already consumed a great deal of energy in the previous level, George relied on the intangible power and firm belief in his hands, and he was inextricably beaten by Qin Shuang in front of him.

“I knew that you were not Qin Shuang at all!”

With a fierce force, George directly blocked Qin Shuang with a giant axe. At the same time, when Qin Shuang fell back to the ground, George suddenly seized the opportunity, suddenly fortunate in his hand, and slowly raised the giant axe towards the ground. Qin Shuang's deadliest blow.

“puff!”

Suddenly, at this moment, a cold dagger protruded directly from the chest behind George, and the tip of the dagger pierced out.

George looked at his chest in disbelief, his eyes were full of unbelievable, and looking back, Amelia was holding the handle of the dagger in his hand at this time, pressing hard.

“Did you see it? George, this is your choice!” Looking at George, Qin Shuang who fell to the ground at this moment laughed coldly.

Chapter 1896

George reluctantly pushed back Amelia behind him, and quickly covered his injured position with his hands.

For him, he had never thought that Amelia, who was unconscious behind him, would wake up suddenly, let alone Amelia would suddenly attack him. Although in George's eyes, Amelia was just a phantom, based on the feelings of the two, George had almost no defense against Amelia.

But where to know...

“Hahahaha, hahahaha, George, have you seen it? This is your choice, irony? Regret?” Qin Shuang looked at George pushing Amelia away, his whole smile became even crazier .

From George's perspective, she laughed hysterically, like a crazy woman.

“What are you doing in a daze? Kill her, kill her!” Qin Shuang suddenly shouted coldly.

Kill her? !

George touched the bleeding dagger and looked back at Amelia. Amelia's eyes were blank and staring at the dagger. Obviously, she seemed to continue to kill George.

From a normal point of view, George should indeed kill her, because she herself is just a phantom, leaving it with no other meaning besides threats to herself.

But from George's perspective, he was reluctant.

He really loves Amelia, so even everything about her is precious to George, and he is even more reluctant to destroy everything about her with his own hands.

Although, this has caused him harm.

However, Amelia is George's life favorite. Even so, George shook his head: "I won't kill her."

"What?!" Hearing George's words, Qin Shuang's face was full of incredible: "She attacked you and killed you, but you didn't kill her?!"

"Yes!" George affirmed.

"She is just a phantom, can't you even bear it?" Qin Shuang pointed at Amelia angrily, gritted his teeth!

She really didn't understand what George was doing! The midgame she carefully arranged was completely disintegrated at this time.

She searched for all the memories in George's body, and found the most beautiful woman he had ever seen that made him impulsive, plus all the temptations of the Bahuang Tianshu, but he actually ignored everything and chose instead. His wife.

Although George's choice was beyond her expectations, it was still under her control, because some people were really affectionate.

Then if he is stabbed by his most affectionate person, how will he react? I'm afraid, no one wants to bear the feeling of being betrayed, right? In addition, she is just a phantom, he should be ashamed to slap her to pieces.

After all, even if the couple is in a good relationship, there will always be times when their teeth are biting their tongues. It is a little thing to make noise. Then George is stabbed to break the phantom, it seems that it should be!

But what she never expected was that George didn't even do this!

Is he crazy?

Suddenly, Qin Shuang smiled miserably: “George, do you really think that the love in this world is trustworthy?”

“Of course, I believe in any affection, family, friendship and love in this world.”

“But they will betray you. Have you ever tried the feeling of being betrayed?” Qin Shuang said excitedly.

“Because of betrayal, those true feelings are more precious, don’t they?” George said.

Qin Shuang smiled miserably: “You know, if you just smashed that phantom, what will happen?”

George shook his head. He didn’t think there would be any consequences for breaking a phantom. He just felt that it was about Amelia. Although he knew it was a phantom, but it was too much like the real Amelia. hand!

“Actually, since you have gone through the first level, you know that Linglong Tower tests your character, so you should be very wary of phantoms and the like, and will suppress some of your inner thoughts, including your loved ones. , Madam, etc., so, under the rumblings, you may be like a frightened bird, remaining aggressive towards all phantoms, especially when it kills you, but I didn’t expect...”

Qin Shuang shook his head hard, and with a light hand, the white gauze by the window disappeared. Amelia and Nian’er also disappeared in an instant. Only a transparent cloud-like glass was left between the windows.

Through that layer of glass, George saw that in the darkness, Amelia was holding Han Nian and was constantly falling.

“This...” George said nervously.

“It’s really a deep relationship between husband and wife. You don’t even want to hurt her because of her phantom, and she, for you, is willing to die and jump into this endless abyss. I think there is no trustworthy feeling in this world, but George, you taught me a good lesson!”

“Do you know? Those people in the book world, even if they saw everything through, and walked into the Linglong Tower through difficulties, in the end, almost all of them were lost here. They were either greedy for the treasures and secrets in the book. , Or when you are betrayed, become angry and kill the afterimage!”

“You are the only one who can pass the test.”

Chapter 1897

Qin Shuang smiled bitterly, and then his body melted, and in a blink of an eye it disappeared, and in the next second, his body was already a phantom.

“Want to hear a story?”

“I don’t want to.” George said coldly. When he heard the love of Amelia in this guy’s mouth jumping into the endless abyss, his heart was already extremely anxious, there was no interest in listening to him nagging.

“When the universe was first born, there were two little brothers. I don’t know when they were born. They just remember that they lived in the Ten Thousand Star Universe since they were born. Both the elder brother and the younger brother protected each other. , Using his body and the energy in his body to protect and moisturize the small humans in his body. Although his brother has lost his brother’s protection since then, he also decided to silently help his brother, protect the humans in his body, and help him Record everything he has.”

“However, there are more records, but the younger brother discovered the indifferent and ugly human nature. The younger brother began to feel that what his brother did was not worth it. It was not worth protecting those greedy and even hypocritical humans, and should not use himself. To feed them, let them absorb everything in their bodies until he withers.”

“So my brother was in the linkage with the Bafang World, laying an endless abyss, and selected the strongest humans in the Bafang World for trials. He wanted his brother to see clearly what kind of ants and scum he was protecting. .”

“For so many years, when the top powerhouses of all directions entered here, they were all trapped here because of greed, because of the gloom of human nature, or because of stupidity.”

“You are the younger brother, and Bafang World is the older brother, right?” George said.

“Yes, when I took this report card and wanted to report to him, George, but you rushed in. What made me unexpected is that you actually passed my test. You said, I Should I be happy? Or should I be sad?” The ghost is just like a shadow, his sad smile, although the shadow’s head is slightly outlined, George can feel its helplessness and bitterness.

“Whether you are happy or not has nothing to do with me. I can only tell you that it is far from me who can pass these tests. My friends and brothers can all pass. You are the Eight Desolation Book, you I should understand better than me, that any good thing in this world has its bad side, and no matter how bad it is, it has its good side, and the same is true for people.” George explained lightly.

“You are bragging, there are not so many people in this world who can pass the test. Over the years, I have selected almost half of the top powerhouses in Bafang World, but the result? They are all greedy, and all people are also greedy. When they are not strong enough, they always imagine that they can be a little stronger, but when they really reach that level, they expect to be stronger, they are simply greedy.”

“Greed is not necessarily a bad thing. Greed is motivated, doesn’t it? There is no desire or demand, and it can only be a useless person.” George said: “Besides, those top-level powerhouses are just strong, not representing them. His feelings are very good. You are testing humanity instead of strength. This is a paradox in itself, because a person’s strength has nothing to do with his emotional world.”

“So, I should still believe in feelings, right?” Shadow said.

“Some things, if you believe it, they exist, and if you don’t believe it, they don’t exist.” George said.

“As a reward for passing the test, you can get a wish, but I don’t think I need to ask about this wish. Go up, Amelia is waiting for you.”

After the black shadow finished speaking, his figure suddenly disappeared, and then there was a flash around him. When he opened his eyes, George was standing on a ladder in mid-air instead of a tower.

The ladder goes straight to the sky!

George pulled off his dagger, and after healed the wound with energy, he quickly crawled upwards with tension towards Amelia.

Half an hour later, George had already passed through the clouds and reached the top of the ladder.

When I crossed the last ladder, the sky in front of me suddenly disappeared, and what caught my eye was the familiar grassland before.

However, compared to when we first came, today’s grasslands have more forests, more animals, and everything that nature should have.

George knew that this might have untied some of his knots in the Bahuang Tianshu, and that’s why he made his world more colorful.

Above the air, a white light circle slowly appeared at this time, and George raised his eyes and couldn’t help but smile from his heart, his eyes filled with excitement.

Within the aperture, Amelia was holding Han Nian, obviously not breaking away from the endless dark abyss and reflecting in this natural and fresh world, but when her eyes saw the ground looking up at her George, Could not help being overjoyed.

She patted Han Nian in her arms, and pointed her hand at George on the ground excitedly. At this time, Han Nian looked back and saw George on the ground, and the whole person suddenly jumped and jumped in Amelia’s arms. .

“Thank you.” George smiled at a certain direction in midair.

When the aperture fell on the lawn and the aperture dissipated, George and Amelia looked at each other affectionately, Han Nian looked at his mother and his father, grinning with a happy and innocent smile.

“Dad, father!”

George couldn't help it anymore and rushed up quickly, hugging the two mother and daughter tightly.

Amelia cried with joy. For her, when she jumped into the endless abyss, she was already determined to die, because in her heart, she already thought that George was dead.

She has no other desires, only that when she dies, she can die in the same place as her own man.

But what she never expected was that not only did they not die, but they were still here, seeing George again.

“George, is this true? Am I not dreaming?” Amelia was extremely excited as he hugged George tightly and felt the temperature of George's body.

“This is true, you have no dreams, you are welcome to the Eight Desolate World.” George smiled.

“The Eight Desolate World?” Amelia was very strange.

“I think, at this time, I should choose to retreat and rest.” Lin Long's words suddenly appeared in his mind. Then, George's arm flashed, and Lin Long very interestingly chose to leave temporarily.

“Yes, Bahuang World.” George smiled slightly.

Amelia glanced curiously at the world around her. The sky was blue, the clouds were white, and the birds were fragrant. It was indeed a rare paradise.

“Dad, it's so beautiful here, Nian'er is very...” Suddenly, when Nian'er was just dancing with joy, she suddenly vomited uncontrollable blood in her mouth.

Chapter 1898

Serum-like blood kept pouring out of Han Nian's mouth, closing her small throat, making her unable to speak, but even so uncomfortable, the little Han Nian's eyes were still full of no pain. .

She seemed to be telling George and Amelia that she was fine.

The younger George and Amelia were so strong, but the stronger they were, the more they looked at George and Amelia.

“It must be a poisonous attack.” Amelia looked at George anxiously and hugged Han Nian in her arms.

It has been too long since he left Fujia, and Han Nian did not come to take the medicine in time.

George didn't want to think too much, and violently injected his own energy into Han Nian's body. In order to save Han Nian, George almost poured all his energy into it without being stingy.

However, no matter how much energy was injected, Han Nian didn't react at all.

George was suddenly very anxious, looked into the air, and said anxiously: “Can you let us leave here? My daughter is in danger! She is poisoned and needs a specific antidote.”

“George, who are you talking to?” Amelia glanced at George anxiously, and looked around, only to find that there was no figure at all.

“Although you passed the Linglong Tower, you have already received the reward you deserve. That should have been your endless cultivation base, but you gave up and chose them. Although I am also very moved by your choice, it is a pity If you give up those cultivation bases, it means that you may not be able to find out where you left here. Therefore, you cannot leave.”

The sudden sound in midair obviously frightened Amelia. George frowned at this moment: “I can stay, but can you send them away?”

“They are just rewards for you to pass the Linglong Tower, and naturally they belong to you. If you stay, it is naturally equivalent to them staying. In other words, if you want them to go out, you have to leave here.”

George gritted his teeth, burning with anger.

Originally, the reunion finally made George very happy, but, before it was too late, he enjoyed it, but it was another thunderbolt.

If Han Nian is safe, he really wants a family of three to simply live here and live their lives, but the poison in Han Nian's body is destined to be a fantasy.

“Then how do I get out?” George said.

“The way is natural, the way of heaven is circulating, how you want to get out depends on you, George, not me.” The voice whispered.

what is this?

There are no hints, not even a level, how can people get out? Fly out?

“Although this baby is very poisonous, you don’t have to worry too much. In the Eight Desolation World, with sufficient aura, the poison in her body can be temporarily suppressed. Moreover, her poison is developed by the Bafang World, and what happens to it Time is naturally calculated according to all directions, and you are in a world of eight wastes.”

A word to awaken the dreamer, yes, this is a world of eight wastes, Han Nian loses the control of the antidote, the poison will swallow the body again, but this will take at least a few days. But in the Bahuang World, the days in Bafang World are equivalent to years, or even decades.

This also means that George still has some time to figure out a way to get out of here.

“Well, I don’t want to talk nonsense with you, I’m going to rest.” After speaking, the voice made a yawn, and the sky dimmed for a while, and the entire bright world entered a darkness.

“Find a place to rest.” George glanced at Han Nian, hugged her in his arms, pulled Amelia up, and walked toward a forest in the distance.

George found a place to shelter from the wind. After putting down Han Nian, he squatted beside her and watched gently for a long time. After confirming that she was fine for the time being, he breathed out involuntarily.

“It’s not a big problem. It’s just a poisonous gas attack. After one night’s rest, tomorrow will be fine.” George gently held Amelia’s hand, indicating that she didn’t have to worry.

Amelia took a breath: “Nian’er is fine.”

“By the way, why did you come here?”

“By the way, why did you come here?”

The two of them spoke out tacitly at the same time, and even what they said was almost completely the same. I don’t know when they started, the two have already been like this, pretending to be each other in their hearts.

The two then looked at each other and smiled helplessly. Amelia sat down gently, leaning her head on George’s shoulder: “You speak first.”

George smiled and told Amelia about what happened after he left from Fujia. Amelia gritted her teeth, and when she was in love, she even regarded George’s hand as a pinch by Fumei. Although Qian was hurt, but seeing his wife’s cute look jealous, he finally chose to be patient.

“What’s this? When some people go to Linglong Tower, it’s disgusting, and I just didn’t dare to make a dent in the whole process.”

At this moment, Linlong suddenly said sourly beside him.

George rolled his eyes and started to attack Linlong: “Didn’t you say you escaped? Why are you everywhere?”

“I want to escape too, elder brother, the problem is that my wife just pinched your left arm hard and pinched me up abruptly.” Lin Long said aggrievedly, and a dragon appeared.
