

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1927 - 1930

Chapter 1927

Amelia was stunned, her beautiful eyes widened, and it was difficult to return to her senses for a long time.

Six powers of success? !

If someone else said this, Amelia would definitely slap this bragging idiot to death.

Venerable Guai Li is a master of the evil realm after all, but what about George? According to what he said, he is just a holy realm!

The sacred realm is far from Zhu Xie, and the difference is not a little bit, to put it bluntly. That's a thousand miles.

But that's it, even if Zhu Xie was beaten down, but the "weak" of the holy realm actually only used six success powers?

Therefore, if someone said, Amelia would definitely shoot it to death without hesitation, but if it was what George said, Amelia has always believed absolutely.

But this time, Amelia couldn't believe it anymore.

"What? Do you think I'm bragging?" George smiled.

Amelia nodded noncommittal: "I want to say no, but what you said is really incredible."

George smiled, Amelia couldn't understand. In fact, George could also understand, because he couldn't understand why he suddenly became so strong.

If he used the Pangu axe, he had the current operation, he felt it was normal, after all, the Pangu axe was the king of all weapons. With its help, leapfrogging victory is really simple.

But if there is no Pan Gu axe, George is so outrageous, he now feels a little abnormal.

Naturally, George didn't know that in the Eight Desolation Book, he had installed a full one-third of the aura in the heart of the dragon clan. His original purpose was to be fought by others in the future, and at least he could have a logistical support. .

But it was precisely because the heart of the dragon race was so full that many secrets in George's body that he didn't know were completely aroused at this time.

For example, if he peered into one or two of his bodies at this time, he would definitely find that his golden body was already in his powerful white energy cover, gently emitting an amazing yellow light.

George shook his head: "Seriously, I really only used six success strengths. Since the Tianhuangtianshu came out, I suddenly found that I have many different places. Not only is my body full of an uncontrollable kind, it seems The powerful force that may rush out at any time, and more importantly, I see things completely different from before."

"Different?" Amelia asked strangely.

In fact, George has felt different since using the Heaven Eye Talisman in the Eight Desolation Book of Heaven, but when the energy in his body is sufficient, the feeling is even more intense.

George can not only see the different sides of many things. For example, the energy barriers in the Temple of Qishan may be the kind of liquid large screen braving the cold in the eyes of others, but in George's eyes, It's something made up of a fine mesh.

What's more weird is that George saw a lot of things and felt that the world's anti-Buddha prevention slowed down.

But it is real and happening at normal speed.

Even during the match against Venerable Guai Li. He was completely unprepared, even turned his back completely, but a strange picture suddenly flashed in his eyes at the time.

There is a bunch of energy approaching itself!

At that time, George also ignored the strange power behind him because of the strange appearance of this scene. Just let him completely sneak attack.

However, to George, his sneak attacks were a dangerous thing. But in the end, it became George's gadget to test himself.

The strength of the immortal mysterious armor is really closely related to your energy cultivation base, because with the continuous energy support in the heart of the dragon race, with its support, the immortal mysterious armor has also gained a great defensive ability. The promotion was so strong that George was surprised.

Because it did give George a full blow from Venerable Weili.

Of course, this also has the credit of the golden body being bright, and even the golden body and the immortal mysterious armor have begun to merge into one, so the hardness of the indestructible mysterious armor has suddenly risen to a level, it's just. Since George didn't see these things, he hadn't noticed them all the time.

“By the way, speaking of the changes in my body, I asked you to help me ask. How did you ask?” After George finished speaking, he looked at Amelia.

Amelia was happy and surprised when she heard this, but when George asked this question, she couldn't help but frowned: “I asked when you were out just now, but Jianghu Baixiaosheng said. In the Bafang world, there are no so-called true floaters at all.”

“There is no such person? Could it be that Bai Xiaosheng didn't know the old man?” George frowned, quite strange.

“As long as there is a small famous person in the arena, in fact, it is impossible to find out in the arena of Baixiaosheng. Therefore, since he said that there is no such person, there are only two possibilities. One is that his reputation is even more famous. I don't have the qualifications to know it. Second, it is a fake name at all.” Amelia said.

“I prefer the latter.” George said seriously.

If it is really pure and unknown, how can the true floater come from such an incredible thing as the sky eye talisman? It can also help him out of the endless abyss that the world can't get out of. The most amazing thing is that George is now more and more sure that the real floater really had a conversation with himself in the endless abyss that day.

Although he didn't know how the real floater did it, but someone with such skill. How could it be a general generation.

“He is definitely not a veteran who is greedy for life and fear of death. The name True Floater is just a fake, but I really don't understand what it means for him to approach me as an ordinary veteran, which makes me always feel very strange. Yes, he seems to have been following me before. What is his purpose?” The more George thinks, the more he feels that this is abnormal.

“This person is mysterious, really puzzling, it looks like he is helping you, but sometimes it seems to be hurting you, but when it hurts you, it seems like he is helping you.” Amelia is in the world of wasteland I had already heard George talk about this before, so. She and George almost felt the same about what the real floater was doing.

I don't understand, what the real floater wants to do!

“in fact.....”

Just when a sound was about to be made, at this time. There was a sudden loud noise at the door, suppressing the sound, and then, Jianghu Baixiao gave birth to the dwarf and short body. With joy and joy, ran in panting.

As soon as he came in, he directly picked up the tea on the table and took a sip.

Then, he wiped his mouth and looked at George, out of breath: “Hey, hey...George, awesome, awesome.”

Chapter 1928

Chapter 1929

In the afternoon of the next day, it was less than an hour before George's match.

Just when George's life and death gate just opened, at this time, an amazing news came.

“Have you heard? The mysterious man said that he would defeat Grandpa Lihuo within five minutes.”

“What? Five minutes? Where are you going to listen to nonsense?”

“Yeah. You are a bit false, right? Although the mysterious person did abuse Venerable Weili easily last night, it is an indisputable fact that Venerable Weili is physically weak. Although the mysterious person is powerful, it is obvious. Shui, now facing Grandpa Lihuo, Grandpa Lihuo is a master of the True Twenty-Eight Classics. Can he fight all the question marks and solve the battle in five minutes?”

“Yeah. What you said is either false news, or the mysterious man is too fucking arrogant. I'm afraid he still doesn't know what the Nine Heavens Profound Fire is?”

“That's right, Nine Heavens Profound Fire is so special that it is one of the most mysterious things in the Bafang world. Don't say he is a mysterious person, even a master in the Eight Desolation Realm, then looking at the Nine Heavens Profound Fire is hairy. .”

“I think at the beginning... Forget it, forget it, if the great god heard it, we would be unlucky.”

Speaking of this grandfather Lihuo's first battle, one has to mention the masterpiece battle more than 3,000 years ago, that is, in that battle, Grandpa Lihuo relied on the nine-day profound fire, and he was taller than himself. The masters of the Eight Desolates who have come out of the whole world are equally matched.

Since then, the reputation of Grandpa Lihuo has made the world famous, but at the same time, it is also a shameful memory of the master of the eight wilderness.

Hear these discussions. The first person who spoke, disdainfully smiled at this moment: “My news is like a fake, my elder brother passed it to me from the hall, and the Mysterious Alliance will let you down and bring down Grandpa Lihuo within five minutes. If you can't, you will automatically abstain.”

“If you don’t believe me, ask the big brothers of the gate of life and death.” The man finished speaking, proud and very proud.

A group of people looked at each other and quickly turned their attention to the disciple of Qishan Temple who was in charge of betting records.

The disciples of Qishan Temple glanced at each other, smiled, and nodded: “Indeed, the mysterious man did release such words about ten minutes ago.”

This word came out. The group of people outside the hall couldn’t help taking a breath.

Will Grandpa Lihuo put down in five minutes? ! Ever since Grandpa Agni in the Bafang World, no one has really dared to speak such arrogant words.

Even many real masters in the Eight Desolation Realms. After learning about the deeds of Grandpa Lihuo, he was more or less courteous.

Unexpectedly, the mysterious man did not know where it came from. Dare to say a word.

“This mysterious person is so peculiar, and still, knowing that he is not the opponent of Grandpa Lihuo, so he played tricks and deliberately angered Grandpa Lihuo?”

“What is the benefit of angering Grandpa Lihuo? Do you want the Nine Heavens Profound Fire to come more violently?”

“I think he is obviously impatient. This is going to the hut with a lantern, looking for death.”

“The newborn calf is not afraid of tigers. That’s because it has not been eaten by tigers before. I will see how this mysterious man died.”

“But is this mysterious person really powerful? That’s why...” At this time, in the noisy crowd. Someone said weakly.

“Fuck, are you a fool? How good can he be? Even if he is good, why does he clean up Grandpa Blazing in five minutes?”

“Yeah, that’s right. If this guy can bring down Grandpa Lihuo in five minutes, I will eat shit to show you. I will take Grandpa Lihuo and write it to me.”

“I also bet!”

Seeing a group of menacing and confident. The weak voice just now closed his mouth obediently, but although he didn’t dare to offend everyone, he decided to listen to his inner thoughts after thinking about it.

Then, on George. He took down his remaining three thousand amethysts.

Once the bet was over, a group of people burst into laughter.

“What a fucking idiot, you still believe in the mysterious man by this time? Do you think he still has the luck of last night?”

“Yeah. Venerable Guai Li himself is weak and underestimate the enemy. He lost the game. Grandpa Lihuo expects that he will hear these rumors. He can't wait to slap that idiot to death. How can he make the mistake of Venerable Guai Li again? Wanting to defeat Grandpa Lihuo in five minutes is really the funniest joke this year.”

The man obediently collected his escort, did not dare to quarrel with everyone, and quickly left there.

The outer hall was already full of uproar, and the inside of the hall was even more turbulent at this time. George talked about the matter of bringing down Grandpa Lihuo for five minutes, like a bomb dropped into a calm lake, causing a thousand waves.

Everyone in the hall sneered at George's harsh words. Taunting again and again.

Ye Gucheng and Xian Lingtai sneered in the room, obviously, to them. George's words are like a child saying to an adult, I am going to knock you down.

At this moment, in the fierce room, a burly man slapped the table fiercely, touching the table with his palm, and the table top immediately smelled of burnt burnt.

Chapter 1930

The man's body was golden light, his hair exploded into blood red, he had no eyebrows and no beard, and he looked rough and a little weird. At this time, his face was full of anger, and his eyes were about to burst into flames.

“What a damn mysterious person, the dog is so daring that he dared to speak wild words outside. It's so mad, grandpa and me, damn it, grandpa will have to burn this stupid idiot by himself in order to relieve grandpa's hatred. .”

This Han is the famous grandfather of fire on the rivers and lakes.

“Isn't he going to defeat Grandpa in five minutes? Grandpa let him fall at his feet in five minutes today.” Grandpa Lihuo's Qi Qiao smoky, a cold snort between his nose, and a black smoke coming out to guard against Buddha. Of smoke.

“Grandpa Lihuo, this kid is really too arrogant. As soon as this is said, the entire Qishan Palace has caused an uproar. Even many big guys are paying attention to this game at this time, although we are only in the group. The match, but because of that guy's rant, now it has become a highly anticipated match. If you lose the match, I think..." Beside Grandpa Lihuo, his counselor stopped talking.

Obviously, with such attention from public opinion, this game is no longer a simple ranking battle.

On the contrary, it is a battle of dignity related to life and death.

Either party may not lose a game anymore, because once a game is lost, it may be his dignity.

At that time, even if you weren't beaten to death on stage, you might be drowned by someone else's saliva later.

At that time, living with a faceless face was really better than death.

Therefore, this game is no longer a qualifying battle, it can even be said to be a battle of life and death, especially for Grandpa Agni, this battle can only succeed, not fail.

"I know all of this. If I lose to an unknown person, I will naturally become a joke for the people of the world. What kind of face does my grandfather Blazing have in the rivers and lakes of the world? But don't worry, since the kid dares to make this It will give Grandpa a chance to fight for glory again. I will make my Grandpa Blazing even louder in front of everyone! And that kid is destined to be the stepping stone for me to ascend the throne!"

As soon as the voice fell, there was a loud voice outside, and the time for the game had arrived.

Grandpa Lihuo violently picked up the weapon on the table, and rushed out angrily.

Once outside the hall, the guests are full.

Not only was there no empty seats in the audience, but at this time, many of the surrounding buildings had windows wide open. Obviously, this gimmicky game also attracted the attention of some big guys.

Although this is just a small qualifying match, it takes five minutes to get rid of a master of evil spirits who can be tied with the master of Yabara. Obviously, this person is either a fool and bragging, or he has special skills. , Of course, is also the helper you need.

On the stage, George was already standing proudly, with his hands held up.

Grandpa Lihuo walked all the way to the stage, wherever he went, everyone cheered loudly.

“Grandpa Lihuo, kill me this stupid and mysterious person. I didn’t say that I lost money yesterday, but today it is even more arrogant. It is extremely arrogant and arrogant.”

“Yes, if this kind of newcomer doesn’t tidy up well, what kind of majesty will exist for old seniors in the future? Grandpa Agni, teach him a lesson, it’s best to kill him with a trick.”

“It is a natural law to push the back wave to the front wave. However, if the latter wave makes waves, then let him die in the sea behind.”

“Grandpa Lihuo, don’t worry, we all support you, we made a big bet on you, and gave me a hard hit.”

A gang of people babbled and shouted at Grandpa Lihuo. The anti-Buddha wanted them to come on stage for Grandpa Lihuo and beat George with their own hands.

Grandpa Lihuo snorted coldly, and with anger, he walked to the stage and saw George, his pupils were slightly locked: “You kid, who’s shit outside?”

George smiled and glanced at Grandpa Lihuo: “Save some strength. After all, within five minutes, if you say it is long or short, it will not be short. I’m afraid you won’t be able to hold on.”

“Fuck, you are a dead waste, you are so arrogant that you don’t put your grandpa Burning in your eyes at all? Well, your grandpa, I will tell you, within five minutes, I will roast you, a thin monkey, into a dried monkey. !” Grandpa Lihuo was so angry with George that he cursed.

In fact, George’s figure is not thin, but compared to these five big and three thick masters, he does appear to be a little thin, and he is often attacked by others.

“Let’s wait and see!” George smiled slightly. At this moment, his gaze lifted slightly and looked at the emcee in the distance.

“Mysterious Man vs. Grandpa Lihuo, start!”

With a soft drink from the emcee, the entire enchantment showing the match schedule was replaced with a big time countdown.

At five minutes, the timing begins.

“I’ll kill you with one move!” Grandpa Lihuo shouted loudly, then waved his hand, nine young children wearing red bellybands suddenly jumped up from the stage.

Then, they quickly lined up in a row, and Grandpa Lihuo slapped his hand. The nine blazing fires flew out like a long rope, and then hit the back of Jiu Zi’s neck. The nine children suddenly showed a trace of pain on their faces. Zi’s pupils receded, and there was only a blazing mark in his eyes.

“Nine days boy formation! I rely on, Grandpa Lihuo directly zoomed in when he came, haha, this kid is dead now.”

“Enjoy the pain of profound fire.”

Under the stands, a group of people were very excited to be able to reproduce the grandfather’s ultimate move. For many people, today’s battle is really worth watching.

“Boy, die!”

On the stage, Grandpa Lihuo roared and controlled the nine raging fires in his hand. The nine boys also moved in an instant, making a series of nine children.

The so-called Nine Subsequence Array is actually a very complicated and wonderful position. With the nine subs at the same time breathing fire, the formation of a series of interwoven networks that are dense enough to no dead ends, as long as it is covered by this network, let alone insert Wings can’t escape, even if it turns into a fly, there is absolutely no gap to escape.

“boom!”

A sky-blue flame spurted from the mouth of Jiuzi at the same time, and the Jiuzi, like nine fire-breathing lions, directly sprayed flames at George.

This flame is strange to say. At first it was only nine flames, but each one divided into two, two divided into four, four divided into eight, eight divided into sixteen... It was just a blink of an eye, facing the nine flames from George, and it was instantaneous. There are hundreds of fire nets.

“Haha, this guy is stupid now, right?”

“In the Nine Heavens Boy Formation, even if this kid turns into an ant, there is absolutely no possibility of surviving.”

“This person, he has to pay for his youth and frivolousness. It’s just that some people have been polished into good jade from the raw jade, and this guy just killed his life.”
