

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2195 - 2198

Chapter 2195

In Flint City.

The battle of Han three thousand one to six is not over.

But the soldiers who hadn't participated in the war and a group of masters saw it, but their hearts were chilled.

The top masters of the Zhu family in the five Flintstone cities, and the Dutong in the five major regions of the east, south, west, north, and central, are all battle-tested and coordinated. In the family civil war, the five of them can join forces and even the white-clothed elders. Such elders of the earthquake clan tied. Its strength is naturally amazing.

In addition, Zhu Kaixuan, a master of evil spirits, gathered six people, which can be described as a gathering of stars.

This is not what they imagined, but was created in actual combat. Otherwise, how could Flint City have such a large territory and how can it be so beautiful today? !

However, after these six people faced George Han, it took less than ten minutes. It is already exhausted.

They knew that it was not that their people were incompetent, but that George Han was too perverted.

The offense is so powerful that it is dazzling, not only has a lot of strange attacks, sometimes it can directly copy the attacks of the six of them. In terms of defense, this guy is almost undefended. It's up to you, but the problem is that the six members of the Zhu family have played together for several rounds, and this guy has not diminished in the slightest.

"What kind of ghost is this special? Tortoise?"

"I didn't expect the legendary mysterious person to be so overbearing. No wonder that the top of Qishan Mountain could be a blockbuster that day. It seems that the rumors of the rivers and lakes are not only exaggerated, but sometimes also It is not exhaustive. I am afraid that we know too little about George Han."

"This person will surely be able to achieve a hegemony in the future and become a hero. It is no wonder Medicine God Pavilion and Immortal Sea Area. To completely eliminate him, he will end up in great trouble."

“If it is not for the Medicine God Pavilion and the Immortal Sea. If we cooperate with him, the future will be a great cause, and this person will surely lead a new era in the future.”

A group of executives couldn't help but sigh. The eyes looking at George Han were both panic and admiration, but it was more of a pity.

It is a pity that George Han is such a talented person, who is simply a god-made general, but he has to be jealous of the talent. Today, he can only fall in Flint City.

“How about the outside support?” At this time, an executive asked the soldier next to him.

“We have seen a three-way army rushing from outside the city, coming towards Flint City.”

Hearing the report of the soldiers, several executives let out a sigh of relief: “How long will it take?” “In our planned time, approximately You can get outside the city in a quarter of an hour.”

Several executives nodded, these are the planned times. With their strength in Flint City, they agreed to block George Han for at least half a day, although this plan was rejected by Ao Tian. Let them not underestimate the enemy, the army will arrive in half an hour.

But all Flint City executives believed that Ao Tian was just cautious and cautious.

until now. They don't think so anymore.

“Fortunately, Patriarch Ao Tian is cautious and only let us hold him for half an hour. If we deny it, we will follow our original plan for a long time? Hehe, I'm afraid Firestone City has already fallen.”

“Yes, this Han Three thousand...”

“Fifteen minutes, judging from the battle between the city lord and the five major capitals, it should not be a problem.”

The words came out. Everyone agreed, and the hanging heart finally let go. Although they are still at a disadvantage in six-on-one, they may not lose any time soon.

puff!

Just now. When everyone was relieved, a figure suddenly flew out of the battlefield, smashing a stone pillar half a meter thick in front of the inner hall.

boom! !

Needless to say, this person is Zhu Kaixuan, the lord of Flint City.

Boom boom boom boom!

There were five muffled sounds again, and the figures of the five major metropolises flew out and smashed toward the four directions.

boom!

George Han is also stable. Maybe it was standing too hard, under a stomping, the solid ground made of marble. He stepped out of several deep cracks abruptly.

Soon, among the rocks, Zhu Kaixuan crawled out of the ruins in an extremely embarrassing manner, and he saw that all of the five major forces had fallen everywhere and the blood was scattered everywhere, and there was no movement, endless fear was born in his heart.

Same as other executives just now. He never thought about Ying George Han. I just want to bring my own power to the five major cities and hold George Han, and this time. He didn't think there was any problem.

Even short of time has nothing to say.

But wherever he wanted to, it was such a short time that it became the longest time in his life. He was very strenuous throughout the battle, and he even thought that every second was living like a year. Even more frightening is that they lost.

The defeat was very sudden and very thorough.

He began to regret that he promised the Medicine God Pavilion and the Immortal Sea to provoke the demon in front of him, otherwise, his Flint City would not become the purgatory on earth, and his Zhu family would not fall into this unrestored state.

“Ah!!! Why, why?”

Zhu Kaixuan roared angrily, roaring up to the sky. The whole voice was full of unwillingness, anger, regret and distress.

He has worked hard to manage the Zhu family for decades, and he has inherited the legacy of his ancestors and strengthened his career. Everything is ruined.

He knew that if a quarter of an hour could not last, no one in Flint City could stop the demon in front of him.

“One last time. Hand over Amelia Su, or, leave the lives of all of you in the city!” George Han asked coldly, ignoring this.

Not to mention the small Flint City, if you can't find Amelia Su and Han Nian, you have slaughtered the world. Why doesn't George Han dare?

An anger is a confidant, but George Han's anger may be something the whole world cannot stop.

After speaking, Zhu Kaixuan gritted his teeth and hesitated.

"We really... didn't arrest anyone." Behind him, an executive from the Zhu family said in fear.

"Yes!" George Han smiled grimly, and flicked his Pan Gu axe, his figure resembling a ghost.

Swipe it!

Among the crowd of soldiers, dozens of people fell directly as soon as the golden axe passed by.

Swipe it!

Pour another large slice.

George Han was like a slaughter of people, and everything he passed was corpses!

Zhu Kaixuan was completely taken aback, and the chill on his back made him sweat frantically.

One, two, three...ten, a hundred...when countless soldiers and executives turned into cold corpses, even though Zhu Kaixuan, who has been through the flames of war all the year round, Time also completely collapsed.

"I... I said!" Zhu Kaixuan sighed completely: "We...we arrested Amelia Su's gang, but they are not in Shihuo City!"

"Where are they?"

"I don't know. After we captured them according to our plan, we were suddenly intercepted by a group of mysterious people on the way. Although the number of mysterious people was small, they were better than one. Amelia Su and a group of people were also intercepted on the way. "Zhu Kaixuan said depressed.

George Han frowned...

Chapter 2196

There was another move in his hand, and another group of people turned into corpses.

"I didn't lie to you, Amelia Su and others were really intercepted in the middle of the road. We don't know who it was. Maybe. Maybe it was done by Yaoshen Pavilion and Yongsheng Haiyu. They instigated us. The purpose of doing this is to lead you to Flint City, and then the coalition forces to encircle and suppress you.” Zhu Kaixuan said scaredly: “They are afraid that we can’t stop you, so they may intercept people halfway out of the plan.”

“If you are. If you don’t believe me, you can go outside. The people from the Medicine God Pavilion and the Immortal Sea should be coming soon.”

George Han raised his eyes and glanced at the sky above Flint City. The four dragons hovered hurriedly, apparently finding a large number of enemies.

so. What Zhu Kaixuan said is true?

Mingyu is a spy in the Medicine God Pavilion or the Immortal Sea. He sold Amelia Su’s information halfway, and then found a Flint City to replace the dead ghost, lured himself on the hook, and then held himself! ?

It seems that it should be so.

“Okay, you can go on the road with peace of mind.” George Han snorted coldly, and the jade sword was placed directly on Zhu Kaixuan’s neck.

“Don’t kill me. Don’t kill me, although I moved your wife and daughter, but...you also slaughtered my family, we...are we even?” Zhu Kaixuan tremblingly begged for mercy.

Thinking of his side of the city owner, he fell to the point of kneeling and begging for mercy, but the former city owner was like a dog.

“Your family?” George Han glanced at the scorched Zhu family behind him. Zhu Kaixuan nodded desperately at this time.

George Han suddenly dismissed a smile: “They?” “Even Amelia Su’s hair can’t be compared. on!”

As soon as the voice fell, George Han Yujian swept away.

boom!

Zhu Kaixuan’s head suddenly widened. It fell to the ground from the neck.

Seeing that Zhu Kaixuan was killed, a group of soldiers and executives were shocked. The weak-legged man sat on the ground immediately, and followed. A gang of people scattered and fled!

A few minutes later.

The three-way army has a total of nearly 100,000 people, and they have surrounded the entire Flint City, which is full of fire, and the sky is completely blood red at this time.

“We are late.” Wu Yan said coldly, leaning against Ye Gucheng.

Looking around, Flint City is already devastated. Broken walls and ruins abound, and corpses on the ground are in groups. With blood flowing into a river, there is no such thing as the prosperity of the past.

“Late or not, does it have anything to do with us? From the beginning, the death and life of Zhu’s family. It is not in my consideration. If they don’t die, can they stay in George Han?” Ye Gucheng said coldly. Smile.

“That’s what I said.” Wu Yan nodded with a chuckle.

“Their deaths will only cause a serious blow to the Fuye family.” After Ye Gucheng finished speaking, he smiled at Wu Yan.

Flint City is such an important geographical city. Futian, a fool, knows that it is very important to the Fuye coalition forces. How can he not know the Medicine God Pavilion and the immortal sea area that are aiming to dominate the world of all directions.

That paper edict is indeed true. But what about it? It was written by Zhu Kaixuan, and it clearly stated that he only had to be in front of the lord for one day. He will be loyal to the Allied Forces for one day, but the question is, what if he dies? !

From the very beginning, among Ye Gucheng’s pawns, the Zhu family was bound to perish, and it was nothing more than a blank check to help the Ye coalition army.

“Gucheng, this trick of you. It’s really amazing. It can not only bring George Han here. It can also completely dismantle the alliance between Fuye Lianjun and George Han. It’s killing two birds with one stone.” Wu Yan smiled heartily. .

There are people in the Fu Ye coalition. George Han is strong alone, and the combination of the two really makes Yaoshen Pavilion a headache. But if the two are separated, or even let the two have enemies with each other, it will be different.

Right now, that’s the case.

“Futian gangsters only daydream all day long. Is there any difference between teasing them and monkeys?” Ye Gucheng sneered: “As for George Han, does he think he is the only one in this world who is smart? What did he do to me, I do to him!”

Wu Yan nodded happily: “However, Gucheng, how do you know that George Han’s wife will pass through Flint City?” This is a necessary premise, everything. Whether the plan can be implemented is the most critical point.

Speaking of this, Ye Gucheng also found it incredible. When he first heard the news, he didn’t believe it. It was just that in front of Ao Tian, the leader of Chen Datong and others were forced by his own situation, so he regarded it as a dead horse. With a live horse doctor, I don’t know, this is true, and it has been very rewarding.

“When I kill George Han and go back to drink, I will tell you slowly.” Ye Gucheng sneered.

Wu Yan nodded: “Okay, no problem. By the way, there is another thing in Gucheng that you did beautifully. Last night, Zhu Kaixuan sent an urgent letter saying that when Amelia Su was caught, they were caught by a group of mysterious people. After the attack, Amelia Su and others were also sent along. Hey, you must have sent someone to do this, right?”

“The Zhu family is not in your consideration at all, so how can they hold such an important handle? Wonderful, seconds.”

“Amelia Su is gone?” Ye Gucheng said suddenly incomparably puzzled.

Chapter 2197

Seeing Ye Gucheng’s doubts, Wu Yan was also stunned.

Didn’t Ye Gucheng arrange this privately?

“You didn’t arrange this?” Wu Yan doubted.

“When did I arrange it? You only told me about such an important matter?” Ye Gucheng suddenly annoyed.

“I...I know you can’t believe in the Zhu family, so...so I thought you secretly sent a mantis to catch the cicada. The oriole is behind.”

“Fat, the oriole, it seems that we are the mantis now.” Ye Gucheng frowned suddenly.

What does it mean? !

“Oh, don’t care about him, anyway, George Han has now entered the Flint City as we expected. For us, the goal has been achieved.” Wu Yan doesn’t even know what happened or how to know. The strange thing here.

But his words did make sense, Ye Gucheng, Yaoshen Pavilion, and Immortal Sea wanted George Han’s life. As for Amelia Su, how much can they care? !

Anyway, George Han died, it doesn’t matter whether the woman is alive or not.

“Maybe, it was the person who sent me the letter.” Ye Gucheng murmured inwardly.

But, what is that person doing to tie Amelia Su? ! Secondly, he has the ability to take Amelia Su from Zhu’s family, so why not do it himself? Instead, tell yourself Amelia Su’s whereabouts? Let yourself send someone?

Ye Gucheng couldn't understand. He didn't think about it.

Because at this time, Ao Tian had already brought several masters over in person.

"Gucheng, beautifully done." Ao Tian flew to Ye Gucheng, feeling quite good.

George Han's confident worry is finally like a tiger in a cage, shaking hands with life and death.

"Gucheng is just a little trick." Ye Gucheng pretended to be humble and said: "It's really your trust and support from Patriarch Ao, otherwise, how can it be effective today!"

"Okay, humble. Very modest, I am I like a humble and smart young man like you." Ao Tian laughed. Then turned to Ao Yongdao: "If the unfilial sons of my Ao family have such a lonely city, why do I worry about this in the sea of eternal life. I am afraid I would have driven the blue mountain top off the altar long ago."

Ao Yong smiled lightly. "Master Ye is indeed resourceful and a rare talent. This time, he is besieging George Han in Flint City. He is really capable. If you think that the patriarch Ao is inferior to Master Ye, it's easy. It's better to harvest Ye. The son is the righteous son."

"The righteous son?" Ao Tian frowned.

Ao Yong nodded, but couldn't help patting a top jade in his arms.

The plan to encircle George Han succeeded. A human spirit like Ao Yong naturally knows whose head the situation will fall on, and the top jade that Ye Gucheng entrusted to him is not just as simple as the value of the jade itself.

"Supervisor Ao. You show your love, how can He De in Gucheng." Ye Gucheng smirked.

"That's not right, I think Ao Yong is right. Right now, I want to be the number one in the world for eternal life. Naturally, I need all kinds of talents. You are young and promising in Gucheng. You are also very smart. This time, you have made great contributions. , Really makes me happy. Okay, I will accept you as a righteous son." The voice just fell. Wu Yan and others immediately looked at Ye Gucheng excitedly, although Ye Gucheng's face was embarrassed. But he knelt down honestly at his feet: "Gucheng has seen a foster father."

"Hahahaha, get up, get up, my son!" Ao Tian laughed loudly, rarely happy.

Behind him, Chen Dajun's face is like pig liver, his face is as ugly as it is, and happiness is the happiness of others. Acid is own acid. After a lot of effort, Ye Gucheng flew onto the branch and became a phoenix.

“Honorable Lord. People are great now. In the past, only your subordinates dared to jump and report. Now it’s fine, Ao Tian’s godson, I am afraid he will not put you in his eyes in the future.” Chief Chen said in a cold voice.

Although Wang Suzhi was smiling on his face, his eyes were obviously angry. Chen Da’s words really happened to be right in his own mind.

Ye Gucheng’s group of people naturally did not notice Wang Wanzhi, who was hiding the knife in his smile, and was completely immersed in the joy of Ao Tian’s acceptance of his son.

“Well, our little things can stop temporarily, because there are bigger happy events waiting for us.” Ao Tian smiled softly.

Everyone nodded together and looked at the Flint City that was already purgatory.

There are gaps everywhere in the huge city wall. Countless city people are fleeing at this time. There are soldiers from Flint City behind them. These soldiers have long lost their original appearance of maintaining order. At this time, they only pushed away all the people blocking in front of them, and wanted to leave this nightmare land as soon as possible.

And almost not far behind these city residents, George Han walked out slowly at this time.

In his hand, he held a bloody human head impressively.

And that head is exactly Zhu Kaixuan’s!

George Han, covered in blood, stood there, though coldly looking at all the coalition forces present from a long distance.

However, for a time, the crowds of thousands of people suddenly felt cold and cold, and many people couldn’t help but hugged their bodies tightly.

what is that? Devil from hell?

Chapter 2198

“George Han!!!”

Ye Gucheng looked at George Han coldly, his teeth itchy.

“Look at it, then... isn’t that the head of Flint City Lord Zhu Kaixuan?”

“This guy, wouldn’t it really kill the entire Flint City?”

“One person slaughtered one city? This guy really deserves to be. I admire the mystery man. If it is not my generation who are the living waters, I really want this guy is very mixed. supremely alone kill, Wan Pa collection body, the clothes, the clothes ah.” “ this guy really Horror, a flint city of Nuo Da was beaten into a purgatory on earth. He should not be called a mysterious person, but a Motu. He will slaughter people when he sees them, and kill people like a devil!”

Behind him, the disciples whispered, Ao Tian’s expression was cold. , The killing intent in the heart is more up.

But now, George Han already has a lot of influence. If this is going to last, can this kid really become the third power?

Taking a step forward, Ao Tian smiled coldly: “I didn’t expect that when you wore a mask to be my dog in the Palace of Qishan, your actual identity was indeed the rubbish son-in-law of Fu Jia. It was interesting and interesting. However, in front of my Ao Tian, Whether you are a mysterious person or George Han, you will only die.”

George Han’s expression is cold: “Do you dare to kidnap my wife and daughter, do you think you will leave here alive?”

“Arrogant, extremely arrogant Young man, you are so defiant.” Ao Tian suddenly cursed angrily. As the patriarch of the Immortal Sea, there has never been anyone who dared to be so pretentious in front of him, including the patriarch at the top of the Blue Mountain!

But George Han dared to threaten death directly in front of him!

“Don’t look at what’s happening to you now. My tripartite coalition, nearly a hundred thousand people, and among them are the elite soldiers of my immortal seas. Kill you once that day, and kill you again today.”

“That’s right. , George Han, you are so arrogant, you will be killed today to sacrifice our Medicine God Pavilion flag.” Wang Shuzhi also shouted coldly.

George Han smiled coldly and looked up. The surrounding area of Flint City was full of people.

George Han understood that this time he believed the wrong person, and the result could be very serious.

Even to a certain extent, it was more serious than I thought, because among these encircling army, there was such a bitch as Futian.

When Futian saw George Han’s eyes swept over him, the whole person’s eyes hid subconsciously, and the ten thousand rhetoric that had been thought up before coming, and the thousand words cursed Jin Jin George Han, all of them were put back at this time. In my stomach, I dare not put a single fart.

He was afraid of being watched by George Han, and then he was unlucky.

George Han smiled softly and nodded: "It's good, it's all here." As soon as the voice fell, George Han's figure flashed, and he turned into a phantom, and in the next second, he collapsed directly among the crowd.

With this kill, George Han's whole person was like a bomb dropped into the lake, and the neatly organized camp of the nearest Yaoshen Pavilion immediately exploded. For a while, everyone turned their backs on their backs, and the formation was in chaos.

Wang Wanzhi gritted his teeth, the three-way coalition forces are full of people. Why don't you attack Lao Tzu's Medicine God Pavilion first? What do you mean? Do you think my disciple of Yaoshen Pavilion is a bully?

Boom boom boom! ! !

Even if there are not many people participating in the battle between Yaoshen Pavilion and Eternal Life Sea, and each is a leader of various kinds, they are still struggling to cope with the top abnormalities like George Han.

An elephant suddenly entered the ant colony, which may be the situation in the army of the Medicine God Pavilion at this time.

All of a sudden, there were explosions, fires, shouts, killings, and cries.

"Oh my God." Futian looked far to the Medicine God Pavilion, watching many of the Yaoshen Pavilion's elite disciples continue to fall like saplings chopped down by a knife, and the whole person could not help swallowing saliva.

Is this the true strength of this earth waste? !

"Boom boom!"

The explosion continued, and George Han was as big as a figure that rushed in, and in just a few tens of seconds, he shot out a large dot with a diameter of more than ten meters. Among the dots, there were only corpses and no life.

terror!

overbearing!

George Han's bloody eyes swept away, and the tens of thousands of people around him retreated collectively.

Ao Weather's gums are almost bleeding from biting.

"Let Qu Jing go." Wang Slowly closed his eyes, speechless.

“Lord, that is your goddaughter...” the subordinate hurriedly said.

“When is the fucking time, the old man’s face is almost lost, not to mention the goddaughter, even the mother can do it.” In the presence of so many people, he has already lost his face once. Lost again, how can he face the world with his face?

Besides, Ao Tian is still here, how could he behave like this in front of Ao Tian? !

“Yes.” The

subordinate retreated.

And at this time, George Han, just like his new nickname, Demon Tu, is like his new nickname. People block killing, gods block killing gods. The circle of more than ten meters is now more than fifty meters, and the group surrounding the front The disciples of Yaoshen Pavilion were even scared and their legs were weak.

Although they are all carefully selected, they are different from people in other places. They had just experienced George Han’s power soon, and now they meet again, naturally, their hearts are shaking.

George Han’s face was cold, his eyes didn’t show the slightest emotion. Although besieged by the three armies, so what? Not only did he have no fear at all, on the contrary, he was fortunate to have such an arrangement.

Judging from the current situation, the people who kidnapped Amelia Su and Han Nian must be Yaoshen Pavilion and Eternal Life Sea Area, and the Fu family may not be able to get out of the relationship.

Thinking of this, George Han suddenly rushed forward.

With his pounce, it was as if a group of sheep were staring at his tiger. Although he was huge in number, when the tiger moved, the group of people suddenly yelled mom and dad, and then desperately fled in all directions.

Tens of thousands of soldiers, the majesty is not there, but the scene is funny.

“Shoo!”

Bang!

Suddenly, at this moment, a red tasseled spear was suddenly inserted diagonally under George Han’s feet.

Immediately afterwards, a woman dressed in green stood in front of George Han.

“Oh my God, Yao Shen Pavilion Zitong Fairy Qu Jing.”

George Han's pupils shrank slightly when he heard the crowd's exclamation. Although there was only a young woman in front of him, the sense of oppression brought to George Han was no stronger than most enemies.

Even, George Han has only seen her oppressive feeling in one person.

Lu Ruoxin.

"Sky-Breaking

Spear!" The jade hand shook his hand in the air, and the spear returned to his hand, suddenly stabbing George Han.

"Brush!"

George Han turned sideways, but his cheeks couldn't help but feel a little cold, and a drop of blood shed when he wiped it with his hand.

What a quick gun!

But what surprised George Han was not only her gun speed, but more importantly her body and her spear tip, which was obviously stained with George Han's blood but showed no signs of corrosion.

The tip of the gun is not affected by George Han's poisonous blood?

This is impossible!
