

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1939 - 1942

Chapter 1939

“It is necessary to remind you that the Book of Life and Death of Heavenly Poison is my unique secret creation. Once you sign this book, this book will merge with your body. If you can follow our arrangements in the competition, this The book will naturally be digested by your body slowly. Of course, if you give birth to two hearts, this book will definitely punish you.”

“You don’t have to rush to refuse, and you don’t have to rush to agree. You can consider it slowly.”

George frowned. With George’s city house, how could he believe what Wang Wanzhi said? Although he is a famous doctor of a generation, he is indispensable to guard against others.

What’s more, Ao Tian’s eyes have shown that this book of life and death was simply added temporarily. Although he didn’t know what medicine Wang Chuzhi sold in the gourd, one thing was certain, this book was by no means simple.

“You think it over, come see us again.” After Wang Wanzhi finished speaking, he greeted Ao Yong, ready to see off the guests.

Wang Suzhi wanted to say it again. He is indeed the only one in this world who can detoxify the poison of Broken Bone Chase Soul Powder, but that’s also because Broken Bone Chase Soul Powder has long disappeared, in fact, he made it. of.

However, this kind of forbidden drug, only he knows who Wang Wanzhi has given back.

Therefore, when George came to ask for detoxification, he was quite panicked and surprised.

In fact, he suspects that the only mysterious man just now is the son-in-law of Fu Jia and husband of Fu Yao, George!

The King of Medical Sage is relieved. Although he has always seemed indifferent to fame and fortune, he is actually a very utilitarian person. Although he is a neutral person on the surface, he has been in collusion with the three major families, especially in the immortal sea. He Fujia, Wang Suzhi will always quietly give a helping hand, and the broken bone chasing the soul scattered, is the Futian Patriarch Futian asked.

As for who he was dealing with, Wang Yan naturally knew.

But of these, he naturally can't let Ao Tian know that Fu Jia is now completely finished. If he let Ao Tian know that he actually has a double heart for the Immortal Sea, and secretly communicate with Fu Jia, this will definitely affect his heart in Ao Tian's heart. s position.

Of course, this is a public heart. It doesn't matter to Wang Wanzhi who the person comes to support the family. The most important thing is that Wang Wanzhi is selfish.

"Brother Ao, you are also a member of the Octagonal World, but don't you think it's strange that this mysterious person came from?" Wang Changzhi deliberately concealed the outline of the matter, but he went straight to the result and attacked.

Ao Tian was a little unclear by his words, so: "Brother Wang, what do you mean by this? Eternal Life Sea is the time when people are employed. What's more, the hero does not ask where he comes from, as long as he can help my Ao family, he Who is it and how important is it?"

Wang Su laughed and shook his head: "Hehe, if he comes from a humble background, it really doesn't matter, but what if he is helping his family?"

Ao Tian frowned when he heard of Fu's family, "The situation in Fu's family is so dangerous now. If Fu's family has such a master, why don't you fight yourself? This doesn't make sense."

"But if it's always at odds with Fujia, what about George, who has hatred?" Wang Slow said.

"George? Hasn't that guy fallen into the endless abyss? How could he appear here alive?" Ao Tian frowned.

In fact, this is also where Wang Changzhi is most confused.

Speaking of Broken Bone Chasing Soul Powder alone, he can basically predict that the person here is George, but the Bafang World's concept of death in the endless abyss is like a person's heartbeat is equal to a sentence of death, which is very sure.

"But the matter is very important. If he is really George, this natural poisonous life and death talisman is the key to us to seize the Pan Gu Axe. If not, he does something for you to find out his identity. In fact, , It's not too much." Wang Suzhi said.

Ao Tian thought about it for a moment, and thought that what Wang Shuzhi said was indeed quite reasonable, and nodded: "Brother Wang said it is very true. In fact, I am also very curious about who this mysterious person is. But, what kind of person are you? Is the poisonous book of life and death reliable?"

Speaking of the Heavenly Poison's Life and Death Book, Wang Changzhi couldn't suppress his pride. This was what he was proud of.

"For this, please rest assured Brother Ao. If he signs, I will protect him from survival and death." Wang Changzhi's eyes gave a sinister smile.

Hearing this answer, Ao Tian was very satisfied.

As long as he can be controlled, he is nothing more than a grasshopper in his hand, he can play whatever he wants.

"Brother Wang, you did a good job, but will that kid sign it?" Ao Tianqi said, this is the most important point, otherwise, no matter how good the plan is, it will be a slander.

Wang Shuzhi laughed: "This world is the only one who can solve broken bones and chase souls away, and only me, Wang, if he wants to save people, can he disagree?"

"Okay, okay, okay, Brother Wang can easily accept a member of the tiger for me, and I will respect Brother Wang a cup."

After speaking, the two looked at each other and laughed.

At this time, under a corner of the Qishan Temple.

The two people and a dragon sat together, squatting in front of them, and placed the red and green Sky Poison Life and Death Talisman.

Both of them and one dragon had their brows furrowed, as if they were facing an enemy.

Obviously, everyone understands that the Poisonous Life and Death Talisman is definitely not as simple as Wang Chuzhi said.

"Although I don't know exactly what this life and death talisman is for, but this thing is red and green and has a strange shape. It is not a good thing at first sight. George, this thing cannot be signed." Jianghu Baixiaosheng said.

"It's really not a good thing, but a kind of Gu." With the eyes of George now, he can naturally see what he wants to see.

Although the Heavenly Poison Life and Death Talisman is indeed exquisite in workmanship, how could it escape George's current eyes?

"The King of Medicine is slow, not only the medical skills are unique in the world, but at the same time the poison is also unparalleled in the world, if this is really Gu, then don't agree." Jianghu Baixiaosheng said anxiously.

"What do you think of this matter, Linlong." George said.

Linlong couldn't help showing a wry smile: "I don't think you need to ask me what I think, the most important thing is what do you think?"

George smiled, still Linlong knew him best: "Don't say it's Gu, even if it's poisonous, I have to eat it."

Thinking of Nian'er, George had a firm attitude. As a man, he should take up all the responsibilities and pressures. Therefore, compared with helping his family to make his wife and daughter suffer, George is more willing to leave his life behind.

"No! Since this group of people gave you the Gu, they naturally have no peace of mind. I am not worried about what the tournament will do for them, but I am worried that you will become their puppet for the rest of your life." Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng resolutely refused.

George and Linlong looked at each other and smiled, and then took the pen directly with one hand.

Chapter 1940

When George's name fell, the entire Heavenly Poison Life and Death Talisman disappeared instantly, and George's left and right arms suddenly had two textures of different colors, one red and one green.

Seeing this situation, Bai Xiaosheng's face was ashamed, he really didn't understand. Why does George know that there are tigers in the mountains, so he prefers to travel to the mountains.

George smiled and patted Bai Xiaosheng on the shoulder: "Don't worry, I will be fine."

"The so-called don't enter the tiger's den, you won't be a tiger." George smiled and stood up: "By the way, don't tell Amelia about this, you know?"

The arena Baixiaosheng wants to speak but stops. Finally, after holding back for a long time, he couldn't help saying: "Don't worry, since I'm in the same boat with you, I won't step into other boats. Amelia, I will help you conceal it, but. Be careful yourself."

In order to prevent Amelia from being suspicious, George asked Bai Xiaosheng to return to the house first, and then he arrived.

He didn't want Amelia to worry about himself. In order to save Han Nian, George had no other choice, or that this was the best and only choice at the moment.

As long as Han Nian and Amelia are okay, even if George is dead, it is also a dead eye.

In order to delay time, George simply stood in place and watched the game on stage. Linlong saw that it was all right, and went back to George's body to sleep.

After absorbing enough aura from the Book of the Eight Desolations, Linlong and the three little white beasts. Faintly wants to break through the realm, has the potential to cultivate and digest the aura before.

At this time, Ye Gucheng was supporting a familiar white figure and was walking towards the isolation of the immortal sea. George didn't want to care about Ye Gucheng's troubles, but Qin Shuang's state was clearly wrong, and he intuitively told George. Maybe something went wrong.

Ye Gucheng didn't take Qin Shuang into the attic of Heaven and Earth, but knocked on the door of a hut next to him. After a while, the door opened slightly, and Ao Jun's figure appeared. After laughing and muttering a few words with Ye Gucheng, he gave Ye Gucheng a bag of things, and then took Qin Shuang who was unconscious. Turned around and retracted into the room.

Ye Gucheng shook the things in his hands, smiled triumphantly, and turned and left.

In the room, when Ao Jun took Qin Shuang back to the bed, Qin Shuang was confused at this time, but the immortal face obviously made Ao Jun couldn't help swallowing.

He has been thinking about such a beautiful woman for a long time, and today, he finally got what he wanted.

Rubbing his hands. Ao Jun showed a wretched smile, and directly a hungry wolf pounced on Qin Shuang's body. With a sigh, he tore open Qin Shuang's outer gauze.

Looking at Qin Shuang's snow-white skin, Ao Jun suddenly felt blood boil all over his body, and couldn't help it anymore, pouting his thick mouth and going to kiss Qin Shuang's fragrant mouth.

Just, this mouth goes on. It was not as gentle as jade as imagined, on the contrary, it was cold and stiff.

Look again. What kind of Qin Shuang is his kiss, but it is clearly a cold sword.

Ao Jun stopped his beastly behavior in an instant, followed the sword obediently, and got up. At the same time, his eyes turned to the sword holder.

"Is it you?" looked at the person. Ao Jun was extremely surprised.

"It's me." George smiled slightly.

Ao Jun smiled: "You are really bold. Even the captain of the Immortal Seas Guard's room dare to break in. Do you know how serious the consequences will be?!"

"I do things. I always do things casually. The consequences? It has nothing to do with me." George sneered coldly.

"Don't think that if you defeat Grandpa Lihuo and Venerable Guai Li, I, Ao Jun, will be afraid of you." Ao Jun shouted coldly.

Although George's performance in the two games was really amazing, but as the captain of the garrison in the Immortal Sea, how could Ao Jun's cultivation base be low? !

As a lower tier of Zhu Xie, he is even confident that he can defeat George.

Especially, he didn't agree with George. Why is he qualified to let the Patriarch have a banquet so soon? And myself. I have worked hard in the eternal waters for thousands of years, and I have never enjoyed it!

Now, he even ran to disturb his dreams. What if he is the patron's guest? How did Ao Jun swallow this breath?

George smiled softly: "Then what do you want?"

Ao Jun sneered, but the next second, he still leaned slightly. Obviously, he chose to make concessions and asked George to take Qin Shuang away.

But just as George was about to pick up Qin Shuang, behind him, Ao Jun suddenly moved his hand, a huge water energy instantly turned into a sword, and hit George directly.

Ao Jun's whole person suddenly felt sweaty, an invisible pressure, desperately pressing his water sword towards his neck slowly.

Just when Ao Jun began to regret the sneak attack on George, at this moment, suddenly a strong bloody smell came in the air.

Immediately afterwards, the candles in the whole house went out instantly, plunged into darkness.

Chapter 1941

With a loud noise, George and Ao Jun could not help being directly bounced away by a huge strange force. Ao Jun's whole person was directly retreated several meters away. Although George was in better condition, it only took two steps. , The tiger's mouth holding the jade sword was slightly numb.

Inside the door, at this time, a dark shadow stood there.

Because of the lack of light, he can't see his appearance clearly, and he can't see his figure clearly, only the outline of him can be seen vaguely.

As soon as he came, the strong smell of blood awakening in the room became stronger now, and it even caused a stink, which made people feel like vomiting.

George couldn't care about this at all, his eyes stared at the dark shadow like torches.

Just now, George still feels unsteady, because the opponent's strength is so great that he can directly crush himself and Ao Jun's attacks with his own power, and at the same time, it can also shock him.

Since entering the hall, George has never encountered such a master.

Naturally, Ao Jun was not much better. He instinctively told him that he didn't know the black figure in front of him, and it was even more unlikely that he was from the immortal sea.

But with the blow just now, he had already been shaken out of his internal injuries. If he were the enemy, Ao Jun's own situation was obviously worrying.

“You are...” Ao Jun thought for a while and asked courageously.

“How did you get this sword?” At the door, the black shadow opened his mouth slightly, and a cold woman's voice suddenly filled the room. Although the environment was too dark, George could not see her features at all, but he could feel an extremely cold light hitting the jade sword in his hand.

He asked what the sword did? !

George couldn't help but be puzzled. This jade sword was Chi Meng's own weapon. It was a weapon he had obtained in the Xuanyuan world. How could someone suddenly become interested in this jade sword when he arrived in the world of Bafang? !

Apart from the dead soul, who else would be interested in him? !

However, I have seen her, and the person in front of me is completely two people.

Could it be Chi Meng? !

But this thought, George just passed by, because Chi Meng's meeting should still be in the Xuanyuan World, even if she came to the Bafang World, how could she have such a strong strength with her as a tool spirit!

"Who are you?" George frowned and asked coldly.

"I, now, ask, you, you, are, what, what, got, to, it, it!" A short sentence, but her tone was literally biting out angrily. Obviously, she was very As soon as his voice fell off, George suddenly felt an extremely strong pressure, which he had never encountered before, and rushed straight at him.

Even though George hurriedly transported all the energy to resist, he was still panting like a cow with this strong pressure. Although the whole body was resisted, his feet slowly slipped backwards involuntarily!

"Where is the man with this sword? Where is he? Tell me!!"

"Roar!!!"

With a roar, George felt the pressure in front of him suddenly increased several times. When he doubled his strength to resist, he only felt a sweet throat, and a mouthful of blood spurted out. The next second, George could not help being beaten back. Meter. Fall directly to the ground.

George frowned. The opponent's strength is obviously very high, and it can even be described as a metamorphosis, so that even him suddenly suffered some injuries, but these injuries are not fatal to him. At this time, He slowly stood up and came to the bed to protect Qin Shuang.

At this time, Ao Jun was stunned and stayed in place. He didn't even dare to show up. Such a terrifying strength was fortunately directed at George. If it was directed at him, he would have died.

"I will ask you one last time, where is the man with this sword." The female voice said coldly at this time.

George had no doubt that if he didn't answer again, this woman would definitely kill him.

But George also knew that the more she was like this, the less he could easily tell her, otherwise, he would only be more troublesome.

George smiled softly: "You are crazy, but I never counsel!" As soon as the voice fell, George slowly raised the jade sword, and at the same time, his body was full of gold, as if he was ready to fight. .

She was looking for the owner of the sword, and that was herself, but she didn't even know her. George didn't know what her purpose was.

In the next second, she had appeared in front of George, hitting George's chest with a palm. At this time, George also didn't dodge, but with a punch, he went straight!

With two muffled noises, the woman's hand directly pierced a few minutes into George's chest, and at this time, George suddenly realized that her hand was as dark as an eagle's claw. thing.

But just for a moment, the pothole suddenly shrank in George's incredible eyes, and then healed suddenly!

Chapter 1942

Because it was so close, George was panicked, and he could even see the woman's face.

It was a pale, bloodless face, like a ghost. At this time, he was looking at George with blood-red eyes, full of playfulness.

"Just rely on you?" She smiled coldly. In the next second, she snapped a mouth sharply, and the small mouth suddenly tore directly, revealing the fangs that were as neat as a hacksaw that were flush to her face. At the same time, there was a sharp, ear-piercing roar like hell monster beast from his throat.

George was immediately shocked by the roar, and at the same time, a bloody black aura suddenly spread on his body and bound his hands and feet.

In the next second, before George reflected, her eagle-claw-like hand had directly stuck his throat, and then volleyed George up.

"Now, don't you say it?" The shadow smiled coldly, and his face returned to normal.

George frowned. Although he was shocked, he didn't panic. At the same time, his whole body was madly carrying energy.

George violently broke free of those restraints, lifted the jade sword in his hand, and immediately cut off the hand in front of him by the elbow, but there was just a sign of relaxation on his throat. In the next second, the eagle-claw-like hand stuck again. On George's throat!

Death will not die, but will come again!

“Ignorant ants, go to death.” With fierce force in the hand, the eagle claws immediately stuck George's throat.

George felt like his throat was clamped by a giant pliers, his strength was extremely strong, even if he gathered all his strength on his neck, he could barely resist being choked to death.

Sombra was also visibly taken aback. Obviously, she hadn't expected that someone could withstand her attack.

“Interesting, interesting.” Sombra sneered coldly.

“Are you capable of this? I haven't used the real ability yet.” George smiled, his hands were already slightly opened, and he was about to call out Pan Gu Axe.

He did not want to reveal his identity, but at the critical moment of life and death, he had no other choice.

The woman in front of her was completely different from the previous Venerable Wei Li and Grandpa Lihuo. If Venerable Wei Li and Grandpa Lihuo relied more on something of absolute strength, then this person was not at all.

She was really fictitious, and she was a little overwhelmed by what happened to George.

Therefore, George understood that perhaps conventional weapons did not have any effect on her at all.

Seeing this situation, George was not happy, but shook his head again and again.

Since Ao Jun stepped aside and asked George to rescue Qin Shuang on the bed, George instilled energy into Qin Shuang at that time, so that she could wake up as soon as possible.

Because George knew that Ao Jun couldn't let Qin Shuang go so easily. For any man, such a superb stunner is something that can't be met.

Neither can it be met, how can it be so easy to let it go? !

Therefore, George had long left behind, in case Qin Shuang had the ability to escape if he was in trouble.

However, George didn't calculate that suddenly a mysterious dark figure appeared, let alone that. At this time, Qin Shuang who was awake did not choose to escape the first time, but to fight Ao Jun.

Let's not say that her cultivation base is not as good as Ao Jun, even if it is enough, but she just woke up, how can she fight Ao Jun? !

Seeing that Ao Jun was about to hit Qin Shuang with a palm, George sighed helplessly.

"Get me started!"

With a roar, George suddenly had golden light on his body, and violently directly shook the dark shadow on the opposite side.

Ao Jun was immediately repelled, but at this time, Sombra also slammed into George's waist.

Suddenly, George was stabbed with a blood hole in his waist, blood drenched, but for a moment, the clothes around his waist were soaked with blood.

Qin Shuang's face was pale. After the contest was over, her vitality was severely injured, but Ye Gucheng was secretly attacked and drugged.

Although she could hear everything, the weakness of her limbs made her unable to resist at all. When she was taken to this room, she could only cry in despair in her heart, but George came Saved her.

Therefore, when she received the help of George's energy, she used this energy to adjust her body. After breaking through the drug confinement, she rushed out to help George as soon as possible.

However, there is a huge gap in strength, only a few face-to-faces, she lost to Ao Jun.

At this time, she knew that George had been seriously injured because of herself, and she was in a panic.

"Help me." George glanced at Qin Shuang.

Seeing George's posture, Qin Shuang was shocked. The next second, tears filled her eyes.

The Rainfall Sword, that is Qin Shuang's most memorable sword technique since George disappeared, but he dared not touch it, because every time he dances a sword, it is a solo dance, and every solo dance has only the past in his memory. All sorts of, only the tears in reality.

"What are you doing in a daze?" George glanced at Qin Shuang, and then rushed directly at the shadow.

Qin Shuang nodded fiercely, bit his lip, cooperated with George, and approached the shadow.

Although Qin Shuang's recovery is average and his strength is relatively weak, the rain falling sword technique is extensive and profound. In addition, the rain falling sword technique is the main attack of George. With George's current cultivation base, it naturally determines the upper limit of the sword technique. Qin Shuang should do it. Yes, it is to cooperate with George to support the whole ups and downs of rain swordsmanship.

With the two skilled sword formations, the shadowy figure, who was still very brave, was evenly fought at this time.

"Sure enough." George couldn't help showing a faint smile at this time.

What she can help seems to be done.

In a moment of stunned thought, Sombra seized the opportunity, suddenly volleyed, and opened his hands, like a huge bat, and the black and red shadow suddenly entangled around her crazily.

"Roar!!!"

George shook his head helplessly, facing the direct attack of Hei Neng, he hugged Qin Shuang directly and flew back while holding her waist with one hand.

With such close contact, Qin Shuang's face was flushed for a while, and his heart was like a small deer bumping into each other, and at this time, George shook his head:
"Give it to me!"
