

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2231 - 2234

Chapter 2231

The golden light on the two of them was shining, and the light turned around, like the golden boy and the jade girl in the sky, and the god of war and the princess in the palace.

“One day of study and two days of practice. For others, this time is not even enough to stuff your teeth, but for you two, I believe that although it is not enough to talk about, it is at least enough, right?” The sweeping old man smiled softly.

Lu Ruoxin glanced at George Han lightly, and then slightly politely said: “Thank you seniors for coaching, Ruoxin still lives up to the expectations of seniors, she is slightly successful.”

After speaking, Lu Ruoxin’s eyes fell back again. Although George Han’s eyes were cold, he obviously had a hint of expectation.

George Han glanced at Lu Ruoxin disdainfully, and snorted: “Senior, George Han is not talented. Although the people who taught me are average, but the learning is fairly good, and he is so much better than the person who just spoke. Lost.”

After finishing speaking, George Han sneered and looked at Lu Ruoxin, showing no signs of defiance, full of provocation.

Lu Ruoxin was slightly anxious. She had lowered her posture many times, but George Han was full of hostility against herself again and again, which made her arrogance seem to have been violated.

However, when anger turns into anger, Lu Ruoxin’s high IQ and EQ can’t be irritated because of this. The key is that she can’t bear it now.

“It’s useless to say it!” The old sweeper chuckled softly, and then took out a book from his arms: “Do you know what this is?”

George Han and Lu Ruoxin looked at the same time, and saw the old sweeper’s hand holding it. I have a very old sheepskin book, with dust and old glued together on it, making this book look like a pile of sand.

“Millions of years ago, the immortals and demons fought, the world was overwhelmed, and the people were displaced. However, in the Far East Continent of the Bafang World, it was like a Taoyuan, free from war. The fundamental reason is that it is more important than the remote place where it is located. The thing is, there was still a top-level great god Tao Shou who lived on the Far East Continent at that time.”

“Venerable Tao Shou, although not the three true gods at the time, but his strength is said to be far stronger than the true god.” The Eight Desolation Book of Heaven also echoed.

“There are people stronger than true gods in this world?” Lu Ruoxin frowned, seemingly unbelievable. After all, the true god is the ceiling of the Bafang World, which is common sense.

“There are so many hidden dragons and crouching tigers in this world. Some people who are not in the world are willing to go out of the mountains to make a name, and some are willing to go back to the countryside and seek the way of heaven. Everyone has different ambitions, but it does not mean that they do not exist.” The sweeping old man laughed: “You need to know someone outside of the world. , There are mountains beyond the mountains, and there is no absolute strong in any realm.”

“Although Venerable Tao Shou cultivates a unique spell, which is very different from the Central Plains of our eight directions world, it is said that he has reached the realm of true gods. He is extremely low-key, not to mention walking out of the Far East for his whole life, even the Xianshou Island where he is located has not gone too far. However, it is precisely because of the low-key and strength of this Venerable that brought the Far East to the land. Guard and tranquility.” The sweeping old man said softly.

“Then this book...” George Han frowned.

“I said that there are only two things in this world that you can’t look directly at. One is the sun in the sky, and the other is the human heart. Although the Far East was free from being invaded by demons millions of years ago, with Tao Shouzun With the fall of the emperor, the Far East quickly ushered in the coveted Central Plains region.”

“At that time, the Central Plains Continent was united by everyone and with the help of masters from other continents or state islands, such as Venerable Xiantao, cleared out demons. Renewed vitality. However, thousands of years later, the Central Plains Continent returned to its former prosperity, and the Far East Continent declined after the fall of Venerable Tao Shou. However, the Central Plains Continent did not go the same way that Venerable Xian Tao helped them. To help the Far East, on the contrary, it raised the scythe of massacre.” At this point, the old man sweeps the floor with a trace of sadness in his eyes, and the whole person seems to be caught in an extremely painful memory.

“Venerable Tao Shou’s stunning stunts demonstrated in the Battle of the Devil, the people of the Central Plains were admired and coveted for this kind of marvelous work. Therefore, the Central Plains people launched an attack on the Far East. That battle was long and tragic. The Far East was originally a huge map plate, and it was only a sea away from the Central Plains. However, in the hundreds of years of attack, it was annihilated and perished, and finally three-quarters of the area was destroyed. Since then, he has sunk in the sea...”

George Han frowned, his human nature is evil, but before the critical juncture, many people did not show their fangs. But when it comes to their own interests, their evil manifestations will be extremely ugly.

Isn't the encounter in the Far East a copy of the Pangu clan? !

Mr. Dongguo's matter is nothing compared to human beings' favors and revenges.

"The book in my hand is exactly the first 13 chapters written by Venerable Tao Shou's life's painstaking efforts. It contains detailed records of Venerable Tao Shou's unique skills in his life, including two ancient unique skills, three unique tricks, and eight unique tricks. There is a legendary technique in the east of the door." As soon as the voice fell, the old sweeping man placed his gaze on the book, his eyes slowly becoming sad.

But in the next second, he swept away the haze and looked at George Han and Lu Ruoxin: "This book is of great help to any cultivator. However, I can only teach it to one of you. And the way I choose is very simple, each of you has learned a new exercise, and after two days of practicing, now, whoever wins, I will give this exercise." As soon as the voice fell, the two of them were suddenly surprised. Want to send out this exercise?

George Han was not the one who saw the eye open, but he really couldn't understand, what does the old sweeping man mean by taking this thing out as a gift? If by any chance he loses, what will Lu Ruoxin get this book? !

He wants to unify the world in the future, but he has to leave fuel for other true god descendants. What kind of medicine does his old man sell in the gourd? !

"But I also said that the ugly words are at the forefront. Those who lose will receive harsh punishment. Now, you can start."

After that, the sweeping old man gave in slightly and gave space for the two people to compare easily.

Lu Ruoxin's face is frosty, and her beautiful eyes are full of coldness. Appreciating George Han does not mean that she will be profitable. What's more, this profit is still the masterpiece of Venerable Tao Shou's life.

The energy in her hand gathered slightly, and Cangsheng and Yongxiang suddenly appeared in her hands, and the whole person made a ready-to-attack posture, looked at George Han, and said coldly: "The first 13 chapters must be What's in my bag. But, for this result, did you stand and accept it while lying down?"

George Han frowned, suddenly feeling funny: "You are so confident?"

Chapter 2232

As soon as the voice fell, before George Han could respond, Lu Ruoxin had already killed him directly.

Between the hands, the left hand goes forever, the right hand is for the common people, the green light and the white mang are turned into two energy streams, and Lu Ruoxin crashed!

George Han bit his teeth: “Playing these in front of me? Do you think I didn’t?”

His figure retreated, and the two-handed sky fire moon wheel crashed out, and the fiery red and purple light immediately went straight to Lu Ruoxin like a fire dragon and an electric tiger.

“Hmph, before, I was really taboo against this trick, but now, do you think I would care?” Lu Ruoxin snorted, the energy in his hand suddenly strengthened.

The green light and the blank time suddenly increased countless times, directly wrapping the sky fire and the moon wheel.

Zi... There was a loud noise, the four energies split into two, entangled with each other, confused with each other, and bitten each other.

The sky fire is like a fire dragon, extremely fierce, but it will always be like a green vine, enveloping the sky fire, no matter how fierce the sky fire is, it will always be like water, strong if you are strong, weak if you are weak, and contain all things without being surprised.

On the other end, the moon wheel is turbulent with purple electricity, and the common people are bound to appear white. The two sides are like two giant snakes biting each other.

“In just two days, this woman can train common people and eternal life to such a realm, and her ability is really amazing.” The Bahuang Tianshu couldn’t help but sigh when he saw that the two sides were evenly matched.

The sweeping old man smiled slightly: “If she doesn’t have such a skill, how can I make this deal with him?”

Bahuang Tianshu nodded, stopped making a sound, and watched the dragon and phoenix fight quietly!

“George Han, it seems that you haven’t studied the things that seniors have taught you seriously. Or, although your talents are smart, you are a little worse than me.” Lu Ruoxin smiled softly, holding hands. Suddenly hard.

“Boom!” The

green light and Baimang suddenly increased, and with a loud noise, the Skyfire Moon Wheel was swallowed...

“Bang!”

Two energies hit George Han's chest directly, and George Han also reacted extremely quickly. , Both hands sacrificed the Pangu axe and slashed in the air. With one axe, it barely resisted the two energies, but the strong rebounding force still shook George Han's feet several dozen meters away. Relying on the energizing energy, Reluctantly stabilize his figure.

Although George Han only condensed his eyebrows, his heart was already shocked.

In just two days, Lu Ruoxin was able to train the common people and eternal life to such a strong level. If it takes time, would it be worth it? At that time, she might be enough to suffer from her life and eternal destiny alone.

But his own Skyfire Moon Wheel has been practiced for so many times, but it is only like this. It is obviously a lie to say that there is no sense of frustration.

But who is George Han? No matter how strong the enemy is, he will never bow his head and admit defeat.

“Give it to me!”

Angrily shouted, followed by a sudden muffled sound, George Han's figure, transformed into two, transformed into four, like four gods and Buddhas, each holding a golden Pangu axe, majestic and majestic.

Seeing the four phantoms with almost no difference, Lu Ruoxin, who was about to attack, couldn't help but retract slightly. Between his eyebrows, he was shocked and amused: “George Han, you are not bad, two days, you actually practiced me. The Beiming Four Soul Formation, which has been playing for almost ten years, has played so well.”

“However, don't be happy too early. As I said, I have practiced for ten years, and you, only two days.” Lu Ruoxin's mouth corners. Hooked up a sneer.

With her own skill, she naturally knows the strengths and weaknesses of this move, and even more understands that although this move is in the top four, George Han is not good at learning and has many flaws.

Without thinking too much, Lu Ruoxin directly attacked George Han.

“Really? Although I learned from you, how can your Xuanyuan sword learn my Pangu axe?”

As soon as the voice fell, the four George Han slashed with their axes from all sides.

However, Lu Ruoxin's figure did not dodge at all. He stepped on his feet and turned into thousands of forms, just like the battle at the top of Qishan, but at this time the two had an offensive and defensive exchange.

Almost at the moment when George Hansi chopped down all of them, Lu Ruoxin's figure suddenly scattered from all directions.

"Want to run? Do you want to use my trick of delaying you to deal with me?" George Han cracked a smile.

At the beginning, Lu Ruoxin couldn't afford to consume it, but George Han was different. He consumed it!

With a reversal, the four figures ran directly towards Lu Ruoxin's body.

At the same time, the giant axe in his hand is one for two, two for four, four for one hundred, one million and one thousand.

"You have the Xuanyuan sword formation, don't I have the Pangu axe formation?" With a big wave of his hand, the ten thousand axe pierced the sky above the sky! !

"You guy!" Lu Ruoxin's figure withdrew slightly. She really wanted to use George Han's rogue tricks to drag George Han, but George Han directly deployed Xuanyuan sword formation to block her way.

"You are really difficult!" Lu Ruoxin cursed, and did not run away, turned around, and offered Xuanyuan sword in his hand: "Do you really think that the church apprentice will starve Master to death? Sorry, that is because Master is too stupid to stay. The second hand, and me, are different." As soon as the voice fell, Lu Ruoxin suddenly stood Xuanyuan sword, ten thousand swords like rain.

Chapter 2233

Boom boom boom!

The sword rain and the axe rain intersect in an instant, like the rain of meteors, intertwined with each other, or explode in the air, or annihilate each other, or both cancel each other out. For a time, half of the world is rendered by tight colors and explosions.

Both beautiful and dreamy.

“You even taught Miss Lu the Taixu Shenbu, so you really have no reservations?” Bahuang Tianshu laughed.

“Do I still lie to a little girl when I am so old?” The sweeping old man whispered.

“Since George Han and Miss Lu both have your true pass, and Ms. Lu has the thoroughbred Beiming Four Soul Formation and Xuanyuan Sword Formation, it seems that George Han has lost.”

“What about losing, so what about winning? Some things may not be the best to win, I just want him to lose.” The sweeping old man smiled slightly.

In the field, Wan Jian faced Wan Axe, and Lu Ruoxin was also at this time, in the form of four people, directly facing the four figures of George Han.

Xuanyuan vs. Pangu!

The sky fell to the ground!

You come and I go between the two sides, and there were explosions all around for a while, the situation changed, and the whole world changed. ]

“I have an idea, how about calling it sleepy fairy valley here?” The old sweeper smiled lightly, stood up, and looked at the two people in mid-air.

The victory is divided!

The four figures of George Han are still there, but the four figures of Lu Ruoxin are already blurred.

“This kid...” The Bahuang Tianshu was taken aback for a while, stood up, and unexpectedly looked at the battle in the air, which was not the same as expected.

The sweeping old man smiled bitterly: “At this meeting, this girl is still not willing to use unconventional means to break George Han’s Beiming Four Soul Formation. Although George Han is not good enough in academic skills, he is better than this kid with huge energy and body. Abnormal, the other three shadows are naturally not weak, Lu Ruoxin wants to win, he must use a killer move.”

“She knows the Beiming Four Soul Formation too much. She naturally knows the flaws, but she hasn’t used it all the time. Isn’t this little girl too self-confident?” Bahuang Tianshu smiled bitterly.

“She is not self-confident, but the scheming and the city are too deep. She is afraid that George Han will take it back and break her Beiming Four Soul Formation in the future, so she will not use it until now.” The sweeping old man smiled bitterly.

“I have to help her.” After the Bahuang Tianshu finished speaking, with a slight movement in his hand, a completely invisible transparent energy hit George Han directly.

George Han over there focused all of his attention on Lu Ruoxin on the opposite side, and didn't even notice the sneak attack.

The transparent energy instantly hit George Han's body, and the three figures were also empty at the same time.

“I will win!” Lu Ruoxin let out a low voice, how could she let go of such an excellent opportunity?

With a move of Xuanyuan Sword in his hand, the other hand directly bit his middle finger and wiped it on Xuanyuan Sword: “With my blood, break the other way, open!”

Xuanyuan Sword's golden light suddenly flourished, and Lu Ruoxin also held Xuanyuan Sword at the same time. , Suddenly attacked himself!

George Han frowned suddenly, because the place Lu Ruoxin was attacking was not elsewhere, but himself!

Without thinking about it, George Han's four figures immediately transformed into each other, but as soon as he changed positions, Lu Ruoxin suddenly turned his sword head and attacked directly.

George Han changed again, Lu Ruoxin chased again!

“These eight women...how do they know where I really am from time to time?” George Han was shocked, but in his eyes he stared at Lu Ruoxin with a torch.

She taught herself this thing, she must have some way to crack it, as long as she learns it, next time she uses it, she can deal with her in the same way!

George Han suddenly understood the purpose of sweeping the old man...

“I understand!” George Han was surprised to find that the Xuanyuan sword that had been opened by blood, Lu Ruoxin didn't look at himself every time he changed his position. Instead, he looked at himself through the refracted shadow of the sword.

He also suddenly remembered what the Taoist priest had said to himself. Although human eyes are strong, it is always made of flesh. It will deceive people.

“Broken!” With

a loud shout, Lu Ruoxin suddenly fell from the sky with the Xuanyuan sword. Although George Han used a Pangu axe to resist, he was surprised to find that the place he was attacked just now was extremely painful and difficult to move. The next second, Lu Ruoxin Already kicked in the air on George Han's chest.

George Han fell heavily in midair and hit the ground, struggling to get up, but Lu Ruoxin's Xuanyuan sword was already lying on George Han's neck.

"I said, the first 13 chapters, I will definitely get it." Lu Ruoxin said with a slight complacency in his eyes.

George Han desperately wanted to refute. Even if Lu Ruoxin broke his Beiming Four Soul Formation just now, it didn't mean he would lose. If he hadn't been attacked, how could he lose to this woman.

"It seems that the winner has already been divided, Miss Lu, this is what you deserve." The old sweeper walked over at this time, and when he moved his hand, the ancient book flew in front of Lu Ruoxin. Lu Ruoxin was not welcome, and backhanded. The book was taken back into his own hands.

"Three thousand, you lost." The sweeping old man smiled: "According to what I just said, you have to be punished. Do you know, what is this place?"

Chapter 2234

George Han didn't know and shook his head.

"This is a sleepy fairy valley." The sweeping old man laughed softly.

"Troubled Immortal Valley?" Lu Ruoxin frowned and said in a strange voice.

"Exactly."

"Eight hundred miles of mountains and rivers, eight hundred miles of water mountains, like a fairyland, but also like purgatory, it is the so-called sleepy fairy valley. Senior, then...there is the sleepy dragon mountain nearby?" Lu Ruoxin asked.

The sweeping old man nodded slightly. Seeing George Han puzzled, Lu Ruoxin explained: "The legendary dragon mountain is trapped by a magic dragon, so there is scorched earth within thousands of miles, and there is no birth of an inch. Legend has it that a fairy came here ten thousand years ago. Seeing that the common people were born here, I felt compassion, so I followed Pangu, transformed the earth with my body, and transformed the stream with blood, to achieve this paradise of eight hundred miles."

"However, although this paradise exists, it cannot be used for survival. The surrounding area is surrounded by hot soil. If it rains, there will be rain falling, and miasma will rise on the hot ground, and these miasma are caused by the blood of the dragon, and ordinary people will die if they hear it, so even the fairy This is in person, but there is no way to change the shadow of death in the Dragon Mountain. From the perspective of the terrain, this place is more like a lonely land trapped in the Dragon Mountain. Therefore, some people regard it as trapped. Immortal, this place is called Sleepy Immortal Valley.”

George Han suddenly realized that there is such a story here.

“If you want to change this situation, you must eradicate the magic dragon in the Dragon Mountain. Three thousand, you cultivated here, we will help you build your soul and refine your body, leading to the sun and the moon, and the magic dragon is not suppressed by the sun and the moon. , Is already ready to move, our punishment is to eradicate the dragon, restore peace, save the common people, and release the trapped immortal valley.”

“From a moral perspective, you should also return it. If it weren't for its special geographic location, you The sun and the moon and the lack of light caused by the soul refining made the world think that it was an abnormal change in the Dragon Mountain. How can we have time for you to regain a new life.” The sweeping old man laughed.

“The cause and effect are you, you have to do it.” Bahuang Tianshu smiled slightly, and then looked at Lu Ruoxin: “By the way, Miss Lu, you have to go with George Han.”

“I want to go too?” Lu Ruoxin frowned slightly.

She has also heard the legend of the Dragon Mountain. The magic dragon that lives inside is the strongest, and no one wants to touch this mold for many years.

“Yes. But you are not the same as George Han. George Han's responsibility is not only to help the trapped Immortal Valley, but also to help you. You know, the shackles used to suppress the dragon are transformed by the arms of the true god?” the old sweeper asked Tao.

Lu Ruoxin nodded: “I know.”

“The common people and eternal life need the strength of your arm to support them in the later stage. That is the best supplement for the shackles to you. Moreover, although you have the Xuanyuan sword, but Compared with the Pan Gu Axe, it is always worse. Isn't it better to have something to make up for the gap?” The sweeping old man laughed softly.

Hearing this, Lu Ruoxin's face was overjoyed, and the whole person was overjoyed: “Thank you, senior.”

“You don't have to be polite, go back to the house and prepare. You can leave tomorrow morning.”

“Yes.” Lu Ruoxin pursed his lips and looked at him . George Han on the side, seeing George Han's depressed appearance, was even more happy to step back to the back room with small steps.

As soon as Lu Ruoxin left, George Han wanted to deflate the ball, and he was very depressed.

“Why? Don’t you want to go?” Seeing the depressed George Han, the old sweeper chuckled softly.

“Yes.” George Han was noncommittal: “I promised you to cultivate for three days. After three days I will go out to find Amelia Su and Nian’er, but you let me deal with some magic dragon.”

“As long as you listen to me, I can promise , Not only are Amelia Su and Han Nian safe, but your group of friends will also be safe.” The sweeping old man said slightly.

Hearing this, George Han’s eyes were suddenly shocked, and the whole person became very vigilant. What did the old sweeping man mean by saying these words?

Is it possible?

“You won’t tell me that Amelia Su and Han Nian are tied up, it has nothing to do with you?” At this point, George Han’s tone was already full of coldness.

Even if he has a high respect for the old sweeper, he is also extremely grateful, but if anyone dares to touch George Han’s minefield-Amelia Su and Han Nian, George Han will definitely not be polite.

Even if you are kind, how about killing you, and then committing suicide?

I can’t touch my wife and daughter!

Seeing the killing intent in George Han’s eyes, even the sweeping old man couldn’t help but feel a little cold at this time. In his eyes, George Han was more like a child, but at this time, it was like a demon coming out of hell.

“This matter has nothing to do with him, he... just knows some secrets.” Bahuang Tianshu also saw that George Han’s mood was not right, and explained in a hurry.

The sweeping old man also nodded quickly, and George Han’s brows were reduced for a moment before he let go of the anger in his heart.

The sweeping old man

let out a long breath, pretending to be calm, and said: “Now, are you willing to go?” “If this can make Amelia Su and Han Nian safe, I will naturally not think about it.” George Han Resolutely said.

In common sense, first, George Han is a person who is willing to bet to lose. Although he suspects that he was attacked by someone else, it is likely that he was from a sweeping old man, but in any case, it does not matter if he loses or he accepts punishment. The second is that the sun and the moon are dull because of his own body refining, so if the magic dragon is purely eager to move, he is of course duty-bound.

“Okay, you can go if you want to. Remember, after slaying the dragon this time, the pair of shackles must be given to Lu Ruoxin. As for you...” The sweeping old man hesitated, as if thinking about something.

George Han nodded.

“Although you have survived the Tribulation of Immortality, but your body is still very weak, we help you build your soul and body, but there is one thing that can’t help you solve it.” After finishing speaking, the sweeping old man looked at George Han faintly: “This may require you to do it yourself.”

“How to do it?”

“The blood of the dragon is very insidious, penetrates the ground, and can also contaminate the ground. The scorched earth that traps the dragon mountain for thousands of miles is the best evidence. If you want to fully restore the peak, the blood in your body will inevitably be restored.” Bahuang Tianshu said.

“The blood in your body is fused with divine blood and strange poison. It is very special. The two of us can’t help you. If you want it to recover, the blood of the magic dragon is the most suitable. It not only possesses the extremely strong energy of the magic dragon. It is also very toxic, which may be the best supplement for you. However, this is also dangerous, because the dragon is too powerful, if it is so bad that it will backlash, there may be some bad reactions, but you must try.” Frowned.

George Han nodded and said: “I see.”

“Okay, nothing else, you rest, and you will leave early tomorrow morning.” After the sweeping old man finished speaking, George Han had already returned to his house to rest. I didn’t notice the worry on the face of the sweeping old man...
