

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2043 - 2046

Chapter 2043

“Leader, do you have no confidence in us? Are you doing demobilization now?”
Someone finally couldn't help but ask loudly.

“No, I will always maintain my confidence. Even, I can promise that the remaining brothers will take you safely to leave here, but I will not neglect the brothers who choose to leave.” George Han smiled slightly.

The word fell, and after a while, hundreds of people left the team again and chose to leave.

“Hey!” Fu Mang sighed heavily, turning his head away.

George Han is obviously fooling around. How can a big battle be imminent and he will be in chaos first? !

“If you are not satisfied, you can also leave.” George Han glanced at Fu Mang.

“I...” Dissatisfaction returned to dissatisfaction, but Fu Mang also knew George Han's life-saving grace, turned his face to one side, unwilling to pay attention to George Han, and did not choose to leave.

Amelia Su smiled softly, walked to Fu Mang's side, patted him on the shoulder, and smiled: “Trust him, he must have his reason for doing this.”

“But...” Fu Mang stopped talking and hoped. Xiang George Han chose not to say anything.

At this time, George Han smiled slightly: “Okay, until now, those who are still willing to stay are my brothers.”

Then, George Han thought, and for a while, everyone only felt a white light flashing.

When I opened my eyes again, there was still blue sky and white clouds above my head, green grass and flowers below my feet, but the surrounding environment was very different. The Baguio Mountain next to him was gone, and there was only a small bamboo house.

“Where is this?”

“What happened just now?” A group of people looked at each other, not knowing what was going on.

At this time, George Han appeared in front of everyone with Amelia Su.

“What are you doing in a daze? You build your own houses and live there first. Although the conditions are a bit crude, it is very good to practice here.” George Han smiled.

“Damn, as soon as the leader reminded me, I really suddenly found that there is a lot of aura here, and it is a perfect place for cultivation.”

“Yes, even a fool can grow in this kind of place.”

“Oh my God, where did the lord take us? This aura is too good.”

All the people looked at George Han dumbly, both excited and a little confused.

“Don’t ask so much. In short, this is our secret base. If you practice here for a year or two, it will only take a few days outside. So, practice hard.” George Han said.

Hearing George Han’s words, the group was even more stunned.

Although I don’t know where this is, George Han’s words also explained to them that this is another separate space.

In fact, there are indeed some treasures in the Bafang world that can create unique spaces, but most of these treasures are very rare.

“After a long time, it turns out that the leader does not want us to die, but to give us more comfortable benefits.”

“Haha, I know, it’s right to follow the leader.” A group of people shouted excitedly, helping Mang. It was only then that it was reflected, watching George Han laugh and cry.

It turns out that George Han said those things just now, obviously testing those people.

“You are too bad, even I was kept in the dark.” Fu Mang smiled and cursed.

“The fewer people know, the better acting is. Otherwise, it doesn’t matter if my resources are wasted, but in the end, it turns out to be for others to cultivate talents. Then I am at a loss?” George Han smiled.

Moreover, if this group of people get a bargain at that time, and if they say about George Han’s extra-space world, then it will really lose his wife and break the army.

Therefore, when selecting people to come in, George Han had to test these disciples more.

“Ningyue, you also take your disciples to build a residence, and then prepare to practice. I have something to do. When I get to the place, I will release you.” George Han said.

Ningyue was also completely shocked at this time, staring at everything around the Eight Desolation World and was stunned. It took a long time for George Han to speak before she came back to her senses under the reminder of Qiushui and Shiyu: “Yes, leader! “

George Han smiled helplessly, and then turned his eyes on Jianghu Baixiaosheng: “Also, Jianghu Baixiaosheng is our deputy leader. If you have anything, you can find him.”
After

explaining everything, George Han He set his eyes on Qin Shuang’s body.

Yesterday, Nian’er had a great time with this aunt who was very gentle to her, and her “toy” has been with Qin Shuang’s ginseng fruit. Now Nian’er is very close to Qin Shuang.

“Senior Sister, why don’t you stay here for a while?” George Han said softly.

Qin Shuang nodded, and Nian’er spoke aside: “Then Dad, can Nian’er stay here? I want to play with Aunt Qin Shuang.”

“I can also teach her spells.” Qin Shuang said.

George Han glanced at Amelia Su and nodded when he saw her nodded. Then George Han nodded and took Amelia Su out.

Even Linlong and George Han didn’t bring it this time. It also worked a lot in the Battle of Baguio Palace, and it was a good thing to recuperate in the world of eight wilderness.

Coming out of the Eight Desolate World, George Han glanced at Amelia Su who was a little unhappy: “What’s wrong?”

“Nian’er is even more sticky with her stepmother.” Amelia Su looked at George Han eagerly.

George Han was taken aback, stepmother? !

When he reflected, he couldn’t help but frown, and directly gave Amelia Su’s head a violent shudder.

Chapter 2044

“What nonsense? Nian’er won’t have a stepmother, and I won’t have any other wives. If you die, I will go down to accompany you.” George Han said firmly.

Hearing what George Han said, Amelia Su put out her tongue mischievously, and gently nestled her head on George Han's shoulder.

A rare leisure time for two people. George Han didn't intend to waste it. He took Amelia Su's hand and walked slowly away from Baguio Mountain, following the map in his mind.

Not long after they left, Yaoshen Pavilion gathered nearly 80,000 elites and killed them from all directions.

It's just that the mighty team is destined to only be empty, and slaughter chicken feathers.

Followed by. It is the contempt and ridicule of the people of Qinglong City.

They said that they were pretending that others waited for a day and didn't show up. As soon as they left, they ran out to show off their power, making the elites of the Medicine God Pavilion so angry, but there was nowhere to spread the fire.

Some want to beat the people who make irresponsible remarks. But I know that doing so will only leave a bigger story.

Therefore, the 80,000 elites are too angry, but helpless.

And at this time, George Han took Amelia Su, traveling around like a couple of gods and goddesses, enjoying the mountains and the water, and the fragrance of the world.

For three days in a row, two people are like glue. Although they have been married for many years, they are better than newlyweds.

Although Linlong is not there, he has Tianlu Pixiu. Tired of walking, let this guy walk.

Moreover, after not seeing him for a while, this little guy has grown up a lot. Although he is tall like a short-footed child horse, he looks more brave and mighty.

Amelia Su liked this little thing very much, and George Han simply gave it to Amelia Su.

The days flickered, and another seven days passed.

For seven days, the two of them headed west, through countless big cities, and countless mountains and plains. In the end, there was no way to go ahead.

There is an endless blue sea in front of me, and the boundary between the sky and the sea has become a line.

"Three thousand, did we go wrong?" Amelia Su couldn't see the sea. Can not help but wonder.

"Probably not?" George Han shook his head, feeling a little at a loss.

This vast ocean is endless. Which is like a place with an island.

“Go and ask.” Amelia Su glanced at a small fishing village in the distance and said softly.

George Han nodded, and led Amelia Su to the small fishing village in the distance.

Although it is a village that lives by the sea. The scale is also small, only a dozen households, but walking into the village, you can't smell the fishy smell you imagined.

Unlike imagined that there are a lot of salted fish drying in front of every house, here are ordinary crops. If something related to salted fish must be involved, it is probably some seashells.

It was noon, but no fisherman was seen in the fishing village.

“Have you all gone out to fish?” Amelia Su asked strangely.

Han three thousand shook his head, his eyes are placed above the entrance to the village of pile of rotten nets: “You should not go out and see those nets..”

Then, Han three thousand loudly shouted: “Is anyone there?”

Sound It is so big that it spreads almost throughout the small village.

After a while. The wooden house next to George Han opened the door, and an elderly man about fifty years old walked out. After that, the doors of other houses also opened, but most of them were only thinner, showing his head and looking out.

“You are...” The old man frowned slightly. Asked.

George Han smiled and said, “Hello, old man, we passed by here and want to ask you something.”

“Oh. Okay, what do you want to ask.” The old man said.

“I want to ask, are there any islands near this sea?” George Han asked.

islands? !

The old man smiled wryly: “I have lived here for decades, how can there be any islands?”

“Are you going to sea?” The old man said suddenly.

“Yes.” George Han looked at the old man strangely.

The old man rushed down from the door in a few steps, pulling George Han, the whole person looked anxiously at the sea: "Can't get out. Can't get out, there are fierce beasts on the sea. If you go, you can't return."

Amelia Su and George Han looked at each other strangely.

The old man sighed heavily.

originally. Small fishing villages have always relied on the sea for food, fished for a living, and reproduced for several generations. Life is not much wealthy, but it can be considered safe.

But recently, an unknown monster suddenly appeared in the sea.

"The villagers who came back by chance said that the monster was huge, and it was like lightning in the water. Often the fishing boats had been attacked by it without seeing anything. For so many years, our village has stopped fishing, instead Plant some crops and vegetation. Reluctantly make a living, although the life is hard, but in the end it is still alive. "The old man said. Can not help but sad.

His son was also killed by a monster at sea.

Amelia Su looked at George Han, but George Han kept frowning.

The monster that appeared suddenly. And will it be related to Fairy Island? ! You must know that the location of the fairy island changes at any time. If the fairy island has only recently appeared in the vicinity, then there is a possibility of coincidence.

It can even be said that the monster is the prohibition of the fairy island.

"I want to try!" George Han smiled.

Hearing this, the old man was shocked and quickly dissuaded him:" Little brother, don't try it, the monster is so fierce. The village sent many young and middle-aged people to subdue in the sea with a deep mountain layman nearby, but was wiped out in a single move. "

"You can try it. If it's really just a monster, then it will help the villagers get rid of the evil." Amelia Su nodded, supporting George Han's approach.

Seeing the two couples so reluctant to persuade, the old man was anxious.

However, for the safety of the two of them, the old man still asked the village to drag the largest boat out for repairs, so that the two had a good basic guarantee.

After that, the old man gave a lot of things in the house to the two of them so that they could eat and drink on the way.

George Han wanted to refuse, but the old man said that it was the last meal anyway, and it was at least decent to eat a little better on the road to Huangquan.

When going out to sea, a group of villagers also came out to see each other, but each one had little expectation on their faces, and more of them seemed to be funerals!

And George Han and Amelia Su are obviously the “mourners”!

Saying goodbye to the villagers, George Han’s boat slowly sailed into the depths of the sea.

This line is another three days.

Everything was calm and calm until the fourth day.

The surface of the sea was suddenly calm and terrible, and the seabirds that were usually seen disappeared.

The energy in George Han’s hands was lucky, and the next second, a huge black shadow suddenly moved quickly on the surface of the sea.

“Oh!!!”

A huge figure suddenly jumped out of the water.

Is it? !

Chapter 2045

“Oh!”

Almost at this moment, the blue pattern on George Han’s arm suddenly flashed, and Tianlu Pixiu fiercely flew out of George Han’s arm. entity. Scream up to the sky!

boom! ! !

Almost at the same time, there was a huge wave in the water!

Immediately afterwards, a huge figure suddenly jumped out of the sea.

The waves are splashing!

“Wow!!!”

A roar that spread to the sky suddenly sounded.

When the waves receded, and in the mid-air, a giant beast hovered in the mid-air, with great power.

Purple and green all over. With golden wings on the back, the body is like a unicorn, and the head is like a lion!

“Tianlu Pixiu?” George Han couldn’t help being stunned.

But the Tianlu Paixiu in front of him was much bigger than the one in front of George Han, if George Han’s Tianlu Paixiu was the size of a pony. Then it is a huge mountain.

Together, even the sun is completely blocked!

“No wonder the villagers said that this thing is as fast as lightning and fierce. It turns out that this guy exists.” George Han couldn’t help.

“Wait, Tianlu Pixiu grows in an extremely cold place, how can it run to the west side of the sea?” Amelia Su frowned.

Without waiting for George Han to answer, the huge Tianlu Pixiu had turned into lightning and rushed directly towards George Han.

Although George Han’s Tianlu Paixiu is very small. The speed is already very fast, not to mention this huge Tianlu Paixiu, even if George Han reacted quickly enough, when the big Tianlu Paixiu came crashing, his whole person was almost scratched by its sharp claws.

Simply, George Han flew into the air with Amelia Su in his arms, and the boat on the shore also instantly turned into dust.

“Roar!”

Almost at this moment, four water patterns suddenly appeared all around, followed by four loud roars. The four dragon shadows suddenly rushed towards the distance, directly facing the heavenly Lu Pai Yao!

The four dragons that have been following and guarding George Han from far away!

Ordered by George Han. Silong had been slowly following George Han, hiding the surrounding mountains. When there are people, they generally won’t show up when they don’t get George Han’s order. But today is different. Silong felt the powerful beast’s breath beside George Han. After confirming that there was no one, he was on the water again and appeared directly!

“Aw!!!” Entangled in the face of the four dragons. Tian Lu Paixiu roared and rushed directly.

One beast versus four dragons!

Although the four dragons cooperate invincibly. However, the four claws of Tianlupaixiu are as sharp as a knife, and the body has long wings, and the speed is extremely fast, only a few rounds. With the four sounds of water, the four dragons were shot directly into the water from mid-air!

Immediately after. Tianlu Pixiu turned around fiercely and directly attacked George Han.

Just when Da Tian Lu Paixiu was close to George Han fiercely, only hearing a tender roar, Xiao Tian Lu Paixiu suddenly leaned in front of George Han.

“Wow!!!”

Although Xiao Tian Lu Pai Yao is far from Big Tian Lu Pai Yao in terms of size and strength. Especially with this roar, Xiao Tian Lu Pai Yao did not even emit energy. But the imposing giant Tian Lu Paixiu stopped abruptly.

Next, something unthinkable happened. Da Tian Lu Pai Yao completely gave up the attack, the fierce light in his eyes also completely dissipated, revealing a trace of charity and vigilance, and slowly moved his body to Xiao Tian Lu Pai Yao's. Smell before him.

“This little Tian Lu Pai Yao will not be its son, right?” Amelia Su couldn't help but whisper when seeing this scene.

“I don't know, when I bought it. It was just an egg. Besides, I bought it in Lushui City.” George Han was also a little unsure.

“Wow!!!”

With two Tianlu Pixiu roaring at the same time. George Han and Amelia Su also smiled helplessly at the same time: “It's over!” They really met father and son, or mother and son!

“Xiaotian Lupaixiu is your pet. It seems that we have passed this level.” Amelia Su shook her head and smiled bitterly.

“I don't think so.” George Han was even more bitter.

Amelia Su's thoughts were also those of George Han, but when he saw Datian Lu Paixiu's expression, he felt that this idea was unrealistic.

“Oh!!!”

Datian Lu Pixiu yelled at George Han violently. Obviously, he regarded George Han as the “sinner” who snatched his child!

Immediately afterwards, Da Tian Lu Pai Xiu ignored Xiao Tian Lu Pai Yao's roar and rushed to George Han fiercely.

If he is alone, although Tianlu Pai Yao's speed is fast enough, his Taixu God step is not weak at all. To fight together, George Han is really not afraid.

But because of Amelia Su's presence, George Han couldn't use the imaginary step.

In other words, it does not make much sense.

But George Han didn't want to hurt Tian Lu Pai Yao, after all, he was the father or mother of his pet.

Directly transporting energy with one hand, and forcibly propped up a mask, George Han directly blocked Tian Lu Paixiu's attack, and with a bang, Tian Lu Paixiu was violently shaken a few meters away, but George Han was also stunned. I found that the energy shield on my body was not only broken, but even the immortal mysterious armor was slightly scratched by its sharp claws.

"This thing is so fierce?" George Han looked at the cracks in the armor and couldn't help but be slightly surprised.

Chapter 2046

"Tianlu Paixiu is the overlord of the extremely cold land, and it is also a sacred beast of the purple gold level, what do you think." Amelia Su said hurriedly.

Zijin? !

I thought that in the Void Sect at the beginning, just the red alien beast caused George Han to suffer, and it was a good time to encounter a purple golden beast. I really don't know if it's luck or bad!

"Roar!" There was another roar, and Tianlu Paixiu struck again.

"Boss, run, this guy is in a period of rage, and it's very fierce, on top of our four brothers."
As soon as the voice fell, the four dragons ripped through the sky and soared directly from the water again, smashing the sky.

"Damn. How can the younger brother desperately, the boss fleeing, besides, I didn't intend to escape!" George Han was also agitated, holding Amelia Su in his left hand and the moon wheel in his right hand. Wrapped in the sword and pushed it away with a palm, the jade sword incarnates a long arrow rushing towards the Tianlu Pixiu trapped by the four dragons.

boom!

The jade sword stabbed Tianlu Paixiu on the spot. The huge inertia instantly caused his huge body to fly several meters upside down, but when he saw it flapped its wings, the jade sword flew back to George Han's hand, where it was stabbed. , It turned out to be just a wound faintly.

"Interesting."

George Han couldn't help sighing. Although the sky fire moon wheel is not together and the power is not extremely huge, the single power is still very fierce, but this guy has such a note. It's nothing!

Sure enough, it was a strange beast of the Zijin rank.

If there is such a strange beast fighting side by side, it is indeed as powerful as a tiger, no wonder the people of all directions regard magical weapons and strange beasts as necessary things.

Just as George Han sighed, the painful Tianlu Paixiu was already angry, so violently he shook all the besieged dragons away, and then came with a thunderous force.

"Nicode!"

Bang bang bang!

One person and one beast suddenly fought against each other, and the calm sea exploded.

For a time, the sky thunder and the earth fire.

Although George Han didn't want to hurt Tianlupaixiu seriously, but Tianlupaixiu's intent to kill must be revealed, and he wanted to protect Amelia Su, George Han not only did not use a huge lethal attack. At the same time, keeping hands everywhere, this is also doomed to George Han to start steadily losing.

A little carelessly, Tianlu Pixiu patted George Han directly with a feather.

George Han felt as if he was hit by the mountain. My brain felt a shock, and my body flew out directly.

Simply, Xiao Tian Lu Pai Yao quickly caught George Han. Let him relax.

“Little thing, you have seen it too, it’s not that I didn’t let it, but that your father or your mother is too cruel.” With a helpless smile, George Han moved his hand and directly planned to summon Pan Gu Axe!

But at this moment, countless water columns on the sea suddenly burst into the sky, and after directly disrupting the battle, they gathered together again. A water dragon is formed, and it rushes towards the sky.

Tianlu Pixiu slapped the water dragon with a fierce claw, and the water dragon turned into countless waves but turned around. Glue directly on the sky 貔貅.

Immediately afterwards, hundreds of water circles suddenly appeared on the sea, and a blue figure shuttled quickly and infinitely among the water circles.

“Mingyu?!” Amelia Su was taken aback.

After each water circle is penetrated by blue light, it is like a rotating mirror. In just a moment, hundreds of water circles all rotate. The calm sea also prevents the Buddha from being attracted by the water circle. The waves move loudly and the waves are surging.

“Go!”

A nice soft drink. The blue figure of Mingyu suddenly appeared in the center, a drop of sea water in his hand lightly tapped, and the hundreds of rotating circles of water suddenly faced the sky in the sky.

“call out!”

When the sun shines on the water circle, the water circle also refracts it instantly. When hundreds of rays of light shine together, the sky in mid-air is completely white by the light.

“Mingyu. It’s really you!” Amelia Su finally couldn’t help being surprised when he saw Mingyu’s figure standing up.

Mingyu smiled softly, without moving her feet. Haihai automatically carried her in front of George Han and Amelia Su: “Unexpectedly, we met here again.”

“By the way, Mingyu, why are you here?” Amelia Su said in surprise.

“I am a hainu, it should be me asking you, how come here?” Mingyu laughed.

This made Amelia Su suddenly embarrassed. She glanced at George Han and said, “We, we are here to help the fishermen find someone.”

“Someone was attacked by this beast again?” Ming Yu was taken aback.

“That’s right, it...” George Han glanced at Tian Lu Pai Yao, who was surrounded by white light in the air.

“It’s just a divine spell, it won’t last long. This beast is too fierce. I can’t help it.” Ming Yu said.

Then, there was another circle of water volleyed in her hand, immediately after. A giant tortoise swam out of the water circle and landed on the sea, revealing a huge shell.

“It can take you for one ride.” Mingyu finished softly. Looking at the old tortoise, he said coldly: “Old tortoise, these are my friends, take them for a ride and take them to find someone.”

“Yes!” The old tortoise hummed softly in the water.

“I’ll lead this monster away.” After that, Mingyu did not move under his feet, but the surrounding sea water suddenly moved turbulently, carrying Mingyu quickly towards the distance.

And hundreds of apertures, shooting white light like a rope, dragged Tianlu Pixiu, followed Mingyu, and left.

Looking at the distant back, the old turtle suddenly said: “Hehe, why did you lie to her?”
