

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1967 - 1970

Chapter 1967

Lu Ruoxin's face was like frost, and her peerless eyes were full of anger.

"Ah...Lu...Princess Lu Family!" The runaway group of people flashed under their feet, not daring to take a step forward.

"A bunch of rubbish!" Lu Ruoxin let out a soft cry, and his body flew up instantly, stepping on the heads of those fleeing people, and flew straight to George Han.

With her flying. The white dress she was wearing was drawn by the wind, and her posture was graceful. The white dress, like a fairy, passed everyone.

"Wow, it smells so good."

"It really is a princess, not to mention the beauty, it's so sweet!" In the midfield, a group of people from the immortal seas couldn't help but raise their eyes and look into the air. Greedily looked at Lu Ruoxin who flew by.

Suddenly, just as these people smiled greedily and tried their best to breathe the fragrance in the air, their entire complexion suddenly changed, and then they clutched their throat like crazy, only twitching a few times. He fell to the ground and turned into a pool of blood after a while.

As he fell, more and more people followed in his footsteps.

Ye Gucheng hurriedly covered his nose and shouted: "The fragrance is poisonous, everyone close your nose and mouth, and don't smell it."

At this time, George Han was not afraid of Lu Ruoxin who rushed up. Raising his hand, he directly met Lu Ruoxin.

When the two palms met, the bottom of the palm suddenly exploded.

George Han felt his internal organs tumble. The whole person couldn't help but directly flew for several meters, and Lu Ruoxin, who was opposite, couldn't help but step back slightly at this time.

What a strong internal force.

"Vanous state?" Lu Ruoxin frowned slightly, looking at George Han in disbelief.

Just rely on a vague “novice” , Can unexpectedly make the three masters of his own side embarrassed into such a look.

This really makes Lu Ruoxin feel incredible.

However, what kind of wisdom Lu Ruoxin is. Although she is confused about George Han’s cultivation level, she will never underestimate George Han, because she knows the consequences of underestimating a person.

“Interesting, interesting, but a mere ethereal person can actually kill all the way to the present, you remind me of a person.” Lu Ruoxin laughed softly.

“Yes?” Although George Han smiled, he couldn’t help but beware. He did not expect that this young and beautiful woman in front of him was actually a terrifying Eight Wasteland. It was also the first real Eight Desolate Realm master he encountered in the Bafang World.

“Do you know George Han?” Lu Ruoxin said with a smile.

“I don’t know.”

Judging from George Han’s reflection, Lu Ruoxin smiled mysteriously: “His cultivation level is also very ordinary, but he relies on the Wuxiang magical skill and Pangu axe. He is forced to live in Tianlong City. Fighting to become famous, to carry digital masters. And you, ethereal...interesting, really interesting.”

George Han frowned, and the woman in front of him not only suppressed everything by her looks, even her nice eyes, He always charms the world at all times, and his mind is better than George Han. He was also a little flustered.

However, this panic was not lust, but George Han felt. She seemed to be aware of her identity.

She defended the Buddha as if she had seen her through.

“Really?” George Han said calmly.

“If George Han is a talented guy, his cultivation may be close to your realm, do you think this is more interesting?”

“George Han has fallen into the endless abyss.” George Han is cold. Soundtrack.

“Hehe, ordinary people’s matters. Naturally, ordinary people think about it, but very people, so naturally you can’t think about it with ordinary ideas. George Han, you say me, are you right?”

” No, I don’t even know what you are talking about. “As soon as George Han had spoken, he couldn’t help being shocked, unconsciously. He almost followed Lu Ruoxin’s words and followed her words.

Had it not been for George Han’s quick response, he would have been exposed on the spot.

But even so. George Han couldn’t help but be wary of the woman in front of him. From a certain angle, she was really not only very high, but also meticulous, intelligent, and good at catching people’s hearts.

“You understand what I’m talking about.” Lu Ruoxin smiled coldly and looked at George Han: “However, this is not important to me, because whoever you are will die in my hands.”

Voice 1 After falling, Lu Ruoxin’s white light flashed, violently attacking George Han.

The jade palm turned over. With a move of Xiangju, he immediately approached George Han, the distance between the two. The moment was less than half a centimeter away, and George Han could even smell her body scent hidden under the scent, and could also feel her light breath.

Even if George Han could resist the temptation of her being so close. But obviously there was some chaos. He hadn’t thought that Lu Ruoxin’s attack would suddenly be so close.

During the loss of consciousness, Lu Ruoxin had already hit George Han directly with a palm. Although George Han was confused for a moment, he reacted very quickly. Although he could not resist her attack, he also ate that palm. A slap on her body.

boom! !

With two loud noises, the two shook back several meters at the same time.

Chapter 1968

Both sides gently hid the hand that patted each other behind them.

Lu Ruoxin slapped him with a palm, but instead of slapped on the flesh, it was as if he had slapped on a steel plate, and the whole palm was numb.

George Han is not much better, the entire palm of his hand is already densely covered with blood because of the severe pain. And the palms couldn’t help shaking slightly.

Lu Ruoxin resisted the numbness of his palms, and her charming eyes were full of surprises.

With her palm power, at such a close distance and the other party did not fully reflect it, no one has this ability and can resist it.

However, George Han, a “novice” in the ethereal realm, completely took his own attack, even making his palms numb.

What kind of perverted defense is this? !

The more so surprised. The corner of Lu Ruoxin’s mouth made a slight smile, because she suddenly began to have a little interest in this guy in front of her.

Princess Lu family has always been unreliable, and her family status and her own cultivation and appearance have made her extraordinary, so she naturally has a higher eye than the sky, and many heroes cannot enter her eyes. But George Han suddenly created a little surprise for her.

I thought that the two attacks of this guy were already extremely powerful, but I didn’t expect this guy’s defense to be as stable as Mount Tai.

Interesting, it is so interesting.

“You are a rookie who can withstand the blow of this young lady. It really surprised me.” Lu Ruoxin smiled slightly: “But, can you still fight? Is your hand particularly painful?”

George Han’s hand slightly Zhang It’s still painful even now. Every movement involves painful nerves throughout the body, which makes people feel painful.

“Haha.” George Han smiled, holding his pain, gritted his teeth and took out his hand. Clenched a fist in front of her: “What do you say?”

“It’s useless to hold on to death. Acting in front of me, I’m afraid you are too tender.” After speaking, Lu Ruoxin smiled and gently pulled the ribbon on the incense shoulder. Although only a little sideways, George Han saw it. The soft silver hedgehog on her shoulders.

Pulling the ribbon, Lu Ruoxin smiled: “The Celestial Silkworm Soft Hedgehog, the top defensive artifact, has 99 cold jade nails in every palm-sized place, how about? Is the effect satisfactory?”

George Han bit his teeth. After doing it for a long time, this woman has this kind of protection, no wonder she dared to fight directly and hard. “It’s not bad, but. I’m afraid this thing has been useless for a long time, and it has rusted.”

“The mouth is really hard.” Lu Ruoxin smiled contemptuously, holding it lightly. A giant long sword suddenly appeared.

“Fuck me, what is that?”

“What a strong pressure, my God. What kind of magical soldier is this!”

“My God, in my lifetime, I have never seen such a powerful magic sword.”

When Lu Ruoxin Jinjianyi After coming out, all the people underneath were dazzled by the golden light. Although George Han, who was close to him, tried to stabilize himself, he still felt the huge cold light of the golden sword.

“See if it’s you harder or my sword is sharper.”

As soon as he finished speaking, Lu Ruoxin suddenly raised his sword. Suddenly, the situation changed, and thunder and lightning roared.

With her a sword strike. The entire sky against the Buddha was slashed by the sword energy and turned into two, and George Han’s forehead could not help but sweat at this time.

This was the first time he felt the pressure of death.

It was also the first time in the battle, suddenly there was a panic inside.

The power of this sword is really too great. George Han, who was so huge that he had always been confident, was also a little panicked at this time.

But compared with George Han, Lu Ruoxin at this time smiled indifferently. But she was not proud, but looked at George Han with deep eyes.

For her, she didn’t think that her sword would kill George Han. Although this sword went down, few people could stop it, but someone could!

“That’s right. Forgot to tell you that this is Xuanyuan Sword!”

After hearing Xuanyuan Sword, everyone underneath suddenly lost their voices.

if we assume. Jiuyou Demon Sword is a rare soldier of the purple-gold level, and it is rated as an ancient legendary soldier. Then Xuanyuan Sword is an innate treasure, and it has not been seen in a hundred million years. King.

This is the top sword king in the Bafang world.

According to legend, there are five great spiritual treasures and three heavenly treasures in the Bafang World. These are above all god soldiers of any quality, but since ancient times, these spiritual treasures and Tianbao have existed in legends.

And Xuanyuanjian is one of the five spiritual treasures.

Legend has it that this sword is extremely sharp and can break everything in the world. Can cut billions of monsters.

“..... Regulus Xuanyuanjian, Lu Jia daughter hands, turned out to be the king of the Xuanyuanjian Wan Jian!”

“This life I actually fortunate to witness this enduring magic. I really could die ah.”

“Gentlemen, I now I have a weird but bold idea. I really want to marry Lu Ruoxin. Even if I drink her bath water every day, I would also like to drink her bath water every day. Not to mention she is beautiful, her status is high, her cultivation level is high, and most importantly... she still has Xuanyuanjian! “

” Oh, drink bath water, you think about it the next life, advise you to say something nice, otherwise, you will stay and may end up that mysterious people, is Xuanyuanjian Perak in half. “ and this At that time, Xuanyuan Sword grew bigger and bigger, smashing George Han’s head straight!

Chapter 1969

George Han’s forehead was full of sweat. Facing such a magical soldier, George Han knew that he didn’t have many choices, and he was afraid that only Pangu Axe, the king of all weapons, could resist.

But if you take out the Pan Gu axe, it will hit this woman’s arms.

There are still two true gods above. If he completely exposes himself at this time, he will only become a blessing doll by then. Everyone wants to hit himself, the baby who fell on the ground.

George Han is not nonsense, the woman wants to expose herself, but she does not expose herself.

Directly according to the Taiyan Mind Method, all the energy in the body was urged to the maximum, and the whole person’s hair glowed silver in an instant from black.

The golden bodies of the Immortal Xuan Kai and George Han also flashed around at this time, echoing each other.

“What? This kid...this kid didn’t dodge or fight, but chose to directly meet Xuanyuanjian. Is he crazy?”

“What is he kidding? Xuanyuanjian is the king of ten thousand swords. Not to mention that he can’t resist the mere mortal body. Even if the true god above has the body of a god, he can’t stop it. This kid is afraid that he has been scared to pee by Xuanyuan Sword, so he made a mindless move?”

“I thought this mysterious person? How capable is it, now it seems that it is just a brain-dead.”

The people below can laugh at it. In their eyes, George Han’s approach is tantamount to moths fighting the fire and killing themselves.

Qin Shuang among the crowd. George Han staring blankly in the air, he had forgotten to breathe, his eyes were full of worry.

boom!

Sword fall!

“Puff!”

When the giant sword fell, within a hundred meters of the place where it fell, the sand flew away and the trees fell apart.

What made everyone stunned was that even though George Han was knocked to the ground directly from the air, he still stood on the ground.

Many people felt their scalp numb, and some even pulled their hair frantically, looking at him in horror.

“Pouch”

Suddenly, George Hanmeng spouted a mouthful of blood. Although his eyes were still firm, he felt that his eyes were very tired. He could even hear his own heartbeat, and it became more slowly every time he jumped.

after all. Is it a big game?

George Han smiled bitterly.

He had only just grasped some cultivation bases, and tried to use the indestructible profound armor and golden body to resist Xuanyuan Sword’s attack, as if it was a little bigger.

But even if George Han did this, the crowd was still shocked.

Because for them, under Xuanyuan Sword, trying to use mortal body to resist, there is only one situation left, and there is nothing but ashes.

But George Han broke this concept.

Therefore, even if he vomited blood, he was already a little bit burnt out, but no one dared to laugh at it anymore.

Lu Ruoxinyun's breezy and clear face, at this time, there was also a hint of surprise, and the slight smile on the corner of his mouth had already explained that George Han, a "novice", had begun to appreciate her.

"It's funny, so funny that I don't want to kill you suddenly, but I'm even more curious. How long can you carry it?" Lu Ruoxin smiled lightly, and the next second, she raised her hand slightly, preparing for the next one. Attacked.

Perverted woman!

George Han scolded inwardly. I wanted to twitch all the energy in my body, but found that my body didn't listen to my commands at all, and even the heartbeat began to slow down. Consciousness is getting fuzzy.

Looking at Lu Ruoxin who was galloping down, George Han frowned.

"Roar!"

George Han glanced back. It was a lion-like little guy with a white body and golden wings.

Although the body is not too big, it can't stop this guy's natural king aura, the whole beast is majestic. Quite a taste.

what is this? !

George Han was taken aback!

However, in the next second, he suddenly remembered something.

Tianlu Pixiu!

Isn't this the Tianlu Pixiu I bought at the auction house last time? However, this guy has always been egg-shaped. After George Han gave it to Linlong to take care of it, he almost forgot its existence.

Unexpectedly, at this critical time, this guy suddenly appeared.

Naturally, George Han did not know that the birth of Tianlu Pixiu was actually due to the fact that he released all the spirit beasts to inhale aura in the Bafang World last time, which accelerated the birth of Tianlu Pixiu.

"Roar!!" There was another roar, don't look small. But the roar shook the sky, the echo turned around, and the roaring George Han was almost deaf.

But with his roar, George Han suddenly found out. I was shrouded by a golden light, and at the same time my body began to slowly reflect. Before my heartbeat was about to stop, it suddenly turned back and beat quickly.

“What are you doing in a daze? This fucking beast Xiang Rui has eaten most of its energy. It is just born and can only be used once.” Lin Long shouted.

George Han didn't say much anymore, and directly flicked his jade sword. Flying away.

As the two handed in, the battle was about to start instantly.

With the help of the sky fire and the moon wheel, George Han cooperated with the Taixu Shen step, plus the Taiyan Mind Method. Unpredictable for a while, and Lu Ruoxin's divine light circled around her body, waving in white clothes, like a lotus flower in a flourishing age, and the golden light of Xuanyuan sword in his hand flashed like a fairy, holy and flawless.

“What's the origin of this mysterious person? There are spirit beasts such as Tianlu Pixiu? There are strange fire and purple electricity in his hands, and the footwork is even more strange than unheard of and unseen.”

“The most important thing is that after a blow from Xuanyuan Sword, he can even compete with the daughters of the Lu Family.”

“This mysterious man has been arrogant and mysterious from the moment he appeared on the stage. He really deserves the title of his mysterious man. Lao Tzu was completely defeated by him. If he survives, I will worship his sect in the future. “

Boom! !

Mid-air. The fighting between the two became increasingly fierce.

Hundreds of rounds later, Lu Ruoxin was already a little bit sore at this time, but she was indeed the princess of the world's top family in Bafang. Not only was he holding a masterpiece, his own cultivation base was also extremely high, and his stunts frequently appeared, which infringed George Han seriously.

As for George Han. Even after hundreds of rounds, he has never shown his hole cards. He has never used such things as Wuxiang Divine Art and Pangu Axe. He insisted on relying on what he had learned from the old man and the Tianyin technique he occasionally performed. Withstand Lu Ruoxin's attack vigorously.

“Xuanyuan Sword Formation!”

Suddenly, at this moment, Lu Ruoxin directly sacrificed his strongest forbidden technique.

Xuanyuan Sword flew into the air, suddenly transforming into three, three transforming into nine, and ninety thousand thousand. Above the mid-air, ten thousand swords were sent out in an instant, like falling rain, directly hitting the ground. When the people on the ground saw it, they all gave up the confrontation. Fled one after another.

George Han smiled evilly at this time.

Chapter 1970

I've long been waiting for you to blast away the obnoxious guys, otherwise, I really dare not play with you!

When the sword rain arrived, the ground seemed to be detonated by thousands of bombs. Each sword is enough to blast a huge pit up to several meters in the ground.

The sword rain cloth can be said to be charcoal, and within a hundred miles, there is not a single place.

As the boom exploded, the last giant sword also fell from the sky.

boom!

The earth is shaking.

The aperture emitted by the last violent explosion even swallowed all the apertures that had been continuously exploding before, and finally formed an even greater halo.

The halo passed. Some small peaks that were close to the tail-finger peaks could not be avoided at all and were directly cut off by the waist.

Some of the people on the ground squatted hiding with their heads in their hands, and some fled into the sky. But as long as they are hit by the halo, they are all split into two parts like a mountain.

At this time, George Han was nowhere to be seen on the ground.

While Lu Ruoxin was searching carefully, George Han suddenly flew out of the dust, already struck by a sword!

"This... how is this possible?" Lu Ruoxin frowned slightly.

boom!

Almost at this moment, Lu Ruoxin's left arm was suddenly cut open, and blood slowly flowed down Ruyi's arm!

“Fuck me. Daqian Lu was injured, that kid actually broke the curse.” Someone yelled anxiously.

“After all, I underestimated you.” Lu Ruoxin hurriedly urged his energy, and immediately retreated, covering his left arm with his right hand, and staring at George Han not far away with haughty eyes.

This is the first time in her life that she has been injured.

She was arrogant and arrogant, and at this time, she suddenly stepped across a short period.

How did he do it? !

He disappeared, but suddenly appeared again.

Where did he disappear?

Lu Ruoxin is now. There was such a moment of trance.

How could she understand that her Xuanyuan Jianyu was terrifying. Everyone who was scared hurriedly avoided, but invisibly created an excellent condition for George Han.

And this condition. It is to let George Han have no worries.

Anyway, there was no one in the sword rain, he could jump into the Eight Desolation Book of Heaven as he wanted, only the Eight Desolation Book of Heaven was left alone in the formation.

In terms of the ancient things like the Bahuang Tianshu that were born and co-born with the Bafang world, what harm can Xuanyuan Jianyu do to it?

George Han worried that after he jumped in, the Bahuang Heavenly Book was picked up, but Xuanyuan Jianyu rained. Everyone ran away, didn't this create huge conditions for George Han?

In addition, the time in the heavenly book is different. George Han could even kiss Amelia Su in the Eight Desolation Book of Heaven, play with Han Nian by the way and then jump out of it. For Lu Ruoxin, it was only a matter of milliseconds.

“What else do you have? Just use it?” George Han held a jade sword. Laughed coldly.

Lu Ruoxin shook her head, although this kid successfully angered herself. However, she had a little more appreciation for George Han.

In the next second, Lu Ruoxin suddenly fluttered in white, concentrating with anger.

George Han felt his eyes shook violently. When he opened his eyes again, he was left, right, front and back. Suddenly stood a George Han each.

“Phantom?” someone exclaimed from below.

George Han smiled contemptuously, I have the eye talisman, what will I see? !

The Sky Eye Talisman shouldn't be too easy to use for things like Phantoms. I just got lucky right now and planned to spy on it.

But as soon as the sky's eyes opened, George Han was directly stunned.

All of these four phantoms are real.

That is to say. Suddenly, four Lu Ruoxins appeared!

“What kind of ghost spell is this?” George Han frowned. Looking at Lu Ruoxin.

Lu Ruoxin smiled disdainfully: “You might as well tell you, this is the ancient secret method of the four souls of the North Ming.”

After that, Lu Ruoxin mocked George Han coldly: “Although this secret method is very powerful, you don't need to be afraid to flow. Nosebleeds.”

George Han laughed, embarrassed. It's not that George Han was so scared that he had a nosebleed, but because of the effect of celestial eyesight, so... Lu Ruoxin in front of him... in George Han's eyes, nothing There is no difference in wearing.

Although George Han is not interested in Lu Ruoxin and only pretends to be Amelia Su in his heart, there are some visual shocks that will make people subconsciously reflect some.

This is an instinctive performance.

“What are you laughing at?” Lu Ruoxin asked slightly angrily strangely.

“Wow, he is really a mysterious person. Facing the ancient secret method, he even laughed. It is not something that ordinary people like me can compare.”

“I want to come, he must already have a way to deal with it, so he is ready.”

“I I am really curious, what method will this guy use to crack this secret? Anyway, mysterious people are always surprised and look forward to.”

But when a group of people were very curious and looking forward to it, their The corners of his mouth twitched involuntarily.

When Lu Ruoxin's four shadows were linked together, George Han suddenly flashed light on his body, and then...

ran away!

That's right, he suddenly turned around and ran away, and the speed was staggering!
