

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1983 - 1986

seems to realize that it's not good, the ginseng baby dodges his eyes, chirps and chirps, "No...I don't know. Why, who are the women's ladies...I, me...you, Don't mess around!"

"Ah!!!"

A scream rang out in the tomb after a while. George Han picked up the already bruised and swollen ginseng baby with two fingers and shook it in the air. The guy swung around like a dead toad.

"Have you taken it?" George Han tried harder, and this guy became more swaying.

"I've taken it, don't shake it, I'm almost vomiting." Ginseng Baby counseled, completely counseled, originally was not George Han's opponent, let alone George Han who was baptized by Jinqun.

"It's not just talking about it. It's about taking actual action. Let's talk about it, what is it for you, and why were you born here?" George Han put him back in his palm, and at this time, I will take care of him. Looking at him with interest.

"Hey, in fact, the death of man. There must be three souls, and the true god is no exception. The dead cat is actually after the death of the true god, the whole body of the grieving soul is transformed by absorbing the thousands of spiritual breaths in the tomb of the gods, and the golden light figure It is the soul of the god, as for the soul left..." As the ginseng baby said, she sat on George Han's hand, and then licked George Han's hand with her small mouth open.

Then he bit again.

George Han was listening to what he said and was immersed, and he did not gnaw painfully or cared, and continued to ask: "You mean. Are you the last soul of the true God?" "The last soul of the true God is constructed by The gravity of the tomb of the gods, it and the dead cats transformed by the grievances of the true gods, rely on the dragon vein power on the top of Qishan to form a combination. They are specially used to resist the intrusion of others. Generally, they are combined in one, and no one can Blocked, if you encounter a stronger opponent, such as the intrusion of the true god, this time will cause the appearance of the spirit of the god, the three souls increase with one force, and the four are one, even the true god is difficult to stop."

"Speaking of which, you are really lucky. When others don't get the texture of the totem and the texture of Qishan Peak, it's hard for others to get the approval of the spirit of the god. It's good for you, the spirit of the god will help you kill it in turn. The evil of the true god, the gravity of the last soul is also relieved. The three powerful souls are gone.

“While speaking, Ginseng Guo was even more curious about what he said, and couldn’t help but increase the strength of his mouth.

“Damn. What are you doing?” George Han was bitten in pain and bounced him away with one finger.

The ginseng baby rolled a few times and got up again. Then, unwillingly searched for George Han’s palm for a long time, he found a place and took another bite.

Wow!

A scream suddenly came, and the ginseng baby suddenly jumped up and down. It was a neat row of teeth, but suddenly there were two missing. And George Han also had two more gadgets almost the size of sand in his hands.

“Oh, I’m so painful.” I wanted to take a bite, but George Han’s body is already at another level. The meat did not bite open, but the two front teeth of the ginseng baby were directly jumped.

“You are so…” George Han was stunned.

Afraid of being beaten, the ginseng baby immediately stood honestly, touching his head awkwardly, and smiled at George Han. The inexplicable feeling of joy, who was originally the lady’s boss, now smiles. There is even more air leakage on the teeth.

“What the hell are you doing?” George Han rolled his eyes speechlessly, this little guy was so skinless, it really made him speechless.

“Hey, nothing, nothing, right. Look for the heart of God.” Ginseng Baby smiled: “When the heart of God is found, the god mound will lose all effects, and we can also go out.”

George Han nodded. Looking into the golden spring, there is nothing.

George Han nodded, opened the sky eye talisman, and looked directly at the whole underground. Sure enough, about a hundred meters deep underground, something about the size of a fist was shining red at this time.

From George Han’s perspective, it was like a huge ruby.

No longer thinking about it, George Han found a worn-out great sword from the original Four Dragons Treasure, and immediately dig it.

Just when George Han was busy in full swing, at this time. Ginseng baby pretended to cough twice, and then said: “Well, can we discuss something?”

“What?” George Han asked strangely.

“Can you...can you let me take a bite? Put you some blood? I promise you. Just a little bit.” Ginseng Baby finished speaking, deliberately pretending to be innocent and cute, and her eyes widened. Looking at George Han innocently.

George Han couldn't help but glanced at him: “Are you sick? Why do you suck my blood? Do you want to suck? Or should I send you to play in the mud?”

Dang Han Three thousand hands are blessed with energy on the big sword, and a pit of a hundred meters deep is an easy task for him. After a while, he has dug a hole of one hundred meters on the surface of the dried up golden spring.

With the last sword being dug up, a huge red stone, shining with a charming light, reflected the entire cemetery red!

What a strong energy fluctuation.

Even if he hadn't picked it up yet, George Han could still feel the majestic sea-like energy it radiated.

“Is this the heart of God?” George Han said a little excited.

“Eat it, bitch, as long as you eat it, you can get the will of the true god, and you have stepped into the ranks of the true god.” Ginseng Baby also shouted excitedly at this time.

The combination of the two is all the secrets of the true god in the sacred mound! !

Holding up the red stone slightly, George Han's hand trembled slightly. Feeling a little excited.

“Why are you still stunned? Eat, eat, once you eat, Fengyun will change color for you, heaven and earth will tremble for you, when the time comes, thousands of ghosts will be afraid, hundreds of millions of people will bow down, cow food, cow food, even though you Very cheap, but you have broken the gods, I am proud of you.” Ginseng Baby said eagerly.

He said while licking his lips. I want to swallow the heart of God in one bite.

George Han was about to swallow it, and when he heard this, his brows frowned: “Wait a minute, you just said, if you eat this too, what will happen?”

“Inheriting the true God’s will, and attracting the world and the wind and the clouds. Change.” The ginseng baby looked at the heart of God and lingered for a while, and was unwilling to move the slightest.

That excited mood. It was as if it was not George Han who ate the heart of God, but himself.

But George Han put away the heart of God at this time.

If this would cause a huge change in the world, George Han could not eat it.

There are two true gods at the top. If it is too high-profile at this time and attracts their attention, if any true god takes action, then he will die without a burial place.

“What...what are you doing? Don’t you eat any more? Keep it for laying eggs?”

George Han simply ignored: “How to get out?”

“If the heart of God is taken away, then the seal of the god mound will be lifted, and you can go out from any hole.” Ginseng baby finished, and went on. , Jumped onto George Han’s shoulders, and hugged George Han’s arms tightly with small hands: “You won’t leave me alone? Anyway, I will follow you.”

George Han smiled bitterly and raised it. Looking at the top of his head, the sky fire and moon wheel in his hand gathered together, and both palms slammed. The red and blue energy instantly hit the top of the cave.

With a loud noise, a huge gap was suddenly blasted out of the top of the cave a few hundred meters above the head.

Rocks roll down!

At almost the same time, Lu Ruoxin on the tree in the distance heard the explosion in the sacred mound, and suddenly frowned, and then the whole person flew down from the tree, staring at the explosion.

“This guy...no... won’t you really be able to come out of the sacred mound?”

“If you didn’t see it with my own eyes, I really wouldn’t believe it.”

“However, if you could even get out of the sacred mound, If you retreat, I believe now that you are George Han.” After Lu Ruoxin was slightly shocked, she couldn’t help but sneer from the corner of her mouth.

All the gods can come out alive, so the endless abyss can also come out, right? George Han!

And within the sacred mound, George Han just flew out, and saw a white shadow attacking him, and he was speechless to the extreme for a moment. Nima, really did not leave. Lao Tzu has been tossing in the grave for several hours, you are outside!

You don't have to play like this if you sit back and wait.

"You really see me, you are still waiting for me when I enter the gods." George Han couldn't help but smile.

"It turns out that I did not misunderstand you. Didn't I?!"

George Han couldn't help rolling his eyes: "That's it. I still want to thank you? But, I'm saying it again, I'm not George Han."

"It's not important." Lu Ruoxin smiled slightly, Xuanyuanjian in his hand. Lift up, the war is about to start.

George Han has a headache. Although he has the essence of God's Origin, George Han hasn't fully digested it yet. Moreover, the four real bodies of this woman have turned out, and George Han is really in trouble.

Most importantly, George Han did not want to expose Pan Gu Axe, nor did he want to expose the source of God he had just acquired. I don't want to be noticed by the two true gods in the sky.

Hey.

With a long sigh, George Han shook his head: "You and I have no grudges and no grievances. Why are you squatting on me for so long to beat me?"

Hearing this. Lu Ruoxin wished to cut George Han alive, but she quickly suppressed her anger and looked at George Han with a grinning smile and said, "

Stop talking nonsense!" As soon as the words fell, Lu Ruoxin directly took the Xuanyuan sword. Here comes a dream split.

you are vicious!

George Han moved in one step and hurriedly dispersed, taking advantage of the momentum to urge Tai Xu Shen to move. Just start running.

But as soon as he retreated, Lu Ruoxin suddenly transformed into four real bodies once again, directly blocking George Han's retreat. George Han suddenly became a turtle in the urn.

“Damn!” Surrounded, George Han was a little annoyed.

Lu Ruoxin didn't care at all, and the four real bodies and four Xuanyuan swords came directly from the sky.

“Damn, tigers don't show off, you treat me as a sick cat!” With a soft drink, George Hanmeng was lucky. Suddenly, the whole body suddenly flashed golden light.

Both hands slammed upwards, and immediately, two huge golden palm prints blasted directly at the four Xuanyuan swords from their hands!

boom! ! ! !

When the two strands met, the entire Zhongfeng suddenly shook. The huge divine encounter between the two even formed ripples, directly affecting other peaks.

The tail peak, the first peak, and the index finger peak, including the nameless peak, were all shaken by this ripple and the trees shook.

“What's the situation?!” At the tail peak totem, a group of people were fighting vigorously. At this moment, many people were directly knocked over by the wave, and even if the master with a higher level of cultivation was not overturned, they couldn't help it. Taking a few steps back, one by one stopped the attacks in his hands, and couldn't help looking behind him in horror.

“It came from Zhongfeng, this explosion that destroys the sky and the earth, could it be that a very strong master broke into the sacred mound?!” A group of people looked at each other, and the tail peak was the farthest from the Zhongfeng. But still being affected by such a strong force, it is really shocking. What a strong master pairing technique is needed to have such a powerful terrorist power.

At this time, the first peak and eclipse peak. At the same time, several people were overwhelmed by this huge wave, Lu Ruoxuan and Ao Tian opened their eyes sharply in the totem they were in almost at the same time.

Immediately afterwards, the two of them completely ignored the breath of the totem and ran out of the totem violently.

Although different places. But the expressions on their faces were almost the same, and they looked at the center of the peak in panic: “God...God? How...how could it be possible? How could there be the godlessness of the true god?”

Chapter 1985

two were shocked, the totem occupation was just the beginning, and no one could open the gods' ban.

But there, how can there be a true god's spirit!

What the hell does this happen? !

But the two looked back. But they can see the traces of their respective true gods, which also means that Zhongfeng's Shenmang could not have been emitted by the two of them.

But if it weren't for them, who would it be? !

"Come on, immediately send someone to Zhongfeng to find out what is going on." Lu Ruoxuan said coldly.

at this time. The thin butler hurried over and knelt down: "Master, it is the eldest lady over there."

"Why is she there?" Lu Ruoxuan asked in surprise.

"Miss chased the mysterious person all the way there, I think. It was them who broke out in the battle." The butler said.

Lu Ruoxuan frowned.

At the same time, on the side of the Immortal Sea, Ao Tian also immediately got a report from his subordinates. After hearing his subordinates report that there was a mysterious person in his side, he immediately waved his hand and sent someone to rush.

And above the sky, two huge cloud clusters also slowly moved in the direction of Zhongfeng.

For a while, the rain is about to come. The people on the top of the Blue Mountain and the immortal sea flocked to the mid-peak like a tide.

After the explosion, Lu Ruoxin looked at George Han, who was already in full bloom, with shocked eyes. The tiger's mouth holding Xuanyuanjian couldn't help but tingle slightly.

"This... how is this possible!" The extremely powerful aura that George Han had just resisted has still made Lu Ruoxin dumbfounded.

The huge golden palms directly melted the powerful blow of the four Xuanyuan Swords.

This is enough to describe shock to anyone.

What made it even more difficult for Lu Ruoxin to return to his senses was that George Han's body now exudes a light that only gods can possess.

George Han didn't have the time to pay attention to her, looking at the giant clouds flying above the head peak and Shifeng. I was already shocked, sure enough. Still alarmed the two true gods.

As soon as he wanted to leave, Lu Ruoxin once again stood in front of George Han: "What did you get in the sacred mound!" He seemed to realize that George Han had a taboo against the two true gods in the sky. At this time, Lu Ruoxin suddenly sneered: "Are you afraid? Want to run?"

George Han gritted his teeth. This bitch woman, it was obvious that the attack on herself was deliberate and the purpose was to expose herself.

But George Han really couldn't help it, and he didn't use all his strength for the four real bodies. There is no way to fight.

"Hehe, the real god came. Let them know that you came out of the sacred grave, George Han, you said, would you die miserably?!"

"What do you want?" George Han Frowned.

"I know that you are from the Immortal Sea. However, based on your relationship with the Immortal Sea. Will they really trust you? You are just another helper." Lu Ruoxin laughed.

"Is it possible that I will join you on the top of the Blue Mountain, and I will be logical?" George Han smiled disdainfully.

"With my father's personality, you are not someone he trusts. So the fate of joining the Blue Mountain may be the same as the fate of the Immortal Sea." Lu Ruoxin said slightly.

These words made George Han quite surprised. Because he thought that Lu Ruoxin said so much, his purpose was just to pull himself from the immortal sea to the top of the Blue Mountain and serve them.

But where do I know, Lu Ruoxin bluntly stated his fate on the top of the Blue Mountain.

Obviously, she was not trying to get George Han into the group.

What kind of medicine does she sell in the gourd? !

"There are plenty of people in this world who have real talents, but there are even more people who are less talented. You have no power and no background. No matter how strong you are, you are just stealing the limelight from others. Or, blocking. The way of others. So, you only have one end, and that is to disappear.” Lu Ruoxin said.

“Without the support of aristocratic families, whether a mortal proclaims emperor or immortal proclaims a god, the final result is a failure. However, I can help you.” Lu Ruoxin looked at George Han and suddenly said let George Han was shocked.

“You help me?” George Han frowned.

“As the princess of my Lu family, I naturally have my own power.” Lu Ruoxin said.

George Han immediately understood what she meant: “Needless to say, it sounds so nice, to put it simply, it’s just a dog for you. However, what is the difference between this and the immortal sea and the top of the Blue Mountain?”

Lu Ruoxin fingered Slightly compared with his lips, shook his head: “The difference is very big. If you submit to the top of the Blue Mountains or the immortal sea, you are most likely to be killed after being exploited. Even if you can gain their trust, it will not last forever in the end It’s their slave.”

“Being with me, you are different.”

George Han smiled slightly: “What’s the difference?”

Lu Ruoxin pointed to himself suddenly, with a hint of temptation in his eyes: “Although it is the same Dog, but at least a male dog.”

Chapter 1986

George Han was taken aback, looking at Lu Ruoxin’s self-confident appearance, for a moment he felt angry and funny.

Male dog? !

The meaning of this statement couldn’t be more obvious.

Is that the Fangze who still treats her as a dog, but can kiss her? This is the meaning of the public, George Han can understand.

But the problem is. Can she really be so confident? !

Yes, she can indeed. With her unparalleled face, this kind of remark is not a joke to her. As long as she lifts her legs slightly, it is estimated that countless men will really kneel and lick like a dog.

Not to mention, if you can talk to her directly, those men will be crazy enough.

It is estimated that she told the men to kill their parents, and they would not hesitate.

This is an easy calculation. But the problem is that this abacus has hit George Han's head.

"What you said, although not much, but very insulting, do you think I will agree?" George Han smiled bitterly.

"Under the world, if it's a man. Can you say a word?" Lu Ruoxin smiled faintly: "For you, it is your highest honor to be lucky enough to have a storm with me. You can take it out. It's time to go out to brag."

George Han smiled: "Then please listen clearly, no!"

Hearing George Han's words, Lu Ruoxin was stunned. The reason why she was able to blatantly tell George Han this was because of her self-confidence in her appearance and figure, because there is no man in this world. You can refuse.

What's more, for men, it is fortunate and beautiful. It was Princess Lu's own self who had a good night's night again. Isn't this a big face? !

In this eight-party world, which man would not be proud of having himself! Therefore, she thinks that no matter how bad things are, no one can refuse.

But this confidence was suddenly lost by George Han.

"What did you say? Say it again?" Lu Ruoxin frowned slightly, a little unhappy.

"It's the same for 10,000 times, do you understand?" George Han said softly and disdainfully.

There is only Amelia Su in his heart, no matter how great the temptation is for him, it is nothing but smoke.

After a while, Lu Ruoxin suddenly laughed softly and said calmly: "George Han, do you really think that you can hide the broken abacus in your heart with this method? Should you refuse to play with me?"

"Maybe someone else said that, I would say she is fascinated by self-confidence. But you, this term is really not suitable, because you do have proud capital." George Han smiled helplessly.

"But I have no interest in you." George Han said sternly.

Hearing this answer, Lu Ruoxin couldn't help it.

For many years, I had the honor to have a word with him, Miss Lu. It was enough for those men to ask God to worship Buddha, she was very arrogant in front of any man.

But in George Han's place, Lu Ruoxin not only did not get the arrogance she should have received, but instead laid down a trace of dignity and used his body to promise him to help herself. What he got was George Han's answer.

Just when Lu Ruoxin felt that he was faceless and his face was cold, George Han here directly took the Taixu God Step. Then he violently moved in the opposite direction of the first peak and the eclipse peak, and went straight to the tail peak.

Almost all the first peak and the food peak are the elite of the blue mountain peak and the immortal sea area, plus two huge clouds of true gods in the sky. George Han can only run in the tail peak.

Seeing George Han running away, Lu Ruoxin refused to believe that George Han rejected him, and he must believe it at this time.

However, Lu Ruoxin's belief is more about George Han's desire for power, and he wants to stand on his own. Rather than just being willing to surrender to herself, how could she believe that George Han would really have no interest in herself? !

Move your feet. Lu Ruoxin retracted his real body and chased after George Han abruptly.

At the tail peak, the group of people who had been shocked by the huge wave just came back to their senses. At this moment, they saw the first two figures running in front of them and chasing after them, and behind them was a large black crowd. All of them were stunned at once.

When a group of people didn't know why, Lu Ruoxin suddenly heard angrily: "George Han...No, the mysterious man stole into the sacred mound. I took the sacred object, and the person at the top of the Blue Mountain stopped him immediately."

Upon hearing this, a group of people were in a trance, and the mysterious person entered the sacred grave? Moreover, also took the fetish? !

How can this be? !

However, thinking of the huge wave explosion just now, someone with a high level of cultivation immediately reflected that such a strong coercion may indeed be supernatural, so Miss Lu's words are not fake at all.

A bunch of people on the top of the Blue Mountains. Immediately rushed towards George Han who rushed over.

"Kill!"

There were chasing soldiers behind and interception before George Han had to stop. Face double-teaming.

Almost at this moment, George Han suddenly shouted: "Mysterious man, don't be afraid. I'll help you."

Looking around, the king of the totem slowly gave up the occupation of the totem and led the immortal sea. People rushed over.

The melee is about to start!
