

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1899 - 1902

Chapter 1899

“Isn’t this the little silver dragon?” Seeing Linlong, Amelia was a little surprised.

“Yeah, when you went to all directions, didn’t you let it follow me? You have been following me until now, and you can’t get rid of it.” George said helplessly.

“You...you...you. Oh, you George, you are really a scumbag, you are treachery, if it weren’t for Lao Tzu’s dragon heart, you would have been a fart in the Void Sect? Can you still have today? Now that I can’t shake it, won’t your conscience hurt?” Linlongkai cried.

George laughed. Of course he didn’t deny that Linlong had done all this for him, so he had already regarded Linlong as his good friend. It’s okay to make a joke.

“It won’t hurt, because you really look like a dog skin plaster.” George smiled.

“Well, I thank you for George.” Amelia smiled happily, and then said: “By the way, don’t listen to him interrupt and talk about it. What is going on with Linglong Tower.”

Linlong glanced at George. Seeing that George was unwilling, he put his eyes on Amelia. Then, he shook his head at George: “It seems that you said nothing at home, so I listen. Sister-in-law’s.”

Therefore, Linlong told Amelia of everything about George in Linglong Tower, and Amelia had a happy smile on her face.

She even felt that she was the happiest woman in the world, and her man was willing to do it for herself. Give up everything, even his own phantom attacked him, he was reluctant to break up his phantom, so she had no regrets in her life.

He raised his eyes and glanced at George, and stretched out his hand to touch his injured chest in distress. It was both touched and distressed, and tears flowed down.

“Thank you, three thousand, you let me know that I am the happiest woman in the world, and you also let me know that choosing you is the most correct decision in my life, Amelia.”

“Sometimes. It turns out that after a person chooses the most important and correct decision, it doesn’t matter even if the other choices are wrong, at least. You make me believe this sentence deeply.”

George smiled slightly, and gently hugged Amelia in his arms: “Why don’t you? My George has you, and this life is enough. By the way. You haven’t told me how come you came here. What?”

Amelia smiled in tears: “Do you want to know? Then you promise me.”

“From now on, don’t talk about my phantom. Even if I am a real person, you have to kill me if I stabbed you one day, because if you let me know that I killed you with my own hands, I will live better than dead. It’s more painful.”

“Fool, how could you kill me?” George smiled.

George smiled but said nothing, even if Amelia really killed himself one day. He would never fight back. For George, his life was not his for a long time, but Amelia.

Amelia gave George a white glance, although she wanted George to agree to her request, but. She understood that it was impossible for George to agree, which also showed how much George loved her.

“After you left. The Immortal Sea and the Blue Mountain Peak jointly attacked Fujia. Even in its heyday, Fujia could not stop the joint attack of the two families, let alone today’s Fujia. The whole Fujia hardly fights. I lost, and Nian’er and I were taken away by them.”

Then, Amelia told George about the day.

After listening to these. George was silent, and Lin Long hummed coldly: “The most disgusting people in this world are hypocrites, a bunch of upright gentlemen who pride themselves on being righteous every day. But they are all despicable and shameless, even taking women If you threaten your child, he is still two big families.”

“Don’t worry, this hatred, I, George, must find them.” George raised his head slightly at this time, his eyes were full of suicide.

To him, Amelia is the scale on his body, no one can touch it.

The gang of scum headed by the top of the Blue Mountain actually forced Amelia to death.

“Three thousand, forget it. The power of the top of the blue mountain is too huge now, and they have true gods behind them. I...” Amelia said, but stopped.

She knows George’s personality well. However, fighting against the top of the Blue Mountain is different from hitting a rock with a pebble.

George smiled disdainfully: "Don't talk about a blue mountain top. Even if it is this day, I have to poke a hole in the woman who touched me!"

Linlong felt George's cold killing intent, and was frightened for a while and didn't know what to say.

Amelia's heart was warm, George expressed such a stance, she was naturally very content, but at the same time she couldn't help worrying about George.

"Huh? The weather was fine just now, why did it suddenly rain? There was no sign before it rained. Is the weather in this wild world so casual?" Linlong suddenly looked up at the heavy rain. Can not help but wonder.

Chapter 1900

"Yeah, it was pretty good just now, why would it rain when it rained?" Amelia was also confused, and picked up Han Nian to prevent her from getting wet.

Only George looked helplessly somewhere in the air and smiled bitterly.

It was cold at night, and George burned a fire to take care of the two mothers and daughters. Early the next morning, he cut bamboo and wood, found a place backed by mountains and water, and started building houses.

Amelia was busy picking wild fruits, and the Linlong was requisitioned by Amelia, and the dignified dragons were treated as cormorants and caught the fish.

After a night of rest, Han Nian, although his face was not very good and he had no strength on his body, he was finally awake, and there was nothing serious about it for the time being. He surrounded Amelia all day and clamored to make a big cake for his father.

In a day's time, for a master like George, building a simple three-room log cabin is a very easy task. In the evening, the log cabin has been completed, and the family has a temporary foothold.

At the dinner table in the evening, Han Nian came up with a weird cake, looking at George with big watery eyes, and said excitedly: "Dad, today is your birthday. Nian'er made the cake for you."

Amelia put down the food next to her and smiled bitterly: "It took your daughter a day to make a cake for you with the pigeon peas. Try it."

George smiled slightly, his heart was very warm, even he almost forgot his birthday, but he didn't expect the little girl Nian'er to remember it.

George didn't say much, and took a sip, the taste in his mouth is no longer important, anyway, his heart is already very sweet.

After dinner, Amelia was busy cleaning up the housework. George hugged Nian'er and sat under the night sky, looking up at the stars in the sky, listening to the story of George, with a slightly pale face. A happy smile is always filled.

"Dad, when Nian'er is fine, can we stay here forever?" Han Nian asked suddenly with a small face up.

Hearing this, George was a little bitter and smiled slightly: "Okay, Dad promises you."

After telling a few more stories, after coaxing Nian'er to fall asleep, George hugged her back to the room. At this time, Amelia walked in. Seeing that Nian'er was asleep, she tiptoed to take George's hand. , Walked to the inner room.

Lie back on the bed, Amelia gently massaged George: "Have you worked hard? I built such a big house today."

"Building a home, how can there be any hard work?" George smiled, took Amelia's hand, hugged her in his arms, and fell into deep thought.

Seeing George not speaking, Amelia knew that George was thinking about how to leave here again.

"Don't be so stressed. In fact, my biggest wish in this life is to live this kind of uncontested life with you. So, in fact, it doesn't matter if we get out, who is not? Have you ever said that the time here is different from the Bafang world, so how can we live a stable life for decades? Life is short. If we are all mortals, who is not the life span of decades? "Amelia gently touched George's hand, and said softly.

George knew that these words were Amelia comforting himself. They could live a long period of leisure and stability, and then watched his daughter die in such pain in front of him? !

The child Han Nian was born with a hard life, and has gone through a lot of trials at a young age. If he were to die like this, how could George as a father be at ease in this life? !

Besides, for those who harmed Nian'er and Amelia, George hadn't avenged him, so how could he not be in a hurry? !

George pursed his mouth and took Amelia's hand, which was regarded as accepting her kindness.

Amelia smiled softly and kissed George's lips: "I know you have your own decision, and I will never stop you. All I can do is support you. This kiss counts as a reward. , Come on."

“Are there any other rewards?” George chuckled his lips, still unfinished.

“No, do you have that mood?” Amelia said.

“It was you who made me calm my mind, so I have to eat pork as the day passes.” George said.

Amelia was taken aback, and when she came to understand, she immediately hit George with a heavy rain of Ewha: “You are looking for death, who do you think is a pig?”

In a short while, the two people laughed and laughed in the small wooden house.

In the next period of time, George started his so-called road of going out of bounds. He flew across the sky and even escaped the ground. Even in the water, he sent Linlong to look around.

Amelia carried her thoughts every day, and in her free time, she would meditate and practice in a place with plenty of spiritual energy.

Time flies, it's already a year.

During this year, Amelia's cultivation base has recovered a lot. He was previously blocked by the poison that Fu Jia had put down. Although Fu Jia pretended to detoxify Amelia after George's "recruitment", it was effective. Not ideal.

George also understood that it was impossible for Fu Jia to cure Amelia sincerely. What they wanted was to control themselves and Amelia, so how could they really treat Amelia? !

But fortunately, Amelia's poison began to dissipate slowly, and his cultivation was slowly recovering.

As for George, it was also the first time in his life. He breathed in a world like an oxygen cylinder. His most disadvantaged cultivation base has also been greatly supplemented in the world of heavenly books.

However, George didn't know exactly what realm he had reached. If he were merely a cultivation base, he might have reached the Holy Realm.

It's just that George's sacred realm is almost different from others, because he was just an ordinary enlightened realm, so he can jump several levels and fight with others in the Kongtong realm.

Now that his cultivation has risen to another level, his strength has naturally increased exponentially.

However, George was still unhappy.

On this day, watching George have been depressed for several days, Amelia pulled Nian'er over and watched Nian'er playing with butterflies on the lawn. Amelia smiled and said, "What's wrong? I think you have grown rapidly recently. It still looks glum."

"It's been a year, but my cultivation is barely enough to reach the Holy Realm, but these are far from enough." George said in distress.

Within a year, his cultivation level did rise rapidly, but recently, he felt that he had encountered a bottleneck and had been stagnating.

"You're not kidding? You cultivated for a year before reaching the holy realm? Then what was your cultivation level before?"

"It seems to be Wu Jing, the lowest level." George said.

"Enlightenment? Then when you came to save me, you directly overturned the people in Kongtong Realm?" Amelia was taken aback.

"What's so strange?" George said innocently.

Chapter 1901

Amelia glanced at George angrily, and said: "If you weren't for my husband, you still have to look at me with such innocent eyes when you say this, I will definitely beat you to death!"

George is even more innocent, the fact is.

Amelia's angry eyes rolled up to the sky. Although she was stunned by George Tianlong Fight, she had never thought that George's cultivation was so low at that time.

This is not just her, even the support screen who helped George upgrade at the beginning has never felt that, after all, who would care if someone who can drive a car or ride a bicycle!

But George is just such a wonderful work.

At that time, everyone almost unanimously believed that George's cultivation base should at least be close to Kongtong, so with some magical soldiers, it could be so natural when fighting against Kongtong realm masters.

Even if someone explored his cultivation level later, he just thought that this guy might not want to leak his strength, and deliberately hide it.

But where do you know... this turned out to be true? !

An enlightened person, a master of overcoming the Kongtong realm, Amelia was even thankful that this was her husband, not her enemy, otherwise, she really wished to find a place to sew down.

Moreover, taking 10,000 steps back, it is only the current cultivation base.

George has been in Bafang World for less than a year, but he has already reached the Holy Land. Although the Holy Land is not among the masters in the Bafang World, he can be regarded as an elite among the younger generation, not to mention it. , This guy still uses that short time.

In less than a year, you can surpass others for decades. Doesn't this make people vomit blood?

The most maddening thing is that George's leap challenge, the distance to enlighten the Dao and the evil, not to mention how many small layers are missing, just on the large layer, it is separated from the Dao, the Holy, the ethereal and the Kongtong Si In the big realm, it is already great for others to jump to a small level, and to jump to a big level can be used as a show of life. It is good for him to jump directly to the four big levels, and it seems to be very aggrieved!

If all this is wronged, the Octagon World estimates that everyone will have to slay themselves.

"Then you have reached the Holy Realm now, two realms higher than before. According to the calculation, you can't directly deal with the master of the Eight Desolate Realm?" Amelia looked at George strangely.

George shook his head: "Although I did raise two realms, the increase in my internal breath is not that great. The higher the realm, the smaller the level difference, but there are too many things, so I have to deal with the eight shortages. Realm masters are very difficult, but if you punish evil, I feel a little confident. However, you have to try it before you know!"

Even if it was his husband, after hearing George's confirmation answer, Amelia, a woman who has always been gentle, couldn't help but light up a national curse in her heart.

The holy realm challenged the evil world, and it was a thousand miles away, but he could really pick it like this. The funny thing was that Amelia had to believe that it was true. Because his Enlightenment Realm has been a Kongtong Realm person, then it seems that the Holy Realm is really not joking.

"But it's nothing to challenge Zhu Xie. The two big families led by the true gods, the Blue Mountain Peak and the Immortal Sea, don't say the true gods come forward. Even the group of elders under my hands is not something I can deal with right now. Yes, that's why I am very worried."

Hearing George's words, Amelia knew that he had misunderstood George. Although he invisibly pretended to be forced, what he was worried about was indeed a problem. He patted George on the shoulder and said seriously: "George, Don't put so much pressure on yourself, let everything go with the flow, it's only a year, don't worry, anyway, you can't eat fat at a stretch, take your time."

"What are you talking about?" George suddenly looked at Amelia strangely.

Amelia was taken aback, not knowing what George meant by doing this, and said strangely: "I will let you take it slowly, and don't put so much pressure on yourself."

"No, it's the next sentence." George frowned.

"I said, you can't be fat in one breath!" Amelia said without understanding.

George grinned suddenly: "Well said, then I am going to be a fat man?"

Then, George sat down in excitement and shouted: "Red-eyed jade python, Xiao Bai, and Linlong, come out for me who are not dead."

As soon as the voice fell, the red-eyed jade python and Xiao Bai felt the energy urging in George's body at the same time, and they woke up from falling asleep, and then appeared in front of George one by one.

Linlong was awake long ago, and George shouted, making him the first to land.

"You followed me, George and traveled north and south, and suffered a lot. Today, I will report back to you. I will stay for a while. All of them will be attached to me. You will use all your breastfeeding energy and suck me into my body. energy of."

The three beasts looked at each other strangely, but they dared not listen to George's order.

"Oh, yes, and this stuff." George finished speaking, and took out one of them. He also took out the egg that he bought at the auction house. He handed it to Linlong and said, "By the way, you will be a mother. , I've hatched this stuff too. If you want energy, just suck it up. Don't be polite."

Linlong is embarrassed, brother, I am a man!

Chapter 1902

"Okay, don't froze, let's start!" George finished speaking, and the whole person closed his eyes and entered a state of meditation. The three beasts looked at each other and flew back into George's body at the same time, not dormant, but Started to absorb the energy in George's body.

Linlong walked at the end, holding the egg aggrievedly, although he was unwilling, but George had already settled, and he had no choice but to accept reality.

Amelia looked at George's behavior in confusion. After a while, she finally understood the reason why George did this.

He used himself as a rice bucket, absorbed a lot of it, and then distributed it to his strange beasts. This method was indeed quite good.

After another half a year, the three beasts, under the nourishment of George so madly, were like babies, sucking his energy madly and greedily.

That morning, George sat on the grass at the door of his house again as usual, and then sat cross-legged, as if he was about to meditate as he did in the past six months.

Amelia has already become accustomed to this, but she knows that this day is about to end, because George said last night that the three beasts now are basically in a state of fullness and cannot absorb it. As for That egg seemed to be shining golden, and it seemed that it could not hold up.

Therefore, Amelia felt that today is just a normal day. If you have to say something different, then it may be the last day that George has been madly absorbed.

But at this moment, George, who was sitting down, did not close his eyes and enter the state of concentration. Instead, he transported energy. Then, a golden light flashed in his body. After a while, a small golden light flew directly from his body. Get out.

George looked at it with a greasy smile on his face, and then George suddenly injected energy into the little golden light, and that day, the little golden light instantly shone!

Amelia was obviously stunned by the light, and Han Nian even covered his eyes with his small hand, hiding between Amelia's legs, wondering what happened!

And at this time, when the little golden light shines to its peak, a golden light is like a wave in the water. With this as the center point, it spreads crazily outward, all the way to the end of the world of anti-Buddha.

The whole world suddenly became quiet!

boom! ! ! !

In the next second, suddenly, there was a loud bang, and countless white auras, like wind and waves, suddenly flew towards the golden spots in front of George.

"Who said that you can't be a fat man?" George looked at the golden light in front of him at this time, and his whole body smiled triumphantly.

"I happen to be fat today!"

“I rely on, the heart of the dragon, George, you fucking...” Seeing George’s actions, Linlong’s voice suddenly appeared in his mind, and the whole dragon was shocked and beyond words, it really didn’t. I thought that George actually took out the heart of the dragon at this time: “It’s ruthless!”

What is the Dragon Heart? !

It was a crazy sucker, and the dragon also relied on this huge thing to absorb energy to make the dragon grow stronger.

Even when he was in George’s body, Dragon Heart was helping George in this way, but who would have thought that George would actually play with Dragon Heart at this time!

Feeling the majestic aura spreading over the surface, and then plunged into the heart of the dragon clan one after another, Linlong’s heart was very excited.

In George’s heart, he was even more happy, but he didn’t say it to the surface, because he couldn’t be happy yet, he was waiting.

Wait for a voice, wait for a reply.

At this time, Amelia in the distance also saw the majestic side of Wanli’s spiritual energy converging toward him, and she was dumb, not knowing what George was doing.

However, looking at the situation on George’s side, she did not ask, she never asked George what he wanted to do.

Until the evening, George came back, but the heart of the dragon clan outside was still placed there, sucking in crazy, aura, Amelia then asked: “George, what did you get out today? Why...”

George smiled and did not speak, but Linlong came out and interjected: “This bitch, today is equivalent to putting a gluttonous food in front of a pile of food. Seriously, although this trick is very cheap, let this dragon I really admire it. I didn’t even think that I could play like this.”

“Gluttonous?” Amelia was taken aback: “What does this mean?”

George smiled and whispered softly: “It’s not interesting, it’s just eating to be fat. Let’s prepare an extra pair of chopsticks tonight.”

Amelia looked at Linlong for the first time: “What? Does he want to eat these things too?”

“No, there are new guests.” George smiled.

Amelia was suddenly very strange. In this world of heavenly books, there is no one other than them. Where can new guests come? At this moment, a knock on the door suddenly came from outside the door, and then a voice came in: "George, come out and chat."

Hearing this voice, George smiled mysteriously, looked at Amelia, and said, "He is here."
