

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1931 - 1934

Chapter 1931

The blue fire was all over, even if George had prepared and opened the immortal mysterious armor, he still felt that his skin was scorched at this time, and the internal organs were constantly squeezing each other to prevent Buddha. It may explode at any time.

Nine Heavens Profound Fire is indeed well-deserved!

In fact, the five-minute time point was just a trick of George, and he was really not so arrogant.

However, if you want to see the Medical Sage King as soon as possible, you have to create your own fame, and the fastest way to get fame is to create a gimmick.

Therefore, George had to do this!

However, now that the words have been said, what George has to do is to complete his vows within the time allowed before he can become famous!

But when he couldn't use the Pangu axe, George really became an ant on the hot pot, and he didn't know what to do.

He subconsciously used energy to protect his body, but the energy that was obviously his suddenly prevented the Buddha from becoming an accomplice of these profound fires. For a while, these profound fires burned more violently all over his body, even George's The clothes were directly ignited.

"How could this happen?" George was suddenly shocked!

I couldn't even think about it, the powerful profound fire made his body even more painful at this time, and even the whole person's consciousness began to blur.

"How to do?"

"How to do?"

George was suddenly anxious and completely at a loss.

Out of a subconscious reflection of physical theory, George really wanted to use energy to create some water to stabilize his body, but not much of his consciousness told himself that Bai Xiaosheng said that Jiu Tian Xuan Huo Yu The water will only get stronger!

so what should I do now? !

Seeing that George was already swaying under the baking of Nine Heavens Profound Fire, he was a little unsteady, and Grandpa Lihuo showed an incomparable smile on his face at this time.

“Grandpa Lihuo, what a good job, let the Jiutian Profound Fire come more violently!”

“Burn to death this dog thief! Burn to death this dead waste that uttered cynicism!”

“Haha, I saw Amethyst beckoning to me, Grandpa Lihuo, come on!”

A group of audience members were also very excited at this time.

“Pretty!” Ye Gucheng bit his lip, suppressed his smile, and slammed the stick under his hand.

After waiting for so long, he finally waited for the scene of the mysterious person being abused, and the refreshment in his heart was naturally beyond words.

The spiritual master also showed a knowing smile at this time.

In a certain attic, Ao Yong gently closed the window halfway, shook his head helplessly, and said to the dark shadow on the side: “It seems that this mysterious man is just an exaggeration. The person who was beaten by Grandpa Lihuo could not fight back. .”

“Yes, under the Nine Heavens Profound Fire, within a minute, this guy will be burned to ashes.” Ao Jun also agreed at this time.

The shadow finally glanced at George in the sea of flames. His pupils were already a little diffusing, and he was not far from death. He sighed and shook his head: “I thought it was a promising young talent, but I didn’t expect it to be just a verbal rubbish. , I was looking forward to him for nothing.”

“This kid is bragging and arrogant. On that day, when I was looking for the Justice Squad, I saw him. At that time, I knew that this person was nothing but a bad one. I didn’t expect that his retribution would come so soon.” Ao Jun also slapped George yesterday. At this time, seeing George doing this, he naturally didn’t forget to fall into trouble.

On the one hand, it is venting bad air, on the other hand, it is also to reduce the negative impact of leaving in front of the master.

Sure enough, when he heard this, Sombra nodded. Although he did not apologize, he looked at Ao Jun and said calmly: “Does your face still hurt? Tomorrow, let Director Ao give you some pills.”

Hearing this, Ao Jun was overjoyed. Obviously, this was a kind of apology from the Patriarch to himself.

“Thank you Patriarch!”

“It’s all from my Ao family, so why be polite? It’s me, I’m really embarrassed to hurt you because of a arrogant trash, but you also know that the Fujia accidentally closed down, and the Blue Mountain Summit The frontal confrontation in the immortal sea is right in front of us, right now is the occasion of using people, so...”

“Patriarch, the subordinate is the Ao family, and the death is the Ao family ghost, why do you apologize to me.” Ao Jun said softly.

“Okay, Ao Jun, follow Ao Yongqian well, the future of my immortal sea area depends on you to help the ministers.” The man in black finished speaking and was about to turn around and leave.

At this time, Ao Jun hurriedly knelt down to send him off, but Ao Yong, who was beside the window, did not kneel down to bid farewell according to family etiquette, but stared out the window with his eyes.

When Sombra looked at him, he didn’t seem to have the slightest notice. He turned slightly and simply turned to the direction outside the window.

The black shadow is not upset. As the director of the Immortal Sea, Ao Yong should know the etiquette skills better than anyone else, but at this time he looked out the window completely and instinctively told him that outside the window, this time must be Something important happened.

Thinking of this, the shadow also walked to the window lightly, and at this glance, the whole person was stunned!

Chapter 1932

Same as them!

The countless people who had just been happy, shouted and burned George to death. At this time, all the smiles were frozen on their faces, staring at the stage dumbfounded.

Grandpa Lihuo, who was smirking, looked at George in the fire completely, and he felt incredible.

In the blue fire, George, who had been completely surrounded by the fierce profound fire and blurred, was dying, but at this time, a white light suddenly emitted from his body.

This light directly envelops him, like a silkworm chrysalis, gently protecting him in the profound fire.

“This... what is this?”

A group of people were all surprised. The whiteness was unheard of, unseen, and most importantly, it was still spinning slightly.

“Somewhat interesting.” In the attic, the shadow was surprised and suddenly became interested.

Grandpa Lihuo was stunned. At this time, he suddenly increased the firepower in his hand: “Miscellaneous, do you think there is an egg to protect you? I turned you into a baked egg.”

As soon as the voice fell, the profound fire suddenly increased, frantically roasting the “white egg” in the fire.

But no matter how fierce the Xuanhuo is, the white egg at this time is still slowly operating on its own!

Anti-Buddha is not affected by anything.

But Grandpa Lihuo did not relax at all, and continued to urge the energy to maintain the profound fire.

Among the “white eggs”.

George, who was almost about to be burned to death, was now embarrassed. He was covered with severe burns left by the fire, and his clothes were turned to ashes, leaving only a few awakes scattered on his body.

Although he had a golden body and an indestructible mysterious armor body, George’s internal organs were also seriously damaged.

The Nine Heavens Profound Fire is far from ordinary fire, and its power cannot be underestimated.

On the top of the egg, a stone hovered in the sky, gently swaying five auras, and the colorfulness of the whole egg, which was quite a fairyland, was very different from the raging fire outside.

Under the five lights, George’s body began to slowly recover at this time. Those burnt skins began to take off their scars and grow new flesh, and those clothes that turned into ashes began to slowly. Restored to its original appearance.

Turning around in the “egg”, everything about George slowly recovered in the round.

Suddenly, George opened his eyes fiercely, and he was subconsciously startled when he saw the surroundings, but soon, when he saw the stone above his head, he suddenly understood.

Put your hand gently under the rock, wanting to touch it but not daring to touch it: "It's you, did you save me?"

"The Five Elements God Stone!"

That's right, this stone is nothing else, it is the one that George passed the five-element large formation stone in the Eight Desolation Book of Heaven and sent it flying between his forehead.

George even almost forgot its existence, but at this most critical moment, it saved his life.

"Stupid, stupid, simply too stupid, such a person is also worthy to be the master of my Eight Desolation Book?" Just as George's voice just fell, that familiar voice came.

George looked unhappy: "What is my stupidity? It is obviously that the nine-day profound fire is too fierce!"

"You have a five-element sacred stone, and the effect of the five-element technique on you is at least halved. Are you still in the Nine Heavens Profound Fire?" The book said with dissatisfaction: "So, I say you are stupid. What are you not stupid?"

"What do you mean by this? Could it be that Jiutian Profound Fire is not fire?" George frowned.

"Hmph, that guy gave you the Sky Eye Talisman. If you let him know that you use it like this, I guess his maddening family ancestral grave will explode. I can't even understand a nine-day profound fire, I really don't know. How do you deserve the Sky Eye Talisman he gave you!" Bahuang Tianshu said coldly with disdain.

Hearing this, George frowned even more, because from the words of the Bahuang Tianshu, he seemed to know the Sky Eye Talisman, which the Bahuang Tianshu knew, and the true identity of the real floater, this guy also knew.

There was nowhere to look after breaking through the iron shoes, and it was all effortless. After a long time of tossing, people who knew this were by their side.

"Do you know the Sky Eye Talisman? Then do you know who that person is?" George asked eagerly.

"Why don't you know? What's wrong if you don't know? I only know that if you don't use the Sky Eye Talisman properly, George, you will become a roast pig." Bahuang Tianshu laughed coldly.

Although George was very depressed by what he said, he must admit that what the Bahuang Tianshu said was indeed reasonable.

“It has used all the energy to save you, and the energy shield that protects you will last at most ten seconds. After ten seconds, you should think about how to use the sky eye talisman.” The voice just fell, The Bahuang Tianshu suddenly fell into a deep sleep. Obviously, he did not intend to have any communication with George.

George was stunned. Could it be, what else did he use the Sky Eye Talisman incorrectly? However, he clearly felt that he had learned to use it!

Suddenly, a glare flashed in George’s eyes, he laughed, and slapped his thigh: “Fuck, why I almost forgot it!”

Chapter 1933

The true floater said that the reason why people are deceived by illusions is nothing more than mortals see with naked eyes and gods see with their hearts, but whether it is the naked eye or the mind, the medium is always fleshy. Therefore, if you don’t want to be confused by hypothesis, the sky eye talisman is the most true record.

Therefore, what I have to learn to use is to use the Sky Eye Talisman to see everything.

Then, use the sky-eye symbol to drive one’s own eyes and mind, and finally, merge the three eyes into one.

That’s right, the way to use the real Sky Eye Talisman should be like this.

It’s just that George has been under pressure by various things recently, and has never calmed down to study the Sky Eye Talisman. Now, George has calmed down and pondered carefully.

Thinking of this, George gently closed his eyes, letting himself relax completely, and at the same time, without any distractions in his heart, he quietly felt the existence of the sky eye charm.

Soon, George felt stronger and stronger for the Sky Eye Talisman.

At the same time, the Sky Eye Talisman also began to melt into a golden light, then slowly dispersed, and flew towards George’s body. Finally, they slowly merged with George’s body.

With the sudden golden light of George’s whole body, George suddenly felt a sudden roar in his ears, and then completely lost consciousness of his facial features, preventing the Buddha from being alone in a vacuum, unable to hear or see. It can’t be touched, not even the sensation of heartbeat.

But this feeling only lasted for a moment.

In the next second, George suddenly felt that his five sense perceptions were back in an instant. What's more amazing was that George was in the egg, but at this time, he could already hear the whispers of the audience in the audience.

After opening his eyes, George could even see everything and everything outside through the "egg".

He could even see Amelia who was in the distant room, waiting anxiously for him while playing with Nian'er.

At this time, George suddenly remembered what the real floater said.

Didn't he say it? Let yourself use the sky eye well and don't do those nasty things. In other words, the sky eye can actually...

George understood why the real floater would say those words, because the current sky eye talisman is the real sky eye talisman.

"Thanks, although I don't know who you are, I still thank you." George smiled slightly, then gently raised his hand and took off the Five Elements God Stone.

As soon as the Five Elements Divine Stone reached George's hands, the light began to weaken, and the spinning gradually stopped, and the egg outside also slowly stopped spinning.

"The thing stopped, the thing stopped." At this time, the audience outside stopped looking at the "egg" and couldn't help exclaiming.

Everyone stared at the "egg" intently, wondering what was going on inside.

Was the mysterious man roasted to death inside, or was he safe and sound inside? !

"Grandpa Lihuo, the egg has stopped, seize the opportunity."

"Yeah, burn him to death."

"Grandpa Lihuo, come on."

But there are also some people who urged Grandpa Lihuo to set up Grandpa Lihuo, hoping that Grandpa Lihuo would chase after victory.

Grandpa Lihuo nodded. Naturally, he would not miss such a great opportunity, but he has been continuously outputting the nine-day profound fire, and the energy in his body is not much. However, in order to wash away the shame, Grandpa Lihuo gritted his teeth and activated all the real energy. Enter the body of the nine-day boy.

Suddenly, the blue fire on the ring was even more fierce, and the countless jumping flames were like hell's demons, with their mouths wide open, making people daunting.

The “egg” finally stopped slowly, Grandpa Lihuo urged him to get angry, and at this time he couldn't help but sweat from his forehead.

In the egg, George smiled slightly at this time.

The Nine Heavens Profound Fire, now in the eyes of the sky, has its original shape.

“Grandpa Lihuo? I think you are just a thunder god!”

In the fire, there was a sneer.

As soon as the voice fell, George suddenly pulled out the jade sword, and then directly pointed at the sky. At the same time, mixed with a huge energy, in an instant, another frightening scene happened.

I saw George standing with his sword, and the blue sea of flames all over his body suddenly galloped towards George's sword. In the eyes of outsiders, this was nothing but a burning sword, but in George's eyes, it was Point the sword to lead thunder.

Nine Heavens Profound Fire is not fire at all, but a peculiar purple electricity.

For this reason, the stronger it encounters water, even the indestructible profound armor is difficult to resist, because electrical energy can directly hit the enemy through multiple media.

And hydropower is to promote its spreading trend! The same is true for ice.

No wonder, others say that the Nine Heavens Profound Fire is strange, but in fact, it is simply hidden too well, and even its appearance is basically a flame. Therefore, people mistakenly think it is fire. When resisting, they often resist it by resisting fire. , As a result, it indirectly caused a stronger offensive!

At the same time, when the electricity reaches a certain level, it will produce fire, and the scars on the body will be like being burned by fire. Naturally, it is more recognized. It is the so-called nine-day mysterious fire!

George instilled energy into the body of the sword, using the sword to induce thunder, holding the hilt of the sword in his hand, and lighting up his entire body, like a god of war.

Everyone at the scene was dumbfounded. Among them, several female audience members were deeply attracted by the figure like a god of war, with infatuation in their eyes.

“That guy is so handsome, he seems...like a god of war!”

“Yeah, I don’t know what the face under the mask looks like. If it’s the same good-looking, it would be the best companion in my heart.”

“Huh, there is a fart for being handsome, it’s not like a pile of bones after death? Now, that kid is waiting to become bones.”

But infatuation is infatuation. In the eyes of many other people, in addition to being handsome, George’s behavior is only to set himself on fire.

Several girls were thrown cold water. Although they were uncomfortable, they also recognized those claims, so they could not refute them.

In my heart, I can only feel a little regretful.

Yeah, what if you are handsome? It’s not a vase that you don’t want to use. The fire is already fierce enough, but this guy just wants to draw him. It’s not his own death, what is it? !

At this time, inside the pavilion.

“This kid, I’m afraid it’s too slow to die, do you jump to death?” Ao Yong sneered somewhat contemptuously.

Ao Jun immediately sneered and echoed: “It’s too uncomfortable to be baked, so if you want to die, hurry up.”

Ao Yong smiled softly: “That’s right, this person, sometimes his mind is not sober when it is too hot or too cold, and he does something that speeds up death. For example, when it is too cold, he will Undress, this fool seems to be the same.”

“Do you really think so?” The man in black suddenly turned his head and saw the two nodding. He smiled slightly and shook his head: “I don’t think it is necessarily.”

Chapter 1934

“Not necessarily?” Ao Yong was taken aback for a moment, and he was very puzzled.

In his eyes, what George had done was clearly seeking death, so why didn’t it have to be? !

Ao Jun is also puzzled. This is already obvious, but why does the Patriarch still have a different view? !

“My opinion is different from yours. I think that the mysterious man has already won, and Grandpa Fire is destined to disappear into this world.” The shadow smiled slightly and said confidently.

Unlike others, as the patriarch of the Immortal Sea, his cultivation has already reached the middle of the Eight Desolations, and he is naturally more transparent in many matters than others.

“This... this mysterious person won? How... how could it? Grandpa Liehuo obviously has an obvious advantage.” Ao Jun said in incredible wonder.

Ao Yongzheng wants to talk, but as the supervisor of the Ao family, he is naturally stronger in observation than others. Maybe, he can't see things as clearly as his family owner, but he has the same ability, he is better than anyone else. many.

Observe words and colors.

After getting other opinions from the Patriarch, Ao Yong knew the Patriarch's personality, and naturally it was impossible to make fun of this kind of thing, so he tried hard to find out how it was different.

Soon, he had an answer: “Although I don't know why the Patriarch is so affirmative, the mysterious person seems to have indeed won.”

From a distance, Ao Yong discovered an astonishing fact, that he was Grandpa Agni who had won a complete victory. At this time, there was a sense of fear on his face.

Although he didn't know what Grandpa Lihuo was afraid of, there must be a reason for what happened. Grandpa Lihuo was on the battlefield, and as an insider, he knew his situation far better than others.

“Ao Yong, it's worthy of me to take you seriously, not bad, not bad.” Sombra was obviously very happy.

For him, George had completely conquered this lonely self.

When he faced Grandpa Lihuo's Nine Heavens Profound Fire, he was still thinking hard about how to crack it. George's move unexpectedly touched him a lot, and it could even be said that Mao Zedong was stunned.

This method, from the face of it, was quite a bit of a ruin, he hadn't thought of it, but George thought of it.

“This son is not only outstanding, but more importantly, he is bold and careful. If he is cultivated, he will definitely become a great weapon. Ao Yong, the game will be over, and someone will be arranged for a banquet. Invite him to the table. I want to see this in person. Talent.” Sombra chuckled softly.

He wanted to observe Han three thousand more games. After all, the threshold of his immortal sea area has always been high and high, and it is so easy for ordinary people to enter his immortal clan.

But George's performance today made him extremely satisfied. Therefore, he felt that there was no need to investigate further.

George had already passed the customs early.

Hearing Sombra's words, Ao Yong was also visibly taken aback. Although it was inevitable that George would be appreciated by the Patriarch from the Patriarch's attitude, it is the entire opportunity for people who are not in the Immortal Sea to have such a quick promotion opportunity. This is the first time ever since the establishment of the immortal sea.

"Patriarch, this seems unreasonable. According to the rules of my immortal sea, even if this mysterious person is really capable, at least the highest treatment is only to be met by me. How can he let you meet in person?" Ao Yong hastened at this time. Persuade.

The black shadow lifted his hand lightly: "Hey, Ao Yong, special features are naturally treated specially. Besides, right now is the time when I am employing people in the immortal sea area. If there is a master to help, red tape, how do you deal with it?"

"can....."

"Go and do it, remember, set it up with the highest hospitality specifications of my Ao family."

Ao Yong nodded: "Yes, the subordinates will give orders."

And at the scene at this time.

As Ao Yong saw, Grandpa Lihuo was completely sweaty and violent, but his eyes were full of fear. He who was in the situation knew better than anyone what terrible things he encountered at this time.

Although George seemed to be seeking his own death, Grandpa Lihuo was stunned to find that the nine-day profound fire that was provoked by George was already uncontrollable.

They seemed to be caught tightly by some powerful force, no matter how hard they used, they were still standing there.

It feels like when you are fishing, the hook suddenly hooks on a huge boulder. No matter how you move it, it won't be shaken there. If you try too hard, you may even break the fishing line and let yourself be caught. Wounded by inertia.

"Why... how could this be?" Grandpa Lihuo looked at George who was carrying the sword incredulously. For the first time, his whole body let fear crush all the arrogance of his body.

Yes, Grandpa Lihuo was scared.

For the first time in tens of thousands of years since he walked the rivers and lakes, he felt the word fear.

It was the first time that he suddenly realized that he was only one step away from death, and whether this step is going to be the next step, he still had to decide on his own. These were all in the hands of George.

Grandpa Lihuo panicked.

“Really? Since you said it was yours, I’ll just give it back to you.”
