

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2199 - 2202

Chapter 2199

George Han was stunned, his poisonous blood, to a certain extent, should be extremely poisonous, corroding everything, even the iron that supports the family.

But the spear of the woman in front of her was not affected at all!

While George Han was stunned, Qu Jing stepped on the green light, held his spear straight, and took the lead!

call out! call out! call out!

Countless lights and shadows spurred George Han crazily, the imaginary is the real, the reality is the imaginary, George Han felt as if he was preventing the Buddha from entering the day, and he was completely dazzled by her gun shadow.

In just a few rounds, George Han had been stabbed several times by her, and his clothes broke. However, these were not a big deal to George Han who possessed the immortal profound armor and golden body. On the contrary, George Han also keenly grasped her weakness because he became familiar with it.

Although her gun is fast, it is obvious that the gun must be fast and domineering! As for a woman's body, it is always hard to say the word domineering.

Seizing a gap, George Han did not dodge directly.

boom!

Turning over, hit Qu Jing's body directly.

Puff!

Almost at the same time, that spear hit George Han in the shoulder!

A man and a woman, showing shock almost at the same time.

George Han was shocked that when he patted his palm, it was as if he was patted on an iron plate, and even his palm was aching.

Qu Jing was shocked that although the shot pierced George Han's chest, it was so laborious that she was too lucky, and a mouthful of blood slowly flowed out of her throat.

boom! ! !

The two withdrew separately, George Han touched his chest, blood flowing, while Qu Jing retreated further, forcibly resisting the blood flowing out of his mouth.

At this moment, George Han was even more stunned to discover that there was still no damage to her gun tip. But in the next second, one of her actions dispelled George Han's doubts.

The spear suddenly disappeared out of thin air, turned into a stream of light and shrank into her body.

"Nine Sky Profound Body." Inside, Xiao Bai shouted in shock.

"What's that?" George Han frowned.

"In ancient times, human beings can become gods in the flesh, but they are the spirits of all things. Although humans are not as good as monsters and beasts, they have become the most suitable race for cultivating immortals into gods because of their physique. And there are eight innate bodies in human beings. The most powerful in the mortal world. This nine-celestial profound body is one of the eight innate bodies. This kind of profound body does not invade water, fire, and all poisons. The body can transform all things into attack, and can also transform all things into defense, because it is like profound ice. It's strong and sharp, so it's called the Nine Heavens Profound Body." Xiaobai said coldly.

"In my previous life, I fought against one of the eight innate bodies. I can only say that it is very powerful. You have to be careful." Xiaobai warned.

George Han nodded, no wonder this woman can bear even a palm of her hand, and even makes her palm a little bit painful, and she can directly penetrate the defense of the indestructible mysterious armor with one shot, and hurt herself. Not being attacked by poisonous blood, it turned out to be such a thing.

"Fight again!" With a soft cry, George Han rushed forward again.

George Han learned his lesson, and when Pan Gu axe came out, Wu opened up great harmony in his hands.

Qu Jing's body is magical and mysterious, and the spear is frequently released, as if it is cold and chaotic!

boom! ! boom! ! ! boom! ! ! !

The mountains are huge, the ground is poor and explosive, even the sky is blown up by the two fierce fights from time to time.

After Lu Ruoxin, there is another woman who is truly equal to George Handou.

However, unlike Lu Ruoxin, Lu Ruoxin relied entirely on her own cultivation skills and secret techniques, and the woman in front of her was somewhat similar to George Han, relying on her body.

However, how could George Han be afraid of masters with similar attributes? !

A faint smile suddenly appeared at the corner of his mouth, and he suddenly withdrew from the offensive, only to dodge, and when he seized the opportunity, he suddenly attacked with a Pangu axe.

“Huh, didn’t George Han just rely on his own body to pervert? He thought he would do it?” At this time, seeing George Han clearly falling into the disadvantage, Chen Datong laughed beside Wang Suzhi disdainfully.

“The Nine Heavens Profound Body, that is one of the eight innate bodies, and after decades of cultivation by my noble lord, isn’t it comparable to ordinary people? No matter how hard his body is, George Han is harder than the Nine Heavens Profound Body?” The cronies laughed.

Wang Shuzhi finally took a breath at this time, Qu Jing’s fierceness restored him some face, and it was not a waste of this innate body and his exhaustion of various medicinal materials to cultivate.

But these people obviously ignored the fact that George Han’s body is indeed not the eight innate bodies, but George Han’s body is far from simple as they thought.

Is it just a body that can be described as hard? !

Besides, even if George Han is really just what they imagined, so what? !

Could the energy in Qu Jing’s body be comparable to George Han?

How can George Han who can slay Wanjun without huge energy support? !

“Can’t move? Tired?! Okay, take a break and watch my performance.” George Han smiled lightly, and the next second, his body suddenly disappeared! !

Qu Jing suddenly felt cold, and Liu frowned slightly.

puff!

Chapter 2200

When George Han appeared, Pan Gu Axe had already raised his head.

Although Qu Jing shot the gun horizontally, the next second, George Han Yujian was wrapped in the Skyfire Moon Wheel, and with a brush, it directly pierced Qu Jing’s arm.

call out!

If it weren't for hiding fast, the sword might pierce her heart.

Qu Jing looked at George Han in shock. It was hard to imagine that she was defeated.

"Nine Sky Profound Body, but so." George Han smiled contemptuously.

Qu Jing clenched her teeth, trying to refute, but she didn't know where to start.

George Han loses above unfamiliar Qu Jing, but why is it that Qu Jing loses above ignorance of George Han? But the problem is that everything about George Han's abnormality is destined to have a very high fault tolerance rate. On the contrary, it also makes Qu Jing's fault tolerance very low.

It's not that Qu Jing is not strong enough, but that George Hantai is abnormal.

"Take her, Jiutian Profound Body will be my mother-in-law." Xiaobai said suddenly.

George Han frowned. When did Xiao Bai learn the ginseng baby set? ! However, George Han soon understood that Xiaobai and Ginseng Baby are different.

Needless to say, for what purpose the ginseng baby is a wretched baby at all, but Xiaobai's request can obviously be summed up in one sentence.

Slander her body.

George Han took his golden body from his previous life and gave it to Qin Shuang. Now it is just a rabbit with teeth. Seeing such a good thing as the Nine Sky Profound Body naturally aroused the desire in his heart.

Hearing the conversation between one person and one beast, Qu Jing's beautiful face was flushed. Naturally, she was not shy, but because she was angry. In front of the public, the three parties actually molested her in this way. The county lord, when has he been so angry?

Angry, she was completely angry.

Then, her whole person was completely changed. The green clothes on her body turned into green leaves, and her body was spinning fast. When she listened, the green leaf clothes had merged into green armor, white eyebrows, and leafy eyebrows. The imprinting is abnormally obvious.

Behind her, three huge vines suddenly spread like long snakes, and rose all the way to the sky.

Above the clouds, the three vines finally bend and quickly spread around, woven into a rosette. On the rosette, green and tender hair grew, and a platy-shaped god and buddha was born. However, that god and buddha did not know that it was. Because of Tengman's discoloration, it turned out to be ice green.

"It seems that you have annoyed her." George Han smiled bitterly.

Xiao Bai did not speak, apparently already hidden.

"Drink!" With

a soft drink, the spear was in his hand, and almost at the same time, the ice Buddha on the rosette was also holding the spear.

"Swipe!" With

a shot of the spear, Qu Jing did not move, but George Han heard the roar. Above his head, the Ice Buddha spear was like a giant dragon, and it rushed into the sky with a strong breath of ice.

George Han bit his teeth and slashed directly with an axe.

boom!!!

Although George Han's Pangu axe is extremely sharp, but with George Han's mastery of Pangu axe laymen, most of them may be unmatched. However, under the sudden attack of the ice Buddha giant spear, with a loud noise, the whole person turned out to be Being directly pressed down on the ground, his feet plunged into the ground half a foot.

George Han felt a sweet throat, and the fishy smell turned against his mouth.

Strong, outrageously strong.

The beating George Han really hurts!

If it were the usual, George Han might not suffer the immediate loss, but today, what George Han wants is not to escape, but to kill everyone here until they hand over Amelia Su and Han Nian.

"Interesting, you are very strong, but no one can stop me." George Han vomited blood from his mouth, and his shoulders sank suddenly.

Qu Jing gritted her teeth and looked at George Han incredibly. Such a strong blow made him only hurt.

"Really?" Qu Jing opened up indifferently. She seemed to seldom speak, and her words were very vague, but her voice was pleasant.

As soon as the voice fell, Qu Jing shot again, and the ice Buddha on the head shot and slammed, carrying a strong energy vortex, piercing the sky and attacking directly.

George Han held a Pangu axe, clasped both hands, the Pangu seal on his forehead was fiercely visible, and his body was golden.

“Break for me!”

Boom! boom! !!

The spear and axe collided, the flames exploded, and the waves overturned all the disciples within 100 meters.

With the strong wind, even Wang Wanzhi, who was blowing, couldn't help frowning.

What a strong collision!

A cave god like a god of ice, a god of war like a golden god, hit the peak with one shot and one axe!

Both of them have gone violently at this time!

Green and white against Jin Mang!

At this moment, George Han suddenly gritted his teeth, and his whole body was like a stream of light rolling outside his body quickly, the ground on which his feet were tumbling and shaking, shaking everyone staggering, preventing the gluttony under the Buddha's ground. The behemoth is about to break the ground.

“Okay... so strong aura, this... is he the true god coming?”

“This is this guy, is the true peak strength?”

” The peak of Qishan doesn't seem to let him use his full strength, but At this time, he resorted to it.”

“I suddenly regret that I have done something to Amelia Su. His woman really can't move.”

Under the golden light, everyone's faces were not golden, but they were pale!

Chapter 2201

As soon as the words fell, Xiao Bai's figure turned into a white shadow and rushed directly into the battlefield.

“Wow!” With

a roar, he directly knocked the people surrounding George Han into flight. Then, Xiao Bai turned around fiercely and blocked George Han's front.

"George Han, don't want to leave Lao Tzu. Don't think about being a hero by yourself!"

"Aw!" There was another roar!

George Han gave a bitter smile, carrying Pan Gu axe, and directly killed it again.

Space field!

No phase magic!

Skyfire Moon Wheel!

Too imaginary step!

Sky Yin technique!

boom! ! !

George Han, who was completely under the siege, with the help of Xiaobai Space Domain, he insisted on relying on the perfect match of one person and one beast, and he became more and more courageous.

Tiger Claws!

The evil dragon roars!

Sacrifice of the dead!

Tianmang God Jue!

On the opposite side, the masters of the tripartite coalition have also sacrificed various secret techniques layer by layer. The two sides are completely confrontational. You will sing and I will appear on the stage.

Time is passing by every minute and every second.

ten minutes.

Half an hour.

One hour!

Three hours!

Even at dawn when the sky is twilight...

The corpses at George Han's feet had already piled up into two thick human mountains. The blood had soaked the earth and became a river of blood, and the golden axe had been dyed red with blood.

George Han was like a blood man, his body was covered with scars, and the immortal armor had several gaps.

White as a rabbit, it was also red at this time. The long hair was completely wetted by blood and almost condensed into mud, dripping gently along its hair.

A dozen meters away from George Han, a group of masters were already panting and pale.

Although the soldiers behind them were active, they were already the fourth group of people to be replaced.

I don't know when it will begin. The successive fierce battles have exhausted the menacing tens of thousands of coalition forces. Simply, this group of people began to rotate.

Ironically, George Han, who has really been fighting, never took a break even for a moment.

And even that group of masters has been at the forefront, a group of more than 700 people, more than a hundred people died, and the rest of the people are what they are now.

"Nearly 100,000 people are beaten up like this. He is not exhausted by himself, but we started to play spinning. I really don't know whether to praise George Han, or to scold our so-called elite. Ao Tian shook his head and smiled bitterly.

"This guy is like a cow, don't you really know that he is tired?" "No, he is tired." Ao Tian smiled, and George Han's hand holding the Pangu axe was already trembling, which shows his physical strength. A critical point has been reached. "It's just that the energy of this kid is very abundant."

"Yes, this is our eighteenth attack in five hours, and every attack will be disintegrated by him." Ao Tian smiled bitterly: "This Guy, it completely refreshed my understanding of the people on earth. Could it be that all abnormalities exist there? This guy makes me think that our Octagonal world is the lowest level existence."

“It has something to do with that golden dragon.” Ao Tian said: “The dragon is full of power, I have only seen it in the heart of the lost dragon clan.”

“Patriarch, do you mean...George Han has the heart of the dragon?”

“The heart of the dragon can hold countless energy to support the dragon. Only it can explain why George Han is still full of energy. However, This statement seems to be somewhat untenable.” Ao Tian seemed to be talking to himself.

“The heart of the dragon has long been lost in the world of Xuanyuan. It is indeed possible for this kid to get this treasure from the world of Xuanyuan. However, let alone the low-level world of the world of Xuanyuan, even if the heart of the dragon falls in the world of eight directions, it is impossible Absorbed so much energy.” Ao Yong nodded, understanding Ao Tian’s self-denial.

“This kid is really hard to figure out.” Ao Tian smiled bitterly: “However, his performance now makes me not regret killing him in the first place. With his talent, it is impossible to sit on my deputy like that. Simple, in time, he is challenging our existence, and may even kick us off. Just right, isn’t he amazing? Kill him and study it carefully.”

After speaking, Ao Tian waved his hand and Ye Gucheng left. come.

“I don’t expect anything from you, I only expect you to have half of him in the future.” Ao Tian finished speaking and said with a wry smile: “It’s time to end all this, otherwise, I don’t know when I will be a head.

“Gucheng understands.”

As soon as the voice fell, Ye Gucheng raised his eyes to the sky and launched the final general attack.

“Are you afraid?” George Han said to Xiaobai.

Watching hundreds of thousands of people regroup and launch the final total attack on himself, although his body is full of energy at this time, Ao Tian sees it accurately, and his body is completely unable to resist.

“Dead?” Xiaobai smiled: “Why, when did you start to become so unconfident?” It’s not that you are so unconfident, but the reality is so, George Han is also helpless. No matter how strong a person is, is he stronger than others? Maybe it can, but George Han can’t do it now.

“Do you want to play the big one?” Xiaobai suddenly laughed.

Chapter 2202

George Han frowned, and smiled bitterly: "It's a big game? Do you think you are shaking the dice?"

It's not that George Han doesn't want to, but reality simply doesn't allow it. Yes, even if you want to raise your hand and give them a few knives, you are afraid that you will be unable to do so.

"I just ask you, do you want it or not?" Xiaobai said bitterly: "Say it in advance. If this is a big one, you may even confess yourself here. Do you want to play?"

"This group of bitches caught Amelia Su, for this point, Lao Tzu will fight with them for his life. What can I do or not?" George Han sneered with disdain.

"If you have this sentence, then let's play with them to the end." After saying that, Xiao Bai glanced at George Han and smiled: "I've heard Linlong say to me, what is your earth saying? , I won the clubhouse Nun Demon, and lost to work in the sea? We are like this today. "

George Han is speechless, where did Linlong go to school? What do you teach Xiaobai?

"How to play?" George Han asked. As long as there is a chance, George Han will never let these guys go.

"Hmph, I heard Linlong say that you are from Xuanyuan World, right?"

George Han nodded, he did not deny this.

"And when you came up, in order to avoid being discovered by the helper, in fact, you didn't come up through the catastrophe, but through some shameful means, right?" Xiaobai asked.

George Han frowned slightly: "Is it okay to use the appropriate words? What is the shameful means?"

"Anyway, it didn't come from the robbery."

George Han admitted that it was really to avoid the help of the family. Unconventional means.

"That's fine, then we can play with them." Xiaobai said.

"what do you mean....."

"Anyone who ascends will inevitably cross the catastrophe. This is the law of heaven and earth, and no one can violate it. But you, George Han, are acting against you. Do you think you will be able to avoid it?" Xiaobai smiled lightly: "You can't avoid it. , You could have escaped once, but you will inevitably usher in more violent revenge from the catastrophe .” George Han never thought that he would escape this catastrophe, and once escaped, he also clearly understood that if the catastrophe came again, He will inevitably be frustrated. This is the price to be paid for challenging the rules.

However, in the original situation, George Han had no choice.

“So, you want me to...”

“Certainly!” Xiaobai said sternly.

George Han did not speak, his heart was both shocked and quite agitated. If he used the tribulation, then he would be in the midst of the tribulation.

Although this is very dangerous, if the Heavenly Tribulation that George Han summons is too big, there will be no eggs under the covering nest. Can the group of people closest to him live well?

“How is it?” Xiaobai said.

George Han smiled grimly: “Either save Amelia Su, or step on Lao Tzu’s corpse and do it !” “Then do them!” The voice of one person and one animal fell off, and then he laughed.

“George Han, this idiot, facing our final total offensive, finally know what is the end of the road, don’t you? Now I am laughing sadly.” Ye Gucheng laughed softly.

Seeing George Han doing this, Ye Gucheng didn’t know how happy he was.

Ao Tian also smiled lightly. For him, he can finally fall asleep with peace of mind tonight.

Such a person can only die in his own hands, he can’t use it for himself, and at the same time, he can’t use it for the top of the blue mountain, otherwise, he will be a huge trouble for himself.

Wang Shuzhi also took a sigh of relief, George Hanyi died, his hatred was calmed down, and the dignity of Yaoshen Pavilion was restored.

For Futian, this is the only thing he can prove that the decision to look down on George Han is not wrong. The future of Fuye and his family is also brighter in this war. Although his methods are very not glamorous, Han Three thousand died, I can avoid all misjudgments.

Shaking his eyes, the tri-service coalition forces, led by more than 600 masters like a wave, attacked George Han in an overwhelming swath of darkness.

Everything should be over.

But all of a sudden, the sky should have been shining bright and even ushered in the first sun, but at this moment, the wind roared away, and the black cloud pressed the city.

Then, the thunder rolled!

boom! !

The thick dark clouds suddenly rolled violently, shrouding the entire earth in darkness again. In the dark clouds, purple light jumped, and lightning bolts intertwined, biting, and roaring wildly.

“This...what’s going on?” Ye Gucheng’s complexion was pale, the strong pressure in the sky made him even sweat a little on his forehead, even he couldn’t help feeling that the pressure made him tired.

“What a strong breath, what happened?” Those with weak cultivation base felt that Mount Tai was overwhelming.

“Heavenly Tribulation?” A group of people looked at each other strangely.

“It’s time, who is going through the catastrophe?”

” Who is going through the catastrophe in the world of eight directions, is it possible that another master of the Eight Desolation World has come?”

Many people are puzzled, because generally people who can overcome the catastrophe in the world of eight directions are often They are the masters of Sanxian, between the gods and the Eight Desolate Realms.

Although they are not as good as true gods, to a certain extent, they are also people who are superior to ordinary people in the world, and they are just as strong.

But Sanxian is generally hard to see.

But now...

“No, it’s not the calamity of the Eight Desolation Dacheng. It’s...” Ao Tian frowned.

As the patriarch of the immortal sea area, Ao Tian has naturally seen the calamity of the great master of the Eight Desolates, it is the Purple Cloud Demon Thunder. But the catastrophe in front of him was not the case.

“It’s your grandfather and me.” At this time, among the crowd, George Han suddenly smiled grinningly.

At almost the same time, George Han stood up, surrounded by purple electricity.

“It’s George Han crossing the catastrophe, how can this be possible? Is it possible that this guy has a realm of great achievement?” Ao Yong wondered.

“Impossible.” Ao Tian directly denied: “The Tribulation of Immortal Dispersal is the Purple Cloud Demon Thunder, and his is not.”

“Then how could he attract the Tribulation?” Ye Gucheng asked with a pale face.

“When George Han came from Xuanyuan World to avoid the eyes and ears of our Fu family, he didn’t come to Bafang World by soaring. Could it be that he was punishing thunder?” At this time, Futian also hurriedly gathered over. .

“Punishing Lei?”

George Han was not the first person to jump from the Xuanyuan World without crossing the Tribulation, but to jump directly to the Bafang World by other concealment methods. There were also many cases before his. However, even those who violate the rules will be punished by thunder even if they arrive in the world of Octagon.

This is the natural law of heaven and earth, and no one can escape, just as the old saying goes, avoiding the first day of the junior high school and the fifteenth.

The Heavenly Tribulation of Xuanyuan World may be very strong, but Lei Punishment will be stronger than that, because it will increase more levels and multiples according to the cultivation base and abilities of the Tribulation Crosser. In other words, for those who crossed the Tribulation, when Xuanyuan World crossed the Tribulation, even if he increased his cultivation base, the Heavenly Tribulation would become stronger, or even doubled, which would make it more difficult for him at this time.

This is the cycle of heaven.

As soon as this remark came out, everyone was relieved that it turned out that George Handu had this kind of robbery.

But only Ao Tian frowned, “No, it’s not right...!”
