

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2319 - 2322

Chapter 2319

Ao Shane spoke up, and Lu Wushen had to help, both for the sake of face and at the same time. It is also the honor of defending the true God.

The Lu family and the Ao family are rivals to some extent, but to some extent they have the same interests.

If the true god of the Ao family is defeated, how much will be left of the true god of the Lu family? Almost no need to think about this matter, you already know the result.

Both are true gods, in the honor of true gods. The two can be described as dying of lips and teeth, and both are prosperous.

At the beginning, Ao Shane couldn't save Lu Wushen. Lu Wushen had to help Ao Shane in turn. The reason for the two was the same.

Even if the two sides secretly surging undercurrents. But the obvious interests must be maintained.

With the addition of Lu Wushen, George's initial offensive was forced to drop a lot in an instant.

And Ao Shane also took the opportunity to breathe. After a while, he regained his strength, flipped his hand to lift the water god halberd, and directly killed George.

The two gods once again truly joined forces against George.

Unlike just now, this time, Lu Wushen and Ao Shane have no ambitions in their joint efforts. Although the two people have rarely joined hands, the masters often don't need much communication to understand the situation of the battlefield, so the tacit understanding is also very good.

Poor George had just relieved his anger, and at the same time the heart of the dragon and the blood of the magic dragon could also help him, but suddenly he encountered the siege of two masters.

"Damn, even Lu Wushen has been dispatched, don't you need to be so exaggerated?"

"Two true gods hit a mortal, is this too bullying?"

"Yes, it's like two adults hitting a child? . "

” Whatever lose win. Korea can be a drag three thousand two, Octagon against the world’s top two people. it was enough to blow him out for several lifetimes, and how many people end his life let alone have this treatment. under even able to take the With one move, the true god has no regrets in this life.”

“That’s right, no matter what, George is the eternal god in my heart. My ancestors will always follow him as an example and break out of the world as a casual person.”

Lu Ruoxin frowned and heard the discussion around him . At this time, he couldn’t help but frown.

Her mood is so complicated that she cannot express it in words. But one thing is certain, that is, can George perform miracles this time? !

Although, this answer is very slim.

“The halberd breaks the universe!”

“The sword screams for nine days!”

“The dragon roars.”

With Lu Ruoxin’s thoughts landing. Above the sky, the two true gods were already fighting with George.

The divine light of the two true gods circulates. Powerful and unexplored, George Jinguang protects his body, evil spirits surround him, and he is overbearing!

The three parties played against each other. Suddenly, it was the color of flares, lightning and thunder. The void was torn apart again, and the surrounding air was also distorted with energy fluctuations.

“Eat my axe!”

George released the evil spirits to resist Lu Wushen’s attack, and at the same time attacked Aoshi with a Pangu axe. Although it was extremely uncomfortable to be flanked, there were finally back and forth, barely supporting.

“Huh, brat, see how long you can hold on.” Ao Shane Yiji blocked George’s attack and couldn’t help but mockingly.

Only twenty rounds. George was already panting, and the strength of the two true gods was by no means bragging. As powerful as George, he had to admit that it was extremely difficult to deal with.

What happened to the death was that the majestic power of the Dragon Heart suddenly disappeared.

Drop this chain at a critical moment. It is equivalent to making George even worse.

The two true gods also clearly felt that George's energy suddenly weakened a lot, and the offensive was also declining. It was guessed that George might have been unable to hold it, so the siege came even more fierce.

After just a few rounds, George finally became more and more difficult to support. He was already unable to attack Ao Shane with the Pangu Axe, so that Ao Shane could even use offense instead of defending. Although the evil spirits could barely defend against Lu Wushen's attack, But apparently the parry was extremely reluctant.

In just an instant, the two true gods broke through George's defenses, and George was immediately caught in a desperate situation.

"Puff!"

A halberd over there!

"Wow!" A

sword over there.

Even if there are god armors such as the immortal mysterious armor and the heavenly beast basalt totem guardian, and the golden body exudes golden light, facing the attack of the true god, these powerful defenses may surpass the existence of the sky level to others, but it is not As far as the true god is concerned, it's just a few extra knives.

After a while, George was already covered with scars, and blood was constantly overflowing from the wounds.

The five-star sacred stone slowly exuded a green light in George's arms, and the green energy of Huazhongyu was doing his best to heal George.

However, this is a drop in the bucket compared to the continuous injuries caused by the two true gods.

"I want you to help me completely." George reluctantly called out to the soul of the dragon in his consciousness: "If this goes on, we both have to die."

"Don't you think..."

"Yes , I want to be enchanted again!" George said coldly.

"Re-entering the demon, you and I will be irrational, and even if you are demonized, we are not the opponents of these two guys." The soul of the dragon shook his head and sighed bitterly.

"Unless..."

two blurted out almost at the same time.

Chapter 2320

“Unless I can stay sane!”

“Unless you can stay sane!”

Almost at the same time, the two people blurted out. It's not as close to each other as the heroes.

If you can lose your senses, lead the demon blood to run away, and strengthen your own abilities, this is no way out of the way. But George and Demon Dragon Soul also knew very well, even if Yu ran away. It may not be the opponent of the two gods, the battle of talents just now is the best proof.

The only way is for George to maintain his current saneness. With his cleverness and stronger strength, he can't say whether it is the opponent of the two gods, but at least this is the only chance.

“However, if you can't stay sane, I'm afraid...”

“You're afraid that there will be no future, right?”

The soul of the dragon gave a gentle bene, and the two souls came out together, which in itself is a manifestation of madness. One time is dangerous enough. Simply relying on George's strong will and the suppression of the two true gods, was it incredible to suppress the blood of the Devil Dragon, allowing George to recover.

But next time, is there such good luck? !

Obviously, although it cannot be ruled out, the probability is extremely small.

It is more likely to be killed by someone.

Because of the relatively normal George, at least he would know to escape if he couldn't fight. He would know how to deal with it, but George, who was demonized, had only slaughter and hatred in his eyes under the influence of the blood of the magic dragon. If he wanted to fight, he would fight, and he would never die.

So...

“Don't we have a future like this now?” George grinned, extremely bitter.

After hurting these true gods, can they stand up for their face? How could they not try to find it from George? !

As for this method, it is very simple. It is to defeat George and make him pay the price he deserves, in order to kill the chickens and curse monkeys, and rejuvenate the aftermath.

“You are right, have you figured out how to hold on from demonization?” The soul of the dragon nodded.

George nodded. Although a little nervous, his eyes are very firm.

“Okay! Fight with them, do it!” With a cold voice, the Soul of the Devil Dragon was not talking.

As soon as the voice fell, George moved coldly and directly shook the left and right gods apart, and then squatted slightly to relieve the pain while accumulating energy crazily.

Seeing George’s black air regaining his body, Lu Wushen and Ao Shane immediately retreated slightly, frowning involuntarily.

“What is this kid doing? Are you planning to explode ?” The two were extremely confused. Suddenly, George stood up suddenly, opening his mouth and yelling.

“Roar!!!”

A huge roar shook the sky, and George’s entire body suspended in the air suddenly opened, and countless black evil spirits immediately exploded, Lu Wushen and Ao Shane’s clothes blowing vigorously. Swing, eyebrows fluttering.

“This kid... is demonized again?” Lu Wushen was taken aback.

“What about demonization? Isn’t it a waste, doesn’t he know the lesson just now?” Ao Shane sneered disdainfully.

“Roar!” As

soon as the voice fell, George was already covered in blood. His eyes were blood-red, his skin was white with black veins exposed, like a fierce tiger, he suddenly rushed forward with the spirit of evil spirits all over his body.

boom!

George passed. The coercion was extremely strong, and Ao Shishui God’s Halberd blocked George directly.

Ao Shane's eyes shrank slightly as he shook the somewhat numb tiger's mouth slightly. Although he was very disdainful of George's demonization, he also had to admit the fact that the demonized George's strength was indeed not bad.

Whether it's cultivation base, breath, or strength, it has increased a lot in an instant.

From a certain point of view, this is indeed a complete improvement, but for Aoshi, no matter how much progress is made, it is meaningless.

"Lu Wushen, give him a happy one at a time." With a cold smile, Ao Jin's hands were full of red light.

"Yes." Lu Wushen nodded. Although he had a lot of intentions of closing in on George, it is an indisputable fact that George was in a demon. Although he briefly regained his sanity, George had already made the situation like this, and he had to send the arrow on the string for the sake of the power of the true god. He has no choice.

"Okay, you defend, I attack!"

Ao Shane gave a cold voice, Lu Wushen's hand suddenly turned over, and then his hands slowly moved like Tai Chi, and the gods in his body continued to follow the posture of the hands. Spread out.

The divine light gathered more and more, and presented Tai Chi with the posture of his hand. In turn, this Tai Chi momentum rotates with each other and gathers more and more.

"Human God!"

Lu Wushen said softly, and the Tai Chi God's light in his hand suddenly burst into light. George, who had just rushed back back, was immediately captured, and even if it was far away, the whole body's evil spirit couldn't help flying into the Tai Chi divine light.

"Roar!"

George suddenly roared coldly, his blood-red eyes full of anger, but no matter how hard he struggled, he remained motionless, and even his whole body was slowly sucked in by the Tai Chi divine light.

"Stupid boy, Tai Chi gossip. The harder you move, the tighter you will be tied up, so you should be obediently restrained." Lu Wushen smiled helplessly.

And almost at this moment, that Ao Shane also suddenly grasped the blood in his hand.

"Breaking the military!" With a cold voice. With two fingers and a pinch, a divine light bursts out directly. Although it is only a divine light, it is by no means as simple as the surface. Its force entrains the power of thunder and is extremely overwhelming. It can even break tens of millions of enemies in one move. Destroy the momentum of decay.

Although this method seems simple, it is actually overbearing and abnormal, and the cultivation method is even more painful.

To gather all the energy between the fingers, it is conceivable how huge the force the finger can bear, and also to manipulate such a huge force, it seems easy to point and hit which way, but in reality, where is it easy?

Before being in front of George, George could already feel the huge energy contained in this divine light, and the pointed brow felt even more painful.

Although George, who was running violently at this time, was almost completely irrational, his life was threatened. Still let him roar and try to struggle.

It's a pity that Tai Chi Hua God Dafa tightly controlled his body, making him struggle no matter what. He didn't have to move half a point.

The two true gods are invincible, even if they are as strong as George? !

“George, you wicked animal. This is the end of your anger to the god, die.” With the two-finger divine light, Ao Shane came to kill George with a hideous murderous intent.

Demonized George's eyes were blood-red, and he looked at Ao Shane angrily. The anti-Buddha-defense only wanted to swallow Ao Shisheng with his eyes.

However, under the blood-red eyes, the actual soul of George has been in darkness all the time. What he is looking for...

Chapter 2321

In the boundless darkness, with his fingers out of reach, George only thought it was dark here, and he called the Soul of the Devil Dragon. There was no response from the other party, and he seemed to be the only one around him.

George quickly understood that his consciousness had entered a strange realm, or that his body was controlled by the blood of the magic dragon...

Boom! !

Sure enough, around the side. Suddenly there was a shadow attack, and the offensive was extremely fierce.

“You are the enchanted person!” George looked at the sudden appearance of dark shadows coldly.

He knows that this is the soul of the dragon!

Although, after being enchanted, he would not answer himself. But George had already had experience fighting him when he was enchanted earlier.

This is a part of your body.

Hum!

With the reappearance of the dark shadows around, George felt a headache, and various pictures came to his mind for the first time.

All the abuses and contempt in the Su Family on Earth, all the unfair treatment and abuse in Xuanyuan World, and the painful scenes of Amelia being locked up in the Fujia Heaven Prison, and Nian'er's poisonous body with desperate eyes Looking at herself...

and...

and Lu Ruoxin told herself all the truth about Flint City...

George's anger was constantly ignited, and the whole person was furious.

He is not a saint. How can there be no emotions? Especially related to Amelia and Han Nian.

And with his anger, he felt that he had merged with the darkness here, the shadows in the darkness no longer attacked him, the headaches disappeared, and he felt extremely comfortable.

He is the darkness, darkness, and himself.

Thinking of this, he closed his eyes slightly, enjoying the peace and comfort that the darkness brought him. There were no memories of the pain and embarrassment of the talent.

But suddenly. George's sinking consciousness suddenly lit up in the darkness with a ray of light.

"Amelia, Nian'er!"

Suddenly. George opened his eyes.

He can't just go on like this, if it is. What about Amelia? ! What should Han Nian do? !

And as soon as he opened his eyes, the shadows around him suddenly moved, and the painful sensation of that kind of headache made him feel unhappy again.

That kind of pain is really pain that makes people want to die immediately. Although death is uncomfortable, it is much better than it is now.

“Mortal. Give up struggling and become one with the deity. Revenge for the injustice you have suffered for the person you love.” In the darkness, the voice of the dragon soul came.

just. George knew that this was definitely not the soul of the magic dragon. No, to be precise, he was, but he was no longer the magic dragon who had just talked with him indifferently.

He is the dragon who was really introduced to runaway by the blood!

“I will naturally take revenge. But I will never need your help.” George said coldly.

“Ant, only the deity can avenge you! This is your honour. You shouldn’t refuse.”

“But if I refuse?”

“Then you will be condemned by your conscience and tormented like death, just like Ten times, or even a hundred times what you have experienced just now.”

“I know.” George smiled coldly, his firm eyes filled with longing for Amelia and Han Nian: “If you don’t say my fate is up to me, I can’t help it. Just my body, then I have the final say!”

“Come on!”

“Arrogant!”

Hum!

The shadows all around suddenly moved, and there was even more intense pressure on their faces.

“what!”

George felt that his body was constantly being backlogged against Buddha, and his internal organs were even squeezed into blood flowing out of his body.

And the head is an indescribable severe pain. There are also pictures of extremely painful memories interspersed in the middle.

Rao is George with a very strong mind, and his endurance is unmatched by ordinary people. But under such circumstances, the body and mind are painful. It is also unbearable.

However, just as the old sweeping man and the Bahuang Tianshu said, to break this situation, George must be strong enough to be able to do what ordinary people cannot.

The only condition that supports him is Amelia.

“How can there be any smooth sailing on the road to becoming a god against the sky? If you want to jump high, you have to suffer the pain that ordinary people can't bear. You need to know that all gains are exchanged for equivalent sacrifices.”

“The scenery in front of people . . . All have experienced endless torture behind. With the worst body of the earth, to have a piece of heaven and earth of your own in a high-level world such as the Bafang world, the road that must be taken is far more tortuous than others. If it sinks, even Lu Wushen and Ao Shane let him go, and he can only fall into the magic way forever and become a puppet of the soul of the dragon, if he succeeds...” In the world of heavenly books, two old men have already appeared in George's bamboo house. Cha Yiqi, and laughed softly.

“If it succeeds, it will be the will of God!” The Eight Desolation Book of Heaven laughed and fell in one fell swoop!

“General!”

At this time, George in the dark world was suffering, struggling, and even gradually dying.

But just when the light of his body was about to disappear, there was a little light that never extinguished, even allowing him to radiate again in the dark world, and become bigger and bigger...

Chapter 2322

“Three thousand, do you know? No matter what you say, I will always believe in you.”

“Yes, Dad, Nian'er is not afraid at all, because Nian'er knows. Dad will Protect Nian'er forever and not let Nian'er suffer any harm.”

“Three thousand, the food is cold, hurry up and eat.”

When the light re-emitted, there were countless painful images in George's brain. Bursts of sweet moments.

“Welcome the summer, Nian'er!”

“Wait for me, I will definitely save you.” And it was this sweet moment that was born of the faith and longing that George kept after experiencing the bombardment of the body and mind. .

But that's it. A single spark can start a prairie fire.

“Come on, Demon Dragon, even if you beat me into Yama, George, I will never lower my head.” “My fate is in my hands, you. Get out of me!”

“Roar!”

Boom! ! !

As George yelled out of anger, the light in his body suddenly released, until it illuminated the entire dark space, causing the entire space to bloom in white light...

Buzz! !

At this time, Ao Shane’s Pojun Erzhi had reached less than three meters in front of George, and the divine light between his two fingers had reached the center of George’s eyebrows.

“The golden body protects me!”

Of course, at this moment, the blood-red-eyed George yelled anxiously, followed by a flash of light on his body. At the moment of his death, George broke free from the method of the Taiji Transformation God, and turned over, although he could not escape the two fingers. An all-out offensive of the smashing army. But at least the slightest deviation.

Shenmang suddenly deviated and hit George. George’s whole body was shot and flew several meters away. The golden light of his body and the spirit of evil spirits also dimmed slightly at the same time, and there were strong bursts in his mind and body. Tingling.

Although the two-finger breaking army god is extremely domineering, ordinary people may even be destroyed under this attack, but George has a golden body at the critical moment. In addition, although George has relatively poor offense, he has to talk about defense. However, there are few rivals.

There are also the immortal mysterious armor, the five elements god stone, and the golden body hidden. Even if the army is broken, it only hurts him and wants to kill him. How easy it is!

George knelt on the ground slightly, his blood-red eyes disappeared halfway, revealing clear and clean eyes. However, the blood red hasn’t all disappeared like last time, but a lot of it remains.

This also means. The blood of the Devil Dragon is still in a state of rampage, and the Qi of the Devil is still at its peak, but George’s consciousness has re-dominated the body, controlling the blood of the Devil.

His body, he is the master!

His bet with the magic dragon was also right.

“Lu Wushen, are you still releasing the water at this time?” Ao Shane shot down and stared at Lu Wushen in dissatisfaction.

Lu Wushen had a hard time saying. Although he has compassion, but that was before, how can it be now? George broke free from the method of Tai Chi God. Even he himself did not reflect what was going on!

But is the explanation useful? How could Aoshi believe it?

“Damn, I have to force Lao Tzu to use a big killer move!” Ao Shane snorted dissatisfied, and with a movement of his hand, the divine light of blood and black suddenly turned into a sea of stars behind him.

And almost at this time, George, who was kneeling sideways, also slowly stood up.

Face Ao Shane. Indifferent and cold in his eyes.

“Beiming’s Four Soul Formation, one transforms two, two transforms four. Open!”

“Pangu Axe Formation, open!”

“Guardian of the Four Gods and Heavenly Beasts, open!”

“Five Elements God Stone, rise!”

“Skyfire Moon Wheel, rise! “

“The golden body will protect me again!”

Boom! !

For a time, the four leaps of the black evil spirit. His hair was red and white, and there were bursts of golden light lined up on his body. After that, various magic weapons and magic weapons rose in the air.

The Five Elements God Stone is also transformed into four. The top of the heads of the four silhouettes exudes a slight golden light!

“Come on, if you want to fight, then fight!”

Boom! ! !

With four shouts, the sky fire moon wheel transformed into eight energies, separated into four bodies, ready to go!

“Come on, arrogant child, am I still afraid that you won’t make it?” Ao Shane snorted, his body turned into an afterimage, and he directly attacked George, which was passed by the phantom. Pull up bursts of bloody seas to prevent Folsom from hell.

boom!

Thousands of afterimages directly blasted towards Si Dao George’s real body.

Han three thousand waists and horses united as one, and the four figures raised the Pangu axe. Simultaneously welcome tens of thousands of afterimages, it is a slash!

boom!

Above the head, thousands of giant axes seemed to sense the call of the master. He vented down and attacked Ao Shane’s thousands of afterimages.

The five-star sacred stone also suddenly changed its color, emitting a faint three-color light, shining on the real body.

The four real bodies were almost at the same time, and a golden body was looming.

boom! ! !

The two fought against each other, but they were like thousands of troops and horses fighting at the same time, exploding all at once, and all kinds of lights were shining, rendering the whole world magnificent and brilliant.

Wow! !

Above the ground, everyone was stunned by this shocking scene. Such a magnificent scene was simply shocking.

But one person was shocked and confused.

Seeing the looming golden body of George, he only felt a strong pressure radiating from it, and even felt the pressure rise sharply to make the true god self.

“What is that?” Lu Wushen frowned and murmured.
