

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1979 - 1982

Chapter 1979

When the eyes went dark and the two came to the gods' mound again, in ten days, for the Bafang world, there was finally some time.

When the two landed, they looked around. Soon, the two saw the corpse cat lying down and resting again.

Although it did close its eyes, it obviously did not relax its vigilance. It did not return to Jinquan, but lay down nearby.

Fortunately, it did fall asleep again.

The ginseng baby is the same as last time, one landing, and directly into the ground with a dog chewing on the mud.

George Han is not much better, because he is pressed by the huge gravity. The usual jumps and falls, but at this time, there was a direct rumbling, the ground trembled, and the entire knees violently flashed because they could not bear the huge gravitational inertia.

Seeing the painful George Han, Ginseng Baby turned her head fiercely, and compared to George Han's ban gesture: "Hush!"

"Hush!" George Han patted his knee. After exhausting his strength, he reluctantly stood up, and immediately after Ginseng Baby was dumbfounded, George Han cleared his throat suddenly.

"Hey, lazy cat, get up."

Ginseng Baby couldn't believe her eyes, fuck, are you crazy? !

Outside, at the tail peak, the war had entered a white-hot stage. After George Han was chased by Lu Ruoxin, the top of the Blue Mountain barely regained its advantage. But not long after, with the arrival of Wang Wanzhi from the Immortal Sea, the victorious balance began to tilt towards the Immortal Sea.

Wang Changzhi also succeeded in becoming the first person to obtain a green totem texture.

Outside of the gods, a black shadow suddenly stopped under Lu Ruoxin's tree. The person who came was Chi Meng. Then, she knelt down slowly, her head pressed very low: "Report to Miss Xuan Shao to ask you to support you immediately. Family Totem, Wang Suozhi has already come over. "

Under the tree, Lu Ruoxin still leaned slightly and lay down, without even opening his eyes.” Go back and tell him that I am playing tricks on the mysterious person. “

Hearing this, Chi Meng was stunned for a moment: “Miss, slaves shouldn’t ask more. But on the side of the totem of the family, the eternal sea area Wang Wanzhi has already taken over the totem, and if things go too far . I’m afraid it’s not good for the top of the Blue Mountain.” After that, Chi Meng is ready to be beaten, but it is rare that Lu Ruoxin is not angry: “But just at the beginning. It’s not me that is anxious. What’s anxious? I was busy fishing, catching a big fish.”

Chi Meng looked around and was taken aback: “Miss, you are talking about George Han? Have you tried out that the mysterious person is Han George Han ?” Lu Ruoxin suddenly broke the world. A smile appeared: “No, I can’t try it out. However, he is quite interesting to me. Therefore, whether he is George Han or not, I will not let this fish go. If nothing happens, you don’t need it. Come to disturb me, understand?”

“The slave girl understands. By the way, that person asked me to bring you a letter.”

Upon hearing this, Lu Ruoxin’s smile solidified and said with a straight face: “I didn’t tell him, don’t go private Looking for me? If you let my father know...”

“He said he has very important news to tell you.” Chi Meng said.

Lu Ruoxin frowned and her jade hand moved. A black envelope in Chi Meng’s arms flew into her hand in the air.

After taking the letter, Lu Ruoxin only gave a prostitute, and for a while, her beautiful face was mixed. There were shocks, doubts, strangeness, but also slight joy.

boom!

She held the letter in her hand, and after a pause, the whole letter was completely turned into powder. Looking at the divine mound in the distance, Lu Ruoxin suddenly grinned: “Really? You are going to live for me.”

Chi Meng lowered his head, looking at Lu Ruoxin a little scared. What did that man’s letter say? In order to make Lu Ruoxin’s emotions so complicated? !

And what does she mean by looking at the grave? !

And at this time in the god mound.

The ginseng baby really feels like a dog. After waiting so many days, finally waited for the corpse cat to relax his vigilance again, but the person hadn’t stood firm even when he came, George Han. Actually, he took the initiative to wake people up. It's not about carrying a lantern to go to the toilet and looking for death!

As the corpse cat wakes up again, at this time, his eyes are already wide open, his body is arched, and his front paws are crawling. Blood mouth is wide open.

"You go quickly, you are free." Just when Ginseng Baby was annoyed by George Han, George Han unexpectedly said such a sentence.

The ginseng baby was obviously taken aback. I was a little touched.

Although he was cursing along the way, he also knew that George Han had saved himself. The most important thing is that in the ten days of staying with Han Nian, getting along with that child made him feel happy.

At this time, with a roar of the beast that pierced the sky, the corpse cat rushed over.

The speed and the strength of its air pressure are simply frightening.

At this time, George Han, biting his lip, slightly leaned forward, clenched the jade sword in his hand, and looked at the corpse cat that rushed up. He suddenly closed his eyes and muttered: "Grandpa, you can do everything. Don't fool your granddaughter!"

Chapter 1980

Seeing George Han close his eyes, Ginseng Baby's surprised eyes burst out: "Boy, what are you doing? Don't kill me?!" The adjustment was brought about by excitement and tension. George Han took a breath, and in the incredible eyes of the ginseng baby, he removed the protection of the immortal mysterious armor. Remove the protection of the golden body, and even the energy protection released by the Dantian itself is completely eliminated.

Simply put, without these protections, George Han is no different from ordinary people.

"Fuck me, what are you doing, you won't tell me, are you going to fall asleep?" Seeing George Han who would take all the protections off, Ginseng baby jumped up and down anxiously, but couldn't do it. stand up.

George Han ignored it. The body and mind are completely relaxed, and even all the energy in the body is no longer under control, allowing them to follow this huge gravity to find the source.

"To live a happy life, don't worry about it, otherwise. The whole life will be very depressive!" With that sentence in his heart, George Han allowed gravity to move with his energy, and all his consciousness also slowed down. Respite action.

Through their bodies, they came to the ground, and then went through the ground, all the way down.

After all, George Han's consciousness came to an illusory place, and he also saw the source of gravity, and that source was the golden spring that he had seen before.

Heavy thoughts, depressing the past!” “Heavy is pressure, and pressure is heavy!”

“Grandpa, is this what you told Amelia Su mean?”

A smile appeared on the corner of George Han's mouth. This is not gravity at all, but will. All powerful gravitational suppression is actually the suppression of will, and this will is the will of the true god, but the way it is expressed is expressed by gravity.

Therefore, the biggest trouble George Han faced was not gravity, but the will of God here.

“To beat here will, it should be better than gravity here. You say, people want a happy thing, so. Happy is not afraid, do not worry, do not fear. Do not give up!”

Carter, discarded George Han, who was guarded by all energies, only felt a strong pressure rushing toward his body at this time.

Immediately after. Under the weight of his clothes, his clothes began to fall apart, and then one part of his skin burst again, and then another part of his bones broke.

But George Han still closed his eyes as if it were still water, but the eyes covered by the eyelids were full of unyielding strong will.

No matter how high the sky is, the power is higher than it is immortal.

Bang bang bang!

George Han could no longer stand the acupuncture points on his body. There was a huge explosion, and the blood was bursting.

“Fuck, crazy. Crazy, you Y's crazy, in the sacred mound, it is really not you damn human beings who can come.” Ginseng Guo roared anxiously.

But George Han just smiled, letting the meridians explode, letting the bones and skin tear.

“The road to becoming a god. If you don't give up and take the road, how can you overcome the obstacles? Grandpa, am I right?”

Boom! ! ! !

suddenly. The whole god mound trembles fiercely!

In the next second, George Han suddenly opened his eyes.

At this time, his almost damaged body was slowly recovering at a very fast speed, and the clothes fragments that had burst into slag returned to him quickly and slowly at this time.

Inside the sacred mound, George Han Fangfo heard bursts of soft long laughter.

“This...this...what’s the situation?” Ginseng Baby looked at George Han’s change incredibly. The whole face was extremely pale.

At this time, the corpse cat that rushed over also suddenly stopped halfway and stared at George Han with big eyes.

When everything is in place. George Han is no different from when he first arrived. He is in good condition and his clothes are not damaged. The most important thing is that George Han feels that his body is very refreshed at this time. As he moves forward, even the steps are not No matter how heavy, even lighter than when outside.

Seeing this, Ginseng Baby opened her eyes like a ghost: “What do you mean? Removed the equipment, removed the energy. Instead, it can not be controlled by gravity?”

“Could it be that the gravity here is gone?” After speaking, the ginseng fruit happily stepped on the calf to run forward.

“Wow!”

Bang!

then. This guy came straight down again.

“Grass, what do you mean? He can, I can’t? Fuck. I’m a native here, he’s an outsider, what’s up?” Ginseng baby raised her head angrily and cursed.

But George Han didn’t have the time to take care of this stuff. After a brief pause in vigilance, the corpse cat roared again and went straight to George Han.

George Han chuckled coldly, holding the jade sword in his hand, and flashed sideways directly facing the surging corpse cat, his body as light as paper.

As for George Han’s original place, the guardian corpse cat dropped its claws, and forcibly cut four bottomless gaps on the ground.

What a strong attack power! !

But just as the Shouling Corpse Cat threw a claw into the air and turned around to attack again, at this time, its eyes as big as a cow were suddenly covered by a huge golden light.

In the midair, George Han's golden body flashed, his hair silvery white, like a god of war!

The moon wheel of the sky fire turned into red and blue wings, hung on George Han's back, and George Han's hands were turned to his back, as his hands were slowly raised.

A golden giant axe, rolling out!

Chapter 1981

Rumble!!!

Throughout the space, an invisible pressure stabilized and made the air pressure in the entire space tremble slightly and buzzed.

“Aw!!!”

Facing the deadly pressure of this golden giant axe, a trace of fear flashed in the eyes of the corpse cat, the black hairs all over his body slightly stood up, and the huge tail also rose slightly at this time to become slightly drooping.

Obviously, the corpse cat that is invincible in the gods. Actually felt a trace of fear at this time.

boom!!!

And almost at this moment, Pangu axe, carrying the power of destroying the sky and destroying the earth, directly hit the corpse cat.

boom!

One shot down, the corpse cat that resembles a big mountain cannot retreat. Its powerful body is a burden at this time. When hit by the golden giant light carried by the Pangu axe, the entire body is huge. It was directly pushed several meters away.

At the waist level, there was a deep blood stain, and the blood dripped continuously through the thick long hair.

“No?” The ginseng baby's jaw almost fell to the ground.

Not to mention that George Han got rid of gravity, he actually injured the corpse cat with one blow.

You know, as a ginseng baby born here. I know too much about the corpse cat. It is the incarnation of God's resentment and is invincible. Not only is it extremely powerful, but its defense is invincible, at least within this god.

Its huge body is obviously not just a display. It is the foundation of super defense.

However, George Han actually hurt it!

"Wow!!" The

painful Shouling Corpse Cat also opened its blood basin and showed its fangs, roaring at George Han.

The long hairs all over his body have already exploded, terrifying.

"What do you roar? There's more!" George Han smiled, his left and right wings suddenly fluttered, and he held the axe in both hands, blasting the world.

"Don't be careless!" Ginseng Baby hurriedly shouted.

And almost at this time, the corpse cat screamed abruptly, and a red light burst out of its mouth, carrying the power of billowing grievances, like a dragon made up of countless skeletons, directly facing the giant light of the three thousand golden axes of Han .

boom! boom!

George Han was directly smashed by the golden light by the red light, and then he was blasted down. There was a sudden pain in his chest, and he opened his mouth with blood. The whole person was shaken almost to fall apart!

What a powerful force!

George Han stared at the guardian corpse cat in astonishment. It was indeed a beast that could defend the sacred mound, and even his Pangu axe could be directly hardened.

You must know that although George Han didn't fully grasp Pan Gu Axe, he was also the king of ten thousand weapons after all.

Roar!

With another roar, the Shouling Corpse Cat suddenly attacked George Han.

But at this moment, in the distant golden spring, the streamer suddenly turned, and a golden figure appeared from the streamer. The whole body of golden light flashed like a body of gold, but it was too transparent to make it clear. The appearance, but the strength of the mixed breath makes people shudder.

Almost when the Shouling Corpse Cat pounced in front of George Han, George Han felt that the pressure in front of him suddenly increased, and a golden light suddenly pushed the Shouling Corpse Cat to the side.

boom! ! !

The huge body of the corpse cat was entangled with golden light, and it slammed heavily on the ground in the distance, causing dust to fly for a while.

“Fu Yun, why, why?”

Suddenly. In the entire space, a dull anger roared, full of unwillingness and perplexity. The voice was so low that it couldn't find the direction. I don't know where it came from, or where it came from.

“You and my destiny are over long ago. I am not Fuyun. And you, neither is Fuyun. We will be disillusioned by others and inherited by others.” Another voice struck.

This voice is almost the same as that, but it's not so deep, it's much brighter.

“Within the Shenmong, Li Lai is strict and strict, Fu Yun, why do you want him to break the rules?”

“Why? He is George Han! He is the grandson-in-law, is that enough?” The voice shouted majestically. .

“Fu Yun, are you crazy? Do you really believe that the legend of it? Do you really want the Earth to a person breaking the rules since the world Octagon years it?”

“This is the fate, you and I are the same!”

Voice Just dropped. Jin Ying and the corpse cat attacked each other again.

The confrontation between the two is like a battle at the peak of the world.

You come and I go between the two sides, it is long before the naked eye can distinguish, George Han through the sky eye symbol. I can only see two figures showing their magical powers in the mists of the two groups of gold and black.

“Is this the power of the true god? It's too... too strong.” George Han looked shocked. Is this the power of the true god of the past? Sure enough, it was very powerful, George Han felt like an ant in front of them.

Rumble!

The loud sound surpassed the sky, but this did not know when to stop.

“Fu Yun, I’m not convinced!”

Suddenly, an unwilling roar resounded throughout the cemetery space. Immediately afterwards, through the eyes of the sky, George Han saw the corpse cat, and suddenly a figure appeared. In the next second, it turned into a blood mist and dissipated in the cemetery.

And that golden figure, at this time, there is no golden sparkle before, and the transparent one is almost invisible. Obviously, in the war just now, he was also exhausted.

But even so. In front of George Han, his aura was just as powerful and daunting.

He turned his back to George Han, unable to speak for a long time.

George Han knelt down gently. He lowered his head and yelled respectfully: “Thank you, grandpa , for helping me . George Han has seen grandpa.” “Fuyao, no, is Amelia Su okay?”

George Han was taken aback, he didn’t expect that Fuyun would know the name of Amelia Su Earth, but finally nodded: “She’s okay.”

“This child has suffered.” With a sigh, Jin Ying slowly faced George Han, still not being able to see his face, so she could barely see his face. Seeing his looming outline, he looked at George Han for a long time, and slowly said: “Invasion of the gods, but against the sky, I don’t know whether it is good or bad. I don’t know whether the legend is true or false.

” I have spent my life empty, but I never thought that in the end, it would still be unsafe at night. It’s nothing more, this is all free cause and effect, the cycle of heaven.” The voice was full of hoarseness and sighs, and the voice just fell. Jin Ying stepped up slowly and walked straight in the direction of Jin Quan.

The further he went there, Jin Ying’s figure became more transparent, and when he reached the edge of Jinquan, it had already turned into light smoke.

George Han stepped forward, but only caught a light smoke.

For some reason, there was a faint sadness in George Han’s heart. One of the three true gods who was once brilliant, only a few light smokes left in the end, which made people sigh very much.

“Go, child!”

A voice came from the sky, but it got farther and farther.

“Thank you, Grandpa.” George Han knelt down again, knocking his head heavily on the ground.

After a while, George Han slowly stood up, looked at the Jinquan in front of him, and walked in slowly.

Chapter 1982

When George Han’s body stepped into the golden spring, it was originally an extremely calm water surface, slowly flowing, and gradually forming a huge vortex with George Han as the center. All the golden spring water also rotates with it. Begin to follow every pore of George Han’s body skin and slowly flow into his body.

Soon, George Han’s body began to undergo tremendous changes.

There was a faint purple golden light flowing in the Immortal Profound Armor, and the golden body was also more radiant, and even the mark of the Pangu axe on the forehead was shining with golden light.

In George Han’s body, a bulging black liquid suddenly appeared, which merged with the golden water in the golden spring, and followed the vortex, slowly re-entering George Han’s body with the pores.

Then he practiced his meridians and various acupoints crazy.

“Ah!”

The pain was severe. Even George Han couldn’t help crying out in pain.

The whole body was like being bitten by an ant, but the most unbearable thing for George Han was the heart-wrenching pain from his internal organs.

After the black and black liquid merged with the golden spring, it entered the body again, making George Han’s whole person the same as after swallowing all kinds of pills in the palace. The body enters a poisoned state.

But just for a moment, these pains suddenly disappeared without a trace. What followed was that George Han’s original skin began to fall off little by little, but the skin left after shedding was crystal clear. , The golden light shines.

Looking inside his body, George Han found it even more incredible. In fact, not only his skin, but his bones were also slightly adjusted, and the internal organs and the meridians and blood vessels everywhere. Under the nourishment of the golden spring, it became golden.

The most frightening thing was that the blood, which was originally extremely bright red, had all become golden liquid at this time, flowing slowly in George Han’s body.

boom!

With a loud noise, a golden god violently broke through George Han's Tianling Gai and rushed straight to the top of the tomb.

And George Han's entire body flashed fiercely, and an extremely auspicious streamer quietly hovered around his body. The silver hair was under the golden light, and the tips of the hair glowed with golden light.

Roar!!!

Almost at the same time, the golden dragon and golden flying phoenix suddenly flew out of the golden spring, hovering up, flying in the sky, surrounded by dragons and phoenixes, and finally after each long hum of dragon and phoenix, they turned into thousands of strange symbols. Printed on the back of George Han.

With Jin Yin in his body, George Han suddenly felt a strong breath from his back poured into his body, and his entire cultivation base rose straight from the ethereal realm.

The illusory mid-term. The final stage... followed by the early stage, middle stage, and final stage of Kongtong.

Then punish evil.

finally. Stopped steadily in the early days of the Eight Wastes.

Then, these golden energies were suddenly hidden within the little golden man in George Han's body, and the cultivation base once again stayed in the ethereal stage.

At this point, George Han's cultivation base has reached the end, but on the outside, it seems that there has never been a slight improvement.

I don't know how long it took, the golden light around George Han began to slowly disappear, hiding in George Han's body.

"Huh!"

At this time, George Han exhaled a long murky breath. Then, he slowly opened his eyes.

At this time, those eyes were all extraordinary, and they were like the vast starry sky. The eyes are more like golden stars.

Inside the inside, there is a golden world. At the pubic area, the little golden man has grown incomparably, shaped like a baby, surrounded by mountains of light. Rune around lightly.

The immortal mysterious armor is already flowing with purple light, and the purple light is cold and indestructible. On the entire armor, there are more auspicious cloud patterns, golden dragons, fire and phoenixes, and they are extremely powerful.

“God’s true source, really domineering!” George Han roared in excitement.

“Cool!”

With a loud roar, the sound actually shook the sky. With a violent leap, he lifted a hundred meters in an instant and clenched his fist. The bones are even more sparkling with purple lightning, preventing thunder and lightning from tearing in the Buddha, and flowing light around the fist between fist swings.

George Han was excited in his eyes, and even wanted to find someone to try his current cultivation.

“Grass, your uncle.” Of course, at this moment, a curse sounded, and the ginseng baby walked towards George Han angrily.

Because Jinquan had been swallowed by George Han, gravity was in full contact within the grave, and the ginseng baby was no longer bound. So he rushed over, then walked to the spring with his small legs, and looked into the spring reluctantly. His face turned black immediately.

“Damn, you actually drank all the golden springs without leaving Lao Tzu at all. I’m fucking your uncle.” Ginseng baby rushed to George Han’s face, jumping madly: “Lao Tzu It’s a life of nine deaths, but in the end it’s all fucking cheap for you.”

Seeing this guy grabbing and kicking on his lap reluctantly, George Han held it with one hand, and the product was instantly taken by George Han. The ground was sucked onto the palm.

“Does it have anything to do with you? If it weren’t for me to save you, you would only have nine deaths and no life.” George Han smiled slightly.

“Fuck, come here. With Lao Tzu’s skill, does Lao Tzu need you to save it? Without your burden, I only have a whole life, and there are no nine deaths.”

George Han smiled suddenly at Ginseng Baby’s unhappy expression. : “Do you know that the women’s clothing tycoon often ends up in the end?”
