

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2239 - 2242

Chapter 2239

Almost all the green areas in the outermost layer of the sleepy fairy valley are occupied by various tents and various temporary palaces. Looking at it, a large area of Wuyangyang is full of people.

Judging from the scene, there were hundreds of thousands of people present, and the momentum was not small.

The green ground is divided into several camps, one is the Lu family camp dominated by the top of the Blue Mountain, and the other is the alliance camp dominated by the Medicine God Pavilion and the immortal sea area. The three camps occupy almost the entire outer layer of the trapped fairy valley. The most central.

On both sides of them, there are countless scattered people gathering places.

Almost the same as before, many people are still forming cliques. Within this world law where the weak eat the strong, the only way out for the weak is to report to the group. Otherwise, it's just the fish of others.

boom! ! !

At this moment, a loud noise suddenly came from the distant Dragon Mountain, followed by the earth trembling slightly, and above the mid-air, the black cloud cloud rushed hurriedly, with strange phenomena.

In the huge camp of Kuxiangu, no one rushed out of the tent at this time, looking at Kulong Mountain from a distance.

boom!

There was another muffled noise.

The huge Dragon Mountain suddenly swelled outwards, propping up countless cracks in the rock of the mountain, and through these cracks, you can clearly see the dazzling red light inside!

Young Master , it seems that the Devil Dragon is about to awaken.” Outside the big camp in the Immortal Sea, the captain of the guard, Lu Yongsheng, standing next to Lu Ruoxuan, the young master of the Lu Family, said softly.

Lu Ruoxuan took the white fan in his hand, gently closed it, and looked towards the immortal sea.

“My son, the old dog Aotian in the immortal sea has now openly walked with Yaoshen Pavilion. We have to be more careful in this action. After all, George Han was besieged to death by them.” Lu Yongsheng reminded.

Lu Ruoxuan’s face suddenly became cold: “You mean, I’m not as good as George Han?”

“The subordinates don’t mean this. The subordinates are just worried about the son’s safety. Please forgive him.” Lu Yongsheng paled in shock and knelt on the ground.

“Worry for evil! However, no matter how strong the wolf and the evil, they will be eaten by the tiger, and I will eat their tiger. Tell the camps, get ready, go!” Lu Ruoxuan said coldly.

“Yes!”

As Lu Yongsheng stepped back, just a moment later, the horn that belonged to the top of the Blue Mountain blew directly.

With the loud sound of the horn, Lu Ruoxuan took the lead with a fan and flew directly to the distant Dragon Mountain.

“Kill!”

Lu Yongsheng yelled, ten thousand elites, marching in unison!

As the top of the Blue Mountains marched, Ao Jin and Ao Yi, the two princes of the Immortal Sea, couldn’t conceal their urgency. With a wave of a big hand, they led the troops and rushed directly.

The two big families took the lead, followed by affiliated forces, rushing to the Dragon Mountain in mighty force.

Wherever he went, dust and smoke were everywhere!

“Lord, I have messenger?”

“Slow” slow the first time the king of big hands stretched, preventing men, mouth tick trace of evil smile, lightly: “!? What a hurry.”

“But Lord, eternal life and the sea The top of the Blue Mountain has already set off...”

“Young people are impatient, and they are naturally impulsive. They like to be popular, so let them go out. You need to know that the mantis catches the cicadas and the oriole is behind! Inform the troops, stand by. My order, no one is allowed to move.”

“Yes!”

Ye Gucheng frowned and smiled coldly. Wang Shuzhi, the old fox, is indeed an old river and lake, knowing that rushing over in advance is very likely to be affected by the magic dragon in its heyday. The attack and the attack of the personnel who rushed to it later, so suppressed the dispatch of troops, let the immortal sea and the top of the blue mountain fight to the death and death, he may still be able to take advantage of the fisherman's profit!

Looking around, the scattered camps have also been standing still. These old rivers and lakes are no different from Wang Yanzhi, all of them are old fried dough sticks. How can they throw eagles without the rabbits?

Seeing that Ye Gucheng had no worries on his face, Gu You nodded in satisfaction, and he was not stupid.

Above the front, in the middle area between Kulong Mountain and Kuxian Valley, the two parties chase me, wishing to rush to the surrounding area of Kulong Mountain first. To them, it seems that whoever comes first will win.

Approaching the foot of the mountain, Lu Ruoxuan suddenly nodded at Lu Yongsheng, and the large troops blasted and withdrew. Only the two brothers in the immortal waters took the lead.

“These two silly sons of the Immortal Sea.” Lu Ruoxuan smiled disdainfully, looking at the person in the Immortal Sea of Yiqi Juechen: “The family of the Immortal Sea will be defeated by these two prodigal sons sooner or later.” Lu Yongsheng also smiled: “They are so rushing to die, do they really think this magic dragon in Longshan Mountain is so easy to deal with?”

“Wang Yanzhi, the old thing, haven't you set off yet? Hmph, want to take my food, he's nothing. ?! ordered the troops to slow down the speed, such as “! “ the distance, the king suddenly slow smile, slow down to see the top of the blue mountains, he commanded it down:.” let's go forces'

“Karen “Lord...”

“Lu Ruoxuan has a brain. It's interesting to put me in the army at this time.” Wang Yanzhi smiled: “If you don't go anymore, Ao Tian should settle the account with us.”

“Open!”

“Woo!!! “

The horn of Yaoshen Pavilion has also been blown, and at this time George Han and Lu Ruoxin are also rushing here!

Chapter 2240

“Afraid?” George Han pursed his lips: “There is no word fear in George Han’s dictionary. Besides, for my friend and wife, let alone the magic dragon, even It is the true god of the Lu family, and I will pull him down.”

George Han’s words shocked Lu Ruoxin. If someone else said something like this in front of her, she would have slapped him over. Because obviously, the other party is bragging.

But George Han was different. Although Lu Ruoxin didn’t know where he was emboldened, but he didn’t know why, there was no room for any rebuttal in his tone, and he even convinced Lu Ruoxin that he could do it.

“Are you threatening me?” Lu Ruoxin said coldly.

“Perhaps, maybe, is it the truth?” George Han was not afraid of Lu Ruoxin at all, and said calmly: “It doesn’t matter how you understand it.”

“You are crazy.” Lu Ruoxin’s eyes narrowed, cold and evil, but down For a second, she smiled slightly: “However, people are not frivolous, George Han, I just like you. Help me heal, one last time, and then we should go to this magic dragon for a while.”

“Yes. ! “

“? do you adhere to live it helped me heal twice, yesterday you and I contest! “

Han three thousand suddenly smile:.” worry about yourself. “

After saying that, Han three thousand direct volley grabbed land if the core of Arm, a beam of extremely strong energy was input into Lu Ruoxin’s hand along the arm.

“Kill!”

Boom! !

boom! !

At this time, the fighting in the Dragon Mountain had become fierce.

Hundreds of thousands of people stood scattered, dodged, and constantly launched various attacks on the magic dragon.

The magic dragon was sneak attacked by people from all directions. Looking around, there were densely packed people, as if stepping into an ant nest. Unfortunately, this group of ants can bite people.

This made the dragon very angry.

Ants do not bite very painfully, but if you bite too much, it hurts too.

The devil dragon roared with anger, and the red light on his body spread out one after another, and sometimes roared, and the dragon's breath gushed out, killing the people outside.

You come and I go between the two sides, killing the earth and the earth, the sun and the moon are dull.

From dawn, all the way to the evening.

From evening to late night.

It wasn't until hundreds of thousands of people were tired and the magic dragon was cut down, that Liming Shifen was able to sit around and rest temporarily, on top of his shift. In the tired scattered camp, no one noticed, and I don't know when there was an extra man and a woman.

Although the magic dragon was still under attack, the attacks in shifts made it at least much better.

Just after dawn the next day, hundreds of thousands of people again launched a joint offensive, and once again, it was dark again.

"The Devil Dragon is exhausted, everyone work harder. Tonight, we will want the Devil Dragon to disappear and eliminate a disaster for the world!" Lu Ruoxuan shouted.

Everyone raised their arms and shouted!

"Order to go down and let our people keep some strength. When the dragon is exhausted and weak, we will work together to enter the red circle and snatch the shackles of the gods. Remember, we must move fast to avoid long nights and dreams." Lu Ruoxuan low The voice commanded the human beings.

"Yes."

"Also, look for some death squads to stand in front of us when the time comes. God's Yoke and Devil Dragon are already one, suppress each other, take away the God's Yoke, and the Devil Dragon will die. Therefore, even the tired and weak devil Long, once we get in and demand his life, he will definitely resist, so..."

The Patriarch has made arrangements to send one hundred and eight dead soldiers from the Lu Family.” “That’s great!” Lu Ruoxuan nodded with satisfaction. .

“The Devil Dragon is already very weak, everyone works harder and sends out your strongest blow.” From a distance, Wang Suzhi shouted loudly.

“Kill!”

“Kill the dragon and walk the way for the sky!”

Everyone responded, their eyes were full of seriousness, but everyone was tacit understanding, who cares about the dead dragon, who cares, is tied to the dragon. The shackles of the gods.

As for killing the devil dragon, leave it to others to do it. Wouldn’t it be better to leave some strength to snatch the shackles of the gods? !

In this state of mind, another wave of attacks directed towards the dragon.

It’s just that behind the seemingly powerful, everyone has a ghost in their hearts!

Fuck away the dream, all we care about is baby!

boom!

But ants are also meat. Hundreds of thousands of attacks are like the last grass that crushes the dragon that is already covered with scars. With the explosion of these ten thousand methods, the arrogance and dominance of the dragon disappeared. There was a sudden explosion!

Everything is peaceful.

The longan, the size of a football field, is also closed slightly.

Seeing this, everyone in their hearts was ecstatic, regardless of their three-seven-two-ones, they were directly lucky and rushed towards the dragon.

At this time, regardless of his etiquette and morality, everyone has only one idea, and that is to rush to the magic dragon as quickly as possible to snatch the shackles of the gods.

But at this moment, the earth trembles violently, and the sky is completely covered by black clouds. A kind of black that can’t see your fingers envelops the world in an instant.

“What’s the matter?” Someone asked strangely.

“Roar!!!”

Suddenly, in the darkness, a pair of blood-red eyes lit up in the darkness!

Chapter 2241

“What is that?” Someone shouted in horror in the dark.

“Such big eyes, isn’t it...it’s that?”

“Oh, it’s the magic dragon!” I don’t know who roared fiercely. In the darkness, the crowd suddenly panicked, and many people seemed to be nothing. The head turned around like a fly, and some people even drew their knives and hacked them. For a while, many people around were accidentally injured, and the scene was completely messed up.

What made them feel even more terrifying was that in the darkness, there was a low-pitched breathing sounded in their ears.

That is by no means human breath...

It is like a seductive messenger from hell, whispering softly in front of everyone’s ears, and like a god of death, speaking softly to them, pronouncing their final death sentence.

“I can’t stand it, I can’t stand it, so depressed, so depressed, I feel like I’m going to die.” Someone pulled his numb scalp like crazy, looked around in horror, shouting hysterically.

The low pressure of the air, the endless darkness, and the devil who seemed to be by his side at any time gasped for breath, causing some people with poor psychological endurance to collapse naturally.

At the top of the Blue Mountain, the Immortal Sea, the Medicine God Pavilion, and other big camps, at this time each guarded their masters in the center, and then carefully pulled them to the surrounding sides, for fear that something would suddenly appear in these boundless darkness.

“My son, how could this be?” Lu Yongsheng frowned.

Obviously, he was completely at a loss for what to do when this happened suddenly.

“I don’t know, tell all the brothers to give up their spirits and pay attention to any movement.” Lu Ruoxuan said in a cold voice, the current situation has completely exceeded his expectations.

Why did the dying dragon suddenly become like this?

Is it possible that it is back to light? !

“Roar!”

Suddenly, at this moment, a dragon roar that almost penetrated the eardrums suddenly exploded in everyone’s ears. The sound broke through the void, and the dark night sky was directly torn apart.

A huge sea of flames also followed. !

boom! ! !

The sea of flames came all over the sky, and almost burned the entire night before!

crowd suddenly screamed in unison, and thousands of people died directly under the sea of fire. The people on the outside, the naked eye can see that the waves of fire hit them!

“All be careful, resist!” Wang Slowly yelled, offering his own energy in his hand, and with the help of the force of the gods, he suddenly resisted.

Other people followed suit at this time.

“Bang!”

The breath of the huge wave swept across...

Boom!

Hundreds of thousands of people were overwhelmed by the air wave, and those who were close to each other were beaten by the breath of the huge wave, and blood flowed wildly. No matter how I closed my mouth, I couldn’t stop the blood flowing from my mouth.

The momentum of the scene is almost as if someone has been thrown over the mountain and over the sea, it is very spectacular.

“The one who stands in me, die!!” With a roar, in the world burned by the fire, where the Dragon Mountain is located, in the red circle, there is a purple armor covered in purple armor, like a human dragon head, like a human body. The terrible giants generally stood there.

The head is as big as a mountain, and the feet are like rivers. The power of the body and the tools of the body make people feel a tremendous increase in pressure. His breath is so strong that he can’t help sweating even if he is far away.

With the support of a dozen of his confidants, Lu Ruoxuan stood up awkwardly. When he saw the monster, his entire handsome face was full of shock, looking at the purple armor like a god of war in the red light. Red Dragon, completely unknown, so: "What's wrong with this?" "My son, how could this magic dragon become like this?"

"Looking at his appearance, where did he still have the dying state he had before, but it has become stronger a lot!" A group of people looked at each other, full of questions.

There was also a mess in the Immortal Sea. Even if they resisted with all their strength, they would never think that the wave of air carried by this sea of fire was so strong.

More importantly, the shape of the magic dragon at this time gave them a strong sense of ignorance.

The others, even after getting up, panicked and backed up a few steps in a row. This magic dragon was really terrifying.

"Be careful, the magic dragon is violent." In the scattered camp, George Han frowned and whispered.

"You know?" Lu Ruoxin frowned.

"Everyone on earth knows it!" George Han smiled contemptuously.

Lu Ruoxin was taken aback, everyone on earth knew that? !

"Don't be afraid, everyone, it's just the reflection of the magic dragon, it is already dying, it is not to be afraid, all stand up for me, ready to attack!" Ao Yi was full of blood, and shouted angrily.

After he got up and shouted, the people of the immortal sea were in a trance for a while, and they followed suit. Then, more and more people also stood up.

Lu Yongsheng glanced at Lu Ruoxuan. The people on the top of the Blue Mountains were waiting for his decision.

Lu Ruoxuan weighed the pros and cons, gritting his teeth and staring at the dragon.

Ao Yi's words are not without reason. The dragon has been attacked for so long and its dying is an indisputable fact that everyone has seen. It is unreasonable and suddenly becomes stronger.

Therefore, it may be the last stubbornness before the reflection! Although it may become much stronger during this period, how long can it last?

“Kill!”

Woo! !

The human offensive horn sounded again, followed by a collective offensive by tens of thousands of people.

“Roar!”

The magic dragon roared, his arms fisted, and suddenly shocked!

boom! ! ! !

The scorched earth more than one meter deep on the ground was directly lifted, and the attackers on the ground didn't even figure out what was going on, and they were swallowed by the scorched earth rippling like water!

The air waves on the ground struck simultaneously, overturning ten thousand people.

“Be careful, everyone!”

Wang Suzhi shouted loudly and attacked again with his troops.

The war between the two sides has officially entered into a fever!

However, there were only two people, standing far away at this time, stopping to watch.

“Why not?” Lu Ruoxin frowned and asked George Han who was holding him.

Even if the magic dragon is violent, it obviously won't last long. If the best time is not missed, the chains of the gods may be in the pocket of others.

“It seems... it's not just as simple as violent.” George Han's eyes were torch, staring at the magic dragon in the distance.

“You mean...”

George Han shook his head, he didn't know what to say. Boss became violent, George Han hadn't seen him before, and his strength had been greatly improved in a short period of time, but the duration was often not too long.

But the problem is that compared with the just now, the strength of this purple armored dragon is not a simple and substantial increase, but... a qualitative leap! ! !

It's just the violent reflections, how can this happen?

Intuition tells George Han that this matter is definitely not as simple as imagined.

And almost at this moment, the whole world trembled fiercely and crazily...

Chapter 2242

“The Demon’s Extinction! Ah!!!”

Boom! ! !

The purple armor on the purple armor devil dragon suddenly shined brightly, and finally turned into a purple streamer, and exploded!

brush!

Everyone just felt that their eyes were almost blinded by the purple light, one by one stopped to block!

Violet light shows off, just like sunshine!

Bang bang bang!

In the purple sun, countless light spots suddenly exploded in the air.

Countless people were directly in it, trembling and dying.

Lu Ruoxuan and the others hurriedly sacrificed their magic weapons, with full energy to resist, but they could still clearly hear the crackling explosions around them!

The energy of Wang Wenzhi was draining rapidly, and his forehead was already full of sweat: “What the hell is going on?”

“Lord, save me, I can’t stand it anymore.” The subordinate said with great difficulty.

Even if the energy is fully activated, experts at the average cultivation level feel extremely uncomfortable. Every explosion of those light spots is like an explosion in their body, and they are broken.

“How could this happen?” Lu Ruoxin asked Cangsheng and Yongxiang forcibly with a frown.

“You ask me, who do I ask to go? However, the difference between me and you is that I believe in history.” George Han said.

In the long history of the Bafang World, there has never been a shortage of people and ascetics. If the monster can be killed by the tactics of the human sea alone, how could this place be gradually forgotten by the world? The ancestors walked out with their lives and blood, and even if they were unwilling to follow along, they should not deny their existence.

Wow! ! !

The purple light was concentrated, as if going back in time, the purple light that was gushing out was absorbed again according to the original route, and heaven and earth gradually returned to black and red ginseng.

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief, just about to withdraw their defenses.

Suddenly, there was another shake between the world and the earth, and the purple light swelled, swelled, and swelled within the red circle!

“Boom!”

“Fuck, come again!” Lu Ruoxuan cursed strangely, grabbing a few disciples around him and blocking him in front of him, and then forcibly opened the energy shield to resist.

Bang bang bang!

This time, hundreds of thousands of people exploded directly.

The masters still had the strength to resist again, but the other disciples did not. Facing Ziguang Baiyao, they were bombed and crackled for a while, acupuncture points were exploded, and they fell on the scorched earth with unwilling and fearful eyes.

“Do you think that the scorched earth here is soil? No! That is the ashes of you ants!” In the red circle, the dragon roared with an extremely arrogant tone. That condescending posture shows that it is not just him. His arrogance, and his strength.

“What to do?” Lu Yongsheng said uncomfortably.

“Withdraw!” Lu Ruoxuan yelled, pushing the disciples in front of him directly in front of him to resist, turning around and ran towards the direction of the sleepy fairy valley.

As soon as the top of the Blue Mountain was withdrawn, the Immortal Sea and the Medicine God Pavilion only persisted for a few seconds before running away in a hurry.

Fortunately, those who ran slowly were even sucked into the red circle by the recycled purple light, and there was no sign of existence in this world anymore.

The first siege of hundreds of thousands of people ended in a fiasco, with at least 10,000 or 20,000 casualties!

There are only a handful of people who can retreat completely on the grassland outside the sleepy valley. Above the purple light, even those who are as strong as Lu Ruoxuan and Wang Suzhi, have always been successful in the two attacks.

George Han's gaze was torch, and he could barely see it from a distance. He could only judge from the color of the sky that the Dragon Mountain was calm again.

"This magic dragon is more powerful than we thought." Standing next to him, Lu Ruoxin couldn't help frowning.

Among hundreds of thousands of people, masters are like clouds, but unfortunately, even they can't hurt the dragon at all, and even Ziguang Sunyao has never resisted it. No one knows what the dragon has.

A cloud of failure seemed to hang over everyone's heads.

"You don't want to fight anymore?" George Han said softly.

Lu Ruoxin nodded, but quickly shook her head. From a rational point of view, she did feel that there was no hope, so instead of wasting time and energy, it was better to withdraw early. But from a psychological point of view, she is not willing to let go of it. It's all coming, is it so in vain?

Moreover, Lu Ruoxin is not the kind of person who concedes defeat!

"You want to try!?" Lu Ruoxin said.

A wicked smile suddenly appeared at the corner of George Han's mouth.

Soon afterwards, various bonfires were lit on the Kunxian Valley, but compared with the excitement of the previous few days, today's Valley is silent.

The fiasco left no one in the mood, sitting on the ground depressed one by one, looking at the direction of the Dragon Mountain that was completely submerged in darkness without saying a word.

On the side of the Sanren camp on the left, the Longevity Sect is the largest sect, or in other words, they are the largest gang in the entire Sanren camp. Compared with them, the Yujianmen led by the right camp is slightly weaker.

The head of the Longevity School, Mifang, sat in the tent, extremely depressed, and drinking with a few elders, the atmosphere was extremely weak. At this time, the servant ran in quickly, and then whispered in his ear. .

After listening, Mi Fang slapped his head with few hairs: "What are you talking about? Someone wants to kill the dragon?"
