Chapter 2203

“For a long time, it was a punishing thunder, haha, this fucking bastard is making mysticism, and it scares me, I thought he was going to ascend to the fairyland.” Ye Gucheng was relieved.

If George Han soared to Sanxian, what would he be so sour!

Ye Gucheng smiled, and everyone couldn't help but smile.

“It must have been that kid's aura just now drew the sky full of anger, so he punished thunder. It seems that this kid even wanted him to die. It was punished thunder again, and it was our coalition army. He, really. It's horrible.”

“We are the right way after all, we walk for the sky, but the sky feels that we must beat the dog in the water.”

” Hahahaha .”

Everyone laughed wildly, but at this time Ao Yong noticed that Ao Tian frowned. Looking at the purple thunder in the dark clouds, it seemed to be worried.

“Patriarch, what's the matter with you? It's a bit unhappy to let Ping Lei kill George Han instead of killing him personally? Or should I send some masters to resist Ping Lei?” Ao Yong naturally didn't want his master to be upset. Seize every opportunity to please Ao Tian.

“Resisting Thunder Penalty?” Ao Tian frowned, “Do you really think you could stop it?”

“Although Lei Penalty is fierce, I have heard that George Han's cultivation base is only in the end of the vague stage. Although the intensity may be doubled, it will not be too great.” Ao Yongdao.

“The misty period?” Ao Tian sneered at the corner of his mouth: “Do you really think that a person in the misty period can be so invincible in the world?”

“He relies on his strange and weird things, and some conveniences. It's Pan Gu axe.” Ao Yong naturally has his own explanation.

“From the beginning to the end, this guy has never known Pangu axe. Pangu axe can't help him much.” Ao Tian said coldly. Although he wanted George Han to die, it didn't mean that he would despise George Han. thousand.

A person who can shine on the top of Qishan Mountain, a person who can make the Medicine God Pavilion nearly collapse, a person who can slaughter Flint City alone in less than half an hour, and even one that can cost him nearly 100,000 The elite who just took a few hours to kill him, will he be a man of elusive realm? !

“No.” Ao Tian frowned suddenly.

Because in the dark clouds, between the purple lights, a faintly giant thing is slowly emerging from the dark clouds.

Following Ao Tian’s violent drink, everyone put away their smiles and stared at the giant thing in the dark clouds.

“Roar!”

Suddenly, a purple electric dragon suddenly shot out from the dark clouds. Its body was huge enough to describe it with terror, and the continuous mountains looked a little weak under its size.

With a roar, the purple electric dragon dangled from the sky, and the whole body was creaky with purple electric power.

It stared at George Han with a pair of purple eyes, and then, an acceleration went straight to George Han.

And almost at the moment it accelerated, the dragon body suddenly curled up. The next second, the dragon body suddenly turned into a beast like a unicorn, with double wings on its back, eyes like a tiger, and head like a dragon, full of shock and shock. The purple electric light on the top of his head is like a rhinoceros horn is shining brightly than the sun and the moon, making it impossible to look directly at it.

Wings fluttered, thunderstorms raged, and thunder flashed wherever they passed!

“My dear, the Forbidden Thunder Beast.”

Ao Tian was shocked and as calm as him. At this time, he couldn’t help but screamed, completely deprived of the composure and composure of being the head of the three major families.

“What? Forbidden Thunder Beast!!!”

Hearing Ao Tian’s roar, everyone around him suddenly trembled! Someone who is timid, even softened their ass to the ground, unbelievably, staring at the purple electric behemoth that attracted the world with a face of paper.

“No, impossible, impossible, this is absolutely impossible.” Wang Yanzhi shook his head desperately, staggering backwards, obviously unable to accept the reality in front of him.

“Puff!”

Futian spouted a mouthful of old blood, his eyes were extremely complicated, his mood could not be described in words, and his entire face was full of bitterness, regret, shock and inconceivability.

“You...what’s wrong with you?” Ye Gucheng didn’t know why, he was a young man with not many people present. Although he was young, he had little knowledge.

Especially the Forbidden Thunder Beast, an ancient creature he had never seen before.

But seeing a group of people reacting in this way, he was both strange and very confused, and at the same time the anxiety in his heart throbbed again, because looking at the performance of all of them, it seemed that George Han had made some shocking behavior.

Ao days molars almost chew, strong frown Nu Sheng shouted: “Forbidden Brontotherium, turned out to be the Forbidden Brontotherium, that is to say, Han three thousand degree robbery, nine days Violet Ray ah”

Ao Yong was completely speechless.

Ye Gucheng looked back, Wu Yan and a few others were completely dull, their whole person looked at the sky like a fool, and when the sentence of nine days purple thunder was spoken, their legs weakened even more. , Like those faint-hearted, like soft-footed shrimp.

Ye Gucheng opened his mouth wide, turned around and looked at George Han, the purple behemoth was getting closer and closer to George Han.

Chapter 2204

“Fuck, run.” On the ground, George Han saw the purple behemoth attack, without saying anything, picked up Xiao Bai, and forcibly endured the pain and discomfort in his body. Control, increase all the energy to stimulate the Taixu Shen step.

The Forbidden Thunder Beast struck suddenly, its claws straightened!

George Han’s figure also flashed at this time.

As the Forbidden Thunder Beast slammed into the sky, the sky full of purple thunder followed its movement and bombed. With a loud noise, the ground exploded directly!

“I’m damn it, retreat, retreat, let everyone retreat for me!” After this explosion, Ao Tian was shocked to discover that the Forbidden Thunder Beast had charged forward with dozens of masters and hundreds of disciples. Because there were too many people to hide, they turned to ashes under the purple electricity.

And that piece of land was completely scorched at this time.

As Ao Tian shouted, a group of people who had been under pressure staggered and spread out at this time, but George Han suddenly appeared and shouted. After attracting the attention of the Forbidden Thunder Beast, a vain step suddenly disappeared. .

Boom!

The Forbidden Thunder Beast immediately rushed forward, and another group of people were directly wounded and hit and turned into ashes.

Immediately afterwards, George Han appeared again and ran away again!

“Fuck, bastard, this bastard, he did it deliberately.” Ao Tian scolded the street angrily, watching his elite die under the attack of the Forbidden Thunder Beast, his heartache was so painful that he couldn’t even breathe.

With George Han’s constant temptation and then hiding, the whole scene suddenly resembled a purgatory on earth.

Pieces of elite disciples were turned into ashes by the purple lightning, and they screamed continuously for a while, and black and gray and purple electricity were everywhere.

“Ah...”

Thunder sea raged, purple lightning flashed wildly, the earth was scorched, the mountains were destroyed, and where the Forbidden Thunder Beast passed, there was no grass, which was terrifying.

“Run Nima, just now you slut beat Laozi the most fierce!” On the battlefield, George Han yelled and smiled, and with a grinning smile, he turned to the position of a dozen of the masters.

A dozen masters glanced at George Han, then at the Forbidden Thunder Beast rushing from behind him, shouting angrily: “You’re so fucking yin!”

“Yeah, you’re so fucking damn fucking !” . ” “

you are a beast, honest playing good, playing special What this trick! “ gang Nu Sheng opposite, unity cursed Korea three thousand shameless, do not think this gang set the public against South Korea three thousand How shameless a person is. Such a double standard is no one.

However, curse, curse, you have to run. When the voices of more than a dozen masters fell, they ran away one by one. You pushed and squeezed each other, for fear that I would be left behind. There was no unity just now. .

But compared to George Han's speed, it was indeed too slow.

Although George Han's muscles all over his body were spasm and convulsed because of excessive force, he was too fast to chase these people.

A flashed past, the next second, the Forbidden Thunder Beast was also worth it.

boom!

With the arrival of Zidian, the bodies of the dozen masters turned into ashes in an instant.

Ye Gucheng was dumbfounded. The power of the Forbidden Thunder Beast was so powerful that the whole person couldn't help but shrank slightly behind the others.

Ao Tian's face was pale, how did he think that would be the case? Right now, the elite soldiers were slaughtered, and his heartache was extremely painful, after all, these are the laurels of the immortal sea.

"Hurry up and let everyone retreat." Ao Tian said with a cold face.

Ao Yong nodded, and then set his gaze on a senior executive next to him, motioning him to drum and retreat. The man was taken aback for a moment, his body trembled, and there were 10,000 grass horses in his heart. At this time, who is particularly willing to attract George Han's attention, if he wants to run towards him, what should he do? !

"What are you afraid of?" Ao Tian let out a slight anger, and looked at George Han, his whole person horrified: "I hope you will survive the catastrophe by yourself, and you can still jump like this!"

"Receive!"

"Yes!" Ao Yong said softly. Drinking, glaring at him, the hapless executive can only obediently beat the drum to retreat.

With the sound of the drums, Ao Tianji quickly retreated to the rear. Rather than saying that the drums made the disciples retreat, it was actually more like their self-sounding self-retreat.

Because on the battlefield ahead, nearly 100,000 disciples had already been scattered, and the advantage of the number of people had become a living target under the trampling of the Forbidden Thunder Beast.

Wherever George Han went, there was the sound of ghost crying and wolf howling, and the screams were endless. Even if many people ran out, they were terrified because they saw their companions turn into black and gray. There was no fighting spirit in each of them. You can run as far back as you can.

Under the sky, twins in purple light, George Han is like a personal bomb, everyone can't avoid it.

The people led by Ao Tian were originally encircled, but now they were forced to chase down by George Han, which was terrible for a while.

"It's the time, right?" Ao Tian was very depressed, staring at the dark clouds with old eyes, and if he didn't come again, he would almost cross.

At this moment, four strange roars suddenly sounded out of the dark clouds!

Dragon roar, phoenix roar, tiger roar, tortoise chant!

Guards approaching an air pressure has cropped up under the clouds, trees fell off the mountain, riding ..... crack city

"come!"

Chapter 2205

"Four...four gods and beasts, one...one is not bad?" Even though he is knowledgeable, even as one of the few spokespersons in the Bafang world, Ao Tian, he Damn, I haven't seen this kind of formation.

Four gods and beasts, appearing at the same time?

What is this concept? !

Ao Tian searched through his mind, and never thought of when the Bafang World had done such a feat.

Is this still a robbery? This is clearly death.

This is true for Ao Tian, and the others looked at each other even more, each with their mouths wide open, staring at the sky like an idiot, the four heavenly beasts from east to west, north to south.

"Is this a fucking mistake? How could it be like this?"

“The four big beasts are all dispatched, and the entire Octagon world is unheard of.”

“I grew up so old, read so many books, and listened to so many anecdotes. But this formation is unheard of!”

Even though the true god who is as strong as the immortal sea area, when he crossed the catastrophe, he only summoned two. This guy is good, and he came four in one breath.

“Is it right? This guy has really reached the end of the Eight Desolations, right? Only when he has reached that level, is it possible to add thunder on the basis of Sanxian Tribulation, from one or two to four. “As soon as this was said, everyone stopped speaking. Although very unconvinced, this seemed to be the most reasonable explanation.

Ye Gucheng was stunned for a long time. Seeing this, how could he be reconciled, and immediately said: “No matter what, four at a time, George Han will wait to die.”

One is already a nightmare for many robbers, two It's even a super test, and the four... will definitely die.

“I wonder if you are the undercover agent on the opposite side?” George Han looked at the four heavenly beasts, and the whole person couldn't help being abnormal. Every one of the heavenly beasts was extremely powerful, even if it was so far away. As a result, four of them came out directly, how can they play? !

“Fuck, I couldn't think of it.” Xiaobai opened his mouth and looked at the sky, completely blank.

“What's the matter with you? Just forget one or two, and all four have come out?” Xiao Bai looked at George Han and wondered.

“I blame Lao Tzu for what is so special now?” George Han was speechless: “Isn't this what you said is a big game? Dacheng is like this?”

“I don't know you...you are so awesome. “Xiao Bai was full of black lines.

The development of the facts completely exceeded its expectations.

Roar, roar, roar, roar, roar, roar, roar, roar!” Above the mid-air, the Taihuang Dragon Emperor's Palace was in the east, and the yellow and electric white tiger was in the west.

The Suzaku burned by the fire of hell, whispering for nine days in the south, and the earth-shaking basalt in the north, its indestructible appearance makes people feel uncomfortable just by looking.

The four beasts in the sky, let alone whether they are close or not, are just so far apart. Many people with high cultivation levels feel extremely uncomfortable as if Mount Tai is pressing on the top, with sweat on their backs and foreheads.

“Roar!” The

Purple Forbidden Electric Beast sensed the four beasts roaring in the sky, and screamed from the sky. The purple electric beasts were extremely violent.

“Eastern Wild Dragon King, Western Thunder Black Tiger, Southern Burning Suzaku, Northern Earthquake Xuanwu! George Han, George Han, who are you guys?” Somewhere in the mountains, Lu Ruoxin said. The body was hidden, his brows were frowned at this time.

Behind her is the confidant she has cultivated on the top of the Blue Mountain for many years, and it is the elite of her hands.

On her cold and stunning face, there was a rare long-awaited great mood swing, her beautiful eyes were slightly stunned, her lips lightly opened, she was shocked.

In the Tribulation of the Immortals, anyone who can attract the Heavenly Beasts from all directions at the same time, even his grandfather, the true god of the Lu Family, does not have this treatment at all. Even if you look up for thousands of years, the true gods of the Lu Family still have no such record.

The highest record of the Lu Family is the Three Beasts.

But that was already sinking into a history of not knowing how many years, so much so that the Lu family only has such a record in an unusually old family book.

“These guys...four are really strange. Although they are just a small tribulation, I am afraid that there are not many of them in the history of the world.” In a certain heavenly book world, the voices of the two familiar old men appeared again. Up.

“It’s really rare.” Another voice smiled softly: “As I watched longer, I became more and more in love with this stupid boy. I can also understand why that guy bowed his head to me for this boy. .” “ it seems that you and him fight a couple of reincarnation, eventually unified one thing, and that is you will see him as the next ruler. However, he is still tender ah, what day to deal with the Quartet Beast, can he withstand this heaven-defying divine punishment?”

“I have confidence in this kid.” The voice smiled, and then said: “Sometimes, if you want to make rules, you must first learn to challenge them. What do you mean ?” “You are right.”

“Go and help him. Although we shouldn’t get too involved in some things. But the obstacles in front of him are indeed too great.”

“How do you want me to help him?”

“Secretly pour some energy into his dragon heart, this little guy is indeed too tired.”

“Good!”

At this time, George Han slowly stood up.

Chapter 2206

“It was all made by Lao Tzu anyway. Although it was a bit exaggerated, it was fun.” George Han glanced at Xiao Bai with a firm smile.

“Fuck?”

“Of course I do, but even if I die, I still have to hold back this group of people.” George Han finished speaking and glanced at everyone around him.

With his sweep, a group of people could not help trembling.

Just now, when the Forbidden Thunder Beast was introduced, they had already exploded to flee for their lives. If this were to take down the four behemoths in the sky, each with the thunder and pressure, everyone would have to collapse.

“Are you ready?” George Han glanced at Xiao Bai.

Xiaobai nodded: “Although Lao Tzu is a generation of beast kings, he was reincarnated by you this thing, but think about it, he can die under the combined attack of the Sifang Heavenly Beast and the Forbidden Thunder Beast. Another brilliant life.”

“Then fuck him Y.”

As soon as the voice fell, George Han suddenly withdrew, the next second...

“Fuck, this bitch, really came to us.”

“Han. Three thousand, you are really cheap.”

As George Han's figure melted, in the next second, he directly attacked Ao Tian and the others. And almost when he moved, the Four Gods Heaven Beasts and the Forbidden Thunder Beasts also gathered three thousand of Chaohan and removed them. With every step they moved, the four Heavenly Thunders rolled down from the sky, even if they were used on the ground. George Han, who was too imaginary, was too horrible to look at, and staggered.

In addition, there is a Forbidden Thunder Beast on the ground, tumbling over mountains and overwhelming attacks.

boom!!!

Without running a few steps, George Han was blown to the ground. Even with the protection of the indestructible profound armor and the golden body, his body was still covered in pitch black by the sky thunder, and his flesh and blood opened.

But George Han gritted his teeth and rushed towards Ao Tian and others. It was blown up again, up again, down again, up again...

Repeatedly, persevering.

Seeing him come oncoming, many of Ao Tian and his group are angry and anxious. Just with the thunder and lightning of this thunder and all the lightning, I am afraid that anyone will be dissipated when the lightning strikes anyone.

Suddenly, the verbal abuse was endless, and one after another condemned George Han as a dog thief. But when George Han got closer, they panicked.

"Fuck you." Seeing George Han getting closer, Ao Tian blew his beard and stared angrily.

But the next second, he no longer cared about any image, turned around and ran away.

The facade of the dignified immortal sea area suddenly fled at this moment, so there is no face!

However, Ao Tian had no choice.

When he ran, Wang Slowzhi and the others were obviously stunned. They didn't expect this to be the case at all. When it was reflected, these leading brothers also ran away desperately.

The big guys ran away, and the little soldiers naturally lost their helmets and armor one by one, and even the flags of the three families were thrown away. In this kind of escape, everything is a burden.

As for dignity, who cares so much?

However, even so, George Han rushed over with the attitude of being constantly blown up.

Although the three-way coalition forces are superior in number, they are completely inferior at this time. You push and squeeze each other. Before the three thousand Han people came, they trampled on each other and hurt each other. Headed by Ao Tian and others, they are both high cultivation bases and management, and they can run well. Others with low cultivation bases may be able to run, but because there are too many people, it is difficult to escape, so George Han catches up. .

boom! ! !

boom! ! !

boom! !

With four heavenly thunders and purple lightning, every place George Han passed was a piece of scorched earth. The coalition's disciples died and wounded countless, and they turned to ashes, screaming continuously for a while, like a purgatory on earth.

Ao Tian fled back to safety, and when Wang Chuanzhi and Futian looked at his troops, they all beat their chests and feet. Countless elite soldiers, all turned into ashes under the thunder.

The army of nearly 100,000 people, now looking around, is still sparse, I am afraid it is only 20,000 people.

These are all the elites of each family. When they die, they are injured at the root of each family.

I thought I wanted to rely on these elite soldiers to besiege George Han, so that he could not escape. Today, George Han's undeath may be an upcoming result, but their people have died miserably.

Stealing chickens is nothing wrong, but they describe themselves.

Futian is the most damn wordless one, and the siege of George Han was not planned by him. However, in order to kill George Han, and to show off his current strength in front of the Immortal Sea and the Medicine God Pavilion, most of the people he brought were elite soldiers when he came out this time, and there were still a lot of them.

When the cold came to my heart, most of the family was almost lost, heartbroken, and extremely regretful.

If I had known this before, wouldn't it be right to bring a 10,000 junk soldiers out?

"Three thousand, it's almost. They have suffered enough deaths and injuries, and we have enough of our own. Now we have to deal with the catastrophe by ourselves, otherwise, the more you continue to go, the more the energy of the catastrophe will be stronger, and we will really have it by then. Dead and no life.” Xiaobai said after taking a glance at the sky.

“I never thought about living.” George Han grinned in pain, unable to save Amelia Su, there is no difference between life and death.

“Even if you don’t want to live, but the robbery is getting stronger and stronger now, what can you do except resist?” Xiaobai said.

George Han raised his eyes and looked at him. On the day of the Four Beasts, Thunder Beast was behind, and he was already battered!
