

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1995 - 1998

Chapter 1995

After listening to this, Amelia Su did not cry as moved as the Jianghu Baixiaosheng guessed. She just smiled with tears and gently held George Han. He put his hand on his face and gently pillowed it.

For Amelia Su, the two had gone through ups and downs, and their relationship was stronger than Jin's. George Han made such a choice, which was basically expected.

She was just grateful for this person, grateful for him to stand in front of her forever in her life.

At this moment, Qin Shuang walked over slowly, patted Amelia Su on the shoulder, and forced a smile at her reluctantly: "Don't worry, there will be nothing wrong with him." Amelia Su nodded kindly: "Thank you."

Qin Shuang smiled slightly: "Didn't I tell you, I am his senior sister." In fact, as early as Qin Shuang followed George Han's instructions to release Amelia Su and others from the book of heaven, Qin Shuang and Amelia Su formally I introduced myself, but when Qin Shuang introduced himself, he deliberately said the word elder sister very seriously. Obviously, although Qin Shuang liked George Han, Qin Shuang always had his own ruler.

Even if you can get along with George Han, it should be due to fate, rather than arrogance.

"Actually, George Han seems to have expected this kind of ending, so when he was leaving today, he asked me to do him two favors. One was to settle you here and let me guard in the woods. , If someone is plotting against him, let me make a noise, attract people nearby, and hide there forever. After the people leave, I will dig a grave and bring his body here." Qin Shuang said.

When first heard about George Han's arrangement, Qin Shuang was really shocked.

She really couldn't understand why George Han did this.

"Sister, what do you mean, George Han even knew that he would be killed and then buried?" Amelia Su asked strangely.

Qin Shuang nodded, this was something she didn't understand.

Since he knew he was going to die, why would George Han refuse his afternoon reminder to attend?

Does he want to die? But this is obviously impossible.

“So, I mean, will Three Thousand have any arrangements for his own death?” Qin Shuang analyzed.

“Hehe, what’s the arrangement? What else is there? It’s nothing more than that after death, should the corpse be burned to ashes or buried under the soil and turned into zongzi.” Jianghu Baixiao interrupted in an angry voice.

Regarding George Han’s original decision, Bai Xiaosheng is obviously still in grief.

Amelia Su did not care about Bai Xiaosheng. She was seriously thinking about Qin Shuang’s words. George Han’s prediction on this matter was completely divinely helpful. Even after he was conspired, Qin Shuang made a sound, and she was sure. The fact that I will be buried there is not bad at all.

This is not to say where George Han went to learn some semi-immortal divination, but George Han should have made an analysis of all the circumstances of attending the banquet tonight, and even calculated all possible accidents. Finally, In order to calculate how each step will be so precise.

“Since Three Thousand considers so well, it is indeed impossible not to take his own life into consideration. Is it possible that Three Thousand is a suspended animation?” Amelia Su thought of this, and reached out to probe George Han’s breath.

Then, she didn’t believe in evil and injected a burst of energy into George Han’s body.

But to her disappointment, George Han was not only dead, but also completely dead.

When Qin Shuang saw this, he tried a few times, but the result was still the same.

“Hey!” Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng looked at the lost two women, couldn’t help sighing, and shook his head: “I’ll go outside to catch the wind.” As soon as Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng left, the atmosphere in the house became much quieter. The two women Quietly guarding George Han’s body, in the end, I didn’t know who spoke first, and the two chatted about George Han.

Amelia Su shared the encounter, acquaintance, and love between her and George Han on the earth, and Qin Shuang also told Amelia Su of George Han’s various pasts when he first entered the Bafang world.

Recalling those things, the two women couldn’t help showing knowing smiles on their faces.

Amelia Sujiao scolded George Han for being stupid in the Void Sect, and thanked Qin Shuang for taking care of George Han. Qin Shuang envied the sweet love of George Han and Amelia Su like a wing bird, and admired a kind of noness at all. The extravagant hope that may be realized.

They laughed and talked to each other, like sisters who had reunited after a long time, although from some perspectives, the relationship between the two of them was rivals in love, and even more strange.

But because of the same person, Qin Shuang's attitude towards George Han did not make Amelia Su uncomfortable.

But when the two were chatting about George Han's past, George Han's fingers moved slightly.

But in his body, there is a tremendous change!

Chapter 1996

blocked all the meridians of the poison. At this time, it began to slowly merge into George Han's blood, just like a dam blocking the flood, the dam suddenly broke, and the entire large The dam was also swallowed by the flood suddenly, and following the torrent, it ran towards George Han's body.

When the first acupuncture point is broken through, the rest can only be described as damaging.

Dozens of meridians were sealed on his body, all of which were submerged by floods, and the blood became golden black because of their addition.

This blood, without the restraint of these acupuncture points, completely freed itself, running around in George Han's body.

Finally, it flows into all parts of his body, into his internal organs, and every part where the blood reaches, at this time also changed from golden light to golden black.

Afterwards, all the blood gathered towards George Han's heart.

Then it circulates in the heart.

In just a moment, the entire heart suddenly emits strange rays of light, sometimes black, sometimes white, sometimes red, sometimes green, flashing alternately with each other, and finally, they stabilized.

At this time, George Han's heart, because of their stability, turned into seven colors.

Immediately afterwards, George Han's heart began to carry these colors again, becoming more transparent.

In the end, it jumped steadily in a semi-transparent and seven-color posture.

When the heart stabilized, the blood flowed in through the heart, and then came out again. The color also changed from gold to black. After the heart baptism, it turned into seven colors, and then flowed into George Han's body.

At this time, George Han showed a very strange picture inside his body.

Inside the golden mottled body, a stream of colorful blood was slowly flowing in the blood vessels.

On the outside of the body, the blackness caused by George Han's Life and Death Talisman began to fade slowly, revealing George Han's jade-like skin.

If his master Han Xiao was present at this time, his master would definitely jump in excitement.

Because at this time, George Han's body had undergone a qualitative change after experiencing the fusion of two kinds of poisonous worlds.

If there is a god in the poison world, then George Han at this time, after experiencing this qualitative change, is the true god of the poison world.

During the trip to the Wang family, Wang Simin gave George Han the top pill of the Five Elements Golden Pill, and he also gave George Han the supreme dragon and phoenix double poison pill in the poison world.

It was precisely this coincidence that the powerful internal breath of the Five Elements Golden Pill caused George Han's unnoticeable golden body to undergo a significant change, and with other cooperation from his body, he actually suppressed the Dragon and Phoenix Double Poison Pills temporarily.

Over time, the strong toxicity of Longfeng Double Poison Pill was also adapted to George Han's body over time, and even the two began to learn to coexist. Therefore, when Han Xiao met George Han, he wanted to pass on his gong, but because of the dragon and phoenix double poison pills in George Han's body, he completely blacked his hands and discovered the special features of his body.

From a certain point of view, the Dragon and Phoenix Double Poison Pills made George Han. Wang Simin's original trickery unexpectedly made George Han a blessing in disguise and gained a lot of money.

More importantly, this last magical assist from Wang Changzhi.

Another highly poisonous natural poison was injected into George Han's body.

When the poison broke out that day, George Han was naturally unable to resist, so he was poisoned. But after a long time, the body began to try to adapt to it slowly as it did when adapting to Longfeng Double Poison Pill.

After adapting, something magical happened.

These two virulent poisons began to fight when they met each other, but before long, Tian Po was no longer able to face the cooperation of Dragon and Phoenix Poisons and George Han's body alone, and fell into a disadvantage.

Not long afterward, the world's poisonous urge to survive was extremely strong. Knowing that he couldn't beat it, he simply chose to integrate with the body.

This is the very poisonous nature, it is difficult to remove, and the ability to survive and mutation is extremely strong, but it also helped George Han invisibly.

After the fusion of the two strange poisons of the world, coupled with George Han's physical training, a situation where one plus one is greater than two was completely formed at a time, and finally this seven-color strange flower was very poisonous.

In other words, George Han now, in a sense, as long as he is willing, he is the most toxic poison in the world today.

Or in a sense, this big poison, because it coexists with this kind of strange poison in the world, it is already invaded by the poison itself.

Even, it can swallow other poisons.

Therefore, if Han Xiao were here, he would be so happy that he would even dig his master's grave and tell him in front of his master's bones that Xianling Island was not only a poisonous wizard, but even a poisonous god. The talents of Zongshi are not born.

And that Wang Yanzhi, probably spitting blood on the spot, died.

Because he wanted to destroy Master's Fairy Spirit Island, but invisibly helped George Han a lot.

Without his natural poison, George Han's body would never have undergone the qualitative change.

When the sky was light, the two women were still happily talking about the past, but at this moment, a joke suddenly came: "Aren't you all in the past? Are you so obsessed with brother? Even the legend of brother. Don't let it go?"

Chapter 1997

“Because he said that my future is to rule the world, and I also asked him what to do about Nian’er’s poison.” George Han smiled.

“But that senior didn’t say anything.” Qin Shuang said strangely.

“No, he said a lot. He told me to let the flow go, saying that the time has come, I naturally understand, and then let me do whatever I want.” The old man’s words seemed to say nothing to Qin Shuang, but to Han For 3000, he said a lot and even told himself what to do.

The so-called time has come, naturally he will understand, and at this time, George Han knew that it was referring to the time before the Hongmen banquet, so George Han saw it clearly and decided to set the overall situation.

But as to whether the final move of this chess game can be successful, that is, whether George Han can escape from Jin Chan, the old man also gave the answer.

Do what you want, in other words, don’t you let yourself be bold and do it? !

Hearing this explanation, Qin Shuang really couldn’t smile. She felt that George Han was just an over-interpretation.

But George Han believed it very much. Of course, another important reason was the source of God. Except for Ginseng Baby, it is estimated that no one knows that he has received the source of God.

It was also because of the transformation of his body by the source of the gods that George Han was more confident that he should be able to pass the level of Heavenly Poison.

Of course, there are many other factors that also prove that George Han’s adventure is right.

He is still vividly remembering the experience of the palace, he was almost killed by Wang Simin’s unintentional act, but in any case, George Han finally managed to survive on his own.

So everything, George Han made a general situation, came to the golden cicada to get out of the shell, and broke the boat.

Although the course of the facts deviated from what George Han had expected, the final result and trend were completely similar to what George Han estimated, and George Han was right.

Just when the two women were a little surprised by George Han’s courage and strategy, a voice came out: “I didn’t want to talk at first, because you bastard is ruthless and unrighteous. You don’t want to remind me if you are going to die. , If you really die , and someone else flips through your stuff and finds out Lao Tzu, can't I fucking bury you with me?" "Damn, forget it if someone else dies and lose a paper doll, you even I am so alive and kicking. The ginseng baby also wants to be buried?"

Hearing this voice, George Han gave a wry smile, moved his hand, and urged the Shuanglong Ding out of the space ring, and the ginseng baby jumped out of the tripod.

Amelia Su was naturally surprised at it, but Qin Shuang was taken aback when he looked at the villain.

"Oh, beauty." Seeing Qin Shuang looking at her, Ginseng Baby couldn't help but look at her. It doesn't matter if it doesn't matter, her face turned red after a while, and then she went to Qin Shuang's ass. In front of me, the more I look, the more I like it.

"This is..." Qin Shuang looked at George Han curiously.

"Oh, that's a gadget." George Han said.

"You are the gadgets do, you and your family are the gadgets." After facing three thousand Han shouted, ginseng baby suddenly turned hostile, very gentleman rushed Qinshuang a ceremony:. "Nice lady next ginseng Doll"

Qinshuang really Can't help but be amused by the behavior of the ginseng baby, gently squatted down, and couldn't help touching this cute guy's little head.

The ginseng baby also jumped directly to Qin Shuang. The goal was naturally somewhere. Fortunately, Qin Shuang accidentally held him with his hands. He tried his best to reach Qin Shuang's place, but found that he couldn't reach it anyway.

Can George Han still not understand the little guy's thoughts, he said: "Someone better pay attention."

" Damn , George Han, you have such a beautiful wife, this beautiful sister is naturally Lao Tzu Yes. Remember, from today, she will be my wife, oh, yes, wife, what is your name?" This guy asked Qin Shuang with his eyes out of the stars.

Qin Shuang rolled her eyes helplessly. Of course she wouldn't care about Ginseng Baby's words, but it was Tong Yan Wuji.

George Han looked at Ginseng Baby's appearance on the base and couldn't help but joked: "Does anyone treat blood donors with this attitude?"

"Damn, I wanted to drink your blood before and wanted to dream. Sometimes I wanted to take a bite on the sole of your foot while you were asleep, but now, I don't do it." Ginsengwa replied with no interest, but kept his eyes on Qin Shuang's body.

"Really? Some people don't regret it." George Han smiled.

“Don’t worry, I will never regret it. I wanted to drink you before because I didn’t know you, but now I know that you are a fucking poisonous king. Drink your blood? You are afraid that I will live. Is it not long enough?” Ginseng Baby contemptuously asked.

After speaking, he looked at Qin Shuang: “I still want to stay together with my precious wife, so I don’t want the blood of you, the King of Ten Thousand Poisons .” Qin Shuang smiled bitterly, “Thousands are indeed poisoned, but they are already It’s all recovered, how can it be as exaggerated as you said.”

Hearing Qin Shuang’s words, the ginseng baby repeatedly shook his head: “My wife, what you said is wrong. Not only did those poisons not get rid of, they mutated into his body. The more fierce poison, let’s put it this way, this guy only needs a drop of blood into the river, and within this thousand miles, no creature in the river can live.”

Qin Shuang was shocked by the words of the Ginseng Baby. George Han and Amelia Su were completely stunned.

A drop of blood into the river can kill all the creatures in the river within a radius of thousands of miles. What kind of poison is this? !

Chapter 1998

Seeing that the three of them are doing this, Ginseng Baby continued to proudly say: “You don’t believe it?”

Ginseng Baby smiled contemptuously, and then violently picked up the small dagger on Qin Shuang’s waist, and suddenly hit George Han’s In front of him, a cut was made directly in George Han’s arm.

Suddenly, George Han’s blood flowed out of the wound and quickly dripped onto the ice bed.

When they saw the color of George Han’s blood, the three were shocked. His blood was not red, but seven colors.

But the most terrifying thing is that when these colorful blood drops on the ice cubes, a hint of smoke emerges from the ice cubes that are 20 centimeters thick, and a hole is instantly melted where the blood drops. The anti-Buddha is ice It was totally unbearable to encounter a huge fire.

The entire hole is completely black, and the Buddha is generally charred.

When the colorful blood dripped on the ground, a puff of black smoke appeared on the ground like ice. In the next second, a hole suddenly appeared on the ground, and the blood flowed down again.

Ginseng Baby smiled, jumped onto the ice, looked down the black hole, smiled and shook his head: "The hole on the ground is less than 30 centimeters deep." The three of them were completely stunned. Even George Han, who was the person involved, seemed to have seen a ghost, and it was hard to believe what he saw.

It's just a drop of blood, it's so powerful!

Even the ground couldn't bear it, and a hole was melted out by it.

This is still poisonous. In the words of the earth, this is a small nuclear explosion.

"It's not over yet." Ginseng Baby smiled.

As soon as the words fell, there were a lot of moss or other planting grass growing in the originally damp cave, but suddenly all turned yellow, then fell to the ground, and finally turned into a black ashes.

And the vegetation around the cave also changes from blue to yellow, from yellow to black together with the vegetation in the cave.

"If it weren't for Qishan's mountains to be supported by Qishan's aura, with this drop of blood, the entire mountain's plants would have died." Ginseng Baby sneered.

"Now, you believe what I said, this guy is now a big poisonous king." After the ginseng baby said, curled her lips, walked a few steps next to George Han, patted him on the back, and sighed: "Although Lao Tzu can't drink your blood, for the sake of you being so awesome, don't worry, Lao Tzu will follow you." The three people ignored the words behind this guy, but looked at each other. Obviously they didn't get George Han's blood. Awakened from the power of.

"After this kid was poisoned, Lao Tzu was afraid that he would die, and it would be boring to be idle in the tripod, so I used Lao Tzu's housekeeping skills to scan this guy. This guy was already very poisonous. He was poisoned again, and this kid has a special body, oh no, it should be a physical metamorphosis, not only can resist the erosion of those poisonous, but also become the growth place and catalyst of these two kinds of poisonous, in his metamorphosis With the help of the body, the two poisons merged, and by the way, a new poison was produced. There is this kind of poison in his blood."

"However, don't worry, although he is the poison king, the poison in his body is terrifying. Very, but those poisons are harmless to him, and at the same time he is too poisonous, which also means that all poisons in the world may be immune to this guy, and even... can even absorb some special poisonous substances to make yourself It has become more poisonous."

Ginseng Baby looked at the surprised expressions of the three, and explained to everyone while jumping off the ice.

Then, a few steps walked to Qin Shuang's front: "Wife, how is it? Am I very powerful?"

George Han frowned and stood up: "So you mean, I am not only venomous, but also Ten thousand poisons will not invade?"

"Originally, when your body was fused with the first type of poison, it was already a poisonous person, and could resist most of the poisons. Now, after new and stronger poisons enter, you will absorb the mutation. , You add poison to poison, so you are right."

"I can still do other poisons to make me more poisonous. At the same time, it also means that I will be more innocent?"

Ginseng Baby nodded impatiently: "That's right, Poison King, don't delay Lao Tzu and my wife staying together, okay?"

George Han was overjoyed with his whole body. He didn't expect a good show of getting out, but it ended up. Unexpectedly obtain such a magical harvest.

Amelia Su and Qin Shuang were also worried for George Han, but soon Amelia Su became worried. If George Han is so poisonous, what should I do in daily life? !

"Don't worry, he is only very poisonous in his blood, and even if he is accidentally poisoned by him, it's okay, just pull the hair on his head to detoxify." Ginsengwa said.

Hearing this, George Han couldn't help his scalp tingling. If he had to be careless, wouldn't he become bald? !

Seeing George Han's embarrassment, Qin Shuang and Amelia Su couldn't help covering their mouths and laughing, but at this moment, it was Qin Shuang's turn to suddenly worry.

"What's the matter, my wife?" Ginseng Baby said.
